in all the streambeds of the land.

All the people of the earth have come out from its shade and abandoned it.

¹³All the birds of the sky lived on its fallen trunk and all the beasts of the field upon its fallen branches.

¹⁴So none of all the trees by the water should exalt themselves in their height or set their top among the leafy boughs.
None of their well-watered mighty ones should attain their height.

For they have all been given to death,
to the lowest regions under the earth, among the children of men who go down to the Pit.”

¹⁵Thus says ADONAI Elohim:

“In the day when he went down to Sheol
I caused the deep to mourn and cover itself for him.

I restrained his rivers,
so the great waters were stopped.

I made Lebanon mourn for him.
All the trees of the field wilt away for it.

¹⁶I made the nations tremble at the sound of its fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the Pit.

All the well-watered trees of Eden,
the choice and best of Lebanon, were comforted in the lowest parts of the earth.

¹⁷They also went down with him to Sheol, to those slain by the sword,
those who were his mighty arm,
who lived in his shadow among the nations.

¹⁸“Who is like you in glory and greatness among the trees of Eden?

You will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lowest parts of the earth.
You will lie among the uncircumcised,
with those slain by the sword.’

This is Pharaoh and all his multitude.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Lamentations for Pharaoh

¹On the first day of the twelfth month of the twelfth year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²“Son of man, lift up a lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him:

‘You compare yourself to a young lion of the nations, but you are a crocodile in the waters.
You thrash about in your rivers and muddy the water with your feet and foul their streams.’”

³Thus says ADONAI Elohim:

“I will throw My net over you with a host of many peoples.
They will haul you up in My net.

⁴I will leave you on the land.
I will hurl you on an open field.
I will cause all the birds of the sky to settle upon you.

I will gorge the beasts of the whole earth with you.

⁵I will strew your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your refuse.

⁶I will drench the land with the flow of your blood up to the hills.

The ravines will be full of you.

⁷When I extinguish you,
I will cover the sky and darken
the stars.

I will cover the sun with cloud, and the moon will not give her light.^a

⁸I will darken all of heaven's bright lights over you and set darkness on your land."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

⁹"I will disturb the hearts of many peoples when I bring about your destruction among the nations, into lands you have not known.

¹⁰I will make many people appalled at you.

Their kings will be totally aghast at you when I brandish My sword over you.

They will shudder every moment,
every man for his own life,
on the day of your downfall."

¹¹For thus says ADONAI Elohim:
"The sword of the king of Babylon will come upon you.

¹²By the swords of the mighty I will cause your multitude to fall.
They are all ruthless among the nations.

They will devastate the pride of Egypt.
All of its multitude will be annihilated.

¹³I will destroy all the beasts from beside plentiful water.

No human foot will muddy them again,
nor will hoofs of beasts muddy them.

¹⁴Then I will make their waters settle and make their streams flow like oil."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁵"When I make the land of Egypt desolate and waste when it was previously full, when I strike all that live there,
they will know that I am ADONAI.

¹⁶This is the funeral song —chant it, daughters of the nations, chant for Egypt.

All her multitude will chant it."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁷On the fifteenth day of the month in the twelfth year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying:

¹⁸"Son of man,
wail over Egypt's throng.

Bring them down
—her and the daughters of lofty nations, to the underworld, to those who go down to the pit.

¹⁹Who do you surpass in beauty?
Go down, lie with the uncircumcised.

²⁰They fall among those slain by the sword.

She is given over to the sword.

They drag her down with all her throng.

²¹The strongest warriors will speak of him and his allies from the midst of Sheol.

They have gone down,
they lie still, the uncircumcised,
slain by the sword.

²²"Assyria is there and all her company, their graves surround them

—all of them slain, fallen by the sword.

²³Her graves are set in the deepest parts of the Pit.

Her company surrounds her grave
—all of them slain, fallen by the sword
—who put terror in the land of the living.

²⁴"There is Elam and all her multitude surrounding her grave

—all of them slain, fallen by the sword
—who went down uncircumcised into the underworld, who caused terror
in the land of the living.

They bear their disgrace with those who go down to the Pit.

²⁵They have made her a bed among the slain with all her throng, her graves about them

—all of them uncircumcised, slain, fallen by the sword—
though they caused terror in the land

of the living.
So they bear their disgrace with those who go down to the Pit.
They are laid among the slain.

²⁶“Meshech-Tubal is there and all her throng, her graves around them —all of them uncircumcised,
slain by the sword,
though they spread their terror in the land of the living.

²⁷They do not lie with the mighty,
the fallen from among the uncircumcised, who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war.

They put their swords under their heads.
Their iniquities rest on their bones because the terror of the mighty ones was in the land of the living.

²⁸You also will be shattered and lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword.

²⁹“Edom is there,
her kings and all her princes, who for all their might are laid with those slain by the sword.
They lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the Pit.

³⁰“The princes of the north are there,
all of them, all the Zidonians, who have gone down with the slain, ashamed for all the terror that they caused by their might.

They lie uncircumcised with those slain by the sword.
They bear their disgrace with those who go down to the pit.

³¹When Pharaoh sees them, he will be comforted for all his throng, Pharaoh and all his army,
slain by the sword.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

³²“For I have put My terror
in the land of the living.
He will lie among the uncircumcised,
with those slain by the sword,
Pharaoh and all his multitude.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Watchman, Blow the Shofar

¹The word of ADONAI came to me saying:
²“Son of man, speak to the children of your people and say to them: ‘When I bring the sword upon a land, suppose the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him as their watchman. ³If, when he sees the sword coming upon the land, he blows the shofar and warns the people, ⁴then whoever hears the sound of the shofar but ignores the warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. ⁵He heard the sound of the shofar and ignored the warning; his blood will be on himself.
However, if he had taken warning, he would have saved his soul. ⁶But if the watchman sees the sword come and does not blow the shofar, the people are not warned. Then the sword does come and takes a person from among them—he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman’s hand.’

⁷“You, son of man, I have set you as a watchman for the house of Israel. When you hear the word from My mouth, warn them from Me. ⁸When I say to the wicked:
‘Wicked one, you will surely die!’ and you do not speak to warn the wicked about his way—that wicked one will die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. ⁹If you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it and he does not turn from his way, then he will die in his iniquity—but you have saved your soul.

¹⁰“You, son of man, say to the house of Israel: ‘You have said, “Surely our transgressions and our sins are upon us and we are pining away in them. So how can we live.”’ ¹¹Say to them: ‘As I live’—it is a declaration of ADONAI—‘I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Return, return from your evil ways. Why will you die, O house of Israel?’

¹²“You, son of man, say to the children of your people: ‘The righteousness of the righteous person will not deliver him in the day of his transgression. Nor will the wickedness of the wicked person make him stumble in it on the day he turns away from his wickedness. Nor will the righteous person be able to live by it on the day he sins. ¹³ When I tell the righteous that he will surely live, but he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered. But in his iniquity that he has committed, he will die. ¹⁴ When I say to the wicked, "You will surely die," yet he turns from his sin and does what is just and right—¹⁵ if the wicked restores a pledge, gives back what he had taken by robbery, walks in the laws of life, committing no iniquity—he will surely live, he will not die. ¹⁶ None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done what is just and right; he will surely live.'

¹⁷ "Yet the children of your people say, 'The way of ADONAI isn't fair!' but it is their way, theirs that is unfair. ¹⁸ When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will die in it. ¹⁹ When a wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live by it. ²⁰ Yet you say, 'The way of ADONAI is not fair!' House of Israel, I will judge every one of you according to his ways."

Jerusalem Falls

²¹ In the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a survivor from Jerusalem came to me saying, "The city has been struck down." ²² The hand of ADONAI had been upon me in the evening, before the survivor came. He had opened my mouth by the time of his coming to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer mute.

²³ Then the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²⁴ "Son of man, the inhabitants of these ruins in the land of Israel keep saying, 'Abraham was only one, yet he inherited the land. Since we are many, the land is given to us as a possession.'

you possess the land? ²⁶ You rely on your sword, commit abominations and each of you defiles his neighbor's wife. Should you possess the land?' ²⁷ Say this to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: 'As I live, surely those who are in the ruins will fall by the sword. Whoever is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and whoever is in the strongholds and in the caves will die of the plague. ²⁸ I will make the land a desolation and a horror. The pride of her power will cease. The mountains of Israel will be desolate, so that no one will pass through.' ²⁹ They will know that I am ADONAI, when I have made the land a desolate waste, because of all their abominations that they have committed."

³⁰ "Now as for you, son of man, the children of your people are talking about you by the walls and in the doorways of the houses. Each one speaks to one another, each saying to his brother: 'Come now, hear what message is coming forth from ADONAI!' ³¹ So they come to you, as people come, and sit before you as My people and hear your words—but they do not do them—for with their mouth they express doting love, but their heart goes after their own dishonest gain. ³² Look, you are like a love song to them, one who has a beautiful voice and can play well on an instrument. They hear your words, but do not practice them. ³³ When this comes to pass—behold, it is coming—they will know that a prophet has been among them."

ADONAI, Our Shepherd

up the broken, bring back the stray or seek the lost. Instead, you have ruled over them with force and cruelty. ⁵They were scattered for lack of a shepherd. They became food for all the beasts of the field as they were scattered. ⁶My sheep wandered through all the mountains and on every high hill. Over all the face of the earth My sheep were scattered. No one searched. No one sought.”

⁷Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of ADONAI: ⁸“As I live”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“as surely as My sheep became prey and My sheep became food for all the beasts of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My sheep,” ⁹therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of ADONAI, ¹⁰thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Behold, I am against the shepherds and I will demand My flock from their hand. I will dismiss them from tending the flock. The shepherds will no longer feed themselves. I will rescue My sheep from their mouth, so they will not be food for them.”

¹¹For thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Here I am! I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out. ¹²As a shepherd seeks out his sheep on the day he is among his scattered flock, so I will seek out My sheep. I will rescue them out of all the places where they have been scattered, on a day of cloud and thick darkness. ¹³I will bring them out from the peoples. I will gather them from the countries. I will bring them back to their own land. I will shepherd them upon the mountains of Israel, by the streams and in all the habitable places of the land. ¹⁴I will shepherd them in a good pasture—their grazing place will be on the high mountains of Israel. There they will lie down on good grazing ground. They will feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I will tend My flock and make them lie down”—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁶“I will seek the lost, bring back the stray, bind up the broken and strengthen the sick. But the fat and the strong I will destroy—I will tend them with justice. ¹⁷As for you, My flock”—thus says ADONAI Elohim—“behold, I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and male goats. ^a ¹⁸Was it too little for you that you were feeding in the good pasture? Must you trample down the rest of your pastures with your feet? You were drinking clear water. Must you muddy the rest with your feet? ¹⁹Yet My sheep must eat what you have trampled with your feet and drink what you have muddied with your feet!”

²⁰Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim to them: “Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹Because you thrust with your side and with shoulder and gore all the weak with your horns, until you have scattered them all over, ²²I will save My flock. They will no longer be prey. I will judge between sheep and sheep. ²³So I will set up One Shepherd over them, My servant David—He will tend them, He will feed them Himself and be their shepherd. ^b ²⁴I, ADONAI, will be their God, and My servant David will be Prince among them. I, ADONAI, have spoken.

²⁵“I will make a covenant of shalom with them. I will remove the evil beasts from the land, so they may dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest. ²⁶I will make them and the places around My hill a blessing. I will cause the rain to come down in its season. There will be showers of blessing. ²⁷The tree of the field will yield its fruit. The ground will yield its produce. They will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am ADONAI, when I have broken the bars of their yoke and have delivered them from the hand of those who enslaved them. ²⁸They will no longer be prey to the nations. The beast of the earth will not devour them. They will live in security. No one will make them afraid. ²⁹I will make their agriculture renowned. They will no longer be consumed with hunger in the land. They will no longer bear the scorn of the nations. ³⁰They will know that I, ADONAI their God, am with them. They, the house of Israel, are My people.” It is a declaration of ADONAI. ³¹“So you, My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, you are human, and I am your God.” It is a declaration of ADONAI Elohim.

Edom Made Desolate

¹The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²“Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it. ³Say to it, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir. I will stretch out My hand over you and make you utterly desolate. ⁴I will lay your cities waste. You will be devastated. So you will know that I am ADONAI.

¹⁰“Because you said: ‘These two nations and these two lands will be mine! We will possess them’—though ADONAI was there—¹¹“therefore, as I live”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“I will deal with you with the same anger and envy that you had because of your hatred against them. I will make Myself known among them, when I judge you. ¹²You will know that I, ADONAI, have heard all your blasphemies that you uttered against the mountains of Israel saying: “They are laid desolate—they are given for us to devour!” ¹³You have magnified yourselves against Me with your mouth. You multiplied your words against Me. I heard it.”

¹⁴Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. ¹⁵As you rejoiced over inheriting the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You will be desolate, Mount Seir and all Edom—all of it. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.”

Comfort to the Land of Israel

¹“You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say: ‘Mountains of Israel, hear the word of ADONAI. ²Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “The enemy has said against you, ‘Aha! Even the ancient high places have become our possession!’ ³Therefore prophesy and say, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Because they ravaged and crushed you from every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations and you became the talk and evil gossip of people,’ ⁴therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of ADONAI, thus says ADONAI Elohim to the mountains, the hills, the streams and the valleys, the desolate wastes and the cities that are forsaken, which have become prey and derision to the rest of the surrounding nations. ⁵Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Surely in the fire of My wrath I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, that have taken My land for themselves as a possession with the joy of all their heart and contempt in their souls, in order to seize it as plunder.’ ⁶Therefore, prophesy to the land of Israel and say to the mountains and the hills, the streams and the valleys, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I have spoken in My wrath and in My fury, because you have suffered the scorn of the nations.’ ⁷Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘I have lifted My hand. Surely the nations that surround you will themselves suffer scorn.

⁸“But you, mountains of Israel, you will shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit for My people Israel; for their return is near. ⁹For behold, I am for you. I will turn to you. You will be tilled and sown. ¹⁰I will settle a large population upon you—the whole house of Israel, all of it. The cities will be inhabited. The desolate places will be built up. ¹¹I will multiply man and beast upon you. They will increase and be fruitful. I will cause you to be inhabited as you were before. I will do better for you than at your beginnings. You will know that I am ADONAI. ¹²I will cause people, my people Israel, to walk upon you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer deprive them of children.”

¹³Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Because they say to you, ‘You are a devourer of men and you deprive your nation of children,’ ¹⁴therefore you will no longer devour men and you will no longer deprive your nation of children.” It is a declaration of ADONAI. ¹⁵“I will no longer let the scorn of the nations be heard against you. You will no longer bear disgrace from the peoples. You will no longer cause your nation to stumble.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁶The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁷“Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their deeds. Their way before Me was like the uncleanness of a woman in her niddah. ¹⁸So I poured out My fury on them for the blood which they had shed upon the land and because they had defiled it with their idols. ¹⁹I scattered them among the nations, so they were dispersed through the countries. According to their way and their deeds I judged them. ²⁰Wherever they went among the nations, they profaned My holy Name, since it was said about them, ‘These are the people of ADONAI, yet they had to leave His land.’ ²¹But I had concern for My holy Name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations wherever they went.

²²“Therefore say to the house of Israel, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘I do not do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for My holy Name, which you profaned among the nations wherever you went. ²³I will sanctify My great Name, which has been profaned among the nations—which you have profaned among them. The nations will know that I am ADONAI’”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“when I am sanctified in you before their eyes.”

New Heart, New Spirit

gather you out of all the countries and bring you back to your own land. ²⁵Then I will sprinkle clean water on you and you will be clean from all your uncleanness and from all your idols. ²⁶Moreover I will give you a new heart. I will put a new spirit within you. I will remove the stony heart from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷I will put My Ruach within you. Then I will cause you to walk in My laws, so you will keep My rulings and do them. ²⁸Then you will live in the land that I gave to your fathers. You will be My people and I will be your God.

²⁹“So I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and make it plentiful. I will not bring a famine upon you. ³⁰I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field, so that you will no longer bear the disgrace of famine among the nations. ³¹When you remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, you will be disgusted with yourselves because of your iniquities and your abominations. ³²Not for your sake will I do this”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“let that be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel!”

³³Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “In the day that I pronounce you clean from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited and the ruins will be rebuilt. ³⁴The land that was desolate will be tilled instead of being a wasteland in the sight of all that passed by. ³⁵They will say, ‘This land that was a wasteland has become like the garden of Eden. The waste, desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.’ ³⁶Then the nations that are left all around you will know that I, ADONAI, have rebuilt the ruined places, and replanted what was desolate. I, ADONAI, have spoken it. So I will do it.”

³⁷Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “I will again be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them—I will populate them with people like a flock. ³⁸Like the holy flock, like the flock of Jerusalem during her moadim, so the waste cities will be filled with flocks of people. ^bThen they will know that I am ADONAI.”

Dry Bones Live

¹The hand of ADONAI was upon me. The Ruach ADONAI carried me out and set me down in the middle of the valley. It was full of bones.

²He led me all around them. Behold, there were very many on the floor of the valley. Behold, they were very dry. ³Then He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?”^a

I answered, “ADONAI Elohim, You know.”

⁴“Prophesy over these bones,” He said to me. “Say to them: ‘Dry bones, hear the word of ADONAI!’⁵ Thus says ADONAI Elohim to these bones: “Behold, I will cause Ruach^b to enter you, so you will live. ⁶I will attach tendons to you, bring flesh on you and cover you with skin. Then I will put breath in you. You will live. You will know that I am ADONAI.”

⁷So I prophesied just as I was commanded. As I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, an earthquake. Then the bones came together, bone to its bone. ⁸I saw, and behold, there were tendons on them, flesh came up and skin covered them above, but there was no breath in them.

⁹Then He said to me, “Prophesy to the Ruach. Prophesy, son of man, and say to the Ruach, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Come from the four winds, Ruach! Breathe upon these slain, that they may live.’” ¹⁰So I prophesied just as He commanded me. The Ruach came into them and they lived. They stood up on their feet, a vast army.

¹¹Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say: ‘Our bones are dried up; our hope is lost; we are cut off—by ourselves.’” ¹²Therefore prophesy and say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I will open your graves. I will bring you up out of your graves, My people. I will bring you back to the land of Israel. ¹³You will know that I am ADONAI, when I have opened your graves and brought you up out of your graves, My people. ¹⁴I will put

My Ruach in you and you will live. I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I, ADONAI, have spoken and that I have done it.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Reunification of Southern and Northern Kingdoms

¹⁵The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁶“You, son of man, take one stick and write on it, ‘For Judah’—for Bnei-Yisrael joined with him. Then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph’—the stick of Ephraim and all the house of Israel joined with him. ¹⁷Join them one to another for yourself, as one stick, so they may become one in your hand.

¹⁸“When the children of your people speak to you saying, ‘Won’t you tell us what you mean by these?’” ¹⁹say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph—which is in the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel joined with him—and I will put them together with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick. They will be one in My hand.’ ²⁰The sticks that you write on will be in your hand before their eyes.

²¹“Then say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I will take Bnei-Yisrael from among the nations, where they have gone. I will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land. ²²I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will be king to them all. They will no longer be two nations and never again be divided into two kingdoms. ²³They will never again be defiled with their idols, their detestable things or with any of their transgressions. I will save them out of all their dwellings in which they sinned. I will purify them. Then they will be My people and I will be their God. ²⁴My servant David will be king over them. They will all have One Shepherd. They will walk in My ordinances and observe My rulings and do them. ²⁵They will live in the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, where your ancestors lived. They will live there—they, their children and their children’s children, forever, and My servant David will be their prince forever. ²⁶I will cut a covenant of shalom with them—it will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will give to them and multiply them. I will set up My Sanctuary among them forever.^c ²⁷My dwelling-place will be over them. I will be their God and they will be My people. ²⁸Then the nations will know that I am ADONAI who sanctifies Israel, when My Sanctuary is in their midst forever.”

Gog's Alliance Invades Israel

⁷“Be prepared, prepare yourself, you and all your company gathered around you. Be a guard for them. ⁸After many days you will be summoned. In the latter years, you will come against the land that has been brought back from the sword and regathered from many peoples on the mountains of Israel, which had been a continual waste. But they were brought out from the peoples. When all of them are dwelling securely, ⁹you will come up, you will come like a storm, you will be like a cloud covering the land—you and all your troops and many peoples with you.”

¹⁰Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “It will come to pass in that day that things will come into your heart and you will devise an evil plan. ¹¹You will say, ‘I will go up against the land of unwalled villages. I will fall upon the quiet people who live securely, all of them living without walls, having no bars or gates,¹² in order to seize spoil and carry off plunder, to turn your hand against the waste places now inhabited and against the people gathered from the nations, who have been acquiring livestock and property, who live in the center of the world.’

¹⁴“Therefore, son of man, prophesy, say to Gog, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘In that day when My people Israel dwell safely, will you not know? ¹⁵You will come from your place out of the extreme north—you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and mighty army. ¹⁶You will come up against My people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the last days. I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me—when I am sanctified through you, Gog, before their eyes.”

¹⁷Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Are you the one that I spoke about in former times through My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸In that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“My fury will rise up in My nostrils. ¹⁹In My jealousy and the fire of My wrath I have spoken! Surely in that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰The fish of the sea, the birds of the heavens, the beasts of the field, all creeping things that creep upon the ground and all humans upon the face of the earth will shake at My presence. The mountains will be thrown down. The steep places will fall. Every wall will fall to the ground. ²¹I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“every man’s sword will be against his brother. ²²I will punish him with pestilence and blood. I will pour out rain on him, on his troops and on the many peoples with him, a torrential rain, with hailstones, fire and brimstone. ²³So I will magnify and sanctify Myself. I will make Myself known in the eyes of many nations, and they will know that I am ADONAI.”

Destruction of Gog

¹“You, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. ²I will turn you around, drive you along, and lead you up from the extreme north. I will bring you upon the mountains of Israel. ³Then I will strike your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand. ⁴You will fall on the mountains of Israel—you, all your troops and the people that are with you. I will give you as food to all kinds of birds of prey and to the beasts of the field. ⁵You will fall on an open field, for I have spoken.’” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

⁶“I will send fire on Magog and on those who live securely in the islands. Then they will know that I am ADONAI. ⁷So I will make My holy Name known among My people Israel. I will not let My holy Name be profaned anymore. The nations will know that I am ADONAI, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸Behold, it is coming. It will be done”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“this is the day that I have spoken about.

⁹“The inhabitants of Israel’s cities will go out and kindle fires with the weapons—shields and breastplates, bows and arrows, war clubs and spears. They will make fires with them for seven years. ¹⁰They will not take wood out of the field or cut anything from the forests, for they will make fire from the weapons. They will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹¹“On that day, I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of the travelers east of the sea. It will block those who travel through, since they will bury Gog and all his multitude there. Then they will call it the valley of Hamon-Gog. ¹²The house of Israel will bury them for seven months, in order to cleanse the land. ¹³All the people of the land will bury them. It will be memorable for them, a day when I am glorified.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁴“Men will be continually set apart to travel through the land and bury the travelers remaining on the face of the land, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months, they will make their search. ¹⁵When they travel through the land, if any sees a man’s bone, he will set up a sign by it, until the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog. ¹⁶Hamonah will also be the name of the city. So they will cleanse the land.

¹⁷“You, son of man”—thus says ADONAI Elohim—“say to every kind of bird and to every beast of the field: ‘Assemble and come! Gather from all around to My sacrificial feast that I have prepared for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. You will eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth—as rams, lambs, goats, bulls—all of them fatlings of Bashan. ¹⁹So you will eat fat until you are gorged and you will drink blood until you are drunk, from My sacrificial feast that I have prepared for you. ²⁰You will be filled at My table with horses and horsemen, with mighty men and all the warriors.’” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Israel Will Know ADONAI

²¹“I will put My glory among the nations. All the nations will see My judgment that I will execute and My hand that I will lay on them. ²²The house of Israel will know that I am ADONAI their God, from that day onward. ²³The nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile for their iniquity, because they broke faith with Me. So I hid My face from them and gave them into the hand of their enemies. All of them fell by the sword. ²⁴I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their transgressions. I hid My face from them.”

²⁵Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Now I will restore Jacob from exile, when I have compassion on the whole house of Israel. I will be zealous for My holy Name. ²⁶They will bear their shame and all their disloyalty by which they broke faith with Me, when they were living securely in their land, with no one making them afraid. ²⁷When I have brought them back from the peoples and have gathered them out of their enemies’ lands, I will be sanctified in them in the eyes of many nations. ²⁸Then they will know that I am ADONAI their God, since it was I who caused them to go into exile among the nations and I who will gather them back to their own land. I will never again leave them there. ²⁹I will never again hide My face from them. For I have poured out My Ruach upon the house of Israel.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Measurements of a New Temple

¹In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month—in the fourteenth year after the city was struck down, on that very day—the hand of ADONAI was on me, and He brought me there. ²In visions God brought me to the land of Israel and set me down upon a very high mountain. On it, toward the south, was something like the construction of a city. ³He brought me there, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like bronze.^b He had a linen cord in his hand and a measuring rod.^c He was standing in the gateway.

⁴The man said to me, “Son of man, see with your eyes, hear with your ears, set your heart on all that I show you—for I brought you here in order to show you—and report all that you see to the house of Israel.”

⁵Behold, an outer wall was all around the House. The measuring rod in the man’s hand was six cubits long,^d each of which was a normal cubit and a handbreadth. When he measured the thickness of the wall structure, it was one rod, and the height was one rod.

⁶Then he went to the gate that faced east and went up its steps. When he measured the threshold of the gate, it was one rod wide. Also the other threshold was one rod wide. ⁷Each guard chamber was one rod long and one rod wide. The space between the chambers was five cubits. The threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate, facing the House, measured one rod. ⁸When he measured the porch of the gate toward the House, it was one rod. ⁹When he measured the porch of the gate, it was eight cubits; its pillars were two cubits. The porch of the gate faced the House. ¹⁰Now the guard chambers of the east gate were three on this side, and three on the other side—the three had the same measurement. The side pillars had the same measure on this side and on that side. ¹¹When he measured the width of the entrance of the gate, it was ten cubits, and the length of the gate was 13 cubits. ¹²A barrier wall was in front of the guard chambers, one cubit on each side. Each chamber was six cubits on each side. ¹³When he measured the gate from the roof of the one chamber to the roof of the other, the width was 25 cubits, door facing door. ¹⁴Then he did the pillars—60 cubits. A gateway extended all around to the pillar of the courtyard. ¹⁵Now from the front of the gate of the entrance to the front of the inner porch of the gate measured 50 cubits. ¹⁶There were shuttered windows toward the chambers and toward their pillars within the surrounding gate, and likewise the porches had windows all around inside. On each pillar were palm trees.

¹⁷Then he brought me to the outer court.^e Behold, there were rooms and pavement, made for the surrounding court, with 30 rooms along the pavement. ¹⁸The pavement was by the side of the gates, as wide as the gates were long. This was the lower pavement. ¹⁹He measured the width from the front of the lower gate to the exterior front of the

²⁰Next he measured the length and width of the gate of the outer court facing toward the north. ²¹Its guard chambers were three on this side and three on that side. Its pillars and its porches had the same measurements as the first gate—50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ²²Its windows, porches and palm trees were the same measurements as the gate facing toward the east. Its stairway had seven steps, and its porch was in front of them. ²³A gate to the inner court was opposite the other gate, northward and eastward. He measured 100 cubits from gate to gate.

²⁴Then he led me toward the south, and behold, there was a gate toward the south. He measured its pillars and its porches. They had the same measurements. ²⁵The gate and its porch had windows all around, like the other windows, 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ²⁶Its stairway had seven steps, and its porches were in front of them. It had palm-trees on its pillars, one on this side and another on that side. ²⁷There was a gate to the inner court toward the south. He measured from gate to gate toward the south—100 cubits.

²⁸Then he brought me to the inner court through the south gate. When he measured the south gate, it had the same measurements. ²⁹Its chambers, pillars and porch had the same measurements. There were windows in it and in the surrounding porch. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ³⁰There were porches all around, 25 cubits long and five cubits wide. ³¹Its porch was toward the outer court. Palm-trees were on its pillars. Its stairway had eight steps.

³²Then he brought me into the inner court toward the east. He measured it with the same measurements. ³³Its chambers, pillars and porch had the same measurements. There were windows in it and in its surrounding porch. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ³⁴Its porch was toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its pillars on this side and on that side. Its stairway had eight steps.

³⁵He brought me to the north gate. He measured it with the same measurements:

³⁶Its chambers, pillars and porch. There were windows in it all around. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ³⁷Its pillars were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its pillars, on this side and on that side. Its stairway had eight steps. ³⁸A chamber with its entry was by the pillars at the gates; there they rinse the burnt offering. ³⁹In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering. ⁴⁰Off to the side, on the outside as one goes up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables. On the other side of the porch of the gate were two tables. ⁴¹Four tables were on one side and four tables were on the other side, by the side of the gate—eight tables, on which they would slaughter. ⁴²There were four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit high. The instruments for the slaughter of the burnt offering and the sacrifice were laid on them. ⁴³Hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened in the House all around. The flesh of the offering was to be placed upon the tables.

⁴⁷Then he measured the court. It was 100 cubits long and 100 cubits wide, a square. The altar was in front of the House. ⁴⁸He brought me to the porch of the House. He measured each pillar of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side. The width of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. ⁴⁹The length of the porch was 20 cubits and the width 11 cubits. It was ascended by way of steps, where pillars stood, one on each side.

The Inner Sanctuary

¹Then he brought me to the Temple, and measured the pillars—six cubits wide on one side, six cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tent. ²The width of the entrance was ten cubits. The sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side and five cubits on the other side. He measured its length, 40 cubits and its width, 20 cubits. ³He went to the inner room and measured each pillar of the entrance, two cubits; the doorway, six cubits; and the width of the doorway, seven cubits. ⁴When he measured the inner room's length, it was 20 cubits, and the width was 20 cubits, in front of the Temple. He said to me, "This is the Holy of Holies."

⁵When he measured the wall of the House, it was six cubits, and the width of every side chamber was four cubits, surrounding the House on every side. ⁶There were 33 side chambers. There were supports in the wall, which belonged to the House for the side chambers all around, so that they were not supported by the wall of the House. ⁷The side chambers were wider as they wound about higher and higher. Because the winding about of the House went higher and higher round about the house, therefore the width of the House expanded. One went up from the lowest row to the highest by way of the middle. ⁸I saw also that the House had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers were a full rod of six cubits up to the joint. ⁹The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits. The space between the side chambers of the House ¹⁰and the outer chambers was 20 cubits wide all around the House on every side. ¹¹The doors of the side chambers were toward the space, one door toward the north and another door toward the south. The width of the space was five cubits all around.

¹²The building that was before the separate area at the side toward the west was 70 cubits wide. The wall of the building was five cubits thick all around and its length was 90 cubits. ¹³When he measured the House, it was 100 cubits long; the separate area and the building with its walls, was 100 cubits long; ¹⁴and the width of the face of the House and the separate area toward the east was also 100 cubits.

¹⁵When he measured the length of the building facing the separate area behind it, with its galleries on each side, it was 100 cubits. Now the inner Sanctuary and the porches of the court—¹⁶the thresholds, the shuttered windows, and the galleries all around in three stories opposite the thresholds—were paneled with wood all around, from the ground up to the windows (even the windows were covered), ¹⁷over the space above the door, as far as the inner House, and on all the wall outside all around inside and outside, by measurement. ¹⁸It was made with cheruvim and palm trees. A palm tree was between cheruv and cheruv. Every cheruv had two faces: ¹⁹the face of a man toward the palm tree on one side and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. Thus was it made on all the House all around. ²⁰The cheruvim and palm trees were made from the ground up to above the door and on the wall of the Temple.

²¹The Temple's doorposts were square. Now the front of the Sanctuary had something resembling ²²an altar—three cubits high and two cubits long, made of wood. Its corners, its base and its sides were also of wood. He said to me, "This is the table of the Presence of ADONAI."

²³The Temple and the inner Sanctuary each had double doors. ²⁴The doors each had two turning leaves—two leaves for one door and two leaves for the other. ²⁵*Cheruvim* and palm trees were made on them, on the doors of the Temple, just like those made on the walls. There were thick beams of wood on the face of the porch outside. ²⁶There were shuttered windows and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the porch, the side chambers of the House and the thick beams.

The Outer Courtyard

¹He led me out to the outer courtyard toward the north. He brought me to the chamber that was opposite the separate area and opposite the building toward the north.

²The length of the building with the door on the north was 100 cubits and the width was 50 cubits. ³Opposite the 20 cubit space belonging to the inner court and opposite the pavement belonging to the outer court was gallery by gallery in three stories. ⁴In front of the chambers was a walkway ten cubits wide and 100 cubits long. Their doorways were toward the north. ⁵The upper chambers were narrower, because the galleries took more away from them than from the lower and the middle ones in the building. ⁶For they were in three stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courtyards; therefore more space was taken away than from the lower and the middle floors, in comparison with the ground. ⁷A wall that was outside by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court in front of the chambers, was 50 cubits in length.

⁸For the chambers that were toward the outer court were 50 cubits long while those facing the Temple were 100 cubits. ⁹Below these chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer courtyard.

¹³Then he said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate area, they are the holy chambers, where the kohanim who are near to ADONAI eat the most holy things. There they will put the most holy things—the grain offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering—for the place is holy. ¹⁴Once the kohanim enter, they are not to go out of the holy place into the outer court without leaving there their garments in which they minister—for they are holy. They will put on other garments and approach the area for the people.”

¹⁵When he had finished measuring the inner House, he brought me out by way of the gate facing east and measured all around. ¹⁶When he measured the east side with the measuring rod, it was 500 rods, with the measuring rod round about. ¹⁷When he measured the north side, it was 500 rods by the measuring rod. ¹⁸When he measured the south side, it was 500 rods, with the measuring rod. ¹⁹Then he turned about to the west side and measured 500 rods with the measuring rod. ²⁰So he measured the four sides. It had a wall all around—the length was 500 and the width was 500—to make a distinction between the holy and the profane.

The Glory Returns

¹Then he led me to the gate, the gate looking east, ²and behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters. The earth was radiant with His glory. ³The appearance of the vision that I saw was like the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city. The visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar. So I fell on my face. ⁴Then the glory of ADONAI came into the House by way of the gate facing the east. ⁵The Ruach took me up and brought me into the inner court. Then behold, the glory of ADONAI filled the House.

⁶Then I heard someone speaking to me from the House, while a man was standing beside me. ⁷He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of My throne, the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of Bnei-Yisrael forever. The house of Israel will no longer defile My holy Name—neither they nor their kings—by their prostitution or by the corpses of their kings in their high places. ⁸Whenever they set their threshold next to My threshold and their doorpost next to My doorpost, with only a wall between Me and them, they defiled My holy Name by their abominations that they committed. So I have finished them off in My fury. ⁹Now let them put away their prostitution and the corpses of their kings, far from Me. Then I will dwell among them forever.

¹⁰“You, son of man, describe the House to the house of Israel, so they will be ashamed of their iniquities. Let them measure accurately. ¹¹If they are ashamed of all they have done, sketch out the House for them, its layout, its exits and its entrances, its complete design, with all its ordinances and all its laws. Write it down in their sight, so they may observe its complete design and all its ordinances and do them. ¹²This is the Torah of the House: the whole territory around it on top of the mountain will be most holy. Behold, this is the Torah of the House.

¹³“These are the measurements of the altar by cubits (a cubit being a normal cubit plus a handbreadth). Its gutter will be a cubit deep and a cubit wide. Its rim will be one span surrounding the edge. This will be the base of the altar. ¹⁴From the base on the ground to the lower ledge will be two cubits and the width one cubit. From the smaller ledge to the larger ledge will be four cubits and the width a cubit. ¹⁵The altar hearth will be four cubits high. Four horns will project upward from the hearth. ¹⁶The hearth will be 12 cubits long by 12 wide, with four sides square. ¹⁷The ledge will be 14 cubits long and 14 wide with four sides square. The border surrounding it will be half a cubit and its bottom will be a cubit all around. Its steps will face east.”

¹⁸Then he said to me, “Son of man, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘These are the statutes for the altar on the day when they will construct it, in order to offer burnt offerings on it and to sprinkle blood on it. ¹⁹Give a young bull for a sin offering to the Levitical kohanim who are from the offspring of Zadok, who come near to Me to minister to Me’”—it is a declaration of ADONAI. ²⁰“You are to take some of its blood and put it on its four horns, on the four corners of the ledge and on the border around it. So you will purify it and make atonement for it. ²¹Take the bull of the sin offering and burn it in the appointed place of the House, outside the Sanctuary.

²²“On the second day, offer a male goat without blemish as a sin offering. They will purify the altar as they purified it with the bull. ²³When you have finished purifying it, offer a young bull without blemish and a ram out of the flock without blemish. ²⁴Present them before ADONAI. The kohanim will cast salt upon them. They will offer them up as a burnt offering to ADONAI. ²⁵Every day for seven days, prepare a goat as a sin offering. They will prepare a young bull and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. ²⁶They will make atonement for the altar and cleanse it for seven days. This is how they will consecrate it. ²⁷When they have completed the days, from the eighth day and onward the kohanim will make your burnt offerings upon the altar as well as your fellowship offerings. Then I will accept you”—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

Prince at the Eastern Gate

¹Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the Sanctuary looking east. It was shut. ²*ADONAI* said to me: “This gate is to be shut. It must not be opened. No one may enter through it, for ADONAI God of Israel has entered through it. So it is to be kept shut. ³Only the prince, since he is a prince, will sit there to eat bread before ADONAI. He will enter by way of the porch of the gate and go out the same way.”

Levitical Priesthood

⁴Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the House. I looked, and behold, the glory of ADONAI filled the House of ADONAI. So I fell upon my face. ⁵ADONAI said to me, “Son of man, set your heart, behold with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of ADONAI’s House and all its laws. Set your heart to the entrance of the House, with all exits of the Sanctuary. ⁶Say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Enough of your abominations, house of Israel! ⁷You brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My Sanctuary, to profane it—My House—when you offer My bread, the fat and the blood. They have broken My covenant, to add to all your abominations. ⁸You have not kept charge of My holy things, but you have set keepers of My service in My Sanctuary to please yourselves.’”

⁹Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, may enter My Sanctuary, not any foreigner who is among Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁰For the Levites who went far from Me, when Israel went astray after their idols, will bear their iniquity. ¹¹Yet they will be ministers in My Sanctuary, overseers of the gates of the House and ministering in the House. They will slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people. They will stand before them to minister to them. ¹²Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I have lifted up My hand against them”—it is a declaration of ADONAI. “They will bear their iniquity. ¹³They will not come near to Me, to minister to Me as kohanim, nor come near to any of My holy things, to the things that are most holy. They will bear their shame and their abominations, which they have committed.

¹⁴“Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the House, for all its service and for all that will be done in it. ¹⁵So the Levitical kohanim, the sons of Zadok who kept charge of My Sanctuary when Bnei-Yisrael wandered from Me, will draw near to Me to minister to Me. They will stand before Me to offer Me the fat and the blood”—it is declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁶“They are ones who will enter My Sanctuary and draw near to My table to minister to Me. They will keep My charge. ¹⁷It will be that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they will be clothed with linen garments. No wool will come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. ¹⁸They will have linen turbans upon their heads and linen underclothes upon their loins; they will not wear anything that causes sweat. ¹⁹Before they go out to the outer court—to the outer courtyard to the people—they must take off their garments in which they minister and leave them in the holy chambers. They will put on other garments, so they do not consecrate the people while in their garments. ²⁰They must not shave their heads or let their locks grow long, but must carefully trim the hair of their heads. ²¹No kohen may drink wine before entering the Inner court. ²²None may take a widow or a divorced woman as his wife, for they must take virgins of the offspring of the house of Israel or a widow who is the widow of a kohen.

²³“They will teach My people the difference between the holy and the common and explain to them the difference between the unclean and the clean. ²⁴In a lawsuit, they will stand to judge, and judge in accordance with My ordinances. They will keep My laws and My statutes in all My moadim and keep My Shabbatot holy. ²⁵They must not come near a dead person to defile themselves—only for a father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister who had no husband may they defile themselves. ²⁶After he is cleansed, they will count seven days for him. ²⁷On the day he goes into the Sanctuary, into the inner court to minister in the Sanctuary, he is to offer his sin offering.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁸“It will be an inheritance for them. I am their inheritance. Do not give them any possession in Israel for I am their possession. ²⁹They will eat the grain offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering. Every devoted thing in Israel will be theirs. ³⁰The first of all the firstfruits of everything and every offering of every kind from all your offerings will belong to the kohanim. You will also give the kohen the first of your dough, to make a blessing to rest on your house. ³¹The kohanim may not eat any carcass, whether bird or beast, that dies of itself or is torn.”

Levitical Land

¹“When you allot the land for inheritance, set apart an offering to ADONAI, a holy portion of the land. The length will be 25,000 and the width will be 10,000. ²It will be holy within all its surrounding borders. ³Out of this, there will be the Holy Place, 500 long by 500 wide, square all around, and 50 cubits for the open land surrounding it. ⁴From this area you are to measure a length of 25,000 and a width of 10,000, in which will be the Sanctuary, which is most holy. ⁵It is to be the holy portion of the land, for the kohanim ministering in the Sanctuary, who draw near to serve ADONAI. It will be a place for their houses as well as a place consecrated for the Sanctuary. ⁶An area 25,000 long by 10,000 wide will be for the Levites, the ministers of the House. It will be a possession for themselves—20 chambers.

⁷“You will give the city possession of an area 5,000 wide by 25,000 long, alongside the offering of the holy allotment. It will be for the whole house of Israel.

The Prince’s Allotment

⁸“The prince will have a portion on either side of the holy allotment and the city’s property, adjacent to the holy offering and the city’s property, on the west side westward and on the east side eastward. Its length will correspond to one of the tribal portions, from the western boundary to the eastern boundary. ⁹It will be land for him as a possession in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress My people. They will give land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.”

¹⁰Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Let it be enough for you, princes of Israel. Get rid of violence and destruction, execute justice and righteousness, take away your oppression from My people”—it is a declaration of ADONAI. ¹¹“You are to have just balances, an honest dry measure and an honest liquid measure. ¹²The dry and liquid measure will be of a uniform measure: the bath will contain a tenth part of a homer, and the ephah a tenth part of a homer; the standard measure will be the homer. ¹³The shekel will be 20 gerahs; 20 plus 25 plus 15 shekels will be your mina.

¹⁷“All the people of the land must give this contribution to the prince in Israel. ¹⁸It will be the prince’s role to give the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings at the feasts, New Moons and Shabbatot, in all the moadim of the house of Israel. He will prepare the sin offering, the meal offering, the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.”

Offerings for Moadim

¹⁹Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “In the first month, in the first day of the month, take a young bull without blemish and purify the Sanctuary. ²⁰The kohen will take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it upon the doorposts of the House and upon the four corners of the ledge of the altar and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. ²¹So you will do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance. So you will make atonement for the House.

²²“In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you will have the Passover,

a feast of seven days when matzah will be eaten.²² On that day the prince will prepare a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land.²³ He will prepare a burnt offering to ADONAI for the seven days of the feast—seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily for seven days and a male goat daily for a sin offering.²⁴ He will prepare as a grain offering, an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram and a hin of oil for each ephah.²⁵ He will do this in the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, during the Feast, for seven days, for sin offering as well as burnt offering, grain offering as well as oil.”

¹Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “The gate of the inner court that faces the east will be shut for the six working days. On Yom Shabbat it will be opened and in the day of the New Moon it will be opened.² The prince will enter by way of the porch of the gate from outside, and stand by the post of the gate. Then the kohanim will prepare his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings. He will worship at the threshold of the gate, and then go out. The gate will not be shut until the evening.³ The people of the land will worship at the door of that gate before ADONAI on Shabbat and New Moons.

⁴“The burnt offering that the prince offers to ADONAI on Yom Shabbat will be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish.⁵ The grain offering will be an ephah for the ram. The grain offering for the lambs will be a gift of his hand and a hin of oil for an ephah.⁶ On the day of the New Moon it will be a young bull without blemish, six lambs and a ram—they must be without blemish.⁷ He will prepare a grain offering, an ephah for the bull and an ephah for the ram, for the lambs whatever his hand may reach and a hin of oil for an ephah.⁸ When the prince enters, he will enter by way of the porch of the gate and he will also exit by that way.⁹ When the people of the land come before ADONAI at the moadim, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship will exit by way of the south gate. Whoever enters by way of the south gate must exit by way of north gate. He should not return by the way of the gate where he came in, since he must exit straight ahead.¹⁰ When they enter, the prince will come in among them. When they go out, they will go out together.

¹⁶Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons as his inheritance, it will belong to his sons. It will be their possession by inheritance.¹⁷ But if he gives of his inheritance as a gift to one of his servants, it will be his until the year of liberty, when it will revert to the prince. His inheritance will belong to his sons.¹⁸ The prince must not take from the people’s inheritance, evicting them wrongfully out of their property. He must give inheritance to his sons out of his own property, so that My people will not be displaced, anyone from his own property.”

¹⁹Then he brought me through the entrance that was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the kohanim, looking north. Behold, there was a place at the far western end.²⁰ He said to me, “This is the place where the kohanim will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, where they will bake the grain offering, so they do not bring them into the outer court, to consecrate the people.”

²¹Then he brought me out to the outer courtyard and led me past the four corners of the courtyard. Behold, in every corner of the courtyard there was another courtyard. ²²In the four corners of the courtyard there were enclosed courts, 40 cubits long by 30 wide—these four in the corners had the same size. ²³There was a row of masonry surrounding them, surrounding the four. Boiling places were built under the surrounding rows. ²⁴He said to me, “These are the boiling places where the ministers of the House will boil the sacrifices of the people.”

³When the man went out eastward with a line in his hand, he measured a 1,000 cubits. Then he led me into the water—water to the ankles. ⁴Again he measured a 1,000, and led me into the water—water to the knees. Again he measured a 1,000, and he led me into the water—water up to the waist. ⁵Again he measured a 1,000, and now it was a river that I could not pass through, for the water had risen, water to swim in—a river that could not be crossed. ⁶He said to me, “Have you seen this, son of man?”

Then he brought me back to the bank of the river. ⁷When I had returned, behold, there were very many trees on one side and on the other, along the bank of the river. ⁸Then he said to me, “These waters go out toward the eastern region. They go down to the Arabah and enter the sea. When they arrive at the sea, the waters of the sea will flow and will become fresh. ^b ⁹It will be that every living creature that swarms will live wherever the rivers go. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because this water goes there and makes the salt water fresh. So everything will be healed and live wherever the river goes. ¹⁰Fishermen will stand by it; from En-gedi to En-eglam, it will be a place for spreading of nets. Their fish will be of many different kinds—like the fish of the Great Sea, a huge quantity. ¹¹Its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be set aside for salt. ¹²On the river, on its bank, on this side and that side, will grow every kind of tree for food. Its leaf will not wither; its fruit will not fail; it will bear new fruit every month, because its water flows out from the Sanctuary. Its fruit will be for food and its leaf will be for healing.”

Borders of the Holy Land

¹³Thus says ADONAI Elohim, “This will be the border, by which you will divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel, Joseph receiving two portions. ¹⁴You will inherit it, each one like another, as I lifted My hand to give to your fathers. So this land will fall to you as an inheritance.

¹⁸The east side, between Hauran, Damascus, Gilead and the land of Israel, will be by the Jordan. You will measure from the northern border to the eastern sea. This will be the eastern side.

¹⁹The south side southward will be from

^b 47:8. Lit. healed.

Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth-kadesh, to the Wadi of Egypt and to the Great Sea. This will be the southern side toward the south.

²⁰The west side will be the Great Sea, from the southern border as far as the front of the entrance of Hamath. This will be the western side.

²¹You are to divide this land for yourselves to the tribes of Israel. ²²So you are to divide it by lot for an inheritance for you and for the outsiders who dwell among you, whoever bears children among you. They will be to you like the native-born of Bnei-Yisrael; they will be allotted an inheritance along with you among the tribes of Israel. ²³In whatever tribe the outsider lives, there you will give him his inheritance." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

⁸By Judah's border, from the east side to the west, will be the contribution which you will set aside, 25,000 cubits in width and in length like one of the portions, from the east side to the west. The Sanctuary will be in the midst of it. ⁹The allotment that you will set apart to ADONAI will be 25,000 in length and 10,000 in width. ¹⁰The holy allotment will be apportioned for these—for the kohanim.

Toward the north it will be 25,000 cubits and toward the west 10,000 in width, toward the east 10,000 in width and toward the south 25,000 in length. ADONAI's Sanctuary will be in the midst of it. ¹¹The sanctified portion will be for the kohanim of the sons of Zadok, who kept My charge and did not go astray as the Levites went astray when Bnei-Yisrael went astray. ¹²It will be for them a portion set apart from the offering of the land, most holy, by the border of the Levites.

¹³Alongside the border of the kohanim, the Levites will have 25,000 in length and 10,000 in width. The entire length will be 25,000 and the width 10,000. ¹⁴They must not sell or exchange any of it or transfer the choice portion of the land, for it is holy to ADONAI. ¹⁵The 5,000 that remain in the width, in front of the 25,000 thousand, will be for common use, for the city, for living and for pastureland.

"The city will be in the midst of it, ¹⁶and will have these measurements: the north side; 4,500; the south side 4,500; the east side, 4,500; and the west side, 4,500. ¹⁷The city will have open land: toward the north 250, toward the south 250, toward the east 250, and toward the west 250. ¹⁸The remainder of the length, according to the holy allotment, will be 10,000 eastward and 10,000 westward. It will be alongside the holy allotment. Its produce will be food for those who serve the city. ¹⁹Those who serve the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, will till it. ²⁰The whole allotment will be 25,000 by 25,000, square; you will set apart the holy allotment with the property of the city.

²¹"What is remaining from this side and on the other of the holy allotment and the city property will be for the prince. What is adjacent to the 25,000 of the allotment toward the eastern border, and westward adjacent to the 25,000 toward the western border, alongside the portions, will be for the prince. The holy allotment and the Sanctuary of the House will be in the midst of it. ²²The property of the Levites and the property of the city will be in the middle of what belongs to the prince; what belongs to the prince will be between Judah's border and Benjamin's border.

³⁰"These are the exits of the city: on the north side, 4,500 by measure, ³¹will be the gates of the city named after of the tribes of Israel—three gates northward—the Reuben Gate, one; the Judah Gate, one; the Levi Gate, one. ³²At the east side, 4,500, will be three gates: the Joseph Gate, one; the Benjamin Gate, one; Dan Gate, one. ³³At the south side, 4,500 by measure, will be three gates: the Simeon Gate, one; the Issachar Gate, one; the Zebulun Gate, one. ³⁴At the west side, 4,500, with their three gates: the Gad Gate, one; the Asher Gate, one; the Naphtali Gate, one. ³⁵It will be 18,000 cubits all around.

"From that day on, the name of the city will be: 'ADONAI Is There.'"

Hosea

The Unfaithful Wife

¹The word of ADONAI that came to Hosea son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel. ²When ADONAI first spoke with Hosea, ADONAI said to Hosea:

“Go, get yourself a prostitute as a wife and children with a prostitute! For the land is an unfaithful prostitute, far from following after ADONAI.”

³So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. ⁴Then ADONAI said to him:

“Name him Jezreel^a for in yet a little while I will visit the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and I will destroy the kingdom of the house of Israel.

⁵In that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.”

⁶Then she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And He said to him:

“Name her Lo-ruhamah^b—for no longer will I have compassion on the house of Israel that I should ever pardon them.

⁷But on the house of Judah
I will have compassion and deliver them by ADONAI, their God, yet not by bow, sword or battle, nor by horses and horsemen.”

⁸After she weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. ⁹Then He said:

“Name him Lo-ammi^c, for you are not My people and I am not yours.”^d

2

Restoring the Covenant Promises

¹“Yet the number of Bnei-Yisrael will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted.^e

Instead of ‘You are not My people’ being said to them, they will be called ‘Children of the living God.’

²Then the descendants of Judah and descendants of Israel will be gathered together.

They will appoint themselves one head
And they will go up from the land.
For the day of Jezreel will be great.

³Say you to your brothers, ‘Ammi’^f and to your sisters, ‘Ruhamah’^g.

⁴Contend with your mother, contend!
For she is not My wife nor I her husband.
Let her put away her fornications from her face and her adulteries from between her breasts.

⁵Or else I will strip her naked and expose her as on the day she was born.
Then I will make her like a wilderness.
Yes, I will make her like desert land,
and I will let her die of thirst.

⁶I will have no compassion for her children, for they are children of prostitution.

⁷For their mother has practiced prostitution.
She who conceived them has been shameful.

For she said, ‘Let me go after my lovers, who are giving me my bread and my water,
my wool and my flax,

^c 1:8. Meaning, Not my people.

^d 1:8-2:25. Traditional texts number as 11:8-11 to 2:23.

^e 2:1 (1:9). cf. Rom. 9:26.

^f 2:3(2:1). Meaning, My people.

^g 2:3(2:1). Meaning, Shown compassion.

^a 1:4. Meaning, God will sow or God will scatter.

^b 1:6. Meaning, Shown no compassion.

my oil and my drink.’
⁸Therefore see, I will hedge her in with thorns, and I will build a wall around her so she cannot find her paths.
⁹Then she will chase after her lovers,
 but she will not overtake them.
 She will seek them, but not find.
 Then she will say: ‘Let me go and return to my first husband, for was it better for me then, than now.’
¹⁰But she did not realize that I Myself gave her the grain, the wine and the fresh oil.
 I lavished on her silver, also gold—which they made into Baal.
¹¹Therefore I will return and take back
 My grain in its season,
 and My new wine at its appointed time, and I will snatch away My wool and My linen for covering her nakedness.
¹²So now I will uncover her lewdness to the eyes of her lovers, and no one will rescue her from My hand.
¹³I will also put an end to all her rejoicing—her feasts, her New Moon, her Shabbat, and all her moadim.
¹⁴I will also devastate her vines and her fig trees, of which she said: ‘These are my payment that my lovers have given to me.’
 But I will turn them into a thicket and beasts of the field will devour them.
¹⁵Then I will punish her for the days of the Baalim^h to whom she would burn incense—adorning herself with her rings and jewelry, going after her lovers—but Me she forgot.”
 It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Compassion and Covenant Love

¹⁶“So then, I Myself will entice her,
 I will bring her into the wilderness and speak to her heart.
¹⁷I will give her back her vineyards

^h 2:15. Heb. gods.

from there and make the valley of Achor a door of hope.
 She will respond there—as in the days of her youth, as in the day she came up
 out of the land of Egypt.
¹⁸In that day—it is a declaration of ADONAI—you will proclaim, ‘My husband,’ and never again call Me, ‘My Baal.’
¹⁹Then I will remove the names of the Baalim out of her mouth,
 no longer to be mentioned by their name.
²⁰In that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, the flying creatures in the sky,
 and the creeping things on the ground.
 I will break into pieces the bow and sword and warfare from the land, and I will cause them to lie down securely.
²¹Then I will betroth you to Me forever—yes,
 I will betroth you to Me with righteousness, justice, covenant loyalty and compassion.
²²I will betroth you to Me with faithfulness, and you will know ADONAI.
²³So it will be in that day, I will respond
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI—
 I will respond to the skies, and they will respond to the earth, ²⁴and the earth will respond with grain, new wine, and fresh oil—
 and they will respond with ‘Jezreel!’ⁱ ²⁵I will sow her in the land for Myself.
 I will have compassion on Lo-ruhamah.
 I will say to Lo-ammi, ‘You are My people!’^j and they will say, ‘My God!’”

Buying Back His Wife

¹Then ADONAI said to me: “Go again! Love a woman who is loved by a companion and committing adultery—just as ADONAI has loved ⁱ 2:24(2:22). Meaning, God sows.

^j 2:25(2:23). cf. Rom. 9:25; 1Pet. 2:10.

the Bnei-Yisrael, while they were turning to other gods and loving raisin cakes.”

²So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver and an omer and a half of barley. ³Then I said to her: “For many days you must stay with me. You must not practice prostitution. You must not have a man, and I will be the same toward you.”

⁴For Bnei-Yisrael will remain for many days without king, without prince, without sacrifice, without sacred pillar, and without ephod or teraphim. ⁵Afterwards, Bnei-Yisrael will return, and they will seek ADONAI their God and David their king. Then they will turn in awe to ADONAI and to His goodness in the last days.

Destroyed For Lack of Knowledge

¹Hear the word of ADONAI, Bnei-Yisrael!
For ADONAI has a dispute with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth,
no covenant loyalty,
and no knowledge of God in the land.

²Curse, deceive, murder, steal, commit adultery!
They practice violence, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

³Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone dwelling in it will languish along with the beasts of the field and the flying creatures of the sky—even the fish of the sea will be removed.

⁴Yet let no one dispute and let no one argue.
Your people are like a kohen who makes quarrels.

⁵So you will stumble by day.
Also a prophet will stumble with you by night, when I destroy your mother.

⁶My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

Since you rejected knowledge,

^a 3:4. Meaning, sacred vest or household idols.

I will also reject you from being My kohen.

Since you forgot the Torah of your God,
just so I will forget your children.

⁷The more they multiplied,
the more they sinned against Me.
I will change their glory into disgrace.

⁸They feed on the sin of My people and relish their iniquity.

⁹But it will be like people, like kohen.
So I will punish them for their ways, and repay them for their deeds.

¹⁰They have eaten but will not be satisfied.
They have fornicated but will not increase.
For they stopped giving heed to ADONAI.

¹¹Prostitution and wine—even new wine—it takes away understanding.

¹²My people consult their wooden idol and their divining rod informs them.
For a spirit of prostitution leads them astray and they have been a prostitute—out from under their God.

¹³They sacrifice on the mountaintops and on the high places they burn incense under oak poplar, and terebinth—for its shade is good.

Therefore your daughters are prostitutes and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

¹⁴Will I not punish your daughters for prostitution or your daughters-in-law for adultery?

For they consort with prostitutes, and they sacrifice with cult prostitutes.
A people without understanding will be thrust down.

¹⁵Though you, Israel, are a prostitute, let Judah not become guilty.
But do not come to Gilgal or go up to Beth-aven,^b and do not swear: ‘As ADONAI lives!’

¹⁶For Israel is stubborn like a stubborn cow.
Now ADONAI will pasture them like a lamb in the open field.

¹⁷Ephraim is joined to idols; let him alone!

¹⁸Their liquor has come to an end.

^b 4:15. Meaning, House of Iniquity.

They surely have practiced prostitution.
Her rulers have deeply loved disgrace.
¹⁹A wind will wrap her up in its wings.
They will be ashamed of their sacrifices.

Judgment for Betrayal

¹Hear this, O priests!
Pay attention, O house of Israel!
Give ear, O house of the king!
For the judgment applies to you:
For you were a snare at Mizpah and a net spread on Tabor.
²Rebels were deep in slaughter,
so I am a chastisement for them all.
³I myself have known Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from Me.
For now, Ephraim, you are a prostitute—
Israel is defiled!
⁴They will not give up their evil deeds to return to their God.
For a spirit of prostitution is in them,
and ADONAI they have not known.
⁵The Pride of Israel will answer to his face:
Israel and Ephraim will stagger in their iniquity,
Judah also will stumble with them.
⁶With their flocks and with their herds
they will go to seek ADONAI, but they will not find Him—
He has withdrawn from them.
⁷They have betrayed ADONAI, for they have begotten foreign children.
Now the New Moon will devour them, with their portions.
⁸Blow a shofar in Gibeah, a trumpet in Ramah!
Sound an alarm at Beth-aven:
“Behind you, Benjamin!”
⁹Ephraim will be become desolate in the day of rebuke.
Among the tribes of Israel
I made known what is certain.
¹⁰The princes of Judah were like those who move a boundary mark.

I pour out My fury on them like water.

¹¹Oppressed is Ephraim, crushed by judgment, for he willingly followed a worthless thing.

¹²So, I will be like a moth to Ephraim and like decay to the house of Judah.

¹³When Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah his wound, Ephraim went to Assyria and sent envoys to a warring king.
But he cannot heal you nor will he cure your wound.

¹⁴For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I, even I, will tear and go away.
I will carry off, and nobody will rescue.

¹⁵I will go and return to My place until they admit their guilt.
Then they will seek My face.
In their distress
they will seek Me earnestly:

Prayer of Teshuvah

¹Come, let us return to ADONAI.
For He has torn, but He will heal us.
He has smitten, but He will bind us up.
²After two days He will revive us.
On the third day He will raise us up, and we will live in His presence.^c ³So let us know, let us strive to know ADONAI.
Like dawn His going forth is certain.
He will come to us like the rain,
like the latter rain watering the earth.

Covenant Loyalty More Than Sacrifice

⁴“O Ephraim, what shall I do for you?
O Judah, what will I do for you?
For your loyalty is like a morning cloud or like dew rising early, vanishing.
⁵Therefore I cut them down by the prophets.

^c 6:2. Cf. Matt. 16:21; 1Cor. 15:4.

I slew them by the words of My mouth.
 Now the judgments pronounced against you: light will go forth.
⁶For I delight in loyalty^a and not sacrifice, knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
⁷But like Adam, they transgressed a covenant.
 There they dealt treacherously with Me.
⁸Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with bloody footprints.
⁹Like marauding bands waiting for a man, so a company of priests murders on the way toward Shechem.
 For they have committed crime.
¹⁰In the house of Israel
 I have seen a horrible thing:
 Ephraim's prostitution is there,
 Israel has become unclean.
¹¹Also, Judah, there is a harvest for you,
 when I return My people from captivity."

Iniquity of Senseless Ephraim

¹"When I would have healed Israel, the iniquity of Ephraim was uncovered, even the wickedness of Samaria, for they practice fraud.
 So a thief breaks in;
 a marauding band will raid outside.
²But they never admit in their heart that I remember all their evil.
 Now their deeds are all around them.
 They are right before My face.
³They gladden the king with their evil and the princes with their lies.
⁴All of them are practicing adultery, as an oven heated by a baker who stops stirring or kneading dough when it is leavened.
⁵On the day of our king, princes become sick from wine.
 His hand drags scorners along.
⁶For their hearts are like an oven,

as they wait in ambush.
 All night their anger smolders.
 In the morning it burns like a blazing fire.
⁷All of them are hot like an oven, and they devour their rulers.
 All of their kings have fallen.
 None among them calls on Me.
⁸Ephraim mixes himself with the peoples.
 Ephraim has become a pancake that never gets turned over.
⁹Strangers devoured his strength—
 yet he does not know it.
 Gray hairs have spread on him—and he does not know it.
¹⁰Though the Pride of Israel has answered him to his face, yet they did not return to ADONAI their God, nor seek Him about all this.
¹¹Ephraim is like a senseless silly dove,
 they call to Egypt; they go to Assyria.
¹²As they are going,
 I will spread out My net over them,
 I will bring them down
 like a bird from the sky.
 I will chasten them as in the report that comes to their assembly.
¹³Oy to them!
 For they strayed from Me.
 Devastation to them!
 For they rebelled against Me.
 Should I redeem them
 after they spoke lies about Me?
¹⁴Nor did they not cry to Me in their heart when they were wailing on their beds.
 For the sake of grain and new wine they slash themselves—
 they keep turning away from Me.
¹⁵I trained and strengthened their arms,
 yet they kept planning evil against Me.
¹⁶They will turn back—only not upwards.
 They are like a treacherous bow.
 Their princes will fall by the sword because of the insolence with their tongues.
 This will be for their ridicule in the land of Egypt.

^a 6:6. Or, covenant love or mercy; cf. Matt. 9:3; 12:7; Mark 12:33.

8

Idols Thrown Down

- ¹“Put a shofar to your mouth!
Like a vulture he comes against the house of ADONAI.
For they overstepped My covenant and transgressed My Torah.
²Will they cry out to Me,
‘My God, we—Israel—knew You?’^b ³Israel has rejected goodness—an adversary will pursue him.
⁴They crowned kings, but not by Me.
They appointed princes
I did not approve.
Their silver and gold they made into idols—
just so they would be cut down.
⁵Samaria! Your calf is thrown down!
My anger is kindled against them!
How long will they be incapable of innocence?
⁶For a craftsman from Israel made it,
so it is no god.
For the calf of Samaria will be splinters.

⁷“For they sow wind, and reap a whirlwind.
There is no mature grain—
the sprout yields no meal.
Should it produce anything, strangers would swallow it up.
⁸Israel has been swallowed up!
Now they are among the nations, like an ornament with no delight in it.
⁹For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey alone by itself.
Ephraim has hired lovers.
¹⁰Although they hire among the nations,
I will now round them up.
So they will begin to decrease under the burden of king and princes.

¹¹“When Ephraim multiplied altars for making sin offerings, they became his altars for sinning.
¹²Though I were to write out for him

^b 8:2. Cf. Ps. 78:34; Hos. 7:14; Matt. 7:23; Titus 1:16.

ten thousand things from My Torah, they are regarded as something strange.
¹³Sacrifices are gifts for Me—should they sacrifice meat and then eat it?

ADONAI will not accept them.
Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sin—
they will return to Egypt.
¹⁴For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built temples,
while Judah has multiplied fortified cities.
So I will send fire upon its cities that will consume their citadels.”

Days of Desolation Are Coming

- ¹Do not rejoice, O Israel, do not celebrate like the peoples—for so you have gone whoring away from your God.
You have loved a prostitute’s pay,
on every grain-threshing-floor.
²Threshing-floor and wine-press will not sustain them,
and new wine will fail her.
³They will not dwell in ADONAI’s land.
Instead Ephraim will return to Egypt, and eat unclean food in Assyria.
⁴They will pour no wine-offerings to ADONAI—they would not be pleasing to Him.
Their sacrifices will be like the bread of mourners for them.
All that eat it will be defiled, for their bread is for their appetite, not coming into the House of ADONAI.
⁵What will you do for a moed or for the day of ADONAI’s feast?

⁶Look, even if they escape the desolation,
Egypt will gather them up;
Memphis will bury them.
And their precious silver treasures?
Weeds will possess them.
Thorns will be in their tents.

⁷The days of punishment have come;
the days of retribution have come.
Let Israel know! The prophet is a fool;
the man of the spirit is mad!
For great is your iniquity and great the hostility.

⁸Ephraim is a watchman with my God,
a prophet.
A bird catcher's trap is on all his paths.
Hostility is in the House of his God.

⁹They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah.
He will remember their iniquity,
He will punish their sin.

¹⁰"Like grapes in the wilderness
I found Israel.
Like early fruit on a fig tree in its first season
I saw your fathers.
They came to Baal-peor and devoted themselves to shame.
So they became as detestable as the thing they loved.

¹¹Ephraim's glory flies away like a bird—no birth, no pregnancy, no conception!

¹²For if they should raise their children,
I would make them childless to the last man.
Yes, woe to them
when I depart from them!

¹³Ephraim, as I have seen, is like Tyre, planted in a meadow, but Ephraim will bring his children out to the slayer."

¹⁴Give them, ADONAI, what will You give?
Give them a miscarrying womb and dried up breasts.

¹⁵"All their wickedness is at Gilgal, for there I despised them.
Because of their wicked practices,
I will drive them out of My House.
I will love them no more.
All their princes are rebellious.

¹⁶Ephraim is blighted;
their root is withered; they bear no fruit.
Even if they bring forth children,
I will slay the cherished ones in their wombs."

¹⁷My God will cast them off, since they did not listen to Him.
So they will become wanderers among the nations.

10

Israel to be Shamed in Captivity

¹A luxuriant vine is Israel, who produces fruit for himself.
Like the abundance of his fruit
he has multiplied his altars.
Like the goodness of his land, they made beautiful sacred pillars.

²Their heart became smooth^a.
Now they will bear their guilt.
He will break down their altars.
He will destroy their sacred pillars.

³Surely now they will say:
"We have no king,
for we have not feared ADONAI.
The king—what can he do for us?"

⁴They spoke words—empty oaths to make a covenant.
But judgment springs up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

⁵The inhabitants of Samaria will quarrel over the calves of Beth-aven.
Indeed its people will mourn over it,
but its priests will tremble over it.
For its glory will surely depart from it.

⁶It also will be carried to Assyria as tribute to a warring king.
Ephraim will receive shame and Israel will be put to shame by its own counsel.

⁷Samaria is being cut off.
Her king is like a splinter on the surface of the water.

⁸The high places of Aven,
the sin of Israel will be destroyed.
Thorns and thistles will come up on their altars.
And they will say to the mountains:
"Cover us!"
And to the hills: "Fall on us!"^b

^a 10:2. Or, faithless or divided.

^b 10:8. Cf. Isa. 2:19; Luke 23:30; Rev. 6:16.

⁹“From the days of Gibeah, you have sinned, O Israel.
There they took their stand.
Will not war over sons of iniquity overtake them in Gibeah?
¹⁰When I desire, I will chasten them, and peoples will gather against them when they are yoked to their two sins.
¹¹Though Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh,
I put a yoke over her fair neck.
I will make Ephraim pull;
Judah will plow;
Jacob will drag a harrow by himself.”

Plow Up Your Ground

¹²Sow for yourselves righteousness.^c Reap in accord with covenant love.
Break up your unplowed ground.
For it is time to seek ADONAI, until He comes and showers righteousness on you.
¹³You have plowed up wickedness,
you have reaped iniquity.
You have eaten the fruit of delusion, for you have trusted
in your own way,
in the multitude of your mighty men.
¹⁴A tumult will arise among your people.
All your strongholds will be demolished, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle, when a mother was dashed in pieces with her children.
¹⁵Just so has Bethel done to you because of your great wickedness.
At dawn the king of Israel will be utterly cut off.

11

My Son Called Out

¹“When Israel was a youth I loved him, and out of Egypt I called My son.^d

²They called out to them but they departed from their presence.
They kept sacrificing to the Baalim and burning incense up to idols.
³Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk.
I took them on My arms.
But they never acknowledged that I had healed them.
⁴With human cords
I was drawing them, with bonds of love,
and I became to them
as One lifting a yoke from their jaws.
I bent down to them and fed them.
⁵He will not return to the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian will be his king—because they refused to return.
⁶So a sword will fall on his cities, and destroy and devour his gate bars because of their own counsels.
⁷So My people are bent on turning from Me.
Although they are being called upwards,
none will rise up.

⁸“How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I surrender you, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I set you as Zeboim?
My heart is turning over within Me.
My compassions are kindled.
⁹I will not vent My fierce anger.
I will not again destroy Ephraim.
For I am God—not a man—
the Holy One in the midst of you, and I will not come in fury.”

¹⁰They will walk after ADONAI.
He will roar like a lion.
Indeed, He will roar and the children will come trembling from the west.

¹¹“They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, like a dove out of the land of Assyria, and I will settle them in their houses.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.

^c 10:12. cf. Gal. 6:7-8.
^d 11:1. cf. Matt. 2:15.

Ephraim Multiplies Lies

and the house of Israel with deceit.”
Though Judah roams restlessly with God, yet he is faithful with holy things.^b

²Ephraim is grazing on wind and pursuing the east wind.
All day he multiplies lies and ruin:
making^c a pact with Assyria, while carrying oil to Egypt.

³ADONAI also has a dispute with Judah:
He will punish Jacob for his ways, repaying him for his deeds.

⁴In the womb he grasped his brother’s heel, and in his vigor he strove with God.

⁵Yes, he wrestled with the angel and won;
he wept and sought his favor.

At Bethel he will find us,
and there He will speak with us.

⁶Even ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot—ADONAI is His memorial-Name.

⁷So you should return to your God, keep covenant loyalty and justice, and wait for your God continually.

⁸A merchant loves to extort, with deceptive balances in his hand.

⁹Now Ephraim has said:
“How rich I have become!
I found wealth by myself.
I won’t be guilty of any sin with any of my property.”

¹⁰“Yet I have been ADONAI your God,
since the land of Egypt.
I will yet again make you dwell in tents,
as in the days of the moed.

¹¹I also spoke through the prophets and I multiplied visions.
Now through the prophets
I will make parables.

¹²Since Gilead is full of iniquity, they are utterly worthless.

In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls—even their altars will become heaps of rocks along the furrows of My field.”

¹³Now Jacob fled to the field of Aram, when Israel served for a wife—
yes, he kept watch for a wife.

¹⁴So by a prophet ADONAI brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was kept.

¹⁵Ephraim has provoked bitter anger, so his bloodguilt will remain on him—
his Lord will repay him for his contempt.

No Other Savior

¹When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.
He exalted himself in Israel,
but he became guilty through Baal,
and died.

²But now, they sin more and more.
They made themselves molten images, idols skillfully made from their silver,
all of them the work of the craftsmen.
They say about them:

“Let those who sacrifice kiss the calves.”

³Therefore they will be like morning clouds, like dew passing away early,
like chaff blown from the threshing-floor, or like smoke from a chimney.

⁴“Yet I have been ADONAI your God
since the land of Egypt.
You should know no God but Me, and there is no Savior apart from Me.^d

⁵I Myself knew you in the wilderness, in a land of terrible drought.

⁶While they were fed, they were satisfied.
Filled, their hearts became haughty.
Therefore they forgot Me.

⁷So I became like a lion to them—like a leopard lying in wait by the way.

⁸I will meet them like a bear robbed of her cubs,

^a 12:1-15. Traditional Christian text numbers as 11:12 to 12:14.

^b 12:1(11:12). Or, to the Holy One.

^c 12:2(12:1). Lit. they are making.

^d 13:4. Cf. Acts 4:12; 1Tim. 2:3-6.

and I will tear open their chests.
There I will devour them like a lioness.
A beast of the field will rip them to shreds.

⁹It has corrupted you, O Israel, for you are against Me—against your Helper!

¹⁰Where then is your king?
So, will he save you in all your cities?
Or your judges, to whom you said:
‘Give me a king and princes!’

¹¹I give you a king in My anger, and take him away in My wrath.

¹²Ephraim is bound by iniquity;
his sin is treasured up.

¹³Pains of birth come on him.
He is not a wise son.
When the time comes, he should not delay at the opening of the womb.

¹⁴Should I ransom them from the hand of Sheol?
Should I redeem them from death?
O death, where are your plagues?
O Sheol, where is your sting?^e Comfort is hidden from My eyes.”

¹⁵Because he is the son of kinsmen, he should have been fruitful.
An east wind will come—
the wind from ADONAI, coming up from the wilderness.
His spring will become dry,
and his fountain will dry up.
He will plunder the treasury of every precious vessel.

14

Salvation Like Dew for Israel

^fSamaria will bear her guilt,^f

^e 13:14. cf. 1Cor. 15:55.
^f 14:1-10. Traditional Christian text numbers as 12:16 to 14:9.

for she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword, their infants dashed to pieces,
their pregnant women ripped open.

²Return O Israel, to ADONAI your God, for you have stumbled in your iniquity.

³Take words with you and return to ADONAI.
Say to Him: “Take away all iniquity, and accept what is good,
so we may repay with offerings^g of our lips:

⁴Assyria will not save us.
We will not ride on horses, and we will never again say, “Our god,”
to the work of our hands, for with You, orphans find mercy.”

⁵“I will heal their backsliding,
I will love them freely,
for My anger will turn away from him.

⁶I will be like dew for Israel.
He will blossom like a lily,
and thrust out his roots like Lebanon.

⁷His tender shoots will spread out.
His beauty will be like an olive tree and his fragrance will be like Lebanon.

⁸Those dwelling in his shadow will return.
They will grow grain and bud like a vine.
His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

⁹Ephraim: “What more are idols to me?
I have responded and observed Him.
I will be like a luxuriant cypress tree.
From me will be found Your fruit.”

¹⁰Who is wise? Let him discern these things.
Who is intelligent? Let him know them.^h
For the ways of ADONAI are straight, and the just walk in them,
but the wicked stumble in them.

^g 14:3(14:2). Lit. bulls, or perhaps fruit.
^h 14:10(14:9). cf. Jacob 3:13.

1

¹The word of ADONAI that came to Joel the son of Pethuel:

Mourn the Land's Destruction

²Hear this, elders!

Give ear, all inhabitants of the land.
Has this ever happened in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

³Tell your children about it—your children to their children, their children to another generation.

⁴What the locust left,
the swarming locust has eaten, and what the swarming locust left,
the canker-worm has eaten, and what the canker-worm left,
the caterpillar has eaten.

⁵Awake, drunkards, and weep!
Wail, all you drinkers of wine—
on account of sweet wine, for it is denied to your mouth!

⁶For a nation has invaded my land.
Vast—yes, without number!
Its teeth are lion's teeth, with jaw-teeth of a lioness.^a ⁷He has turned my vine to waste and my fig tree to splinters.

He has stripped off all the bark and flung it down—its branches are left white.

⁸Wail like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth!

⁹Grain offering and drink offering are cut off from the House of ADONAI.
Kohanim—ministers of ADONAI—mourn.

¹⁰The field is ruined, the land grieves, for the grain has been devastated,
new wine is dried up, oil languishes.

¹¹Be ashamed, O ploughmen;
wail, O vinedressers,
over wheat and over barley,
for the harvest of the field is lost.

¹²The vine withered, the fig tree wilted.
Pomegranate, palm and apple tree
—all trees of the field—are withered, for joy has withered away
from the children of men.

¹³Gird yourselves and weep, kohanim!
Howl, ministers of the altar!
Come, lie in sackcloth all night,
ministers of my God.
For grain and drink offering are withheld from the House of your God.

The Day Is Near!

¹⁴Consecrate a fast.
Proclaim a solemn assembly.
Gather elders and all living in the land to the House of ADONAI your God, and cry to ADONAI.

¹⁵Ah, the day! The day of ADONAI is near!
As havoc from Shaddai it will come.

¹⁶Is food not cut off before our eyes—joy and gladness from God's House?

¹⁷Seed has shriveled under the dirt clod.
Storehouses are desolate, granaries are torn down,
for the grain has withered.

¹⁸How the animals groan!
The herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture.
The flocks of sheep also suffer.

¹⁹To You, ADONAI, I cry!
For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flame has set ablaze
all the trees of the field.

²⁰Also beasts of the field pant toward You.
For the water of wadis are dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

¹Blow the shofar in Zion!

^a 1:6. cf. Rev. 9:7-8.

Sound an alarm on My holy mountain!
Let all living in the land tremble—for the day of ADONAI is coming—surely it is near!^b

²A day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as blackness spreads over the mountains.

A great and mighty people—from antiquity there was never anything like it, nor after it ever again from generation to generation.^c

³A fire devours before them and behind them flame blazes up.
Like the Garden of Eden is the land before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness.

Nothing at all ever escapes them.

⁴Their appearance is like the appearance of horses—they gallop like war horses.^d

⁵Like the clatter of chariots,^e they leap on the tops of mountains, like crackling flame of fire devouring stubble,

like a mighty horde in battle array.

⁶Before them peoples are in anguish.
All faces become ashen gray.

⁷They run like mighty men.
They climb a wall like men of war.
They each march in line,
never deviating from their ways.

⁸One does not crowd another.
Each one marches on his own highway.
They plunge through the weapons, never breaking off.

⁹They rush on the city,
they run on the wall,
they climb up into the houses, coming through the windows like a thief.

¹⁰Before them land quakes, heaven trembles,
sun and moon become dark,
stars withdraw their brightness.^f

^b 2:1. cf. 2Pet. 3:10; Rev. 1:10.

^c 2:2. cf. Matt. 24:21.

^d 2:3. cf. Rev. 9:7.

^e 2:5. cf. Rev. 9:9.

^f 2:10. cf. Matt. 24:29; Rev. 8:12.

¹¹ADONAI utters His voice before His army.
For His camp is very vast—for mighty is it that carries out His word.
For great is the day of ADONAI—^g very terrifying! Who can endure it?

Call for Teshuvah

¹²“Yet even now”

—it is a declaration of ADONAI—
“turn to Me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping and lamenting.”

¹³Rend your heart, not your garments, and turn to ADONAI, your God.
For He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, abundant in mercy,
and relenting about the calamity due.

¹⁴Who knows? He may turn and relent, and may leave a blessing behind Him —so there may be a grain offering and a drink offering for ADONAI, your God.

Blow the Shofar

¹⁵Blow the shofar in Zion!
Sanctify a fast;
proclaim an assembly.
¹⁶Gather the people;
sanctify the congregation;
assemble the elders;
gather the children,
even those nursing at breasts.

Let the bridegroom come out from his bedroom and the bride from her chamber.

¹⁷Between the porch and the altar let the kohanim, ministers of ADONAI, weep, and let them say:
“Have pity, ADONAI, on Your people.
Don’t make Your heritage a scorn,
a byword among the nations.

Why should the peoples say,
“Where is their God?”^h

¹⁸ADONAI will be zealous for His land, and have compassion on His people.

¹⁹ADONAI will answer and say to His people:

^g 2:11. cf. Rev. 6:17.

^h 2:17. cf. Matt. 23:35.

“Behold, I will send you the grain,
the new wine, and the fresh oil,
and you will be satisfied with it.
I will no longer make you a mockery
among the nations.

²⁰“But I will remove the northern invader far from you—yes, I will banish him to a dry and desolate land—his vanguard into the Eastern Sea and his rearguard into the Western Sea.
His odor will go up—
Yes, his stench will rise.”

For He^a has done great things!

Rain and Restoration

²¹Do not fear, O land. Be glad! Rejoice!
For ADONAI has done great things.

²²Do not be afraid, beasts of the field, for the desert pastures have sprouted,
for the tree bears its fruit.
Fig tree and vine yield their strength.

²³So be glad, children of Zion, and rejoice in ADONAI, your God.
For He gives you the early rain^b for prosperity,

Yes, He will bring down rain for you,
the early and latter rain as before.

²⁴The threshing floors will be full of grain and the vats will overflow with new wine and fresh oil.

²⁵“I shall restore to you the years that the locust, the swarming locust, the canker-worm and the caterpillar have eaten—
My great army that I sent among you.”

²⁶“You will surely eat and be satisfied, and praise the Name of ADONAI your God, who has dealt wondrously with you.
Never again will My people be shamed

²⁷You will know that I am within Israel.
Yes, I am ADONAI your God
—there is no other—Never again will My people be shamed.”

^a 2:20. Delty pronoun referring to ADONAI.

^b 2:23. I.e., autumn and spring rain; cf. Jacob 5:7.

Promise of the Ruach ADONAI

“So it will be afterward,^c
I will pour out My Ruach on all flesh:^d your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams,
your young men will see visions.

²“Also on the male and the female servants will I pour out My spirit in those days.”

³I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth—blood, fire and pillars of smoke.^e

⁴The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, before the great and awesome day of ADONAI comes.

⁵Then all who call on ADONAI’s Name^f will escape,
for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be rescue, as ADONAI has said, among the survivors whom ADONAI is calling.”

4

Valley of Jehoshaphat

“For behold, in those days and at that time, when I restore Judah and Jerusalem from exile,

¹I will gather all nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will plead^h with them there on behalf of My people, even My inheritance, Israel, whom they scattered among the nations and they divided up My land.

²They cast lots for My people, traded a boy for a prostitute,

^c 3:1 4:1 21. Traditional Christian texts are numbered and sold a girl for wine, which they drank.”

⁴“Moreover, what are you to Me, Tyre and Sidon^l and all regions of Philistia? Did you render retribution for Me? Even if you were rendering retribution for Me, swiftly, speedily, will I return your retribution back on your own head. ⁵For you took My silver and My gold, and you carried My valuable treasures into your temples.

⁶“The children of Judah and of Jerusalem you sold to the Greeks in order to remove them far from their own territory.

⁷“Behold, I am rousing them from the place where you sold them, and I will return your retribution on your own head. ⁸I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the men of Sheba^l, to a nation far off—for ADONAI has spoken.”

⁹Proclaim this among the nations:
Prepare for war.

Stir up the mighty men.

Let the warriors advance and attack.

¹⁰Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning knives into spears.
Let the weak say, “I am strong.”

¹¹Rouse yourselves and come,
all nations around, and gather there.
ADONAI, bring Your mighty ones down!

¹²“Let the nations rouse themselves and go up to the valley of Jehoshaphat.
For there will I sit to judge all the surrounding nations.”

¹³Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.
Come, tread, for the winepress is full —the vats overflow—for their wickedness is great!^k

¹⁴Multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of decision!
For the day of ADONAI is near
in the valley of decision.

¹⁵The sun and the moon become dark,
the stars withdraw their brightness.

¹⁶ADONAI will roar from Zion and give His voice from Jerusalem.
Heaven and earth will shudder,

Shalom in Zion

but ADONAI will be a refuge for His people, and a safe place for the children of Israel.

¹⁷So you will know that I am ADONAI, your God, dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain.
Then will Jerusalem be holy,
and foreigners will cross through her no more.

¹⁸It will be in that day,
the mountains will drip sweet wine,
the hills will flow with milk,
and all the wadis of Judah will flow with water.^l

A spring will flow out from the House of ADONAI and water the valley of Shittim.

¹⁹Egypt will become a desolation and Edom a desert wasteland, because of the violence against the children of Judah, because they shed innocent blood
in their land.

²⁰But Judah will be inhabited forever—
Jerusalem from generation to generation.

²¹I will acquit their bloodguilt that I had not acquitted,^m for ADONAI dwells in Zion.

Amos

1

The Lion Roars at the Nations

¹The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds from Tekoa. He perceived these words concerning Israel during the days of Uzziah, king of Judah, and during the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. ²He said:

ADONAI roars from Zion,
From Jerusalem He gives His voice.
The shepherds' pastures mourn,
and the top of Mount Carmel withers.

³Thus says ADONAI:

For three crimes of Damascus,
even for four, I will not relent.
For they threshed Gilead with iron threshing sledges,

⁴I will send fire into Hazael's palace.
It will devour Ben-hadad's citadels.

⁵I will break the Damascus gate-bar and cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven, wielding Beth-eden's scepter.

So the people of Aram will go into exile to Kir.
ADONAI has said it.

⁶Thus says ADONAI:

"For three crimes of Gaza,
even for four, I will not relent.
For they exiled an entire population, giving them over to Edom.

⁷So I will send fire on the wall of Gaza
—it will devour its citadels.

⁸I will cut off Ashdod's inhabitant, wielding Ashkelon's scepter.
I will turn My hand against Ekron and the rest of the Philistines will perish.
My Lord ADONAI has said it.

⁹Thus says ADONAI:

For three crimes of Tyre,
even for four, I will not relent.
For they gave an entire population over to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of brothers.

¹⁰I will send fire on the wall of Tyre—
it will devour its citadels.

¹¹Thus says ADONAI:

For three crimes of Edom
even for four, I will not relent.
For he pursued his brother with a sword
and stifled his compassion.
For his anger tore continually, and he kept his wrath forever.

¹²So I will send fire in Teman—it will devour Bozrah's citadels.

¹³Thus says ADONAI:

For three crimes of the sons of Ammon
even for four, I will not relent.
For they ripped open pregnant women of Gilead to expand their territory,

¹⁴I will kindle fire on Rabbah's wall and it will devour its citadels, amid shouting on a day of battle, with storm on a day of whirlwind.

¹⁵Their king will go into exile,
he and his princes together.
Thus ADONAI has said.

¹Thus says ADONAI:

For three crimes of Moab
even for four, I will not relent.
For he burned the bones
of Edom's king to lime,

²So I will send fire upon Moab—
it will devour Kerioth's citadels.
Moab will die in an uproar, with a shout of alarm and the sound of the shofar.

³I will cut off the ruler from her midst,
and slay all her princes with him.
Thus ADONAI has said.

As for Judah and Israel

⁴Thus says ADONAI:

“For three crimes of Judah
even for four, I will not relent.
For they despise ADONAI’s Torah and have not kept His statutes.
Their lies have misled them—those their fathers walked after.

⁵So I will send fire upon Judah—it will devour Jerusalem’s citadels.”

⁶Thus says ADONAI:

“For three crimes of Israel
even for four, I will not relent.
For they sell the righteous for silver and the needy for a pair of shoes.

⁷They trample the head of the poor into the dust of the earth and thwart the way of the humble.

A man and his father go to the same girl,^a to profane My holy Name.

⁸Upon garments taken in pledge they stretch out beside every altar, and drink wine confiscated as fines in the house of their gods.

⁹“I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like cedars and as strong as oaks—yes, I destroyed his fruit from above and his roots from beneath.

¹⁰It was I also who brought you up from the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness
to possess the Amorite’s land.

¹¹I raised up prophets from your sons and Nazirites from your young men.
Is this not so, Bnei Yisrael?”
declares ADONAI.

¹²“But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and you commanded the prophets saying, ‘Do not prophesy.’”

¹³Behold! I will cause a tottering beneath you as a cart totters when full of sheaves.

¹⁴Then flight will fail for the swift.
The mighty will not strengthen his power,

The warrior will not save his life.

¹⁵The archer will not stand,
the fleet-footed will not escape,
the horseman will not save himself.

¹⁶The valiant among the warriors will flee naked in that day.”
declares ADONAI.

3

The Prophet Reveals Destruction

¹Hear this word that ADONAI has spoken against you, Bnei Yisrael, against the whole family that I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying:

²“Only you have I known from among all the families of the earth.
Therefore, I will punish you for all your iniquities.

³Can two walk together unless they meet by appointment?

⁴Does a lion roar in the forest
when he has no prey?
Does a young lion growl from his den unless he has taken prey?

⁵Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground
if it has no bait?
Will a snare spring up from the ground without taking anything?

⁶If a shofar alarm sounds in a city, will people not tremble?
If there is calamity in a city,
has not ADONAI caused it?

⁷For the Lord ADONAI, will do nothing, unless He has revealed His counsel to His servants the prophets.^b

⁸A lion has roared, who will not fear?
My Lord ADONAI has spoken, who shall not prophesy?

⁹Proclaim on the citadels in Ashdod and the citadels in the land of Egypt:
“Assemble on Samaria’s mountains:
Behold the great tumult within it, even the oppression within it.”

^a 2:7. Or, pagan temple prostitute.

^b 3:7. cf. John 15:15.

¹⁰They do not know how to be honest,
—declares ADONAI—
those who are saving up violence and destruction in their citadels.
¹¹Therefore thus says my Lord ADONAI:
“An adversary will surround the land!
He will bring down your strength.
Your citadels will be plundered ¹²Thus says ADONAI:
“Just as the shepherd snatches out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so will Bnei-Yisrael dwelling in Samaria escape with the corner of a bed or a head of a couch.
¹³Hear, and testify against the house of Jacob.”
It is the declaration of my Lord
ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot.
¹⁴“For in a day I shall punish Israel for the transgressions of Israel, and attend to the altars of Bethel—the horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.
¹⁵I will also strike the winter house together with the summer house.
The houses of Ivory will perish, and great houses will be demolished.”
It is the declaration of ADONAI.

4

Word for Worldly Women

¹Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on Samaria’s hill,
who oppress the poor,
who crush the needy,
who say to their masters:
“Bring, so we may drink.”
²My Lord ADONAI has sworn by His holiness: “Behold, days are coming upon you when he will drag you away with meat-hooks,
the last of you with fishhooks.
³You will go out through breaches—each woman straight ahead, and you will be cast to Harmon.”^a

It is the declaration of ADONAI.
⁴“Come to Bethel and transgress, in Gilgal multiply transgression.
Every morning bring your sacrifices and your tithes every three days.
⁵Offer up hametz as a thank offering, call out about freewill offerings—boast about it!
For so you love to do, Bnei-Yisrael.”
It is the declaration of my Lord ADONAI.

Yet You Have Not Returned

⁶“So also, I myself have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places—yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares ADONAI.
⁷“Also I myself have withheld from you the rain—when three months remain to the harvest,
I caused it to rain on one city,
while on another city I sent no rain;
one piece of ground would get rain, while the portion not rained on would wither.
⁸So two or three cities go staggering to one city to drink water, but would not be satisfied—
yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares ADONAI.
⁹“I struck you with blight and mildew.
Your many gardens and vineyards, your fig-trees and olive trees
the locust has devoured—
yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares ADONAI.
¹⁰“I sent among you a plague in the manner of Egypt.
I slew your young men by the sword,
with your chariot-horses in captivity.
I made the stench of your camp rise up even to your own nostrils—
yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares ADONAI.
¹¹I overthrew some of you as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah^b.

^a 4:3. Possibly Mount Hermon, or a dung heap.

^b 4:11. cf. Matt. 10:15; 11:23-24; Luke 17:29.

You became like a firebrand snatched from a blaze—
yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares ADONAI.

Prepare to Meet Your God

¹²“Therefore here is what I will do to you, Israel.
Because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, Israel!” ¹³For behold! He who forms mountains who creates the wind, who declares His thoughts to man, who makes dawn out of darkness, who walks above the heights of the earth—His Name is ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot!

5

Seek ADONAI and Live

¹Hear this word that I take up as a lament over you, O house of Israel: ²She has fallen, never rising again—virgin Israel—
She is forsaken on her land, with nobody to lift her up.
³For thus says ADONAI Elohim:
“The city that sends out a thousand will have a hundred left, and one that sends out a hundred will have ten left for the house of Israel.”
⁴For thus says ADONAI to the house of Israel: “Seek Me, and live!
⁵But do not seek Bethel,
do not go to Gilgal,
do not cross over to Beersheba.
For Gilgal will surely go into exile,
and Bethel will come to trouble.
⁶Seek ADONAI, and live—lest He rush like fire through the house of Joseph.
Yes, it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it.^c

^c 5:6. cf. Heb. 12:29.

Sins of Injustice

⁷You who turn justice to wormwood threw righteousness to the ground.
⁸He who made the Pleiades and Orion and changes deep darkness to morning.
Who darkens the day into night.
Who summons the water of the sea and pours it out on the face of the earth
—ADONAI is His Name.
⁹He flashes destruction on the mighty, so destruction will come against a fortress.
¹⁰They despise one who reproves
at the gate,
so they detest one who speaks with integrity.
¹¹Therefore, because you trample on the poor, exacting from him a burden of grain,
you built houses of hewn stone,
but will not dwell in them,
you planted pleasant vineyards,
but will not drink their wine.
¹²For I know your crimes are many and your sins countless—afflicting the righteous, taking bribes,
and turning the needy aside
at the gate.
¹³Therefore the prudent keep silent at such a time
—for it is a distressful time.
¹⁴Seek good and not evil,
so you may live,
and so ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot may be with you
—just as you said!
¹⁵Hate evil, love good,
maintain justice at the gate.
Maybe ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot will extend grace to Joseph’s remnant.^d ¹⁶Therefore thus said ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot, my Lord:
“There will be wailing in all plazas and in all streets.
They will say: ‘Alas! Alas!’

^d 5:15. cf. Rom. 12:9.

The farmer will be called to mourning along with those who know the lamentation song.
¹⁷In all vineyards will be wailing, for I will pass through your midst”
 —ADONAI has spoken.

Dreadful Day of ADONAI

¹⁸Oy to you—longing for the Day of ADONAI!^a
 What would it be for you?
 The Day of ADONAI will be darkness and not light.^b ¹⁹It will be as when a man is fleeing from a lion—and meets a bear!
 Or he comes home,
 leans his hand on the wall,
 and a snake bites him!
²⁰Will not the Day of ADONAI be darkness, not light?
 Gloom, not brightness?

Justice Better Than Sacrifices

²¹“I hate, I despise your festivals!
 I take no delight in your sacred assemblies.
²²Even if you offer me burnt offerings and your grain offerings,
 I will not accept them, nor will I look at peace offerings of your fattened animals.
²³Take away from Me
 the noise of your songs!
 I will not listen to the melody of your harps.
²⁴But let justice roll like water and righteousness like an ever-flowing torrent.
²⁵Did you bring sacrifices and offerings to Me in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel?
²⁶But you lifted up your images —Siccuth your ‘king’, and Chiun,^c your star gods—

^a 5:18. cf. 2Pet. 3:4.

^b 5:18. cf. Acts. 2:20.

^c 5:26. Or, tabernacle of your Moloch, and Saturn (of Babylonia).

which you made for yourselves,^d ²⁷So I will send you into exile, beyond Damascus.”
 ADONAI has spoken,
 Elohei-Tzva’ot is His Name.

6

At Ease in Zion

¹Oy! You who are at ease in Zion, trusting in Samaria’s hill!
 Distinguished ones of the foremost of nations—to whom the house of Israel comes ²Go over to Calneh and look.
 From there go to great Hamath, go down to Gath of the Philistines.
 Are you better than these kingdoms?
 Or is their territory larger than yours?
³Dismissing the day of calamity, you bring near the throne of violence.
⁴Reclining on beds of ivory, sprawling on their couches, dining on lambs from the flock and calves from amid the stall, ⁵chanting to the sound of harp like David, inventing their own instruments of song, ⁶drinking wine from bowls, anointing with choice ointments—yet they are not sickened over the breakdown of Joseph.
⁷Therefore now they will go into exile at the head of the exiles.
 Sprawling revelry will cease.
⁸My Lord ADONAI has sworn by Himself —declares ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot—“I loathe the arrogance of Jacob,
 I despise his palaces,
 so I will shut down the city and everything in it.”

⁹If ten people remain in one house, they will die. ¹⁰One’s beloved—the one burning incense for him—will lift him up to carry the bones out of the house, and he will say to one in the innermost recess of the house: "Is anyone else still with you?" And he will say: "No one." Then he will say, "Hush! For we must not mention the Name of ADONAI."

^d 5:26. cf. Acts 7:43.

¹¹For behold, ADONAI will command,
He will smash the big house to fragments and the little house to splinters.

¹²Will horses run on the cliff?
Will one plow there with oxen?
Yet you turned justice into venom, the fruit of righteousness into wormwood.

¹³You are rejoicing for no reason, saying: "Haven't we taken two horns for ourselves by our own strength?"

¹⁴"For behold, I am raising up against you,
O house of Israel, a nation, and they will afflict you from Lebo-Hamath^e to the Valley of the Arabah." declares ADONAI, the God of Hosts.

7

Locusts and the Trial by Fire

¹This is what my Lord ADONAI has shown me: Behold, He was forming locusts at the beginning of the spring crop—after the cutting of the king's hay. ²When the locust-swarm had finished devouring the vegetation of the land, I said:

"ADONAI Elohim, please pardon!
How can Jacob stand, for he is small?"

³ADONAI relented concerning this.
"It shall not be," ADONAI said.

⁴This is what my Lord ADONAI has shown me: Behold, ADONAI Elohim was calling for the trial by fire, and it would have devoured the great deep, and it would have devoured the territory. ⁵But I said:

"My Lord ADONAI, stop, please!
How can Jacob stand, for he is small?"

⁶ADONAI relented concerning this.
"This also shall not happen," says my Lord ADONAI.

^e 6:14. Or, the entrance of Hamat.

Plumb Line on a Wall

⁷This is what He has revealed to me: Behold, my Lord was standing by a vertical wall, and in His hand was a plumb line. ⁸Then ADONAI said to me: "What do you see, Amos?"

I said: "A plumb line."

Then my Lord said:

"Behold, I am setting a plumb line
among My people Israel—
I will no longer pass over them."

⁹So the high places of Isaac will become desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste, and I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

¹⁰Then Amaziah, the priest of Beth-el, sent word to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying: "Amos has been conspiring against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land cannot endure all his words. ¹¹For this is what Amos has said: 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go captive from his land.'"

¹²Then Amaziah said to Amos: "Seer, go away! Flee back to the land of Judah. Eat bread there, and prophesy there. ¹³But at Bethel you are not to prophesy any more—for it is a royal sanctuary and a house of the kingdom."

¹⁴So Amos responded and said to Amaziah: "I am no prophet, nor am I a son of a prophet. Rather, I am a shepherd tending fig trees. ¹⁵But ADONAI took me from following the flock and ADONAI said to me: 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.' ¹⁶So now, hear the word of ADONAI: You are saying, 'Do not prophesy against Israel and do not preach against the house of Isaac.'

¹⁷Therefore, this is what ADONAI says:

Your wife shall become a prostitute in the city, your sons and your daughters
will fall by the sword, and your land divided up by a measuring line.

Now, as for you—
you will die in an unclean land, and Israel will surely be led away captive out of its land."

8

A Basket of Summer Fruit

¹This is what my Lord ADONAI has shown me: See, there was a basket of summer fruit.

²He said: "Amos, what do you see?"

"A basket of summer fruit," I said.

Then ADONAI said to me:

"The end has come to My people Israel. I will not again pass over them.

³The songs of the palace will become howls in that day."

It is a declaration of my Lord ADONAI.

"So many corpses flung everywhere! Hush!

⁴Hear this, you who trample the poor, destroying the afflicted of the land

⁵saying: 'When will the New Moon be over, so we may sell grain? Or Shabbat, so we may open the wheat market?

—Let's reduce the ephah measure and increase the shekel, cheat with deceitful balances, ⁶buy the poor for silver, the needy for a pair of sandals!

We'll even sell the refuse of the grain!"

⁷ADONAI swore by the Pride of Jacob:

"Never will I forget all their deeds!

⁸Will not the land tremble over this?

Will not all who dwell in it mourn?

Yes, it will rise up like all the Nile

—it will surge and sink again like the Nile of Egypt."

⁹"It will be in that day"

—declares my Lord ADONAI—

"I will make the sun go down at noon, yes, I will darken the earth in daylight.

¹⁰I will turn your festivals into mourning and all your songs into a dirge.^a

I will pull up sackcloth on every waist and baldness on every head.

I will make it like the mourning for an only son—

its end a bitter day."^b

^a 8:10. cf. Jacob 4:9.

^b 8:10. cf. Luke 23:28.

¹¹"Behold, days are coming"

—declares my Lord ADONAI—

"when I will send a famine on the land

—not a famine of bread

nor a thirst for water,

but of hearing the words of ADONAI.^c

¹²So people will wander from sea to sea and roam from north to east, searching for the word of ADONAI, but they will not find it.

¹³In that day, the fair virgins and the virile young men will faint from thirst.

¹⁴Those swearing by Samaria's guilt will say, 'As your gods live, Dan!'

or 'As the way of Beersheba lives!'

But they will fall, never to rise again."

9

No Escaping His Eyes

¹I saw my Lord standing by the altar, and He said:

"Strike the tops of the pillars, so the porches shake!

Break all of them off at the head!

Then the last of them

I will slay with the sword— none of them fleeing will escape and no fugitive will slip away.

²If they should dig down to Sheol, from there My hand will take them.

If they should go up to heaven, from there will I bring them down.

³If they should hide themselves at the top of Carmel,

I will search them out and take them from there.

If they hide themselves from My eyes at the bottom of the sea, from there I will command the sea serpent to bite them.

⁴If they should go into captivity before their enemies, from there I will command the sword to slay them.

^c 8:11. cf. Matt. 4:4.

I will set My eyes upon them for calamity and not for prosperity.”

⁵My Lord is ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
It is He who touches the land
so it melts,
and all its inhabitants will mourn.
Then it will surge like all the Nile,
and sink again like the Nile of Egypt.
⁶He who builds His upper stories in heaven fitted its vault over the earth.
He who summons the waters of the sea and pours them out on the face of the earth
—ADONAI is His Name.

⁷“Are you not like the children of the Cushites to Me, Bnei-Yisrael?”
It is the declaration of ADONAI.
“Did I not bring Israel up
from the land of Egypt,
the Philistines from Caphtor, and Aram from Kir?”

⁸Behold, the eyes of my Lord ADONAI are on the sinful kingdom.
So I will utterly destroy it from the face of the earth.
Nevertheless, I will not annihilate
the house of Jacob.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

⁹“For behold, I have commanded, and I will shake the house of Israel
among all the nations, like grain being tossed in a sieve,
without a pebble falling to the ground.

¹⁰By the sword shall all the sinners of My people die, those who say:

‘The calamity will not overtake or confront us.’

David’s Sukkah Restored

¹¹“In that day I will raise up David’s fallen sukkah.^d
I will restore its breaches, raise up its ruins,
and rebuild it as in days of old ¹²—so they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations called by My Name.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI,
the One who will do this.
¹³“Behold, days are soon coming”
—it is a declaration of ADONAI — “when the plowman will overtake the reaper
and the one treading grapes,
the one sowing seed.

The mountains will drip sweet wine
and all the hills will melt over.

¹⁴Yes, I will restore the captivity of My people Israel.
They will rebuild desolated cities and dwell in them.
They will plant vineyards and drink their wine.
They will also make gardens and eat their fruit.

¹⁵Yes, I will plant them on their land, and they will never again be plucked up out of their land that I have given to them.”

ADONAI, your God, has said it.

^d 9:11. cf. Acts 15:16-18.

Obadiah

1

Edom's Arrogance and Ruin

¹The vision of Obadiah. Thus says ADONAI Elohim concerning Edom:

We have heard a report from ADONAI— and an envoy has been sent among the nations:

“Arise and let us rise up against her in battle.”

²Behold, I will make you least among the nations, you will be greatly despised.

³The arrogance of your heart has deceived you—

living in the clefts of the rock—his dwelling place is lofty, saying in his heart:

“Who shall bring me down to the earth?”

⁴Even if you soar like the eagle, and even if you set your nest among
the stars,
from there I will bring you down.”
declares ADONAI.

⁵“If thieves came to you, if robbers by night—

how ruined you would be!— would they keep stealing after they had enough?

If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning?

⁶How Esau will be ransacked, and how his hidden treasures searched out!

⁷All your allies will force you to the border.

The men that are at peace with you will deceive you and overpower you.
Those who eat your bread will set a trap under you.

(He has no discernment.)

⁸In that day,”

—declares ADONAI—

“will I not destroy the wise men from Edom and understanding from the hill country of Esau?”

⁹Then your mighty men, O Teman, will be shattered—so everyone will be cut off from the hill country of Esau by slaughter.

¹⁰“Because of your violence to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever.

¹¹On the day that you stood aloof—on the day that strangers carried away his wealth, while foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem—you were just like one of them.

¹²You should not look down on your brother on the day of his disaster, nor should you rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction.
You should not speak proudly in the day of their distress.

¹³Do not enter the gate of My people in the day of their disaster.
Yes, you. Do not gloat over their misery in the day of their disaster. Yes, you—do not loot their wealth in the day of their calamity.

¹⁴Do not stand at the crossroad to cut down his fugitives, and do not imprison his survivors in the day of distress.

The House of Jacob will be a Fire

¹⁵“For the day of ADONAI is near against all the nations.

As you have done, it shall be done to you.

Your dealing will return on your own head.

¹⁶For just as you have drunk on My holy mountain,
so all the nations shall drink continually.
Yes, they will drink and gulp down, and then be as though they had never existed.

¹⁷But on Mount Zion there will be deliverance,

and it will be holy.

Then house of Jacob will dispossess those who dispossessed them.

¹⁸The house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph flame, while the house of Esau will be straw—they will set them on fire and consume them.

So there will be no survivors of the house of Esau.”

—for ADONAI has spoken.

¹⁹Then those of the Negev^a will possess the hill country of Esau,

^a 1:19 and 20. Negev also known as, the South.

and those of the foothills the Philistines.

Then they will possess the territory of Ephraim and the territory of Samaria, while Benjamin will possess Gilead.

²⁰The exiles of this army of Bnei-Yisrael will possess what belonged to the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, while the exiles of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev.

²¹The victorious will go up on Mount Zion to judge the hill country of Esau. Then the kingdom shall be ADONAI’s.

Jonah

1

Jonah Runs From His Mission

¹Now the word of ADONAI came to Jonah,^a son of Amittai, saying: ²“Rise, go to the great city Nineveh and call out to her, for their evil has risen before me.”

³But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish, from the presence of ADONAI. He went down to Jaffa and found a ship going to Tarshish, paid the fee and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish—away from the presence of ADONAI.

⁴Then ADONAI hurled a forceful wind into the sea and there was such a mighty storm on the sea that the ship was about to shatter. ⁵So the sailors were afraid and cried out, each man to his own god. Then they cast the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the lowest part of the ship, to lay down and fell fast asleep.

⁶So the chief sailor came near to him and said to him, “What, are you sleeping? Get up! Call out to your god. Perhaps the gods will consider us, so we will not perish!”

⁷Then each man said to his companion, “Come, let’s cast lots—so we may know because of whom this evil is happening to us.” So they cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah.^b

⁸Then they said to him, “Tell us, now! On whose account is this evil happening to us? What is your profession and where did you come from? What is your land and from what nation are you?”

⁹He said to them, “I am a Hebrew and I fear ADONAI God of the heavens, who made the sea and the dry land.”

¹⁰Then the men became afraid with an overwhelming fear and they said to him, “What have you done?” For the men knew that he had fled from the presence of ADONAI, because he had told them. ¹¹So they said to him, “What should we do to you so the sea will become calm for us?”—for the storm was raging on.

¹³Nevertheless the men rowed hard to return to the land, but they could not, because the sea kept raging against them. ¹⁴So they cried to ADONAI and said, “Please, ADONAI, don’t let us perish on account of the soul of this man and don’t put innocent blood on us. For you, ADONAI, have done as you pleased.”

¹⁵So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea—and the sea stilled from its raging. ¹⁶Then the men became afraid with an overwhelming fear of ADONAI, and they offered a sacrifice to ADONAI and made vows.

¹Now ADONAI prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.^{c,d}

Jonah’s Prayer of Distress

²Then Jonah prayed to ADONAI his God from the belly of the fish, ³saying:

“From my distress I cried to ADONAI and He answered me.

From the belly of Sheol I cried for help and you heard my voice.”

⁴For you hurled me from the deep into the heart of the seas, and currents swirled around me.

All your waves and your breakers swept over me.”

⁵And I said, “I have been banished from before your eyes.

Yet I will continue to look toward your holy Temple.”

⁶Waters surrounded me up to my soul. The deep sea engulfed me— reeds clung to my head.

^a 1:1. cf. Matt. 12:39-41; 16:4; Luke 11:29-30,32.

^c 2:1. Most translations, 2:1 Is 1:17.

^d 2:1. cf. Matt. 12:40; 16:4.

^e 2:3. cf. Acts 13:35.

⁷To the bottoms of the mountains
I went down.
The earth with her bars was around me, forever!
Yet You brought my life up from the Pit,
ADONAI my God.

⁸As my soul was fading from me,
I remembered ADONAI and my prayer came to You, toward Your holy Temple.

⁹Those who watch worthless empty things forsake their mercy.

¹⁰But I, with a voice of thanks will sacrifice to you.
What I vowed, I will pay.
Salvation is from ADONAI.”

¹¹Then ADONAI spoke to the fish and it vomited Jonah onto the dry land.

3

Nineveh Repents

¹Now the word of ADONAI came to Jonah a second time, saying, ²“Rise and go to Nineveh, the great city, and cry out to it the proclamation that I am telling you.”

³So Jonah rose and went to Nineveh according to the word of ADONAI. Now Nineveh was a great city to God—the length of a three day journey. ⁴So Jonah began to come into the city for one day’s journey, and he cried out saying: “Another forty days and Nineveh will be overthrown!”

⁵Then the people of Nineveh believed God and called for a fast and wore sackcloth—from the greatest of them to the least of them. ⁶When the word reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his robe, covered himself in sackcloth, and sat in the ashes. ⁷He made a proclamation saying:

“In Nineveh, by the decree of the king and his nobles, no man or beast, herd or flock, may taste anything. They must not graze nor drink water. ⁸But cover man and beast with sackcloth. Let them cry out to God with urgency. Let each one turn from his evil way and from the violence in his hands. ⁹Who knows? God may turn and relent, and turn back from his burning anger, so that we may not perish.”

¹⁰When God saw their deeds—that they turned from their wicked ways—God relented from the calamity that He said He would do to them, and did not do it.

Jonah’s Displeasure at God’s Mercy

¹But it greatly displeased Jonah and he resented it. ²So he prayed to ADONAI and said, “Please, Lord, was not this what I said when I was still in my own country? That’s what I anticipated, fleeing to Tarshish—for I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and full of kindness, and relenting over calamity. ³So please, ADONAI, take my soul from me—because better is my death than my life.”

⁴Yet ADONAI said, “Is it good for you to be so angry?”

⁵So Jonah went out from the city and sat east of the city. There He made a sukkah and he sat under it, in the shade, until he saw what would happen in the city. ⁶Then ADONAI God prepared a plant and it grew up over Jonah, to give shade over his head to spare him from his discomfort. So Jonah was very happy about the plant. ⁷But God at dawn the next day prepared a worm that crippled the plant and it withered away. ⁸When the sun rose, God prepared a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah’s head so that he became faint. So he implored that his soul would die, saying, “My death would be better than my life!”

⁹Then God said to Jonah, “Is it good for you to be so angry about the plant?”

“It is,” he said, “I am angry enough to die!”

¹⁰But ADONAI said, “You have pity on the plant for which you did no labor or make it grow, that appeared overnight and perished overnight. So shouldn’t I have pity on Nineveh—the great city that has in it more than 120,000 people who don’t know their right hand from their left—as well as many animals?”

1

¹The word of ADONAI that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah—visions he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Smashing Idols in the High Places

²Hear, O peoples—all of you!
Attention, O land and everything in it!
ADONAI Elohim will be witness against you—

The Lord from His holy Temple.

³For behold, ADONAI is coming forth out of His place.

He will come down and trample on the high places of the land.

⁴The mountains will melt away under Him and the valleys will split apart like wax before the fire, like water being poured down a slope.

⁵All this is because of Jacob's transgression and the sins of the house of Israel.
Who is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?

Who are the high places of Judah?
Are they not Jerusalem?

⁶So I will make Samaria into a ruin in the countryside, planting places for a vineyard.

I will hurl her stones into the valley and will lay bare her foundations.

⁷All her images will be smashed, all her prostitute's pay burned with fire,
and all her idols I will make desolate.

For from prostitute's pay she collected them and to prostitute's pay they will return.

⁸Concerning this let me lament and howl.
Let me walk barefoot and naked.
I will make a howl like jackals and a mourning like ostriches.

⁹For her wounds are incurable.

For it has come up to Judah.

It has reached the gate of my people—even up to Jerusalem!

¹⁰Tell it not in Gath—weep not at all.
At Beth-le-aphrah^a roll in the dust.

¹¹Pass on, you who dwell in Saphir—nakedness and shame—she who dwells in Zaanan will not come out.

Wailing of Beth-ezel^b: He will take from you its standing-place.

¹²For she who dwells in Maroth has languished for something good.
For calamity has come down from ADONAI to Jerusalem's gate.

¹³Harness the chariot to the steed,
O inhabitant of Lachish!

It was the beginning of sin for the Daughter of Zion—because in you were found the rebellions of Israel.

¹⁴Therefore you will give parting gifts to Moresheth-gath—houses of Achzib as a deception to the kings of Israel.

¹⁵Yet I will bring the possessor to you, inhabitant of Mareshah.
The glory of Israel will come as far as Adullam.

¹⁶Shave yourself bald, yes shear your hair for the children of your delight.
Enlarge your bald spot like a vulture, for they went from you into exile.

2

Covetous Schemers

¹Oy to them who scheme wickedness, who work out evil upon their beds!
In the light of the morning, they do it, for the power is in their hands.

²They covet fields, so they seize them, or houses, and take them away.

^a 1:10. Meaning, House of Dust.

^b 1:11. Meaning, the house nearby.

So they oppress a man and his house—
a man and his inheritance.

³Therefore, thus said ADONAI:

“Behold, I am scheming a calamity against this family from which you cannot remove your necks.

Then you will not walk haughtily, for it will be a time of distress.”

⁴In that day He will lift up a parable for you, and there will be wailing lamentation, saying: “We have been utterly ruined!
He changes the portion of my people.

How He removes it from me!

To the faithless He apportions our fields!”

⁵Therefore you will have no one casting for territory by lot in the congregation of ADONAI.

⁶“Do not prophesy,” they prophesy.
Unless they prophesy about such things,
He will not turn back reproaches.”

⁷Is it said, “O house of Jacob, is the Ruach ADONAI short of patience?
Are these His deeds?”

“Do not My words deal well with one who walks uprightly?”

⁸But recently My people arose as an enemy.
You strip off the outer robe of a garment from those passing through confidently—those returning from war.

⁹The wives of My people you cast out from their exquisite houses.
From her young children you take away
My splendor, forever.

¹⁰Arise and go!
For this is not the resting place, because of uncleanness that destroys—a grievous destruction.

¹¹If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood speaks lies—“I will prophesy for you of wine and strong drink”—then he would be a spokesman of this people.

¹²“I will surely gather Jacob—all of you!
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel.
I will put them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock within its pasture.

They will be noisy with people.

¹³One breaking through will go up before them.^c

They will break through,
pass through the gate and go out by it.^d Their King will pass through before them
—ADONAI at their head!”

3

Unjust Leaders, False Prophets

¹Then I said:

“Hear, leaders of Jacob,
rulers of the house of Israel.
Is it not for you to know justice?

²You haters of good and lovers of evil, you are robbing their skin from them and their flesh from their bones.”

³Now that they have eaten
the flesh of my people, stripped their skin off from them,
and smashed their bones to bits, they cut it up like flesh in a pot,
or like meat within a caldron.

⁴Then they will cry out to ADONAI, but He will not answer them.
Thus He will hide His face from them at that time, because of their evil deeds.

⁵Thus said ADONAI about the prophets who are misleading My people, those who bite with their teeth and cry “Shalom”—a word that He did not put in their mouth—yet they consecrate war against him:

⁶“Therefore you will have night without vision,
and darkness without divination.
The sun shall set on the prophets,
the day shall become dark upon them.”

⁷So the seers will be ashamed and the diviners will be abashed.
Indeed all of them will cover their lips,
for there will be no answer from God.

^c 2:13. cf. Matt. 11:12.
^d 2:13. cf. John 10:7,9.

⁸Nevertheless I myself am filled with power—with the Ruach ADONAI— with judgment, and with might,
to declare to Jacob his transgression,
and to Israel his sin.

⁹Hear this, leaders of the house of Jacob,
rulers of the house of Israel:

You who abhor justice,
and twist everything upright,

¹⁰who build up Zion with bloodshed, and Jerusalem with injustice.

¹¹Her leaders give judgment for a bribe.
Her priests give direction for a price.
Her prophets practice divination for money.

Yet they lean on ADONAI by saying:

“Is not ADONAI in our midst?
No calamity will come upon us!”

¹²Therefore, because of you
Zion will become a plowed field.
Yes, Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins, and the Temple Mount will become a high place in a forest.

4

Torah Will Go Forth From Zion

¹But at the end of days
the mountain of ADONAI's House will be established as chief of the mountains, and will be raised above the hills.
Peoples will flow up to it.

²Then many nations will go and say:
“Come, let us go up to the mountain of ADONAI, to the House of the God of Jacob!
Then He will direct us in His ways,
and we will walk in His paths.”

For Torah will go forth from Zion, and the word of ADONAI from Jerusalem.

³He will judge between many peoples and decide for mighty nations far off.
They will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning shears.

Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
nor will they learn war again.

⁴But each man will sit under his vine and under his fig tree, with no one causing terror, for the mouth of ADONAI-Tzva'ot has spoken.

⁵Though all the peoples will walk each in the name of his god, so we ourselves will walk^a in the Name of ADONAI Eloheinu, forever and ever.

⁶“In that day”
—it is a declaration of ADONAI—
“I will gather her who is limping, and her who was banished will I collect,
even those whom I have afflicted.

⁷I will make her who was limping into a remnant, and her who was banished a mighty nation.
ADONAI will reign over them on Mount Zion from that time and forever.”

⁸But you, watchtower of the flock, are the hill of the Daughter of Zion.
To you she will come.

Even the former dominion will come,
the kingdom of the Daughter of Jerusalem.

⁹Why are you crying out aloud now?
Is there no King within you?
Has your counselor perished, so that agony has gripped you like birth pangs?

¹⁰Writhe and give birth, Daughter of Zion, like a woman in labor.

For now you will go forth from a city.
You will dwell in the field,
and you will come as far as Babylon.
There you will be rescued.
There will ADONAI redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

¹¹But now many nations have assembled against you, those who are saying, “Let her be defiled, and let our eyes gaze on Zion.”

¹²But they do not know ADONAI's thoughts, nor understand His plan.
For He has gathered them

^a 4:5. cf. Acts 14:16.

like grain to a threshing floor.
¹³Arise and tread, Daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron,
 and I will make your hooves bronze.
 You will thresh many peoples.
 I will devote their unjust gain to ADONAI, their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.
¹⁴Now gather yourself in troops,^b
 O Daughter of Troops.
 He has laid siege against us.
 With a staff they have struck the Judge of Israel on the cheek.

5

Eternal Ruler from Bethlehem

¹But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah^c—least among the clans of Judah—from you will come out to Me
 One to be ruler in Israel,
 One whose goings forth are from of old, from days of eternity.
²Therefore He will give them up until the time when she who is in labor has given birth.
 Then the remnant of His brothers will return to Bnei-Yisrael.
³So He will arise and tend His flock with the strength of ADONAI—in the majesty of the Name of ADONAI His God.
 And they will live securely, for then He will be great
 to the ends of the earth.
⁴This One will be shalom.^d
 When Assyria invades our land when he treads on our citadels, then we will raise up against him seven shepherds and eight human princes.
⁵They will devastate the land of Assyria with the sword—
 even Nimrod's land with a drawn blade.^e
 He will deliver us from Assyria,

^b 4:14-5:14. Traditional Christian text numbers as 5:1-15

^c 5:1(5:2). cf. Matt. 2:6.

^d 5:4(5:5). cf. Luke 2:14; Col. 1:20.

^e 5:5. Or, at its entrances.

when he invades our land,
 when he tramples on our territory.

The Remnant of Jacob

⁶Now the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples,
 like dew from ADONAI, like abundant showers on grass that does not wait for a man, nor lingers for the sons of men.
⁷For the remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
 in the midst of many peoples,
 like a lion among the forest beasts,
 like a young lion among flocks of sheep,
 who, if he passed through,
 would trample and tear to pieces,
 and there would be no deliverer.
⁸May your hand be raised up against your adversaries, and may all your foes be cut off.
⁹“Now in that day”
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI—
 “I will cut off your horses among you, and I will destroy your chariots.
¹⁰I will cut off the cities of your land,
 and throw down all your strongholds.
¹¹I will cut off sorceries from your hand, and you will have no more diviners.
¹²I will cut off your carved images and your sacred pillars from among you, so you will no longer bow down to the work of your hands.
¹³I will uproot your Asherah poles from among you, and destroy your cities.
¹⁴So I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations that have not listened.

6

ADONAI Pleads His Case

¹Hear what ADONAI is saying:
 “Arise! Contend with the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.
²Hear, ADONAI 's dispute, O mountains—

the enduring foundations of the earth.
For ADONAI has a dispute with His people and He will argue His case with Israel.

³O My people, what have I done to you?
Or how have I wearied you? Answer Me!

⁴When I brought you up from the land of Egypt,
and redeemed you from the house of bondage,
I sent before you Moses,
Aaron, and Miriam.

⁵O My people, remember, please:
What did Balak, king of Moab, propose?
What did Balaam son of Beor answer him?
From Shittim as far as Gilgal, so that you might acknowledge the righteous acts of ADONAI.”

What Is ADONAI Seeking From You?

⁶With what shall I come before ADONAI?
With what shall I bow myself before God on high?
Shall I present Him with burnt offerings, with year-old calves?

⁷Will ADONAI be pleased with thousands of rams, with hordes of rivers of oil?
Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my belly for the sin of my soul?

⁸He has told you, humanity, what is good,
and what ADONAI is seeking from you:
Only to practice justice, to love mercy,^a and to walk humbly with your God.

⁹The voice of ADONAI calls to the city—it is wisdom to fear^b Your Name—“Pay attention to the rod and to the One who appointed it.”

¹⁰Does the house of the wicked still have treasures of wickedness?
Or is an undersized ephah denounced?

¹¹Can I be pure with wicked balances?
Or with a bag of deceptive weights?

¹²For the rich of the city are full of violence and its inhabitants speak lies.

Their tongue in their mouth is deceit.

¹³So also I will strike you severely, desolating you because of your sins.

¹⁴You will eat but not be satisfied, and emptiness will be within you.
You will try to escape,
but you will not reach safety.

Whatever you make safe,
I will give to the sword.

¹⁵You will sow but not reap;
You will tread olives

but not anoint yourself with oil, and grapes but not drink wine.

¹⁶Now, you observe the statutes of Omri and every practice of the house of Ahab, and you walk in their counsels.

Therefore I will make you a horror, and her inhabitants a hissing,

so you will bear the scorn of My people.

7

None Upright Among Mankind

¹Woe is me! For I am like gatherings of produce in summer, like gleanings of a vineyard.
There is no cluster to eat,
no first-ripe fig that I crave.

²The pious have perished from the land,
there is none upright among mankind.
All of them lie in wait for blood.

A man hunts his brother with a net.
³Both hands are diligent at doing evil.

The official and the judge ask for a bribe.

The distinguished man utters a desire of his soul.

Thus they weave it together.

⁴The best of them is like a prickly bush,
the most upright like a thorn hedge.

The day of your watchmen—of your visitation—is coming.

Then their confusion will occur.

⁵Do not trust in a friend.

Do not trust in a close companion.

Guard the openings of your mouth from her who lies on your breast.

^a 6:8. Or, lovingkindness; cf. Matt. 23:23.

^b 6:9. Or, perceive.

⁶For son treats father with contempt;
daughter rises up against mother;
daughter-in-law against mother-in-law:
a man's enemies are the people of his own house.^c

Zion's Vindication

⁷But I—I will watch for ADONAI.
I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.
⁸Do not rejoice over me, O my enemy.
Though I have fallen—I will arise.
Though I sit in darkness, ADONAI is my light.
⁹I will bear the indignation of ADONAI, because I have sinned against Him,
until He pleads my cause,
and executes judgment for me.
He will bring me out to the light,
and I will behold His righteousness.
¹⁰Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her—she who said to me:
“Where is ADONAI, your God?”
My eyes will gaze at her—now she will be trampled like mud in streets.

¹¹A day to rebuild your walls—
a day the boundary will be far off, ¹²a day when they will come to you from Assyria to the cities of Egypt, from Egypt to the River,
from sea to sea,
and from mountain to mountain.
¹³Yet the land will become a wasteland because of her inhabitants,

^c 7:6. cf. Matt. 10:21,35-36; Mark 13:12.

because of the fruit of their misdeeds.

¹⁴Tend Your people with Your staff,
the flock of Your inheritance, dwelling alone, in a forest in the midst of a fertile garden.
Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead,
as in the days of old.
¹⁵As in the days of your coming out
from the land of Egypt
I will show him wonders.
¹⁶Nations will see and be put to shame despite all their might.
They will put a hand on their mouth,
their ears will be deaf.
¹⁷They will lick dust like a snake.
Like crawling things of the land, they will come trembling out of their hiding places.
To ADONAI Eloheinu they will submit in awe—in awe of You.

He Will Again Have Compassion

¹⁸Who is a God like You pardoning iniquity, overlooking transgression,
for the remnant of His heritage?
He will not retain His anger forever, because He delights in mercy.
¹⁹He will again have compassion on us.
He will subdue our iniquities, and You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.
²⁰You will extend truth to Jacob, mercy to Abraham, that You swore to our ancestors from the days of old.

Nahum

1

Judgment of Nineveh

¹The oracle^a concerning Nineveh—the book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

²A jealous and avenging God is ADONAI.
Yes, ADONAI is the avenger and master of wrath.

ADONAI is avenger to His adversaries,
Yes, a keeper of wrath for His foes.

³ADONAI is slow to anger and great in power, but He will by no means acquit the guilty.

ADONAI's way is with a whirlwind or with a storm wind, Clouds are the dust of His feet.

⁴Rebuking the sea, He made it dry,
as He has dried up all the rivers.
Bashan and Carmel languished,
Yes, Lebanon's budding languished.

⁵Mountains quaked because of Him, and the hills have melted.

The earth has heaved up at His presence—yes, the world and everything dwelling in it.

⁶Before His indignation who can stand?
Who can withstand His burning anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire,
and cliffs break down before Him.

⁷ADONAI is good as a refuge in the day of distress, and He knows those who take refuge in Him.

⁸But with an overwhelming flood,
He will make that place a total ruin.
Darkness will pursue His enemies.

⁹What can you scheme against ADONAI?
He will make a complete destruction.
Distress will not arise twice.

¹⁰For even like tangled thorns
they will be consumed,

^a 1:1. Or burden.

or like drunkards who are drunk, or like stubble that is fully dry.

¹¹Out of you has come a schemer of evil against ADONAI, a counselor of Belial.^b

¹²Thus said ADONAI:
Though they are strong and numerous, even so they will be mowed down and pass away.

Although I have afflicted you,
I will afflict you no more.

¹³I will now break his yoke from you, and tear apart your bonds.

¹⁴ADONAI has issued a command
against you:
no more will your name be spread.
From the house of your gods
I will cut off the idol and metal image.
I will prepare your grave—for you have become worthless.

2

¹Behold, upon the mountains are the feet^c of him bringing good news,^d proclaiming shalom.

O Judah, celebrate your festivals!
Fulfill your vows!

For never again will Belial pass through you.

He has been utterly cut off.

Devastation of Nineveh

²A shatterer has come up against you.
Guard the rampart! Watch the way!
Chazak! Be very courageous!

³For ADONAI turned aside Jacob's pride like Israel's pride—for spoilers emptied them out and ruined their vine branches.

^b 1:11. Or worthless one bringing ruin.

^c 2:1-14. Christian texts number chapter 2:1-14 as chapter 1:15-2:13.

^d 2:1 (1:15). cf. Acts 10:36; Rom. 10:15.

⁴He makes the shield of warriors' red—valiant men are clad in scarlet!
the chariot burns with metal fire on the day of his preparation,
The fir trees are shaken.

⁵The chariots dash madly about through the streets, rushing to and fro in the plazas, their appearance is like torches, darting like flashes of lightning.

⁶He will recall his majestic ones.
They will stumble in their march.
They will hasten to her wall.
Now the siege work is set up.

⁷The river gates will be opened;
and the palace will melt away.

⁸What was erected^e will be exiled and carried away.

Her handmaids are lamenting like the sound of doves, beating their breasts.

⁹Nineveh was like a pool of water for days—now they are fleeing.
Stop, stop! Yet no one turns back.

¹⁰Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold!
For there is no end of treasure—glory from everything precious.

¹¹Emptiness, desolation, waste!
Heart melting, knees buckling, anguish in all the loins,
all their faces grown pale!

¹²Where is the lions' den, the feeding place for young lions—where the lion went for a lion's cub—with nothing to disturb them?

¹³The lion rips enough for his cubs, strangles prey for his lionesses.
Yes, he fills his den with prey,
his lair with torn flesh.

¹⁴“Here I am against you”
—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot—
“I will burn up her chariots in smoke.
A sword will devour your young lions.
I will cut them off from the land of your prey, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard.”

^e 2:8. Or Hutzav, queen of Nineveh.

3

City of Corpses

¹Oy, bloody city!
Full of deceit, full of plunder.
The prey never departs.

²crack of whip, rattling of wheels, horse galloping, chariot jolting; ³horseman climbing up,
blade of sword and flash of spear,
Many slain, a mass of corpses
—no end to the corpses—
they stumble over their corpses!

The Harlot Humiliated

⁴Because of the many fornications of the elegant prostitute,
the mistress of sorceries, who sells nations by her fornications, and clans through her sorceries—

⁵Behold, I am against you
—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot—
I will lift your skirts over your face,
I will show nations your nakedness and kingdoms your disgrace.

⁶Yes, I will fling filth on you.
I will treat you with contempt and set you up as a spectacle.

⁷So it will be that all who see you will recoil from you and say, “Nineveh has been ravaged!

Who will lament for her?”
Where will I find comforters for you?

⁸Are you better than No-amon^f, situated among channels of the Nile, water surrounding her,
whose fortress and wall was water?^g

⁹Cush and Egypt were her might—unlimited.
Put and Libya were her allies.

¹⁰Yet she went off to exile among the captives.
Even her babes were dashed to pieces at the head of all streets.
They cast lots for her dignitaries,

^f 3:8. Or city of Amon (Thebes)

^g 3:8. Heb. the sea, i.e., the Nile.

and all her great men were bound with chains.

¹¹You too will become drunk.
You will hide yourself.
You too will seek refuge from an enemy.

¹²All your fortifications will be fig trees with firstfruits—when shaken, they will fall, into an eater's mouth.

¹³See, your people within you are women^a.
The gates of your land are wide open to your enemies—fire has devoured your gate-bars.

¹⁴Draw water for a siege.
Strengthen your fortifications!
Go into the mud and tread mortar.
Take hold of the brick mold.

¹⁵There fire will devour you.
Sword will cut you off,

devouring you like the locust.

Multiply like the locust.

Multiply like the swarming locust!

¹⁶You have multiplied your traders more than the stars of heaven.
Locusts have stripped and flown off.

¹⁷Your princes are like locusts, your officials like a locust swarm,
camping in the walls on a chilly day.
The sun rises, and they are chased away,
and where they are is unknown.

¹⁸Your shepherds have become drowsy, king of Assyria, your nobles lie down.
Your people are scattered on the hills,
with no one to gather them.

¹⁹There is no cure for your brokenness, your wound is severe.

All who hear the report about you, clap hands over you.

For over whom has not passed your constant cruelty?

^a 3:13. i.e., incapable of getting the better of armed adversaries.

Habakkuk

1

Burden for Justice in Judah

¹The oracle^b that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

²How long, ADONAI, have I cried for help, yet You do not hear?

I cry out to You—“Violence!”
yet You do not deliver.

³Why do You show me wickedness, and why must I behold mischief?
Yes, devastation and violence are before me.

There is strife, and contention arises.

⁴Therefore, Torah has no effect, and justice never goes forth.
For the wicked encircle the righteous
Therefore justice comes out perverted.

ADONAI’s Answer: Chaldeans

⁵“Look among the nations! Observe!
Astonish yourself! Be astounded!
For a work is being done in your days.
You will not believe it if it were told.^c

⁶For I am about to raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter, impetuous nation, marching all over the land,
to seize dwellings not its own.

⁷Dreadful and terrifying,
Its justice and dignity derive from itself.

⁸Its horses are swifter than leopards, fiercer than wolves at dusk.

Its horsemen come galloping.
Its horsemen are coming from afar.

They fly like a vulture,^d swooping down to eat.

⁹All of them come for violence—an assembling of faces to the east.

He gathers captives like sand.

¹⁰He scoffs at kings, and rulers are a joke to him.

He laughs at every stronghold—
he heaps up dirt and takes it.

¹¹Then a wind sweeps through and passes on.

He is guilty—
This, his strength, is his god.”

Appeal for Justice on Chaldea

¹²Are not You from antiquity—
ADONAI my God, my Holy One?
We will not die.

ADONAI, You have ordained him for judgment—as You, O Rock, have established him to chasten.

¹³With eyes too pure to see evil
You cannot look at such trouble!
Why do You look at the treacherous?
Why do You remain silent when a wicked one swallows up those more righteous than him?

¹⁴You made man like the fish of the sea, like a creeping thing—
with no one ruling over him.

¹⁵He brings up all with hook in jaw, drags away in his dragnet, or gathers with his fishing-net.
Therefore he rejoices with glee.

¹⁶Therefore he sacrifices to his dragnet, and offers incense to his fishing-net.
For through them his portion is rich and his food abundant.

¹⁷Will he empty his net for this reason —continually slaying nations—with no compassion?

2

¹I will take my stand at my post, and station myself on the rampart, and I will watch

to see what He will say to me, and what I will answer regarding my argument.

^b 1:1. Or burden.

^c 1:5. cf. Acts 13:41.

^d 1:8. Or eagle.

Vision for an Appointed Time

²Then ADONAI answered me and said:

“Write down the vision,^a make it plain on the tablets, so that the reader may run with it.

³For the vision is yet for an appointed time.

It hastens to the end and will not fail.

If it should be slow in coming, wait for it,
For it will surely come—it will not delay.”^b

Trust, Judgment and Glory

⁴Behold, the puffed up one—his soul is not right within him,
But the righteous will live by his trust.^c

⁵Indeed, because this wine betrays, a proud man never rests.

He enlarges his desire like Sheol,
Like death, he is never satisfied.
So he gathers to himself all nations,
and collects all peoples for himself.

⁶Will not all take up a proverb against him or a scornful riddle about him?

“Oy to one expanding what isn’t his!
How long? Oy to one burdening himself with heavy debts!”

⁷Will biting you arise suddenly, and those shaking you awaken,
as you will become plunder for them?

⁸Since you looted many nations, all the survivors will plunder you—because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land,
the city and all its inhabitants.

⁹Oy to one surely getting unjust gain for his house—
to set his nest on high,
to escape the reach of calamity!

¹⁰You schemed shame for your house, by cutting off many peoples,
so going wrong yourself.

¹¹For a stone will cry out^d from a wall, and wooden beams will answer.

¹²Oy to him who builds a city by bloodshed, and establishes a town with injustice!

¹³Behold, is it not from ADONAI-Tzva’ot that peoples toil to fuel a fire, and nations exhaust themselves for emptiness?

¹⁴For the earth will be filled with knowing the glory of ADONAI, as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁵Oy to one who makes his neighbor drink, who pours out Your fury,
and even making him drunk
In order to gaze at his nakedness!

¹⁶You are filled with disgrace rather than glory.
Drink—you too—and be uncircumcised.
The cup of ADONAI’s right hand will surround you,
and disgrace will come upon your glory.

¹⁷For the violence done to Lebanon will spread over you, destruction of beasts terrifying them, because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land,
the city and to all its inhabitants.

¹⁸What use is an idol
when its craftsman has carved it?
Or a metal image—a teacher of lies?
For a craftsman has trusted in the image that he created, to make dumb idols.

¹⁹Oy to one who says to wood: “Awake!”
To a dumb stone: “Rouse yourself!”
Can it teach?

Look, it is plated with gold and silver,
but it has no spirit within it.

²⁰But ADONAI is in His holy Temple.
Let all the land be silent before Him.

3Habakkuk’s Confidence in ADONAI

¹A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, as a passionate song.

^a 2:2. cf. Rom. 4:24; Rev. 1:19.

^b 2:3. cf. Heb. 10:37b.

^c 2:4. Or faithfulness; cf. Rom. 1:17; Gal. 3:11; Heb. 10:38.

^d 2:11. cf. Luke 19:40.

²ADONAI, I have heard the report about You and I have come to fear.
ADONAI, revive Your work
throughout the years, throughout the years make it known,
In wrath remember compassion.

³God comes from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah
His majesty covers the heavens, and His praise fills the earth.

⁴With brilliance like light, rays emanate from His hand.
There is the hiding of His power.

⁵Pestilence goes before Him, a fiery bolt goes forth at His feet.

⁶He stood, and the earth shook.
He looked, and startled nations.
Ancient mountains were shattered, hills of antiquity sank down.
His ways are everlasting.

⁷I saw tents of Cushan under calamity.
The curtains of the land of Midian are trembling.

⁸ADONAI, is your wrath against rivers?
Or Your anger at the rivers?
Or is Your fury with the sea?
For You ride on Your horses,
Your chariots of salvation!

⁹Your bow is laid bare.
Sworn are rods—a decree. Selah
You cleave the land with rivers.

¹⁰The mountains saw You and writhe.
A downpour of water overflows.
The deep gives its voice—
it lifts up hands high.

¹¹Sun and moon, stand in lofty abode.
At the flash of Your arrows they go, at the radiance of the lightning of Your spear.

¹²With indignation You pace the land.

With anger You thresh nations.

¹³You went out for the salvation of Your people—for the deliverance of Your anointed one.^e
You shatter the head of the house of the wicked—to lay it bare from foundation up to the top. Selah

¹⁴You have pierced his chief rulers with his own staff—
They stormed in to scatter me.
Their exultation is like devouring the weak in secret.

¹⁵You marched forth,
Your horses in the sea—
much water foaming.

¹⁶I heard, and my belly trembled.
My lips quivered at the sound.
Decay comes into my bones.
I tremble where I stand, since I must wait quietly for a day of distress to come up against the people who will invade us.

¹⁷Though the fig tree does not blossom, and there is no yield on the vines,
Though the olive crop fail,
and the fields produce no food,
the flock is cut off from the fold,
and there is no cattle in the stalls.

¹⁸Yet will I triumph in ADONAI,
I will rejoice in the God of my salvation!^f

¹⁹ADONAI my Lord, is my strength.
He has made my feet like a deer's, and will make me walk on my high places.

For the choir director: On my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1

Hand of Judgment Upon Idolaters

¹The word of ADONAI that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah:

²I will totally sweep away everything from the face of the earth, declares ADONAI.

³I will sweep away man and beast, I will sweep away the birds of the sky and the fish of the sea— also the stumbling blocks—the wicked. I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth, declares ADONAI.^a

⁴“I will stretch out my hand upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place —the names of the idolatrous priests along with the kohanim, ⁵those bowing down on the roofs to the host of the heavens.

those bowing down, swearing to ADONAI

and also swearing by Molech

⁶those turning from following ADONAI, not seeking ADONAI or consulting Him.

The Day Is At Hand

⁷Be silent before ADONAI God. For the day of ADONAI is at hand!^b ADONAI has prepared a sacrifice, He has consecrated his guests. He has consecrated his guests.

⁸On the day of ADONAI’s sacrifice, I will punish the princes, the king’s sons and all who dress in foreign attire.

⁹In that day I will punish all who skip over the threshold while filling their master’s House with violence and deceit.

¹⁰In that day—declares ADONAI— there will be the sound of screaming from the Fish Gate, wailing from the second district and a loud crash from the heights.

¹¹Howl, inhabitants of Maktesh!^c For all the people of Canaan^d are destroyed. All who weigh out silver are cut off.

¹²At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men whose spirits have hardened, who say in their hearts, ‘ADONAI will do neither good nor evil.’^e ¹³Their wealth will become plunder, their houses a ruin. They will build houses but not live in them. They will plant vineyards but not drink their wine.

¹⁴The great day of ADONAI is near— near and coming very quickly! The sound of the day of ADONAI is bitter— the shouting of the warrior is there.

¹⁵That day is a day of wrath a day of trouble and distress, a day of devastating storm and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

¹⁶a day of shofar and alarm against the fortified cities and against the high corner towers.

¹⁷I will bring such distress upon mankind that they will walk like the blind— for they have sinned against ADONAI. Their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung.

¹⁸Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to rescue them on the day of ADONAI’s wrath. With the fire of His passion the entire earth will be consumed.

^a 1:3. Cf. Matt. 13:41.

^b 1:7. cf. 2Cor. 1:14; 1Thes. 5:2; 2Pet. 3:10; Rev. 1:7,10.

^c 1:11. A district of Jerusalem for beating mortar.

^d 1:11. Or, merchant people.

For He will make a total, dreadful annihilation of all the inhabitants of the earth.

2

Judgment of Nearby Nations

¹Gather together! Gather together,
O shameless nation—

²before the decree is brought forth, before the day passes away like chaff, before ADONAI's burning anger comes upon you,
before the day of ADONAI's anger
comes upon you!

³Seek ADONAI, all you humble of the land who have executed His judgment.
Seek righteousness; seek meekness!^e
Perhaps you will be hidden on the day of ADONAI's wrath.

⁴For Gaza will be abandoned and Ashkelon will be a wasteland.
Ashdod will be driven out at noon and Ekron will be uprooted.

⁵Oy to the inhabitants of the seacoast,
the nation of Cherethites!
The word of ADONAI is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines, and I will destroy you until there is no inhabitant.

⁶The seacoast will become pastures, with meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.

⁷The coast will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah, upon which they will graze.
In the houses of Ashkelon
they will lie down in the evening.

For ADONAI their God will visit them and return them from captivity.

⁸I have heard the taunts of Moab and the jeers of the children of Ammon, who taunted My people and expanded on their border.

⁹Therefore, as I live, declares ADONAI-Tzva'ot God of Israel,

^e 2:3. cf. Matt. 6:3.

Moab will be like Sodom and Ammon like Gomorrah—a possession of weeds and a salt pit, a perpetual wasteland.

The remainder of My people will plunder them.

The remnant of My nation will dispossess them.

¹⁰This is what they will get for their pride, for they have taunted and expanded against the people of ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

¹¹ADONAI will be fearsome against them.
For all the gods of the earth
He will make waste away.
To Him will bow, each from its place,
the islands of the nations.

¹²You Ethiopians too will be slain
by My sword.

¹³He will stretch out his hand against the north and devastate Assyria and make Nineveh as a wasteland—dry as a desert.

¹⁴Flocks will lie down in her midst, all kinds of beasts—
both the little owl and the great owl will lodge in her pillars.

A voice will hoot in the window.
Ruin will be in the doorway, for the cedar beams will be exposed.

¹⁵This is the exultant city, dwelling securely, saying in her heart,
'It's me—no one else but me!'
How did she become a ruin, an abode for wild beasts?

Everyone who passes by her hisses and shakes his fist.

3

Downfall of Disobedient Jerusalem

¹Oy to the oppressive city—filthy and defiled!

²She did not obey; she took no correction.
She did not trust in ADONAI.
She did not draw near to her God.

³Her princes within her are roaring lions.
Her judges are wolves of the night,

leaving nothing but bones for morning.
⁴Her prophets are reckless, treacherous men.

Her kohanim have profaned what is holy.
 They do violence to Torah.

⁵ADONAI is righteous in her midst.
 He will do no injustice.

Morning by morning He brings His justice to light.

He does not fail.

Yet the unjust knows no shame.

⁶I have cut off nations.

Their towers have become desolate.
 I have destroyed their streets.

with no one passing by.

Their cities are laid waste, with no one—none living there.

⁷I said, 'Surely you will fear Me, you will accept correction, so her dwelling place

would not be cut off—

all that I appointed against her.'

But they arose early and made all their deeds corrupt.

⁸Therefore, wait for me, declares ADONAI, for the day when I rise up for plunder:
 for My decision is to assemble nations, to gather kingdoms,^a to pour out My fury upon them—all My burning anger.

For in the fire of My wrath all the earth will be consumed.

The Future Restoration of Israel's Remnant

⁹For then I will restore to the people pure speech, so that all of them may call upon the Name of ADONAI and serve Him shoulder to shoulder.

¹⁰From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,
 My worshipers,
 the daughter of My scattered ones will bring My offering.

¹¹On that day you will not be ashamed because of all your deeds

by which you rebelled against Me.
 For then I will remove from your midst your proud, arrogant ones, and you will never again be haughty on My holy mountain.

¹²But I will leave among you a people meek and humble.
 They will take refuge in the Name of ADONAI.

¹³The remnant of Israel will do no injustice nor will they tell lies, nor will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouths.^b

For they will graze and lie down and no one will make them afraid.

¹⁴Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion!

Shout in triumph, O Israel!

Rejoice and exult wholeheartedly,
 O daughter of Jerusalem!

¹⁵ADONAI has taken away your punishments.
 He has turned back your adversary.

The King of Israel, ADONAI, is in your midst.
 Never again will you fear harm.

¹⁶On that day, it will be said to Jerusalem,
 'Have no fear, O Zion,

do not let your hands fall limp.

¹⁷ADONAI your God is in your midst—
 a mighty Savior!

He will delight over you with joy.

He will quiet you with His love.

He will dance for joy over you with singing.^c

¹⁸"I will gather those among you who grieve over your moadim—

it is a burden of shame on you.

¹⁹Behold, at that time I will deal with all who oppress you.

I will save the lame and gather the outcast.

I will make them a praise and a name throughout all the land where they suffered shame.

²⁰At that time I will bring you in.

At that time I will gather you.

For I will give you renown and glory among all the peoples of the earth,

when I restore your captives before your eyes," declares ADONAI.

^b 3:13. cf. John 1:47; Rev. 14:5.

^c 3:17. Or, joyful shout.

Haggai

1

A Call to Build the House of ADONAI

¹In the second year of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of ADONAI came through Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah^d, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol^e: ²“Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot: ‘This people say the time has not come—the time for the House of ADONAI to be rebuilt.’”

³Then the word of ADONAI came through Haggai the prophet: ⁴“Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this House lies in ruins? ⁵But now,” thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot:

“Set your heart on your ways!

⁶You sowed much but bring in little.

You eat but are never satisfied.

You drink but not enough to get filled.

You put on clothes but no one is warm.

And whoever earns wages

works for a bag full of holes.”

⁷Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot: “Set your heart on your ways! ⁸Go up to the hills, bring wood and build the House. Then I will delight in it and I will be glorified,” says ADONAI. ⁹“You have looked for much, but indeed, there is little. What you have brought home, I have blown away. Why is this?”—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot—“because My House lies in ruins, while you are running, each to his own house. ¹⁰Therefore, because of you, the sky has withheld dew and the earth has withheld its yield. ¹¹For I have called for drought on the land, the hills and the grain, on the new wine, the oil, on what the ground brings forth, on mankind and beast, as well as all labor of hands.”

¹²Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and all the remnant of the people, heeded the voice of ADONAI their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, since ADONAI their God had sent him. So the people revered ADONAI. ¹³Then Haggai, the messenger of ADONAI, spoke to the people with the message of ADONAI, “I am with you!”—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁴Then ADONAI stirred the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came and did work on the House of ADONAI-Tzva’ot their God, ¹⁵on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

Glory of this Latter House

¹On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of ADONAI came through Haggai the prophet: ²Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and to the remnant of the people: ³“Who remains among you who saw this House in its former glory? So how do you see it now? Does it not seem as nothing in comparison in your eyes? ⁴But now, Zerubbabel, chazak!”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“and be strong, Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and all people of the land, chazak!”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“and work! For I am with you!”—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot. ⁵“According to the word I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt. My Ruach is standing in your midst. Do not fear!”

⁶For thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot: “In just a little while I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land, ⁷and I will shake all the nations. The treasures of all the nations will come, and I will fill this House with glory,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot. ⁸“The silver

^d 1:1. cf. Matt. 1:13-13; Luke 3:27.

^e 1:1. Yehoshua and Yeshua are variants.

^f 2:6. cf. Heb. 12:26.

is mine and the gold is mine!”—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot. ⁹“The glory of this latter House will be greater than the former,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot. “In this place, I will grant shalom”—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

ADONAI’s Promise to Zerubbabel

¹⁰On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of ADONAI came to Haggai the prophet, ¹¹“Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot: ‘Ask now the kohanim for a ruling. ¹²If a person carries consecrated meat in the corner of his garment, and with his corner he touches bread, stew, wine, oil or any food, will it become holy too?’”

Then the kohanim answered and said, “No.”

¹³So Haggai said, “If one who is unclean by contact with a corpse touches any of these, does it become unclean?”

The kohanim answered and said, “It does become unclean.”

¹⁴Then, Haggai answered and said, “So it is with this people. So is this nation before Me”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“and so is every work of their hands. What they were offering there was unclean. ¹⁵But now, set your heart back from this day onward. Before stone was set upon stone in the Temple of ADONAI, ¹⁶how were things? When one came to a grain-heap of twenty measures, there were ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were twenty. ¹⁷I struck you with blight and with mildew and with hail—every work of your hands—so you were nothing to Me”—it is a declaration of ADONAI. ¹⁸“Now, set your heart back from this day on—from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day the Temple of ADONAI was founded, set your heart: ¹⁹Is there still seed in the storehouse? Also the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate and the olive tree—are they still bearing fruit? From this day on I am going to bless you.”

²⁰Then the word of ADONAI came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, ²¹“Say to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah: ‘I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, ²²and I will overturn the throne of kingdoms and destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overturn the chariot and its rider, so horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of his brother.

²³“On that day”—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot—‘I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant’—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“and I will set you like a signet ring. For I have chosen you.” It is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

Zechariah

1

Return to the Lord

¹In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet Zechariah^a, son of Berechiah son of Iddo, saying:

²“ADONAI has been furious with your fathers.³ Therefore tell them, thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, ‘Return to Me’^b—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot—‘and I will return to you,’ says ADONAI-Tzva’ot. ⁴Do not be like your fathers to whom the former prophets cried out saying, thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, ‘Turn back now from your evil ways and from your evil deeds.’ But they did not listen or pay attention to Me.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI.

⁵“Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?⁶ But My words and My decrees, which I commanded My servants the prophets—did they not overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said ‘As He determined, ADONAI-Tzva’ot has dealt with us according to our ways and our deeds.’”

Among the Myrtle Trees

⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shevat, in the second year of Darius, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, saying: ⁸“In the night I saw, and behold, a man riding upon a red horse was standing among the myrtle trees that were in the ravine. Behind him were red, sorrel and white horses.^c

⁹Then I asked, ‘What are these, my lord?’

Now the angel speaking with me said to me, ‘I will show you what these are.’

¹⁰Then the man standing among the myrtle trees answered and said, ‘These are the ones ADONAI has sent to walk back and forth throughout the earth.’

^a 1:1a. cf. Matt. 23:35.

^b 1:3. cf. Jacob 4:8.

¹¹They answered the angel of ADONAI who stood among the myrtle trees saying, ‘We have walked throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth sits quietly and is still.’

¹²Then the angel of ADONAI answered and said, ‘ADONAI-Tzva’ot, how long will You withhold compassion on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah with whom You have been angry for 70 years?’ ¹³ADONAI answered the angel who was speaking to me with pleasant, comforting words.

¹⁴Then the angel speaking to me said, ‘Cry out saying, thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “I am exceedingly zealous for Jerusalem and for Zion ¹⁵and I am infuriated with the haughty nations. I was a little angry with them, but they furthered their own calamity.”

¹⁶“Therefore,” thus says ADONAI, “I will return to Jerusalem with compassion. My House will be built there,” declares ADONAI-Tzva’ot “and a measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.” ¹⁷Again cry out, saying, thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “My cities will again overflow with prosperity and ADONAI will again comfort Zion and will again choose Jerusalem.””^d

Four Horns and Four Craftsmen

¹Then I lifted up my eyes and behold, I saw four horns! ²I said to the angel speaking with me, ‘What are these?’

He said to me, ‘These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.’

³Then ADONAI showed me four craftsmen.

⁴I asked, ‘What are these coming to do?’

He answered, ‘These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no one could raise his head, but the craftsmen have come to frighten them, to cast down the horns of the nations that have lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.’

^d 1:17-2:13. Traditional Christian text reads as 2:1-17.

Measuring Jerusalem

⁵I lifted up my eyes—and behold, I saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.^a ⁶I asked, ‘Where are you going?’

He answered me, ‘To measure Jerusalem to see how wide and how long it is.’^b

⁷Then behold, the angel speaking with me left and another angel went out to meet him,⁸ saying to him, ‘Run, speak to this young man saying: “Jerusalem will be inhabited as a village without walls because of the great number of men and livestock in it. ⁹For I”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“will be a wall of fire around it and I will be the glory inside it. ¹⁰Oy, oy! Flee from the land of the north”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“because I scattered you like the four winds of heaven”—it is a declaration of ADONAI. ¹¹“Oy, Zion! Escape, you who are living with the daughter of Babylon.”

¹⁴“Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion! For behold, I am coming and I will live among you^c—it is a declaration of ADONAI. ¹⁵“In that day many nations will join themselves to ADONAI and they will be My people and I will dwell among you.’ Then you will know that ADONAI-Tzva’ot has sent me to you. ¹⁶ADONAI will inherit Judah as His portion in the holy land and will once again choose Jerusalem. ¹⁷Be silent before ADONAI, all flesh, for He has aroused Himself from His holy dwelling.”

3

Joshua the Kohen Gadol

¹Then he showed me Joshua the kohen gadol standing before the angel of ADONAI

^a 2:5(2:1). cf. Rev. 21:23.

^b 2:6(2:2). cf. Matt. 24:31; Mark 13:27

and the satan^d, standing at his right hand to accuse him.^e ²ADONAI said to the satan, ‘ADONAI rebukes you, the satan. Indeed ADONAI, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebukes you.’ ^fIs not this man a brand plucked out of the fire?’

³Now Joshua was wearing filthy garments and standing before the angel⁴ who answered and spoke to those standing before him saying, ‘Remove the filthy garments from him.’ Then to Joshua he said, ‘See, I have removed your iniquity from you and will dress you with fine clothing.’⁸

⁵Then I said, ‘Place a clean turban on his head.’

So they put a pure turban on his head and clothed him with garments while the angel of ADONAI stood by.

⁶The angel of ADONAI exhorted Joshua saying:

⁷Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “If you will walk in My ways and keep My charge, then you will judge My House and watch over My courts and I will give you a place to walk among these standing here. ⁸Listen well, Joshua kohen gadol, both you and your companions seated before you, because they are men who are a sign—behold, I will bring forth My servant the Branch. ⁹For behold! The stone I have laid before Joshua is one stone with seven facets. On it I will engrave an inscription,” declares ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “that I will remove the iniquity of this land in one day. ¹⁰In that day,” declares ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “every man will invite his neighbor to sit under the vine and under the fig tree.””

Two Olive Trees and the Capstone

¹Then the angel who had been speaking with me returned and woke me—like a man who is wakened from his sleep.

²He asked me, ‘What do you see?’

I replied, ‘Behold, I see a solid gold menorah

^d 3:1. Meaning, the accuser or the adversary, see Glossary.

^e 3:1. cf. Matt. 4:10; Rev. 12:9-10.

^f 3:2. cf. Jude 9,23.

with its bowl at the top of it, and its seven lamps on it with seven pipes for the lamps that are on the top of it. ³Also two olive trees are by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on the left side of it.^h

⁴Then I responded by saying to the angel speaking with me, ‘What are these, my lord?’

⁵The angel who spoke with me responded by asking me, ‘You do not know what these are?’

I replied, ‘No, my lord.’

⁶Then he responded to me by saying, ‘This is the word of ADONAI to Zerubbabel saying: “Not by might, nor by power, but by My Ruach!” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot. ⁷“What are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain. He will bring out the capstone with shouts of “Grace, grace” to it.”’

⁸Again the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ⁹“The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this House. His hands will also finish it. Then you will know that ADONAI-Tzva’ot has sent me to you. ¹⁰For who despises the day of small things? These seven—which are the eyes of ADONAI that run back and forth throughout the whole earth—will rejoice when they see the plumb line in Zerubbabel’s hand.”

¹¹Then I responded by asking him, ‘What are these two olive trees, on the right and on the left of the menorah?’ ¹²Again I asked him, ‘What are these two olive branches beside the two golden pipes that empty the golden oil out of them?’

¹³He said to me, ‘You do not know what these are?’

I said, ‘No, my lord.’

¹⁴So he said, ‘These are the two anointed ones, who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth.’

5

Flying Scroll and Basket

¹Once again I lifted up my eyes and behold, I saw a flying scroll!

^h 4:3. cf. Rev. 11:4.

²Then the angel asked me, ‘What do you see?’

I replied, ‘I see a flying scroll twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide.’

³He said to me: ‘This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land: everyone who steals will be swept away from here according to it, and everyone who swears will be swept away from here according to it.’ ⁴“I will send it out”—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot—“and it will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one who swears falsely by My Name and will reside inside his house destroying it, both its wood and its stones.”

⁵Then the angel speaking with me came forward, and said to me, ‘Now lift up your eyes and see what is appearing.’

⁶I asked, ‘What is it?’

He replied, ‘This is the measuring basket that goes out.’ He continued, ‘This is their eye in all the land.’ ⁷Then behold, a lead cover was lifted and a woman was sitting in the middle of the measuring basket. ⁸The angel exclaimed, ‘This is Wickedness!’ Then he shoved her back inside the measuring basket, throwing the lead weight over its mouth.

⁹After this I lifted up my eyes and behold, I saw two women emerging with the wind in their wings (they had wings like the wings of a stork) and they raised the measuring basket between the earth and the heaven.

¹⁰I asked the angel who was speaking with me, ‘Where are they taking the measuring basket?’

¹¹He said, ‘To build a temple for her in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will live there in her own place.’

6

Four Chariots

¹Again I lifted up my eyes, and behold, I saw four chariots emerging from between the two mountains—mountains of bronze!

²The first chariot had red horses, the second

^h 5:6. Heb. ephah=about 1 bushel.

chariot black horses,³ the third chariot white horses and the fourth chariot had strong dapple horses.^a

⁵The angel answered me saying, “These are the four winds of heaven that go forth from the presence of the Lord of all the earth.^b ⁶The chariot with the black horses is going to the land of the north and the white ones have gone out after them, but the dappled ones have gone out to the land of the south.” ⁷When the strong ones went out, they requested to go to walk throughout the earth. He said, “Go! Walk throughout the earth.” So they walked throughout the earth.”

⁸Then he called and spoke to me saying, ‘Look! Those going toward the land of the north have given rest to My Ruach in the north country.’

Crowns for Joshua

⁹And the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁰“Take from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah who have come from Babylon, and go the same day, go to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah! ¹¹Take silver and gold, make crowns and set on the head of Joshua son of Johozadak, the kohen gadol. ¹²Then speak to him saying, “Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot: Behold, a man whose Name is the Branch will branch out from his place and build the Temple of ADONAI. ¹³He will build the Temple of ADONAI. He will bear splendor and sit and rule on His throne. Thus He will be a kohen on His throne. So a counsel of shalom will be between them both. ¹⁴The crowns will be in the Temple of ADONAI as a memorial to Helem, Tobijah and Jedaiah, and to Chen son of Zephaniah. ¹⁵Those who are far off will come and build in the Temple of ADONAI.” Then you will know that ADONAI-Tzva’ot has sent me to you. It will come to pass if you diligently obey the voice of ADONAI your God.”

^a 6:2-3. cf. Rev. 6:2, 4-5.

^b 6:5. cf. Matt. 24:31; Rev. 7:1.

Justice and Chesed

¹In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of ADONAI came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, in Kislev. ²Now Bethel sent Sarezzer and Regem-melech together with his men to seek the favor of ADONAI,³ and to speak to the kohanim of the House of ADONAI-Tzva’ot and to the prophets saying, “Should I mourn and consecrate myself in the fifth month as I have done for so many years?”

⁴Then the word of ADONAI-Tzva’ot came to me saying: ⁵“Speak to all the people of the land and to the kohanim saying, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh months for the past seventy years, did you really fast for Me? ⁶When you eat and drink, are you not eating and drinking for yourself? ⁷Are not these the words that ADONAI proclaimed through the former prophets when Jerusalem with its surrounding cities were inhabited and prosperous, when the Negev and the lowland were inhabited?’”

⁸Again the word of ADONAI came to Zechariah saying, ⁹“Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot: ‘Administer true judgment and practice mercy and compassion each to his brother. ¹⁰Do not oppress the widow or the orphan, the outsider or the poor. Furthermore, do not let any of you devise evil against one another in your heart.’

¹¹“But they refused to pay attention. They stubbornly turned their backs and stopped their ears from hearing. ¹²Indeed, they made their hearts as hard as flint preventing them from hearing the Torah or the words that ADONAI-Tzva’ot sent by His Ruach through the former prophets. Consequently, great wrath came from ADONAI-Tzva’ot. ¹³It came about that just as He called and they did not listen, so they would call and I would not listen,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot. ¹⁴“I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations they have not known. Thus the land was left so desolate behind them that no one passed through or returned, for they made the pleasant land desolate.”

Zealous for Zion

¹Then the word of ADONAI-Tzva'ot came saying: ²"Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "I am exceedingly zealous for Zion, I am burning with jealousy for her." ³Thus says ADONAI, "I will return to Zion and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth and the mountain of ADONAI-Tzva'ot will be called the Holy Mountain." ⁴Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "Once again old men and old women will sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with his staff in his hand because of his age. ⁵The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

⁶"Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, 'It may seem difficult in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, but will it also be difficult in My eyes?'—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot. ⁷"Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, 'Behold, I will save My people from the land of the east and from the land of the west. ⁸I will bring them back and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem. They will be My people and I will be their God, in truth and righteousness.' ⁹"Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, 'Let your hands be strong—you who hear these words spoken by the prophets who were there the day the foundation of the House of ADONAI-Tzva'ot was laid—so that the Temple may be rebuilt. ¹⁰Before those days there were no wages for man or animal, nor was there any shalom from adversity for those who came or went because I set every one against his neighbor. ¹¹But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days"—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

¹²"For there will be a sowing of shalom: the vine will yield its fruit, the ground will produce its increase, and the heavens will give their dew. I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. ¹³It will happen that just as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you and you will be a blessing. Fear not!

Let your hands be strong!"

¹⁴For thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "Just as I determined to harm you when your fathers provoked Me to anger," says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, 'and I did not relent, ¹⁵so I have again determined in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Fear not! ¹⁶These are the things that you are to do: speak the truth one to another; administer the judgment of truth and shalom in your gates; ^d¹⁷do not let any of you devise evil in your hearts against your neighbor; and do not love false oaths, for I hate all these things,"—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁸Again the word of ADONAI-Tzva'ot came saying: ¹⁹"Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "The fast of the fourth, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh and the fast of the tenth month will become joy, gladness and cheerful moadim. Therefore, love truth and shalom!"

²⁰Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "Peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will again come.

²¹The inhabitants of one city will go to another saying 'Let us go to entreat the favor of ADONAI and to seek ADONAI-Tzva'ot. I also am going.'

²²Indeed, many peoples and powerful nations will come to seek ADONAI-Tzva'ot in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of ADONAI." ²³Thus says ADONAI-Tzva'ot, "In those days it will come to pass that ten men from every language of the nations will grasp the corner of the garment of a Jew saying, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

9

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

¹The burden^e of the word of ADONAI is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus. For the eyes of men and all the tribes of Israel are toward ADONAI—

²and also upon Hamath bordering it, and upon Tyre and Sidon, ^d 8:16. cf. Eph. 4:25.

^e 9:1. Or, weighty oracle.

- though they are very shrewd.
³Tyre built herself a fortress and heaped up silver like dust and fine gold like dirt in the streets.
⁴Behold, the Lord will impoverish her and destroy her power on the sea, while she will be devoured by fire.
⁵Ashkelon will see it and fear.
 Gaza will writhe in pain as will Ekron because her hope will dry up.
 The king will perish from Gaza and Ashkelon will be uninhabited.
⁶A mongrel people will live in Ashdod and I will cut off the Philistines' pride.
⁷I will remove the blood from his mouth, forbidden food from between his teeth.
 Whoever is left will be a remnant for our God.
 He will be like a leader in Judah,
 and Ekron will be like a Jebusite.
⁸But I will camp around My House against marauding forces.
 No oppressor will overrun them again—for now I watch with My own eyes.

Zion's Coming King

- ⁹Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion!
 Shout, daughter of Jerusalem!
 Behold, your king is coming to you,
 a righteous one bringing salvation.
 He is lowly, riding on a donkey—on a colt, the foal of a donkey.^a ¹⁰I will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem, and the war bow will be broken.
 He will speak shalom to the nations.
 His rule will extend from sea to sea,
 from the River to the ends of the earth.
¹¹As for you also,
 by the blood of your covenant,^b
 I will release your prisoners from the waterless Pit.
¹²Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope!
 Today I declare that I will restore twice as much to you.

^a 9:9. cf. Matt. 21:5; John 12:15.

^b 9:11. cf. Matt. 26:28; Luke 22:20.

- ¹³I will bend Judah as my bow and fill it with Ephraim.
 I will rouse your sons, O Zion against your sons, O Greece.
 I will wield you like a warrior's sword.
¹⁴Then ADONAI will be seen over them as His arrow flashes like lightning.
 ADONAI Elohim will blow the shofar and march in whirlwinds of the south.^c ¹⁵ADONAI-Tzva'ot will defend them.
 They will consume and conquer with sling stones.
 They will drink and roar as with wine and be filled like a bowl, like the corners of the altar.
¹⁶ADONAI their God will save them on that day
 as the flock of His people.
 They will be like gems of a crown sparkling over His land.
¹⁷How good and beautiful it will be!
 Grain will make the young men thrive and new wine the virgin women."

10

Good Shepherd Cares for Judah

- ¹Ask ADONAI for rain in spring!
 ADONAI makes the storm clouds and will give rain showers and plants of the field to everyone.
²The idols utter deceit and diviners see lies.
 They relate false dreams and comfort in vain.
 Therefore the people wander like sheep, afflicted because there is no shepherd.^d ³My anger burns against the shepherds and I will punish the leaders.^e ADONAI-Tzva'ot cares for His flock,
 the house of Judah.
 He will make them His valiant steed
 in battle.

^c 9:14. cf. Matt. 24:31.

^d 10:2. cf. Matt. 9:36; Mark 6:34; John 10:12.

^e 10:3. Lit. male goats.

⁴From Judah will come the cornerstone,^f from him the tent peg, from him the battle bow and from him every leader together.
⁵They will be like mighty men treading down muddy streets in war.
 They will fight,
 because ADONAI is with them and will put horsemen to shame.
⁶I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph.
 I will bring them back,
 for I have compassion on them.
 They will be as though I had never spurned them, for I am ADONAI their God
 and I will answer them!
⁷The Ephraimites will be like a warrior.
 Their hearts will be glad as with wine.
 Their children will see and be glad.
 Their hearts will rejoice in ADONAI.
⁸I will signal for them and gather them.
 Surely I will redeem them and they will be as numerous as before.
⁹Though I scatter them among the peoples,
 they will remember Me in distant places.
 They and their children will survive and return.
¹⁰I will restore from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
 I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon till there is no room for them.
¹¹He will cross the turbulent sea and calm its raging waves.
 All the depths of the Nile will dry up,
 the pride of Assyria brought down,
 the scepter of Egypt removed.
¹²So I will strengthen them in ADONAI and they will walk in His Name.
 It is a declaration of ADONAI.

11

Devastation of Surrounding Lands

¹Open your gates, Lebanon—

^f 10:4. cf. Acts 4:11.

fire will devour your cedars!

²Wail, cypress tree! For the cedar has fallen.
 Those majestic ones are devastated.
 Wail, oaks of Bashan!
 For the thick forest is cut down!
³Listen to the wailing of the shepherds, for their glory is destroyed!
 Listen to the roaring of young lions,
 for Jordan's thickets are ruined!

Two Staffs

⁴Thus said ADONAI my God: "Shepherd the flock marked for slaughter! ⁵Their buyers slay them and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be ADONAI, for I am rich!' Their own shepherds do not spare them. ⁶I will no longer have compassion on the inhabitants of the land"—it is a declaration of ADONAI. "Behold, I will hand everyone over to his neighbor and his king. They will devastate the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand."

⁷So I pastured the flock for the slaughter, especially the afflicted of the flock. Then I took two staffs—one I called Favor and the other I called Union—and I pastured the flock. ⁸Next I disposed of the three shepherds in one month—for my soul was impatient with them and their soul also detested me. ⁹Then I said, "I will not shepherd you! Let the dying die, let the perishing perish, and let those who are left eat one another's flesh!" ¹⁰So I took my staff called Favor and broke it to pieces, in order to break my covenant that I made with all people. ¹¹It was broken on that day. The afflicted of the flock that were watching me knew that this was the word of ADONAI."

¹²Then I said to them, "If it seems good to you, pay me my wages, but if not, don't bother!" So they weighed out my wages—30 pieces of silver.^g

¹³Then ADONAI said to me, "Throw it to the potter—that exorbitant price at which they valued Me!" So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw them into the House of ADONAI, to the potter.^h

^g 11:12. cf. Matt. 26:15.

^h 11:13. cf. Matt. 27:9-10; Acts 1:18-19.

¹⁴Then I broke my second staff called Union, in order to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel. ¹⁵Again ADONAI said to me, “Once more take up the equipment of a foolish shepherd!” ¹⁶For behold, I am going to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for the dying, seek out the young or heal the injured or nourish the healthy. Instead he will eat the meat of the choice sheep, even tearing off their hoofs.”

¹⁷Woe to the worthless shepherd who deserts the flock!^a May a sword fell his arm and his right eye!
 May his arm be all withered and his right eye totally blinded!”

12

Jerusalem, a Cup of Reeling

¹The burden of the word of ADONAI concerning Israel.

A declaration of ADONAI, who stretched out the heavens, laid the foundation of the earth and formed the spirit of man within him: ²“Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples when they besiege Jerusalem as well as Judah. ³Moreover, in that day I will make Jerusalem a massive stone for all the people. All who try to lift it will be cut to pieces. Nevertheless, all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against her. ⁴In that day”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“I will strike every horse with confusion and its rider with madness. I will keep My eyes on the house of Judah but will blind every horse of the peoples. ⁵Then the leaders of Judah will say in their heart, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength through ADONAI-Tzva’ot their God.’”

⁶“In that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, like a burning torch among sheaves. They will devour on the right and on the left all the surrounding peoples, yet Jerusalem will remain in her place, in Jerusalem. ⁷ADONAI also will save the tents of Judah first, so that the honor of the house of David and the honor of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not exceed that of Judah. ⁸In that day ADONAI will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem so that the weakest among them that day will be like David and the house of David will be like God—like the angel of ADONAI before them. ⁹It will happen in that day that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Mourning the Pierced One

¹⁰“Then I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and supplication, when they will look toward Me whom they pierced.^b They will mourn for him as one mourns for an only son and grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for a firstborn. ¹¹In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, mourning like Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddo. ¹²The land will mourn clan by clan. The clan of the house of David by itself and their wives by themselves, the clan of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves, ¹³the clan of the house of Levi by itself and their wives by themselves, the clan of the Shimeites by itself and their wives by themselves. ¹⁴Each of the remaining clans will mourn by itself and their wives by themselves.”

Final Cleansing from Sin

¹“In that day a spring will be opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem to cleanse them from sin and impurity. ²It will happen in that day”—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva’ot—“that I will erase the names of the idols from the land and they will no longer be remembered. Furthermore, I will remove the prophets and the unclean spirit from the land. ³If anyone still prophesies his father and his mother to whom he was born will say to him, 'You cannot live because you tell lies in the Name of ADONAI.' When he prophesies, his own father and mother, the ones who bore him, will pierce him through. ⁴Therefore in that day each 'prophet' will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies. He will no longer wear a hairy mantle in order to deceive ⁵but will say, 'I am not a prophet. I am a farmer—I have been a bondservant from my youth.' ⁶Then someone will ask him, "What are these wounds between your hands?"—and he will answer, "Those that I received in the house of my friends."

⁷Awake, O sword, against My shepherd, against the man who is My companion!
It is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot.
Strike the shepherd and the sheep will be scattered!^d
I will turn My hand against the little ones.

⁸Then it will happen
—it is a declaration of ADONAI—
that in the entire land
two-thirds will be cut off and die, but a third will be left in it.

⁹This third I will bring through the fire.
I will refine them as silver is refined,
and will test them as gold is tested.
They will call on My Name
and I will answer them.
I will say, 'They are My people,' and they will answer, 'ADONAI is my God.'^e

14

Coming to the Mount of Olives

¹Behold, a day of ADONAI is coming when your plunder will be divided in your midst. ²I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to wage war. The city shall be captured, the houses ransacked and the women ravished. Half of the city will be exiled but the remainder of the people will not be cut off from the city. ³Then ADONAI will go forth and fight against those nations as He fights in a day of battle. ⁴In that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives which lies to the east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a huge valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north and half of it toward the south. ⁵Then you will flee through My mountain valley because the mountain valley will reach to Azel. Yes, you will flee like you fled from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then ADONAI my God will come and all the kedoshim with Him.^f

⁶In that day there will be no light, cold or frost. ⁷It will be a day known only to ADONAI, neither day nor night—even in the evening time there will be light.^g ⁸Moreover, in that day living waters will flow from Jerusalem, half toward the eastern sea and half toward the western sea, both in the summer and in the winter.^h ⁹ADONAI will then be King over all the earth. In that day ADONAI will be Echad and His Name Echad.ⁱ

¹⁰The whole land, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem, will become like the Arabah. Jerusalem will be raised up and occupy her place, from the Benjamin Gate to the place of the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. ¹¹People will dwell in her, and no longer will there be a ban of destruction—Jerusalem will live in security.

¹²Now this is the plague with which ADONAI will strike all the peoples that wage war against Jerusalem: their flesh will rot while they are standing on their feet; their eyes will rot in their sockets; and their tongues will rot in their mouths. ¹³It will happen in that day that a great panic from ADONAI will be among them. Each person will seize the hand of his neighbor and they will attack each other. ¹⁴Even Judah will fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding peoples will be gathered together—an abundance of gold, silver and apparel. ¹⁵A similar plague will strike the horse, the mule, the camel, the donkey and all the animals in that camp.

¹⁶Then all the survivors from all the nations that attacked Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, ADONAI-Tzva'ot, and to celebrate Sukkot. ¹⁷Furthermore, if any of the nations on earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, ADONAI-Tzva'ot, they will have no rain. ¹⁸If the Egyptians do not go up and celebrate, they will have no rain. Instead, there will be the plague that ADONAI will inflict on the nations that do not go up to celebrate Sukkot. ¹⁹This will be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate Sukkot. ²⁰In that day "Holy to ADONAI" will be inscribed on the bells of the horses and the pots in House of ADONAI will be like the sacred bowls in front of the altar. ²¹In fact every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be Holy to ADONAI-Tzva'ot, so that everyone who comes to sacrifice will take them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite^a in the House of ADONAI-Tzva'ot.^b

^a 14:21. Or merchant. Canaanites, especially Phoenicians were merchant traders.

^b 14:21. cf. Rom. 14:6-7; 1Cor. 10:13.

Malachi

1

Jacob Loved ADONAI

¹An oracle^c: The word of ADONAI to Israel by Malachi^d.

²“I loved you,” says ADONAI.
But you say: “How have you loved us?”
“Was Esau not Jacob’s brother?”
—it is the declaration of ADONAI—
“Yet I loved Jacob ³and Esau I hated.
I made his hills a wasteland and gave his inheritance to jackals of the wilderness.”

⁴For Edom may say,
“We have been beaten down, but we will return and rebuild the ruins.”
Thus ADONAI-Tzva’ot says:
“They may rebuild
but I will tear down.
They will be called a wicked territory,
the people ADONAI denounced forever.

⁵So you will see, and you will say:
“May ADONAI be magnified beyond the border of Israel!”

Despicable Sacrifices

⁶“A son honors his father, and a servant his master. So if I am Father, where is My honor? If I am Master, where is My reverence?”—says ADONAI-Tzva’ot—“you, kohanim who despise My Name!”

But you say, “How did we despise Your Name?”

⁷“By offering defiled bread on My altar.”
But you say, “How did we defile You?” When you say, “The table of ADONAI is despicable.”

⁸“When you bring a blind one as sacrifice, is it not wrong? Or when you bring a lame or sick one, is it not wrong? Offer them now to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Or will he acknowledge you favorably?” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

⁹“So now, implore God’s favor! Then, will He be gracious to us? Since this has come from your hands, will He accept any of it from you?” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

¹¹“For from sunrise to its setting^e My Name will be great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to My Name with a pure grain offering, for My Name will be great among the nations,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

¹²But you are profaning it when you say, “The table of ADONAI is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food—despicable!” ¹³You also say, “It’s so tedious!”

“And you sniff at it,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot. “So you bring plunder, the lame and the sick. Then you bring them as the offering. Should I accept this from your hand?” says ADONAI.

¹⁴“Moreover, cursed is a deceiver who has in his flock a male, but makes a vow and sacrifices something blemished to my Lord. For I am a great King,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, “and My Name shall be revered among the nations.”

2

Warning to the Kohanim and Levites

this commandment is for you.

²If you will not listen, and if you will not take to heart to give glory to My Name”
—says ADONAI-Tzva’ot—

“then I will send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings.
Yes, indeed I have cursed them, because you did not take it to heart.

^c 1:1. Or burden.

^d 1:1. Or My messenger, or My angel.

^e 1:11. cf. Matt. 8:11.

³Behold, I am rebuking the seed on account of you, and will spread dung on your faces
 —the dung of your festivals—and take you away together with it.
⁴Then you will know that I have sent this command to you, to be My covenant with Levi,”
 says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
⁵“My covenant was with him for life and shalom, and I gave them to him for reverence.
 So he revered Me,
 and he was awestruck by My Name.
⁶Instruction of truth was in his mouth.
 Injustice was not found on his lips.
 In shalom and uprightness
 he walked with Me,
 and he turned many from iniquity.
⁷For a kohen’s lips should guard knowledge, and instruction must be sought
 from his mouth.
 For he is a messenger of ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
⁸But you have turned from the way.
 You caused many to stumble in Torah
 by the instruction,
 You corrupted the covenant of the Levites,”
 —says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
⁹“So I also have made you despised and lowly to all the people, because you are not keeping My ways
 but show favoritism in Torah.”
¹⁰Do we not all have one Father?
 Has not one God created us?
 Why do we deal treacherously
 —a man against his brother—defiling the covenant of our fathers?
¹¹Judah has dealt treacherously, an abomination done in Israel,
 even in Jerusalem!
 For Judah has defiled ADONAI’s Sanctuary, which He loves,
 and married the daughter of a foreign god.
¹²ADONAI will cut off the man who does this, until he is cast from the tents of Jacob,
 and from offering a gift to ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

Covenant With Your Wife

¹³Secondly, you do this:
 Tears cover the altar of ADONAI—you are weeping and groaning because He no longer accepts the offering or receives it favorably from your hand.
¹⁴Yet you say, “Why?”
 Because ADONAI bears witness between you and the wife of your youth,
 whom you have treated deceitfully.
 Yet she had been your companion and your wife by covenant.
¹⁵Did the One not make her with a remnant of Ruach?
 Then what is the One seeking?
 Offspring of God!
 So protect your spirit—
 do not betray the wife of your youth.
¹⁶“For I hate^a divorce,”
 —says ADONAI the God of Israel—“and the one who covers his garment with injustice,”
 says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.
 So protect your spirit—
 do not act treacherously.
¹⁷You wearied ADONAI with your words.
 Yet you say: “How did we weary Him?”
 When you say: “Everyone doing evil is good in the sight of ADONAI, and He delights in them.” Or, “Where is the God of justice?”

3

My Messenger is Coming

¹“Behold, I am sending My messenger^b, and he will clear the way before Me.^c Suddenly He will come to His Temple
 —the Lord whom you seek—and the Messenger of the covenant
 —the One whom you desire—behold, He is coming,”

^a 2:16. Lit. He hates.

^b 3:1. Heb. Malachi.

^c 3:1. cf. Matt. 3:3; 11:10.

says ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

²But who can endure the day of His coming?
Or who can stand when He appears:^d
For He will be like a refiner's fire,^e and like soap for cleaning raw wool.

³And He will sit as a smelter or a purifier of silver, and He will cleanse the sons of Levi,
and purify them like gold or silver.
Then they will become for ADONAI those who present an offering in righteousness.

⁴Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to ADONAI, as in days of antiquity and years of old.

⁵"Then I will draw near to you in judgment, and I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, adulterers, perjurers
those who extort a worker's wage, or oppress the widow or an orphan,
those who mislead a stranger.
They do not fear Me,"
says ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

⁶"For I am ADONAI. I do not change,
So you, children of Jacob,
are not consumed.

Bring the Whole Tithe

⁷"From the days of your ancestors you have turned aside from My statutes, and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you," says ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

Yet you say: "How should we return?"

⁸"Will a man rob^f God? For you are robbing Me!"

But you say: "How have we robbed You?"

"In the tithe and the offering. ⁹You have been cursed with the curse, yet you keep robbing Me—the whole nation! ¹⁰Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse. Then there will be food in My House. Now test Me in this"—says ADONAI-Tzva'ot—"if I will not open for you the windows of heaven, and pour out blessing for you, until no one is without enough. ¹¹I will rebuke the devouring pest for you, so it will not destroy the fruit of your land, nor will your vine be barren in the field," ADONAI-Tzva'ot says. ¹²"All the nations will call you blessed. For you will be a land of delight,"

says ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

¹³"Your words against Me are grievous,"
says ADONAI.

Yet you say: "What did we say against You?"

¹⁴You say: "Serving God is worthless."

Also: "What good is it that we kept His service or that we walked as mourners before ADONAI-Tzva'ot? ¹⁵So now we are calling the proud blessed. Those who practice iniquity are built up. Indeed, they have tested God, and escaped!"

¹⁶Then those who revere ADONAI spoke with each other, and ADONAI took notice and heard, and a scroll of remembrance^g was written before Him, for those who revere ADONAI, even those who esteem His Name.

¹⁷"So they shall be Mine,"—says ADONAI-Tzva'ot—"in the day I make My own special possession. So I will spare them, as one spares his son serving him. ¹⁸Then you will return and distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him."

The Day Is Coming

^{19h}"For behold, the day is coming —it will burn like a furnace—when all the proud and every evildoer will become stubble.

The day that is coming will set them ablaze"

—says ADONAI-Tzva'ot—

"leaving them neither root nor branch."

²⁰"But for you who revere My Name, the sun of righteousness will rise,
with healing in its wings.
Then you will go forth and skip about like calves from the stall.

²¹You will trample on the wicked, for they will be ashes

under the soles of your feet in the day that I am making,”
says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

²²“Remember the Torah of Moses My servant, whom I commanded at Horeb—statutes and ordinances for all Israel.

²³“Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet^a, before the coming of the great and terrible day of ADONAI. ²⁴He will turn the hearts of fathers to the children, and the hearts of children to their fathers—else I will come and strike the land with utter destruction.”

^a 3:23 (4:5). cf. Matt. 11:14; 17:10-13; Mark 9:11-13; Luke 1:17; John 1:21.

Psalms

1

Torah Is a Tree of Wisdom

¹Happy is the one who has not walked in the advice of the wicked, nor stood in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seat of scoffers.
²But his delight is in the Torah of ADONAI, and on His Torah he meditates
day and night.
³He will be like a planted tree over streams of water, producing its fruit during its season.
Its leaf never droops—
but in all he does, he succeeds.

⁴The wicked are not so.
For they are like chaff that the wind blows away.
⁵Therefore the wicked will not stand during the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation
of the righteous.
⁶For ADONAI knows the way
of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked leads to ruin.

2

Coronation of Messianic King

¹Why are the nations in an uproar, and the peoples mutter vanity?
²The kings of earth set themselves up^a and rulers conspire together^b against ADONAI
and against His Anointed One^c: ³“Let’s rip their chains apart, and throw their ropes off us!”

^a 2:2. Hebraically, usurping power.
^b 2:2. cf. Mark 3:6.
^c 2:2. Heb. Mashiach, or Messiah. cf. John 1:41.

⁴He who sits in heaven laughs!
ADONAI mocks them.
⁵So He will speak to them in His anger, and terrify them in His fury:
⁶“I have set up My king upon Zion, My holy mountain.”

⁷I will declare the decree of ADONAI.
He said to me: “You are My Son—
today I have become Your Father.”^d ⁸Ask Me, and I will give the nations as Your inheritance, and the far reaches of the earth
as Your possession.
⁹You shall break the nations with an iron scepter.^e
You shall dash them in pieces like a potter’s jar.”^f ¹⁰So now, O kings, be wise, take warning, O judges of the earth!
¹¹Serve ADONAI with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
¹²Kiss the Son, lest He become angry, and you perish along your way—
since His wrath may flare up suddenly.
Happy is everyone taking refuge in Him!

3

Magen David

¹A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.
²ADONAI, how many are my foes!
Many are rising up against me!
³Many are saying to my soul:
“There is no deliverance for him in God.”
Selah
⁴But You, ADONAI, are a shield around me, my glory and the lifter of my head.
⁵I cry out to ADONAI with my voice,

^d 2:7. cf. Matt. 3:17.
^e 2:9. cf. Rev. 12:5, 19:15.
^f 2:9. cf. Rev. 2:27.

and He answers me from His holy mountain. Selah

⁶I lie down and sleep.

I awake—for ADONAI sustains me.

⁷I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people all around who have taken their stand against me.

⁸Arise, ADONAI! Deliver me, my God!

For you strike all my enemies on the cheek.

You shatter the teeth of the wicked.

⁹Deliverance belongs to ADONAI.^a

Let Your blessing be on Your people.
Selah

Prayer for Sleep in Shalom

¹For the music director, on stringed instruments, a psalm of David.

²Answer me when I call,
God of my righteousness!

You set me free when I am in distress.

Be gracious to me and hear my prayer.

³O sons of men, how long will you turn my glory into my shame?

How long will you love worthlessness and pursue falsehood? Selah

⁴But know that ADONAI has set apart
the godly for His own.

ADONAI will hear when I call to Him.

⁵Tremble, but do not sin!^b Search your heart while on your bed, and be silent. Selah

⁶Offer righteous sacrifices and put your trust in ADONAI.

⁷Many are asking,
“Who will show us some good?”
May the light of Your face shine upon us, ADONAI!

⁸You have put joy in my heart—more joy than when their grain and new wine overflow.

⁹I will lie down and sleep in shalom.

For You alone, ADONAI, make me live securely.

5

Morning Prayer for Justice

¹For the music director, on the wind instruments, a psalm of David.

²Hear my words, ADONAI, consider my groaning.

³Listen to the sound of my cry for help, my King and my God, for I pray to you.

⁴ADONAI, in the morning You hear my voice.
In the morning I order my prayer before You and watch expectantly.

⁵For You are not a God who rejoices in evil.
No wickedness dwells with you.

⁶Braggarts will not stand before your eyes.
You hate all wrongdoers.

⁷You destroy those who speak falsehood.
A person of bloodshed and deceit ADONAI detests.

⁸But because of your great lovingkindness,
I will enter Your House.
I will bow toward Your holy Temple, in awe of You.

⁹Lead me, ADONAI, in Your righteousness,
because of my enemies.

Make Your path straight before me.

¹⁰For nothing upright is in their mouth.
Inside them is a ruin—

their throat an open grave.

They flatter with their tongue.^c

¹¹Declare them guilty, O God!
Let them fall by their own schemes.
Banish them because of their many transgressions—

for they have rebelled against You.

¹²But let all who take refuge in You rejoice!
Let them always shout for joy!

You will shelter them and they exult—
those who love Your Name.

¹³For You bless the righteous, ADONAI.
You surround him with favor as a shield.

^a 3:9. cf. Rev. 7:10.

^b 4:5. cf. Eph. 4:26.

^c 5:10. cf. Rom. 3:13.

6

Prayer for Mercy

¹For the music director, on the eight-string lyre, a psalm of David.

²ADONAI, do not rebuke me in Your anger!
Do not discipline me in Your wrath.

³Be gracious to me, ADONAI, for I am weak.
Heal me, ADONAI—

for my bones are shuddering with fear, ⁴as is my soul—
and You, ADONAI—how long?

⁵Turn toward me, ADONAI, deliver my soul!
Save me—because of Your mercy.

⁶For there is no memory of You in death, in Sheol who will praise You?

⁷I am worn out with my groaning.
Every night I make my bed swim, drenching my pillow with my tears.

⁸My eyes are weakened with grief—they age because of my enemies.

⁹Away from me, all you evildoers!
For ADONAI heard the sound of my weeping.

¹⁰ADONAI has heard my cry for mercy.
ADONAI accepts my prayer:

¹¹“May all my enemies be ashamed, and stricken with terror.

May they turn back in sudden disgrace.”

7

ADONAI Magen

¹A passionate song of David, which he sang to ADONAI concerning Cush, a Benjamite.

²ADONAI my God, in You I have taken refuge.
Save me from each of my persecutors, and deliver me.

³Otherwise he will rip me apart like a lion, with no one to rescue me.

⁴ADONAI my God, if I have done this—if there is guilt on my hands,

⁵if I have paid back evil to anyone at peace with me, or unjustly attacked my adversary,

⁶then let the enemy chase me, overtake me, and trample me into the ground, leaving my honor in the dirt! Selah

⁷Arise, ADONAI, in Your anger, arise against the fury of my enemies!
Awake for me! You decreed justice.

⁸Let an assembly of peoples gather around You and return on high, above them.

⁹ADONAI judges the peoples.
Vindicate me, ADONAI, according to my righteousness and integrity in me.

¹⁰Please, end the evil of the wicked and sustain the righteous.
A just God examines hearts and minds.

¹¹My shield is God—
Savior of the upright in heart.

¹²God is a righteous judge,
a God who is indignant every day.

¹³If He does not relent,
He will sharpen His sword.
He has bent His bow and made it ready.

¹⁴He prepares His own deadly weapons.
He makes His fiery arrows.

¹⁵Look! The one pregnant with trouble conceives mischief and brings forth deceit.^d

¹⁶He digs a pit, scrapes it out, and then falls into the hole he has made.

¹⁷His mischief will turn on his own head.
His violence will boomerang on his crown.

¹⁸I will praise ADONAI for His justice.
I sing praise to the Name of ADONAI Elyon!

8

Humanity is God's Splendor

¹For the music director, upon the Gittite lyre: a psalm of David.

²ADONAI our Lord, how excellent is Your Name over all the earth!
You set Your splendor above the heavens.

³Out of the mouths of babies and toddlers
You established power,^e because of Your enemies,

^d 7:15. cf. Jacob 1:15.

^e 8:3(2). cf. Matt. 21:16.

to silence the foe and the avenger.
⁴When I consider Your heavens,
 the work of Your fingers,
 the moon and the stars,
 which You established—
⁵what is man, that You are mindful of him?
 And the son of man,
 that You care for him?^a ⁶Yet You made him a little lower than the angels,
 and crowned him with glory and majesty!
⁷You gave him dominion over the works of Your hands.
 You put all things under their feet:^b ⁸all sheep and oxen, and also beasts of the field, ⁹birds in the air, and fish in the ocean—
 all passing through the paths of the seas.
¹⁰ADONAI our Lord, how excellent is Your Name over all the earth!

9

Our Righteous Judge

¹For the music director, to the tune of “The Death of the Son,” a psalm of David.
²I will praise ADONAI with my whole heart.
 I will tell about all Your wonders.
³I will be glad and rejoice in You.
 I will sing praise to Your Name, Elyon!
⁴When my enemies turn back,
 they stumble and perish before You.
⁵For You upheld my right and my cause.
 You sat upon the throne,
 judging righteously.
⁶You rebuked the nations,
 You destroyed the wicked—
 blotting out their name forever and ever.
⁷The enemy is finished, in ruins forever.
 You overturned their cities—even the memory of them has perished.
⁸But ADONAI reigns forever.
 He established His throne for judgment.
⁹He judges the world in righteousness and governs the peoples justly.
¹⁰ADONAI is a stronghold for the oppressed,

^a 8:5. cf. Heb. 2:6.

^b 8:7. cf. 1Cor. 15:27; Heb. 2:8.

a high tower in times of trouble.
¹¹Those who know Your Name trust You—for You, ADONAI, never have forsaken those who seek You.
¹²Sing praises to ADONAI, who dwells in Zion.
 Declare His deeds among the peoples.
¹³He who avenges blood remembers.
 He will not forget the cry of the afflicted.
¹⁴Be compassionate to me, ADONAI.
 See my affliction from those hating me.
 Lift me up from the gates of death.
¹⁵Then I will tell all your praises in the gates of the daughter of Zion, rejoicing in Your salvation.
¹⁶The nations sank into the pit they made.
 The net they hid caught their own foot.
¹⁷ADONAI is known for executing judgment.
 The wicked one is trapped in the work of his own hands.
Selah
¹⁸The wicked will turn to Sheol, as will all the nations that forget God.
¹⁹For the needy will not forever be forgotten,
 nor the hope of the poor perish forever.
²⁰Arise, ADONAI, do not let man triumph.
 Let the nations be judged before You.
²¹Strike them with terror, ADONAI.
 Let the nations know they are only human. Selah

10

Freedom from Terror

¹Why, ADONAI, are You standing far off?
 Why hide Yourself in times of trouble?
²In pride the wicked hotly hunts the poor.
 Let them be caught in the plots
 they have planned.
³For the wicked one boasts about his soul’s desire.
 The greedy one curses, reviling ADONAI.
⁴The wicked one, with his nose in the air, never seeks Him.
 All his thoughts are: “There is no God.”
⁵His ways are secure at all times.
 He haughtily disregards Your judgments.
 He snorts at all his adversaries.

- ^bHe says in his heart: "I'll never be shaken!
From generation to generation
nothing bad will happen."
^cHis mouth is full of cursing, lies and oppression.
On his tongue are trouble and iniquity.
^cHe lies in ambush near villages.
In hidden places he slays the innocent.
His eyes watch in secret for the helpless.
⁹He lurks in a hiding place like a lion in a thicket.
He lies in wait to catch the helpless.
He catches the unfortunate one,
dragging him away in his net.
¹⁰The victim is crushed, brought down, and falls into his mighty claws.
¹¹He says in his heart: "God has forgotten.
He hides His face—He will never see it."
¹²Arise, ADONAI! O God, lift up Your hand.
Do not forget the afflicted.
¹³Why does the wicked one revile God?
He says in his heart:
"You will never require anything."
¹⁴You saw—for You see trouble and grief, to take it in Your hand.
The victim puts his trust in You—
You are the helper of the orphan.
¹⁵Break the arm of the wicked, evil one!
Call him to account for his wickedness—
until no more is found.
¹⁶ADONAI is King forever and ever!
Nations will be wiped off His land.
¹⁷You hear, ADONAI, the desire of the meek.
You encourage them
and incline Your ear.
¹⁸You vindicate the orphan and oppressed, so that man, who is earthly,
may terrify no more.

11

Judgment from Heaven

- ¹For the music director, a psalm of David.
In ADONAI I have taken shelter.
How can you say to my soul:
"Fly like a bird to your mountain?"
²For look, the wicked bend the bow.

^c 10:7. cf. Job 20:12; Rom. 3:14.

They fix their arrow on the bowstring so they can shoot from the shadows at those who are upright in heart.

³If our foundations are destroyed, what should the righteous do?"

⁴ADONAI is in His holy Temple.
ADONAI's throne is in heaven.
His eyes are watching.
His eyelids observe the children of men.

⁵ADONAI examines the righteous.
But the wicked and one loving violence
His soul hates.

⁶On the wicked He will rain down fire, brimstone and scorching wind as the portion of their cup!

⁷For ADONAI is righteous—He loves justice.
The upright will see His face.

12

Silence the Flattering Lips

¹For the music director, on the eight-string lyre, a psalm of David.

²Help, ADONAI! For no one godly exists.
For the faithful have vanished
from the children of men.

³Everyone tells a lie to his neighbor, talking with flattering lips and a divided heart.

⁴May ADONAI cut off all flattering lips—
a tongue bragging big things.

⁵They say: "With our tongue we'll prevail.
We own our lips—who can master us?"

⁶"Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the groaning of the needy,
now will I arise," says ADONAI.

"I will put him in the safe place—he pants for it."

⁷The words of ADONAI are pure words—like silver refined in an earthly crucible, purified seven times.

⁸You will keep us safe, ADONAI.
You will protect us from this generation
forever.

⁹The wicked strut all around,
while vileness is exalted by mankind.

^d 11:4. cf. Matt. 5:34; Acts 7:49; Rev. 4:2.

13

Trust in His Chesed

¹For the music director, a psalm of David.

²How long, ADONAI?

Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me?

³How long must I have cares in my soul and daily sorrow in my heart?

How long will my enemy triumph over me?

⁴Look at me and answer, ADONAI my God.
Light up my eyes, or I will sleep in death.

⁵Or else my enemy will say:

“I have overcome him!” and my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.

⁶But I trust in Your lovingkindness, my heart rejoices in Your salvation.

I will sing to ADONAI, because He has been good to me.

14

There Is No God?

¹For the music director, of David.

The fool said in his heart:

“There is no God.”

They are corrupt; their deeds are vile;
there is no one who does good.^a

²ADONAI looked down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there are any who understand,
who seek after God.

³They all turned aside, became corrupt.
There is no one who does good
—not even one.

⁴“Will evildoers never understand—those who consume My people as they eat bread—and never call on ADONAI?”

⁵There they are, in great dread.
For God is with the righteous generation.

⁶You would frustrate the plan of the lowly.
Surely ADONAI is his refuge!

⁷O may He give Israel’s salvation out of Zion!

^a 14:1. cf. Rom. 3:10-12.

When ADONAI restores His captive people,
Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad!

15

Walking with Integrity

¹A psalm of David.

ADONAI, who may dwell in Your tent?
Who may live on Your holy mountain?

²The one who walks with integrity, who does what is right,
and speaks truth in his heart,

³who does not slander with his tongue, does not wrong his neighbor,
and does not disgrace his friend,

⁴who despises a vile person in his eyes,
but honors those who fear ADONAI, who keeps his oath even when it hurts,
and does not change,

⁵who lends his money without usury, and takes no bribe against the innocent.
One who does these things will never be shaken.

16

The Path of Eternal Life

¹A Michtam of David.

Keep me safe, O God,
for in You I have found shelter.

²I said to ADONAI: “You are my Lord—
I have no good apart from You.”

³As for the kedoshim who are in the land, they are noble—in them is all my delight.

⁴As for those who run after another god, may their sorrows multiply.

I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood, nor lift up their names with my lips.

⁵ADONAI is my portion and my cup.
You cast my lot.

⁶My boundary lines fall in pleasant places
—surely my heritage is beautiful.

⁷I will bless ADONAI, who counsels me.
Even at night my heart instructs me.

⁸I have set ADONAI always before me.

Since He is at my right hand,
I will not be shaken.
⁹So my heart is glad and my soul rejoices.
My body also rests secure.
¹⁰For You will not abandon my soul to Sheol nor let Your faithful one see the Pit.^b ¹¹You make known to me
the path of life.
Abundance of joys are in Your presence, eternal pleasures at Your right hand.^c

17

A Plea for Vindication

¹A prayer of David.
Hear, ADONAI, a just plea, listen to my cry!
Give ear to my prayer—
from lips with no deceit.
²From Your presence comes my vindication.
Your eyes see what is right.
³You have examined my heart.
You searched me at night.
Though You test me, You find nothing.
I resolved that my mouth will not sin.
⁴As for the deeds of mankind—by the word of Your lips I have kept out of the ways of the violent.
⁵My steps have kept on Your paths.
My feet have not slipped.
⁶I called upon You, O God,
for You will answer me.
Incline Your ear to me, hear my speech.
⁷Be wonderful with Your lovingkindness,
O Savior of those taking refuge
at Your right hand
from those rising up against them.
⁸Protect me like the pupil of the eye.
Hide me in the shadow of Your wings, ⁹from the wicked who attack me—my enemies, who surround me.
¹⁰Their callous heart they shut tight.
With their mouth they speak proudly.
¹¹Our steps are now surrounded.
They set their eyes to throw us down to the ground,

¹²like a lion eager to tear to pieces, like a young lion crouching in cover.

¹³Arise, ADONAI! Confront him!
Make him bow down!
Deliver my soul from the wicked
with Your sword, ¹⁴from men, with Your hand, ADONAI, from men of the world whose portion is in this life.
You fill their belly with Your treasure —with plenty of children—and leave their surplus to their babes.
¹⁵I in righteousness will behold Your face!
When I awake,
I will be satisfied with Your likeness.

18

ADONAI lives! Blessed Be My Rock

¹For the music director: a psalm of David the servant of ADONAI. He chanted the words of this song to ADONAI on the day ADONAI delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.
²He said, I love You, ADONAI my strength!
³ADONAI is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer.
My God is my rock, in Him I take refuge, my shield, my horn of salvation,
my stronghold.
⁴I called upon ADONAI, worthy of praise, and I was rescued from my enemies.
⁵Cords of death entangled me.
Torrents of Belial overwhelmed me.
⁶Cords of Sheol coiled around me.
Snares of death came before me.
⁷In my distress I called on ADONAI, and cried to my God for help.
From His Temple He heard my voice,
my cry before Him came into His ears.
⁸Then the earth rocked and quaked.
The foundations of mountains trembled.
They reeled because He was angry.
⁹Smoke rose from His nostrils and consuming fire from His mouth.
Coals blazed from Him.
¹⁰He parted the heavens and came down,

^b 16:10. cf. Acts. 13:35.
^c 16:8-11. cf. Acts 2:25-28.

with thick darkness under His feet.
¹¹He rode upon a cheruv and flew.
 He soared on the wings of the wind.
¹²He made darkness His cover,
 His sukkah all around Him—dark waters, thick clouds.
¹³Out of the brilliance before Him passed His thick clouds,
 hail and fiery coals.
¹⁴ADONAI also thundered in the heavens, and Elyon gave forth His voice,
 hail and fiery coals.
¹⁵He shot His arrows and scattered them, hurled lightning bolts and routed them.
¹⁶Then ravines of water appeared.
 The foundations of earth were exposed,
 at Your rebuke, ADONAI,
 at a blast of breath from Your nostrils.
¹⁷He reached down from on high and took hold of me.
 He drew me out of mighty waters.
¹⁸He saved me from my powerful enemy, from those who hated me—
 for they were much stronger than me.
¹⁹They came against me in my day of calamity,
 but ADONAI was my support.
²⁰He brought me out to a wide-open place.
 He rescued me since He delighted in me.
²¹ADONAI rewarded me
 for my righteousness.
 For the cleanness of my hands
 He repaid me.
²²For I kept the ways of ADONAI, and did not turn wickedly from my God.
²³For all His judgments are before me.
 I do not put His rulings away from me.
²⁴I also had integrity with Him, and kept myself from my sin.
²⁵So ADONAI rewarded me
 for my righteousness,
 for the cleanness of my hands in His eyes.
²⁶With the loyal You deal loyally.
 With the blameless You are blameless.
²⁷With the pure You are pure, and with the crooked You are shrewd.
²⁸For You save lowly people, but haughty eyes You humble.

²⁹For You light up my lamp.
 ADONAI my God shines in my darkness.
³⁰For with You I rush on a troop, with my God I scale a wall.
³¹As for God, His way is perfect.
 The word of ADONAI is pure.
 He is a shield to all
 who take refuge in Him.
³²For who is God, except ADONAI?
 And who is a Rock, except our God?
³³God girds me with strength and makes my way straight.
³⁴He makes my feet like those of deer and makes me stand on my heights.
³⁵He trains my hands for battle,
 so my arms can bend a bronze bow.
³⁶You gave me the shield of Your salvation.
 Your right hand upholds me,
 Your gentleness makes me great.
³⁷You broaden my steps beneath me, so my ankles have not slipped.
³⁸I pursue my enemies and overtake them,
 and will not return till they are wiped out.
³⁹I will crush them till they cannot rise, till they fall beneath my feet.
⁴⁰For You girded me with strength for battle.
 You made those who rose up against me
 bow down before me.
⁴¹You also made my enemies turn their backs to me.
 I cut off those who hate me.
⁴²They cry out, but there is none to save —even to ADONAI, but He did not answer them.
⁴³Then I beat them as fine as dust
 before the wind.
 I pour them out like mud in the streets.
⁴⁴You free me from strifes of the people.
 You set me as head of the nations—people I did not know are serving me.
⁴⁵As soon as they hear, they obey me.
 Children of foreigners cringe before me.
⁴⁶Children of foreigners lose heart and come trembling from their hideouts.
⁴⁷ADONAI lives! And blessed be my Rock!
 Exalted be God my salvation!
⁴⁸God—He gives me vengeance and subdues peoples under me.

⁴⁹He delivers me from my enemies.
Indeed You lift me up above those who rise up against me.
You deliver me from the violent man.
⁵⁰Therefore I praise You among the nations,
ADONAI, and sing praises to Your Name.^a ⁵¹Great victories He gives to His king.
He shows loyal love to His anointed—to David and his seed, forever.

19

Glory from Heaven and Torah

¹For the music director, a psalm of David.

²The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky shows His handiwork.

³Day to day they speak, night to night they reveal knowledge.

⁴There is no speech, no words, where their voice goes unheard.

⁵Their voice has gone out to all the earth and their words to the end of the world.^b
In the heavens He pitched a tent for the sun.

⁶It is like a bridegroom coming out of his bridal chamber.
It is like a strong man rejoicing to run his course.

⁷It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other end.
Nothing is hidden from its heat.

⁸The Torah of ADONAI is perfect, restoring the soul.
The testimony of ADONAI is trustworthy, making the simple wise.

⁹The precepts of ADONAI are right, giving joy to the heart.
The mitzvot of ADONAI are pure, giving light to the eyes.

¹⁰The fear of ADONAI is clean, enduring forever.
The judgments of ADONAI are true and altogether righteous.

¹¹They are more desirable than gold,

yes, more than much pure gold!
They are sweeter than honey and drippings of the honeycomb.
¹²Moreover by them Your servant is warned.
In keeping them there is great reward.
¹³Who can discern his errors?
Cleanse me of hidden faults.
¹⁴Also keep Your servant from willful sins.
May they not have dominion over me.
Then I will be blameless, free from great transgression.
¹⁵May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before You, ADONAI, my Rock and my Redeemer.

20

ADONAI-Nissi

¹For the music director, a psalm of David.

²May ADONAI answer you in the day of trouble!
May the Name of the God of Jacob set you up securely on high.

³May He send you help from the Sanctuary and support you from Zion.

⁴May He remember all your meal offerings and accept the fat of your burnt offering.

Selah

⁵May He grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans.

⁶We will shout for joy in your victory and lift up our banners in the Name of our God!
May ADONAI fulfill all your petitions.

⁷Now I know that ADONAI saves His anointed.
He answers him from His holy heaven with saving strength of His right hand.

⁸Some have chariots, some have horses, but we remember the Name of ADONAI our God.

⁹They have collapsed and fallen,
but we rise up and support each other.

¹⁰ADONAI, save the king!
Answer us on the day we call!

^a 18:50. cf. Rom. 15:9.

^b 19:5. cf. Rom. 10:18.

21

The Victorious King

¹For the music director, a psalm of David.

²ADONAI, the king rejoices in Your strength!
How greatly he delights in Your salvation.

³You granted him his heart's desire, and You did not withhold the request of his lips. Selah

⁴For You met him with the best blessings.
You set on his head
a crown of pure gold.

⁵He asked You for life, You gave it to him, length of days forever and ever.

⁶His glory is great through Your salvation.
Honor and majesty You bestow on him.

⁷For You bestow on him eternal blessings, gladden him with joy in Your presence.

⁸For the king trusts in ADONAI, and in the lovingkindness of Elyon
he will not be shaken.

⁹Your hand will find all your enemies.
Your right hand will overtake those who hate You.

¹⁰You will make them like a fiery furnace at the time of your appearing.
In His wrath ADONAI will swallow them up and fire will consume them.

¹¹You destroy their offspring from earth, their seed from the children of men.

¹²Though they intended evil against You and devised a plot, they cannot succeed.

¹³For You make them turn their backs.
You aim Your bowstrings at their faces.

¹⁴Be exalted, ADONAI, in Your strength!
We will sing and praise Your might.

22

Suffering Servant

¹For the music director, on "The Doe of the Dawn," a psalm of David.

²My God, my God,
why have You forsaken me?

Distant from my salvation are the words of my groaning.^a

^a 22:2(1). cf. Matt. 27:46; Mark 15:34.

³O my God, I cried out by day,
but You did not answer,
by night, but there was no rest for me.

⁴Yet You are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.

⁵In You our fathers put their trust.
They trusted, and You delivered them.

⁶They cried to you and were delivered.
In You they trusted, and were not disappointed.

⁷Am I a worm, and not a man?
Am I a scorn of men, despised by people?

⁸All who see me mock me.
They curl their lips, shaking their heads:

⁹"Rely on ADONAI! Let Him deliver him!
Let Him rescue him—
since he delights in Him!"^b

¹⁰Yet You brought me out of the womb, made me secure at my mother's breasts.

¹¹From the womb I was cast on You—from my mother's womb
You have been my God.

¹²Be not far from me!
For trouble is near—there is no one to help.

¹³Many bulls have surrounded me.
Strong bulls of Bashan encircled me.

¹⁴They open wide their mouths against me, like a tearing, roaring lion.

¹⁵I am poured out like water, and all my bones are disjointed.
My heart is like wax—melting within my innards.

¹⁶My strength is dried up like a clay pot,
my tongue clings to my jaws.
You lay me in the dust of death.

¹⁷For dogs have surrounded me.
A band of evildoers has closed in on me.
They pierced^c my hands and my feet.

¹⁸I can count all my bones.
They stare, they gape at me.

¹⁹They divide my clothes among them,
and cast lots for my garment.

²⁰But You, ADONAI, be not far off!
O my strength! Come quickly to my aid!

²¹Deliver my soul from the sword—

^b 22:9. cf. Matt. 27:43.

^c 22:17. Or, is like a lion.

^d 22:19. cf. Matt. 27:35; Mark 15:24; Luke 23:34; John 19:24.

my only one from the power of the dog.
²²Save me from the lion's mouth.
 From the horns of the wild oxen rescue me.

²³I will declare Your Name to my brothers.
 I will praise You amid the congregation.^e

²⁴You who fear ADONAI, praise Him!
 All Jacob's descendants, glorify Him!
 Revere Him, all you seed of Israel.

²⁵For He has not despised or disdained the suffering of the lowly one.
 Nor has He hidden His face from him, but when he cried to Him, He heard.

²⁶From You is my praise in the great assembly.
 I will fulfill my vows before those who fear Him.

²⁷Let the poor eat and be satisfied.
 Let them who seek after Him
 praise ADONAI.

May your hearts live forever!

²⁸All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to ADONAI.

All the families of the nations will bow down before You.

²⁹For the kingdom belongs to ADONAI, and He rules over the nations.

³⁰All the rich of the earth will feast and worship.

Everyone who goes down to the dust will kneel before Him—even the one who could not keep his own soul alive.

³¹His posterity will serve him, telling the next generation about my Lord.

³²They will come and declare His righteousness to a people yet to be born—because He has done it!

23

ADONAI-Ro-eh

¹A psalm of David.

ADONAI is my shepherd,
 I shall not want.

²He makes me lie down in green pastures.
 He leads me beside still waters.

^e 22:23. cf. Heb. 2:12.

³He restores my soul.

He guides me in paths of righteousness for His Name's sake.

⁴Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil, for You are with me:
 Your rod and Your staff comfort me.

⁵You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
 You have anointed my head with oil,
 my cup overflows.

⁶Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of ADONAI forever.

24

The King of Glory

¹A psalm of David.

The earth is ADONAI's and all that fills it—^f
 the world, and those dwelling on it.

²For He founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the rivers.

³Who may go up on the mountain of ADONAI?

Who may stand in His holy place?

⁴One with clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted his soul in vain,
 nor sworn deceitfully.

⁵He will receive a blessing from ADONAI, righteousness from God his salvation.

⁶Such is the generation seeking Him, seeking Your face, even Jacob! Selah

⁷Lift up your heads, O gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
 that the King of glory may come in.

⁸"Who is this King of glory?"

ADONAI strong and mighty,
 ADONAI mighty in battle!

⁹Lift up your heads, O gates, and lift them up, you everlasting doors:
 that the King of glory may come in.

¹⁰"Who is this King of glory?"

ADONAI-Tzva'ot—He is the King of glory!

Selah

^f 24:1. cf. Deut. 10:24; Ps. 89:11; 1Cor. 10:26.

25

Teach Me Your Paths

- ¹Of David.
To You, ADONAI, I lift up my soul.
- ²O my God, in You I trust,
so I will not be ashamed, and my enemies will not gloat over me.
- ³Surely no one who waits for You will be ashamed.
But the treacherous without cause
will be ashamed.
- ⁴Show me Your ways, ADONAI.
Teach me Your paths.
- ⁵Guide me in Your truth, and teach me,
for You are God, my salvation, for You I wait all day.
- ⁶Remember, ADONAI,
Your compassions and Your mercies—for they are from eternity.
- ⁷Remember not the sins of my youth,
nor my rebellion.
According to Your mercy remember me,
for the sake of Your goodness, ADONAI.
- ⁸Good and upright is ADONAI.
Therefore He directs sinners in the way.
- ⁹He guides the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble His way.
- ¹⁰All ADONAI's ways are lovingkindness and truth to those who keep His covenant and His testimonies.
- ¹¹For Your Name's sake, ADONAI, pardon my guilt, for it is great.
- ¹²Who is this man who fears ADONAI?
He will instruct him in the way he should choose.
- ¹³His soul abides in goodness, and his offspring will inherit the land.
- ¹⁴The secret of ADONAI is for those who fear Him.
He makes His covenant known to them.
- ¹⁵My eyes are always looking to ADONAI,
for He will pull my feet out of the net.
- ¹⁶Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am lonely and afflicted.
- ¹⁷The troubles of my heart increase.
Bring me out of my distress.
- ¹⁸See my affliction and my suffering,

- and take away all my sins.
- ¹⁹See my enemies, how many they are—they hate me with violent hatred.
- ²⁰Guard my soul and deliver me.
Let me not be ashamed,
for I take refuge in You.
- ²¹May integrity and uprightness protect me—for I wait for You.
- ²²Redeem Israel, O God, from all their troubles.

26

Walking with Integrity

- ¹Of David.
Vindicate me, ADONAI, for I have walked in my integrity, and trusted in ADONAI without wavering.
- ²Probe me, ADONAI, and test me, refine my mind and my heart.
- ³For Your love is before my eyes and I have walked in Your truth.
- ⁴I have not sat with men of falsehood,
nor do I consort with hypocrites.
- ⁵I detest the company of evildoers, and do not sit with the wicked.
- ⁶I will wash my hands in innocence,
so I can walk around Your altar, ADONAI, ⁷hearing the voice of thanksgiving while proclaiming all Your wonders.
- ⁸ADONAI, I love the House where You live,
the place where Your glory dwells.
- ⁹Do not take my soul away with sinners, nor my life with people of bloodshed—¹⁰in whose hands are wicked schemes, whose right hand is full of bribes.
- ¹¹But I—I will walk in my integrity.
Redeem me and be gracious to me.
- ¹²My feet stand on level ground.
In congregations I will bless ADONAI.

27

Let Your Heart Take Courage

- ¹Of David.
ADONAI is my light and my salvation:
whom should I fear?

ADONAI is the stronghold of my life:
whom should I dread?

²When evildoers approached me to devour my flesh
—my adversaries and my foes—
they stumbled and fell.

³Though an army camp besieges me,
my heart will not fear.
Though war breaks out against me,
even then will I be confident.

⁴One thing have I asked of ADONAI, that will I seek:
to dwell in the House of ADONAI
all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of ADONAI, and to meditate in His Temple.

⁵For in the day of trouble
He will hide me in His sukkah, conceal me in the shelter of His tent,
and set me high upon a rock.

⁶Then will my head be high above my enemies around me.
In His Tabernacle I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy.
I will sing, yes, sing praises to ADONAI.

⁷Hear, ADONAI, when I call with my voice, be gracious to me and answer me.

⁸To You my heart says: “Seek My face.”
Your face, ADONAI, I seek.

⁹Do not hide Your face from me.
Do not turn Your servant away in anger.
You have been my help.
Do not abandon me or forsake me,
O God my salvation.

¹⁰Though my father and my mother forsake me, ADONAI will take me in.

¹¹Teach me Your way, ADONAI, and lead me on a level path—
because of my enemies.

¹²Do not turn me over to the desire of my foes.
For false witnesses rise up against me, breathing out violence.

¹³Surely I trust that I will see the goodness of ADONAI in the land of the living.

¹⁴Wait for ADONAI.
Be strong, let Your heart take courage, and wait for ADONAI.

28

Hoshia-na!

¹Of David.

To You, ADONAI, I call—my Rock, do not be deaf to me:
If You were silent to me,
I would become like those going down to the Pit.

²Hear the sound of my pleas, when I cry to You for help, when I lift up my hands toward Your holy Sanctuary.

³Do not drag me away with the wicked and with doers of iniquity, who speak peace with their neighbors,
while evil is in their hearts.

⁴Repay them for their deeds, their evil acts.
Repay them for the deeds of their hands.
Bring back on them what they deserve.

⁵Since they show no regard for the deeds of ADONAI nor the work of His hands,
He will tear them down and never build them up.

⁶Blessed be ADONAI, because He has heard the sound of my supplications.

⁷ADONAI is my strength and my shield.^a
My heart trusts in Him, and I was helped.
Therefore my heart leaps for joy,
and I will praise Him with my song.

⁸ADONAI is their strength—a stronghold of salvation for His anointed.

⁹Save Your people, bless Your inheritance, shepherd them and carry them forever.

29

God Thunders Throughout Creation

¹A psalm of David.

Ascribe to ADONAI, O sons of God,
ascribe to ADONAI glory and strength.

²Ascribe to ADONAI the glory of His Name.
Bow down to ADONAI
in the beauty of holiness.

³The voice of ADONAI is over the waters.
The God of glory thunders—

^a 28:7. cf. Eph. 6:16.

ADONAI is over mighty waters.
⁴The voice of ADONAI is powerful.
 The voice of ADONAI is full of majesty.
⁵The voice of ADONAI breaks the cedars.
 Yes, ADONAI shatters cedars of Lebanon.
⁶He makes Lebanon skip like a calf,
 Sirion like a young wild ox.
⁷The voice of ADONAI hews out flames of fire.
⁸The voice of ADONAI shakes the desert.
 ADONAI shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
⁹The voice of ADONAI makes the deer writhe in birth and strips forests bare, and in His Temple all are saying, "Glory!"
¹⁰ADONAI sits enthroned over the flood.
 Yes, ADONAI sits as King forever.
¹¹ADONAI gives strength to His people.
 ADONAI blesses His people with shalom.

30

Joy Comes in the Morning

¹A psalm, a song for the dedication of the Temple, of David.

²I will exalt You, ADONAI, for You have lifted me up, and did not let my enemies gloat over me.
³ADONAI my God, I cried to You for help, and You healed me.
⁴ADONAI, You brought my soul up from Sheol.
 You kept me alive, so I would not go down to the Pit.
⁵Sing praise to ADONAI, His faithful ones,
 and praise His holy name.
⁶For His anger lasts for only a moment,
 His favor is for a lifetime.
 Weeping may stay for the night,
 but joy comes in the morning.
⁷When I felt secure, I said:
 "I will never be shaken."
⁸ADONAI, in Your favor
 You made my mountain stand strong.
 When You hid Your face, I was terrified.
⁹To You, ADONAI, I called,
 and to my Lord I made my plea:
¹⁰"What gain is there in my blood,

in my going down to the Pit?
 Will the dust praise You?
 Will it declare Your truth?
¹¹Hear, ADONAI, and be gracious to me.
 ADONAI, be my help."
¹²You turned my mourning into dancing.
 You removed my sackcloth and clothed me with joy.
¹³So my glory will sing to You and not be silent.
 ADONAI my God, I will praise You forever.

31

Refuge, Sukkah, Shelter

¹For the music director, a psalm of David.
²In You, ADONAI, have I taken refuge:
 Let me never be put to shame.
 In Your righteousness, deliver me.
³Turn Your ear to me, rescue me quickly.
 Be a rock of refuge for me,
 a stronghold for my deliverance.
⁴Since You are my rock and my fortress,
 You lead me and guide me
 for Your Name's sake.
⁵Free me from the net they hid for me,
 for You are my refuge.
⁶Into Your hand I commit my spirit.^a
 You have redeemed me, ADONAI,
 God of truth.
⁷I detest those who continue to watch worthless idols, but I trust in ADONAI.
⁸I will be glad and rejoice in Your lovingkindness, for You saw my affliction.
 You knew the troubles of my soul.
⁹You did not hand me over to the enemy.
 You set my feet in a wide-open place.
¹⁰Be gracious to me, ADONAI, for I am in distress.
 My eyes waste away with grief,
 my soul and my body as well.
¹¹For my life is consumed in sorrow and my years in sighing.
 My strength fails because of my anguish and my bones waste away.

^a 31:6(5). Cf. Luke 23:46; Acts 7:59.

¹²Because of all my adversaries
I am the contempt of my neighbors and a dread to my acquaintances.
Seeing me on the street,
they flee from me.

¹³I am as forgotten as a dead man.
I have become like a broken vessel.

¹⁴For I have heard the whispering of many.
There is terror on every side as they conspire against me and plot to take my life.

¹⁵But I have trusted in You, ADONAI.
I said: "You are my God."

¹⁶My times are in Your hands.
Deliver me from the hands of my foes and from those who pursue me.

¹⁷Make Your face shine on Your servant.
Save me in Your lovingkindness.

¹⁸ADONAI, let me not be ashamed, for I have called upon You.
Let the wicked be ashamed—
let them be silent in Sheol.

¹⁹Let the lying lips be mute.
For they speak arrogantly against the righteous, with pride and contempt.

²⁰How great is Your goodness, which You have stored up for those who fear You, which You have given to those who take refuge in You, before the children of men.

²¹In the shelter of Your presence
You hide them from people's plots.
You conceal them in a sukkah
from the strife of tongues.

²²Blessed be ADONAI, for He has shown me His wonderful love in a besieged city.

²³I said in my alarm,
"I have been cut off from Your sight!"
But You heard the sound of my pleas when I cried out to You.

²⁴Love ADONAI, all His kedoshim!
ADONAI preserves all the faithful,
but the proud He pays back in full.

²⁵Chazak! Let your heart take courage,^b all you who wait for ADONAI.

^b 31:25. cf. 1Cor. 16:13; Eph. 6:10.

32

Confess, Return and Learn

¹Of David, a contemplative song.
Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is pardoned.

²Blessed is the one whose guilt
ADONAI does not count, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.^c

³When I kept silent, my bones became brittle through my groaning all day long.

⁴For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me.
My strength was drained as in the droughts of summer.
Selah

⁵Then I acknowledged my sin to You and did not hide my iniquity. I said:
"I confess my transgressions to ADONAI," and You forgave the guilt of my sin.^d
Selah

⁶So let everyone who is godly pray to You in a time when You may be found.
When great floodwaters rise, they will not reach him.

⁷You are my hiding place—
You will protect me from distress.
You surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

⁸"I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go.
I will give counsel—My eye is on you.

⁹Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding, and must be held in with bit and bridle or they will not come to you."

¹⁰Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but lovingkindness surrounds
the one who trusts in ADONAI.

¹¹Be glad in ADONAI and rejoice, you righteous, and shout for joy,
all who are upright in heart.

^c 32:1-2. cf. Rom. 4:7-8.

^d 32:5. cf. 1John 1:9.

33

All Creation Praise the Creator

- ¹Sing for joy to ADONAI, you righteous.
Praise is fitting for the upright.
- ²Praise ADONAI with the harp.
Sing praises to Him with a ten string lyre.
- ³Sing to Him a new song;^a Play skillfully amid shouts of joy.
- ⁴For the word of ADONAI is upright and all His work is done in faithfulness.
- ⁵He loves righteousness and justice.
The earth is full of the love of ADONAI.
- ⁶By ADONAI's word were the heavens made,
and all their host by the breath of His mouth.
- ⁷He gathers the waters of the sea together in a heap.
He lays up deep waters in storehouses.
- ⁸Let all the earth fear ADONAI.
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.
- ⁹For He spoke, and it came to be.
He commanded, and it stood firm.
- ¹⁰ADONAI foils the purpose of the nations.
He thwarts the plans of the peoples.
- ¹¹The plan of ADONAI stands forever, the purposes of His heart
from generation to generation.
- ¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is ADONAI, the people He chose for His own inheritance.
- ¹³ADONAI looks down from heaven.
He observes all humanity.
- ¹⁴From His dwelling place He gazes on all the inhabitants of the earth—
- ¹⁵He who fashions the hearts of all, who discerns all their deeds.
- ¹⁶No king is saved by his great army,
no warrior is delivered by great strength.
- ¹⁷A horse is a false hope for victory, nor can its great strength save.
- ¹⁸Behold, the eyes of ADONAI are on those who fear Him, waiting for His love,
- ¹⁹to deliver their souls from death,
and to keep them alive in famine.

^a 33:3. cf. Rev. 5:9.

- ²⁰Our soul waits for ADONAI—
He is our help and our shield.
- ²¹Our heart rejoices in Him, because we trusted in His holy Name.
- ²²Let Your lovingkindness, ADONAI, be upon us, as we have waited for You.

34

Taste and See

- ¹Of David, when he feigned insanity before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he left.
- ²I will bless ADONAI at all times.
His praise is continually in my mouth.
- ³My soul boasts in ADONAI.
The humble ones hear of it and rejoice.
- ⁴Magnify ADONAI with me and let us exalt His Name together.
- ⁵I sought ADONAI, and He answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.
- ⁶They who looked to Him were radiant, and their faces will never be ashamed.
- ⁷This poor man cried, and ADONAI heard, and saved him out of all his troubles.
- ⁸The angel of ADONAI encamps around those who fear Him, and delivers them.
- ⁹Taste and see how good ADONAI is.
Blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him.
- ¹⁰Fear ADONAI, His kedoshim,
For those who fear Him lack nothing.
- ¹¹Young lions may lack, and go hungry,
but those who seek ADONAI
want for no good thing.
- ¹²Come, children, listen to me:
I will teach you the fear of ADONAI.
- ¹³Who is the one who delights in life,
and loves to see good days?
- ¹⁴Keep your tongue from evil,
and your lips from speaking treachery.
- ¹⁵Depart from evil and do good.
Seek shalom and pursue it.^b
- ¹⁶The eyes of ADONAI are on the righteous, and His ears are attentive to their cry.
- ¹⁷The face of ADONAI is against evildoers, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

^b 34:12-15. cf. 1Pet. 3:10-12.

¹⁸The righteous cry out and ADONAI hears, and delivers them from all their troubles.
¹⁹ADONAI is close to the brokenhearted, and saves those crushed in spirit.
²⁰Many are the distresses of the righteous, but ADONAI delivers him out of them all.
²¹He keeps all his bones—not one of them is broken.^c ²²Evil kills the wicked—those who hate the righteous will be held guilty.
²³ADONAI redeems the soul of His servants
—no one who takes refuge in Him will be held guilty.

35

Justice for the Oppressed

¹A psalm of David.

ADONAI, oppose those who oppose me.
Fight those who fight me.

²Take hold of shield and buckler, and rise up to my help.

³Draw out also a spear and battle-axe.
Stop those who pursue me.

Say to my soul: "I am your salvation."

⁴May those who seek my life be ashamed and disgraced.

May they be turned back and humiliated
—those who plot evil against me.

⁵May they be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of ADONAI driving them off.

⁶May their way be dark and slippery, with the angel of ADONAI pursuing them.

⁷For without cause they hid their net for me, and without cause they dug a pit for my soul.

⁸Let ruin come upon him by surprise.
Let the net he hid entangle himself —into that same pit let him fall.

⁹Then my soul will rejoice in ADONAI and delight in His salvation.

¹⁰All my bones will say:

"ADONAI, who is like You, rescuing the poor from one too strong for him, the poor and needy from one who robs him?"

^c 34:21. cf. John 19:33-36.

¹¹Violent witnesses rise up.
They question me about things
I know nothing about.

¹²They repay me evil for good—my soul is forlorn.

¹³But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth.
I afflicted my soul with fasting,
my prayer kept returning to my heart.

¹⁴I went about mourning
as though for my own friend or brother.
I bowed down dressed in black as though for my own mother.

¹⁵But at my stumbling they gathered in glee.
Wretches gathered against me whom I did not know, tearing at me without ceasing.

¹⁶They mocked profanely, as if at a feast, they gnashed at me with their teeth.

¹⁷My Lord, how long will You look on?
Rescue my soul from their ravages—my solitary existence from the lions.

¹⁸I praise You in the great assembly, acclaiming You among a throng of people.

¹⁹Do not let my deceitful enemies gloat over me without cause, nor let those who hate me for nothing wink an eye.^d

²⁰For they never speak shalom, but devise deceitful words against the quiet ones in the land.

²¹Yes, they open their mouth wide against me, saying:
"Aha! Aha! Our own eyes have seen it!"

²²You have seen it, ADONAI—be not silent!
ADONAI, be not far from me.

²³Arise, awaken to my defense, to my cause—my God and my Lord!

²⁴Vindicate me, ADONAI my God, according to Your justice,
and do not let them gloat over me.

²⁵Don't let them say in their heart:
"Aha! Just what we wanted!"

Don't let them say:
"We swallowed him up!"

²⁶May they be ashamed and humiliated, those who rejoice over my misery.

^d 35:19. cf. John 15:25.

May they who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and disgrace.
²⁷May they shout for joy and be glad,
 those who delight in my righteous cause.
 May they always say: “Exalted be ADONAI, who delights in His servant’s shalom.”
²⁸Then my tongue will declare aloud
 Your justice and Your praises all day.

36

With God Is the Fountain of Life

¹For the music director, of David the servant of ADONAI.

²An oracle of Transgression—within my heart, to the wicked one:
 “There is no fear of God before his eyes.”^a ³For he flatters himself in his own eyes, too much to notice his iniquity —or hate it.

⁴His mouth’s words are iniquity and deceit.
 He has ceased to be wise and do good.

⁵Even on his bed he plans sin.
 He puts himself on a path that is no good,
 never refusing evil.”

⁶Your love, ADONAI, is in the heavens,
 Your faithfulness up to the skies.

⁷Your righteousness is like the mountains of God.
 Your judgments are like the great deep.
 You preserve man and beast, ADONAI.

⁸How precious is Your love, O God!
 The children of men find refuge in the shadow of Your wings.

⁹They drink their fill from the abundance of Your House.
 You give them drink from the river of Your delights.

¹⁰For with You is the fountain of life—in Your light we see light.

¹¹Continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You, and Your justice to the upright in heart.

¹²May the foot of pride never tread on me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.

^a 36:2(1). cf. Rom. 3:18.

¹³There the evildoers lie fallen—thrown down, not able to rise!

37

Inheritance of the Kedoshim

¹Of David.

Do not fret because of evildoers, nor be envious of them who do wrong.

²For like the grass they soon wither and fade like a green herb.

³Trust in ADONAI and do good.
 Dwell in the land, feed on faithfulness.

⁴Delight yourself in ADONAI, and He will give you the requests of your heart.

⁵Commit your way to ADONAI.
 Trust in Him, and He will do it.

⁶He will bring out your vindication as light, and your cause will shine as noonday.

⁷Be still before ADONAI and wait patiently for Him.

Do not fret over one prospering in his way, over one carrying out wicked schemes.

⁸Put away anger and turn from wrath.
 Do not fret—it only leads to doing evil.

⁹For evildoers will be cut off, but those who wait for ADONAI—they will inherit the land.

¹⁰Yet a little while,
 and the wicked will be no more.
 Yes, you will look at his place,
 but he will not be there.

¹¹But the meek will inherit the land, and delight in abundant shalom.

¹²The wicked plots against the righteous and gnashes at him with his teeth.

¹³The Lord laughs at him—for He sees his day is coming.

¹⁴The wicked have unsheathed their sword and have bent their bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose conduct is upright.

¹⁵Their sword will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

¹⁶Better a little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked.

¹⁷For the arms of the wicked will be broken, while ADONAI upholds the righteous.

¹⁸ADONAI knows the days of the blameless—their inheritance endures forever.
¹⁹They will not be ashamed in an evil time and in days of famine they will be satisfied.
²⁰For the wicked will perish, and the enemies of ADONAI will be like the beauty of the fields—they will vanish—vanish like smoke.
²¹The wicked borrows and does not repay,
 but the righteous is a gracious giver.
²²For His blessed ones inherit the land.
 But those He curses will be cut off.
²³From ADONAI a man's steps are made firm, when He delights in his way.
²⁴Though he stumble,
 he will not fall headlong,
 for ADONAI is holding his hand.
²⁵I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous one forsaken,
 nor his children begging for bread.
²⁶All day long he is gracious and lends.
 So his offspring will be a blessing.
²⁷Turn from evil and do good,
 so you may live forever.
²⁸For ADONAI loves justice and does not abandon His godly ones.
 They will be preserved forever,
 but the seed of the wicked will be cut off.
²⁹The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.
³⁰The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom and his tongue speaks justice.
³¹The Torah of his God is in his heart.
 His steps do not slip.
³²The wicked lies in wait for the righteous, seeking to slay him.
³³But ADONAI will not leave him in his hand, or let him be condemned when judged.
³⁴Wait for ADONAI and keep His way,
 and He will exalt you to inherit the land.
 When the wicked are cut off,
 you will see it.
³⁵I have seen a wicked, ruthless man flourishing like a leafy tree in native soil.
³⁶But once he passed by, he was no more.
 Though I looked for him,
 he could not be found.

³⁷Notice the man of integrity and watch the upright—
 for the man of shalom has a future.
³⁸But transgressors will be destroyed altogether.
 The future of the wicked will be cut off.
³⁹Yet the salvation of the righteous is from ADONAI.
 He is their stronghold in time of trouble.
⁴⁰ADONAI helps them and delivers them.
 He rescues them from the wicked and saves them—because they take refuge in Him.

38

A Burden Too Heavy for Me

¹A psalm of David, for a memorial.
²ADONAI, do not rebuke me in Your anger
 or discipline me in Your wrath.
³For Your arrows have sunk deep into me and Your hand has pressed down on me.
⁴There is no health in my flesh because of Your indignation.
 There is no wholeness in my bones because of my sin.
⁵For my iniquities are on my head—like a burden too heavy for me.
⁶My wounds are foul and festering because of my foolishness.
⁷I am bent over, bowed down greatly.
 All day I walk about in mourning.
⁸For my heart is filled with burning pain, and there is no health in my body.
⁹I am numb and utterly crushed.
 I groan because of anguish in my heart.
¹⁰My Lord, all my longing is before You,
 and my sighing is not hidden from You.
¹¹My heart pounds, my strength fails me.
 The light of my eyes—also, not with me.
¹²My friends and my companions stay away from my wound, and my kinsmen stand far off.
¹³They who seek my life set traps.
 Those who seek my hurt threaten destruction, uttering lies all day.
¹⁴But I, like someone deaf, hear nothing, like a mute, not opening his mouth.

¹⁵Yes, I am like one who cannot hear, whose mouth has no arguments.
¹⁶But I wait for You, ADONAI—
 You will answer, O Lord my God.
¹⁷For I said: “Don’t let them gloat over me or exalt themselves over me, when my foot slips.”
¹⁸For I am about to fall, and my pain is before me constantly.
¹⁹So I confess my guilt.
 I am troubled because of my sin.
²⁰My lively enemies are numerous.
 Many hate me wrongfully.
²¹Those who repay evil for good oppose me because I pursue what is good.
²²Do not forsake me, ADONAI.
 O my God, be not far from me.
²³Hurry to my aid, my Lord, my salvation.

39

Make Me Know the Number of My Days

¹For the music director, for Jeduthun, a psalm of David.
²I said: “I will guard my ways,
 so I will not sin with my tongue.
 I will muzzle my mouth
 while the wicked are before me.” ³So I became utterly speechless; kept silent even from good,
 but my anguish was stirred up.
⁴My heart was hot within me, while I was musing, the fire burned.
 Then I spoke with my tongue:
⁵“Let me know, ADONAI, my end and what the number of my days is.
 Let me know how short-lived I am.
⁶Behold, You made my days mere hand-breadths,
 and my lifetime as nothing before You.
 Surely all humanity is but vapor. Selah
⁷Everyone goes about as a mere phantom.
 Surely they are making an uproar in vain, heaping up stuff—
 yet not knowing who will gather it.^a ⁸And now, my Lord, what do I wait for?

^a 39:7. cf. Luke 12:20.

My hope is in You.
⁹Deliver me from all my transgressions.
 Do not make me the scorn of a fool.
¹⁰I am speechless, not opening my mouth
 —for You have done it.
¹¹Remove Your scourge from me.
 I perish by the blow of Your hand.
¹²With rebukes You chasten one for iniquity and You consume like a moth what he finds pleasure in.
 Surely all humanity is but a vapor. Selah ¹³Hear my prayer, ADONAI, and listen to my cry—
 do not keep silent at my tears.
 For with You I am an outsider, a sojourner,
 as all my fathers were.
¹⁴Turn your gaze away from me, so I may smile again,
 before I go, and am no more.”

40

Written About Me in the Scroll

¹For the music director, a psalm of David.
²I waited patiently for ADONAI.
 He bent down to me and heard my cry.
³He brought me up out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire.
 Then He set my feet on a rock.
 He made my steps firm.
⁴He put a new song in my mouth—
 a hymn of praise to our God.
 Many will see and fear,
 and trust in ADONAI.
⁵Blessed is the one who put his confidence in ADONAI, who has not turned to the arrogant, nor to those who fall into falsehood.
⁶Many things You have done,
 ADONAI my God
 —Your plans for us are wonderful—
 there is none to be compared to You!
 If I were to speak and tell of them,
 they would be too many to count!
⁷Sacrifice and offering You did not desire —my ears You have opened—burnt offering and sin offering

You did not require.
⁸Then I said: "Here I am, I have come—in the scroll of a book
 it is written about me.
⁹I delight to do Your will, O my God.
 Yes, Your Torah is within my being."
¹⁰I proclaim good news of righteousness in the great assembly.
 Behold, I am not shutting my lips—
 ADONAI, You know!
¹¹I did not hide Your righteousness within my heart.
 Rather I declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation.
 I did not conceal Your lovingkindness and Your truth from the great assembly.

¹²ADONAI, do not withhold
 Your compassions from me.
 Let Your mercy and Your truth always protect me.
¹³For evils beyond number surround me;
 my sins have overtaken me
 —I cannot see—they are more than the hairs of my head
 —and my heart fails me.
¹⁴ADONAI, please deliver me!
 ADONAI, come quickly to help me!
¹⁵Let those who seek my life to sweep it away be put to shame and humiliated.
 Let those who wish me evil be turned back in disgrace.
¹⁶Let those who say to me, "Aha! Aha!"
 be appalled over their own shame.
¹⁷Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You.
 Let those who love Your salvation continually say: "ADONAI be magnified!" ¹⁸But I—I am poor and needy—yet my Lord is mindful of me.
 You are my help and my deliverer—
 O my God, do not delay!

41

Even My Close Friend

¹For the music director: a psalm of David.

²Blessed is the one who considers the wretched—
 ADONAI will deliver him in the evil day.
³ADONAI will protect him and keep him alive.
 He will be made blessed in the land.
 You will not give him over to the desire of his foes.
⁴ADONAI will strengthen him on his sickbed.
 May You restore him completely from his bed.
⁵I said: "ADONAI, have mercy on me.
 Heal my soul, for I have sinned
 against You."
⁶My enemies speak evil about me:
 "When will he die and his name perish?"
⁷And if someone of them comes to see me, he speaks falsely.
 He stores up evil in his heart,
 then he goes out and chatters.
⁸All who hate me whisper together about me
 They imagine the worst about me:
⁹"Something evil was poured into him—he will not get up again from the place where he lies."
¹⁰Even my own close friend, whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.^b ¹¹But You, ADONAI, have mercy on me, and raise me up, so I may repay them.
¹²By this I know that You delight in me:
 that my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.
¹³You uphold me in my integrity and set me before Your face forever.
¹⁴Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.
 Amen and amen!

My Soul Thirsts for God

¹For the music director, a contemplative song of the sons of Korah.

²As the deer pants for streams of water,
 so my soul pants for You, O God.

³My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

^b 41:10. cf. Matt. 26:23; Luke 22:21.

When will I come and appear before God?
⁴My tears have been my food
day and night,
while they say to me all day:
“Where is your God?”
⁵These things I remember as I pour out my soul within me.
For I used to go along with the throng, walking with them to the House of God,
with a voice of joy and praise,
a multitude keeping a festival.
⁶Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why are you murmuring within me?
Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him,
for the salvation of His presence.
⁷My God, my soul is downcast within me!
Therefore I remember You from the land of Jordan and from the peaks of Hermon, from Mount Mitzar.
⁸Deep calls to deep in the roar of Your waterfalls.
All Your waves and breakers have swept over me.
⁹By day ADONAI commands His love, and at night His song is with me—a prayer to the God of my life.
¹⁰I will say to God my Rock:
“Why have You forgotten me?
Why do I go about mourning,
under the oppression of the enemy?”
¹¹As with a crushing in my bones, my adversaries taunt me,
by saying to me all day,
“Where is your God?”
¹²Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why are you murmuring within me?
Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him,
the salvation of my countenance and my God.

43

Send Forth Your Light

¹Vindicate me, O God, and champion my cause against an ungodly nation.
From a deceitful and unjust man,

deliver me!

²For You are my God, my stronghold.
Why have You spurned me?
Why do I go about gloomy because of the oppression of the enemy?
³Send forth Your light and Your truth—
let them guide me.
Let them bring me to Your holy mountain and to Your dwelling places.
⁴Then I will come to the altar of God, to the God of my exceeding joy, and praise You upon the harp
—O God, my God.
⁵Why are You downcast, O my soul?
Why are you murmuring within me?
Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him,
the salvation of my countenance.

44

Arise, O God of Our Fathers

¹For the music director, a psalm of the sons of Korah, a contemplative song.
²We have heard with our ears, O God
—our fathers have told us—of a work You did in their days, in days of old.
³With Your hand You displaced nations, but You planted them.
You afflicted peoples,
and You drove them out.
⁴For it was not by their own sword that they took possession of the land, nor did their own arm save them.
But it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your face—
for You favored them.
⁵You are my King, O God—command victories for Jacob!
⁶Through You we push back our foes.
Through Your Name we trample those rising up against us.
⁷For I do not trust in my bow,
nor can my sword save me.
⁸For You saved us from our oppressors and put to shame those who hated us.
⁹In God we make our boast all day and Your Name we praise forever. Selah

¹⁰Yet You have spurned and humiliated us, and no longer go out with our armies.
¹¹You make us retreat before the enemy.
Those who hate us have plundered us.
¹²You gave us to be devoured like sheep^a and have scattered us among the nations.
¹³You are selling Your people cheaply—not even getting a great price for them.
¹⁴You made us a taunt for our neighbors,
a scorn and ridicule for those around us.
¹⁵You have made us a byword
among the nations,
head-wagging among the peoples.
¹⁶All day my disgrace is before me, and my face is covered with shame—¹⁷because of the sound of taunting and reviling
from the face of a vengeful enemy.
¹⁸All this came upon us,
though we did not forget You,
nor were we false to Your covenant.
¹⁹Our heart did not turn back,
nor did our steps stray from Your path.
²⁰Yet You crushed us in a place of jackals, covered us with the shadow of death.
²¹If we had forgotten the Name of our God or stretched our hands to a foreign god, ²²would God not have discovered it?
For He knows the secrets of the heart.
²³But for Your sake we are slain all day.
We are counted as sheep for slaughter.^b ²⁴Awake! Why do you sleep, my Lord?
Wake up! Do not cast us off forever.
²⁵Why do You hide Your face and forget our misery and oppression?
²⁶For our soul sinks down to the dust.
Our belly cleaves to the earth.
²⁷Arise, be our help, and redeem us for Your mercy's sake.

45

A Royal Wedding Song

¹For the music director, according to “Lilies.” Of the sons of Korah, a contemplative song, a love song.

^a 44:12. cf. Rom. 8:36.

^b 44:23. cf. Rom. 8:36.

²My heart is stirred with a good word.
I speak my verses to the king.
My tongue is the pen of a skillful writer.
³You are the most handsome of the sons of men.
Grace pours from your lips.
Therefore God has blessed you forever.
⁴Gird your sword on your thigh,
O mighty one,
in your splendor and your majesty.
⁵In your majesty ride victoriously, on behalf of truth, meekness and justice.
Let your right hand display awesome things.
⁶Your arrows are sharp.
Peoples fall beneath you—into the heart of the king's enemies.
⁷Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and a scepter of justice is the scepter of Your kingdom.
⁸You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness.
Therefore, God, your God, anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions.^c ⁹All your robes have myrrh, aloes, cassia.
From ivory palaces, stringed instruments make you glad.
¹⁰Kings' daughters are among your honored women.
At your right hand stands the queen in gold of Ophir.
¹¹“Listen, O daughter, consider
and incline your ear.
Forget your people
and your father's house.
¹²Then the king will desire your beauty.
Honor him, for he is your lord.
¹³A daughter of Tyre comes with a gift.
The richest people will court your favor.”
¹⁴All glorious is the king's daughter within the palace—her gown is interwoven with gold.^d ¹⁵She will be led to the king in embroidered garments.
Her virgins, her companions following her, are coming in to you.

^c 45:7-8. cf. Heb. 1:8-9.

^d 45:14. cf. Ex. 39:2-3; Rev. 19:7-8.

¹⁶They are led in with joy and gladness—they enter into the palace of the king.

¹⁷Your sons will take your fathers' place.
You will make them princes throughout the land.

¹⁸I will cause your name to be remembered in all generations.
Therefore the nations will praise you forever and ever.

46

He Makes Wars Cease

¹For the music director, of the sons of Korah, according to Alamothe, a song.

²God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.

³Therefore we will not fear, though the earth change, though the mountains topple into the heart of the seas,

⁴though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains quake at their swelling. Selah

⁵There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God—the holy dwelling place of Elyon.^a ⁶God is in the midst of her,

she will not be shaken.

God will help her when morning dawns.

⁷Nations are in uproar, kingdoms totter,
He utters His voice, the earth melts!

⁸ADONAI-Tzva'ot is with us.

The God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah

⁹Come, see the works of ADONAI, who brings devastations on the earth.

¹⁰He makes wars cease to the end of the earth.

He breaks the bow and shatters the spear.

He burns chariots with fire.

¹¹“Be still, and know that I am God.
I am exalted among the nations.
I am exalted in the earth.”

¹²ADONAI-Tzva'ot is with us.
The God of Jacob is our strong tower. Selah

47

In Celebration of God's Reign

¹For the music director, a psalm for the sons of Korah.

²Clap your hands, all you peoples!
Shout to God with the voice of joy!

³For ADONAI Elyon is awesome,
a great King over all the earth.

⁴He subdues peoples under us, and nations under our feet.

⁵He chooses our inheritance for us,
the glory of Jacob whom He loved. Selah

⁶God is gone up amidst shouting,
ADONAI amidst the sound of the shofar.

⁷Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

⁸For God is the King of all the earth.
Sing praises with a skillful song.

⁹God reigns over the nations.
God sits upon His holy throne.

¹⁰The princes of the peoples are gathered as a people of the God of Abraham.
For the shields of earth belong to God—
He is greatly exalted!

48

Consider Zion's Towers

¹A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah.

²Great is ADONAI, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God
—His holy mountain.

³A beautiful height
—the joy of the whole earth—is Mount Zion, on the northern side of the city of the great King.^b

⁴God, in her palaces, is known as a stronghold.

⁵For behold, the kings assembled, they advanced together.

⁶They saw, then they were astounded, they fled in terror.

^a 46:5. cf. Ezek. 47:9, 12; Rev. 22:1-2.

^b 48:3. cf. Matt. 5:35.

⁷Trembling seized them there, pain like a woman in labor.
⁸With an east wind
You broke the ships of Tarshish.
⁹As we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of ADONAI-Tzva'ot,
in the city of our God.
God will establish her forever. Selah ¹⁰We have meditated on Your lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of Your Temple.
¹¹Like Your Name, O God, so is Your praise
to the ends of the earth.
Your right hand is full of righteousness.
¹²Mount Zion is glad,
the daughters of Judah rejoice,
because of Your judgments.
¹³Walk about Zion, go around her.
Count her towers.
¹⁴Consider her ramparts, go through her palaces,
so you may describe it
to the next generation.
¹⁵For this God is our God, forever and ever!
He will guide us to the end.

49

Rich and Poor Alike

¹For the music director: a psalm of the sons
of Korah.
²Hear this, all you peoples.
Give ear, all you inhabitants of the world, ³both low and high,
rich and poor together.
⁴My mouth speaks wisdom,
My heart's meditation is understanding.
⁵I will turn my ear to a proverb.
I will utter my riddle on the harp:
⁶Why should I fear in evil days?
when the iniquity of my deceivers surrounds me?
⁷Or those trusting in their wealth, boasting about their great riches?
⁸No man can redeem his brother, or give to God a ransom for him.
⁹For the redemption of a soul is costly—so, one should stop trying forever.

¹⁰Will he live forever—and never see the Pit?
¹¹Surely he must see, even wise men die.
The fool and the brutish will alike perish, leaving their wealth to others.^c ¹²Their inward thought is:
Their houses are eternal, their dwellings for generation after generation.
They name their lands after themselves.
¹³But the pompous man will not endure—
he is like the beasts that perish.
¹⁴Such is the way of the self-confident, and their followers who approve their sayings. Selah ¹⁵Like sheep they are destined for Sheol.
Death will be their shepherd and the upright will rule over them in the morning.
Their image will decay in Sheol— far from its lofty place.
¹⁶But God redeems my soul from the power of Sheol— for He receives me. Selah ¹⁷Do not be afraid when a man gets rich, when his house's splendor increases.
¹⁸For when he dies he takes nothing away.
His splendor will not follow him down.
¹⁹Though during his life
he congratulates himself, and men praise you when you do well for yourself—²⁰He will still join his fathers' company, who will never see the light.
²¹A pompous man, without understanding—
he is like the beasts that perish.

50

A Sacrifice of Thanks

¹A psalm of Asaph.
God, Elohim ADONAI has spoken and summoned the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
²Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God shines forth.
³Our God comes, and does not keep silent.

^c 49:11. cf. Ps. 39:7(6); Eccl. 2:16-18, 21; Luke 12:20.

A fire is devouring before Him,
and it storms around Him mightily.
⁴He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, to judge His people:
⁵“Gather My kedoshim to Me, who cut a covenant with Me with a sacrifice.”
⁶The heavens declare His righteousness,
for God Himself is Judge. Selah

⁷“Hear, My people, and I will speak,
O Israel, and I will testify against you:
I am God, your God.
⁸I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices, for your burnt offerings are continually before Me.
⁹I have no need of a bull from your house nor goats from your pens.
¹⁰For every beast of the forest is Mine,
and the cattle on a thousand hills.
¹¹I know every bird of the mountains.
Everything moving in the field is Mine.
¹²If I were hungry, I would not tell you—for the world is Mine and all it contains!
¹³Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?
¹⁴Offer God a sacrifice of thank offerings,
then fulfill your vows to Elyon.
¹⁵Call upon Me in the day of trouble.
When I rescue you, you will honor Me.”

¹⁶But to the wicked, God says:
“What are you doing, reciting My laws and taking My covenant in your mouth?
¹⁷For you hate discipline, and you cast My words behind you.
¹⁸When you see a thief,
you are pleased with him,
and your portion is with adulterers.
¹⁹You have unleashed your mouth for evil and harnessed your tongue for deceit.
²⁰You sit, speaking against your brother, slandering your own mother’s son.
²¹These things you have done—
Should I keep silent?
You thought I was just like you—but I reprove you,
and set the case before your eyes.
²²Now consider this, you who forget God.

Or else I will tear you in pieces with no one to rescue you.
²³A sacrifice of praise honors Me,
and to the one who orders his way,
I will show the salvation of God.”

51

Create in Me a Clean Heart

¹For the music director: a psalm of David, ²when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he went to Bathsheba.

³Be gracious to me, O God,
according to Your mercy.
According to Your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
⁴Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.
⁵For I know my transgressions and my sin is ever before me.
⁶Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done what is evil in Your sight,
so that You are just when You speak,
and blameless when You judge.
⁷Behold, I was born in iniquity and in sin when my mother conceived me.
⁸Surely You desire truth in the inner being.
Make me know wisdom inwardly.
⁹Cleanse me with hyssop and I will be clean.
Wash me,
and I will be whiter than snow.
¹⁰Let me hear joy and gladness,
so the bones You crushed may rejoice.
¹¹Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.
¹²Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.
¹³Do not cast me from Your presence—take not Your Ruach ha-Kodesh from me.
¹⁴Restore to me the joy of Your salvation and sustain me with a willing spirit.
¹⁵Then will I teach transgressors Your ways and sinners will return to You.
¹⁶Deliver me from bloodguilt, O God—
God of my salvation.

Then my tongue will sing for joy of Your righteousness.

¹⁷O Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth will declare Your praise.

¹⁸For You would not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it,
nor be pleased by burnt offerings.

¹⁹The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
A broken and a contrite heart, O God,
You will not despise.

²⁰In Your favor do good to Zion.
Build up the walls of Jerusalem.

²¹Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices and whole burnt offerings.
Then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

52

Treacherous Tongue!

¹For the music director: a contemplative song of David, ²when Doeg the Edomite came and reported to Saul telling him, "David went to Ahimelech's house."

³Why do you brag about evil, mighty man?
God's lovingkindness is every day.

⁴Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceit.

⁵You love evil instead of good, lying rather than speaking right. Selah

⁶You love only devouring words—treacherous tongue!

⁷God will pull you down forever, and snatch you, rip you out of your tent, and uproot you from the land of the living. Selah

⁸Then the righteous will see and fear, and laugh at him:

⁹"Here is the man who did not make God his stronghold.

Instead he trusted in his great riches—and was strong in his evil desire."

¹⁰But I—I am like an olive tree flourishing in the House of God.

I trust in God's lovingkindness
forever and ever.

¹¹I will praise You forever

for what You have done.
I will hope in Your Name, for it is good,
in the presence of Your kedoshim.

53

A Fool Denies God

¹For the music director: on Mahalath, a contemplative song of David.

²The fool says in his heart:
"There is no God."

They are corrupt, commit vile injustice.
There is no one who does good.

³God looks down from the heavens on the children of men, to see if anyone understands, who seeks after God.

⁴All have turned aside—together they have become corrupt.
There is no one who does good—
no, not even one!

⁵Will the evildoers never learn?
They consume My people as they would eat bread, and never call upon God.

⁶There they are in great dread—where there is nothing to fear:
For God has scattered the bones of those besieging you.
You have put them to shame,
for God has rejected them.

⁷Who will give salvation for Israel
out of Zion?

When God restores His captive people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad!

54

Surely God is My Helper

¹For the music director, on stringed instruments, a contemplative song of David, ²when the Ziphites came and said to Saul: "Is not David hiding himself among us?"

³O God, save me by Your Name, vindicate me by Your might.

⁴O God, hear my prayer,

listen to the words of my mouth.

⁵For strangers have risen up against me.
Violent men seek after my soul.
They do not set God before them. Selah

⁶Surely God is my helper.
My Lord is the supporter of my soul.

⁷Let evil return to my foes.

Silence them with Your truth!

⁸I will sacrifice a freewill offering to You.
I will praise Your name, ADONAI, for it is good.

⁹For He has delivered me from all trouble, and my eye has gazed upon my enemies.

55

Betrayal by a Friend

¹For the music director, on stringed instruments, a contemplative song of David.

²Give ear, O God, to my prayer and do not ignore my plea for help.

³Listen to me and answer me.
I am restless in my complaint and moan—

⁴because of the voice of the enemy, because of the pressure of the wicked.

For they thrust trouble on me, and in anger bear a grudge against me.

⁵My heart shudders within me and the terrors of death sweep over me.

⁶Fear and trembling come upon me and horror has overwhelmed me.

⁷So I said, “Oh that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and find rest.

⁸Surely I would flee far away.
I would stay in the wilderness. Selah

⁹I would hurry to my shelter from the rushing wind of the storm.”

¹⁰Lord, confuse and confound their speech, for I see violence and strife in the city.

¹¹Day and night they make the rounds on her walls.

Iniquity and mischief are within her.

¹²Ruins are in her midst.

Oppression and deceit never leave her square.

¹³For if it were an enemy taunting me,

I could endure it.

If my foe was exalting himself over me,
I could hide from him.

¹⁴But it is you, a man like me—my companion and my close friend!

¹⁵Together we enjoyed great fellowship.
We used to walk with the throng in the House of God.

¹⁶Let desolation come upon them, let them go down alive into Sheol— for evil is in their dwelling, among them.

¹⁷As for me, I will call on God, and ADONAI will save me.

¹⁸Evening, morning and noon,
I complain and moan,
then He hears my voice.

¹⁹He will redeem my soul in shalom from the battle against me.

For many are striving with me.

²⁰God will hear and humble them
—yes, the One enthroned of old. Selah
Nothing changes—they do not fear God.

²¹My companion put forth his hands against those at peace with him, as he violates his covenant.

²²Smoother than butter was his speech, yet war was in his heart.

His words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.

²³Cast your burden on ADONAI, and He will sustain you.^a

He will never let the righteous be shaken.

²⁴But You, O God, will bring them down to the Pit of destruction.

Bloodthirsty, deceitful men will not live out half their days.

But I—I will trust in You.

56

In God I Trust

¹For the music director: “A Silent Dove Far Away,” a Michtam of David, when the Philistines had seized him in Gath.

²Be gracious to me, O God!

^a 55:23. cf. 1Pet. 5:7.

For man has crushed me,
 fighting all day he oppresses me.
³My foes trample me all day.
 For many are fighting me arrogantly.
⁴In a day when I am afraid,
 I will put my trust in You.
⁵In God—I keep praising His word—in God I trust, I will not fear.
 What can mere flesh do to me?
⁶All day they twist my words.
 All their thoughts are against me for evil.
⁷They stir up strife; they lie hidden.
 They mark my steps,
 eager to take my soul.
⁸In spite of such sin, will they escape?
 In fierce anger, O God, cast down such people!
⁹You have recorded my wanderings.
 You put my tears in Your bottle.
 Are they not in Your book?
¹⁰Then my enemies will turn back in the day I call.
 This I know—that God is for me.
¹¹In God—I keep praising His word—in ADONAI—I keep praising His word—¹²in God I trust, I will not be afraid.
 What can man do to me?
¹³I am under vows to You, O God.
 I will present thank offerings to You.
¹⁴For You have delivered my soul from death
 and my feet from stumbling, that I may walk before God in the light of life.

57

Be Exalted Over All the Earth

¹For the music director, “Do Not Destroy,” a Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

²Be gracious to me, O God,
 be gracious to me,
 for in You my soul takes refuge.
 In the shadow of Your wings
 I take refuge, until destruction passes by.

³I will cry out to El Elyon, to God who accomplishes it for me.
⁴He will send from heaven and save me.
 He rebukes the one trampling on me. Selah
 God is sending His mercy and His truth.
⁵My soul is in the midst of lions.
 I lie among those breathing fire—sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongue is a sharp sword.
⁶Be exalted, O God, above the heavens.
 Let Your glory be over all the earth!
⁷They spread a net for my steps, my soul is bowed down.
 They have dug a pit before me—they fell into it themselves. Selah ⁸My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast.
 I will sing, yes, I will make music.
⁹Awake, my glory! Awake, harp and lyre!
 I will awaken the dawn.
¹⁰I will praise You, my Lord,
 among the peoples.
 I will sing praises to You
 among the nations.
¹¹For Your lovingkindness is great up to the heavens,
 and Your truth to the skies.
¹²Be exalted, O God, above the heavens.
 Let Your glory be over all the earth!

58

God Really Judges

¹For the music director: “Do Not Destroy,” a Michtam of David.

²Do you really speak of justice, O “gods”?
 Do you judge with fairness, sons of man?
³No, in heart you devise injustice.
 Your hands weigh out violence on earth.
⁴The wicked are strangers from the womb.
 Speaking lies, they go astray from birth.
⁵Their venom is like a serpent’s venom, like a deaf cobra shutting its ear—⁶not hearing the voice of charmers, or a cunning spell binder.
⁷O God, break their teeth in their mouths.

Tear out the fangs of young lions, ADONAI.

⁸Let them flow away like water that runs off.

When he bends his bow,
let the arrows be cut off.

⁹Like a slug melting away as it slithers, like a woman's miscarriage,
may they never see the sun.

¹⁰Even before your pots can feel a thorn
—whether alive or ablaze—
He will sweep the wicked away.

¹¹The righteous one will rejoice when he beholds vengeance, when he washes his feet in the blood of the wicked.

¹²Then men will say:

“There really is a reward for the righteous.

There really is a God who judges on earth!”

59

God Is My Strong Tower

¹For the music director: “Do Not Destroy,” a Michtam of David, when Saul sent men to watch the house to kill him.

²Deliver me from my enemies, my God!
Set me on high, away from those who rise up against me.

³Deliver me from workers of iniquity.
Rescue me from bloodthirsty men.

⁴For behold, they lie in wait for me, Defiant men stir up strife against me—not for my transgression or sin, ADONAI.

⁵For no guilt of mine,
they run and set things up.

Awake! Help me! Look!

⁶For You are ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot, the God of Israel!

Rouse Yourself to punish all the nations.
Show no mercy to any iniquitous traitors.

Selah

⁷They return at evening, snarling like a dog,
prowling about the city.

⁸See, they are spewing with their mouth
—swords in their lips—

“After all, who is listening?”

⁹But You, ADONAI, are laughing at them.
You scoff at all the nations.

¹⁰O my strength, I watch for You—
for God is my strong tower.

¹¹My God in His lovingkindness will go before me.

God will let me look down on my foes.

¹²Do not slay them, lest my people forget.
With Your power shake them and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

¹³The sin of their mouth is the words of their lips.

So let them be caught in their pride, and for uttering a curse and a lie.

¹⁴Consume them in wrath, consume them till they are no more.

Let them know that God rules over Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah

¹⁵They return at evening,
snarling like a dog,
prowling about the city.

¹⁶They wander around for food.
If they are not full, they stay up all night.

¹⁷But I—I sing of Your strength!
Yes, in the morning I sing aloud of Your lovingkindness.

For You have been my fortress,
a refuge in the day of my trouble.

¹⁸O my strength, to You I sing praises.
For God is my strong tower—
my God of lovingkindness.

Song of Victory Over Edom

¹For the music director, on the “Lily of the Covenant,” a Michtam of David, for teaching, ²when he fought with Aram-Naharaim and with Aram-Zobah, and Joab returned and struck down twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

³O God, You have spurned us.
You have broken out against us.

You have been angry. Turn back to us!

⁴You made earth shake; You split it open.

Heal its fractures—for it shudders.
⁵You made Your people see hardship.
 You made us drink wine of staggering.
⁶To those who fear You,
 You gave a banner,
 to be unfurled before the archers. Selah ⁷Save with Your right hand and answer us, so that Your beloved may be delivered.

⁸God has spoken in His holiness:
 “I will exult!
 I will parcel out Shechem and measure off the valley of Succoth.
⁹Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine,
 Ephraim is a helmet for my head,
 Judah is my scepter.
¹⁰Moab is my washbasin,
 On Edom I toss my sandal, Philistia, cry aloud because of me!”

¹¹Who will bring me into the fortified city?
 Who will lead me to Edom?
¹²Should it not be You, O God—who spurned us and no longer goes out with our armies?
¹³Give us aid against the adversary, for the help of man is worthless.
¹⁴With God we will do mighty things,
 and He will trample our foes.

61

Lead Me to the Rock

¹For the music director,
 on string instrument, of David.
²Hear my cry, O God, listen to my prayer.
³From the end of the earth I call to You when my heart is faint.
 Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
⁴For You have been a refuge for me,
 a tower of strength before the enemy.
⁵Let me dwell in Your tent forever.
 Let me take refuge in the shelter of Your wings. Selah ⁶For You have heard my vows, O God.
 You have given the inheritance of those who fear Your Name.

⁷May You add days to the king’s days.
 May his years span many generations.
⁸May he be enthroned before God forever.
 Appoint mercy and truth to protect him.
⁹So I will sing praise to Your Name forever, to fulfill my vows day after day.

62

My Rock and My Salvation

¹For the music director, on Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

²My soul, wait in stillness, only for God—
 from Him comes my salvation.

³He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress—I will never be moved.

⁴How long will all of you assault a man, to crush him, like a leaning wall, a fence to be torn down?

⁵They only plot to topple him from his rank.
 Delighting in falsehood,
 they bless with their mouth,
 but inwardly they curse. Selah

⁶My soul, wait in stillness, only for God—for from Him comes my expectation.

⁷He alone is my rock and my salvation, my strong tower—I will not be moved.

⁸On God, my salvation and my glory is the rock of my strength.

My refuge is in God.

⁹Trust in Him at all times, you people.
 Pour out your heart in His presence.
 God is our refuge. Selah

¹⁰Sons of Adam are a vapor, sons of man are an illusion.
 In balanced scales they go up—altogether they are less than a breath.

¹¹Do not trust in extortion, and do not put vain hope in plunder.
 Though these things increase riches,
 do not set your heart on them.

¹²Once God has spoken, twice I have heard this:
 might belongs to God.

¹³Also Yours, O Lord, is lovingkindness.
 For You reward a man for his work.^a

^a 62:13. cf. Matt. 16:27; Rom. 2:6.

63

You Are My God

¹A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

²O God, You are my God, earnestly I seek You.

My soul thirsts for You.

My flesh longs for You in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.

³So, I looked for You in the Sanctuary, to see Your power and Your glory.

⁴Since Your lovingkindness is better than life,
my lips will praise You.

⁵So I will bless You as long as I live.
In Your name I lift up my hands.^a ⁶My soul is satisfied as with fat and oil, so my mouth praises You with joyful lips.

⁷When I remember You on my bed,
I meditate on You through the night watches.

⁸For You have been my help, and in the shadow of Your wings
I sing for joy.

⁹My soul clings to You—
Your right hand upholds me.

¹⁰But those who seek my soul to destroy it will go down to the depths of the earth.

¹¹They will be gutted by the sword, and become a prey for jackals.

¹²But the king will rejoice in God.
All who swear by Him will boast,
when the mouth speaking lies is shut.

64

Protect Me from Conspiracies

¹For the music director, a psalm of David.

²Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint.
Protect my life from terror of the enemy.

³Hide me from the conspiracy of evildoers, from the tumult of workers of iniquity,

⁴who sharpened their tongue like a sword,

^a 63:5. cf. 1Tim. 2:8.

and aimed their arrow—bitter words, ⁵to shoot from hiding at the innocent, shooting suddenly at him, with no fear.

⁶They are firming up their evil plan.
They talk about setting secret traps.
They asked, “Who would see them?”

⁷They are plotting injustices:
“We have completed a perfect plot!”
A man’s inward part and heart are deep.

⁸But God will shoot them with an arrow—suddenly their wounds will appear.

⁹So their tongue will be their downfall.
All who see them will flee away.

¹⁰Then all men will fear.
So they will declare the work of God,
and ponder what He has done.

¹¹The righteous will be glad in ADONAI and take refuge in Him.
Let all the upright in heart give glory!

65

Praise is Awaitng You in Zion

¹For the music director, a psalm, a song of David.

²Praise is awaiting You in Zion, O God, and to You the vow will be fulfilled.

³O You who hear prayer, to You all flesh will come.

⁴Records of sins overwhelm me—
You will atone for our transgressions.

⁵Blessed is the one You choose and bring near to dwell in Your courts!
We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your House—Your holy Temple.

⁶You respond to us in righteousness with awe-inspiring works
—O God of our salvation—hope of all ends of the earth and farthest seas,

⁷who establishes mountains by His power, being girded with might,

⁸who stills the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
and the tumult of the peoples.

⁹Those dwelling in the uttermost parts stand in awe of Your signs.

You make morning and evening shout for joy.
¹⁰You visit the land and make it abundant, greatly enriching it—
the stream of God is full of water.
You prepare their grain,
for so You have prepared the earth.
¹¹You drench her furrows, leveling the ridges.
You soften her with showers, blessing her growth.
¹²You crown the year with Your goodness.
Your wagon tracks drip with abundance.
¹³Pastures of the wilderness overflow and hills are robed with joy.
¹⁴Meadows are clothed with flocks and valleys are covered with grain—they shout for joy, yes, they sing!

66

How Awesome Your Deeds

¹For the music director, a song, a psalm.
Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!
²Sing the glory of His Name—make His praise glorious.
³Say to God:
“How awesome are Your deeds!
Because of Your great power,
Your enemies cringe before You.
⁴All the earth bows down to You,
and sings praises to You.
All sing praises to Your Name.” Selah
⁵Come and see the works of God.
How awesome His deeds for the children of Adam!
⁶He turned the sea into dry land.
They crossed the river on foot.
There let us rejoice in Him!
⁷He rules by His might forever.
His eyes keep watch on the nations.
Let no rebels exalt themselves. Selah
⁸Bless our God, O peoples!
Let the sound of His praise be heard.
⁹Keeping our soul in life,
He has not let our foot slip.

¹⁰For You have tested us, O God—
You have purified us, as silver is refined.
¹¹You brought us into a net.
You laid a burden on our backs.
¹²You caused men to ride over our heads.
We went through fire and water.
Yet You brought us out to superabundance.
¹³With burnt offerings I will come to Your House, fulfilling my vows to You ¹⁴that my lips uttered and mouth spoke, when I was in trouble.
¹⁵To You I will present burnt offerings of fat animals,
with the sweet smoke of rams.
I will offer bulls with goats. Selah

¹⁶Come and listen, all you who fear God.
I will tell what He has done for my soul.
¹⁷I cried out to Him with my mouth, and exaltation was on my tongue.
¹⁸If I had cherished iniquity in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened.
¹⁹But surely God has heard.
He has listened to my voice in prayer.
²⁰Blessed be God,
who has not turned away my prayer,
nor His lovingkindness from me.

67

Let All Peoples Praise You

¹For the music director, with stringed instruments, a psalm, a song.
²May God be gracious to us and bless us.
May He cause His face to shine upon us— Selah ³so that Your way may be known on earth, and Your salvation among all nations.
⁴Let the peoples praise You, O God.
Let all the peoples praise You.
⁵Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for You will judge the peoples fairly,
and guide the nations on the earth. Selah
⁶Let the peoples praise You, O God.
Let all the peoples praise You.
⁷The earth has yielded its harvest—
God, our God will bless us.

⁸God will bless us,
and all the ends of the earth will fear Him.

68

Triumphal Procession up to the Temple

¹For the music director, a psalm of David, a song.

²Let God arise!
Let His enemies be scattered!
Let those who hate Him flee before Him.

³As smoke is blown away,
may You blow them away.

As wax melts before the fire,
may the wicked perish before God.

⁴But let the righteous be glad.
Let them exult before God.

Let them rejoice with gladness.

⁵Sing to God, sing praises to His Name.

Prepare the road for Him who rides through the deserts, whose Name is ADONAI—

and rejoice before Him.

⁶A father of orphans, defender of widows, is God in His holy dwelling.

⁷God settles the lonely in a home.
He leads prisoners out to prosperity.

But the rebellious live in a parched land.

⁸O God, when You went out before Your people, when You marched through the desert—Selah—

⁹the earth shook, the heavens rained at the presence of God
—the One of Sinai—

at the presence of God, God of Israel.

¹⁰You poured down abundant rain, O God.
You sustained Your weary inheritance.

¹¹Your community settled in it.
In Your goodness, O God,

You provided for the poor.

¹²The Lord gives the word—a great company of women proclaims the good news.

¹³“Kings of armies, flee, flee!”

She who stays at home divides the spoil.

¹⁴When you lie among the campfires, wings of a dove were covered with silver and her feathers with shimmering gold.

¹⁵When Shaddai scattered kings there,
it was snowing on Zalmon.

¹⁶Mount Bashan is a mountain of God.
Mount Bashan is a mountain of peaks.

¹⁷Why do you gaze with envy, you mountain peaks,
at the mountain God desired for His dwelling?

Yes, ADONAI will dwell there forever!

¹⁸The chariots of God are thousands and thousands —my Lord is among them as at Sinai, in holiness.

¹⁹You went up on high.

You led captivity captive.

You received gifts from humanity,^a even from the rebellious—
so that God might dwell there.

²⁰Blessed be my Lord!

Day by day He bears our burdens—
the God of our salvation! Selah

²¹God is for us—a God of deliverance.
ADONAI my Lord has escapes from death.

²²Surely God crushes the head of His foes, the hairy scalp of one walking in his guilt.

²³My Lord said:

“I will bring them back from Bashan,
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea.

²⁴So your foot may wade in blood, and your dogs’ tongue may have their share of your enemies’ blood.”

²⁵They have seen Your processions, O God—

the processions of my God, my King, into the Sanctuary:

²⁶The singers go before, the musicians last, between maidens beating tambourines.

²⁷“Bless God in the congregations—ADONAI, from the fountain of Israel.”

²⁸There Benjamin, the youngest, is leading them,
there the throng of Judah’s princes,
there the princes of Zebulun,
there the princes of Naphtali.

^a 68:19. cf. Eph. 4:8.

²⁹Your God commanded your strength.
Strengthen, O God,
You who have acted for us.
³⁰From Your Temple above Jerusalem, kings bring You tribute.
³¹Rebuke the beast of the reeds,
the herd of bulls with the calves, peoples trampling down pieces of silver.
He has scattered the peoples who delight in war!
³²Nobles come from Egypt.
Cush runs to stretch her hands to God.
³³Sing to God, kingdoms of the earth, sing praises to the Lord—Selah— ³⁴to Him who rides upon the ancient heavens of heavens.
Look, He utters His voice, a mighty voice!
³⁵Ascribe strength to God—
His majesty is over Israel and His strength is in the skies.
³⁶O God, You are awesome from Your holy places.
The God of Israel gives strength and power to the people.
Blessed be God!

69

Scorn and Disgrace, Gall and Vinegar

¹For the music director, on “Lilies,” of David.
²Save me, O God, for the waters have reached my soul.
³I have sunk in deep mud,
and there is no footing,
I have come into deep waters,
and a flood sweeps over me.
⁴I am worn out by my crying, my throat is parched,
my eyes fail, waiting for my God.
⁵Those who hate me without a cause^b outnumber the hairs of my head.
Powerful are my enemies who would destroy me with lies.
What I did not steal, must I restore?
⁶O God, You know my folly, nor are my trespasses hidden from You.
⁷May those who hope in You not be ashamed because of me, my Lord, ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

May those who seek You not be disgraced because of me,
O God of Israel.
⁸For I have endured scorn for Your sake.
Disgrace has covered my face.
⁹I have become a stranger to my brothers,
a foreigner to my mother’s children.
¹⁰For zeal for Your House consumed me—the insults of those who insulted You have fallen on me.^c ¹¹When I wept and fasted—that became a reproach to me.
¹²When I put on sackcloth,
I became a joke to them.
¹³Those who sit at the gate chatter about me,
and I am the song of the drunkards.
¹⁴But as for me, my prayer to You, ADONAI, is for a time of favor.
O God, in Your great love, answer me with the truth of Your salvation.
¹⁵Deliver me from the mire—do not let me sink.
Deliver me from those who hate me, out of the deep waters.
¹⁶Do not let floodwaters sweep over me, nor the deep swallow me up,
nor the Pit shut its mouth over me.
¹⁷Answer me, ADONAI, for good is Your mercy.
With Your great compassion, turn to me.
¹⁸Hide not Your face from Your servant.
For I am in distress—answer me quickly.
¹⁹Draw near to my soul and redeem it.
Ransom me because of my foes.
²⁰You know my reproach, my shame,
my disgrace.
All my adversaries are before You.
²¹Scorn has broken my heart, so I am sick.
I looked for sympathy,
but there was none,
for comforters, but found none.
²²They put gall in my food, and for my thirst
they gave me vinegar to drink.^d

^b 69:5. cf. John 15:25.

^c 69:10. Cf. John 2:17; Rom. 15:3.
^d 69:22. cf. Matt. 27:34, 48; Mark 15:23, 36.

²³Let their table before them be a snare, and what should have been for their well-being, let it be a trap.
²⁴Let their eyes be darkened so they cannot see and their backs be bent forever.^a ²⁵Pour out Your indignation on them.
Let Your fierce anger overtake them.
²⁶Let their encampment be deserted.
Let none dwell in their tents.
²⁷For they persecute the one You have smitten, so they tell of the pain of those You have wounded.
²⁸Add guilt to their guilt—may they not come into Your righteousness.
²⁹May they be wiped out of the book of life and not be recorded with the righteous.^b ³⁰But I—I am afflicted and in pain.
Let Your salvation, O God, set me up on high.
³¹I will praise God's Name with a song, and magnify Him with praise.
³²It will please ADONAI better than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs.
³³The humble will see it and be glad.
You who seek God,
let your hearts revive.
³⁴For ADONAI hears the needy and does not despise His captive people.
³⁵Let heaven and earth praise Him,
the seas and everything moving in them.
³⁶For God will save Zion, and rebuild the cities of Judah.
Then they will dwell there and possess it.
³⁷The children of His servants will inherit it and those who love His Name will dwell there.

70

My Help and My Deliverer

¹For the music director, of David, for a memorial.
²O God, come quickly to deliver me,
ADONAI, to help me.
³May they be put to shame and disgrace who seek my life.

^a 69:23-24. cf. Rom. 11:9-10.

^b 69:29. cf. Rev. 3:5.

May they be turned back in humiliation who delight in my hurt.
⁴May those who say, "Aha! Aha!"
be turned away because of their shame.
⁵But may all who seek You
rejoice and be glad in You.
May those who love Your salvation always say, "Let God be magnified."
⁶But I am poor and needy—
God, come quickly to me.
You are my help and my deliverer—
ADONAI, do not delay.

71

My Hope When I Am Gray

¹In You, ADONAI, have I taken refuge.
Let me never be ashamed.
²Deliver me and rescue me in Your justice.
Turn Your ear to me and save me.
³Be to me a sheltering rock where I may always go.
Give the command to save me—
for You are my rock and my fortress.
⁴My God, rescue me out of the hand of the wicked, out of the grasp of an evil, ruthless man.
⁵For You are my hope, ADONAI my Lord—
my trust from my youth.
⁶From my birth I have leaned on You.
You took me out of my mother's womb.
My praise is always about You.
⁷I am like an ominous sign to many,
but You are my strong refuge.
⁸My mouth is filled with Your praise and with Your glory all day.
⁹Do not cast me away in the time of old age.
When my strength fails,
do not forsake me.
¹⁰For my enemies speak against me.
Those who watch for my soul
conspire together,
¹¹saying: "God has forsaken him—Pursue and take him, for no one will deliver."
¹²O God, be not far from me!
My God, come quickly to help me.

¹³Let the accusers of my soul be disgraced and destroyed.
Let those who seek to harm me be covered with scorn and confusion.

¹⁴But I—I will hope continually and will praise You more and more.

¹⁵My mouth will recount Your justice and Your salvation all day, though I do not know the sum of them.

¹⁶I come because of the mighty deeds of ADONAI my Lord.

I will remember Your righteousness
—Yours alone.

¹⁷God, You taught me from my youth, and I still keep declaring Your wonders.

¹⁸So even until I am old and gray, O God,
do not forsake me,
till I tell of Your strong arm
to the next generation,
Your might to all who are to come.

¹⁹For Your righteousness, O God, reaches to high heaven.
You have done great things—
O God, who is like You?

²⁰You made me see many troubles and evils
—You will revive me again—from the depths of the earth
You will bring me up again.

²¹You will increase my greatness, and comfort me once again.

²²So I will praise You with the harp for your truth, O my God.
I will sing praises to You with the lyre
O Holy One of Israel.

²³My lips will shout for joy
—when I sing praises to You—and my soul, which You have redeemed.

²⁴Also my tongue will tell of Your righteousness all day.
For those who seek my hurt have been put to shame and confusion.

and Your righteousness to the king's son.

²May he judge Your people
with righteousness,
and Your poor ones with justice.

³Let the mountains bring shalom to the people, and the hills righteousness.

⁴May he vindicate the poor of the people, save the children of the needy,
and crush the oppressor.

⁵Let them fear You while the sun endures, and while the moon lasts, throughout all generations.

⁶May he be like rain falling on a mown field,
like showers watering the ground.

⁷Let the righteous flourish in his days.
Let shalom abound till the moon is no more.

⁸May he have dominion from sea to sea, and from the River
to the ends of the earth.

⁹Let desert dwellers bow before him, and his enemies lick the dust.

¹⁰May kings of Tarshish and the islands bring tribute,
kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.

¹¹So let all kings bow down before him, and all nations serve him.

¹²For he rescues the needy crying for help,
also the poor and the one with no helper.

¹³He will take pity on the poor and needy, and the souls of the needy he will save.

¹⁴From oppression and violence
he redeems their soul,
for precious is their blood in his sight.

¹⁵Long may he live!
May gold from Sheba be given to him.
May he pray for him continually, and bless him all day.

¹⁶Let there be abundance of grain in the land.

Let it sway on the top of the hills,
let its fruit be like Lebanon, and let people of the city flourish like grass of the field.

¹⁷May his name endure forever.
May his name increase before the sun,

72

A Powerful King for the Poor

¹Of Solomon.
Give the king Your judgments, O God, and may all nations be blessed by him and call him blessed.

¹⁸Blessed be ADONAI Elohim, God of Israel, who alone does wonders.

¹⁹Blessed be His glorious Name forever.
May all the earth be filled with His glory!
Amen and Amen!

²⁰The prayers of David son of Jesse are complete.

73

God Is the Strength of My Heart

¹A psalm of Asaph.

Surely God is good to Israel,
to the pure in heart.

²But as for me, my feet almost slipped.
My steps nearly slid out from under me.

³For I envied the arrogant,
when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

⁴For there are no pains at their death, their body is healthy.

⁵They have none of humanity's trouble, nor are they plagued like others.

⁶Therefore, they put on pride as a necklace, and violence wraps around them like a garment.

⁷Their eyes bulge out from fatness.
The imaginations of their hearts run wild.

⁸They scoff and wickedly plan evil.

From on high they threaten.

⁹They set their mouth against heaven.
Their tongue struts through the earth.

¹⁰Therefore His people return here, while they drink their fill.

¹¹So they say: "How does God know?
And does Elyon have knowledge?"

¹²Behold, such are the wicked—always at ease and amassing wealth.

¹³Surely in vain have I kept my heart pure, and washed my hands in innocence.

¹⁴For all day I have been stricken,
my chastisement comes every morning.

¹⁵If I had said: "I will speak thus," surely I would have betrayed

a generation of Your children.

¹⁶But when I tried to make sense of this,
it was troubling in my eyes—

¹⁷until I entered the Sanctuary of God, and perceived their end.

¹⁸Surely You put them in slippery places.
You hurled them down to destruction.

¹⁹How suddenly they became a ruin—terminated, consumed by terrors.

²⁰Like a dream when one awakes, thus when You arise, my Lord,
You will despise their form.

²¹When my heart was embittered and I was pierced in my heart,

²²I was brutish and ignorant.

I was like a beast before You.

²³Yet I am continually with You.
You hold my right hand.

²⁴You guide me with Your counsel, and afterward You will take me into glory.

²⁵Whom have I in heaven but You?
On earth there is none I desire besides You.

²⁶My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

²⁷For behold, those far from You will perish.
You put an end to all who like a harlot are unfaithful to You.

²⁸But for me, it is good to be near God.
I have made my Lord ADONAI my refuge.
So I will tell of all Your works.

74

Intercession for Restoration of Zion

¹A contemplative song of Asaph.
Why have You cast us off forever, O God?
Why does Your anger smolder against the flock of Your pasture?

²Remember Your congregation, which You purchased of old,
redeemed as the tribe of Your inheritance, and Mount Zion, where You dwelt.

³Lift Your steps toward the perpetual ruins—
an enemy has done all evil to the Sanctuary!

⁴Your adversaries have roared in the midst of Your meeting place.
They have set up their standards as signs.

⁵It seemed like bringing up axes into a thicket of trees—⁶and now all its carved work they smash with hatchet and hammers!
⁷They set Your Sanctuary on fire, burning it to the ground.
They defiled the dwelling place of Your Name.

⁸They said in their hearts:
“Let us crush them totally!”
They burned down all the meeting places of God in the land.

⁹We do not see our signs.
No longer is there any prophet—and no one among us knows how long.
¹⁰How long, O God, will the adversary mock?
Will the enemy revile Your Name forever?
¹¹Why do You hold back Your hand,
Your right hand?
Draw it out of Your bosom and consume them!

¹²Yet God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the land.

¹³You split the sea with Your power.
You smashed the monsters' heads in the waters.

¹⁴You crushed the heads of Leviathan, giving him as food to the desert dwellers.

¹⁵You opened up spring and brook.
You dried up ever-flowing rivers.

¹⁶The day is Yours, the night also is Yours.
You provided moon and sun.

¹⁷You set all the borders of earth.
You made summer and winter.

¹⁸Remember how the enemy mocked, ADONAI,
and how foolish people despised
Your Name.

¹⁹Do not deliver Your turtledove's soul to the wild beast.
Do not forget the life of Your afflicted ones forever.

²⁰Look upon the covenant—

for haunts of violence fill the dark places of earth.

²¹Do not let the oppressed turn back in shame.

But let the poor and needy praise
Your Name.

²²Rise up O God, and defend Your cause.
Remember how the fool mocks You all day.

²³Do not forget the noise of Your foes,
the uproar of those rising up against You, ascending continually.

75

He Lowers One and Lifts Another

¹For the music director: “Do not Destroy,”
a psalm of Asaph, a song.

²We praise You, we praise God, for Your Name is near.
People declare Your wonders.

³“When I appoint a set time,
I Myself will judge uprightly.

⁴When the earth wavers with living on it,
I Myself hold its pillars firm. Selah

⁵I say to the arrogant, ‘No more boasting!’
And to the wicked,

‘Do not be lifting up your horn.’
⁶Do not lift your horn up high.

Do not speak with outstretched neck.”

⁷For exaltation comes not from the east nor from the west, nor even from the desert.

⁸For God is the Judge:
He lowers one and lifts up another.

⁹For in the hand of ADONAI is a cup of foaming wine mixed with spices, and He pours it out.

Surely all the wicked of the earth will drink, draining it down to the dregs.^a ¹⁰But I—I will declare it forever,

I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.

¹¹I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.

^a 75:9. cf. Rev. 14:10.

76

Who Can Stand in Your Presence?

¹For the music director, on stringed instruments: a psalm of Asaph, a song.

²In Judah God is known.

In Israel His Name is great.

³In Salem is His sukkah and His dwelling place in Zion.

⁴There He broke the fiery shafts of the bow, the shield, the sword, and the battle. Selah

⁵You are brilliant, more majestic than nourishing mountains.

⁶The valiant have been plundered—they slumbered in their sleep.

The mighty could not lift their hands.

⁷At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both horse and rider lay dead asleep.

⁸You are awesome, yes You are!

Who can stand in Your presence once You are angry?

⁹From heaven You pronounced judgment. The earth feared and was still—

¹⁰when God rose up to judgment, to save all the humble of the land. Selah

¹¹For wrath upon man will bring You praise, a remnant of wrath You put on as a belt.

¹²Make vows to ADONAI your God and fulfill them.

Let all around Him bring tribute to the One who is to be feared.

¹³He cuts off the breath of princes.

The kings of earth are in awe of Him.

77

Remember the Wonders

¹For the music director, on Jeduthun: a psalm of Asaph.

²My voice to God—and I cried out, my voice to God—and He heard me!

³In the day of my trouble I seek my Lord. At night my hand stretches out untiringly.

My soul refuses to be comforted.

⁴I remember God and I moan.

I muse, and my spirit grows faint. Selah

⁵You hold my eyelids open—

I am so troubled—I cannot speak.

⁶I ponder the days of old, the years long ago.

⁷In the night I remember my song.

I meditate with my heart and my spirit is searching.

⁸“Will the Lord reject forever and never again show favor?

⁹Has His mercy vanished forever?

Has His promise come to an end forever?

¹⁰Has God forgotten to be gracious?

Or has He in anger withdrawn his mercies?”

Selah

¹¹Then I said: “It wounds me—that the right hand of Elyon has changed.”

¹²I will remember the deeds of ADONAI.

Yes, I will muse about Your wonders of old.

¹³I will meditate also on all Your work and consider Your deeds.”

¹⁴O God, Your way is holy.

What god is great like God?

¹⁵You are the God who works wonders.

You have made Your power known among the peoples.

¹⁶With your arm You redeemed

Your people,

the children of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

¹⁷The waters saw You, O God, the waters saw You and writhed, even the depths shook.

¹⁸The clouds poured out water, the skies resounded,

Your arrows flashed back and forth.

¹⁹The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind.

Lightning lit up the world.

The earth trembled and shook.

²⁰Your way was in the sea, and Your path in the mighty waters, but Your footprints were not seen.

²¹You led Your people like a flock, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

78

Israel from Moses to David

¹A contemplative song of Asaph.

Listen, my people, to my teaching.
 Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.
²I will open my mouth with a parable.
 I will utter perplexing sayings from of old, ³which we have heard and known,
 and our fathers have told us.
⁴We will not hide them from their children, telling to the next generation the praises of ADONAI and His strength and the wonders He has done.
⁵For He established a testimony in Jacob and ordained Torah in Israel, which He commanded our fathers to teach their children, ⁶so that the next generation might know, even the children yet to be born:
 they will arise and tell their children.
⁷Then they will put their trust in God, not forgetting the works of God,
 but keeping His mitzvot.
⁸So they will not be like their fathers—a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that did not prepare its heart,
 whose spirit was not loyal to God.
⁹The sons of Ephraim were archers armed with bows,
 yet they turned back in the day of battle.
¹⁰They did not keep God's covenant and refused to walk in His Torah.
¹¹They forgot His deeds and His wonders that He had shown them.
¹²He did miracles in front of their fathers in the land of Egypt, in the plain of Zoan.
¹³He split the sea and led them through,
 and He made the water stand like a wall.
¹⁴By day He led them with a cloud and all night with a light of fire.
¹⁵He split apart rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink
 as abundant as the depths.
¹⁶So He brought streams out of a rock, and made waters flow down like rivers.^a ¹⁷Yet they added more sinning against Him, rebelling against Elyon in the desert.
¹⁸They put God to the test in their heart by demanding food for their craving.
¹⁹Then they spoke against God, saying,
 "Can God set a table in the wilderness?"

^a 78:15-16. cf. 1Cor. 10:4.

²⁰See, He struck the rock, waters gushed out, streams overflowed.
 But can He give bread?
 Will He provide meat for His people?"

²¹When ADONAI heard, He was angry.
 A fire was kindled against Jacob,
 and fury also rose against Israel.
²²For they did not believe in God or trust in His salvation.
²³Yet He commanded the skies above and opened the doors of heaven, ²⁴and rained down manna
 upon them to eat, and gave them grain of heaven.^b ²⁵Man did eat the bread of angels.
 He sent them abundant provision.
²⁶He loosed the east wind in the skies,
 and by His power He drove the south wind.
²⁷He rained meat upon them like dust, and winged fowl like sand of the seas.
²⁸And He let it fall amidst their camp,
 all around their tents.
²⁹So they ate and were very full—for He gave them their desire.
³⁰No longer a stranger from their desire,
 while their food was still in their mouths, ³¹the anger of God rose against them and slew the stoutest of them, and struck down young men of Israel.
³²Despite all this they sinned still more,
 and did not trust in His wonders.
³³So He ended their days in futility and their years in terror.
³⁴But when He slew them, then they sought Him, and turned back,
 and desired God eagerly.
³⁵Then they remembered that God was their Rock and El Elyon their Redeemer.
³⁶But they flattered Him with their mouth and kept lying to Him with their tongue.
³⁷For their heart was not steadfast with Him,
 nor were they faithful to His covenant.
³⁸But He is compassionate, forgives iniquity and does not destroy.
 Yes, many times He restrains His anger,

^b 78:24. cf. John 6:31.

and does not stir up all His wrath.
³⁹For He remembered that they are but flesh,
 a passing breath that never returns.
⁴⁰How often they rebelled against Him
 in the wilderness,
 and grieved Him in the desert!
⁴¹Again and again they tested God, and pained the Holy One of Israel.
⁴²They did not remember His hand—
 the day He redeemed them from the foe, ⁴³when He displayed His signs in Egypt and His wonders in the plain of Zoan.
⁴⁴He turned their rivers into blood, so they could not drink from their streams.
⁴⁵He sent on them flies to devour them,
 and frogs to devastate them, ⁴⁶and gave their crops to the grasshopper, and their labor to the locust.
⁴⁷He destroyed their vines with hail,
 and their sycamore trees with frost, ⁴⁸and gave over their cattle to the hail,
 and their flocks to fiery bolts.
⁴⁹He sent on them the fury of His anger —wrath and indignation and trouble—
 a band of evil angels.
⁵⁰He cleared a path for His anger.
 He spared not their soul from death,
 but gave their life over to the plague.
⁵¹He struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, the firstfruits of their strength in the tents of Ham.
⁵²But He brought His people out like sheep, and led them in the wilderness like a flock.
⁵³He led them to safety, so they did not fear, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
⁵⁴Then He brought them to His holy territory, to the mountain His right hand had gotten.
⁵⁵He drove out nations before them,
 and allotted them an inheritance.
 He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.
⁵⁶Yet they tested and rebelled against El Elyon, and did not keep His decrees.
⁵⁷Like their fathers they turned and were treacherous.
 They turned aside like a faulty bow.

⁵⁸For they provoked Him with their high places, so they aroused His jealousy with their graven images.
⁵⁹God heard and was furious, and He greatly detested Israel.
⁶⁰He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh,
 the tent He pitched among men.
⁶¹He gave up His strength into captivity, and His glory into the adversary's hand.
⁶²He gave His people over to the sword,
 when He was angry at His inheritance.
⁶³Fire consumed their young men, and their virgins had no wedding songs.
⁶⁴Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows could not weep.

⁶⁵Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,
 as a warrior shaking off wine.
⁶⁶He beat back His foes, putting them to lasting scorn.
⁶⁷Then He detested Joseph's tent and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.
⁶⁸Instead He chose the tribe of Judah,
 Mount Zion, which He loved.
⁶⁹He built His Sanctuary like the heights, like the earth that He established forever.
⁷⁰He also chose David His servant and took him from the sheepfolds, ⁷¹from following nursing ewes.
 He brought him to shepherd
 Jacob His people, and Israel His inheritance.
⁷²So He shepherded them with the integrity of His heart, and led them with His skillful hands.

79

A Lament Over Jerusalem

¹A Psalm of Asaph.
 God, the nations have invaded Your inheritance, defiled Your holy Temple,
 and reduced Jerusalem to ruins.
²They gave the carcasses of Your servants as food to the birds of the skies, the flesh of Your kedoshim

to the beasts of the earth.
³They poured out their blood like water
 all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.
⁴We have become a taunt to our neighbors,
 a scorn and derision to those around us.
⁵How long, ADONAI, will You be angry?
 Forever?
 Will Your jealousy keep blazing like fire?
⁶Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge You, on the kingdoms
 that do not call on Your name.
⁷For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his country.
⁸Do not hold against us the sins of our fathers.
 May Your mercies come quickly to meet us,
 for we are brought very low.
⁹Help us, God of our salvation—for the sake of the glory of Your Name.
 Deliver us, and atone for our sins—
 for Your name's sake.
¹⁰Why should the nations say:
 "Where is their God?"
 Before our eyes, let it be known
 among the nations
 that You avenge the shed blood of Your servants.
¹¹Let the prisoner's groan come to You.
 By Your great arm preserve those who are doomed to die.
¹²Pay back into the midst of our neighbors sevenfold their reproach—
 the reproach they hurled at You, my Lord.
¹³So we, Your people,
 the flock of Your pasture,
 will praise You forever.
 From generation to generation
 we will recount Your praise.

80

Restore Us, Revive Us

¹For the music director, on "Lilies,"^a a

^a 80:1(0). Heb. Shoshanim.

testimony: a psalm of Asaph.

²Give ear, Shepherd of Israel,
 You who lead Joseph like a flock.
 You who are enthroned upon the cheruvim, shine forth!
³Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up Your might, and come to save us.
⁴O God, restore us, make Your face shine,
 and we will be saved.
⁵ADONAI-Tzva'ot, how long will You be angry with the prayer of Your people?
⁶You have fed them the bread of tears and made them drink a measure of tears.
⁷You make us a contention to our neighbors, and our enemies mock as they please.
⁸Elohei-Tzva'ot, restore us, and make Your face shine,
 and we will be saved.
⁹You pulled out a vine from Egypt.
 You drove out nations and planted it.
¹⁰You cleared a place for it, and it took deep root and filled the land.
¹¹The mountains were covered by its shade,
 the mighty cedars with its branches.
¹²It sent out its branches to the sea,
 and its shoots to the river.
¹³Why have You broken down its fences,
 so all who pass by the way pick its fruit?
¹⁴A boar from the forest ravages it, whatever moves in the field feeds on it.
¹⁵Elohei-Tzva'ot, please return!
 Look down from heaven and see!
 Now take care of this vine—¹⁶the shoot Your right hand planted—the son You strengthened for Yourself.
¹⁷It is burned with fire, it is cut down.
 They perish from the rebuke of Your face.
¹⁸Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand—the son of man
 You made strong for Yourself.
¹⁹Then we will not turn away from You.
 Revive us, and we will call on Your Name.
²⁰ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot, restore us.
 Make Your face shine,
 and we will be saved.

81

Hear O Israel

- ¹For the music director,
on the Gittite lyre, of Asaph.
²Sing for joy to God our strength, shout to the God of Jacob!
³Lift up a song and sound a tambourine, a sweet lyre with a harp.
⁴Blow the shofar at the New Moon, at the full moon for the day of our festival.
⁵For it is a decree for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
⁶He set it up as a testimony in Joseph, when He went throughout
the land of Egypt,
I heard a language I did not understand.
- ⁷“I relieved his shoulder of the burden,
his hands were set free from the basket.
⁸You called out in trouble, and I rescued you.
I answered you from the hiding place of thunder.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah ⁹Hear, My people, I will admonish you—if you would listen to Me, O Israel!
¹⁰Let there be no foreign god among you, and you shall not worship any alien god.
¹¹I am ADONAI your God, who brought you up
out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.
- ¹²But My people did not listen to My voice.
Israel was not willing to be Mine.
¹³So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their heart, to walk in their own counsels.
¹⁴Oh that My people would listen to Me, that Israel would walk in My ways!
¹⁵I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn My hand against their foes.
¹⁶Those who hate ADONAI would cringe before Him—their time of doom would be forever.
¹⁷But you would be fed with the finest wheat,

with honey out of a rock would I satisfy you.”

82

A Rebuke for Unjust Judges

- ¹A psalm of Asaph.
God takes His stand in the assembly of God.
He judges among the ‘gods’:
²“How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah ³Give justice to the poor and fatherless.
Be just to the afflicted and destitute.
⁴Rescue the weak and needy.
Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked.
⁵They know nothing;
they understand nothing—
they walk about in darkness.
All of earth’s foundations are shaken.
⁶I said: ‘You are ‘gods’, and you are all sons of Elyon,^a ⁷yet you will die like men, and will fall like any of the princes.’”
- ⁸Arise, O God, judge the earth!
For You possess all the nations.

83

Nations Conspire Against Israel

- ¹A song: a psalm of Asaph.
²God, do not keep silent.
Do not hold Your peace, O God.
Do not be still.
³For look, Your enemies make an uproar.
Those who hate You lift up their head.
⁴They make a shrewd plot against Your people, conspiring against Your treasured ones.
⁵“Come,” they say, “let’s wipe them out as a nation!
Let Israel’s name be remembered
no more!”
⁶For with one mind they plot together.

^a 82:6. cf. Luke 6:35; John 10:34.

Against You do they make a covenant.
⁷The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites, ⁸Gebal, Ammon and Amalek,
 Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre, ⁹even Assyria has joined them, becoming a strong arm for Lot's sons.

Selah

¹⁰Do to them as You did to Midian, to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River, ¹¹who perished at En-dor—
 they became as dung for the ground.
¹²Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb—
 all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna, ¹³who said, "Let us take possession of the pasturelands of God."
¹⁴My God, make them like tumbleweed, like chaff before the wind.
¹⁵As a fire burns a forest, and as a flame sets mountains ablaze, ¹⁶so pursue them with Your tempest, and terrify them with Your storm.
¹⁷Cover their faces with shame,
 so they may seek Your Name—ADONAI.
¹⁸Let them be ashamed and dismayed
 forever.

Let them be humiliated and perish.

¹⁹Let them know that You alone
 —whose Name is ADONAI—
 are El Elyon over all the earth.

84

Pilgrim Road to ADONAI's Courts

¹For the music director, upon the Gittite lyre, a psalm of the sons of Korah.
²How lovely are Your tabernacles, ADONAI-Tzva'ot!
³My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of ADONAI.
 My heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.
⁴Even the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young —near Your altars, ADONAI-Tzva'ot—my King and my God!

⁵Blessed are they who dwell in Your House
 —they are ever praising You. Selah

⁶Blessed is one whose strength is in You, in whose heart are the pilgrim roads.

⁷Passing through the valley of Baca, they make it a spring.

The early rain covers it with blessings.

⁸They go from strength to strength—every one of them appears before God in Zion.

⁹ADONAI-Tzva'ot, hear my prayer, give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah

¹⁰O God, look at our shield, and look upon the face of Your anointed.

¹¹For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand anywhere else.
 I would rather stand at the threshold of the House of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

¹²For ADONAI Elohim is a sun^b and a shield.
 ADONAI gives grace and glory.

No good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly.

¹³ADONAI-Tzva'ot, blessed is the one who trusts in You.

85

Restore Your People from Captivity

¹For the music director, a psalm of the sons
 of Korah.

²ADONAI, will you favor Your land?
 Will You restore Jacob from captivity?

³Will You bear away Your people's iniquity,
 Will You pardon all their sin?^c Selah

⁴Will You withdraw all Your wrath?
 Will You turn from Your burning anger?^d

⁵Restore us, O God of our salvation, and renounce Your indignation with us.

⁶Will You be angry with us forever?
 Will You prolong Your anger
 from generation to generation?

⁷Will You not revive us again, so Your people may rejoice in You?

^b 84:12. cf. Rev. 21:23.

^c 85:3. cf. Matt. 9:6; 1John 1:9.

^d 85:4. cf. Rom. 5:9.

- ⁸Show us Your mercy, ADONAI, and grant us Your salvation.
- ⁹Let me hear what God ADONAI will say.
For He will speak shalom to His people, and to His kedoshim—
but let them not turn back to folly.
- ¹⁰Surely His salvation is near those who fear Him,
so that glory may dwell in our land.
- ¹¹Lovingkindness and truth meet together.
Righteousness and shalom kiss each other.
- ¹²Truth will spring up from the earth, and justice will look down from heaven.
- ¹³Yes, ADONAI will give what is good,
and our land will yield its produce.
- ¹⁴Righteousness is going before Him and prepares a way for His feet.

86

Slow to Anger, Full of Chesed

- ¹A prayer of David.
Turn Your ear, ADONAI, and answer me,
for I am weak and needy.
- ²Watch over my soul, for I am godly.
You are my God—
save Your servant who trusts in You.
- ³Be gracious to me, my Lord,
for to You I cry all day.
- ⁴Gladden the soul of Your servant,
for to You, my Lord, I lift up my soul.
- ⁵For You, my Lord, are good, and ready to forgive and full of mercy to all who call upon You.
- ⁶Give ear, ADONAI, to my prayer, listen to the voice of my supplications.
- ⁷In the day of my trouble I call upon You,
for You will answer me.
- ⁸There is none like You among the gods,
my Lord, there are no deeds like Yours.
- ⁹All nations You have made will come and bow down before You, my Lord, and they will glorify Your Name.
- ¹⁰For You are great, and do wonders—
You alone are God.
- ¹¹Teach me Your way, ADONAI,

that I may walk in Your truth.
Give me an undivided heart to fear Your Name.

¹²I praise You, O Lord my God, with my whole heart,
and glorify Your Name forever.

¹³For great is Your lovingkindness toward me.
You have delivered my soul from the lowest part of Sheol.

¹⁴God, the proud have risen up against me and a gang of ruthless people have sought my life, and have not set You before them.

¹⁵But You, my Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God,
slow to anger, full of love and truth.

¹⁶Turn to me and be gracious to me.
Give Your strength to Your servant, and save the son of Your maidservant.

¹⁷Make me a sign for good, so that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed.

For You, ADONAI, have helped me and comforted me.

87

This One Was Born in Zion

¹A psalm of the sons of Korah, a song.
His foundation is in the holy mountains.

²ADONAI loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

³Glorious things are spoken of you,
city of God. Selah

⁴“I will mention Rahab and Babylon among those who acknowledge Me—behold Philistia and Tyre, with Cush:
“This one was born there.”

⁵But of Zion it will be said:
“This one and that one were born in her.”
And Elyon Himself will establish her.

⁶ADONAI will count in the register of the peoples:

“This one was born there.” Selah
⁷Then singing and dancing—all my fountains of joy are in you!

88

Cry of Desperation

¹A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah, for the music director, for singing Mahalath, a contemplative song^a of Heman the Ezrahite.

²ADONAI, God of my salvation, day and night I cried out before You.

³Let my prayer come before You.
Turn Your ear to my cry.

⁴For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draws near to Sheol.

⁵I am counted with those who go down into the Pit.

I have become as one with no strength—

⁶abandoned among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom You remember no more—cut off from Your hand.

⁷You have laid me in the lowest places, in dark places, in the depths.

⁸Your wrath lies heavily on me.
You afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah

⁹You have put my companions far from me.
You have made me repulsive to them.

I am shut in and I cannot go out.

¹⁰My eye fails from affliction.
I call upon You every day, ADONAI.
I spread out my hands to You.

¹¹Will You work wonders for the dead?
Or will the departed spirits rise up praising You? Selah

¹²Will Your love be declared in the grave?
Or Your faithfulness in the place of ruin?

¹³Will Your wonders be known in the darkness?
Your righteousness in the land of oblivion?

¹⁴But I—I cried out to You, ADONAI, and in the morning my prayer meets You.

¹⁵ADONAI, why do You spurn me?
Why do You hide Your face from me?

¹⁶From my youth I have been afflicted and close to death.

I suffer Your terrors—I am desperate!

¹⁷Your fury has swept over me.
Your terrors have cut me off.

^a 88:1(0). Heb. maskil.

¹⁸Like water they surge around me all day.
They close in on me together.

¹⁹Friend and loved one You took far from me.

Darkness has become my companion.

89

Covenant with David's Seed

¹A contemplative song of Ethan the Ezrahite.

²I will sing of the love of ADONAI forever.
To all generations I will make known
Your faithfulness with my mouth.

³For I said, "Let your lovingkindness be built up forever!
The heavens—let Your faithfulness be made firm there!"

⁴"I have made a covenant with My chosen one.

I have sworn to David My servant:

⁵"Forever I will establish your seed, and will build your throne from generation to generation."^b Selah

⁶The heavens praise Your wonders, ADONAI —Your faithfulness, too—
in the assembly of the kedoshim.

⁷For who in the skies can compare to ADONAI?

Who is like ADONAI among the sons of gods?

⁸God is greatly feared in the council of the holy ones, and awesome above all around Him.

⁹ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot, who is like You, mighty ADONAI,
with Your faithfulness all around You?

¹⁰You rule over the swelling of the sea.
When its waves mount up,
You still them.

¹¹You crushed Rahab like a slain one.
You scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.

¹²The heavens are Yours, also Yours the earth

^b 89:5. cf. Luke 1:33.

—the world and its fullness—

You have founded them.

¹³You created the north and the south.
Tabor and Hermon sing for joy at Your Name.

¹⁴Your arm is mighty,
Your hand is strong, exalted is Your right hand.^a ¹⁵Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne.

Lovingkindness and truth go before You.

¹⁶Blessed are the people who know the joyful shout,^b
They walk in the light of Your presence,
ADONAI.

¹⁷They rejoice in Your Name all day, and by Your righteousness
they are exalted.

¹⁸For You are the glory of their strength, and by Your favor our horn is exalted.

¹⁹For our shield belongs to ADONAI, and our king to the Holy One of Israel.

²⁰Then You spoke in vision to Your godly ones, and said:
“I have bestowed help on a warrior.
I have exalted one chosen from among the people.

²¹I have found David My servant.
With My holy oil I have anointed him.

²²With him My hand will be established.
Surely My arm will strengthen him.

²³No enemy will exact tribute from him,
no son of wickedness will oppress him.

²⁴I will crush his adversaries before him, and strike down those who hate him.

²⁵My faithfulness and My lovingkindness will be with him,
and by My Name his horn will be exalted.

²⁶I will also set his hand over the sea, his right hand over the rivers.

²⁷He will call to Me: ‘You are my Father,^c my God and the rock of my salvation.’

²⁸I also will set him as firstborn—^d the highest of the kings of earth.^{e f}

^a 89:14. cf. Heb. 1:3.

^b 89:16. Heb. teruah, or shofar blast.

^c 89:27. cf. John 8:54.

^d 89:28. cf. Rev. 1:5.

^e 89:28. cf. Rev. 19:16.

^f 89:27-28. In most English translation, 89:27-28 are verses 26-27.

²⁹I will maintain My love for him forever, and My covenant with him will be firm.

³⁰His seed I will establish forever, and his throne as the days of heaven.

³¹If his sons forsake My Torah, and do not walk in My judgments,

³²if they violate My decrees, and do not keep My mitzvot,

³³then I will punish their transgression with the rod,

and their iniquity with flogging.

³⁴But I will not withdraw My lovingkindness from him, nor will I betray My faithfulness.

³⁵I will not violate My covenant, nor alter what My lips have uttered.

³⁶Once for all I have sworn by My holiness
—surely I will not lie to David—

³⁷his descendants will endure forever, and his throne as the sun before Me,

³⁸and as the moon, established forever, and a trustworthy witness in the sky.” Selah

³⁹But You have cast off and spurned,
You have become furious with Your anointed one.

⁴⁰You have renounced the covenant of Your servant.

You have defiled his crown
even to the ground.

⁴¹You have broken down all his walls.
You reduced his strongholds to ruin.

⁴²All who pass by have plundered him.
He has become a taunt to his neighbors.

⁴³You exalted the right hand of his foes and made all his enemies rejoice.

⁴⁴You turned back the edge of his sword and have not supported him in battle.

⁴⁵You brought his splendor to an end, and cast his throne down to the ground.

⁴⁶You cut short the days of his youth.
You covered him with shame. Selah

⁴⁷How long, ADONAI, will You hide Yourself?
Forever?

Will Your fury keep burning like fire?

⁴⁸Remember how short my life span is!
For what futility have You created all the children of men?

⁴⁹What man can live and not see death?

Can he deliver himself from the clutches of Sheol? Selah ⁵⁰Where is Your former lovingkindness, my Lord, which You swore to David in Your faithfulness?^g ⁵¹Remember, my Lord, the mockery against Your servants that I bear in my heart from so many peoples.
⁵²How Your enemies have mocked, ADONAI, how they have mocked the footsteps of Your Anointed One!^h

⁵³Blessed be ADONAI forever.
Amen and Amen.

Get a Heart of Wisdom

¹A prayer of Moses the man of God.
My Lord, You have been our dwelling
from generation to generation.
²Before the mountains were born, or You gave birth to the earth and the world,
even from everlasting to everlasting,
You are God!
³You turn mankind back to dust, saying,
“Return, children of Adam!”
⁴For a thousand years in Your sight are like a day just passing by, or like a watch in the night.
⁵You sweep them away in their sleep.
In the morning they are like sprouting grass—⁶in the morning it flourishes and springs up,
by evening it withers and dries up.
⁷For we are consumed by Your anger and terrified by Your wrath.
⁸You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.
⁹For all our days have passed away under Your wrath.
We spent our years like a sigh.

^g 89:50. cf. Acts 13:34.

^h 89:52. cf. Matt. 27:29, 41; Luke 23:36.

¹⁰The span of our years is seventy —or with strength, eighty—yet at best they are trouble and sorrow.
For they are soon gone,
and we fly away.
¹¹Who knows the power of Your anger?
Your fury leads to awe of you.
¹²So teach us to number our days,
so that we may get a heart of wisdom.
¹³Relent, ADONAI! How long?
Have compassion on Your servants.
¹⁴Satisfy us in the morning with Your love, so we may sing for joy
and be glad all our days.
¹⁵Gladden us for as many days
as You have humbled us,
as many years as we have seen misery.
¹⁶Let Your work appear to Your servants, and Your splendor on their children.
¹⁷Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us.
Establish the work of our hands for us—
yes, establish the work of our hands.

91

Dwell in the Shelter of Elyon

¹He who dwells in the shelter of Elyon, will abide in the shadow of Shaddai.
²I will say of ADONAI,
“He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust.
³For He will rescue you from the hunter’s trap and from the deadly pestilence.
⁴He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge.
His faithfulness is body armor and shield.
⁵You will not fear the terror by night,
nor the arrow that flies by day, ⁶nor the plague that stalks in darkness,
nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.
⁷A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.
⁸You will only look on with your eyes and see the wicked paid back.

⁹For you have made Elyon your dwelling, even ADONAI, who is my refuge, ¹⁰so no evil will befall you nor any plague come near your tent.
¹¹For He will give His angels charge over you, to guard you in all your ways.
¹²Upon their hands they will lift you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.^a ¹³You will tread upon the lion and cobra, trample the young lion and serpent.

¹⁴“Because he has devoted his love to Me,
 I will deliver him.
 I will set him securely on high,
 because he knows My Name.
¹⁵When he calls on Me, I will answer him.
 I will be with him in trouble,
 rescue him, and honor him.
¹⁶With long life will I satisfy him and show him My salvation.”

92

It Is Good to Praise

¹A psalm, a song for the Shabbat.
²It is good to praise ADONAI and to make music to Your Name, Elyon, ³to declare Your love in the morning and Your faithfulness at night, ⁴with a ten-string harp,
 with resounding music on the lyre.
⁵For You made me glad, ADONAI, by Your deeds.
 I sing for joy at the works of Your hands.
⁶How great are Your works, ADONAI!
 How profound are Your thoughts!
⁷A brutish man does not know, nor does a fool understand.
⁸Though the wicked spring up like grass, and all evildoers flourish,
 it is only to be ruined forever.

⁹But You, ADONAI, are exalted forever.
¹⁰For behold, Your enemies, ADONAI
 —behold Your enemies perish—all evildoers are scattered.
¹¹But You exalted my horn

^a 91:11-12. cf. Matt. 4:6; Luke 4:10-11.

like that of a wild ox.
 I am anointed with fresh oil.
¹²My eye can gaze on those lying in wait for me.
 My ears hear about evildoers rising up against me.
¹³The righteous will flourish like a palm tree.
 He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
¹⁴Planted in the House of ADONAI, they will flourish in the courts of our God.
¹⁵They will still yield fruit in old age.
 They will be full of sap and freshness.
¹⁶They declare, “ADONAI is upright, my Rock
 —there is no injustice in Him.”

93

Majestic and Unshakable

ADONAI has robed and armed Himself with strength.
 Yes, the world is firmly established—unshakable.
²Your throne is established from of old.
 You are from everlasting.
³The floods have lifted up, ADONAI, the floods have lifted up their voice,
 the floods lift up their crashing waves.
⁴More than the sounds of many waters—more majestic than the breakers of the sea—
 so majestic is ADONAI on high!
⁵Your testimonies are very sure.
 Holiness befits Your House, ADONAI, for endless days.

94

He Will Not Abandon His People

¹God of vengeance, ADONAI,
 God of vengeance, shine forth!
²Rise up, O Judge of the earth!
 Pay back to the proud
 what they deserve.
³How long will the wicked, ADONAI, how long will the wicked gloat?

⁴They gush out, they speak arrogance—all the evildoers keep boasting.
⁵They crush Your people, ADONAI, and afflict Your heritage.
⁶They slay the widow and the outsider, and murder the fatherless.
⁷So they say: “ADONAI does not see—the God of Jacob pays no attention.”
⁸Pay attention, stupid among the people!
Fools, when will you comprehend?
⁹He who planted the ear, does He not hear?
He who formed the eye,
does He not see?
¹⁰He who chastens nations, will He not rebuke—
One who teaches humanity knowledge?
¹¹ADONAI knows human thoughts—they are but a breath.
¹²Blessed is the one You discipline, ADONAI, and teach him from Your Torah, ¹³to give him rest from days of trouble
—until a pit is dug for the wicked.
¹⁴For ADONAI will not forsake His people.
He will never abandon His inheritance.^b ¹⁵For rightness will be restored to justice, and all the upright in heart will follow it.
¹⁶Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
Who will stand up for me against evildoers?
¹⁷Unless ADONAI had been my help, my soul would soon have dwelt in the abode of silence.
¹⁸If I say: “My foot has slipped,”
Your mercy, ADONAI, will hold me up.
¹⁹When my troubling thoughts
multiply within me,
Your consolations comfort my soul.
²⁰Can a throne of corruption be aligned with You—planning distress by decree?
²¹They band together against the life of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood.^c ²²But ADONAI has been my fortress and my God the rock of my refuge.

^b 94:14. cf. Rom. 11:2.
^c 94:21. cf. Matt. 27:4.

²³He will repay them for their wickedness, and will annihilate them in their evil.
ADONAI our God will annihilate them.

95

Today, Hear His Voice

¹O come, let us sing for joy to ADONAI.
Let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.
²Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving.
Let us shout joyfully to Him with songs.
³For ADONAI is a great God and a great King above all gods.
⁴In His hand are the depths of the earth, the mountain peaks are His also.
⁵The sea is His—He made it,
and His hands formed the dry land.
⁶Come, let us worship and bow down.
Let us kneel before ADONAI our Maker.^d ⁷For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture,
the flock of His hand.
Today, if you hear His voice:
⁸“Do not harden your heart as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness, ⁹when your fathers tested Me,
they challenged Me,
even though they had seen My work.
¹⁰For forty years I loathed that generation.
So I said: ‘It is a people whose heart goes astray, who do not know My ways.’
¹¹Therefore I swore in My anger,
‘They shall never enter into My rest.’” 96

Sing a New Song

¹Sing to ADONAI a new song!
Sing to ADONAI, all the earth.
²Sing to ADONAI, bless His Name.
Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.
³Declare His glory among the nations,

^d 95:6. cf. Phil. 2:10.

His marvelous deeds among all peoples.
⁴For great is ADONAI, and greatly to be praised.
 He is to be feared above all gods.
⁵For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
 but ADONAI made the heavens.
⁶Splendor and majesty are before Him.
 Strength and beauty are in His Sanctuary.
⁷Ascribe to ADONAI, O families of peoples.
 Ascribe to ADONAI glory and strength.
⁸Ascribe to ADONAI the glory of His Name.
 Bring an offering and come into His courts.
⁹Bow down to ADONAI in holy splendor.
 Tremble before Him, all the earth.
¹⁰Say among the nations: "ADONAI reigns!"
 The world is firmly established—
 it will not move.
 He will judge the peoples with fairness.
¹¹Let the heavens be glad,
 let the earth rejoice.
 Let the sea roar—and all that fills it.
¹²Let the land exult—and all that is in it.
 Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy—¹³before ADONAI, for He is coming!
 For He is coming to judge the earth.
 He will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples in His faithfulness.^a 97

Exalted Above All Gods

¹ADONAI reigns, let the earth rejoice, let the many islands be glad.
²Clouds and darkness are all around Him.
 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.
³Fire goes before Him and burns up His adversaries on every side.
⁴His lightning lights up the world—
 the earth sees and trembles.
⁵The mountains melt like wax at the presence of ADONAI, at the presence of the Lord of all earth.
⁶The heavens declare His righteousness,
 and all the peoples have seen His glory.
⁷Let all who serve graven images be ashamed—who boast in idols.

 Bow down before Him, all you gods!
⁸Zion hears and is glad,
 and the daughters of Judah rejoice, because of Your judgments, ADONAI.
⁹For You, ADONAI, are Elyon above all the earth.
 You are exalted far above all gods.
¹⁰You who love ADONAI, hate evil!
 He watches over the souls of His godly ones.
 He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
¹¹Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for the upright in heart.
¹²Rejoice in ADONAI, you righteous ones,
 and praise His holy Name.

98

Creation Rejoices in His Salvation

¹A psalm.
 Sing to ADONAI a new song,
 for He has done marvelous things.
 His right hand and His holy arm have won victory for Him.
²ADONAI has made His salvation known.
 He has revealed His righteousness before the eyes of the nations.
³He has remembered His lovingkindness,
 His faithfulness to the house of Israel.
 All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
⁴Shout joyfully to ADONAI, all the earth.
 Break forth, sing for joy, and sing praises.
⁵Sing praises to ADONAI with the harp, with the harp and a voice of melody.
⁶With trumpets and sound of the shofar blast a sound before the King, ADONAI.
⁷Let the sea roar and all within it,
 the world and those who dwell in it.
⁸Let the rivers clap their hands, let the mountains sing for joy together—⁹before ADONAI, for He is coming to judge the earth.
 He will judge the world
 with righteousness
 and the peoples with fairness.

^a 96:13. cf. Rev. 19:11.

99

Worship at His Holy Hill

- ¹ADONAI reigns, let the peoples tremble.
He is enthroned upon the cheruvim— let the earth shake!
- ²ADONAI is great in Zion and He is exalted above all the peoples.
- ³Let them praise Your great and awesome Name: holy is He.
- ⁴The might of a king loves justice.
You have established fairness.
You executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.
- ⁵Exalt ADONAI our God and worship at His footstool: holy is He.
- ⁶Moses and Aaron were among His kohanim—also Samuel among those calling on His Name.
They called on ADONAI and He answered them.
- ⁷He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud.
They kept His testimonies,
and the decree that He gave them.
- ⁸ADONAI our God, You answered them.
A forgiving God You were to them, though You avenged their misdeeds.
- ⁹Exalt ADONAI our God, and worship at His holy hill, for holy is ADONAI our God.

100

Enter His Gates with Thanksgiving

- ¹A psalm of thanksgiving.
Shout joyfully to ADONAI, all the earth!
- ²Serve ADONAI with gladness.
Come before His presence with joyful singing.
- ³Know that ADONAI, He is God.
It is He who has made us, and we are His.
We are His people,
the sheep of His pasture.
- ⁴Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise!
Praise Him, bless His Name.

- ⁵For ADONAI is good.
His lovingkindness endures forever,
and His faithfulness to all generations.

101

Pledge of Integrity

- ¹A psalm of David.
I will sing of lovingkindness and justice.
To You, ADONAI, I will sing praises.
- ²I will behave wisely in the way of integrity
—when will You come to me?
I walk in my house with integrity in my heart.
- ³No base thing will I set before my eyes.
Twisted behavior I hate—
it will not cling to me.
- ⁴A perverse heart will depart from me.
I will know nothing evil.
- ⁵Whoever slanders his neighbor in secret
—him I will silence.
Who has haughty eyes and a proud heart
—him I will not tolerate.
- ⁶My eyes are on the trustworthy of the land, to be in my company.
One walking in a blameless way will serve me.
- ⁷No one who practices deceit will dwell in my house.
No one who utters lies will endure before my eyes.
- ⁸Each morning I silence all the land's wicked ones—to cut off from ADONAI's city every evildoer.

102

Prayer in Affliction

- ¹A prayer of the afflicted one, when he is faint and pours out his lament before ADONAI:
- ²ADONAI, hear my prayer,
let my cry come to You.
- ³Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my distress.
Turn Your ear to me—in the day I call, answer me quickly.

⁴For my days vanished like smoke, and my bones were burned like coals.
⁵My heart is stricken and withered like grass,
 so that I even forget to eat my bread.
⁶Because of the sound of my groaning, my bones cling to my flesh.
⁷I am like a pelican of the desert, like an owl of the waste places.
⁸I lie awake, like a lonely bird on a roof.
⁹My enemies taunt me all day.
 My deriders use my name to curse.
¹⁰For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with tears—¹¹because of Your indignation and wrath, for You have picked me up and tossed me aside.
¹²My days are like a lengthening shadow, and I wither away like grass.
¹³But You, ADONAI, sit enthroned forever.
 Your renown is from generation to generation.
¹⁴You will arise and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show favor to her,
 for the appointed time has come, ¹⁵for her stones are dear to Your servants, and they cherish her dust.
¹⁶So the nations will fear ADONAI's Name and all the kings of the earth Your glory.
¹⁷For ADONAI has rebuilt Zion.
 He has appeared in His glory.
¹⁸He has turned to the prayer of the destitute,
 and has not despised their prayer.
¹⁹Let it be written for a generation to come,
 that a people to be created may praise ADONAI.
²⁰For He looks down from His holy height, from heaven ADONAI gazes on the earth, ²¹to hear the groaning of the prisoner, to set free those condemned to death, ²²to declare the Name of ADONAI in Zion and His praise in Jerusalem, ²³when the peoples and the kingdoms assemble to worship ADONAI.
²⁴He brought down my strength in midcourse. He shortened my days.

²⁵I say, "My God, do not take me up in the middle of my days.
 Your years endure through all generations!
²⁶Long ago You founded the earth,
 the heavens are the work of Your hands.
²⁷They will perish, but You will remain.
 All of them will wear out like a garment.
 Like clothing You change them, so they change.
²⁸But You are the same,
 and Your years will never end.
²⁹The children of Your servants will live.
 Their descendants will be established before You."

103

As a Father Has Compassion

¹Of David.

Bless ADONAI, O my soul,
 and all that is within me, bless His holy Name.

²Bless ADONAI, O my soul,
 and forget not all His benefits:

³He forgives all your iniquity.
 He heals all your diseases.

⁴He redeems your life from the Pit.
 He crowns you with lovingkindness and compassions.

⁵He satisfies your years with good things, so that your youth is renewed like an eagle.

⁶ADONAI executes justice—judgments for all who are oppressed.

⁷He made His ways known to Moses,
 His deeds to the children of Israel.

⁸ADONAI is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and plentiful in mercy.

⁹He will not always accuse, nor will He keep His anger forever.

¹⁰He has not treated us according to our sins,
 or repaid us according to our iniquities.

¹¹For as high as the heavens are above the earth,

so great is His mercy
for those who fear Him.
¹²As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
¹³As a father has compassion on his children, so ADONAI has compassion on those who fear Him.
¹⁴For He knows our frame.
He remembers that we are but dust.
¹⁵As for man, his days are like grass—
he flourishes like a flower of the field, ¹⁶but when the wind blows over it,
it is gone,
and its place is no longer known.
¹⁷But the mercy of ADONAI is from everlasting to everlasting on those who revere Him,
His righteousness to children's children, ¹⁸to those who keep His covenant, who remember to observe His instructions.
¹⁹ADONAI has set up His throne in the heavens,
and His kingdom rules over all.
²⁰Bless ADONAI, you angels of His:
mighty in strength, performing His word,
upon hearing the utterance of His word.
²¹Bless ADONAI, all you His armies,
His servants who do His will.
²²Bless ADONAI, all His works everywhere in His dominion.
Bless ADONAI, O my soul!

104

ADONAI Rejoices in His Works!

¹Bless ADONAI, O my soul.
ADONAI my God, You are very great!
You are clothed with splendor and majesty—²wrapping Yourself in light as a robe, stretching out heaven like a curtain, ³laying beams for His upper rooms in waters,
making the clouds His chariot,

walking on the wings of the wind, ⁴making His angels spirits,
His servants a flaming fire.
⁵He set the earth upon its foundations, so it should not totter forever and ever.
⁶You covered it with the deep as with a garment—the waters standing above the mountains.
⁷At Your rebuke the waters fled.
At the sound of Your thunder they hurried away.
⁸The waters go up the mountains, then down to the valleys—
to the place that You assigned to them.
⁹You set a boundary to the waters that they may not cross over, so they may not return to cover the earth.
¹⁰You make springs gush into the valleys.
They run between the mountains.
¹¹They give drink to all the beasts of the field—
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
¹²Beside them the birds of the sky dwell—they sing among the branches.
¹³He waters mountains from His upper rooms.
The earth is full of the fruit of Your labors.
¹⁴He causes grass to spring up for the cattle, and vegetation for man to cultivate,
to bring forth bread out of the earth, ¹⁵wine that makes man's heart glad,
oil to make his face shine,
and bread that sustains man's heart.
¹⁶The trees of ADONAI are satisfied,
the cedars of Lebanon that He planted, ¹⁷where birds make their nests, and the stork—her home is the fir trees.
¹⁸The high mountains are for wild goats,
the cliffs a refuge for rock badgers.
¹⁹He made the moon for appointed times,
the sun knows its going down.
²⁰You bring darkness, so it becomes night, when all the beasts of the forest prowl.
²¹The young lions roar for prey, seeking their food from God.

²²But when the sun rises, they gather and lie down in their dens.
²³Man goes out to his work, and to his labor until the evening.
²⁴ADONAI, how countless are Your works!
In wisdom You made them all—the earth is full of Your creatures.
²⁵There is the sea, vast and wide, teeming with gliding things innumerable,
living creatures, both small and large.
²⁶There, ships go to and fro.
Leviathan—You formed to frolic there.
²⁷They all look to You to give them their food at the right time.
²⁸When You give it to them, they gather it up.
When You open Your hand,
they are satisfied with good.
²⁹But when You hide Your face—they are dismayed.
You take away their breath—
they perish, and return to their dust.
³⁰You send forth Your Ruach— they are created,
and You renew the face of the earth.
³¹May the glory of ADONAI endure forever!
May ADONAI rejoice in His works!
³²He looks at the earth, and it trembles.
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
³³I will sing to ADONAI as long as I live!
I will sing praise to my God yet again!
³⁴Let my meditation be sweet to Him.
I—I will rejoice in ADONAI.
³⁵Let sinners vanish from the earth and let the wicked be no more.
Bless ADONAI, O my soul. Halleluyah!

105

Tell His Wonders for Israel

¹Praise ADONAI, call upon His Name.
Make known His deeds
among the peoples.
²Sing to Him, sing praises to Him—
tell about all His wonders!
³Glory in His holy Name.

Let the heart of those who seek ADONAI rejoice.
⁴Seek ADONAI and His strength, seek His face always.
⁵Remember His wonders that He has done,
His miracles and the judgments
of His mouth,
⁶O seed of Abraham, His servant,
O children of Jacob, His chosen ones.
⁷He is ADONAI our God.
His judgments are in all the earth.
⁸He remembers His covenant forever—the word He commanded for a thousand generations—⁹which He made with Abraham, and swore to Isaac, ¹⁰and confirmed to Jacob as a decree,
to Israel as an everlasting covenant,
¹¹saying, "To you I give the land of Canaan, the portion of your inheritance." ¹²When they were but few in number, few indeed, and foreigners in it, ¹³wandering from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another people, ¹⁴He allowed no one to oppress them—for their sake He rebuked kings:
¹⁵"Touch not My anointed ones,
and do My prophets no harm."
¹⁶He called down a famine on the land.
He broke the whole supply of bread.
¹⁷He sent a man before them—
Joseph, sold as a slave.
¹⁸They hurt His feet with shackles,
he was put in irons—¹⁹till the time that his word came true—
the word of ADONAI proved him true!
²⁰The king sent and released him.
The ruler of the peoples set him free.
²¹He made him lord of his house, ruler over all his possessions, ²²to discipline his princes at his will,
and teach his elders wisdom.
²³Then Israel came into Egypt,
Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
²⁴He made His people very fruitful, and made them more numerous than their

^a 105:12. cf. Heb. 11:9.

foes.

²⁵He turned their hearts to hate His people, to deal shrewdly with His servants.

²⁶He sent Moses His servant, and Aaron, whom He had chosen.

²⁷They performed His signs among them
—miracles in the land of Ham.

²⁸He sent darkness, and it was dark,
so they did not rebel against His words.

²⁹He turned their waters into blood, causing their fish to die.

³⁰Their land swarmed with frogs, even in their royal chambers.

³¹He spoke, and a swarm of gnats came within all their borders.

³²He gave them a rain of hail, flames of fire throughout their land.

³³He struck their vines and their fig trees and shattered the trees of their country.

³⁴He spoke, and the locust came —young locusts without number—

³⁵to eat up every green thing in their land and eat up the fruit of their ground.

³⁶Then He struck all the firstborn
in their land,
the firstfruits of all their vigor.

³⁷Then He brought them out with silver and gold, and no one among His tribes faltered.

³⁸Egypt was glad when they left—for dread of them had fallen on them.

³⁹He spread a cloud as a covering and fire to give light at night.

⁴⁰They asked, and He brought quail, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.^b

⁴¹He opened a rock, and waters gushed out,
flowed as a river in dry places.

⁴²For He remembered His holy word to Abraham His servant.

⁴³So He brought forth His people with joy,
His chosen ones with singing.

⁴⁴He gave them the lands of the nations, so they inherited the labor of the peoples

⁴⁵so that they might keep His statutes and observe His laws.

Halleluyah!

ADONAI Still Faithful to Israel

¹Halleluyah!

Praise ADONAI, for He is good,
for His lovingkindness endures forever.

²Who can speak of ADONAI's mighty acts or declare His praise?

³Blessed are those who maintain justice, who do what is right at all times.

⁴Remember me, ADONAI, when You show favor to Your people.
Visit me with Your salvation,

⁵so I may behold the prosperity of Your chosen ones, exult in the joy of Your nation,
and give praise with Your inheritance.

⁶We have sinned with our fathers,
we have committed iniquity,
we have acted wickedly.

⁷Our fathers in Egypt
did not ponder Your wonders.
Nor did they remember Your abundant lovingkindness, but rebelled by the sea—
at the Sea of Reeds.

⁸Yet He saved them for His Name's sake, to make His mighty power known.

⁹He rebuked the Sea of Reeds and it dried up, and He led them through the depths
as through a wilderness.

¹⁰So He saved them from the hand of those who hated them, redeemed them from the enemy's hand.

¹¹The waters covered their adversaries—not one of them was left.

¹²Then they believed His words.
They were singing His praise.

¹³How quickly they forgot His works, and would not wait for His counsel!

¹⁴In the wilderness they craved ravenously, in the desert they tested God.

¹⁵So He gave them what they asked for,
but sent a wasting disease among them.

¹⁶Then they envied Moses in the camp, and also Aaron, the holy one of ADONAI.
¹⁷The earth opened up, swallowed Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.
¹⁸Also a fire blazed in their company, a flame consumed the wicked.
¹⁹They made a calf in Horeb and worshipped a molten image.
²⁰Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a grass-eating ox.
²¹They forgot God their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt—²²miracles in the land of Ham, awesome things by the Sea of Reeds.
²³So He commanded their extermination, had not Moses, His chosen one, stood in the breach before Him,
 to turn His wrath from destroying them.
²⁴Then they scorned the pleasing land—
 they did not trust in His word.
²⁵Instead, they grumbled in their tents.
 They would not listen to ADONAI's voice.
²⁶Therefore He swore to them that He would make them fall in the desert, ²⁷and disperse their offspring
 among the nations,
 and scatter them through the lands.
²⁸Then they yoked themselves to Baal of Peor,
 and ate the sacrifices of dead things.
²⁹So they provoked Him with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.
³⁰But Phinehas stood up and intervened,
 so the plague was stopped.
³¹It was credited to him as righteousness, from generation to generation forever.
³²By the waters of Meribah they angered Him, and trouble came on Moses because of them.
³³For they embittered his spirit and he spoke rashly with his lips.
³⁴They did not destroy the peoples, as ADONAI had commanded them.
³⁵Instead they mingled with the nations and learned their practices.

³⁶They worshipped their idols, which became a snare to them.
³⁷They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
³⁸They shed innocent blood—the blood of their sons and their daughters, sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
 So the land was desecrated with blood.
³⁹So they defiled themselves by their deeds, and prostituted themselves
 by their practices.
⁴⁰Therefore the anger of ADONAI was kindled against His people, and He abhorred His inheritance.
⁴¹He handed them to the nations—those who hated them ruled over them.
⁴²Their enemies oppressed them, so they were subdued under their hand.
⁴³Many times He delivered them, but they kept rebelling deliberately,
 and so sank low into their iniquity.
⁴⁴Yet He saw their distress,
 when He heard their cry, ⁴⁵remembered His covenant to them,^a and relented in the greatness of His mercy.
⁴⁶He caused them to be pitied in the presence of all their captors.
⁴⁷Save us, ADONAI our God, and gather us from the nations,
 so we may praise Your holy Name and triumph in Your praise.
⁴⁸Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting!
 Let all the people say, "Amen!"
Halleluyah!

107

His Chesed and His Wonders

¹Praise ADONAI, for He is good,
 for His lovingkindness endures forever.

²Let the redeemed of ADONAI say so—whom He redeemed from the hand of the foe,

^a 106:45. cf. Luke 1:67-79.

- ³whom He gathered out of the lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the sea.
- ⁴Some wandered in a desert, a wasteland.
They found no way to an inhabited city.
- ⁵Hungry and thirsty,
their souls ebbed away.
- ⁶So they cried out to ADONAI
in their distress, and He delivered them
out of their troubles.
- ⁷Then He led them by a straight way to go to a city where they could live.
- ⁸Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy
and His wonders for the children of men,
- ⁹for He satisfies the thirsty soul and fills the hungry soul with goodness.
- ¹⁰Some sat in darkness and deep gloom, prisoners in misery and iron chains,
- ¹¹for they had defied God's words,
and spurned the counsel of Elyon.
- ¹²So He humbled their heart with trouble.
They stumbled, and no one was helping.
- ¹³So they cried out to ADONAI
in their distress, and He delivered them
out of their troubles.
- ¹⁴He brought them out of darkness and deep gloom, breaking their chains.
- ¹⁵Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy,
and His wonders for the children of men,
- ¹⁶for He shattered bronze gates, and broke into pieces iron bars.
- ¹⁷Some became fools because of their rebellious ways, and were afflicted due to their iniquities.
- ¹⁸Their soul abhorred all food,
and they drew near the gates of death.
- ¹⁹So they cried out to ADONAI
in their distress, and He delivered them
out of their troubles.
- ²⁰He sent His word and healed them,
and rescued them from their pits.
- ²¹Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy,
and His wonders for the children of men.
- ²²Let them sacrifice thank offerings and tell of His works with joyful singing.
- ²³Some go out to the sea in ships, doing business on the mighty waters.
- ²⁴They saw the works of ADONAI, and His wonders in the deep.
- ²⁵For He spoke and raised a stormy wind, lifting up towering waves.
- ²⁶They mounted up to the sky and plunged down to the depths.
In their peril their souls melted away.
- ²⁷They reeled and staggered like a drunk, and all their skill was bewildered.
- ²⁸So they cried out to ADONAI in their distress, and He brought them
out of their troubles.
- ²⁹He stilled the storm to a whisper—the waves were hushed.^b
- ³⁰They were glad when it became calm, and He led them to their desired haven.
- ³¹Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy, and His wonders to the children of men.
- ³²Let them exalt Him in the congregation of the people, and praise Him at the assembly of elders.
- ³³He turns rivers into a wilderness and springs of water into thirsty ground,
- ³⁴and a fruitful land into a salt waste, because of the evil of its inhabitants.
- ³⁵He turns a desert into a pool of water,
a dry land into springs of water.
- ³⁶There He brings the hungry to live, and they establish a city for a dwelling.
- ³⁷So they sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.
- ³⁸He blesses them, they multiply greatly,
and He does not let their herds diminish,
- ³⁹after they were few and crushed by oppression, calamity and sorrow.
- ⁴⁰He pours contempt on princes, making them wander in trackless waste.
- ⁴¹But He lifts the needy high above affliction,
and makes their families like a flock.
- ⁴²The upright see it and are glad,
and all iniquity shuts its mouth.
- ⁴³Who is wise?
Let him observe these things, and consider ADONAI's lovingkindness.

^b 107:29. cf. Luke 8:24-25.

With God We Do Valiantly

- ¹A song, a psalm of David.
²My heart is steadfast, O God.
 I will sing, sing praises with all my soul.
³Awake, harp and lyre—
 I will awaken the dawn!
⁴I will give thanks to You, ADONAI,
 among the peoples,
 I will sing praises to You
 among the nations.
⁵For Your love is higher than the heavens,
 Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
⁶Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
 let Your glory be above all the earth.
⁷Let Your beloved ones be delivered.
 Save with Your right hand, answer me!
⁸God has spoken in His Sanctuary:
 “I will triumph! I will parcel out Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succot.
⁹Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine.
 Also Ephraim is a helmet for My head,
 Judah is my scepter.
¹⁰Moab is My washbowl.
 I throw my shoe on Edom.
 I shout in triumph over Philistia.”
¹¹Who will bring me into the fortified city?
 Who will lead me to Edom?
¹²O God, have You not spurned us?
 Will You go out no more with our armies?
¹³Give us help against the adversary—for useless is deliverance through man.
¹⁴With God we will do valiantly—
 and He will trample our foes.

109

Prayer Against an Accuser

- ¹For the music director, a psalm of David.
 O God of my praise, be not silent.
²For the wicked and the deceitful have opened their mouth against me.
 They spoke to me with a lying tongue, ³with hateful words surrounded me,
 and fought against me without cause.

- ⁴In return for my love they are my accusers,
 but I am in prayer.
⁵They repay me evil for good,
 and hatred for my love.
⁶Set a wicked man over him, let an accuser^a stand at his right hand.
⁷When he is judged,
 let him be found guilty,
 and may his prayer be as sin.
⁸Let his days be few,
 let another take his position.
⁹May his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
¹⁰Let his children wander and beg and may they search in their ruins.
¹¹Let a creditor seize all he has,
 and may strangers plunder his labor.
¹²Let no one show him mercy, or take pity on his fatherless children.
¹³Let his posterity be cut off, and his name be blotted out in the next generation.
¹⁴May the guilt of his fathers be remembered before ADONAI, the sin of his mother never blotted out.
¹⁵Let their sins be before ADONAI continually, that He may cut off the memory of them
 from the earth.
¹⁶For he never remembered to show mercy.
 But he persecuted a poor and needy man, crushed in spirit, to put him to death.
¹⁷How he loved cursing—may it fall on him!
 He had no pleasure in blessing—may it be far from him!
¹⁸He wore cursing like his robe, until it filled his belly like water,
 and his bones like oil.
¹⁹May it be like a cloak wrapped around him, like a belt tied around him always.
²⁰Let this be ADONAI's reward to my accusers,
 and to those who speak evil against me.
²¹But You, ADONAI my Lord, deal with me for Your Name's sake.
 Because Your lovingkindness is good,
 deliver me.

^a 109:6. Heb. satan.

²²For I am afflicted and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
²³I fade away like an evening shadow, shaken off like a locust.
²⁴My knees totter from fasting, and my flesh is lean, with no fat.
²⁵And I have become a taunt to them.
When they see me, they wag their head.
²⁶Help me, ADONAI my God,
Save me through Your lovingkindness.
²⁷Let them know that it is Your hand—that You, ADONAI, have done it.
²⁸They may curse, but You bless.
When they arise, they will be ashamed, but Your servant will rejoice.
²⁹My accusers will be clothed in disgrace, and wrapped in shame as in a cloak.
³⁰I will greatly thank ADONAI with my mouth, and in the midst of a throng will I praise Him.
³¹For He stands at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who condemn his soul.

110

My Lord is a Kohen Forever

¹A psalm of David.
ADONAI says to my Lord:
“Sit at My right hand
until I make your enemies a footstool for Your feet.”^b ²ADONAI will extend your mighty rod from Zion:
“Rule in the midst of your enemies.”^c ³Your people will be a freewill offering in a day of your power.
In holy splendors, from dawn’s womb,
yours is the dew of your youth.
⁴ADONAI has sworn, and will not relent:
“You are a Kohen forever
according to the order of Melchizedek.”^d ⁵My Lord is at your right hand.

^b 110:1. cf. Matt. 22:44; Acts 2:34-35; 1Cor. 15:25; Heb. 1:13.
^c 110:2. cf. Heb. 1:8; Rev. 12:5; 19:15.
^d 110:4. cf. Heb. 5:6, 10; 6:20; 7:17, 21.

He will shatter kings
in the day of His wrath.
⁶He will judge among the nations, heaping up corpses.
He will crush heads over the entire land.
⁷He will drink from a stream along the way
—so His head will be exalted.

111

The Beginning of Wisdom

¹Halleluyah! I praise ADONAI with all my heart
in the company and congregation of the upright.
²Great are the works of ADONAI—searched out by all who delight in them.
³Glorious and majestic is His work,
and His righteousness endures forever.
⁴He made His wonders memorable.
ADONAI is gracious and full of compassion.
⁵He gives food to those who fear Him.
He remembers His covenant forever.
⁶He shows His people His powerful deeds, giving them the heritage of the nations.
⁷The works of His hands are truth and justice.
All His precepts are trustworthy—⁸they are upheld forever and ever, made in truth and uprightness.
⁹He has sent redemption to His people.
He has ordained His covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is His Name.
¹⁰The fear of ADONAI
is the beginning of wisdom.
All who follow His precepts have good understanding.
His praise endures forever!

112

Blessed is the Righteous Man

¹Halleluyah! Happy is the man who fears ADONAI,
who delights greatly in His mitzvot.
²His offspring will be mighty in the land.

The generation of the upright will be blessed.

³Wealth and riches are in his house,
and his righteousness endures forever.

⁴Light shines in the darkness for the upright.

Gracious, compassionate and just is he.

⁵Good comes to a man who is gracious and lends.

He will order his affairs with fairness.

⁶Surely he will never be shaken.

The righteous are remembered forever.

⁷He is not afraid of bad news—
his heart is steadfast, trusting in ADONAI.

⁸His heart is secure, he will not fear—until he gazes on his foes.

⁹He gives freely to the poor.
His righteousness endures forever.

His horn is lifted high in honor.

¹⁰The wicked will see it and be indignant.
He will gnash with his teeth and waste away.

The desire of the wicked will perish.

113

From the Rising of the Sun

¹Halleluyah! Praise, O servants of ADONAI, praise the Name of ADONAI.

²Blessed be the Name of ADONAI from now and forever.

³From the rising of the sun to its going down
the Name of ADONAI is to be praised.

⁴ADONAI is high above all nations,
His glory is above the heavens.

⁵Who is like ADONAI our God, enthroned on high,

⁶who brings Himself down to look upon heaven and upon earth?

⁷He raises the poor from the dust, lifts up the needy out of the dunghill,

⁸to seat him with princes, with the princes of His people.

⁹He settles the barren woman in her home as a joyful mother of children.

Halleluyah!

114

Passover Song

¹When Israel came out of Egypt, Jacob's house from a people foreign-speaking,

²Judah became His Sanctuary,
Israel His dominion.

³The sea saw and fled,
the Jordan turned back.

⁴The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs.

⁵Why was it, O sea, that you fled?
O Jordan, that you turned back?

⁶O mountains, that you skipped like rams?
O hills, like lambs?

⁷Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,

at the presence of the God of Jacob, ⁸who turned the rock into a pool of water,
the flint into a spring of water.

115

Bless the Maker of Heaven and Earth

¹Not to us, ADONAI, not to us, but to Your Name be the glory—because of Your love and Your faithfulness.

²Why should the nations say:
“Where is their God now?”

³Our God is in the heavens—
He does whatever pleases Him!

⁴Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.

⁵They have mouths, but cannot speak;
eyes, but cannot see.

⁶They have ears, but cannot hear;
noses, but cannot smell.

⁷They have hands, but cannot feel;
feet, but cannot walk,
nor utter a sound with their throat.

⁸Those making them will become like them
—everyone trusting in them.

⁹O Israel, trust in ADONAI—
He is their help and their shield!

¹⁰O house of Aaron, trust in ADONAI—

He is their help and their shield!
¹¹O you who fear ADONAI, trust in ADONAI—
 He is their help and their shield!
¹²ADONAI has been mindful of us,
 He will bless:
 He will bless the house of Israel;
 He will bless the house of Aaron;
¹³He will bless those who fear ADONAI,
 the small together with the great.
¹⁴May ADONAI increase you more and more
 —you and your children.
¹⁵May you be blessed by ADONAI, Maker of heaven and earth.
¹⁶The heavens are the heavens of ADONAI, but the earth He gave to the children of men.
¹⁷The dead do not praise ADONAI, nor do any who go down into silence.
¹⁸But we—we will bless ADONAI both now and forever. Halleluyah!

116

Lift Up the Cup of Salvation

¹I love ADONAI, for He hears my voice, my cries.
²Because He has turned His ear to me,
 I will call on Him all my days.
³The ropes of death entangled me,
 and the torments of Sheol found me.
 I found trouble and sorrow.
⁴Then I called upon the Name of ADONAI:
 “ADONAI, save my soul!”
⁵ADONAI is gracious and righteous—
 yes, our God is compassionate.
⁶ADONAI protects the simple-hearted.
 When I was brought low, He saved me.
⁷Return to your rest, my soul,
 for ADONAI has been good to you.
⁸For You delivered my soul from death,
 my eyes from tears,
 my feet from stumbling.
⁹I will walk before ADONAI in the lands of the living.
¹⁰I trusted even when I said,
 “I am very afflicted”—
¹¹even when I said in my haste,
 “All men are liars.”

¹²How can I repay ADONAI for all His bounties to me?
¹³I will lift up the cup of salvation, and call on the Name of ADONAI.
¹⁴I will fulfill my vows to ADONAI
 in the presence of all His people.
¹⁵Precious in the sight of ADONAI is the death of His kedoshim.
¹⁶O ADONAI! Surely I am Your servant.
 I am Your servant,
 the son of Your maidservant.
 You have freed me from my bonds.
¹⁷To You I will offer a sacrifice of praise, and will call on the Name of ADONAI.
¹⁸I will fulfill my vows to ADONAI
 in the presence of all His people, ¹⁹in the courts of the House of ADONAI, in your midst, O Jerusalem. Halleluyah!

117

Praise Him, All You Nations

¹Praise ADONAI, all you nations!
 Glorify Him, all you peoples.
²For great is His lovingkindness toward us, and ADONAI’s truth endures forever.
Halleluyah!

118

His Chesed Endures Forever

¹Praise^a ADONAI, for He is good,
 for His lovingkindness endures forever.
²O let Israel say:
 For His lovingkindness endures forever.
³O let the house of Aaron say:
 For His lovingkindness endures forever.
⁴O let those who fear ADONAI say:
 For His lovingkindness endures forever.
⁵Out of a tight place I called on ADONAI—ADONAI answered me with a spacious place.
⁶ADONAI is for me—I will not fear!
 What can man do to me?
⁷ADONAI is for me, as my helper.

^a 118:1. Heb. hodu, Or Give thanks to.

I will see the downfall of those who hate me.
⁸It is better to take refuge in ADONAI than to trust in man.
⁹It is better to take refuge in ADONAI than to trust in princes.
¹⁰All nations surrounded me—
 in the Name of ADONAI I cut them off.
¹¹They surrounded me,
 yes, all around me—
 in the Name of ADONAI I cut them off.
¹²They swarmed around me like bees—they were extinguished like burning thorns—
 in the Name of ADONAI I cut them off.
¹³You pushed me hard to make me fall,
 but ADONAI helped me.
¹⁴ADONAI is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation.^a ¹⁵Shouts of joy and victory are in the tents of the righteous:
 “ADONAI’s right hand is mighty!^b ¹⁶ADONAI’s right hand is lifted high!
 ADONAI’s right hand is mighty!”
¹⁷I will not die, but live, and proclaim what ADONAI has done!
¹⁸ADONAI has chastened me hard,
 but has not given me over to death.
¹⁹Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them
 and praise ADONAI.
²⁰This is the gate of ADONAI—the righteous will enter through it.^c ²¹I give You thanks, because You have answered me and have become my salvation.
²²The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone.^d ²³It is from ADONAI:
 it is marvelous in our eyes!
²⁴This is the day that ADONAI has made!
 Let us rejoice and be glad in it!
²⁵Hoshia-na! Please, ADONAI, save now!
 We beseech You, ADONAI, prosper us!
²⁶*Baruch haba b’Shem ADONAI—*

^d 118:22. cf. Matt. 21:42; Mark 12:10; Luke 20:17; Acts 4:11; Eph. 2:20; 1Pet. 2:7.

Blessed is He who comes in the Name of ADONAI.^e
 We bless you from the House of ADONAI.
²⁷ADONAI is God, and He has given us light.
 Join the festival with branches,^f up to the horns of the altar.
²⁸You are my God, and I praise You.
 You are my God—I exalt You!
²⁹Praise ADONAI, for He is good,
 for His lovingkindness endures forever.

ALEPH א

¹Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the Torah of ADONAI.
²Happy are those who keep His testimonies, who seek Him with a whole heart, ³who also do no injustice,
 but walk in His ways.
⁴You have commanded that Your precepts be kept diligently.
⁵Oh that my ways were steadfast to observe Your decrees!
⁶Then I would not be ashamed, when I consider all Your mitzvot.
⁷I will praise You with an upright heart as I learn Your righteous judgments.
⁸I will observe Your statutes.
 Never abandon me utterly!

BET ב

⁹How can a young man
 keep his way pure?
 By guarding it according to Your word.
¹⁰With my whole heart have I sought You —let me not stray from Your mitzvot.
¹¹I have treasured Your word in my heart,
 so I might not sin against You.
¹²Blessed are You, ADONAI.
 Teach me Your statutes.
¹³With my lips I rehearse

^e 118:25-26. cf. Matt. 21:9; 23:39; Mark 11:9; Luke 13:35; 19:38; John 12:13.

^f 118:27. Or bind the festival offering to the horns of the altar.

all the rulings of Your mouth.

¹⁴I rejoice in the way of Your testimonies above all wealth.

¹⁵I will meditate on Your precepts, and regard Your ways.

¹⁶I will delight in Your decrees.
I will never forget Your word.

GIMEL ג

¹⁷Do good to Your servant that I may live and keep Your word.

¹⁸Open my eyes, so I may behold wonders from Your Torah.

¹⁹I am a temporary dweller on earth—
do not hide Your mitzvot from me.

²⁰My soul is crushed with longing for Your judgments at all times.

²¹You rebuke the proud, who are cursed, who wander from Your mitzvot.

²²Take scorn and contempt away from me, for I have kept Your testimonies.

²³Though princes sit and talk against me,
Your servant meditates on Your decrees.

²⁴For Your testimonies are my delight—they are also my counselors.

DALET ד

²⁵My soul clings to the dust.
Revive me according to Your word!

²⁶I told of my ways and You answered me.
Teach me Your statutes.

²⁷Help me discern the way of Your precepts, so I may meditate on Your wonders.

²⁸My soul weeps with grief.
Make me stand firm with Your word.

²⁹Turn me away from the deceitful way, and be gracious to me with Your Torah.

³⁰I have chosen the way of faithfulness.
I have set my heart on Your judgments.

³¹I cling to Your testimonies.
ADONAI, do not put me to shame!

³²I run the course of Your mitzvot, for You open wide my heart.

HEY ה

³³Teach me the way of Your decrees, ADONAI, and I will follow them to the end.

³⁴Give me understanding, that I may keep Your Torah and observe it with all my heart.

³⁵Help me walk in the path of Your mitzvot—for I delight in it.

³⁶Turn my heart to Your testimonies and not to dishonest gain.

³⁷Turn my eyes away from gazing at vanity
but revive me in Your ways.

³⁸Fulfill Your word to Your servant, which leads to reverence for You.

³⁹Make the disgrace I dread pass away, for Your judgments are good.

⁴⁰Behold, I long for Your precepts.
Revive me by Your righteousness.

VAV ו

⁴¹May Your lovingkindnesses come to me, ADONAI—
Your salvation according to Your word—

⁴²so I may answer the one taunting me, for I trust in Your word.

⁴³Never snatch out of my mouth a word of truth,

for I hope in Your judgments.

⁴⁴So I may always keep Your Torah,
forever and ever,

⁴⁵and walk about in freedom.
For I have sought Your precepts.

⁴⁶I will speak of Your testimonies before kings, and never be ashamed.

⁴⁷I delight in Your mitzvot, which I love.

⁴⁸I reach out my hands for Your mitzvot,
which I love,

and meditate on Your decrees.

ZAYIN ז

⁴⁹Remember the word
to Your servant,
on which You have made me hope.

⁵⁰My comfort in my affliction is this:
Your word has kept me alive.

⁵¹The arrogant have viciously ridiculed me, yet I did not turn away from Your Torah.

⁵²I remember Your judgments from of old,
ADONAI, and comfort myself.

⁵³Burning indignation grips me, because of the wicked who forsake Your Torah.

⁵⁴Your decrees have become my songs in the house where I dwell.

⁵⁵In the night I remember Your Name,
ADONAI,
and keep watching over Your Torah.

⁵⁶This is my own: that I keep Your precepts.

CHET ך

⁵⁷ADONAI is my portion.

I promised to guard Your words.

⁵⁸I have entreated Your favor
with all my heart.

Be gracious to me according to Your word.

⁵⁹I have considered my ways and turned my feet back to Your testimonies.

⁶⁰I hasten and do not delay to obey Your mitzvot.

⁶¹The ropes of the wicked are coiled around me,

but I did not forget Your Torah.

⁶²At midnight I rise to praise You, because of Your righteous rulings.

⁶³I am a companion of all who fear You,
of those who observe Your precepts.

⁶⁴The earth is full of Your lovingkindness.
ADONAI—teach me Your decrees.

TET ם

⁶⁵You do good to Your servant,
ADONAI, according to Your word.

⁶⁶Teach me good sense and knowledge, for I trusted in Your mitzvot.

⁶⁷Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word.

⁶⁸You are good and keep doing good—teach me Your decrees.

⁶⁹Though the proud smeared a lie on me, with all my heart I keep Your precepts.

⁷⁰Their minds are insensible, but Your Torah is my delight.

⁷¹It is good for me that I was afflicted,
so that I may learn Your decrees.

⁷²The Torah from Your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

YOD ם

⁷³Your hands have made me and formed me.

Give me understanding that I may learn Your mitzvot.

⁷⁴Those in awe of You see me and rejoice, because I put my hope in Your word.

⁷⁵I know, ADONAI, Your judgments are just.
In faithfulness You have afflicted me.

⁷⁶May Your lovingkindness comfort me, according to Your promise
to Your servant.

⁷⁷Let Your tender mercies reach me,
Let me live, for Your Torah is my delight.

⁷⁸May the proud be put to shame for wronging me with a lie, but I will meditate on Your precepts.

⁷⁹Let those in awe of You return to me—
those who know Your testimonies.

⁸⁰My heart will have integrity in following Your decrees, so that I would not be ashamed.

KAF ך

⁸¹My soul faints with longing for Your salvation,
but I still hope in Your word.

⁸²My eyes are worn out longing for Your promise, saying,
“When will You comfort me?”

⁸³Though I became like a wineskin dried in smoke, I do not forget Your decrees.

⁸⁴How many are the days of Your servant?
When will You execute judgment on my persecutors?

⁸⁵The proud have dug pits for me—that is not in accord with Your Torah!

⁸⁶All Your mitzvot are faithful.
They persecute me with a lie—help me!

⁸⁷They almost finished me off on earth.
But I—I will not forsake Your precepts.

⁸⁸Revive me with Your lovingkindness, so I may keep Your mouth’s testimony.

LAMED ם

⁸⁹Forever, ADONAI,
Your word stands firm in the heavens.

⁹⁰Your faithfulness endures
from generation to generation.
You established the earth, and it stands.

⁹¹Your judgments stand today, for all things are Your servants.

⁹²If Your Torah had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.

⁹³I will never forget Your precepts.
 For with them You have kept me alive.
⁹⁴I am Yours, save me!
 For I have sought out Your precepts.
⁹⁵The wicked wait for me to destroy me.
 But I will study Your testimonies.
⁹⁶I have seen a limit to all perfection, yet Your commandment is boundless.

MEM ן

⁹⁷O how I love Your Torah!
 It is my meditation all day.
⁹⁸Your mitzvot make me wiser than my enemies
 —for they are mine forever.
⁹⁹I have more insight than all my teachers, for Your testimonies are my meditation.
¹⁰⁰I have gained more understanding than all my elders,
 for I have kept Your precepts.
¹⁰¹I kept my feet from every evil way,
 in order to follow Your word.
¹⁰²I do not turn away from Your rulings, for You Yourself have taught me.
¹⁰³How sweet is Your word to my taste—
 yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
¹⁰⁴From Your precepts I get discernment, therefore I hate every false way.

NUN ן

¹⁰⁵Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.^a ¹⁰⁶I have sworn and confirmed to observe Your righteous rulings.
¹⁰⁷I am severely afflicted.
 Keep me alive, ADONAI,
 according to Your word.
¹⁰⁸Please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, ADONAI, and teach me Your rulings.
¹⁰⁹My soul is continually in danger,
 yet I have not forgotten Your Torah.
¹¹⁰The wicked have set a snare for me,
 yet I did not stray from Your precepts.
¹¹¹Your testimonies I have as a heritage forever, for they are my heart's joy.
¹¹²I turned my heart to do Your decrees, forever, to the very end.

SAMECH o

¹¹³I hate double-minded ones,
 but Your Torah I love.
¹¹⁴You are my hiding place and my shield
 —in Your word I hope.
¹¹⁵Away from me, evildoers,
 so I may keep the mitzvot of my God!
¹¹⁶Sustain me according to Your word, so I may live, and let me not be ashamed of my hope.
¹¹⁷Support me and I will be saved,
 and study Your decrees continually.
¹¹⁸You despise all who wander from Your decrees, for their deceitfulness is in vain.
¹¹⁹All the wicked of the earth
 You remove like dross.
 Therefore I love Your testimonies.
¹²⁰My flesh shudders for fear of You, and I am in awe of Your judgments.

AYIN ן

¹²¹I did what is just and right.
 Do not leave me to my oppressors.
¹²²Guarantee Your servant's well-being.
 Do not let arrogant ones oppress me.
¹²³My eyes fail, longing for Your salvation and for Your righteous word.
¹²⁴Deal with Your servant
 as befits Your lovingkindness;
 and teach me Your statutes.
¹²⁵I am Your servant, give me discernment, so I may understand Your testimonies.
¹²⁶It is time for ADONAI to act—
 they have violated Your Torah!
¹²⁷Therefore I love Your mitzvot more than gold, more than pure gold.
¹²⁸Therefore I esteem all Your precepts as right in every way
 —every false way I hate.

PE ן

¹²⁹Your testimonies are wonderful.
 Therefore my soul obeys them.
¹³⁰The unfolding of Your words gives light, giving understanding to the simple.
¹³¹I opened my mouth wide and panted,

^a 119:105. cf. John 8:12; 12:35.

for I longed for Your mitzvot.

¹³²Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is fitting to those who love Your Name.

¹³³Direct my footsteps in Your word, and let no iniquity get mastery over me.

¹³⁴Redeem me from human oppression, and I will keep Your precepts.

¹³⁵Make Your face shine on Your servant, and teach me Your decrees.

¹³⁶Streams of water run down from my eyes,
because they do not observe Your Torah.

TZADHE ז

¹³⁷Righteous are You, ADONAI, and Your judgments are upright.

¹³⁸You have commanded righteousness,
Your testimonies, and great faithfulness.

¹³⁹My zeal has consumed me, because my foes forgot Your words.

¹⁴⁰Your word is thoroughly refined, and Your servant loves it.

¹⁴¹I am insignificant and despised, yet I have not forgotten Your precepts.

¹⁴²Your justice is righteousness forever, and Your Torah is truth.

¹⁴³Trouble and anguish have overtaken me, yet Your mitzvot are my delight.

¹⁴⁴Your testimonies are righteous forever
—make me understand, so I may live.

KOF ק

¹⁴⁵I cried out with all my heart,

“Answer me, ADONAI!
I will keep Your decrees.”

¹⁴⁶I cried out to You, “Save me, and I will keep Your testimonies.”

¹⁴⁷I am up before dawn, crying for help—
I put my hope in Your word.

¹⁴⁸My eyes are up before every night watch, as I meditate on Your word.

¹⁴⁹Hear my voice with Your lovingkindness.
Revive me, ADONAI, with Your judgments.

¹⁵⁰Pursuers of wicked schemes draw near—they are far from Your Torah.

¹⁵¹You are near, ADONAI, and all Your mitzvot are truth.

¹⁵²Long ago I learned from Your testimonies that You founded them firmly forever.

RESH ר

¹⁵³See my affliction and rescue me, for I do not forget Your Torah.

¹⁵⁴Defend my cause and redeem me.
Restore my life through Your word.

¹⁵⁵Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek after Your decrees.

¹⁵⁶Great are Your mercies, ADONAI.
Restore my life with Your judgments.

¹⁵⁷Many are my persecutors and my foes.
Yet I do not turn from Your testimonies.

¹⁵⁸I see the treacherous and loathe them, because they do not keep Your word.

¹⁵⁹See how I loved Your precepts.
Restore my life, ADONAI,

with Your lovingkindness.

¹⁶⁰Truth is the essence of Your word, and all Your righteous rulings are eternal.

SHIN ש

¹⁶¹Princes persecute me for no reason, but my heart is in awe of Your words.

¹⁶²I rejoice in Your word, as one who finds great spoil.

¹⁶³I hate and abhor falsehood,
but Your Torah I love.

¹⁶⁴Seven times a day I praise You, because of Your righteous judgments.

¹⁶⁵Great peace have they who love Your Torah, and nothing causes them to stumble.

¹⁶⁶I hope for Your salvation, ADONAI, and do Your mitzvot.

¹⁶⁷My soul has observed Your testimonies and I love them exceedingly.

¹⁶⁸I observe Your precepts and Your laws, for all my ways are before You.

TAV ת

¹⁶⁹Let my cry come to You, ADONAI.
Grant me understanding by Your word.

¹⁷⁰Let my supplication come before You.
Deliver me, according to Your promise.

¹⁷¹My lips utter praise, for You teach me Your statutes.

¹⁷²My tongue slings of Your word, for all Your mitzvot are righteous.

¹⁷³Let Your hand be ready to help me,
for I have chosen Your precepts.

¹⁷⁴I long for Your deliverance, ADONAI, and Your Torah is my delight.
¹⁷⁵Let my soul live and praise You,
and may Your rulings help me.
¹⁷⁶I have strayed like a lost sheep—seek Your servant.
For I did not forget Your mitzvot.

120

I Am for Shalom

¹A Song of Ascents.
In my trouble I cried out to ADONAI, and He answered me.
²ADONAI, deliver my soul from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue.
³What can be given to you, and what more can be done to you,
O deceitful tongue?—
⁴sharp arrows of the mighty, with burning coals of a broom tree!
⁵Woe to me, for I sojourn in Meshech, for I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
⁶My soul has too long dwelt with those who hate shalom.
⁷I am for shalom and thus I speak, but they are for war!

121

He Watches Over You

¹A Song of Ascents.
I will lift up my eyes to the mountains—from where does my help come?
²My help comes from ADONAI, Maker of heaven and earth.
³He will not let your foot slip.
Your Keeper will not slumber.
⁴Behold, the Keeper of Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps.
⁵ADONAI is your Keeper.
ADONAI is your shadow
at your right hand.
⁶The sun will not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.
⁷ADONAI will protect you from all evil.
He will guard your life.

⁸ADONAI will watch over your coming and your going from this time forth and forevermore.

122

Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem

¹A Song of Ascents. Of David.
I rejoiced when they said to me,
“Let us go to the House of ADONAI.”
²Our feet are standing in your gates, Jerusalem—
³Jerusalem, built as a city joined together.
⁴There the tribes go up, the tribes of ADONAI
—as a testimony to Israel—
to praise the Name of ADONAI.
⁵For there thrones for judgment are set up, the thrones of the house of David.
⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem—
“May those who love you be at peace!
⁷May there be shalom within your walls—quietness within your palaces.” ⁸For the sake of my brothers and friends,
I now say: “Shalom be within you.”
⁹For the sake of the House
of ADONAI our God,
I will seek your good.

123

Be Gracious to Your Servants

¹A Song of Ascents.
To You I lift up my eyes—
You enthroned in the heavens.
²Behold, as the eyes of slaves to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a slave-girl to the hand of her mistress—so our eyes look to ADONAI our God, till He shows us favor.
³Show us favor, ADONAI, show us favor!
For we have endured much contempt.
⁴Our soul has had enough of the scorn of those at ease,

the contempt of the proud.

124

Had He Not Been on Our Side

- ¹A Song of Ascents. Of David.
“Had ADONAI not been on our side”
—let Israel now say—²“Had ADONAI not been on our side, when men rose up against us, ³then they would have swallowed us alive,
when their wrath burned against us.
⁴Then the waters would have engulfed us, the torrent would have swept over our soul, ⁵then the raging waters would have swept over our soul.”

⁶Blessed be ADONAI, who has not given us as prey for their teeth.
⁷Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the snare of the trappers—the snare is broken, and we escaped!
⁸Our help is in the Name of ADONAI, Maker of heaven and earth.

125

Like the Mountains Around Jerusalem

- ¹A Song of Ascents.
Those who trust in ADONAI are like Mount Zion—it cannot be moved,
but endures forever.
²As the mountains are around Jerusalem, so ADONAI is all around His people, both now and forever.
³For a scepter of wickedness will not rest over the land of the righteous—lest the righteous set their hands to evil.
⁴Do good, ADONAI, to the good,
and to those upright in their hearts.
⁵But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, ADONAI will lead them away with evildoers.

Shalom be upon Israel.

126

Joyful Restoration of Zion

- ¹A Song of Ascents.
When ADONAI restored
the captives of Zion, it was as if we were dreaming.
²Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with a song of joy.
Then they said among the nations,
“ADONAI has done great things for them.”
³ADONAI has done great things for us
—we are joyful!
⁴Restore us from captivity, ADONAI, like streams in the Negev.
⁵Those who sow in tears will reap with a song of joy.
⁶Whoever keeps going out weeping, carrying his bag of seed, will surely come back with a song of joy, carrying his sheaves.

127

He Gives Sleep to His Children

- ¹A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.
Unless ADONAI builds the house,
the builders labor in vain.
Unless ADONAI watches over the city,
the watchman stands guard in vain.
²In vain you rise up early and stay up late, eating the bread of toil—for He provides for His beloved ones even in their sleep.

³Behold, children are a heritage of ADONAI
—the fruit of the womb is a reward.
⁴As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of one’s youth.
⁵Happy is the man whose quiver is full of them.
They will not be put to shame when they speak with their enemies
at the gate.

128

Blessing on Those Who Fear God

¹A Song of Ascents.

Happy is everyone in awe of ADONAI, who walks in His ways,

²for you will eat the labor of your hands.

You will be blessed and it will be good for you.

³Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house.

Your children will be like olive saplings around your table.

⁴Behold, thus will the man be blessed
who fears ADONAI.

⁵May ADONAI bless you out of Zion, and may you see Jerusalem in prosperity
all the days of your life,

⁶and may you live to see your children's children.

Shalom be upon Israel!

129

Haters Won't Prevail

¹A Song of Ascents.

"How many times they have been hostile to me, even from my youth"
—let Israel now say—

²"How greatly they have been hostile to me, even from my youth.

Yet they have not prevailed against me.

³Plowmen plowed on my back—they made their furrows long!"

⁴ADONAI is righteous—
He has cut the ropes of the wicked.

⁵May all who hate Zion be driven back in disgrace.

⁶Let them be like grass on the roofs, which withers before it springs up—

⁷with it a reaper cannot fill his hand, nor can a binder of sheaves fill his lap.

⁸So the passersby may never say:
"The blessing of ADONAI be upon you—we bless you in the Name of ADONAI."

130

Forgiveness and Full Redemption

¹A Song of Ascents.

Out of the depths I cry to You, ADONAI!

²Lord, hear my voice!

Let Your ears be attentive to the sound of my supplications.

³If You, ADONAI, kept a record of iniquities—
my Lord, who could stand?

⁴For with You there is forgiveness,
so You may be revered.

⁵I wait for ADONAI, my soul waits, and in His word I hope.

⁶My soul waits for my Lord, more than watchmen for the morning, watchmen for the morning.

⁷O Israel, wait for ADONAI.

For with ADONAI there is lovingkindness, and with Him is full redemption,

⁸and He will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

131

Be Still My Soul

¹A Song of Ascents. Of David.

ADONAI, my heart is not proud, nor my eyes lofty,
nor do I go after things too great or too difficult for me.

²But I have calmed and quieted my soul—like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me.

³O Israel, put your hope in ADONAI from this time forth and forever.

132

Promise of Ben-David

¹A Song of Ascents.

ADONAI, remember David,
all his afflictions,

²and how he swore to ADONAI, vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:

³"I will not enter the tent of my house

nor lie on my bed, ⁴nor will I will give sleep to my eyes,
 nor slumber to my eyelids, ⁵till I find a place for ADONAI, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob.” ⁶Behold, we heard of it in Ephratha, we found it in the fields of Joar.
⁷Let us go into His dwelling place,
 let us bow at His footstool.
⁸Arise, ADONAI, to Your resting place—
 You, and the Ark of Your might.
⁹Let Your kohanim wear righteousness, and let Your godly ones sing for joy.
¹⁰For Your servant David’s sake do not turn away the face of Your anointed.^a

¹¹ADONAI has sworn to David a true promise He will not revoke:
 “From the fruit of your body
 I will set one upon your throne—^b ¹²if your children keep My covenant and My law that I will teach them, then their sons will sit on your throne
 forever.”

¹³For ADONAI has chosen Zion,
 He has desired it for His dwelling:
¹⁴“This is My resting place forever.
 Here I dwell, for I have desired it.
¹⁵I will abundantly bless her food.
 I will satisfy her needy ones with bread.
¹⁶I will clothe her kohanim with salvation, and her godly ones will sing aloud for joy.
¹⁷There will I make a horn spring up for David,^c
 I have set up a lamp for My anointed.
¹⁸His enemies I will clothe with shame, but upon himself his crown will shine.”

133

Blessing of Unity

¹A Song of Ascents. Of David.
 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity!

^a 132:10. Or, Messiah.

^b 132:11. cf. Acts 2:29-35.

^c 132:17. cf. Luke 1:69.

²It is like the precious oil upon the head, coming down upon the beard
 —Aaron’s beard—
 coming down on the collar of his robes.
³It is like the dew of Hermon, coming down upon the mountains of Zion.
 For there ADONAI commanded the blessing —life forevermore!

134

Call to Evening Worship

¹A Song of Ascents.
 Behold, bless ADONAI,
 all servants of ADONAI, who stand by night
 in the House of ADONAI.
²Lift up your hands to the Sanctuary and bless ADONAI.
³May ADONAI bless you out of Zion—
 Maker of heaven and earth.

135

Jacob as His Treasure

 Give praise, O servants of ADONAI—²standing in the House of ADONAI, in the courts of the House of our God.
³Praise ADONAI, for ADONAI is good.
 Sing praises to His Name, for it is delightful.
⁴For ADONAI has chosen Jacob for Himself,
 Israel as His treasured possession.^d ⁵For I have known that ADONAI is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.
⁶Whatever ADONAI pleases, He does,
 in heaven and in earth,
 in the seas and in all deeps.
⁷He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth.
 He makes lightning for the rain.
 He brings wind out of His storehouses.
⁸He struck down the firstborn of Egypt,
 both man and beast.

^d 135:4. cf. 1Pet. 2:9.

⁹He sent signs and wonders among you,
O Egypt, on Pharaoh and all his servants.
¹⁰He struck down many nations and slew mighty kings:
¹¹Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan, ¹²and gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to His people Israel.
¹³ADONAI, Your Name endures forever,
Your renown, ADONAI,
from generation to generation.
¹⁴For ADONAI will vindicate His people, and have compassion on His servants.
¹⁵The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.
¹⁶They have mouths, but cannot speak,
eyes, but cannot see;
¹⁷they have ears, but cannot hear,
nor is there any breath in their mouths.
¹⁸Those who make them will be like them—so will all who keep trusting in them.
¹⁹O house of Israel, bless ADONAI!
O house of Aaron, bless ADONAI!
²⁰O house of Levi, bless ADONAI!
You who revere ADONAI, bless ADONAI!
²¹Blessed be ADONAI out of Zion, who dwells in Jerusalem. Halleluyah!

136

His Chesed Endures Forever!

¹Praise ADONAI, for He is good,
for His lovingkindness endures forever.
²Praise the God of gods,
for His lovingkindness endures forever.
³Praise the Lord of lords,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
⁴who alone did great wonders,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
⁵who made the heavens by wisdom,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
⁶who spread the earth on the waters,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
⁷who made great lights,
for His lovingkindness endures forever—

⁸the sun to rule by day,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
⁹the moon and stars to rule by night,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
¹⁰who struck Egypt in their firstborn,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
¹¹and led out Israel from among them,
for His lovingkindness endures forever, ¹²with a strong hand and outstretched arm,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
¹³who cut the Sea of Reeds into parts,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
¹⁴and made Israel pass through the midst of it,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
¹⁵but hurled Pharaoh and his army into the Sea of Reeds,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
¹⁶who led His people through the desert,
for His lovingkindness endures forever, ¹⁷who struck down great kings,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
¹⁸and slew mighty kings,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
¹⁹Sihon, king of the Amorites,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
²⁰and Og, king of Bashan,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
²¹and gave their land for an inheritance,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
²²an inheritance for Israel His servant,
for His lovingkindness endures forever.
²³He remembered us in our lowly estate,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
²⁴and separated between us and He delivered us from our adversaries,
for His lovingkindness endures forever,
²⁵who gives food to all flesh,
for His lovingkindness endures forever.
²⁶Praise the God of heaven,
for His lovingkindness endures forever!

137

By the Rivers of Babylon

¹By the rivers of Babylon,

we sat down and wept,
 when we remembered Zion.
²On the willows there we hung up our harps.
³For there our captors demanded songs and our tormentors asked for joy:
 “Sing us one of the songs of Zion.”
⁴How can we sing a song of ADONAI in a foreign land?
⁵If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand wither.
⁶May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
 if I cease to remember you, if I do not set Jerusalem above
 my chief joy.
⁷Remember, ADONAI, the children of Edom, what they said on the day Jerusalem fell: “Strip her, strip her to her very foundation!”
⁸O daughter of Babylon, the devastated one,
 happy is the one who repays you as you have paid us.
⁹Happy is the one who seizes your little ones and dashes them upon the rock.

138

Your Right Hand Delivers Me

¹Of David.
 I praise you with all my heart.
 In the presence of the mighty
 I will sing praises to You.
²I bow down toward Your holy Temple and praise Your Name for Your love and Your faithfulness.
 For You—magnified above all
 Your Name and Your word.
³On the day I called, You answered me.
 You made me bold
 with strength in my soul.
⁴All the kings of the earth will praise You, ADONAI, when they hear Your mouth’s speech.
⁵So they will sing of the ways of ADONAI, for great is the glory of ADONAI.

⁶For though ADONAI is exalted, yet He looks upon the lowly,
 but the haughty He knows from afar.
⁷Though I walk amid trouble,
 You revive me.
 You stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand delivers me.
⁸ADONAI will fulfill His purpose for me.
 Your lovingkindness, ADONAI, endures forever.
 Do not abandon the work of Your hands.

139

How Precious Your Thoughts!

¹For the music director: a psalm of David.
 ADONAI, You searched me and know me.
²Whenever I sit down or stand up,
 You know it.
 You discern my thinking from afar.
³You observe my journeying and my resting
 and You are familiar with all my ways.
⁴Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, ADONAI, You know all about it.
⁵You hemmed me in behind and before,
 and laid Your hand upon me.
⁶Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.
⁷Where can I go from Your Ruach?
 Where can I flee from Your presence?
⁸If I go up to heaven, You are there, and if I make my bed in Sheol,
 look, You are there too.
⁹If I take the wings of the dawn and settle on the other side of the sea, ¹⁰even there Your hand will lead me,
 and Your right hand will lay hold of me.
¹¹If I say: “Surely darkness covers me, night keeps light at a distance from me,” ¹²even darkness is not dark for You, and night is as bright as day—darkness and light are alike.
¹³For You have created my conscience.
 You knit me together in my mother’s womb.

¹⁴I praise You,
for I am awesomely, wonderfully made!
Wonderful are Your works—and my soul knows that very well.

¹⁵My frame was not hidden from You when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

¹⁶Your eyes saw me when I was unformed, and in Your book were written the days that were formed—when not one of them had come to be.

¹⁷How precious are Your thoughts, O God!
How great is the sum of them!

¹⁸Were I to count them, they would outnumber
the grains of sand!
When I awake, I am still with You.

¹⁹If only You would slay the wicked, O God!
Away from me, you bloody men!

²⁰For they speak about You with wicked intent.
Your enemies reproach You in vain.

²¹Do I not hate those who hate You, ADONAI?
Do I not loathe those who rise against You?

²²I hate them with total hatred—
I consider them my enemies.

²³Search me, O God, and know my heart.
Examine me, and know
my anxious thoughts,

²⁴and see if there be any offensive way
within me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

Protection from the Wicked

¹For the music director: a psalm of David.

²Rescue me, ADONAI, from the evil man.
Protect me from the violent men—³who devise evil in their heart—every day they stir up wars.

⁴They sharpen their tongue like a serpent's
—viper's venom is under their lips.^a Selah

^a 140:4. cf. Rom. 3:13.

⁵Keep me safe, ADONAI, from the clutches of the wicked.
Protect me from the man of violence who planned to push me off my feet.

⁶The proud have hidden a trap and cords for me.
They spread out a net by the path.
They set snares for me. Selah

⁷I said to ADONAI: "You are my God!"
Hear, ADONAI, the sound of my supplications.

⁸God my Lord, the strength of my deliverance,
You shield my head in the day of battle.

⁹Grant not, ADONAI,
the desires of the wicked.
Do not let their evil plan succeed, or they will exalt themselves. Selah

¹⁰As for the head of those surrounding me, may the mischief of their lips overwhelm them.

¹¹Let burning coals fall upon them.
May they be cast into the fire, into deep pits, never to rise again.^b

¹²May a slanderer not endure in the land.
May calamity hunt down a violent man.

¹³I know ADONAI will vindicate the poor, and secure justice for the needy.

¹⁴Surely, the righteous ones will praise Your name.
The upright will dwell in Your presence.

141

Evening Petition for Protection

¹A psalm of David.
ADONAI, I call to You—come quickly to me!

Hear my voice when I call to You.
²May my prayer be set before You like incense.

May the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.

³Set a guard, ADONAI, over my mouth.
Keep watch over the door of my lips.

⁴Let not my heart turn to any evil thing,

^b 140:11. cf. John 15:6; Rev. 20:15.

to practice deeds of wickedness with men that work iniquity, nor let me eat of their delicacies.

⁵Let the righteous strike me—it is kindness.

Let him correct me—
it is oil on my head
—my head will not refuse it.

Yet still my prayer is against their wickedness.

⁶Their judges are thrown down from a cliff.

Then they will hear my words,
since they are sweet.

⁷As when one plows and breaks open the earth, so our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.

⁸For my eyes are toward You,
God my Lord.

In You I have taken refuge—do not expose my soul.

⁹Keep me from the jaws of the trap
they have laid for me, and from the snares of the evildoers.

¹⁰Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I pass by safely.

142

A Refuge from Trouble

¹A contemplative poem of David, when he was in the cave, a prayer.

²I cry aloud with my voice to ADONAI.
With my voice I seek favor from ADONAI.

³I pour out my complaint before Him, before Him I tell my trouble.

⁴When my spirit grows faint within me,
You know my path.

In the way where I walk
they have hidden a trap for me.

⁵Look at my right hand and see,
for no one cares about me.

I have no refuge—
no one cares for my soul.

⁶I have cried out to You, ADONAI.
I said: "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."

⁷Listen to my cry,
for I am brought very low.
Rescue me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.

⁸Bring my soul out of prison,
so I may praise Your Name.
The righteous will triumph through me,
for You will reward me.

143

Hide Not Your Face from Me

¹A psalm of David.
Hear my prayer, ADONAI, give ear to my petitions.
In Your faithfulness and Your righteousness, answer me!

²Do not bring Your servant into judgment, for in Your eyes no one living is righteous.

³For an enemy pursues my soul.
He crushes my life down to the ground.
He makes me dwell in darkness,
like those long dead.

⁴So my spirit grows faint within me.
My heart is shocked within me.

⁵I remember the days of old.
I meditate on all You have done.
I ponder the work of Your hands.

⁶I spread forth my hands to You.
My soul longs for You as a parched land.

Selah

⁷Answer me speedily, ADONAI—my spirit fails.

Hide not Your face from me,
lest I become like those who go down into the Pit.

⁸Make me hear Your lovingkindness in the morning, for in You I trust.

Show me the way I should go,
for to You I lift up my soul.

⁹Deliver me from my enemies, ADONAI.
I hide myself in You.

¹⁰Teach me to do Your will,
for You are my God.

Let Your good Ruach lead me on level ground.

¹¹For Your Name's sake, ADONAI, revive me.

In Your justice bring my soul out of trouble.

¹²In Your mercy cut off my enemies and destroy all who harass my soul, for I am Your servant.

144

Rescue from Battle

¹Of David.

Blessed be ADONAI my Rock—who trains my hands for war, my fingers for battle.

²He is my lovingkindness, my fortress,
my strong tower, and my deliverer,
my shield, in whom I take refuge, who subdues my people under me.

³ADONAI, what is man, that You take note of him?

Or the son of man,
that You consider him?^a ⁴Man is like a breath—his days are like a passing shadow.

⁵ADONAI, part Your heavens and come down.

Touch the mountains, so they smoke.

⁶Flash forth lightning and scatter them.
Send out Your arrows and confuse them.

⁷Stretch forth Your hands from on high.

Snatch me, deliver me out of deep waters,
out of the hand of foreigners,

⁸whose mouth speaks falsehood, whose right hand
is a right hand of deceit.

⁹God, I sing a new song to You, on a ten-string harp

I sing praises to You—

¹⁰who gives salvation to kings, who rescues Your servant David from the evil sword.

¹¹Snatch me, deliver me out of the hand of foreigners, whose mouth speaks falsehood,
whose right hand
is a right hand of deceit.

¹²Then our sons will be like plants nurtured in their youth, our daughters like corner pillars carved for the construction of a palace.

¹³Our storehouses are full, supplying every kind of produce.
Our flocks increase by thousands and ten thousands in our fields.

¹⁴Our oxen bear a heavy load.

There is no breach,
no going into captivity,
no outcry in our streets.

¹⁵Happy are such a people!
Blessed are the people whose God is ADONAI!

145

Glory of the Kingdom

¹A psalm of praise. Of David.

I will exalt You, my God, the King, and I will bless Your Name
forever and ever.

²Every day I will bless You, and praise Your Name forever and ever!

³Great is ADONAI, and greatly to be praised —His greatness is unsearchable.

⁴One generation will praise Your works to another and declare Your mighty acts.

⁵I will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty and Your wonders.

⁶They will speak of the might of Your awesome deeds, and I will proclaim Your greatness.

⁷They will pour out the renown of Your great goodness, and sing joyfully of Your righteousness.

⁸ADONAI is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger
and great in lovingkindness.

⁹ADONAI is good to all.
He has compassion on all His creatures.

¹⁰All Your works praise You, ADONAI, and Your kedoshim bless You.

¹¹They declare the glory of Your kingdom and speak of Your might,

¹²to make known to the sons of men
His mighty acts and the glory

^a 144:3. cf. Heb. 2:6.

of the majesty of His kingdom.

¹³Your kingdom is a kingdom for all ages, and Your dominion endures
from generation to generation.

¹⁴ADONAI upholds all who fall and raises up all who are bowed down.

¹⁵The eyes of all look to You and You give them their food on time.

¹⁶You open Your hand and satisfy every living thing with favor.

¹⁷ADONAI is righteous in all His ways and kind in all His deeds.

¹⁸ADONAI is near to all who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth.

¹⁹He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him.

He will hear their cry and save them.

²⁰ADONAI watches over all who love Him,
but all the wicked He will destroy.

²¹My mouth declares the praise of ADONAI.
Let all flesh bless His holy Name
forever and ever!

146

Justice of the Kingdom

¹Halleluyah! Praise ADONAI, O my soul!

²I will praise ADONAI all my life.

I will praise my God yet again.

³Do not put your trust in princes—in man, in whom there is no salvation.

⁴His breath departs,
he returns to his dust.

In that very day his plans perish.

⁵Happy is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in ADONAI his God,

⁶who made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is in them,
who keeps truth forever,

⁷who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives bread to the hungry.

ADONAI sets the prisoners free.

⁸ADONAI opens the eyes of the blind.^a

ADONAI raises up those who are bowed down.

^a 146:8. cf. Matt. 9:27-30.

ADONAI loves the righteous.

⁹ADONAI protects outsiders, upholds the fatherless and the widow,
but thwarts the way of the wicked.

¹⁰ADONAI will reign forever, your God, O Zion,
from generation to generation.

Halleluyah!

147

He Builds Up Jerusalem

¹Halleluyah!

How good it is to sing praises to our God.

How pleasant and fitting is praise.

²ADONAI builds up Jerusalem.

He gathers together the exiles of Israel.

³He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

⁴He determines the number of the stars.
He gives them all their names.

⁵Great is our Lord and mighty in power—
His understanding is infinite!

⁶ADONAI upholds the humble.
He brings the wicked to the ground.

⁷Sing to ADONAI with thanksgiving.
Sing praises to our God on the harp.

⁸He covers the sky with clouds.
He provides rain for the earth.

He makes grass sprout on the hills.

⁹He gives food to the cattle and to the young ravens which cry.

¹⁰He delights not in the horse's strength, nor takes pleasure in a man's legs.

¹¹ADONAI delights in those who revere Him, in those who trust in His lovingkindness.

¹²Exalt ADONAI, O Jerusalem!

Praise your God, O Zion!

¹³For He strengthens the bars of your gates.

He blesses your children within you.

¹⁴He puts shalom within your borders.
He satisfies you with the finest wheat.

¹⁵He sends earth His command—
His word runs swiftly.

¹⁶He gives snow like wool.

He scatters frost like ashes.
¹⁷He hurls down His hail like pebbles—who can stand before His cold?
¹⁸He sends forth His word and melts them.
 He makes His wind blow and waters flow.
¹⁹He declares His word to Jacob,
 His decrees and His rulings to Israel.
²⁰He has not done so with any other nation.
 They have not known His judgments.
Halleluyah!

148

Praise Him, All Creation!

¹*Halleluyah!*
 Praise ADONAI from the heavens!
 Praise Him in the highest!
²Praise Him all His angels!
 Praise Him all His armies.
³Praise Him, sun and moon!
 Praise Him, all stars of light.
⁴Praise Him, highest heavens, and waters above the heavens.
⁵Let them praise the Name of ADONAI, for He commanded and they were created.
⁶He set them in place forever and ever.
 He made a decree that will never pass away.
⁷Praise ADONAI from the earth, sea monsters and all depths, ⁸fire and hail, snow and vapor, storm wind doing His bidding, ⁹mountains and all hills,
 fruit trees and all cedars, ¹⁰beasts and all cattle,
 crawling things and winged birds, ¹¹kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of earth, ¹²both young men and maidens, old men and children.
¹³Let them praise the Name of ADONAI, for His Name alone is exalted.
 His glory is above earth and heaven.
¹⁴He has raised up a horn for His people,
 a praise for all His kedoshim,^b

^b 148:14. Heb. kedoshim; righteous or holy ones.

for the children of Israel—a people near to Him.
Halleluyah!

149

Praise with Singing and Dancing

¹*Halleluyah!* Sing to ADONAI a new song, His praise in the assembly of the kedoshim.
²Let Israel rejoice in its Maker.
 Let the children of Zion be glad in their King.
³Let them praise His Name with dancing.
 Let them sing praises to Him with tambourine and harp.
⁴For ADONAI takes pleasure in His people.
 He crowns the humble with salvation.
⁵Let the kedoshim exult in glory.
 Let them sing for joy on their beds.
⁶Let God's high praises be in their mouth and a two-edged sword in their hand—⁷to execute vengeance upon the nations and rebukes on the peoples, ⁸to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron, ⁹to carry out the sentence decreed—this is the glory of all His kedoshim.
Halleluyah!

150

Praise with Shofar and Cymbals

 Praise Him in His mighty expanse.
²Praise Him for His acts of power.
 Praise Him for His enormous greatness.
³Praise Him with the blast of the shofar.
 Praise Him with harp and lyre.
⁴Praise Him with tambourine and dance.
 Praise Him with string instruments and flute.
⁵Praise Him with clash of cymbals.
 Praise Him with resounding cymbals.
⁶Let every thing that has breath praise ADONAI. Halleluyah!

Proverbs

1

The Value of Wise Sayings

¹The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:

- ²to acquire wisdom and discipline,
to understand the words of insight, ³to receive instruction in wise behavior, righteousness, justice and fairness, ⁴to give discernment to the naïve, knowledge and discretion to the youth ⁵(let the wise listen and increase learning and the discerning obtain wise counsel) ⁶to understand a proverb and a puzzle, the sayings of the wise and their riddles.

The Wisdom of Parents

- ⁷The fear of ADONAI is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and discipline.
⁸Hear, my son, your father's instruction and forsake not your mother's teaching.
⁹For they are a garland of grace for your head and a chain to adorn your neck.

Avoid a Bloodthirsty Gang

- ¹⁰My son, if sinners entice you, do not give in.
¹¹Suppose they say: "Come with us!
Let's lie in wait for blood!
Let's ambush the innocent—
for no reason!
¹²Let's swallow them alive like Sheol—still healthy, as they go down to the Pit!
¹³We'll find all sorts of valuable things,
we'll fill our homes with loot!
¹⁴Throw your lot in with us—
we'll all have one wallet."
¹⁵My son, do not go along with them, keep your foot from their path—¹⁶for their feet run to evil and they are swift to shed blood.

- ¹⁷Surely it is useless to spread a net
in the eyes of all winged creatures!
¹⁸But they lie in wait for their own blood.
They ambush their own lives.
¹⁹Such is the fate of all gaining by violence.
it takes the life of its possessor.

Wisdom Calls, But Who Listens?

- ²⁰Wisdom calls aloud in the streets,
she raises her voice in public squares.
²¹She cries out above the commotion.
At the entrances of the city gates,
she utters her speech:
²²"How long will you naïve ones love simplicity, you scoffers delight in scoffing,
and you fools hate knowledge?
²³You are repulsed at my rebuke.
Behold, I pour out my heart to you,
I will make my words known to you.
²⁴Because you refused when I called,
and did not pay attention
when I stretched out my hand, ²⁵since you ignore all my advice and would not accept my rebuke, ²⁶I in turn will laugh at your calamity.
I will mock when dread comes on you, ²⁷when your terror comes like a storm and your calamity sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when trouble and distress
overwhelm you!
²⁸Then they will cry out to me, but I will not answer!
They will earnestly seek me,
but will not find me.
²⁹Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of ADONAI, ³⁰they would not accept my counsel,
they spurned all my reproof, ³¹so they will eat the fruit of their own way and be filled with their own schemes.
³²For the backsliding of the naïve will kill them and the complacency of fools

will destroy them.

³³But whoever pays attention to me will live securely, and be free from the fear of evil.”

2

Seek Treasures of Wisdom

¹My son, if you accept my words and treasure my mitzvot within you, ²making your ear attentive to wisdom, inclining your heart to discernment, ³yes if you call out for insight, lifting up your voice for discernment, ⁴if you seek her as silver and search for her as for hidden treasures, ⁵then you will know the fear of ADONAI and discover the knowledge of God.
⁶For ADONAI gives wisdom.^a Out of His mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
⁷He stores up sound wisdom
for the upright.
He is a shield to those who walk in integrity.
⁸He guards the paths of justice, and protects the way of His kedoshim.
⁹Then you will discern what is right and just and fair—every good path.
¹⁰For wisdom will enter your heart and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
¹¹Discretion will watch over you —discernment will guard you—¹²to deliver you from the way of evil, from those speaking perverse things, ¹³who leave the straight paths to walk in ways of darkness, ¹⁴who rejoice in doing wrong and delight in the perversity of evil, ¹⁵whose paths are crooked and are devious in their ways—¹⁶to deliver you from a seducing woman—
a wayward wife with seductive words, ¹⁷who forsakes the partner of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God.

^a 2:6a. cf. Jacob 1:5.

¹⁸For her house sinks down to death and her tracks to the dead.
¹⁹None who go to her return nor reach the paths of life.
²⁰So you will walk in the way of good men and keep to the paths of the righteous.
²¹For the upright will dwell in the land and the blameless will remain in it.
²²But the wicked will be cut off from the land and the treacherous uprooted from it.

3

In All Your Ways Acknowledge Him

¹My son, do not forget my teaching,^b but let your heart keep my mitzvot.
²For length of days and years of life, and shalom they will add to you.
³Let kindness and truth never leave you—bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.
⁴Then you will gain favor and a good name in the eyes of God and man.
⁵Trust in ADONAI with all your heart, lean not on your own understanding.
⁶In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.
⁷Do not be wise in your own eyes;
fear ADONAI and turn away from evil.
⁸It will be healing to your body and refreshment to your bones.
⁹Honor ADONAI with your wealth and with the first of your entire harvest.
¹⁰Then your barns will be filled with plenty,
your vats will overflow with new wine.

Discipline as the Father's Love

¹¹My son, never despise ADONAI's discipline or dread His correction.
¹²For ADONAI loves those He reproves, even as a father, the son in whom he delights.^c

^b 3:1a. Or, Torah.
^c 3:11-12. cf. Heb. 12:5-7.

Precious Pearls, A Tree of Life

- ¹³Happy is the man who finds wisdom and the man who gains understanding.
¹⁴For her trade-value is better than silver, and her yield better than fine gold.
¹⁵She is more precious than jewels and nothing you desire compares to her.
¹⁶Length of days is in her right hand.
In her left hand are riches and honor.
¹⁷Her ways are pleasant ways,
and all of her paths are shalom.
¹⁸She is a tree of life to those who embrace her,
and blessed will be all who hold firmly to her.
- ¹⁹By wisdom ADONAI founded the earth.
By understanding He established the heavens.
²⁰By His knowledge
the deeps were divided,
and the clouds drip dew.
- ²¹My son, hold on to sound wisdom and discernment,
do not let them out of your sight.
²²They will be life to your soul,
and an ornament to grace your neck.
²³Then you will walk on your way in safety, and your foot will not stumble.
²⁴When you lie down,
you will not be afraid;
when you lie down,
your sleep will be sweet.
²⁵Have no fear of sudden terror, or of the devastation of the wicked
when it comes.
²⁶For ADONAI will be your confidence and will keep your foot from a snare.
- ²⁷Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when it is in your power to act.
²⁸Do not say to your neighbor, “Come back later—I’ll give it tomorrow,” when you have it with you.
²⁹Do not plot evil against your neighbor

while he lives trustfully beside you.

- ³⁰Do not quarrel with a man for no reason
—if he has done you no harm.
³¹Do not envy a violent man or choose any of his ways.
³²For the devious are detestable to ADONAI, but He takes the upright into His confidence.
³³ADONAI’s curse is on a wicked house,
but He blesses a righteous home.
³⁴Though He scoffs at the scoffers,
He gives grace to the humble.^a ³⁵The wise inherit honor, but fools are held up in disgrace.

4A Father’s Lesson: Get Wisdom!

- ¹Listen, my sons, to a father’s instruction.
Pay attention, to gain understanding.
²For I give you sound learning—do not forsake my instruction:
³When I was a son to my father, tender and special to my mother, ⁴he taught me and said to me:
“Lay hold of my words in your heart, keep my commands and you will live!”
⁵Get wisdom! Get understanding!
Do not forget nor turn away from the words of my mouth.
⁶Do not forsake her,
and she will guard you.
Love her, and she will watch over you.
⁷Wisdom is supreme—acquire wisdom!
With all your acquisitions, get understanding.
⁸Prize her, and she will exalt you.
She will honor you when you embrace her.
⁹She will set a garland of grace on your head.
She will give you a crown of glory.”

Ways of Wisdom and Wickedness

- ¹⁰Listen, my son, and accept my words, so the years of your life will be many.

^a 3:34. cf. Jacob 4:6; 1Pet. 5:5.

- ¹¹I instructed you in the way of wisdom.
I have guided you along straight paths.
- ¹²When you walk,
your step will not be hindered,
and when you run, you will not stumble.
- ¹³Hold on tightly to instruction, do not let it go—guard it, for it is your life.
- ¹⁴Do not enter the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evil people.
- ¹⁵Avoid it—do not travel on it—turn away from it and pass by.
- ¹⁶For they cannot sleep until they do evil.
They are robbed of sleep until they make someone fall.
- ¹⁷For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
- ¹⁸The path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, shining brighter and brighter until the full day.
- ¹⁹The way of the wicked is like darkness.
They do not know what makes them stumble.
- ²⁰My son, pay attention to my words—incline your ear to my sayings.
- ²¹Do not let them out of your sight,
keep them within your heart.
- ²²For they are life to those who find them and health to their whole body.
- ²³Guard your heart diligently,
for from it flow the springs of life.
- ²⁴Put away perversity from your mouth, and keep devious lips far from you.
- ²⁵Let your eyes look directly ahead, and fix your gaze straight in front of you.
- ²⁶Clear a level path for your feet,
so all your ways will be firm.
- ²⁷Do not turn to the right or to the left.
Divert your foot from evil.

5

Beware Seduction

- ¹My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Incline your ear to my insight, ²that you may maintain discretion and your lips may preserve knowledge.

- ³For a seducing woman's lips drip honey and her mouth is smoother than oil.
- ⁴But in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a double-edged sword.
- ⁵Her feet go down to death,
her steps lead straight to Sheol.
- ⁶She does not keep straight to the path of life, her paths are crooked
—but she does not know it.
- ⁷So now, my sons, listen to me and do not turn aside from the words of my mouth.
- ⁸Keep your path far from her and do not go near the door of her house—⁹lest you give your strength to others and your years to one who is cruel; ¹⁰lest strangers feast on your strength, your labors go to a foreigner's house.
- ¹¹At the end of your life, you will groan, when your flesh and body are spent—¹²and you will say, "How I hated discipline!
How my heart spurned reproof!"
- ¹³I would not listen to my teacher's voice or incline my ear to my instructors.
- ¹⁴I was almost in utter ruin amid the community and congregation."
- ¹⁵Drink water from your own cistern and running water from your own well.
- ¹⁶Should your springs flow in the streets,
your streams of water in public squares?
- ¹⁷Let them be yours alone and not shared with strangers.
- ¹⁸May your fountain be blessed and may you delight in the wife of your youth.
- ¹⁹A lovely hind, a graceful doe—may her breasts satisfy you always, may you always be captivated by her love.
- ²⁰Why, my son, be captivated by a seducing woman?
Why embrace a foreigner's bosom?
- ²¹For a man's ways are before the eyes of ADONAI, and He observes all his paths.

- ²²The iniquities of a wicked man will ensnare him.
The cords of his sin will hold him down.
²³He will die for lack of discipline, led astray by his own great folly.

6

Economic Entanglements

- ¹My son, if you have become a cosigner for your neighbor, if you have shaken hands
in pledge with a stranger, ²if you are trapped by your own words, ensnared by the words of your mouth, ³then do this, my son, and free yourself,
since you fell into your neighbor's hand:
Go, humble yourself,
plead with your neighbor!
⁴Allow no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.
⁵Escape like a gazelle from the hunter's hand,
like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

Laziness and Perversity

- ⁶Go to the ant, you slacker—
consider its ways and be wise!
⁷It has no commander,
no overseer or ruler.
⁸Yet it prepares its provisions in summer and gathers its food at harvest.
⁹How long will you lie there, slacker?
When will you get up from your sleep?
¹⁰A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep—¹¹and your poverty comes like a bandit and your need like an armed man.
¹²A scoundrel, a wicked man, is one who goes around with a perverse mouth, ¹³winking his eyes,
shuffling his feet, pointing his fingers, ¹⁴who continually plots evil with deceit in his heart stirring up strife.

- ¹⁵Therefore his disaster will come suddenly —in an instant he will be broken, with no remedy.

- ¹⁶Six things ADONAI hates, yes, seven are abominations to Him:
¹⁷haughty eyes,
a lying tongue,
hands that shed innocent blood, ¹⁸a heart that plots wicked schemes, feet that run to evil, ¹⁹a false witness who spouts lies,
and one who stirs up strife
among brothers.

A Father's Warning Against Adultery

- ²⁰My son, keep your father's mitzvah,
and forsake not your mother's teaching.
²¹Bind them on your heart continually—tie them around your neck.
²²When you walk, they will guide you.
When you lie down,
they will watch over you,
and when you wake up,
they will speak to you.
²³For the mitzvah is a lamp, Torah a light, and corrective discipline the way of life, ²⁴keeping you from the immoral woman, from a wayward wife's smooth tongue.
²⁵Do not lust in your heart after her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyelids.
²⁶For on account of a prostitute one is reduced to a loaf of bread;
a man's wife preys on your precious life.
²⁷Can a man scoop fire into his lap without burning his clothes?
²⁸Or can a man walk upon hot coals without scorching his feet?
²⁹So is he who goes to another man's wife.
No one who touches her will go unpunished.
³⁰Men do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is starving.
³¹Yet if he is caught,
he must repay sevenfold,
giving up all the wealth of his house.

- ³²He who commits adultery with a woman lacks sense.
Whoever does so destroys himself.
- ³³He will find disease and disgrace.
His shame will never be wiped away.
- ³⁴For jealousy enrages a man and he will show no mercy in the day of revenge.
- ³⁵He will not accept any compensation,
he will not consent,
even if your bribe is great.

7

Treasure Torah's Teaching

- ¹My son, keep my words
and treasure my mitzvot within you.
- ²Keep my mitzvot and live,
my teaching as the apple of your eye.
- ³Bind them on your fingers,
write them on the tablet of your heart.
- ⁴Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call understanding your relative.
- ⁵They will keep you from a seducing woman, from the foreign woman
with her seductive speech.
- ⁶For at the window of my house
I looked out through my lattice.
- ⁷I saw among the naïve,
I noticed among the youth,
a young man lacking understanding,
- ⁸crossing the street near her corner, walking in the direction of her house,
- ⁹in the twilight of the evening, in the darkest hours of the night.
- ¹⁰All of a sudden, a woman meets him, dressed as a prostitute and with a cunning heart.
- ¹¹She is loud and defiant.
Her feet never stay at home—
- ¹²now in the streets, now in the squares, at every corner she lurks.
- ¹³So she grabs him and kisses him and with a brazen face says to him:
- ¹⁴"I had to sacrifice fellowship offerings;
today I paid my vow.

- ¹⁵So I've come out to meet you, to seek your presence eagerly—and I found you!
- ¹⁶I have spread my couch with tapestry of dyed Egyptian linens.
- ¹⁷I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
- ¹⁸Come, let's drink our fill of love
till morning!
Let's delight ourselves with love.
- ¹⁹For my husband is not at home—
he's gone on a long journey.
- ²⁰He took a bag of money with him—
he won't come home until full moon."
- ²¹With her persistent pleading
she entices him,
with smooth talk she seduces him.
- ²²Suddenly he follows her like an ox going to the slaughter, like a stag bounding toward a trap,
- ²³till an arrow pierces its liver.
Like a bird darting into a snare,
he never considered his own soul!
- ²⁴Now then, sons, listen to me,
pay attention to the words of my mouth.
- ²⁵Do not let your heart turn to her ways or stray onto her paths.
- ²⁶For many are the victims
she has brought down,
and numerous are all her slain.
- ²⁷Her house is a highway to Sheol, leading down to the chambers of death.

8

Wisdom Appeals at the Gates

- ¹Does not wisdom cry out, and understanding lift her voice?
- ²On the topmost heights along the way,
at the crossroads, she takes her stand.
- ³Beside the gates leading into the city, at the entrances, she cries aloud:
- ⁴"To you, O men, I call out!
My cry is to all mankind!
- ⁵O naïve ones, learn prudence!
Fools, gain understanding!
- ⁶Listen, for I speak excellent things, and my lips utter right things.

⁷For my mouth speaks truth, and my lips detest wickedness.
⁸All the words of my mouth are righteous,
 Nothing in them is perverse or crooked.
⁹All of them are straightforward to the discerning,
 and right to those who find knowledge.
¹⁰Receive my instruction instead of silver and knowledge rather than choice gold.
¹¹For wisdom is better than jewels, nothing you desire compares with her.

¹²"I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and acquire knowledge with discretion.
¹³To fear ADONAI is to hate evil.
 I hate pride and arrogance, evil behavior and a perverse mouth.
¹⁴Counsel and sound wisdom are mine.
 I have understanding and power.
¹⁵By me kings reign and princes decree justice.
¹⁶By me princes govern, and all nobles who judge righteously.
¹⁷I love those who love me.
 Those who earnestly seek me find me.¹
¹⁸With me are wealth and honor, enduring riches and righteousness.
¹⁹My fruit is better than refined gold,
 my harvest better than choice silver.
²⁰I walk in the way of righteousness, along paths of justice.
²¹I endow substance to those who love me and fill their treasures.

Wisdom Before Creation

²²"ADONAI brought me forth, the first of His way,
 before His works of old.
²³From eternity I was appointed from the beginning, before the world began.
²⁴When there were no depths,
 I was brought forth, when there were no fountains abounding with water.
²⁵Before the mountains were shaped,

before the hills, I was brought forth.
²⁶He had not yet made the land,
 the fields, or the first dust of the earth.
²⁷When He set the heavens in place,
 I was there.
 When He inscribed the horizon
 on the face of the ocean, ²⁸when He established the skies above, when He securely fixed the fountains of the deep, ²⁹when He set the boundaries for the sea,
 so that the waters never transgress
 His command,
 when He laid out earth's foundations-³⁰then I was the craftsman beside Him,
 I was His daily delight, always rejoicing before Him, ³¹rejoicing in His whole world, and delighting in mankind.

³²"So now, children, listen to me!
 Blessed are those who keep my ways.
³³Heed discipline and be wise, and do not neglect it.
³⁴Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at my doorposts.
³⁵For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from ADONAI.
³⁶But whoever fails to find me harms his life--- all who hate me love death."

9

Wisdom and Folly Invite ¹Wisdom has built her house.

 She has carved out her seven pillars.
²She has slaughtered her meat,
 she has mixed her wine;
 she has also set her table.
³She has sent out her servant girls.
 She calls from the city's heights:
⁴"Whoever is naive, turn in here!"
 To those who lack understanding,
 she says:
⁵"Come, eat my bread and drink the wine I have mixed.

- ⁶Abandon your foolish ways and live!
Walk in the way of understanding.”
- ⁷Whoever corrects a scoffer is asking for insult.
Whoever reproves a wicked man gets abuse.
- ⁸Do not correct a scoffer or he will hate you.
Rebuke a wise man
and he will love you.
- ⁹Instruct a wise man and he will be wiser still.
teach a righteous man and he will increase in learning.
- ¹⁰The fear of ADONAI
is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
- ¹¹For through me your days will be many and years will be added to your life.
- ¹²If you are wise, you are wise to your own advantage,
but if you scoff, you bear it alone.
- ¹³The foolish woman is rowdy.
She is naïve and knows nothing.
- ¹⁴So she sits at the door of her house,
on a seat in the heights of the city, ¹⁵calling to those who pass by,
who go straight on their way:
- ¹⁶“Whoever is naïve, let him turn in here.”
To those who lack understanding,
she says:
- ¹⁷“Stolen water is sweet and bread eaten in secret is delicious!”
- ¹⁸But he does not know that the dead are there—her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

10

Diligence and Laziness

¹The proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son gives joy to his father,
but a foolish son grief to his mother.

²Ill-gotten treasures profit nothing,
but righteousness delivers from death.

- ³ADONAI will not let a righteous soul go hungry,
but thwarts the cravings of the wicked.
- ⁴Lazy hands make a man poor,
but diligent hands bring wealth.
- ⁵He who gathers crops in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during harvest is a disgraceful son.

Sayings of the Mouth Matter

- ⁶Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
but the mouth of the wicked
conceals violence.
- ⁷The memory of the righteous is a blessing,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
- ⁸The wise in heart accept commands, but a babbling fool comes to ruin.
- ⁹One who walks in integrity, walks securely,
but one who takes crooked paths will be discovered.
- ¹⁰One who winks an eye maliciously causes grief,
while a babbling fool comes to ruin.
- ¹¹The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, but the mouth of the wicked
conceals violence.
- ¹²Hatred stirs up strife
but love covers up all transgressions.
- ¹³Wisdom is found on the lips
of the discerning,
but a rod is for the back of one lacking sense.
- ¹⁴Wise men store up knowledge,
but the mouth of a fool is near ruin.
- ¹⁵The wealth of a rich man is a strong city.
Poverty is the ruin of the poor.
- ¹⁶The wages of the righteous are life.
The income of the wicked is sin.^b
- ¹⁷One who heeds discipline is on the path of life, but whoever ignores correction goes astray.

^b 10:16. cf. Rom. 6:23.

- ¹⁸One who conceals hatred has lying lips,
and whoever spreads slander is a fool.
- ¹⁹When words abound, transgression is unavoidable.
but whoever restrains his lips is wise.
- ²⁰The tongue of the righteous is choice silver.
The heart of the wicked is of little value.
- ²¹The lips of the righteous feed many,
but fools die for lack of understanding.

Dread or Hope

- ²²The blessing of ADONAI brings wealth and He adds no trouble with it.
- ²³As doing wickedness is delight to a fool,
so is wisdom to a man of discernment.
- ²⁴What the wicked dread will fall on them.
The desire of the righteous will be given.
- ²⁵When the whirlwind passes,
the wicked are no more,
but the foundation of the righteous is everlasting.
- ²⁶Like vinegar to the teeth or smoke to the eyes,
so is a slacker to those who send him.
- ²⁷The fear of ADONAI prolongs life, but the years of the wicked are cut short.
- ²⁸The prospect of the righteous is joy,
but the hope of the wicked perishes.
- ²⁹The way of ADONAI is a stronghold to the upright,
but it is a ruin to those who do evil.
- ³⁰The righteous will never be uprooted,
but the wicked will not dwell in the land.
- ³¹The mouth of the righteous bears the fruit of wisdom, but a perverse tongue will be cut out.
- ³²The lips of the righteous know what is pleasing,
but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

11

Integrity of Scales and Soul

- ¹Dishonest scales
are an abomination to ADONAI,

- but an accurate weight is His delight.
- ²When pride comes, then comes disgrace,
but with the humble is wisdom.
- ³The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous
will destroy them.
- ⁴Riches make no profit in the day of wrath,
but righteousness delivers from death.
- ⁵The righteousness of the blameless man makes his way straight, but the wicked man is brought down by his wickedness.
- ⁶The righteousness of the upright delivers them,
but the treacherous are trapped by their desire.

Righteousness Builds Up a City

- ⁷When the wicked dies, his hope perishes, and the hope of the strong vanishes.
- ⁸The righteous is rescued from trouble.
Instead it comes on the wicked.
- ⁹With his mouth the ungodly destroys his neighbor, but through knowledge the righteous will be delivered.
- ¹⁰When the righteous do well,
a city rejoices.
When the wicked perish,
there are shouts of joy.
- ¹¹Through the blessing of the upright
a city is exalted, but by the mouth of the wicked
it is destroyed.
- ¹²One who despises his neighbor lacks sense,
but one with discernment
remains silent.
- ¹³A gossip reveals secrets, but one who is trustworthy conceals a matter.
- ¹⁴Without guidance people fall,
with many counselors there is deliverance.
- ¹⁵Whoever puts up security for a stranger will have trouble,

but whoever avoids shaking hands on such a deal is secure.

Rewards for Righteous or Ruthless

- ¹⁶A gracious woman gains honor, but ruthless men seize riches.
- ¹⁷A kind man does his own soul good,
but a cruel man harms his own flesh.
- ¹⁸The wicked earn deceptive wages, but a sower of righteousness reaps a true reward.
- ¹⁹Steadfast righteousness leads to life, but pursuing evil ends in death.
- ²⁰Perverse hearts
are an abomination to ADONAI.
His favor is on those blameless in their ways.
- ²¹Be sure,^a the evil will not go unpunished, but the offspring of the righteous
will be delivered.
- ²²Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
- ²³The desire of the righteous is only good,
but the hope of the wicked only wrath.
- ²⁴One gives freely, yet gains even more.
Another withholds unjustly, and comes to poverty.
- ²⁵A soul who blesses will prosper, and one who gives water will himself be satisfied.
- ²⁶People curse anyone withholding grain, but blessing is on the head of one who dispenses it.
- ²⁷A person who diligently seeks good finds favor,
but to one who searches for evil,
evil comes to him!
- ²⁸Whoever trusts in his riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf.
- ²⁹Whoever troubles his own household will inherit wind, and the fool will be a servant
to the wise-hearted.
- ³⁰The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
and whoever wins souls is wise.

³¹If the righteous is rewarded on earth, how much more the wicked and the sinner!^b

12

The Righteous and the Wicked

- ¹Whoever loves knowledge loves correction,
but whoever hates reproof is stupid.
- ²A good man obtains favor from ADONAI, but He condemns a person with evil schemes.
- ³No one is made secure by wickedness, but a righteous root will not be moved.
- ⁴A virtuous wife is her husband's crown, but a dishonoring one is like rotteness in his bones.
- ⁵The plans of the righteous are just,
but the counsels of the wicked are deceitful.
- ⁶The words of the wicked lie in wait for blood, but the mouth of the upright
delivers them.
- ⁷The wicked are overthrown and are no more,
but the household of the righteous will stand.
- ⁸A man is praised according to his insight,
but one with a twisted mind is despised.
- ⁹Better to have little honor and a servant than to have glory and no bread.

Caring for Animals and Land

- ¹⁰A righteous person cares for the life of his animal, yet even the compassion of the wicked is cruel.
- ¹¹The one who works his land will have plenty of food, but whoever chases daydreams
lacks sense.

^a 11:21a. Lit. Hand to hand. Meaning of Hebrew uncertain.

^b 11:31. cf. 1Pet. 4:18.

¹²The wicked covets the loot of evil men, but the root of the righteous flourishes.

Fruit of Mouth

¹³An evil one is ensnared by the sin of lips, but the righteous one escapes trouble.

¹⁴By the fruit of his mouth
a man will be satisfied with good.
The work of a man's hands will reward him.

¹⁵A fool's way is right in his own eyes,
but the wise listen to advice.

¹⁶A fool shows his irritation immediately, but a prudent person overlooks an insult.

¹⁷A trustworthy witness tells what is right, but a false witness, deceit.

¹⁸Reckless speech is like the thrusts of a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

¹⁹Truthful lips endure forever,
but a lying tongue for only a moment.

²⁰Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil,
but those promoting shalom have joy.

²¹No harm befalls the righteous,
but the wicked are full of misery.

²²Lying lips are detestable to ADONAI,
but those who act faithfully are His delight.

²³A clever person conceals his knowledge, but the heart of a fool blurts out folly.

Diligence or Sloth

²⁴The hand of the diligent will rule, but the lazy will become forced labor.

²⁵An anxious heart weighs one down, but a good word cheers him up.

²⁶The righteous gives his friend guidance,
but the way of the wicked leads astray.

²⁷A lazy person does not roast his game, but a diligent person prizes his possessions.

²⁸In the path of righteousness is life—it is a path to immortality.

13

Guard the Way of Integrity

¹A wise son heeds his father's discipline, but a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

²From the fruit of a man's mouth
he enjoys good things, but the treacherous crave violence.

³He who watches his mouth protects his life, but whoever opens wide his lips comes to ruin.

⁴The slacker's soul craves, yet has nothing, but the diligent soul will be satisfied.

⁵A righteous person hates lying,
but the wicked acts in shameful disgrace.

⁶Righteousness guards one who walks in integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner.

⁷One pretends to be rich, yet has nothing;
another pretends to be poor,
yet has great wealth.^a ⁸A man's riches may ransom his life, but a poor person hears no threat.

⁹The light of the righteous shines brightly.
The lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.

¹⁰Arrogance yields nothing but strife.
Wisdom belongs to those who take advice.

¹¹Wealth gained by fraud dwindles,
but he who gathers by labor increases it.

¹²Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but longing fulfilled is a tree of life.

¹³Whoever despises instruction will pay a penalty, but whoever respects a mitzvah
will be rewarded.

¹⁴Wise instruction is a fountain of life,

^a 13:7. cf. 2Cor. 6:10.

turning one away from snares of death.

¹⁵Good understanding wins favor, but the way of the unfaithful is hard.

¹⁶Everyone shrewd acts with knowledge, but a fool flaunts folly.

The Wise and the Foolish

¹⁷A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a faithful envoy brings healing.

¹⁸He who spurns discipline comes to poverty and shame, but whoever accepts correction
will be honored.

¹⁹A desire fulfilled is sweet to the soul,
but fools detest turning away from evil.

²⁰He who walks with wise men is wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.

²¹Misfortune pursues sinners, but prosperity rewards the righteous.

²²A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored up
for the righteous.

²³The fallow field of the poor yields much food,
but it is swept away by injustice.

²⁴He who spares the rod hates his son, but he who loves him is diligent with discipline.^b

²⁵The righteous eats to his heart's content, but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

14

Wisdom Builds Up, Folly Tears Down

¹A wise woman builds her house, but a foolish one tears it down with her own hands.

²The one who walks uprightly fears ADONAI, but one devious in his ways despises Him.

³In the mouth of a fool is a rod for his back, but the lips of the wise protect them.

⁴Where there are no oxen,
the stalls are clean,
but from the strength of the ox comes an abundant harvest.

⁵A trustworthy witness does not lie, but a false witness breathes out lies.

⁶A scoffer seeks wisdom yet finds none, but knowledge is easy to the discerning.

⁷Walk away from a fool—for you will find no knowledge on his lips.

⁸The wisdom of the prudent is to consider his way, but the folly of fools is deception.

⁹Fools mock guilt of sin, but among the upright is goodwill.

¹⁰The heart knows its own bitterness, and no one else can share its joy.

¹¹The house of the wicked will be demolished,
but the tent of the upright will flourish.

¹²There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.

¹³Even in laughter the heart may ache, and the end of joy may be grief.

¹⁴A backsliding heart partakes of its ways, and a good man is rewarded for his.

¹⁵The naïve believes every word,
but the shrewd discerns his steps.

¹⁶The wise fears and turns away from evil, but the fool is hotheaded and reckless.

¹⁷One with a short temper acts foolishly, and one with crafty schemes is hated.

¹⁸The naïve inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

¹⁹Evil men will bow in the presence of the good,

^b 13:24. cf. Heb. 12:7.

and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

Poverty and Riches

²⁰The poor is hated even by his neighbor, but many are those who love the rich.

²¹Whoever despises his neighbor sins, but whoever is gracious to the needy is blessed.

²²Indeed those who plot evil go astray but grace and truth come to those who plan good.

²³In all hard work there is profit, but mere talk leads only to poverty.

²⁴The crown of the wise is their riches,
but the folly of fools is foolishness.

²⁵A truthful witness saves lives, but one who utters lies is treacherous.

²⁶In the fear of ADONAI
one has strong confidence.
It will be a refuge for His children.

²⁷The fear of ADONAI is a fountain of life, turning one from the snares of death.

²⁸A large population is a king's glory,
but lack of subjects is a prince's ruin.

²⁹One who is slow to anger shows great understanding, but a quick-tempered one exalts folly.

³⁰A tranquil heart is life to the body, but envy is rottenness to the bones.

³¹The one who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker, but whoever is kind to the needy honors Him.

³²The wicked is brought down in his calamity
yet the righteous has a refuge even in death.

³³Wisdom rests in the heart of the discerning,
and even among fools she is known.

³⁴Righteousness exalts a nation,
but sin is a disgrace to any people.

³⁵The king shows favor toward a servant who acts wisely,
but his wrath is on one who is disgraceful.

15

Tongue of the Wise

¹A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

²The tongue of the wise treats knowledge correctly, but the mouth of fools spouts folly.

³The eyes of ADONAI are everywhere, observing the wicked and the good.

⁴A healing tongue is a tree of life, but a deceitful one crushes the spirit.

⁵A fool despises his father's discipline, but one who accepts reproof is smart.

⁶The house of the righteous has great wealth, but the income of the wicked brings trouble.

⁷The lips of the wise spread knowledge, but not so the heart of fools.

⁸The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to ADONAI, but the prayer of the upright pleases him.

Pursue Righteousness and Reproof

⁹ADONAI detests the way of the wicked, but loves those who pursue righteousness.

¹⁰Stern correction awaits one who forsakes the way.
One who hates reproof will die.

¹¹*Sheol* and Abaddon^a are before ADONAI—how much more the hearts of people!

¹²A mocker dislikes one who corrects him;
he will not go to the wise.

Heart Attitude Matters

¹³A joyful heart makes the face cheerful,

^a 15:11a. Or "Death and Destruction".

- but heartache crushes the spirit.
¹⁴A discerning heart seeks knowledge,
 but the mouth of fools feeds on folly.
¹⁵All the days of the afflicted are bad, but a cheerful heart has a continual feast.
¹⁶Better is little with the fear of ADONAI than great wealth with turmoil.
¹⁷Better a meal of vegetables where there is love, than a fattened ox
 where there is hatred.
¹⁸A hot-tempered man stirs up strife, but one who is slow to anger calms a quarrel.
¹⁹The way of the slacker is a hedge of thorns,
 but the path of the upright is a highway.
²⁰A wise child brings joy to his father,
 but a foolish person despises his mother.
²¹Folly is joy to one who lacks sense,
 but one with discernment
 walks straight.
²²Plans fail when there is no counsel, but with many advisers they succeed.
²³A person has joy in an appropriate answer—
 how good is a timely word.
²⁴The path of life leads upward for the wise
 to keep him from going down to Sheol.
²⁵ADONAI tears down a proud man's house,
 but He maintains the widow's boundary.
²⁶Evil thoughts are an abomination to ADONAI,
 but pleasant words are pure.
²⁷One greedy for gain troubles his household, but whoever hates bribes will live.
²⁸A righteous heart thinks before answering,
 but a wicked mouth blurts out evil things.

²⁹ADONAI is far from the wicked, but hears the prayer of the righteous.^b

³⁰Bright eyes bring joy to the heart.
 Good news gives health to the bones.

³¹One whose ear heeds a life-giving reproof dwells among the wise.

³²Whoever avoids correction despises himself, but whoever heeds reproof acquires understanding.

³³The fear of ADONAI is the discipline of wisdom,
 and humility comes before honor.

16

Commit Your Heart to ADONAI

- ¹The plans of the heart belong to man,
 but the tongue's answer is from ADONAI.
²All a man's ways are pure in his own eyes,
 but ADONAI weighs the motives.
³Commit whatever you do to ADONAI, and your plans will succeed. - - ⁴ADONAI works everything out for his own purpose—
 even the wicked for a day of disaster.
⁵ADONAI abhors all the proud in heart.
 Be assured, they will not go unpunished.
⁶By mercy and truth is iniquity atoned, and by the fear of ADONAI one avoids evil.
⁷When one's ways are pleasing to ADONAI, he makes even his enemies be at peace with him.
⁸Better a little with righteousness than much income without justice.
⁹The heart of man plans his course, but ADONAI directs his steps.

The Delights of a Just King

- ¹⁰An oracle is on the lips of the king—let his mouth never be treacherous in judgment.

^b 15:29. cf. John 9:31.

- ¹¹Honest balances and scales are ADONAI's.
All the weights in a bag are His handiwork.
- ¹²Wrongdoing is an abomination to kings, for a throne is established by righteousness.
- ¹³Righteous lips are the delight of kings.
He loves those who speak honestly.
- ¹⁴A king's fury is like messengers of death,
but a wise man will appease it.
- ¹⁵In the light of a king's face there is life,
and his favor like a cloud of spring rain.
- ¹⁶How much better to get wisdom than gold, to choose understanding rather than silver.
- ¹⁷The highway of the upright avoids evil.
He who guards his way protects his life.
- ¹⁸Pride goes before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall.
- ¹⁹Better to be lowly in spirit with the afflicted than to share the spoil with the proud.
- ²⁰One prudent in a matter will find good, blessed is the one who trusts in ADONAI.
- ²¹The wise in heart is called discerning, and sweetness of lips increases persuasiveness.
- ²²Insight is a fountain of life to one who has it,
but folly leads to the discipline of fools.
- ²³A wise man's heart teaches his mouth and adds persuasiveness to his lips.
- ²⁴Pleasant words are honeycomb—sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.
- ²⁵There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.
- ²⁶A laborer's appetite works on his behalf, for his hunger drives him on.

Slow to Anger

- ²⁷A wicked scoundrel digs up evil,

- and on his lips is a scorching fire.¹
- ²⁸A perverse person sows strife, and a gossip separates close friends.
- ²⁹A violent person lures his neighbor, leading him down a path that is no good.
- ³⁰One who winks his eyes schemes deceit,
one who purses his lips is bent on evil.
- ³¹Gray hair is a crown of glory, found on the path of righteousness.
- ¹²Better to be slow to anger than a mighty warrior.
One who controls his temper is better than one who conquers a city.
- ¹³The lot is cast into the lap,
but their very decision is from ADONAI.

17

Beware Bribes and Rebellion

- ¹Better is dry crust with peace and quiet than a house full of feasting with strife.
- ²A wise servant will rule over a disgraceful son and will share the inheritance with the brothers.
- ³A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold,
but ADONAI tests the heart.
- ⁴An evildoer listens to wicked lips;
a liar listens to a malicious tongue.
- ⁵Whoever mocks the poor
insults his Maker.
Whoever rejoices at calamity will not go unpunished.
- ⁶Grandchildren are the crown of the elderly and the glory of children is their parents.
- ⁷Arrogant lips are not fitting for a fool, much less lying lips for a ruler.

¹ 16:27, cf. Jacob 3:6.

⁸A bribe is a charm
in the eyes of its owner.
Wherever he turns, he succeeds.

⁹Whoever covers up an offense seeks love.^b Whoever repeats a matter separates close friends.

¹⁰A rebuke makes a greater impression on a discerning person than a hundred lashes on a fool.

¹¹An evil man seeks only rebellion, and so a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

¹²Better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than to deal with a fool in his folly.

¹³Whoever rewards evil for good—evil will never leave his house.

¹⁴The beginning of strife is like letting out water—
so stop a quarrel before it breaks out.

¹⁵Acquitting the wicked and condemning the righteous:
both are an abomination to ADONAI.

¹⁶Of what use is money in the hand of a fool since he has no intention of acquiring wisdom?

¹⁷A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

¹⁸A man lacking judgment shakes hands on a deal and puts up financial security for his neighbor.

¹⁹He who loves sin loves strife.
One who builds a high gate invites destruction.

²⁰A perverse heart finds nothing good a devious tongue falls into trouble.

²¹Whoever fathers a fool gets grief.
There is no joy for the father of a disgraceful son.

²²A cheerful heart is good medicine,
but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.

²³The wicked one receives a bribe in secret to pervert the ways of justice.

²⁴Wisdom is before the person of understanding, but the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

²⁵A foolish son is grief to his father and bitterness to her that bore him.

²⁶Also, to punish a righteous person is not good, nor to beat up an honorable one for his integrity.

²⁷One with knowledge restrains his words, and a discerning person stays calm.

²⁸Even a fool, who keeps quiet, is considered wise,
discerning, if he seals his lips.

18

A Fool's Big Mouth

¹One who isolates oneself seeks his own desire;
he defies all sound judgment.

²A fool finds no delight in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.

³When wickedness comes,
so does contempt,
and with dishonor comes disgrace.

⁴The words of one's mouth are deep waters,
a fountain of wisdom, a flowing brook.

⁵Showing partiality to the wicked is not good,
nor is depriving the innocent of justice.

⁶The lips of a fool enter into an argument and his mouth invites a beating.

⁷A fool's mouth is his ruin, and his lips are a snare to his soul.

^b 17:9a. cf. Jacob 5:20; 1Pet. 4:8.

⁸The words of a gossip are tasty morsels, going down into one's innermost being.

⁹One who is slack in his work is brother to one who destroys.

¹⁰The Name of ADONAI is a strong tower.
The righteous one runs into it and is set safely up high.

¹¹A rich person's wealth is a strong city or like a high wall—in his imagination.

¹²Before ruin a person's heart is proud, but humility comes before honor.

¹³One who answers before listening—that is his folly and his shame.

¹⁴One's spirit sustains him through illness,
but who can bear a crushed spirit?

¹⁵A discerning heart gains knowledge,
the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

Overcoming Opposition and Offenses

¹⁶A man's gift makes room for him, and leads him before great men.

¹⁷The first to state his case seems just, until another comes and cross-examines him.

¹⁸Casting lots ends quarrels and decides between mighty opponents.

¹⁹An offended brother is more formidable than a fortified city, and quarrels are like the bars of a fortress.

²⁰From the fruit of his mouth a man's stomach is filled—with the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.

²¹Death and life are in the control of the tongue.
Those who indulge in it will eat its fruit.

²²Whoever finds a wife finds good,
and receives favor from ADONAI.

²³The poor request favor,

but the rich answer harshly.

²⁴A man with many friends may be harmed by them,
but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

19

Better to be Poor with Integrity

¹Better to be poor, walking with integrity, than be a fool whose lips are corrupt.

²Zeal without knowledge is not good,^a or to act hastily and miss the way.

³A man's folly undermines his way, and his heart rages against ADONAI.

⁴Wealth adds many friends,
yet a poor man is deserted by his friend.

⁵A false witness will not go unpunished, one who breathes lies will not escape.

⁶Many seek the favor of the generous.
Everyone is a friend to a giver of gifts.

⁷All a poor man's relatives despise him—how much more his friends avoid him.
He pursues them with words,
but they are not there.

⁸One who gets wisdom loves his own soul.
One who treasures understanding prosper.

⁹A false witness will not go unpunished, and one who breathes lies will perish.

¹⁰Luxury is not fitting for a fool—how much less for a servant to rule over princes!

Watch Your Temper

¹¹Prudence makes one slow to anger and his glory is to overlook an offense.

¹²A king's wrath is like a roaring lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

¹³A foolish son is trouble for his father, and a quarrelsome wife is constant dripping.

¹⁴House and wealth are an inheritance from fathers,

^a 19:2a. cf. Rom. 10:2.

but a prudent wife is from ADONAI.

¹⁵Laziness brings on deep sleep, and an idle soul will starve.

¹⁶One who keeps a mitzvah guards his soul,
but one who neglects His ways will die.

¹⁷One who is kind to the poor lends to ADONAI, and ADONAI will reward him for his good deed.

¹⁸Discipline your son while there is hope.
Do not set your heart on his death.

¹⁹One with great rage will pay a penalty.
For if you rescue him,
you will have to do it again.

Listen to Wise Counsel

²⁰Listen to advice and accept instruction, so that in the end you may be wise.

²¹Many are the plans in a man's heart, but the counsel of ADONAI will stand.

²²What is desired in a man is loyalty, and a poor person is better than a liar.

²³The fear of ADONAI leads to life, and he who has it rests satisfied, untouched by harm.

Sluggards, Scoffers, and Disgraceful Sons

²⁴The slacker buries his hand in a bowl and will not even bring it back to his mouth!

²⁵Strike a scoffer and the naïve will learn caution.
rebuke a discerning person and he will gain knowledge.

²⁶He who robs his father and drives away his mother is a son who brings shame and disgrace!

²⁷My son, if you stop heeding instruction, you will stray from words of knowledge.

²⁸A crooked witness scorns justice, and a wicked mouth devours iniquity.

²⁹Judgments are prepared for scoffers, and floggings for the back of fools.

20

¹Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler.
Whoever is led astray by them is unwise.

²The terror of a king is like a lion's growl.
Whoever provokes him endangers his life.

³It is honor for one to resolve a dispute, yet every fool quarrels.

⁴A slacker will not plow in season,
so at harvest he looks but finds nothing.

⁵The intent of a man's heart is deep water, but a man of insight draws it out.

Loyalty, Integrity, Justice

⁶Many a man proclaims his loyalty, but a faithful man who can find?^b

⁷A righteous person walks in integrity.
Blessed are his children after him.

⁸A king sitting on the throne to judge separates out all evil with his eyes.

⁹Who can say: "I have kept my heart pure;
I am cleansed from my sin"?^c

¹⁰Unequal weights and measures—^d
both are an abomination to ADONAI.

¹¹Even a child is known by his actions, whether his conduct is pure and upright.

¹²Ears that hear and eyes that see—
ADONAI has made them both.

¹³Do not love sleep, lest you become poor.
Open your eyes,
and you will be satisfied with food.

^b 20:6. cf. Luke 18:8.

^c 20:9. cf. John 1:8.

^d 20:10a. Lit. A stone and a stone, an ephah and an ephah.

Adonai's Lamp Searches

- ¹⁴"It's bad, bad!" says the buyer, but then he goes away and boasts.
- ¹⁵There is gold and abundance of rubies, but lips that speak knowledge are precious.
- ¹⁶Take a man's garment,
who puts up security for a stranger,
and hold it in pledge,
as security for a foreign woman.
- ¹⁷Bread gained by fraud is sweet to a man, but later his mouth is filled with gravel.
- ¹⁸Plans are made by counsel,
so wage war with guidance.
- ¹⁹A talebearer goes about,
revealing secrets,
so do not associate with a babbler.
- ²⁰Whoever curses his father or his mother,^a his lamp will be snuffed out in utter darkness.
- ²¹An estate acquired quickly in the beginning will not be blessed in the end.
- ²²Do not say, "I will pay back evil!"
Wait for ADONAI, so He may deliver You.
- ²³Unbalanced weights are detestable
to ADONAI,
and dishonest scales are wicked.
- ²⁴A man's steps are directed by ADONAI.
How then can anyone understand his own way?
- ²⁵It is a trap for one to say rashly,
"It is holy!"
and only afterward to consider his vows.
- ²⁶A wise king winnows out the wicked.
He turns a threshing wheel over them.

^a 20:20. cf. Matt. 15:4.

- ²⁷The spirit of man is the lamp of ADONAI, searching all his inmost being.
- ²⁸Lovingkindness and truth preserve the king,
but his throne is upheld by lovingkindness.
- ²⁹The glory of young men is their strength, and the splendor of old men is gray hair.
- ³⁰Blows that wound scour away evil, and beatings purge the innermost being.

21ADONAI Weighs the Heart

- ¹A king's heart is like a stream of water in the hand of ADONAI;
he directs it wherever He wants.^b
- ²All a man's ways seem right in his own eyes,
but ADONAI weighs the heart.
- ³To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to ADONAI than sacrifice.
- ⁴Haughty eyes and a proud heart—
the lamp of the wicked is sin.
- ⁵Plans of the diligent surely lead to gain,
but all who are hasty come only to loss.
- ⁶Getting treasures by a lying tongue is like a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.

Violence and Ruin of the Wicked

- ⁷The violence of the wicked sweeps them away,
because they refuse to act justly.
- ⁸The way of the guilty is crooked,
but the conduct of the pure is upright.
- ⁹It is better to live on a corner of a roof than in a house shared with a quarrelsome wife.
- ¹⁰A wicked soul craves evil—
his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.

^b 21:2. cf. Luke 16:15.

- ¹¹When a mocker is punished,
the naïve become wise.
When a wise person is instructed,
he gains knowledge.
- ¹²The righteous one considers the house of the wicked, throwing the wicked down to their ruin.
- ¹³Whoever shuts his ears to the cry of the poor, will also cry out but not be answered.
- ¹⁴A gift in secret soothes anger,
and a bribe given secretly, fierce rage.
- ¹⁵Doing justice brings joy to the righteous, and terror to those who do evil.
- ¹⁶Whoever strays from the path of wisdom ends up in the congregation of the dead.
- ¹⁷Whoever loves pleasure becomes poor.
Whoever loves wine and oil will not be rich.
- ¹⁸The wicked is a ransom for the righteous and the faithless for the upright.
- ¹⁹It is better to live in a desert land than with a quarrelsome, worrisome wife.
- ²⁰Precious treasure and oil are in a wise person's dwelling, but a foolish person devours all he has.
- ²¹Whoever pursues righteousness and mercy finds life, prosperity and honor.
- ²²A wise person scales the city of warriors and brings down the stronghold in which they trust.
- ²³Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps his soul out of troubles.
- ²⁴A proud and haughty man
—Mocker is his name—acts with overbearing pride.
- ²⁵A slacker's craving will kill him,

- because his hands refuse to work.
- ²⁶All day long he craves greedily, yet the righteous one gives and does not hold back.
- ²⁷The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination—how much more when he brings it with evil intent?
- ²⁸A false witness will perish,
but a man who hears will speak forever.
- ²⁹A wicked man puts on a bold face,
but the upright man considers his ways.
- ³⁰There is no wisdom,
there is no understanding,
there is no counsel—
against ADONAI.
- ³¹A horse is prepared for the day of battle,
but victory comes from ADONAI.

22

- ¹A good name is to be chosen rather than great wealth, and grace rather than silver or gold.
- ²Rich and poor have this in common—ADONAI is the Maker of them all.
- ³A crafty person sees danger and hides, but the naïve keep going and suffer for it.
- ⁴The reward of humility and fear of ADONAI is riches, honor and life.
- ⁵Thorns and snares are in the path of the perverse,
but one who guards his soul stays far from them.
- ⁶Train up a child in the way he should go,
when he is old he will not turn from it.
- ⁷The rich rule over the poor,
the borrower is a slave to the lender.
- ⁸One who sows injustice will reap trouble,

and the rod of his fury will perish.

⁹One with a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor.

¹⁰Throw out a scoffer and strife will go out, quarreling and disgrace will cease.

¹¹One who loves purity of heart and whose speech is gracious, will have the king as his friend.

¹²The eyes of ADONAI guard knowledge, but He undermines
the words of the faithless.

¹³The slacker says, “There’s a lion outside!
I’ll be killed in the streets.”

¹⁴The mouth of a seducing woman is a deep pit—into it will fall one with whom ADONAI is angry.

¹⁵Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child, but a rod of discipline will drive it far from him.

¹⁶The one who oppresses the poor to increase his own gain, and the one who gives to the rich—both end in poverty.

¹⁷Incline your ear and listen to the words of the wise, and apply your heart to my knowledge.

¹⁸For it is delightful if you keep them within you, ready on your lips.

¹⁹So that your trust may be in ADONAI,
I made them known to you this day,
even you.

²⁰Have I not written to you thirty sayings of admonition and knowledge,

²¹to show you true and reliable words, that you may give a true answer to those who sent you?

²²Do not rob a poor person because he is poor,

nor crush the needy at the gate, ²³for ADONAI will plead their case, and rob life from those who plunder them.

²⁴Do not be friends with one given to anger or associate with a hot-tempered person, ²⁵lest you learn his ways,
and entangle your soul in a snare.

²⁶Do not be one who shakes hands or puts up security for debts.

²⁷If you do not have enough to pay, why should your bed
be taken from under you?

²⁸Do not move an ancient boundary stone which your fathers set up.

²⁹Do you see a man skilled in his work?
He will stand before kings.
He will not stand before obscure people.

23

Advice About Appetites

¹When you sit down to dine with a ruler, consider carefully what is set before you, ²and put a knife to your throat
if you possess a large appetite.

³Do not crave his delicacies, for that food is deceptive.

⁴Do not wear yourself out to get rich.
Be wise enough to restrain yourself.

⁵When you cast your eyes on riches,
it is gone;
for it surely sprouts wings and flies off into the sky like an eagle.

⁶Do not eat the food of a stingy person, or desire his delicacies.

⁷For as he thinks within himself, so is he.
“Eat and drink”, he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.

⁸You will vomit up the morsel you ate, and will waste your pleasant words.

- ⁹Do not speak in the ears of a fool, for he will disdain the wisdom of your words.
- ¹⁰Do not move an ancient boundary stone,
or encroach on fields of the fatherless, ¹¹for their redeemer is strong.
He will plead their case against you.
- ¹²Apply your heart to discipline and your ears to words of knowledge.
- ¹³Do not withhold correction from a child.
If you strike him with a rod,
he will not die.
- ¹⁴Punish him with a rod,
and deliver his soul from Sheol.

Wisdom's Path to the Future

- ¹⁵My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart also will be glad.
- ¹⁶Yes, my inmost being will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.
- ¹⁷Do not let your heart envy sinners,
but always be in the fear of ADONAI.
- ¹⁸For surely there is a future,
and your hope will never be cut off.
- ¹⁹Listen, my son, and be wise, and guide your heart in the right way.
- ²⁰Do not join those drinking too much wine or gorging on meat, ²¹for both drunkards and gluttons will be impoverished—grogginess will clothe them with rags.
- ²²Listen to your father who begot you and do not despise your mother when she is old.
- ²³Acquire truth and do not sell it, acquire wisdom, instruction and understanding.
- ²⁴The father of a righteous one rejoices greatly.
Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him.
- ²⁵Let your father and your mother be glad,
let she who bore you rejoice!

- ²⁶My son, give your heart to me, and let your eyes observe my ways.
- ²⁷For a prostitute is a deep pit, an adulterous woman is a narrow pit.
- ²⁸Indeed, she lies in wait like a robber,
and increases the unfaithful among men.

Lingering Long Over Wine

- ²⁹Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has fights? Who has complaining?
Who has bruises for no reason?
Who has red eyes?
- ³⁰Those who linger long over wine, who go looking for mixed wine.
- ³¹Do not gaze at wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it glides down smoothly.
- ³²In the end it bites like a serpent and stings like a viper.
- ³³Your eyes will see strange things.
Your heart will utter perverse things.
- ³⁴Then you will be like one lying down in the heart of the sea, or sprawled on the top of a mast.
- ³⁵"They hit me! But I was not hurt.
They beat me up! But I did not feel it.
When will I wake up?
I will look for another drink."

24

- ¹Do not envy evil people,
or desire to be with them, ²for their hearts contemplate violence, and their lips speak mischief.

Strength Through Wise Counsel

- ³By wisdom a house is built,
by understanding it is prepared, ⁴and by knowledge its rooms are filled with every rare and pleasing treasure.
- ⁵A wise man is strong,
and a man of knowledge becomes even stronger.
- ⁶For with wise advice you wage war and in many counselors there is victory.

- ⁷Wisdom is unattainable for a fool—
he does not open his mouth at the gate.
⁸One who plots evil will be called a schemer.
⁹A foolish scheme is sin,
and people detest a mocker.

Counsel on Friendship

- ¹⁰If you falter in a day of adversity, your strength is small.
¹¹Rescue those being dragged off to death, hold back those stumbling to slaughter.
¹²If you say, “Look, we didn’t know this.”
Won’t He who weighs hearts perceive it?
Won’t He who guards your soul know it?
Won’t He repay each one according to his deeds?^a
- ¹³Eat honey, my son, for it is good,
and honeycomb is sweet to your taste.
¹⁴Likewise know that wisdom is sweet to your soul.
If you find it, there will be a future,
and your hope will not be cut off.
- ¹⁵Do not lurk like the wicked near the dwelling of the righteous.
Do not assault his home.
¹⁶For though the righteous one may fall seven times, he gets up again, but the wicked stumble in adversity.
¹⁷Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, or let your heart be glad when he stumbles, ¹⁸or ADONAI may see it as evil in His eyes, and turn His wrath away from him.
¹⁹Do not be upset because of evil people, or be envious of the wicked, ²⁰for the evil person has no future, and the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.
- ²¹My son, fear ADONAI and the king,^b and do not associate with rebels.
²²For their destruction will arise suddenly, and who knows the ruin both ADONAI and the king can bring?

^a 24:12. cf. Rom. 2:6.

^b 24:21. cf. Rom. 13:1-5.

- ²³These sayings are also from the wise:
Partiality in judgment is not good.
²⁴Whoever tells the guilty,
“You are innocent,” people curse him and nations revile him.
²⁵But for those who convict the guilty there will be delight— good blessing will come upon them.
- ²⁶An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.
- ²⁷Finish your outdoor work
and get your fields ready.
After that, build your house.
- ²⁸Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.
²⁹Do not say, “I will do to him
what he has done to me;
I will pay him back for his deed!”^c

Lesson of the Lazy

- ³⁰I passed by the field of the slacker,
by the vineyard of one lacking judgment.
³¹Surprisingly, it was all overgrown with thorns,
the ground was covered with weeds,
and its stone wall was broken down.
³²Then I took to heart what I observed and learned a lesson from what I saw:
³³“A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep,” ³⁴then your poverty comes tramping in,
and your need like an armed soldier.

25

The Glory of Searching a Matter

- ¹These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied: ²It is the glory of God to conceal a matter and the glory of kings to search it out.
³As high as heaven and deep as earth,
so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

^c 24:29. cf. Matt. 5:39; Rom. 12:17,19.

- ⁴Remove impurities from silver and out comes material for the refiner.
- ⁵Remove the wicked from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.
- ⁶Do not honor yourself in the king's presence, and do not stand in the place of great men.
- ⁷Better for him to say to you,
"Come up here,"
than for you to be humiliated before a nobleman.
What your eyes have seen, ⁸do not bring hastily to court, or what will you do afterward,
when your neighbor puts you to shame?
- ⁹Argue your case with your associate,
without betraying another's confidence, ¹⁰or the one who hears it will shame you, and you will never lose your bad reputation.

A Fitting Reproof is Precious

- ¹¹Like apples of gold in settings of silver is a word aptly spoken.
- ¹²Like a gold earring or a gold ornament is a wise reproof to a receptive ear.
- ¹³Like the coolness of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger to those who send him
for he refreshes his master's soul.
- ¹⁴Like clouds and wind without rain is one who boasts about a gift not given.
- ¹⁵Through patience a ruler may be persuaded,
and a soft tongue can break a bone.

Proverbs for Daily Life

- ¹⁶When you find honey, eat just enough, lest you are stuffed and vomit it.
- ¹⁷Seldom set foot
in your neighbor's house, lest he become weary of you and loathe you.

- ¹⁸Like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow is one who bears false witness against his neighbor.
- ¹⁹Like a broken tooth or a lame foot is confidence in the unfaithful in time of trouble.
- ²⁰Like taking off a garment on a cold day or like vinegar poured on soda, is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
- ²¹If your enemy is hungry,
give him bread to eat,
and if he is thirsty,
give him water to drink,
- ²²for you will heap coals of fire on his head^d and ADONAI will reward you.
- ²³A north wind brings rain, and a backbiting tongue angry faces.
- ²⁴Better to dwell in a corner of a roof than share a house with a quarrelsome wife.
- ²⁵Like cold water to a weary soul is good news from a distant land.
- ²⁶Like a muddied spring or a polluted well is a righteous person who yields before the wicked.
- ²⁷It is not good to eat too much honey, or honorable to seek one's own honor.
- ²⁸Like a city whose walls are broken down is one with no control over his temper.

26

Folly of Fools

- ¹Like snow in summer or rain at harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.
- ²Like a fluttering sparrow or a flying swallow,
so an undeserved curse does not land.
- ³A whip for a horse, a bridle for a donkey,
and a rod for the back of fools.
- ⁴Do not answer a fool
according to his folly, else you also will be like him.

^d 25:21-22a. cf. Rom. 12:20.

- ⁵Answer a fool according to his folly, else he will be wise in his own eyes.
- ⁶Like cutting off one's feet or drinking violence is sending a message by a fool's hand.
- ⁷Like a lame man's legs that hang limp,
so is a proverb in a fool's mouth.
- ⁸Like tying a stone into a sling,
so is giving honor to a fool.
- ⁹Like a thorn bush in a drunkard's hand is a proverb in a fool's mouth.
- ¹⁰Like an archer who wounds at random is one who hires a fool or any passer-by.
- ¹¹Like a dog that returns to its vomit, so a fool repeats his folly.^a
- ¹²Do you see one wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than him.

Folly of Slackers

- ¹³A slacker says,
"There's a lion on the road!
A lion is in the streets!"
- ¹⁴As a door turns on its hinges so a slacker turns on his bed.
- ¹⁵The slacker plunges his hand in the dish—
he is too tired to bring it back to his mouth.
- ¹⁶A slacker is wiser in his own eyes than seven people who answer sensibly.

Folly of Lashon Ha-Ra

- ¹⁷Like one who takes a dog by the ears is a passer-by who meddles in a quarrel not his own.
- ¹⁸Like a madman shooting firebrands and deadly arrows ¹⁹so is one who deceives his friend, and says, "I was only joking."
- ²⁰Without wood a fire goes out;
without gossip quarrels cease.
- ²¹As coals are to embers and wood to fire, so is a contentious person to kindling strife.
- ²²A gossip's words are like tasty morsels—they slide down into

- the innermost parts of the body.
- ²³Like silver glaze overlaying earthenware are fervent^b lips with an evil heart.
- ²⁴One who hates, disguises it with his lips,
but he stores up deceit within him.
- ²⁵When he speaks favorably,
do not believe him,
for there are seven abominations in his heart.
- ²⁶Though his hatred may be concealed by deceit, his evil will be exposed before the assembly.
- ²⁷Whoever digs a pit will fall in it, and whoever rolls a stone—
it will come back upon him.
- ²⁸A lying tongue hates those crushed by it,
and a flattering mouth causes ruin.

27

Do Not Boast

- ¹Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.^c
- ²Let another praise you and not your own mouth,
a stranger and not your own lips.
- ³A stone is heavy and sand a burden, but provocation by a fool is heavier than both.
- ⁴Wrath is cruel and anger is overwhelming,
but who can stand before jealousy?
- ⁵Better is open rebuke than hidden love.
- ⁶Faithful are the wounds of a friend,
but excessive the kisses of an enemy.
- ⁷One who is full loathes honeycomb, but to one who is hungry every bitter thing is sweet.
- ⁸Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man that wanders from his home.

^a 26:11. cf. 2Pet. 2:22.

^b 26:23a. Lit. burning.
^c 27:1. cf. Jacob 4:13-16.

Iron Sharpens Iron

- ⁹As ointment and perfume gladden the heart,
so the sweetness of one's friend comes from his sincere counsel.
- ¹⁰Do not forsake your friend, or your father's friend,
nor go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster—better a neighbor nearby than a brother far off.
- ¹¹Be wise, my son, make my heart glad,
so I may answer anyone who taunts me.
- ¹²The prudent see danger and hide, but the naive keep going and pay the penalty.
- ¹³Take a man's garment,
who puts up security for a stranger,
and hold it in pledge,
as security for a seductive woman.
- ¹⁴If someone blesses his friend with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse.
- ¹⁵Continual dripping on a day of steady rain and a contentious wife are alike—
- ¹⁶hiding her is like hiding the wind or grasping oil with the right hand.
- ¹⁷As iron sharpens iron, so a person sharpens the countenance of his friend.
- ¹⁸Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, whoever takes care of his master
will be honored.
- ¹⁹As water reflects the face,
so a person's heart reflects the person.
- ²⁰Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied, and neither are the eyes of man.

- ²¹A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold,
but a person is proved by the praise
he receives.
- ²²Even if you pound the fool along with the grain in a mortar with a pestle, his foolishness would never leave him.
- ²³Know well the condition of your flocks,
pay attention to your herds, ²⁴for riches are not forever, nor a crown
from generation to generation.
- ²⁵When hay is removed and grass appears, and grain from the hills is gathered in, ²⁶lambs will provide you with clothing, and goats with the price of a field.
- ²⁷There will be enough goats' milk for food and food for your household, and sustenance for your maidservants.

28Confidence, Discernment, Integrity

- ¹The wicked flee when no one is pursuing,
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
- ²When a country is in rebellion,
it has many rulers,
but a man of discernment and knowledge maintains order.
- ³A poor man who oppresses the weak is like pounding rain without food.
- ⁴Those who forsake Torah praise the wicked,
but those who keep Torah stir them up.
- ⁵Evil men do not understand justice,
but those who seek ADONAI understand it fully.
- ⁶Better the poor who walks in his integrity than the rich whose ways are crooked.
- ⁷He who keeps Torah is a discerning son, but a companion of gluttons disgraces his father.
- ⁸Whoever increases his wealth
by exorbitant interest,

- gathers it for one kinder to the poor.
⁹One who turns his ear from hearing Torah
 —even his prayer is an abomination.
¹⁰One who leads the upright astray along an evil path will fall into his own pit, but the blameless will inherit good.
¹¹A rich person is wise in his own eyes, but a discerning poor person sees through him.
¹²When the righteous triumph
 there is great glory, but when the wicked rise to power,
 people hide.
¹³One who covers up his transgressions will not prosper, but whoever confesses and forsakes them finds mercy.
¹⁴Blessed is one who is always cautious, but whoever hardens his heart will fall into trouble.
¹⁵Like a roaring lion or a prowling bear is a wicked ruler over helpless people.
¹⁶An oppressive leader lacks judgment.
 One who hates unjust gain will prolong his life.
¹⁷A man tormented by the guilt of murder flees to the Pit—let no one support him.
¹⁸Whoever walks blamelessly will be safe, but whoever is perverse in his ways will fall suddenly.

Wisdom About Finances

- ¹⁹Whoever works his land will be satisfied with food, but whoever chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
²⁰A faithful man will have many blessings, but one eager to get rich
 will not go unpunished.
²¹To show partiality is not good—yet for a piece of bread
 a man may do wrong.
²²A stingy man^a chases after riches,

^a 28:22a. Lit. a man with an evil eye.

- but does not know that poverty will overtake him.
²³One who rebukes a man will in the end find more favor than one with a flattering tongue.
²⁴Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, “It’s not a crime,” is a partner to him who destroys.
²⁵A greedy soul stirs up strife,
 but one who trusts in ADONAI prospers.
²⁶Whoever trusts in his own heart is a fool,
 but he who walks in wisdom will escape.
²⁷One who gives to the poor will not lack,
 but one who shuts his eyes will have many curses.
²⁸When the wicked rise to power,
 people hide,
 but when they perish,
 the righteous increase.

29

- ¹One who remains stiff-necked after many rebukes will suddenly be destroyed—without remedy.
²When the righteous thrive, people rejoice.
 When the wicked rule, people groan.
³Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father, but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.
⁴By justice a king brings stability to a land,
 but one who takes bribes brings it ruin.
⁵A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
⁶In an evil man’s wrongdoing is a trap,
 but the righteous sings and rejoices.
⁷A righteous person considers justice for the poor.
 The wicked one has no such concern.
⁸Mockers incite a city,
 but wise men turn away anger.
⁹If a wise man argues with a foolish man,

- he rants or laughs, with no resolution.
¹⁰Bloodthirsty people hate a man of integrity and seek the soul of the upright.
¹¹A fool gives full vent to his temper, but a wise man holds it back.
¹²If a ruler listens to lies,
 all his servants will be wicked.
¹³The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
 ADONAI gives light to the eyes of both.
¹⁴If a king judges the poor with truth, his throne will always be secure.
¹⁵A rod and reproof give wisdom, but a child left to himself disgraces his mother.
¹⁶When the wicked thrive, wrongdoing increases,
 but the righteous will see their downfall.
¹⁷Correct your son and he will give you rest.
 He will bring delight to your soul.
¹⁸Where there is no divine vision people cast off restraint, but blessed is the one who keeps Torah.
¹⁹A servant cannot be corrected by words, for though he understands,
 he will not respond.
²⁰Do you see someone hasty in his words?
 There is more hope for a fool than him.
²¹If someone pampers his slave from childhood
 in the end he will be ungrateful.
²²An angry man stirs up dissention, and a hotheaded one commits
 many transgressions.
²³A man's pride will bring him low,
 but a humble spirit will gain honor.

- ²⁴An accomplice of a thief is his own enemy.
 He hears the oath but says nothing.
²⁵Fear of man will prove to be a snare, but one who trusts in ADONAI will be kept safe.
²⁶Many seek an audience with a ruler,
 but from ADONAI one receives justice.
²⁷The righteous detest the unjust, and the wicked detest the upright.

30

What is The Name of His Son?

- ¹The words of Agur son of Jakeh—an oracle this man declared to Ithiel, to Ithiel and to Ucal:
²“Surely I am more stupid than any man and do not have a man's understanding.
³I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.
⁴Who has gone up into heaven, and come down?^b
 Who has gathered the wind
 in the palm of His hand?
 Who has wrapped the waters in a cloak?
 Who has established all the ends of the earth?
 What is his name and what is the name of His son—if you know?”^c ⁵Every word of God is purified.
 He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.
⁶Do not add to His words, or else He will rebuke You and prove you a liar.
⁷Two things I ask of You—do not refuse me before I die:
⁸Keep falsehood and lies far from me.
 Give me neither poverty nor riches,
 but feed me with my allotted bread,^d ⁹lest I become satisfied and deny You and say, “Who is ADONAI?”

^b 30:4a. cf. John 3:13; Eph. 4:8.

^c 30:4b. cf. Rev. 19:12.

^d 30:8. cf. Matt. 6:11.

Or lest I become poor, and steal and profane the Name of my God.

A Filthy, Haughty Generation

¹⁰Do not slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you, and you pay for it.

¹¹There is a generation that curses its father and does not bless its mother.

¹²There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes, and yet is not cleansed from its filth.

¹³There is a generation whose eyes are so haughty, whose eyelids are lifted up disdainfully.

¹⁴There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose molars are knives, to devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among humanity.

¹⁵The leech has two daughters: “Give! Give!”
Three things are never satisfied, four never say, “Enough!”—

¹⁶Sheol, a barren womb, land that is not satisfied with water, and fire that never says, “Enough!”

¹⁷The eye that mocks a father and scorns obeying a mother—will be pecked out by ravens of the valley and eaten by young vultures!

¹⁸Three things are too amazing for me,
four I do not understand:

¹⁹the way of an eagle in the sky,
the way of a serpent upon a rock,
the way of a ship in the heart of the sea,
and the way of a man with a maiden.

²⁰Such is the way of an adulteress:
she eats, wipes her mouth and says,
“I have done nothing wrong.”

²¹Under three things the earth trembles, and under four it cannot bear up:

²²under a slave when he becomes a king,

a fool when he is stuffed with food, ²³an unloved woman when she is married, and a handmaid when she displaces her mistress.

Lessons from Creatures

²⁴Four things on earth are small,
yet they are exceedingly wise:

²⁵ants are creatures with little strength,
yet they store up their food in summer;

²⁶coney are creatures with little power,
yet they make their homes in the cliffs;

²⁷locusts have no king,
yet they advance together in ranks;

²⁸a lizard you can catch with the hand,
yet it is found in kings’ palaces.

²⁹Three things are stately in their stride, four that move with stately bearing:

³⁰a lion, mighty among beasts, who never backs down from anything;

³¹a strutting rooster, a male-goat, and a king with his army around him.

³²If you have acted foolishly, exalting yourself,
or if you have planned evil,
put your hand over your mouth.

³³For as churning milk produces butter, and twisting the nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces strife.

31

A Mother’s Warning

¹The words of King Lemuel, an oracle that his mother taught him:

²O my son, O son of my womb,
O son of my vows,

³do not give your vigor to women, or your ways to what ruins kings.

⁴It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine,
or for rulers to crave strong drink,

⁵lest they drink, forget what is decreed, and pervert justice for all the oppressed.

- ⁶Give strong drink to one who is dying, and wine to those who are bitterly distressed—⁷let him drink, forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.
- ⁸Open your mouth on behalf of those unable to speak, for the justice of all who are destitute.
⁹Open your mouth, judge righteously, plead the cause of the poor and needy.

A Woman of Valor

- ¹⁰An accomplished woman who can find?
Her value is far beyond rubies.
¹¹Her husband's heart trusts in her,
and he lacks nothing valuable.
¹²She brings him good and not harm
all the days of her life.
¹³She selects wool and flax and her hands work willingly.
¹⁴She is like merchant ships, bringing her sustenance from afar.
¹⁵She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household and portions for her servant girls.
¹⁶She considers a field and buys it.
From the fruit of her hands
she plants a vineyard.
¹⁷She girds herself with strength and invigorates her arms.
¹⁸She discerns that her business is good.

- Her lamp never goes out at night.
¹⁹She extends her hands to the spindle and her palm grasps the spinning wheel.
²⁰She spreads out her palms to the poor, and extends her hands to the needy.
²¹She is not afraid of snow for her house, for her whole household is clothed in scarlet wool.
²²She makes her own luxurious coverings.
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
²³Her husband is respected at the city gates, when he sits among the elders of the land.
²⁴She makes linen garments and sells them
and supplies sashes to the merchants.
²⁵Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the days to come.
²⁶She opens her mouth with wisdom—
a lesson of kindness is on her tongue.
²⁷She watches over the affairs of her household,
and does not eat the bread of idleness.
²⁸Her children arise and bless her,
her husband also praises her:
²⁹"Many daughters have excelled, but you surpass them all."
³⁰Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears ADONAI will be praised.
³¹Give her the fruit of her hands.
Let her deeds be her praise at the gates.

Job

1

Job and His Children

¹There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. Now that man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil. ²He had seven sons and three daughters ³and his possessions were 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen and 500 female donkeys, and a very large household. That man was the greatest of all the people of the East.

⁴Now it was customary for his sons to hold a banquet, each on his own day in his own house. They would send to invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. ⁵When the round of banquet days was completed, Job would send for them and consecrate them. He would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings, according to the number of them all. For Job said, “Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” Thus Job did everyday.

The Adversary Tests Job

⁶One day the sons of God came to present themselves before ADONAI, and the satan^a also came with them. ⁷ADONAI said to the satan, “Where have you come from?”

The satan responded to ADONAI and said, “From roaming the earth and from walking on it.”^b

⁸ADONAI said to the satan, “Did you notice my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth—a blameless and upright man, who fears God and spurns evil.”

⁹Then the satan responded to ADONAI, saying, “Does Job fear God for nothing? ¹⁰Have you not made a hedge around him, his household, and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands and his possessions have increased in the land. ¹¹But now, stretch out Your hand and strike everything he has, and he will certainly curse You to Your face!”

¹²Then ADONAI said to the satan, “Everything he has is in your hand. Only do not extend your hand against him!” So the satan departed from the presence of ADONAI.

¹³One day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house, ¹⁴a messenger came to Job, saying, “The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing near them, ¹⁵when the Sabeans attacked and carried them off. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword—I alone escaped to tell you!”

¹⁶While this one was still speaking another came in and said, “The fire of God has fallen from heaven and has burned up the sheep and servants—it has consumed them, and I—I alone—escaped to tell you!”

¹⁷While this one was still speaking another came in and said, “The Chaldeans formed three bands and raided the camels and took them all away. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I—only I alone—escaped to tell you!”

¹⁸While this one was still speaking another came in and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine at their oldest brother’s house ¹⁹when suddenly a mighty wind came from beyond the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it collapsed on the young people and they died. And I—only I alone—escaped to tell you!”

²⁰Then Job got up, tore his robe, shaved his head, fell to the ground and worshiped.

²¹Then he said:

“Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I will return there.

ADONAI gave and ADONAI has taken away;
blessed be the Name of ADONAI.”

²²Through all this, Job did not sin nor did he cast reproach on God.

^a 1:6. Lit. the satan.

^b 1:7. cf. 1Pet. 5:8.

2

Affliction of the Body

¹Again the day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before ADONAI, and the satan also arrived among them to present himself before ADONAI. ²ADONAI said to him, "Where are you coming from?"

The satan answered ADONAI, "From roaming the earth and from walking on it."

³Then ADONAI said to the satan, "Have you noticed My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and spurns evil. And he still holds firmly to his integrity, though you incited Me against him to ruin him without any reason."

⁴The satan replied to ADONAI saying, "Skin for skin! A man will give up all he has for his own life. ⁵But now, stretch out Your hand and strike his bone and his flesh, and he will certainly curse You to Your face!"

⁶ADONAI said to the satan, "Very well, he is in your hand—only spare his life!"

⁷So the satan departed from the presence of ADONAI, and afflicted Job with painful boils, from the sole of his foot to the top of his head.

⁸He took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself while he was sitting among the ashes.

⁹Then his wife said to him, "Are you still holding firmly to your integrity? Curse God and die!"

¹⁰He said to her, "You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Should we accept the good from God and not accept the bad?"

Through all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Three Friends Sit Shiva

¹¹When Job's three friends heard about all this calamity that had come upon him, each of them came from his own place—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite. They met together to come and mourn with him and to comfort him. ¹²But when they saw him from a distance they did not recognize him, and they raised their voices and wept. Each one tore his robe and threw dust into the air onto their heads. ¹³Then they sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights. No one spoke a word to him because they saw that his pain was very great.

3

Job Curses His Own Birth

¹After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed his day. ²Then Job answered and said:

³"May the day I was born perish, and the night that said,
'A man is conceived!'"

⁴That day—may it be darkness;
may God above not regard it;
may no light shine on it.

⁵May darkness and deep gloom reclaim it;
may a cloud settle over it;
may whatever blackens the day terrify it.

⁶That night—may thick darkness seize it;
may it not be included among the days of the year, nor be entered among the number of months.

⁷Indeed, may that night be barren;
may no joyful shout enter it.

⁸May those who curse, curse the day—
those ready to awaken Leviathan.

⁹May its morning stars be darkened; may it hope for light but have none—
may it never see the eyelids of dawn.

¹⁰For it did not shut the doors of the womb on me,
nor did it hide trouble from my eyes.

¹¹Why did I not die at birth and expire as I exited the womb?

¹²Why did the knees welcome me, and breasts that I might nurse?

¹³For now I would be lying down and quiet;
I would be asleep and at rest

¹⁴with kings and counselors of the earth, who built for themselves places now desolate,

¹⁵with princes who had gold,

who filled their houses with silver.
¹⁶Or why was I not hidden like a stillborn, like infants who never saw light?
¹⁷There the wicked cease from turmoil, and there the weary are at rest.
¹⁸Prisoners are at ease together;
 they do not hear the voice of the taskmaster.
¹⁹Small and great are there;
 and slave is free from his master.
²⁰Why is light given to one who suffers and life to the bitter of soul, ²¹to those who long for death, but it does not come,
 who dig for it more than for hidden treasures, ²²who are filled with gladness and rejoice when finding the grave?
²³Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden,
 and whom God has hedged in?
²⁴For my sighing comes Instead of my bread, and my groans pour out like water.
²⁵For the thing I dreaded has come upon me, and what I feared has happened to me.
²⁶I have no ease, no quietness;
 I have no rest, but turmoil came.”

4

Eliphaz: God is Righteous

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded and said:

²“If one attempts a word with you, will you become impatient?
 But who can keep from speaking?
³Behold, you have instructed many;
 you have strengthened weak hands.
⁴Your words have supported those who stumbled,
 and strengthened buckling knees.
⁵Yet now it has come to you, and you are discouraged;

it strikes you,
 and you are dismayed.

⁶Is not your piety your confidence, the integrity of your ways your hope?
⁷Reflect now:
 Who, being innocent, ever perished?
 And where were the upright destroyed?
⁸As I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow harm, reap them.^a ⁹By the breath^b of God they perish;
 by the blast of His anger they vanish.^c ¹⁰The lion may roar and the cub growl, but the teeth of young lions are broken.
¹¹The mighty lion perishes for lack of prey and the lioness’ cubs are scattered.

Testimony of an Accusing Spirit

¹²Now a word was secretly brought to me, and my ear caught a whisper of it.
¹³Amid unsettling visions in the night, when a deep sleep falls on men, ¹⁴dread and trembling seized me,
 and made my bones shake.
¹⁵Then a spirit brushed over my face, and the hair of my flesh stood on end.
¹⁶It stood still,
 but I could not recognize its appearance,
 A form was before my eyes and I heard a murmur, a voice:
¹⁷“Can a mortal be righteous before God;
 or a man pure before his Creator?
¹⁸If He puts no trust in His servants and accuses His angels of error, ¹⁹how much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust,
 who are crushed before the moth?
²⁰From morning until evening they are beaten into pieces—unnoticed, they perish forever.
²¹Is not their tent cord pulled out, so that they die without wisdom.””

^a 4:8. cf. Gal. 6:7.

^b 4:9. Heb. ruach, lit. wind.

^c 4:9. cf. 2Thes. 2:8.

5

Eliphaz: God is Correcting You

- ¹“Cry out now! Will anyone answer you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?
²For resentment kills a fool, and envy slays the simple.
³I myself have seen a fool taking root,
but suddenly I cursed his dwelling.
⁴His sons are far from safety, and crushed at the gate
without a deliverer!
⁵The hungry consumes his harvest, taking it even from among thorns,
and the thirsty pants after their wealth.
⁶For evil does not come from the dust, nor does trouble sprout from the ground.
⁷Yet man is born for trouble,
as surely as sparks fly upward.
⁸But as for me, I would seek God;
I would lay my cause before God:
⁹Who does great things beyond comprehension, wonders without number.
¹⁰Who gives rain to the earth and sends water over the plains.
¹¹Who places the lowly on high and lifts mourners to salvation.
¹²Who frustrates the plans of the crafty,
so that their hands attain no success.
¹³Who catches the clever in their craftiness, and thwarts the plan of the cunning.
¹⁴By day they encounter darkness and grope at noon as if it were night.
¹⁵But He saves the needy from the sword of their mouth, and from the clutches of the mighty.
¹⁶So the helpless have hope and injustice shuts its mouth.
¹⁷Behold, happy is the one whom God corrects, so do not despise the discipline of Shaddai.
¹⁸For He inflicts pain,
but He also binds up;

- He injures,
yet His hands also heal.
¹⁹From six calamities He will deliver you, even in seven, no harm will touch you.
²⁰In famine,
He will redeem you from death,
and in war,
from the power of the sword.
²¹You will be hidden from the lash of the tongue, and not fear when violence comes.
²²You will laugh at violence and famine, and will not fear the beasts
of the earth.
²³For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.
²⁴You will know shalom in your tent, and you will take stock of your home and find nothing missing.
²⁵“You will know that your descendants will be numerous your offspring like the grass
of the earth.
²⁶You will come to the grave in vigor, like sheaves of grain in its season.
²⁷Behold, we have investigated this—it is true.
Hear it, and apply it to yourself!”

Job Cries For Justice

- ¹Job responded and said:

²“If only my grief could be weighed and my calamity placed on the scales.
³For it outweighs the sands of the sea;
that is why my words have been rash.
⁴For the arrows of Shaddai are in me,
my spirit drinks in their poison;
God’s terrors line up against me.
⁵Does a wild donkey bray over fresh grass or an ox bellow over his fodder?
⁶Is something bland eaten without salt,

is there taste in the white of an egg?
⁷My soul refuses to touch them;
 they are like sickening food to me.

⁸Oh that my request would be realized, that God would grant my hope; ⁹that God would be willing to crush me,
 to release His hand, and cut me off!
¹⁰Then I would still be comforted, even rejoice in spite of unrelenting pain, for I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

¹¹“What is my strength, that I should hope?
 What is my end,
 that I should endure?
¹²Is my strength the strength of rock?
 Is my flesh bronze?
¹³Is there no help within me;
 has not success been banished from me?

¹⁴“A despairing person should have the kindness of his friend, even if he forsakes the fear of Shaddai.
¹⁵My brothers have acted deceptively, as a seasonal stream,
 as a torrential stream that overflows ¹⁶when darkened by thawing ice, and obscured by snow, ¹⁷but when they are scorched,
 they dry up,
 and in the heat,
 they vanish from their place.
¹⁸Caravans turn aside from their course; they go up into the wasteland and perish.
¹⁹The caravans of Tema looked intently,
 the travelers of Sheba hoped for them.
²⁰They were distressed because they had been confident; they came so far and were disappointed.

²¹“Indeed, now you have become nothing;
 you see a terror and are afraid.
²²Have I ever said, ‘Give to me’

or ‘Pay a bribe for me from your wealth’
²³or ‘Save me from the enemy’s hand’ or ‘Redeem me from a ruthless hand’?
²⁴“Teach me, and I will be silent;
 explain to me how I have been wrong.
²⁵Honest words are painful, but what does your arguing prove?
²⁶Do you intend to correct my words, and treat the words of a despairing man as wind?
²⁷Would you cast lots for an orphan, and barter over your friend?
²⁸“Now be so kind as to look at me;
 I will not lie to your face.
²⁹Relent, do not be unjust; reconsider, for my righteousness is in it.
³⁰Is injustice on my tongue?
 Can my palate not discern evil?”

7

Futility of Days

¹“Does not man have hard labor on earth?
 Are not his days like those of a hired laborer?
²Like a slave longing for the shadow, or a hired man waiting for his pay, ³so I have inherited months of futility, and nights of distress have been appointed to me.
⁴When I lay down I say,
 “When will I rise?”
 The night drags on,
 and I toss until the day dawns.
⁵My flesh is clothed with maggots and clods of dirt;
 My skin is broken and festering.
⁶My days fly faster than a weaver’s shuttle and come to an end without hope.
⁷Remember, my life is but a breath;
 my eyes will not see goodness again!
⁸The eye that sees me now will see me no more;
 your eyes will be on me,

but I will be no more.
⁹As a cloud vanishes and is gone, so one descending into Sheol
 does not come up; ¹⁰he will never return to his house,
 his place does not know him.
¹¹“So I will not keep silent;
 I will speak in the distress of my spirit,
 I will complain in bitterness of soul.
¹²Am I a sea, or a monster of the deep that You have set a watch over me?
¹³When I say, ‘My bed will comfort me, my couch will ease my complaint,’ ¹⁴then You frighten me with dreams, and terrify me with visions, ¹⁵so that my soul prefers strangulation, and my bones death.
¹⁶I despise it;
 I would not live forever.
 Leave me alone,
 for my days are a vapor.
¹⁷“What is mankind, that You magnify him,
 that You set Your heart on him, ¹⁸that You visit him every morning, and test him in every moment?
¹⁹Will You never look away from me, or let me alone until I swallow my spittle?
²⁰Have I sinned—
 what have I done to You,
 O watcher of men?
 Why have You set me as Your target?
 Have I become a burden to You?
²¹Why do You not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity?
 For now I will lie down in the dust,
 and You will search for me,
 but I will be gone.”

8

Bildad: God Restores the Righteous

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite answered
 and said:
²“How long will you say these things?

The words of your mouth are like a mighty wind.
³Does God pervert justice?
 Does Shaddai pervert justice?
⁴If your children sinned against Him,
 He handed them over to their rebellion.
⁵If you would seek God and plead with Shaddai, ⁶if you are pure and upright, even now He will awaken for you and restore your righteous abode.
⁷And though your beginning was small,
 your future would flourish.
⁸Now ask the previous generation;
 consider the findings of their fathers; ⁹for we were born yesterday and know nothing, and our days on earth are but a shadow.
¹⁰Will they not teach you and tell you?
 Will they not bring forth words from their hearts?
¹¹“Can papyrus grow tall without a marsh?
 Can reeds flourish without water?
¹²When still in bloom and uncut,
 it withers more quickly than other grass.
¹³Such are the ways of all who forget God;
 the hope of the godless perishes—¹⁴whose confidence is snapped off, his trust is a spider’s web.
¹⁵He leans against his house but it does not stand,
 He holds fast to it,
 but it does not hold up.
¹⁶He is a well-watered plant in the sun, spreading his shoots over his garden; ¹⁷he entwines his roots around a heap of stones, and looks for a place between the rocks.
¹⁸If he is uprooted from his place, it denies him saying, ‘I never saw you.’
¹⁹Such is his joyous course, and from the earth others spring up.
²⁰Surely God does not spurn the blameless or strengthen the hand of evildoers.

²¹He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.
²²Those who hate you will be clothed with shame.
The tent of the wicked will be no more!"

9

Job: Who is Righteous Before God?

¹Job responded and said:
²"Truly I know it is so, but how can one be righteous before God?^a ³If anyone wished to contend with Him, he could not answer Him once in a thousand.
⁴He is wise in heart and mighty in strength.
Who has resisted Him and come out whole?
⁵"He who moves mountains,
yet they do not know It,
who overthrows them in His anger; ⁶who shakes the earth from its place until its pillars tremble; ⁷who speaks to the sun so it does not rise,
and seals up the stars;
⁸He alone spreads out the heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea;
⁹He makes the Bear, Orion and Pleiades, and the constellations of the south; ¹⁰He does great and unfathomable things, wonders beyond number.
¹¹If He were to pass by me,
I would not see Him!
Were He to move past me,
I would not perceive Him.
¹²If He were to snatch away, who could restrain Him?
Who could say to Him,
'What are You doing?'
¹³"God does not restrain His anger;
under Him the helpers of Rahab cower.

^a 9:2. cf. Rom. 3:20.

¹⁴How then can I answer Him or choose my words with Him?
¹⁵Even if I were right, I would not answer;
I would implore the mercy of my Judge.
¹⁶Even if I called and He answered me,
I would not believe that He would listen to my voice.
¹⁷He who crushes me with a storm and multiplies my wounds for no reason.
¹⁸He does not allow me to catch my breath,
but fills me with bitterness.
¹⁹If it is a question of strength—certainly, He is the mighty One!
If it is a matter of justice—who will summon me?
²⁰Even if I were innocent,
my mouth would condemn me.
If I were guiltless,
it will declare me perverse.
²¹"I am guiltless.
I have no concern for myself.
I despise my life.
²²It is all the same, therefore I say,
'He destroys both the blameless and the wicked.'
²³If a scourge smites suddenly,
He mocks the despair of the innocent.
²⁴If the land falls into the hand of the wicked
He blindfolds the faces of its judges.
If it is not He, then who is it?
²⁵"My days are swifter than a runner;
they flee away without seeing goodness.
²⁶They slip by like reed boats, like an eagle swooping down on its prey.
²⁷If I say, 'I will forget my complaint,
I will put off my sad face and be cheerful,' ²⁸I still dread all my pains, for I know You will not find me innocent.
²⁹If I am condemned—
why should I struggle in vain?
³⁰If I wash myself with melted snow and cleanse my hands with lye, ³¹then You would plunge me into a pit and my own clothes would detest me.

³²For He is not a human being, like I am,
 that I could answer Him,
 that we could go to court together.
³³There is no arbitrator between us, who could lay his hand on us both;
³⁴who could remove His rod from me, so that His terror would not frighten me.
³⁵Then I would speak and not fear Him —except it is not so with me.”

10

Do Not Condemn Me!

¹“I loathe my own life;
 I will give full vent to my complaint;
 I will speak out of the bitterness of my soul.
²I will say to God, ‘Do not condemn me;
 tell me why You contend with me.’
³Is it good for You to oppress, to despise the work of Your hands, while You smile on the plans
 of the wicked?
⁴Do You have eyes of flesh?
 Do You see as a human being sees?
⁵Are Your days like those of a mortal, or Your years like those of a strong man, ⁶that You should seek out my iniquity and search out my sin, ⁷though You know that I am not guilty, yet there is no one to deliver from Your hand?
⁸“Your hands molded and fashioned me, will You now destroy me completely?
⁹Remember You fashioned me like clay;
 will You return me to dust?
¹⁰Did You not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese, ¹¹clothe me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews?

¹²You gave me life and steadfast love, and Your care has preserved my spirit.

¹³“Yet these things You have hid in Your heart, for I know that this is with You.

¹⁴If I sinned, You would watch me, and not acquit me of my iniquity.

¹⁵If I am guilty, woe to me!
 Even if I am innocent,
 I cannot lift my head.

I am full of shame
 and conscious of my affliction.

¹⁶If my head is held high,
 You hunt me like a lion,
 and again work wonders against me.

¹⁷You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your anger toward me, change and warfare are with me.

¹⁸“Why then did You bring me out from the womb?
 I should have died

so no eye would have seen me.

¹⁹If only I had never come into being,
 or been carried from womb to grave.

²⁰Are not my days few?

Then stop, leave me alone
 so I might have a little joy,

²¹before I depart, and never return, to the land of darkness and the shadow of death,

²²the land of utter darkness, like the deepest darkness and disorder, where even the light is like darkness.”

11

Zophar: God Sees Iniquity

¹Then, Zophar the Naamathite answered
 and said:

²“Should so many words go unanswered?
 Is a man justified by his lips?

³Will your idle talk silence men and will no one rebuke you when you mock?

⁴For you have said,
 ‘My teaching is flawless’ and ‘I am pure in Your eyes!’
⁵But if only God would speak and open His lips against you, ⁶and show you the secrets of wisdom—for sound wisdom has two sides.
 Know that God has forgotten
 some of your iniquity.

⁷“Can you discover the mysteries of God?
 Can you find the limits of Shaddai?
⁸They are higher than the heavens
 —what can you do?
 They are deeper than Sheol
 —what can you know?
⁹Its measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.

¹⁰“If He comes by and imprisons, or convenes a court,
 who can prevent Him?

¹¹For He knows deceitful men;
 when He sees wickedness,
 does he not consider it?

¹²But a witless man will gain understanding when a wild donkey’s colt is born a human being?

¹³“If you devote your heart to Him and spread out your hands to Him,

¹⁴if you put away the wickedness that is in your hand, and allow no iniquity
 to abide in your tent,

¹⁵then you will lift up your face without reproach;
 you will stand firm and without fear.

¹⁶You will forget your trouble;
 you will remember it like water that has flowed away.

¹⁷Life will be brighter than noonday; darkness like the morning.

¹⁸You will be confident,
 because there is hope;
 you will look about you and lie down in safety.

¹⁹You will lie down with no one to make you afraid, many will seek your favor.

²⁰But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will elude them;
 their only hope is their dying breath.”^a 12

Job: Everything is in His Hand

¹Job responded and said:

²“Without a doubt you are the people and wisdom will die with you!

³But I have a mind as well as you;
 I am not inferior to you.
 Who does not know these things?

⁴“I have become a laughingstock to my friend, though I called on God and He answered—a righteous and blameless man is a laughingstock!

⁵Contempt for calamity is the thought of one at ease, prepared for those whose foot slips.

⁶The tents of marauders prosper, and there is security for those who provoke God—
 for those whom God brings in His hand.

⁷But now ask the animals and they will teach you, or the birds of the sky
 and they will tell you,

⁸or speak to the earth and it will teach you, or the fish of the sea
 and they will inform you.

⁹Which of these does not know that the hand of ADONAI has done this?

¹⁰In His hand is the life of every creature, and the breath of all the human race.

¹¹Does not the ear test words as the palate tastes food?

¹²Is not wisdom with the aged and understanding bring long life?

^a 11:20. Lit. “to breath out their soul.”

¹³“With Him are wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are His.
¹⁴If He tears down, it cannot be rebuilt;
one He imprisons cannot be released.
¹⁵If He holds back the waters,
they dry up;
if He releases them,
they destroy the earth.
¹⁶With Him are power and sound wisdom;
both deceived and deceiver are His.
¹⁷He leads counselors away stripped and makes judges into fools.
¹⁸He loosens the bonds of the kings, and binds a loincloth around their waists.
¹⁹He leads priests away stripped and overthrows the rulers.
²⁰He silences the lips of trusted advisors and removes the discernment of elders.
²¹He pours contempt on nobles and loosens the belts of the mighty.
²²He reveals the deep things of darkness^b and brings utter darkness into light.
²³He makes nations great and destroys them.
He enlarges the nations and leads them away.
²⁴He deprives the heads of the people of earth of understanding, and causes them to wander
in a pathless wasteland.
²⁵They grope in darkness with no light;
He makes them stagger like a drunkard.

13

Job Challenges God

¹“Indeed, my eye has seen it all, my ears have heard and understood it.
²What you know, I also know;
I am not inferior to you.
³Still, I desire to speak to Shaddai and to argue my case with God.
⁴You, however, smear me with lies;

^b12:22. cf. 1Cor. 4:5.

you are worthless doctors—all of you!
⁵If only you would keep completely silent!
For you, that would be wisdom.
⁶Hear now my argument;
listen to the contentions of my lips.
⁷Will you speak unjustly on God’s behalf?
Will you speak deceitfully for Him?
⁸Will you show Him partiality?
Will you argue the case for God?
⁹Would it turn out well if He examined you?
Could you deceive Him as you deceive a man?
¹⁰He would surely rebuke you if you secretly showed favoritism.
¹¹Would not His majesty terrify you and the dread of Him fall on you?
¹²Your maxims are proverbs of ashes;
your defenses are defenses of clay.
¹³Be silent and let me speak;
then let come to me what may.
¹⁴Why should I take my flesh in my teeth and take my life in my hands?
¹⁵Even if He slays me, I will wait for Him;
I will surely defend my ways before Him.
¹⁶This, too, will be my salvation for no godless can come before Him.
¹⁷“Listen carefully to my words, and let my declaration be in your ears.
¹⁸See now, I have prepared my case;
I know that I will be vindicated.
¹⁹Who will contend with me?
If so, I will be silent and die.

²⁰“Only two things do not do to me;
then I will not hide from Your face:
²¹withdraw Your hand far from me,
and do not assail me with Your terror.
²²Then call, and I will answer, or I will speak, and You respond
to me.
²³How many are my iniquities and sins?
Show me my transgressions and sin.
²⁴Why do You hide Your face and consider me Your enemy?
²⁵Will You frighten a windblown leaf and chase after dry chaff?

- ²⁶For You write bitter things against me and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
- ²⁷You put my feet in shackles and watch all my paths;
You put marks on the soles of my feet.
- ²⁸“So he wastes away like something rotten,
like a moth-eaten garment.

14

Death and Resurrection

- ¹“A mortal born of woman, is of few days and full of turmoil.
- ²Like a flower he comes up and withers;
like a shadow he flees and does not stay.
- ³Do You fix Your eyes on such a one,
and bring me for judgment with You?
- ⁴Who can make something pure out of the impure?
No one!
- ⁵Since his days are determined,
the number of his months is with You,
You have set his limits,
which he cannot exceed.
- ⁶Look away from him and let him alone, until he fulfills his time like a hired laborer.
- ⁷“At least there is hope for a tree—
if it is cut down it will sprout again, and its shoots will not cease.
- ⁸Though its roots grow old in the earth and its stump dies in the dry ground,
- ⁹at the scent of water it will bud and sprout sprigs like a new plant.
- ¹⁰But man dies and is powerless.
Man expires—and where is he?
- ¹¹As water evaporates from the sea and a river drains away and dries up,
- ¹²so a person lies down and does not rise;
until the heavens are no more,
people will not awake,
or be roused from their sleep.

- ¹³“Oh that You would hide me in Sheol, and conceal me until Your wrath has passed!
Oh that You would set a time for me and then remember me!
- ¹⁴If a man dies, will he live again?
All the days of my hard labor
I will wait until my relief comes.
- ¹⁵You will call and I—I will answer You;
You will long for the work of Your hands.
- ¹⁶For then You will number my steps;
You will not keep track of my sin;
- ¹⁷my transgression will be sealed in a bundle and cover over my iniquity.
- ¹⁸“Yet as a mountain falls away and crumbles
and a rock is moved from its place,
- ¹⁹as water wears away stones and torrents wash away the soil, so You destroy a person’s hope.
- ²⁰You overpower him—once for all,
and he perishes;
You change his appearance and send him away.
- ²¹If his sons achieve honor,
he does not know it;
if they are brought low,
he does not perceive it.
- ²²He only feels pain for his own flesh, and mourns for his own soul.”

15

Eliphaz Rebukes Job

- ¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded
and said:
- ²“Does a wise man answer with empty knowledge, or fill his belly with the east wind?
- ³Does he argue with useless talk and words that have no value in them?
- ⁴You even do away with reverence and hinder devotion before God.

⁵For your iniquity prompts your mouth and you choose the tongue of the crafty.

⁶Your own mouth condemns you—not I;
your own lips testify against you.

⁷“Are you the first man to be born?
Were you brought forth before the hills?

⁸Do you listen in on God’s counsel?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

⁹What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand that we do not understand?

¹⁰Both gray-haired and aged are with us, men even older than your father.

¹¹Are the comforts of God too small for you,
or a gentle word toward you?

¹²Why has your heart carried you away and why do your eyes flash, ¹³so that you turn your spirit against God and bring such words out of your mouth?

¹⁴“What is man, that he could be pure, or one born of woman,
that he could be righteous?

¹⁵If He puts no trust in His holy ones, if even the heavens are not pure
in His eyes, ¹⁶how much less man, who is vile and corrupt,
who drinks evil like water!

¹⁷I will tell you; listen to me, and what I have seen I will declare, ¹⁸what wise men have declared and did not hide from their ancestors, ¹⁹to whom alone the land was given, when no foreigner passed among them:

²⁰All his days the wicked suffers torment, and numbered are the years stored up for the tyrant.

²¹Terrifying sounds are in his ears;
in a time of peace,
marauders attack him.

²²He does not expect to escape from darkness;
he is destined for the sword.

²³He wanders about for bread—
“Where is it?”
He knows that the day of darkness is at hand.

²⁴Distress and anguish terrify him;
they overpower him like a king poised to attack, ²⁵for he raises his hand against God and flaunts himself against Shaddai, ²⁶defiantly rushing at Him with a thick, strong shield.

²⁷Because He covered his face with his fat and made his hips bulge with blubber, ²⁸he lived in ruined cities, in houses which no one inhabits, which are ready to crumble into heaps.

²⁹He will not become rich, and his wealth will not endure, nor will his possessions spread over the land.

³⁰He will not escape from the darkness;
a flame will wither his shoots, and he will depart
by the breath of His mouth.

³¹“Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself;
for emptiness will be his reward.

³²Before his day it will be paid in full and his branch will not be green.

³³He will shake off his unripe grapes like a vine,
and cast off his blossoms like an olive tree.

³⁴For the company of the godless is barren, and fire consumes the tents of bribery.

³⁵They conceive mischief and bring forth evil and their belly prepares deception.”

16

Job Reproves His Friends

¹Job answered, saying:

²“I have heard many things like these;
you are miserable comforters,
all of you!

³Is there no end to your futile words?
 What compels you to answer?
⁴I too could speak like you,
 if you were in my place;
 I could compose words against you and shake my head at you.
⁵But I would strengthen you with my mouth and comfort from my lips would bring you relief.
⁶“Yet, if I speak,
 my pain is not relieved,
 and if I refrain,
 does it not go away from me?
⁷Surely now He has exhausted me;
 You have devastated my entire household.
⁸You have seized me—
 it has become a witness;
 my leanness rises against me and testifies to my face.
⁹His anger has torn and tormented me;
 He gnashes at me with his teeth;
 my enemy looks at me
 with daggers in his eyes.
¹⁰People open their mouths against me;
 they strike my cheek in contempt;
 they unite together against me.
¹¹God has handed me over to the ungodly, and tossed me into the hands of the wicked.
¹²I was at ease, but He shattered me;
 He grabbed me by the neck and crushed me.
 He has made me His target;
¹³His archers surround me.
 Without mercy He pierces my kidneys and spills my gall on the ground.
¹⁴He breaks through against me, breach after breach.
 He runs after me like a warrior.
¹⁵“I have sewn sackcloth over my skin.
 and sunk my horn in the dust; ¹⁶my face is red from weeping, and on my eyelids are deep darkness;
¹⁷yet no violence is in my hands and my prayer is pure.

¹⁸“Earth, do not cover my blood, and let my cry find no resting place!
¹⁹Even now my witness is in heaven,^a my advocate is on high.
²⁰My intercessor is my friend;
 as my eyes pour out tears to God;
²¹he contends with God on behalf of man
 as one pleads for a friend.
²²“For the number of years will come to pass,
 and then I will go the way of no return.

17

Hope in Sheol?

¹“My spirit is broken,
 my days have cut short,
 the graveyard awaits me.
²Surely mockers are with me,
 my eyes must gaze on their hostility.
³“Make then a pledge for me with You.
 Who else would strike hands with me?
⁴Because You have closed their heart to understanding,
 therefore You will not exalt them.
⁵If anyone denounces his friends for profit
 the eyes of his children will fail.
⁶He has made me a byword to people,
 I am the one in whose face people spit.
⁷My eyes have grown dim with grief and all my limbs are like a shadow.
⁸The upright are appalled at this;
 the innocent are stirred up against the ungodly.
⁹But the righteous one holds to his way, and the one with clean hands grows stronger.
¹⁰“But turn, all of you, come now!
 I will not find a wise man among you.
¹¹My days have passed,
 my plans are torn apart.
 Yet the desires of my heart

^a 16:19. cf. Rom. 1:9.

¹² turn night into day;
 in the face of darkness light is near.
¹³ If I hope for Sheol as my home,
 if I make my bed in darkness, ¹⁴ if I say to the pit, 'You are my father,' and to the worm,
 'My mother,' or 'My sister,'
¹⁵ where then is my hope?
 And my hope, who sees it?
¹⁶ Will it go down to the gates of Sheol?
 Will we descend together into the dust?"

18

Bildad Rebukes Job

¹ Then, Bildad the Shuhite replied, saying:
² "How long until you end these words?
 Consider, and then we will talk.
³ Why are we regarded as beasts, and stupid in your eyes?
⁴ You, who tear yourself to pieces in anger, will the earth be abandoned for your sake?
 Or must a rock be moved from its place?
⁵ Indeed, the light of the wicked is snuffed out;
 the flame of his fire does not shine.
⁶ The light in his tent grows dark;
 the lamp above him goes out.
⁷ His vigorous stride is shortened, and his own scheme throws him down.
⁸ For he is cast into a net by his feet;
 he wanders into its mesh.
⁹ A trap seizes him by the heel;
 a snare holds him fast.
¹⁰ A rope is hidden for him on the ground, and a trap for him lies on the path.
¹¹ On every side terrors frighten him and harass his every step.
¹² Calamity is hungry for him; disaster is ready for his fall.
¹³ It eats away pieces of his skin;
 death's firstborn devours his limbs.
¹⁴ He is torn from the security of his tent,

and marched off to the king of terrors.
¹⁵ Nothing of his dwells in his tent;
 brimstone is scattered over his dwelling.
¹⁶ Below his roots dry up, and above his branches wither.
¹⁷ His memory perishes from the earth and he has no name in the land.
¹⁸ He is driven from light into darkness and is banished from the world.
¹⁹ He has no offspring or descendant among his people, no survivor where he once dwelt.
²⁰ People of the west are appalled at his fate;
 people of the east are seized with horror.
²¹ Surely such are the dwellings
 of the wicked;
 such is the place of one who does not know God."

Job: Have Pity on Me

² "How long will you torment my soul and crush me with words?
³ Ten times now you have reproached me;
 you attack me shamelessly.
⁴ But even if it is true that I have erred, my error remains with me.
⁵ If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me
 and prove my humiliation against me, ⁶ then know that God has wronged me and encircled me with His net.
⁷ "Though I cry out, 'Violence!'
 I get no response.
 I cry for help,
 but there is no justice.
⁸ He has blocked my way so I cannot pass, and has shrouded my path in darkness.
⁹ He has stripped me of my honor, and removed the crown from my head.

- ¹⁰He tears me down on every side
until I am gone;
He uproots my hope like a tree.
- ¹¹His anger burns against me,
and He considers me among His enemies.
- ¹²His troops advance together;
they build a siege ramp against me and encamp around my tent.
- ¹³“He removed my brothers far from me;
my acquaintances are only strangers
to me.
- ¹⁴My relatives have gone away and my close friends have forgotten me.
- ¹⁵My houseguests and my maidservants consider me a stranger.
I have become a foreigner in their eyes.
- ¹⁶I call my servant but he does not reply
though I beg him with my own mouth.
- ¹⁷My breath is repulsive to my wife;
I am loathsome to my children.
- ¹⁹Even young children despise me;
when I stand, they speak against me.^a
- ¹⁹All my close friends despise me;
those I love have turned against me.
- ²⁰My bones cling to my skin and my flesh;
I have escaped only by the skin of my teeth.
- ²¹“Have pity on me my friends, have pity,
for the hand of God has struck me.
- ²²Why do you pursue me—like God?
Are you not satisfied with my flesh?
- ²³Oh that my words were written, that they were recorded in a scroll
- ²⁴that with an iron pen and lead, they were engraved in stone forever!

My Redeemer Lives!

- ²⁵“Yet I know that my Redeemer lives, and in the end, He will stand on earth.
- ²⁶Even after my skin has been destroyed,
yet in my flesh I will see God;^b
- ²⁷I myself will see Him with my own eyes,

I and not a stranger.
My heart^c grows weak within me.

- ²⁸“If you say, ‘How we will pursue him, since the root of the matter is found in him;’
- ²⁹then you should fear the sword for yourselves;
for wrath brings the punishments of the sword—
so that you may know judgment!”

Zophar: Death and Hell for the Wicked

¹Then Zophar the Naamathite responded
and said:

- ²“In truth, my troubled thoughts urge me to answer
because of my feelings within me.
- ³I hear a rebuke that dishonors me and my understanding inspires me to reply.
- ⁴Do you not know that it has been from old,
since mankind was put on earth, ⁵that the triumph of the wicked is short and the joy of the godless is but for a moment?
- ⁶Though his pride reaches to the heavens,
and his head touches the clouds, ⁷he perishes forever like his own dung.
Those who have seen him will say, ‘Where is he?’
- ⁸Like a dream, he flies away and they cannot find him;
like a vision of the night,
he is chased away.
- ⁹The eye that saw him
will not see him again;
his place will look on him no more.
- ¹⁰His children must recompense the poor;
his own hands must give back his wealth.
- ¹¹His bones were full of his youthful vigor
but it will lie down with him in the dust.

^a 19:19. cf. John 13:18.

^b 19:26. cf. Matt. 5:8; 1Cor. 13:12; 1John 3:2.

^c 19:27. Lit. kidneys.

¹²Though evil is sweet in his mouth, though he hides it under his tongue, ¹³though he cannot bear to let it go and holds it in his mouth, ¹⁴his food turns sour in his stomach;
 it becomes the venom of serpents within him.
¹⁵He swallows riches and vomits them up;
 God empties it out of his stomach.
¹⁶He sucks the poison of serpents;
 fangs of a viper kill him.
¹⁷He will not look at streams, rivers flowing with honey and butter.
¹⁸He gives back what he toiled for without swallowing it;
 he will not enjoy
 the riches of his trade.
¹⁹For he has oppressed and abandoned the poor.
 He has seized a house
 he did not build.
²⁰For he knows no satisfaction from his greed,
 he cannot save himself by his desires.
²¹Nothing remains for him to devour; therefore his prosperity will not last.
²²In the fullness of his plenty,
 he will be distressed;
 the full force of misery
 will come upon him.
²³While he is filling his belly,
 He will send the anger
 of His wrath against him, and rain it down on him, on his flesh.
²⁴Though he flees from an iron weapon,
 a bronze bow pierces him through.
²⁵He pulls and it comes out of his back,
 the gleaming point out of his liver.
 Terrors come upon him!
²⁶Total darkness waits for his treasures;
 A fire not fanned will devour him;
 it will consume what is left in his tent.
²⁷The heavens will expose his iniquity;
 the earth will rise up against him.
²⁸A flood will carry off his house, rushing waters on the day of His wrath.
²⁹Such is the wicked man's lot from God,
 the heritage appointed to him by God."

21

Job's Dialogue on the Wicked

¹Then Job replied:
²"Listen carefully to my words;
 let this be your consolation.
³Bear with me as I speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.
⁴As for me, is my complaint against man?
 If so, why should I not be impatient?
⁵Look at me and be appalled;
 put your hand over your mouth.
⁶When I think of it, I am terrified and my flesh shudders.
⁷Why do the wicked go on living, growing old and increasing in power?
⁸Their children are established in their presence, their offspring before their eyes.
⁹Their homes have peace and are free from fear;
 no rod of God is on them.
¹⁰His bull breeds without fail;
 his cow calves and do not miscarry.
¹¹They send out their little ones like a flock and their children dance.
¹²They sing to the tambourine and harp and rejoice at the sound of the flute.
¹³They spend their days in prosperity, and in a moment go down to Sheol.
¹⁴Yet they say to God, 'Leave us alone!
 We have no desire to know Your ways.
¹⁵Who is Shaddai that we should serve Him?
 What would we gain if we pray to Him?'
¹⁶Look, their prosperity is not in their own hands;
 the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
¹⁷"How often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out or calamity fallen on them?
 How often does He allot pain in His anger?
¹⁸How often are they like straw
 before the wind;
 like chaff swept away by a storm?
¹⁹You say, 'God stores up the punishment for his children.'

Let Him repay the wicked so he may know it!
²⁰Let his own eyes see his ruin;
 let him drink the wrath of Shaddai.
²¹For what does he care for his family that he leaves behind, when the number of his months has come to an end?
²²“Can anyone teach God knowledge, since He judges even the highest.
²³One dies in his full strength,^a completely secure and at ease.
²⁴His pails are full of milk;
 His bones are moist with marrow.
²⁵Yet another dies in bitterness of soul, never having tasted goodness.
²⁶Together they lie in the dust and worms cover over them.
²⁷“Behold, I know your thoughts, the schemes by which you wrong me.
²⁸For you ask,
 ‘Where is the nobleman’s house and the tent where the wicked lived?’
²⁹Have you not asked travelers?
 Do you not recognize their accounts ³⁰that the wicked are spared for the day of calamity that they are brought to the day of wrath?
³¹Who declares his conduct to his face?
 Who repays him for what he has done?
³²He is brought to the grave, and watch is kept over his tomb.
³³The soil in the valley is sweet to him;
 everyone follows after him,
 and countless are those before him.
³⁴“So how will your futility comfort me, for your answers remain nothing but falsehood?”

22

Eliphaz Keeps Pointing at Sin

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded saying:

^a 21:23. Lit. in the bone of his perfection.

²“Can a man be useful to God?
 Can even a wise man benefit Him?
³What pleasure is it to Shaddai
 if you are righteous?
 Or what gain
 if your ways are blameless?
⁴Is it because of your reverence that He corrects you and He brings judgment against you?
⁵Is not your wickedness great,
 and is there no end to your iniquity?
⁶For you took pledges from your brothers
 for no reason;
 you stripped the naked
 of their clothing.
⁷You gave the weary no water to drink and from the hungry you withhold bread, ⁸Though you were a mighty man, owning land—
 an honored man living on it.
⁹You sent widows away empty-handed and crushed the arms of orphans.
¹⁰“That is why snares surround you,
 and why sudden fear terrifies you, ¹¹or why it is so dark that you cannot see.
 and why a flood of water covers you.
¹²“Is not God in the heights of heaven?
 And see the lofty stars
 how high they are?
¹³Yet you say, ‘What does God know?
 Does He judge through such thick darkness?
¹⁴Thick clouds veil Him so He does not see, as He walks in the vault of heaven.’
¹⁵Will you keep to the old way that wicked men have trod?
¹⁶They were snatched away before their time, their foundations washed away
 by a river.
¹⁷They said to God, ‘Leave us alone!
 What can Shaddai do to us?’
¹⁸Yet He filled their houses with good things—but the counsel of the wicked is far from me!

¹⁹The righteous see and rejoice;
the innocent mock them, saying, ²⁰‘Surely our foes are cut off, and fire consumes their abundance.’

²¹“Reconcile now with Him and have shalom—
in this way prosperity will come to you.
²²Accept instruction from His mouth and store up His words in your heart.
²³If you return to Shaddai, you will be restored;
if you remove iniquity far from your tent ²⁴and throw your gold in the dust, and the gold of Ophir
to the rocks in the wadis, ²⁵then Shaddai will be your gold and your precious silver.
²⁶Surely then Shaddai will be your delight and you will lift up your face to God.
²⁷You will pray to Him and He will hear you,
and you will fulfill your vows.
²⁸What you decide will be done, and light will shine on your ways.
²⁹When people are brought low, and you say, ‘Lift them up!’
then He will save the downcast.
³⁰He will deliver even one who is not innocent, who will be delivered by the cleanness of your hands.”

23

Job’s Argument with God

¹Then Job answered:

²“Even today my complaint is rebellious;
His hand is heavy despite my groaning.
³If only I knew where to find Him;
if only I could go to His dwelling.
⁴I would lay out my case before Him and fill my mouth with arguments.
⁵I would know with what words
He would answer me, and understand what He would say to me.

⁶Would He oppose me with great power?
No, He would only pay attention
to me.
⁷There the upright can reason with Him, and there I would forever be delivered from my Judge.
⁸But, if I go to the east, He is not there;
if I go to the west,
I do not find Him.
⁹When He is in the north,
I cannot perceive Him;
When He turns south,
I do not see Him.
¹⁰Yet He knows the way that I take;
if He tested me,
I would come out as gold.
¹¹My foot has held closely to His steps;
I have kept to His way
and have not strayed.
¹²I have not departed from the commands of His lips.
I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my daily bread.
¹³He is unchangeable, and who can change Him?
Whatever His soul desires,
He does.
¹⁴For He fulfills the decree against me,
and many such things are with Him.
¹⁵That is why I am terrified at His presence;
when I consider this, I fear Him.
¹⁶God has made my heart faint;
Shaddai has terrified me.
¹⁷Yet I am not silenced
because of the darkness,
nor by the thick darkness that covers my face.”

24

Futility of Injustice

¹“Why are times not stored up by Shaddai?
And why do those who know Him not see His days?
²Some remove the boundary-stones;

they steal flocks and pasture them.
³They drive away the orphan's donkey and take the widow's ox
 as a pledge.
⁴They turn the needy off the path;
 they force the poor of the land into hiding.
⁵Behold, like wild donkeys in the desert,
 they go about their work, foraging prey in the desert
 as food for their children.
⁶They reap their fodder in the field and glean in the vineyard
 of the wicked.
⁷Without clothing they spend the night naked,
 without covering against the cold.
⁸They are drenched by mountain rains, and hug the rock for lack of shelter.
⁹The orphan is snatched from the breast;
 the infant of the poor is taken as a pledge.
¹⁰They wander about naked, without clothing and go hungry while they carry sheaves.
¹¹They press oil between the terraces;
 they tread winepresses, but are thirsty.
¹²From the city men groan, and the souls of the wounded cry out;
 yet God charges no one with folly.
¹³These are those who rebel against the light, who do not recognize its ways or stay in its paths.
¹⁴The murderer rises with the light,
 kills the poor and needy,
 and in the night becomes a thief.
¹⁵The eye of the adulterer waits for twilight, thinking, 'No eye will see me,'
 and he disguises his face.
¹⁶When it is dark, they break into houses, but by day, they shut themselves in;
 they do not know the light.
¹⁷For to all of them, morning is as thick darkness;
 they are familiar with the terrors of thick darkness.

¹⁸"He is foam on the surface of water;
 their portion of the land is cursed;
 no one turns toward their vineyards.
¹⁹As heat and drought snatch away the melted snow,
 so Sheol,
 takes away those who have sinned.
²⁰The womb forgets him,
 the worm feasts on him,
 no longer will he be remembered.
 But like a tree, wickedness is broken.
²¹He feeds on the barren and childless woman,
 and shows no kindness to the widow.
²²But He drags off the mighty by His power;
 He raises up, yet no one has assurance of life.
²³He allows him to rest in a sense of security,
 but His eyes are on their ways.
²⁴They are exalted for a little while and then they are gone;
 they are brought low and gathered up like all others, they are like heads of grain they wither.
²⁵Now if it is not so,
 who can prove me a liar,
 and reduce my speech to nothing?"

25

Bildad: Justified With God?

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
²"Dominion and awe are with Him;
 He establishes shalom in His heights.
³Can His armies be counted?
 On whom does His light not rise?
⁴How then can a man be righteous with God?
 How can one born of a woman be pure?
⁵If even the moon is not bright and the stars are not pure in His eyes, ⁶how much less man who is but a maggot—a son of man who is a worm!"

26

Job: God is Awesome

- ¹Then Job responded and said:
²“How you have helped the powerless!
 How you have saved
 the arm without strength!
³How you have counseled the one without wisdom and revealed your abundant insights!
⁴To whom have you uttered words?
 Whose spirit has come from your mouth?
⁵“The dead tremble—those beneath the water and all that live in them.
⁶Sheol is naked before Him;
 Abaddon has no covering.^a ⁷He stretches out the north over the void;
 He suspends the earth over nothing.
⁸He wraps up the waters in His clouds, yet the clouds do not burst under them.
⁹He covers the face of the full moon, spreading His clouds over it.
¹⁰He marks out the horizon on the face of the waters, for a boundary between light and dark.
¹¹The pillars of heaven tremble, astounded at His rebuke!
¹²By His power He churns up the sea;
 by His understanding He smashed Rahab.
¹³By His Ruach the heavens are clear;
 His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
¹⁴Indeed, these are but glimpses of His ways;
 how faint the whisper, we hear of Him!
 Who then can understand the thunder of His might?”

27

What Hope has the Godless?

¹And Job took up his discourse again,
 saying:

^a 26:6. cf. Heb. 4:13; Rev. 9:11.

- ²“As God lives, who has deprived me of justice,
Shaddai who has made my soul bitter, ³as long as my breath is still in me,
 the Ruach of God in my nostrils, ⁴my lips will speak no injustice, nor will my tongue mutter deceit.
⁵Far be it from me to say that you are just;
 until I die, I will not set aside
 my integrity!
⁶I will maintain my righteousness, and not let it go;
 my conscience will not reproach me
 for any of my days.
⁷“May my enemy be like the wicked my enemy like the unrighteous.
⁸For what hope has the godless, when he is cut off,
 when God takes his soul?^b ⁹Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?
¹⁰Will he delight in Shaddai?
 Will he call upon God at all times?
¹¹I will teach you about the hand of God;
 I will not conceal the ways of Shaddai.
¹²Look, you have all seen this yourselves.
 Why then this meaningless talk?
¹³“This is the portion of a wicked man with God, the inheritance that ruthless men receive from Shaddai.
¹⁴If his children increase—it is for the sword.
 His offspring will never have enough to eat.
¹⁵Those who survive him will be buried by the plague, and their widows
 will not weep.
¹⁶Though he piles up silver like dust,
 and clothing like heaps of mortar, ¹⁷what he lays up, the righteous will wear, and the upright will divide the silver.
¹⁸The house he built is like a moth’s cocoon,
 like a hut made for a watchman.

^b 27:6. cf. Acts 23:1; Rom. 2:15..

- ¹⁹“He lies down wealthy,
but will gather no more.
When he opens his eyes,
all is gone!
²⁰Terrors overtake him like a flood;
a storm sweeps him away at night.
²¹The east wind picks him up and he is gone;
it sweeps him out of his place.
²²It hurls itself at him without pity as he flees headlong from its hand.
²³It claps its hands at him in derision, and hisses him out of his place.”

28

Where Can Wisdom be Found?

- ¹“Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place where gold is refined.
²Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.
³Man puts an end to darkness;
he searches to the farthest reaches for ore in gloom and blackest darkness.
⁴He cuts open a shaft far from dwellings, in places forgotten by feet.
Far from other people,
they dangle back and forth.
⁵The earth, from which food comes,
is transformed as by fire; ⁶a place whose rocks are sapphires, its dust contains gold.
⁷No bird of prey knows the path;
nor falcon’s eye has seen it.
⁸Proud beasts have not set foot on it, and no lion has passed there.
⁹Man sets his hand against the flinty rock and overturns mountains by the roots.
¹⁰He carves out tunnels through the rocks;
his eye sees every precious thing.
¹¹He dams up streams from flowing.
And brings hidden things to light.

¹²“But where can wisdom be found?
Where is the place of understanding?
¹³No mortal comprehends its worth;

- it cannot be found in the land
of the living.
¹⁴The deep says, ‘It is not in me’—
The sea says, ‘It’s not with me.’
¹⁵Pure gold cannot be given for it, nor can its price be weighed in silver.
¹⁶It cannot be weighed in gold from Ophir, in precious onyx, or sapphire.
¹⁷Neither gold or crystal can compare with it, nor vessels of fine gold exchanged for it.
¹⁸No mention will be made of coral or jasper;
the price of wisdom
is more than pearls.
¹⁹The topaz of Ethiopia cannot compare to it;
nor can it be valued in pure gold.
²⁰Where then does wisdom come from?
Where is the place of understanding?
²¹It has been hidden from the eyes of all living things, concealed from the birds of the sky.
²²Abaddon and Death say,
‘With our ears we have heard a rumor of it.’

²³“God understands its way and He knows its place.
²⁴He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees everything
under the heavens.
²⁵When He made the force of the wind, and measured out the waters, ²⁶when He set a limit for the rain and a path for the thunderstorm, ²⁷then He looked at it and assessed it established it and examined it.
²⁸And He said to mankind,
‘The fear of the Lord
—that is wisdom,
and to turn away from evil is understanding.’”

29

Job Remembers Better Days

- ¹Again Job took up his discourse saying:

²“O that I could be as in the months gone by,
 as in the days when God watched over me, ³when His lamp shone above my head, when by His light
 I walked through darkness;
⁴as I was in the days of my prime, when God’s intimate friendship was upon my tent, ⁵when Shaddai was still with me, and my children surrounded me; ⁶when my steps were bathed with butter, and the rock poured out for me streams of oil.
⁷When I went out to the city gate, and secured my seat
 in the public square, ⁸young men would see me and hide, old men would rise and stand; ⁹princes refrained from talking and put their hand over their mouths; ¹⁰the voice of the nobles was hushed and their tongue stuck to their palate.
¹¹“When the ear heard, it called me blessed,
 and when the eye saw me,
 it commended me;
¹²for I saved the poor who cried for help, and the orphan who had no one to help him;
¹³the blessing of the dying man came on me,
 and I made the widow’s heart
 sing for joy.
¹⁴I put on righteousness as my clothing;
 justice was as my robe and turban.
¹⁵I was eyes for the blind and feet for the lame; ¹⁶I was a father to the needy, and I investigated the case of one I did not know.
¹⁷I broke the jaws of the unjust, and snatched the prey out of his teeth.
¹⁸“Then I thought, ‘I will die in my nest, and multiply my days like the sand.
¹⁹My roots reach the water, and dew lies on my branches all night.

²⁰My glory is fresh within me, and my bow is renewed in my hand.’

²¹“People listened to me and waited, and kept silent for my advice.
²²After I had spoken, they spoke no more;
 my words fell on them
 drop by drop.
²³They waited for me as for the rain, and opened their mouths
 as for spring rain.
²⁴When I joked with them,
 they hardly believed it;
 they did not cause the light of my face to fall.
²⁵I chose their way and sat as their chief;
 I lived as a king among the troops;
 I was like one who comforts mourners.

30

Cry of Great Agony

¹“But now they mock me—
 those younger than I, whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.
²Moreover, what use was the strength of their hands to me, since their vigor has gone from them.
³Haggard from want and hunger,
 they gnaw the parched land,
 in former time desolate and waste.
⁴In the brush they pluck salt herbs, and their food was from the root of the broom tree.
⁵They were banished from society, shouted at as if they were thieves, ⁶so they were forced to dwell in wadis, in holes of the earth and among the rocks.
⁷They brayed among the bushes and huddled under the nettles.
⁸A senseless and nameless brood,
 they were cast out from the land.

⁹“So now I have become their taunt song;
 I have become a byword to them.
¹⁰They despise me;
 they keep their distance from me;
 they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
¹¹Because He has loosened my cord and afflicted me, they have cast off restraint in my presence ¹²On my right the rabble rise up; they entangle my feet and build up their destructive paths against me.
¹³They break up my path;
 they succeed in destroying me without anyone helping them.
¹⁴As through a wide breach they come;
 amid the ruins they come rolling in.
¹⁵Terrors are turned on me;
 they chase away my honor
 like the wind, and like a cloud
 my deliverance vanishes.
¹⁶“And now my soul is poured out
 within me;
 days of suffering have taken hold of me.
¹⁷Night pierces my bones within me;
 my gnawing pains never rest.
¹⁸By great power He seizes my garment;
 He binds me like the collar of my tunic.
¹⁹He has cast me into the mud, and I have become like dust and ashes.
²⁰“I cry out to You,
 but You do not answer me;
 I stand up,
 but You only look at me.
²¹You have turned on me cruelly;
 You attack me with the might of Your hand.
²²You lift me up on the wind and make me ride on it;
 You toss me about in the storm.
²³For I know that you will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all the living.
²⁴Yet does not one in a heap of ruins
 stretch out His hand, and in his distress cry for help?

²⁵Have I not wept for the unfortunate?
 Was not my soul grieved for the poor?
²⁶Yet, when I hoped for good, evil came;
 when I waited for light,
 then darkness came.
²⁷“My heart^a seethes and never stops;
 days of suffering confront me.
²⁸I walk about blackened, but not by the sun;
 I stand in the assembly and cry for help.
²⁹I have become a brother to jackals, and a companion to ostriches.
³⁰My skin has turned black on me;
 my bones burn with heat.
³¹My harp is for mourning and my flute for the sound of weeping.

31

Job Asks for Judgment

¹“I made a covenant with my eyes not to pay attention to a virgin.
²For what is one’s lot from God above, one’s heritage from Shaddai on high?
³Is it not calamity for the unjust, and disaster for workers of iniquity?
⁴Does He not see my ways and count all my steps?
⁵“If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has hurried to deceit, ⁶then let Him weigh me with honest scales,
 then God will know my integrity.
⁷If my step has strayed from the way, if my heart has walked after my eyes, or if any defilement has stuck to my hands, ⁸then let me sow and another eat, and let my crops be uprooted.
⁹If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or I have lurked at my neighbor’s door, ¹⁰then let my wife grind for another and let others sleep with her.

^a 30:27. Lit. loins.

¹¹For that would be a shameful act, an iniquity to be judged.

¹²For it is a fire that devours to destruction, and uproots all my harvest.

¹³“If I have denied justice to my male or female servant
when they disputed with me,

¹⁴then what could I do when God rises up;
when He visits,
how will I answer Him?

¹⁵Did not He who made me in the womb, make him?
Did not the same one form us in the womb?

¹⁶“If I withheld the desires of the poor or let the eyes of the widow to fail,

¹⁷if I ate my morsel of bread myself, without letting an orphan eat of it

¹⁸(but from my youth
I reared him as a father, and from my mother’s womb
I guided her),

¹⁹if I have seen anyone perishing for lack of clothing or the needy without a covering,

²⁰if his heart did not bless me as he warmed himself with the fleece of my sheep,

²¹if I have raised my hand against the orphan,
when I saw my support in the gate,

²²then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder, and let my arm be broken off at the joint.

²³For calamity from God was a terror to me,
and because of His majesty,
I could do nothing.

²⁴“If I have put my confidence in gold or said to fine gold,
‘You are my security,’

²⁵if I rejoiced because of my great wealth or because of the abundance my hand acquired,

²⁶if I looked at the sun when it shines or the moon moving in splendor,

²⁷so that my heart was secretly enticed, and my hand threw a kiss

from my mouth,

²⁸then this also would be iniquity to be judged,
for I would have denied God above.

²⁹“If I rejoiced at my enemy’s misfortune or gloated because calamity found him—

³⁰I have not allowed my mouth to sin, by asking for his life with a curse—

³¹if anyone in my household has ever said,
‘Who has not been filled with his meat?’

³²—but no stranger had to spend the night outside for my door was open to the traveler—

³³if I have I covered my transgressions like Adam,
by hiding my guilt in my bosom

³⁴because I feared a great multitude, and the contempt of clans terrified me,

so that I kept silent and would not go outside.

³⁵O, that I had someone to hear me!
Look, here is my signature,
let Shaddai answer me,

let the accuser write the indictment!

³⁶Surely I would carry it on my shoulder;
I would bind it on me as a crown.

³⁷I would give Him an account of my steps;
like a prince I would approach Him.

³⁸“If my land cries out against me,
and its furrows weep together,

³⁹if I have eaten its fruits without money, or caused the death of its owners,

⁴⁰then let briars come up instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley.”

The words of Job are ended.

32

Young Elihu Speaks

¹So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ²Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite of the clan of Ram became very angry. He was angry with Job for justifying himself rather than God. ³He was also angry with his three friends because they had not found an answer, and yet had condemned Job. ⁴Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because they were older. ⁵When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his anger was aroused.

⁶Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite responded and said:

“I am young in days and you are old;
that is why I was timid and dared not to tell what I know.

⁷I thought, ‘Let days speak, and many years teach wisdom.’^a ⁸But there is a spirit in people, the breath of Shaddai that gives them understanding.

⁹It is not only the aged who are wise or old men who understand justice.

¹⁰“Therefore I say, ‘Listen to me!
I, even I, will explain what I know.’

¹¹Look, I waited for your words,
I listened to your reasoning;
while you were searching for words ¹²I gave you my full attention.

But behold, no one proved Job wrong;
none among you, answered his statements.

¹³Lest you should say,
‘We have found wisdom;
let God refute him, not man!’

¹⁴Job has not directed his words to me and I will not respond to him with your arguments.

¹⁵“They are dismayed and no longer reply;
words have failed them.

¹⁶Must I wait, since they no longer speak since they stand there with no reply?

¹⁷I too will answer my part;
I too will declare what I know.

¹⁸For I am full of words,

^a 32:7. cf. Luke 2:47.

and the spirit within me compels me;
¹⁹inside I am like wine that has no opening, like new wineskins ready to burst.

²⁰I must speak that I may find relief;
I will open my lips that I may answer.

²¹I will show partiality to no one,
nor will I flatter anyone;

²²for I do not know how to flatter else my Maker would quickly carry me away!

33

¹“But now, Job, listen to my words and give ear to everything I say.

²See now, I open my mouth;
my tongue in my mouth speaks.

³My words are from my upright heart;
my lips speak sincerely
what they know.

⁴“The Ruach of God has made me;
the breath of Shaddai gives me life.

⁵Answer me, if you can;
array yourselves before me;
take your stand!

⁶Look, I am the same as you before God;
I too am formed from clay.

⁷See, no fear of me should terrify you, nor should my pressure be heavy on you.

⁸“Indeed, you have said in my hearing,
—I heard the sound of the words:

⁹I am pure, without transgression;
I am innocent, without iniquity.

¹⁰Yet, He has found fault with me;
He considers me His enemy.

¹¹He puts my feet in the shackles;
He watches closely all my paths.’

¹²“But in this, you are not right—
I answer you,
for God is greater than a mortal.

¹³Why do you contend against Him that He does not answer all His words.

¹⁴Indeed, God speaks once, even twice, yet no one perceives it.

¹⁵“In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men,
as they slumber in bed, ¹⁶Then He opens the ears of men and seals their instruction, ¹⁷in order to turn a man from his conduct and to cover a person’s pride.
¹⁸He spares his soul from the Pit and his life from perishing by the sword.
¹⁹Or a person is chastened with pain on his bed,
with continual strife in his bones, ²⁰so that his life loathes bread, and his soul, desirable food.
²¹His flesh wastes away from sight, and his bones, once unseen,
now stick out.
²²His soul draws near to the Pit and his life to the messengers of death.

²³“If there is an angel beside him, a messenger, one out of a thousand,
to declare to a man his uprightness, ²⁴then He is gracious to him, and says ‘Deliver him from going down to the Pit—
I have found a ransom;’ ²⁵let his flesh be restored like a child’s;
let him return to the days of his youth.’
²⁶He entreats God and is accepted by Him;
he sees His face with a shout of joy;
He restores to the man
his righteousness.
²⁷He sings to others, saying,
‘I have sinned and perverted
what is right,
but I did not get what I deserved.
²⁸He redeemed my soul from going down to the Pit, and my life sees the light.’

²⁹“Indeed, God does all these things, twice, even three times with a man, ³⁰to bring his soul back from the Pit, that he may be illuminated with the light of life.
³¹Pay attention, Job, listen to me;
Be silent, and I will speak.
³²If you have anything to say, answer me.

Speak, for I want to justify you.

³³If not, then listen to me.

Be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

34

Testing Job’s Claims

¹Then Elihu answered:

²“Hear my words, you wise men;
give ear to me, you men of learning.

³For the ear tests words
as the mouth tastes food.

⁴Let us choose for ourselves what is right;
Let us learn together what is good.

⁵“For Job says, ‘I am righteous, but God has deprived me of justice.

⁶Concerning my right, should I lie?

My wound is incurable,
although I am without transgression.’

⁷What man is like Job, who drinks mockery like water,

⁸who keeps company with evildoers, and walks with wicked men?

⁹For he says, ‘It does not profit a man when he makes his delight with God.’

¹⁰“Therefore, listen to me,
you men of understanding:
Wickedness is far from God, injustice from Shaddai

¹¹For He repays a person for what he has done, and brings on the person
what he deserves.

¹²“Truly God does not act wickedly, and Shaddai does not pervert justice.

¹³Who appointed Him over the earth?
Who put Him over the whole world?

¹⁴“If He were to set His heart on it, and gather to Himself
His Ruach and breath,

¹⁵all flesh would perish together and mankind would return to dust.^b

^b 34:14-15. cf. Acts 17:25,28.

¹⁶“Now if you have understanding, hear this;
give ear to the sound of my words.
¹⁷Can someone who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn the mighty, righteous One?
¹⁸Who says to a king, ‘Worthless man’
and to nobles, ‘Wicked men’!
¹⁹Who shows no partiality before princes, and does not favor the rich over the poor, for they are all the work of His hands.
²⁰They die in a moment,
at midnight,
people are shaken and they pass away.
The mighty are removed without a hand.

²¹“For His eyes are on the ways of man;
He sees all his steps.
²²There is no gloom and no deep darkness,
where evildoers can hide themselves.
²³For He does not consider a man further that he should go before God
in judgment.
²⁴He shatters the mighty without inquiry, and sets others in their place.
²⁵Thus He recognizes their deeds,
He overturns them in the night and they are crushed.
²⁶He strikes them for their wickedness in a place where people can see, ²⁷because they turned from following Him, and have not understood any of His ways.
²⁸They caused the cry of the poor to come before Him,
so that He hears the cry of the afflicted.

²⁹“But if He is quiet, who can condemn Him?
If He hides His face,
who can see Him?
Yet He is over a nation
and an individual alike, ³⁰so that godless men should not rule, nor lay snares for people.

³¹“Suppose someone says to God,
‘I have born chastisement,
but I will not act wickedly any more.
³²Teach me what I cannot see.
If I have done evil,
I will not do it again.’
³³Should He requite it on your terms, because you reject it?
But you must choose and not I;
now declare what you know.

³⁴“Men of understanding declare, wise men who hear me say to me, ³⁵‘Job speaks without knowledge, and his words lack understanding.’ ³⁶Oh, that Job might be tested to the end, for answering like wicked men.
³⁷For he adds rebellion to his sin;
in our midst he claps his hands and multiplies his words against God.”

35

¹Then Elihu answered, saying:
²“Do you think this is just?
Do you say,
‘My righteousness is greater than God’s?’
³For you ask, ‘What will it profit you?’
and ‘What do I gain by not sinning?’ ⁴I will answer you, and your friends with you.
⁵Look up at the heavens and see;
consider the clouds so high above you.
⁶If you sin, how does it affect Him?
If your transgressions are many,
what do you do to Him?
⁷If you are righteous,
what do you give Him, or what does He receive from your hand?^a ⁸Your wickedness is for a man like yourself, and your righteousness for a son of man.

⁹“Because of a multitude of oppressions, they cry out;

^a 35:7. cf. Rom. 11:35.

they cry for help because of the power of the mighty.
¹⁰But no one says,
 'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night, ¹¹who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, who makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?'
¹²There they cry out,
 but He does not answer,
 because of the pride of the wicked.
¹³Indeed God does not hear an empty cry;
 Shaddai pays no attention to it.
¹⁴How much less when you say that you do not perceive Him that the case is before Him and you must wait for Him.
¹⁵And further, that His anger does not punish and that He does not know transgression?
¹⁶So Job opens his mouth with nonsense, without knowledge he multiplies words."

36

Elihu Magnifies the Almighty

¹Then Elihu said further:

²"Be patient with me a bit longer and I will show you that there is more to say on God's behalf.
³I get my knowledge from afar;
 I ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
⁴For truly, my words are not false;
 One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
⁵"Indeed, God is mighty,
 but despises none,
 He is mighty in strength
 of understanding.
⁶He does not keep the wicked alive, but gives justice to the afflicted.

⁷He does not take His eyes from the righteous, but enthrones them with kings and exalts them forever.
⁸But if they are bound in chains, and held captive by cords of affliction, ⁹then He declares to them their deed that they have transgressed arrogantly.
¹⁰And He opens their ear to instruction, and commands that they turn from evil.
¹¹If they obey and serve,
 they will end their days in prosperity,
 and their years in happiness.
¹²But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword,
 and die without knowledge.
¹³"The godless in heart harbor anger, they do not cry for help
 even when He binds them.
¹⁴Their souls die in youth, their life ends among cult prostitutes.
¹⁵He delivers the afflicted by his affliction and opens their ear in oppression.
¹⁶"And indeed, He will draw you from the mouth of distress, to a spacious place without constraint, and the comfort of a table full of rich food.
¹⁷But you are full of judgment on the wicked,
 judgment and justice take hold of you!
¹⁸Beware lest wrath entice you with riches;
 or a large bribe turn you aside.
¹⁹Will your wealth sustain you to keep you from distress, or even all your mighty efforts?
²⁰Do not long for the night, when people vanish from their places.
²¹Be careful, do not turn to iniquity; for you have chosen this rather than affliction.
²²"Indeed, God is exalted in His power.
 Who is a teacher like Him?
²³Who has prescribed His way for Him?
 Or said 'You have done wrong'?"

- ²⁴Remember to magnify His work,
of which people have sung.
²⁵All mankind has seen it;
people gaze on it from afar.
²⁶Behold, God is exalted —beyond our knowledge!
The number of His years is unsearchable.
²⁷For He draws up the drops of water;
they distill rain into its mist, ²⁸which the clouds pour down and shower mankind abundantly.
²⁹Indeed, who can understand the spreading of the clouds, and the thunder from His pavilion?

³⁰“See how He scatters His lightning about Him, covering the depths of the sea.
³¹For by these, He judges peoples and supplies food in abundance.
³²He covers His hands with lightning and commands it to strike its target.
³³His thunder declares His presence, the cattle also, about what is coming.

37

- ¹“At this my heart trembles and leaps from its place.
²Listen carefully to the roar of His voice, the rumbling that comes from His mouth.
³Under the whole heaven He lets it loose, and His light to the ends of the earth.
⁴After that a voice roars;
He thunders with His majestic voice.
He does not hold them back when His voice is heard.
⁵God thunders wondrously with His voice;
He does great things beyond our comprehension.

⁶“For to the snow He says, ‘Fall to the earth,’ and to the torrential rain—be a mighty downpour of rain.

- ⁷He seals the hand of every man,
so that all men will know His work.
⁸The animals go into their lairs;
they remain in their dens.
⁹Out of its chamber comes the storm, and icy cold from the driving wind.
¹⁰From the breath of God frost is made,
and the watery expanse freezes.
¹¹He loads the cloud with moisture;
He scatters His cloud of lightning.
¹²It swirls around by His guidance, to do whatever He commands on the face of the inhabited world.
¹³Whether it is a rod of punishment or for His land or for lovingkindness,
He causes it to happen.

¹⁴“Listen to this, Job:
stand and consider God’s wonders.
¹⁵Do you know how God orders them, and makes the lightning flash
in His cloud?
¹⁶Do you know the balancing of clouds, the wonders of Him who has perfect knowledge?

¹⁷“You, whose clothes are hot, when the earth is still,
because of the south wind, ¹⁸can you, with Him, stretch out the skies, strong as a mirror of molten metal?
¹⁹Teach us what to say to Him;
we cannot prepare a case
because of the darkness.
²⁰Should He be informed that I want to speak?
If a man speaks,
would he be swallowed up?
²¹But now, they do not see the light, bright as it is in the skies, until the wind has passed and cleared the clouds away.
²²Out of the north comes in golden splendor;
around God is awesome majesty.
²³Shaddai, we cannot find Him!
He is great in power and justice, and abundant righteousness
He does not oppress.

²⁴Therefore people fear Him;
He does not regard all the wise of heart.”

38

Word out of the Whirlwind

¹Then ADONAI answered Job out of the whirlwind.
He said:

²“Who is this, who darkens counsel with words without knowledge?”

³Now gird up your loins like a man;
I will question you,
and you will inform Me!

⁴“Where were you when I laid the foundations of earth?
Tell Me,
if you have understanding.

⁵Who set its dimensions
—if you know—
or who stretched a line over it?

⁶On what were its foundations set, or who laid its cornerstone—

⁷when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

⁸“And who shut up the sea behind doors
when it burst forth from the womb,

⁹when I made a cloud its garment and thick darkness its swaddling cloth,

¹⁰when I prescribed my boundary for it,
and set bars and gates,

¹¹when I said, ‘This far you may come,
but no further;
here your majestic waves will stop.’

¹²“Have you ever in your life commanded the morning, or caused dawn to know its place;

¹³that it would take hold of the corners of the earth

and shake the wicked out of it?

¹⁴It changes shape like clay under a seal—

they stand out like those of a garment.

¹⁵And from the wicked their light is withheld,
and the upraised arm is broken.

¹⁶“Have you gone to the springs of the sea, or walked in the recesses of the deep?

¹⁷Have the gates of death been revealed to you?

Have you seen the gates of the deepest darkness?

¹⁸Have you comprehended the expanses
of the earth?

If you know it all, declare it!

¹⁹In what direction does light dwell, and darkness, where is its place—

²⁰that you can take it to its borders, and discern the paths to its home?

²¹Surely you know, for you were born then;
and the number of your days is great!

²²“Have you entered the storehouses of snow

or seen the storehouses of hail,

²³which I reserved for a time of distress, for a day of battle and war?

²⁴In what direction is light distributed, or the east wind scattered over the earth?

²⁵Who cuts a channel for the flood,
and a path for the thunderstorm,

²⁶to cause it to rain on an uninhabited land,
a desert with no one in it,

²⁷to satisfy a devastated and desolate land, and cause it to sprout grass?

²⁸Does the rain have a father, or who has birthed the drops of dew?

²⁹From whose womb comes the ice?
Who gives birth to the frost of heaven,

³⁰when the waters hide like stone, and the surface of the deep is frozen?

³¹“Can you bind the chains of Pleiades or loosen the belt of Orion?

³²Do you bring out the constellations in their season or guide the Bear with her cubs?

³³Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?

Can you set up dominion
over the earth?

³⁴“Can you raise your voice to the clouds and cover yourself with an abundance of water?

³⁵Can you send out lightning bolts,
so they go?
Will they say to you,
‘Here we are?’

³⁶Who put wisdom in the secret place or gave understanding to the mind?

³⁷Who can count the clouds by wisdom, or tip over the water jars of heaven,

³⁸when dust hardens into a mass and clods of earth stick together?

³⁹“Do you hunt prey for the lioness or satisfy the hunger of young lions,

⁴⁰when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in the thicket?

⁴¹Who arranges provision for the raven, when its young cry out to God,
and wander about for lack of food?

39

¹“Do you know when the mountain goats give birth?

Do you observe the calving doe?

²Do you count the months they fulfill and do you know the time when they give birth

³when they kneel, bring forth their young, and their labor pains end?

⁴Their young thrive and grow strong in the open field;
They leave
and never return to them.

⁵“Who sent the wild donkey free?
Who released the bonds of the wild ass,

⁶to whom I gave the Arabah as its home,
the salt land as its dwelling place?

⁷It scorns the commotion in the town;
it does not hear the taskmaster’s shouts.

⁸It explores the mountains as its pasture and searches after every green thing.

⁹“Is the wild ox willing to serve you?
Will it spend the night at your manger?

¹⁰Will you bind a wild ox to a furrow with his rope?

Will it plow valleys behind you?

¹¹Will you rely on it for its great strength?
Will you leave your labor to it?

¹²Can you trust it to bring in your seed and gather it to your threshing floor?

¹³“The wings of the ostrich flap joyously, but are they the pinions and plumage of a stork?

¹⁴For she leaves her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the soil,

¹⁵and forgets that a foot may crush them, that a wild beast may trample them.

¹⁶She treats her young ones harshly,
as if they were not hers;

She is not concerned that her labor was in vain,

¹⁷for God did not endow her with wisdom or give her a share of understanding.

¹⁸When she lifts herself to flee
she laughs at the horse and its rider.

¹⁹“Do you give the horse its strength?
Do you clothe his neck with a mane?

²⁰Do you cause him to leap like locust?
His majestic snorting is terrifying!

²¹He paws in the valley and exalting in his strength he charges into the fray.

²²He laughs at fear and is not dismayed;
he does not recoil from the sword.

²³On him the quiver rattles;
the spear and javelin flash.

²⁴With quaking and excitement,
he swallows up the ground.
He cannot stand still when the shofar sounds.

²⁵At the blast of the shofar,
he says, ‘Aha!’
From a distance he smells battle, the shout of the captains and the battle cry.

- ²⁶“Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, spreading its wings toward the south?
²⁷Is it by your command that an eagle soars and builds its nest high?
²⁸It dwells on a cliff and spends the night there, on a rocky crag and stronghold.
²⁹From there it searches for food;
its eyes detect it from afar.
³⁰Its young ones suck up blood, and where the slain are, there it is.”

40

Insignificant Before God

- ¹Then ADONAI answered Job, saying:
- ²“Will the one who contends with Shaddai correct him?
Let him who accuses God answer!”
- ³Then Job answered ADONAI. He said:
- ⁴“Indeed, I am unworthy—
what can I reply to You?
I put my hand over my mouth.
⁵I spoke once, but I have no answer—twice, but I will say no more.”
- ⁶Then ADONAI answered Job from the whirlwind:
- ⁷“Brace yourself like a man;
I will question you,
and you will inform Me!
- ⁸“Would you really annul My judgment?
Would you condemn Me to justify yourself?
⁹Do you have an arm like God’s and can you thunder with a voice like His?
¹⁰Then adorn yourself in majesty and dignity;
clothe yourself in splendor and honor.
¹¹Scatter the fury of your anger.
Look at every proud person
- and bring him low;
¹²look at everyone who is proud and humble him;
tread down the wicked
where they stand.
¹³Hide them together in the dust bind their faces in the hidden place.
¹⁴Then I—even I will acknowledge to you, that your own right hand can save you!

Behemoth and Leviathan

- ¹⁵“Look now at Behemoth, which I made along with you.
He eats grass like an ox.
¹⁶Now look at his strength in his loins, and his power in the muscles of his belly.
¹⁷He stiffens his tail like a cedar;
the sinews of his thighs are knit together.
¹⁸His bones are tubes of bronze;
His limbs like rods of iron.
¹⁹He is first among the ways of God, Let his Maker draw near with His sword!
²⁰For the mountains bring him food,
and all the wild animals play there.
²¹Under the lotus plants he lies down, in the secrecy of the reeds and marsh.
²²The lotuses conceal him in their shade;
the willows of the brook surround him.
²³If the river rages,
he is not alarmed.
He is secure, even though the Jordan surges against his mouth.
²⁴Can anyone capture it by its eyes, or pierce his nose with hooks?
²⁵“Can you pull in Leviathan with a hook,^a or tie down his tongue with a cord?
²⁶Can you put a reed rope in his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?
²⁷Will he make many supplications to you,
or speak softly to you?
²⁸Will he make a covenant with you,
so you can take him as a slave forever?

^a 40:25-41:1-26. Traditional Christian text numbered as 41:1-34.

- ²⁹Can you play with him like a bird, or put him on a leash for your girls?
³⁰Will traders barter for him?
Will they divide him
among the merchants?
³¹Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?
³²If you lay your hands on him—you will remember the battle and never do it again!

- ¹“See, his hope is wrong, he is laid low, even the sight of him.
²Is he not fierce when he is roused?
Who then is able to stand before Me?
³Who has confronted Me that I should repay?^a Everything under heaven belongs to Me.

⁴“I will not keep silent about his limbs, or his might or the grace of his arrangement.
⁵Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who can penetrate his double armor?
⁶Who can open the doors of his face, ringed with fearsome teeth?
⁷His rows of shields are his pride, shut up closely as with tight seal; ⁸each so close to the next,
that no air can pass between.
⁹They are joined one to another; they clasp each other and cannot be separated.

¹⁰“He sneezes out flashes of light;
his eyes are like the eyelids of dawn.
¹¹Out of his mouth go flames, sparks of fire shoot out.
¹²Smoke pours from his nostrils, as a boiling pot over burning reeds.
¹³His breath sets coals ablaze and flames dart from his mouth.

¹⁴“Strength resides in his neck; dismay runs before him.

^a 41:3(41:11). cf. Rom. 11:35.

- ¹⁵The folds of his flesh are tightly joined;
they are firm on him, immovable.
¹⁶His heart is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.

¹⁷“When he rises up, the mighty are afraid;
at his crashing they retreat.
¹⁸A sword that reaches him has no effect—nor with a spear, dart, or javelin.
¹⁹He regards iron as straw, bronze as rotten wood.
²⁰Arrows do not make him flee;
sling stones become like chaff to him.
²¹A club is regarded as stubble;
he laughs at the rattling of a lance.

²²“His undersides are jagged potsherds, leaving a trail like a threshing sledge in mud.
²³He makes the deep boil like a cauldron and stirs up the sea
like a pot of ointment.
²⁴He leaves a shining wake behind him;
one would think the deep had white hair.
²⁵Nothing on dry land is his equal—a creature without fear.
²⁶He sees every haughty thing;
he is king over all who are proud.”

Job Retracts

- ¹Job answered ADONAI and said:

²“I know You can do all things;
no purpose of Yours can be thwarted.
³You ask, ‘Who is this,
who darkens counsel without knowledge?’
Surely I spoke without understanding, things too wonderful for me which I did not know.
⁴You said, ‘Hear now, and I will speak;
I will question you,
and you will inform Me.’
⁵I had heard of You by the hearing of the ear;

but now my eye has seen You.
⁶Therefore I despise myself, and repent on dust and ashes.”

Job Restored

⁷After ADONAI had spoken these words to Job, ADONAI said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My anger is kindled against you and against your two friends, because you have not spoken about Me what is right, like My servant Job has. ⁸So now, take for yourselves seven young bulls and seven rams and go to My servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, for I will accept Job’s prayer^b and not deal with you according to your folly because you have not spoken correctly about Me, like My servant Job.”

⁹So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did what ADONAI told them; and ADONAI accepted Job’s prayer.

^b 42:8b. Lit. lift up his face; also 42”9.

¹⁰So ADONAI restored what Job had lost, after he prayed for his friends and ADONAI doubled everything that Job had before. ¹¹Then all his brothers, all his sisters and everyone who had known him before, came to him and ate bread with him in his house. They consoled him and comforted him for all the calamity that ADONAI had brought upon him. Each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring.

¹²So ADONAI blessed Job’s latter days more than at his beginning. He had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen and 1,000 female donkeys. ¹³He also had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴He called the name of the first Jemimah, the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-happuch. ¹⁵Nowhere in the land were there found women as beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.

¹⁶After this, Job lived 140 years; he saw his children and their children for four generations. ¹⁷And so Job died, old and full of days.

Song of Songs

¹The song of songs^a of Solomon

A Bride Sings of Her Lover

- ²Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth!
For your love is better than wine.
³Your ointments have a pleasing fragrance.
Your name is poured out like perfume.
No wonder maidens love you!
⁴Draw me after you, let us run!
The king has brought me into his chambers.

Chorus: Daughters of Zion

Let us rejoice and be glad in you;
let us extol your love more than wine.
Rightly do they love you!

The Bride

- ⁵I am black, but beautiful,
O daughters of Jerusalem,
like the tents of Kedar,
like the curtains of Solomon.
⁶Do not gaze at me because I am dark, because the sun has looked on me.
My mother's sons were angry with me and made me keeper of the vineyards;
my very own vineyard I have not kept.
⁷Tell me, the one my soul loves,
where you graze your flock,
where you make it lie down at noon?
Why should I be as one veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

The Lover and Bride Express Affection

- ⁸If you yourself do not know,
O most beautiful among women, go out yourself in the footsteps of the flock

^a 1:1. Or, the best song.

and graze your kids by the shepherds' tents.

- ⁹I compare you, my darling,
to my mare among Pharaoh's charlots.
¹⁰Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments, your neck with strings of beads.
¹¹Ornaments of gold we will make for you with spangles of silver.
¹²While the king is on his couch, my nard spreads its fragrance.^b ¹³My lover is my pouch of myrrh, passing the night between my breasts.
¹⁴My love is to me a spray of henna blooms in the vineyards of En-gedi.

- ¹⁵How lovely you are, my darling,
how lovely!
Your eyes are doves.

- ¹⁶How handsome you are, my lover!
Oh, so delightful!
Yes, our couch is luxuriant.

- ¹⁷The beams of our houses are cedar trees,
our panels are cypress trees.

2

- ¹I am a rose of Sharon,
a lily of the valleys.

- ²Like a lily among thorns,
so is my darling among the daughters.

- ³Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest,
so is my lover among the sons.
In his shadow I delighted to sit,
and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

- ⁴He has brought me to the banquet house and his banner over me is love.

- ⁵Sustain me with raisin cakes, refresh me with apples—
for I am weak with love.

^b 1:12. cf. Mark 14:3; John 12:3.

- ⁶His left hand is under my head and his right hand embraces me.
- ⁷Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you,
by the gazelles and does of the field:
Do not arouse or awaken love
until it delights.
- ⁸The voice of my lover!
Behold, he is coming—leaping over the mountains, springing over the hills!
- ⁹My lover is like a gazelle or a young buck among the stags.
Look! He is standing behind our wall—gazing through the windows, peering through the lattice.
- ¹⁰In response my lover said to me:
“Get yourself up, my darling, my pretty one, and come, come!”^c
- ¹¹For behold, the winter has past, the rain is over, it has gone.
- ¹²Blossoms appear in the land,
the time of singing has come,
and the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land.
- ¹³The fig tree ripens its early figs.
The blossoming vines give off their fragrance.
Arise, come, my darling,
my pretty one, and come, come!
- ¹⁴My dove, in the clefts of the rock,
in a secret place along the steep path,
let me see your form,
let me hear your voice.
For your voice is sweet and your form is lovely.”
- ¹⁵Catch the foxes for us—
the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, for our vineyards are in blossom.

The Bride's Revelry

- ¹⁶My lover is mine, and I am his!
He grazes his flocks among the lilies.
- ¹⁷Until the day cools
and the shadows flee away,

^c 2:10. cf. Acts 7:3.

turn about, my lover, like a gazelle or like a stag upon the mountains of spices.

3

- ¹On my bed in the night
I longed for the one my soul loves.
I looked for him but did not find him.
- ²I will get up and go about the city,
into the streets and into the squares.
I must seek the one my soul loves.
I looked for him but did not find him.
- ³The guards patrolling the city found me.
“Have you seen the one my soul loves?”
- ⁴Hardly had I passed beyond them when I found the one my soul loves.
I held him, and I would not let him go, until I brought him to my mother's house, to the chamber of her who conceived me.
- ⁵Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you,
by the gazelles and does of the field:
Do not arouse or awaken love
until it delights.

The King on his Wedding Day

- ⁶Who is this—she who is coming up from the wilderness like columns of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with every powder of the merchant?
- ⁷Behold, it is Solomon's traveling couch—around it are sixty warriors from the warriors of Israel.
- ⁸All of them wield a sword, experts in war.
Each man with his sword on his thigh against terrors of the night.
- ⁹King Solomon has made for himself a carriage from the trees of Lebanon.
- ¹⁰He made its posts of silver, its back of gold, its seat of purple cloth, its interior fitted out with love
by the daughters of Jerusalem.

¹¹Go out, daughters of Zion, and gaze upon King Solomon, with a wreath his mother placed on him on the day of his marriage—on the day of his heart's joy.

4

The King Delights in His Bride

¹How lovely you are, my darling, how lovely!
Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
Your hair is like a flock of ewe goats descending down from Mount Gilead.
²Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes coming up from washing.
Each of them has a twin,
and none among them is missing.
³Your lips are like a scarlet thread and your speech is lovely.
Your temple is like a slice of pomegranate behind your veil.
⁴Like the tower of David is your neck, built for weapons.
A thousand shields are hung on it
—all shields of warriors.
⁵Your two breasts are like two fawns, like twin gazelles grazing among the lilies.
⁶Until the day cools
and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.
⁷You are altogether lovely, my darling, and no blemish is in you.
⁸Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
Watch from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir, even Hermon,
from lions' dens,
from mountains of leopards.
⁹You have captivated my heart,
my sister, my bride—
you captivated me with one of your eyes,
with one jewel from your necklace.
¹⁰How delightful is your love,

^a 4:7. Lit. there is no flaw in you; hyperbole.

my sister, my bride!
How much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your oils better than all spices!
¹¹Your lips, my bride,
drip honey from the honeycomb.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
The scent of your garments is like the aroma of Lebanon.
¹²A locked garden is my sister, my bride, an enclosed spring, a sealed fountain.
¹³Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruit, henna with nard ¹⁴—nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon—
with all the trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes,
along with all the finest spices—¹⁵a garden spring, a well of living water^b and flowing streams from Lebanon.

¹⁶Awake, north wind, and come, south wind!
Blow on my garden,
Let its fragrance spread out.
Let my lover come into his garden and eat its choicest fruit.

5

Awake and Waiting

¹I have come into my garden,
my sister, my bride.
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey.
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Eat, O friends,
Drink, yes, drink your fill, O lovers!

²I sleep, but my heart is awake.
A voice! My lover is knocking!

^b 4:15. cf. John 4:10.

“Open to me, my sister, my darling,
 my dove, my perfect one!
 For my head is drenched with dew, my locks with dewdrops of night.”
³I have stripped off my coat.
 How can I put it on again?
 I have washed my feet.
 How can I soil them?
⁴My lover extended his hand through the opening
 —my heart yearned for him.
⁵I rose to open for my lover.
 My hands dripped with myrrh,
 yes, my fingers with flowing myrrh,
 on the handles of the lock.
⁶I opened to my lover—
 but my lover had departed,
 he was gone!
 My soul went out to him when he spoke.
 I searched for him,
 but did not find him.
 I called him, but he did not answer me.
⁷The guards making rounds in the city found me.
 They beat me, bruised me.
 The guards on the walls took my veil from me.
⁸Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you, if you should find my lover,
 what will you tell him?
 That I am sick from love!
⁹How is your lover different from other lovers,
 O most beautiful among women?
 How is your lover different from other lovers
 that you charge us so?
¹⁰My lover is dazzling and ruddy, standing out among ten thousand.
¹¹His head is purest gold,
 his hair is wavy,
 black as a raven.
¹²His eyes are like doves beside streams of water, washed with milk,

 mounted in their settings.
¹³His cheeks are like a bed of spice, towers of sweet-scented perfume.
 His lips are lilies,
 dripping with liquid myrrh.
¹⁴His hands are rods of gold set with jasper.
 His abdomen is carved ivory inlaid with sapphires.
¹⁵His legs are pillars of alabaster set on bases of pure gold.
 His appearance is like Lebanon—excellent like the cedars.
¹⁶His mouth is sweetness.
 Yes, he is totally desirable.
 This is my lover! Yes, this is my friend,
 O daughters of Jerusalem.

6

¹Where has your lover gone, most beautiful among women?
 Where has your lover turned,
 so we may seek him with you?
²My lover went down to his garden, to the beds of balsam to graze his flocks in the gardens and to gather lilies.
³I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine.
 He browses among the lilies.

Acclaiming the Bride's Beauty

⁴You are beautiful, my darling, like Tirzah,
 lovely as Jerusalem,
 awesome as an army with banners.
⁵Turn your eyes away from me, for they overwhelm me!
 Your hair is like a flock of ewe goats
 descending down from Gilead.
⁶Your teeth are like a flock of ewes that have come up from the washing.
 Each of them has a twin,
 and none among them is missing.
⁷Your temple is like a slice of pomegranate behind your veil.

⁸There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and young women beyond number.
⁹Yet my dove, my perfect one is unique.
She is her mother's only one—a virtuous child of the one who bore her.
Maidens saw her and called her blessed.
Queens and concubines praised her.
¹⁰Who is this that appears like dawn?
As beautiful as the moon,
bright as the sun,
awesome as an army with banners.

¹¹I went down into the garden of nut trees to look at the fruit of the valley, to see if the vine had budded,
or the pomegranates had bloomed.
¹²Before I was aware, my soul set me among the chariots of my princely people.

7

¹Come back, come back, O Shulammitte!
Come back, come back,
that we may look upon you.

Why do you gaze at the Shulammitte like the dance of Mahanaim?

²How lovely are your sandaled feet,
O nobleman's daughter!
The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
the work of a craftsman's hand.
³Your navel is a round goblet, may it not lack mixed wine.
Your belly is a heap of wheat enclosed with lilies.
⁴Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.
⁵Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are pools in Heshbon near the gate of Bath-rabbim.
Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon overlooking Damascus.
⁶Your head crowns you like Carmel, and the hair of your head like purple.
The king is captivated in its tresses!

⁷How beautiful and how pleasing you are,
O Love, with your delights!
⁸Your stature is like a date palm and your breasts like its clusters.
⁹I said, "I will climb the date palm and take hold of its fruit."
May your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
the fragrance of your breath like apple.

The Bride's Appeal

¹⁰May your mouth be like the best wine, going down smoothly for my beloved,
causing the lips of sleepers to speak.
¹¹I am my lover's,
and his desire is for me.
¹²Come, my beloved,
let us go out into the field.
Let us spend the night in the villages.
¹³Let us go out early to the vineyards,
—let us see if the vine has budded, if their blossoms have opened,
and if the pomegranates have bloomed—
there I will give you my love.
¹⁴The mandrakes have given off fragrance, and over our door is every choice fruit,
both new and old,
that I have stored up for you, my lover.

8

¹O, that you were like a brother to me, who nursed at my mother's breasts.
If I found you outside, I would kiss you,
and no one would despise me.
²I would lead you and bring you into my mother's house—
she who has taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to drink from the nectar of my pomegranate.
³O that his left hand were under my head, and his right hand embraced me.
⁴I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem,
Do not arouse or awaken love until it so delights.

Protecting Love

⁵Who is this coming up from the wilderness leaning on her lover?

Under the apple tree I roused you.
There your mother travailed with you.

There she who was in labor gave you birth.

⁶Set me like a seal over your heart,
like a seal on your arm.

For love is as strong as death, jealousy as cruel as Sheol.

Its flames are bolts of fire,
the flame of ADONAI.

⁷Many waters cannot quench love,
nor rivers wash it away.

If one gave all the wealth of his house for love,
it would be utterly despised.

⁸We have a little sister, still without breasts.

What shall we do for our sister on the day when she is spoken for?

⁹If she is a wall,

we will build on her a turret of silver.
If she is a door,
we will fence her in with cedar plank.

¹⁰I am a wall,
and my breasts like towers.
Thus I have become in his eyes
as one bringing shalom.

¹¹Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon.
He entrusted the vineyard to caretakers.
Each was to bring for his fruit
a thousand pieces of silver.

¹²My very own vineyard is before me.
The thousand are for you, Solomon, and two hundred for those who tend the fruit.

¹³You who abide in the gardens, friends are listening for your voice.
Let me hear it!

¹⁴Come quickly, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

Ruth

1

Elimelech's Family in Moab

¹It came to pass in the days when judges were governing, there was a famine in the land. A man went from the town of Bethlehem^a in Judah to dwell in the region of Moab with his wife and his two sons. ²The man's name was Elimelech, his wife's name was Naomi, and his two sons were named Mahlon and Chilion. They were Ephratites from Bethlehem in Judah. They came to the region of Moab and remained there.

³Then Naomi's husband Elimelech died, so she was left with her two sons. ⁴They married Moabite women—one was named Orpah and the second was named Ruth, and they dwelt there about ten years. ⁵Then those two, Mahlon and Chilion, also died. So the woman was left without her children and her husband.

⁶Then she got up, along with her daughters-in-law to return from the region of Moab, because in the region of Moab she had heard that ADONAI had taken note of His people and given them food. ⁷So she left the place where she was, along with her two daughters-in-law, and they started out on the road to return to the land of Judah.

⁸So Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to your mother's house. May ADONAI show you the same kindness that you have shown to the dead and to me. ⁹May ADONAI grant that you find rest, each of you in the house of her own husband." Then she kissed them and they wept loudly.

¹⁰"No!" they said to her, "we will return with you to your people."

¹¹Now Naomi said, "Go back, my daughters! Why should you go with me? Do I have more sons in my womb who could become your husbands? ¹²Go home, my daughters! I am too old to have a husband. Even if I were to say that there was hope for me and I could get married tonight, and then bore sons, ¹³would you wait for them to grow up? Would you therefore hold off getting married? No, my daughters, it is more bitter for me than for you—for the hand of ADONAI has gone out against me!"

^a 1:1. Meaning, House of Bread.

¹⁴Again they broke into loud weeping. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye. But Ruth clung to her. ¹⁵She said, "Look, your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Return, along with your sister-in-law!"

Ruth's Covenant With Naomi

¹⁶Ruth replied,

"Do not plead with me to abandon you, to turn back from following you.

For where you go, I will go,
and where you stay, I will stay.

Your people will be my people, and your God my God.

¹⁷Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried.

May ADONAI deal with me, and worse, if anything but death comes between me and you!"

¹⁸When she saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she no longer spoke to Ruth about it.

¹⁹So the two of them went on until they arrived in Bethlehem. As soon as they arrived in Bethlehem the whole city was excited because of them, and the women asked, "Is this Naomi?"

²⁰"Do not call me Naomi," she told them. "Call me Mara—since Shaddai has made my life bitter. ^b²¹I went away full, but ADONAI has brought me back empty. Why should you call me Naomi, since ADONAI has testified against me and Shaddai has brought calamity on me?"

²²So Naomi and her daughter-in-law Ruth the Moabite returned from the region of Moab. They arrived in Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

^b 1:20. Meaning, pleasant vs. bitter.

2

Gleaning in Boaz's Field

¹Now, Naomi had a relative on her husband's side—from Elimelech's family—a prominent man of substance whose name was Boaz.

²Ruth the Moabite, said to Naomi, "Please let me go out to the field and glean grain behind anyone in whose eyes I may find favor."

Naomi said to her, "Go ahead, my daughter."³ So Ruth went out and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. She just so happened to be in the field of Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.

⁴Soon after Boaz arrived from Bethlehem, he said to the harvesters, "ADONAI be with you."

They replied, "May ADONAI bless you."

⁵Then Boaz asked the foreman of his harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"

⁶"She is a Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the region of Moab," the foreman replied.⁷ "She asked 'Please allow me to glean and gather among the barley sheaves behind the harvesters.' So she came and has been working in the field since morning until now, except for a little while in the shelter."

⁸Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen to me, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field or even pass on from here, but stay close to my female workers.⁹ Keep your eyes on the field that they are harvesting, and follow after them. I strongly ordered the young men not to touch you. When you are thirsty, you can go to the jars and drink from the water the young men have drawn."

¹⁰Then she fell upon her face, bowing to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes that you have noticed me, even though I am a foreigner?"

¹¹Boaz replied and said to her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband's death has been fully reported to me—how you left your father and mother and the land of your birth, and came to a people you did not know before.¹² May ADONAI repay

you for what you have done, and may you be fully rewarded by ADONAI, God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge."

¹³She said, "May I continue to find favor in your eyes, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your maidservant, even though I am not one of your maidservants."

¹⁴At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come over here and eat some bread and dip your piece into the wine vinegar." So she sat beside the harvesters and he held out to her roasted grain. She ate until she was full, and some was still left.¹⁵ When she got up to glean, Boaz gave orders to his workers saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, do not humiliate her.¹⁶ Also be sure to pull out some grain for her from the sheaves and leave them for her to pick up, and do not rebuke her."

¹⁷So she gleaned in the field until evening. When she thrashed what she had gathered, there was about an ephah of barley.¹⁸ She carried it back to town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Ruth took some out and gave her what was left over after eating her fill.

¹⁹Her mother-in-law asked her, "Where did you glean today? Where did you work? May the one who noticed you be blessed!"

She told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked and she said, "The name of the man for whom I worked is Boaz."

²⁰So Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed by ADONAI who has not stopped his kindness to the living or to the dead." Then Naomi said to her, "This man is closely related to us; one of our kinsmen-redeemers."^c

²¹Then Ruth the Moabite said, "He even said to me, 'Stay close to my workers until they have finished the entire harvest.'"

²²Naomi answered her daughter-in-law Ruth, "It is good, my daughter-in-law, that you go out with his female workers, so that you will not be harmed in another field."

²³So she stayed close to Boaz's female workers, gleaning until both the barley harvest and the wheat harvest were completed. Meanwhile she lived with her mother-in-law.

^c 2:20. Heb. Goel; Matt. 22:24.

Naomi the Matchmaker

¹Naomi her mother-in-law said to her “My daughter, should I not be seeking a resting place for you, so it may go well for you?” ²Now, is Boaz, with whose female workers you have been, not our relative? Look, he will be winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. ³So bathe and perfume yourself, put on your cloak and go down to the threshing floor. But do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. ⁴Let it be that when he lies down and you know the place where he lies down, go uncover his feet and lie down there. He will tell you what to do.”

⁵Ruth answered her, “I will do everything you say.” ⁶So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law had said.

⁷After Boaz ate, drank, and was in a good mood, he went to lie down at the far side of the grain pile. So she came to the grain pile quietly, uncovered his feet, and lay down. ⁸Now in the middle of the night, the man was startled and pulled back—and to his surprise, a woman was lying at his feet!

“I am Ruth, your handmaid,” she answered. “Spread the corner of your garment over your handmaid, for you are a goel.”

¹⁰“May you be blessed by ADONAI, my daughter!” he replied. “You have made the latter act of loyalty greater than the first, by not running after the young men, whether rich or poor. ¹¹Now my daughter, do not be afraid! Everything you propose, I will do for you, for everyone in town knows that you are a woman of valor. ¹²Although it is true that I am a goel, there is one who is a closer goel than me. ¹³Stay here tonight, and in the morning, if he will be your goel—good! Let him do so. But if he is not willing to be your goel, then I will be your goel myself, as surely as ADONAI lives. Lie down until morning.”

¹⁴So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before one person could be distinguished from another, for he said, “Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.” ¹⁵Then he said, “Bring the cloak you are wearing and hold it out.” She held it out and he poured six measures of barley into it and put it on her. Then he returned to town.

¹⁶When Ruth came back to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, “How did it go, my daughter?”

So Ruth told her all that the man had done for her. ¹⁷She said “He gave me six measures of barley, for he said, ‘You shouldn’t go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’”

¹⁸“Wait, my daughter,” Naomi said, “until you find out how the matter turns out, for he will not rest until he has settled the matter today.”

4

Who Will Redeem?

¹Meanwhile Boaz had gone up to the gate and sat down there. And all of a sudden, the goel about whom Boaz had spoken passed by. “Come over,” he called, “and sit down here, my friend.” So he came over and sat down.

²Then Boaz took ten of the town’s elders and said, “Sit down here,” so they sat down. ³Then he said to the goel, “Naomi, who has returned from the region of Moab, is selling the parcel of land that belongs to our brother Elimelech. ⁴I thought I should inform you saying, ‘Buy it in the presence of the people sitting here, and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you want to redeem it, redeem it. But if it will not be redeemed, then tell me, so that I can know, because there is no one else in line to redeem it. I am after you.’”

“I will redeem it,” he said.

⁵Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from Naomi’s hand, you will also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the deceased, in order to raise up the name of the deceased over his inheritance.”

⁶The kinsman said, “Then I cannot redeem it for myself, or else I might endanger my own inheritance. You, take my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”

⁷Now in the past in Israel, one removed his sandal and gave it to another, in order to finalize the redemption and transfer of a matter. This was a legal transaction in Israel.

⁸So the kinsman said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself,” then took off his shoe.

⁹Boaz announced to the elders and all the people: “You are witnesses today that I have bought from Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon. ¹⁰Moreover, I have acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon to be my wife in order to raise up the name of the deceased over his inheritance, so that the name of the deceased will not be cut off from his brothers or from the gate of his town. You are witnesses today.”

¹¹All the people at the gate and the elders said, “We are witnesses. May ADONAI make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, who both built up the house of Israel. May you prosper in Ephrath and be renowned in Bethlehem. ¹²May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah,^a through the seed that ADONAI will give you by this young woman.”

¹³So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. When he went to her, ADONAI enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.

¹⁴Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be ADONAI, who has not left you without a goel today. May his name be famous throughout Israel. ¹⁵Moreover, He will be to you a renewer of life and a sustainer of your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.”

¹⁶Naomi took the child and held it to her bosom, and took care of him. ¹⁷The neighboring women gave him a name saying “A son has been born to Naomi!” So they called him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

¹⁸These are the generations of Perez: Perez fathered Hezron, ¹⁹Hezron fathered Ram, Ram fathered Amminadab, ²⁰Amminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon, ²¹Salmon fathered Boaz, Boaz fathered Obed, ²²Obed fathered Jesse, and Jesse fathered David.

Lamentations

1

Song of Jerusalem's Groaning

- ¹How lonely sits the city, once so full of people!
She who was once great
among the nations
has become like a widow.
The princess among the provinces has become a forced laborer.
- ²Bitterly she weeps in the night,
her tears are on her cheeks.
Among all her lovers,
there is no one to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her.
They have become her enemies!
- ³Judah is gone into exile under affliction and great servitude.
She dwells among the nations.
She finds no resting place.
All her pursuers have overtaken her in the midst of her distress.
- ⁴The roads to Zion mourn for no one comes to her moadim.
All her gates are desolate.
Her kohanim groan, her maidens^a grieve—
she is in bitter anguish.
- ⁵Her foes have become her masters.
Her enemies are at ease.
For ADONAI has afflicted her, because of her many transgressions.
Her children have gone away as captives before the adversary.
- ⁶All her splendor has departed,
from the daughter of Zion.
Her princes are like stags that find no pasture.
They have fled without strength before the pursuer.
- ⁷In the days of her affliction and her wandering,
Jerusalem remembers all the treasures

- that were hers from the days of old.
When her people fell into enemy hands,
there was no one to help her.
Her enemies saw her and mocked at her destruction.
- ⁸Jerusalem has greatly sinned—
therefore, she has become niddah.
All who honored her despise her,
for they have seen her nakedness.
She herself groans,
and turns away.
- ⁹Her uncleanness was in her skirts.
She did not consider her future.
Her demise was astonishing,
there was no one to comfort her.
“ADONAI, see my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!”
- ¹⁰The enemy has stretched his hand over all her treasures.
She even saw nations enter her sanctuary—those You had commanded not to enter Your congregation.
- ¹¹All her people groan,
as they seek bread.
They traded their treasures for food
to keep themselves alive.
“Look, ADONAI, and see!
For I have become despised!”
- ¹²“Is it nothing to you,
all you who pass by on the road?
Look and see!
Is any suffering like my suffering that was brought on me, that ADONAI has inflicted in the day of His fierce anger?”
- ¹³From on high He sent fire into my bones and it overcame them.
He spread out a net for my feet;
He turned me back.
He made me desolate,
faint all the day long.
- ¹⁴My transgressions are bound into a yoke, woven together by His hand.
They have come upon my neck and He has sapped my strength.

^a 1:4. Lit. virgins.

The Lord delivered me over to those I cannot withstand.

¹⁵The Lord has rejected
all the mighty ones in my midst.
He has summoned an assembly against me to crush my young men.
In a winepress the Lord has trampled^b
the virgin daughter of Judah.
¹⁶Over these things I weep.
My eyes overflow with water.
For far from me is a comforter, who might refresh my soul.
My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.”

¹⁷Zion spreads out her hands—
there is no one to comfort her.
ADONAI has decreed against Jacob.
Those surrounding him have become his foes; Jerusalem has become niddah in their eyes.

¹⁸“ADONAI is righteous, for I have rebelled against His word.
Hear now, all peoples—
look at my suffering!
My maidens and my young men have gone into captivity.

¹⁹I called to my lovers—
they deceived me!
My kohanim and my elders perished in the city when they sought food
to keep themselves alive.

²⁰Look, ADONAI, for I am in distress!
My stomach churns,
my heart pounds within me,
for I have been very rebellious.
Outside, the sword bereaves, in the house it is like death.

²¹They have heard me groaning.
There is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies heard of my distress,
They rejoice that You have done it.
May You bring about the day that You proclaimed, so they may become like me!

²²Let all their evil come before You.

Deal with them as you dealt with me,
because of all my transgressions.
For my groans are many and my heart is faint!”

2

Lament for Zion

¹How my Lord has clouded over the daughter of Zion in His anger!
He hurled down the splendor of Israel from heaven to earth.
He has not remembered His footstool in the day of His anger.

²My Lord has mercilessly swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob.
He threw down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah in His fury.
He knocked to the ground and humiliated
the kingdom and its princes.

³In fierce anger He has cut off every horn of Israel.
He has withdrawn His right hand from before the enemy.
He blazed against Jacob like raging fire, devouring everything around.

⁴He bent His bow like an enemy, set His right hand like a foe,
and killed all those pleasant to the eye.
In the tent of the daughter of Zion
He has poured out His wrath like fire.

⁵My Lord is like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel.
He swallowed up all her citadels, destroyed her fortifications and multiplied mourning and moaning for the daughter of Judah.

⁶Like the garden He laid waste His dwelling, destroyed His appointed meeting place.

ADONAI has caused moed and Shabbat
to be forgotten in Zion.
In the indignation of His anger
He spurned king and kohen.

⁷The Lord rejected His altar, despised His Sanctuary.
He has delivered the walls of her citadels

^b 1:15. cf. Rev. 14:19-20.

into the hand of the enemy.
 They raised a shout in the house of ADONAI as if it were the day of a moed.
⁸ADONAI resolved to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.
 He stretched out a measuring line.
 He did not withdraw His hand from destroying.
 He caused rampart and wall to lament—together they languished away.
⁹Her gates sank into the ground.
 Her bars He destroyed and shattered.
 Her king and princes are among nations.
 There is no more Torah.
 Also her prophets find no vision from ADONAI.
¹⁰The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground in silence.
 They threw dust on their heads and girded themselves with sackcloth.
 The maidens of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.
¹¹My eyes are filled with tears.
 My stomach is in torment.
 My heart^a is poured out on the ground over the destruction of the daughter of my people—as young children and infants languish in the city squares.
¹²They say to their mothers,
 “Where is grain and wine?”
 as they faint like a wounded soldier in the city squares, as their lives ebb away
 in their mothers’ bosom.
¹³How can I admonish you?
 To what can I compare you,
 O daughter of Jerusalem?
 To what can I liken you,
 so that I might console you,
 O virgin daughter of Zion?
 For your wound is as deep as the sea!
 Who can heal you?
¹⁴Your prophets have seen for you false and worthless visions.
 They did not expose your iniquity,
 so as to restore your captivity.
 Rather, they have seen for you false and worthless oracles.

¹⁵All who pass your way
 clap their hands at you.
 They hiss and shake their heads
 at the daughter of Jerusalem.
 “Is this the city of which they said,
 ‘The perfection of beauty,’
 ‘the joy of the whole earth?’”
¹⁶All your enemies opened their mouth wide against you;
 they hissed and gnashed their teeth,
 and say, “We have swallowed her up!
 Surely this is the day we have waited for;
 we have lived to see it!”
¹⁷ADONAI has done what He planned;
 He has fulfilled His word that He commanded from days of old.
 He has overthrown you without pity,
 He enabled the enemy to gloat over you.
 He has exalted the horn of your foes.
¹⁸Their heart cried out to the Lord:
 O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down
 like a river day and night.
 Give yourself no relief,
 your eyes no rest.
¹⁹Arise! Cry out in the night at the beginning of the watches!
 Pour out your heart like water before the presence of the Lord.
 Lift up your hands to Him for the life of your children who faint from hunger at the head of every street.
²⁰Look, ADONAI, and consider with whom You have dealt so severely!
 Should women eat their offspring, their healthy newborn infants?
 Should kohen and prophet be slain in the Sanctuary of the Lord?
²¹On the ground in the streets lie both young and old.
 My maidens and my young men have fallen by the sword.
 You slew them in the day of Your anger.
 You slaughtered them without pity.
²²As on a moed day, You summon against me terrors on every side.

^a 2:11. Lit. liver (seat of emotions).

On the day of the wrath of ADONAI
no one escaped or survived.
Those whom I bore and raised my enemy has destroyed.

3

¹I am the strong man who has seen affliction
by the rod of His wrath.
²He has driven me and made me walk in darkness and not light.
³Surely, He has turned His hand against me again and again all day long.
⁴He made my flesh and my skin waste away, broken my bones.
⁵He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
⁶He made me dwell in dark places
like those long dead.
⁷He has walled me in so I cannot get out.
He made my chain heavy.
⁸Even when I cry out and call for help,
He shuts out my prayer.
⁹He walled in my ways with hewn stone.
He twisted my paths.
¹⁰He is a lurking bear to me, a lion in hiding.
¹¹He turned aside my paths and tore me to pieces.
He has made me desolate.
¹²He bent His bow and made me
the target for His arrow.
¹³He shot into my kidneys arrows from His quiver.
¹⁴I have become a laughing stock to all my people,
their song all day long.
¹⁵He has filled me with bitterness and made me drink wormwood.
¹⁶He broke my teeth with gravel.
He made me wallow in ashes.
¹⁷My soul has been deprived of shalom,
I have forgotten goodness.
¹⁸So I said, "My endurance has perished, and my hope from ADONAI." ¹⁹Remember my affliction my homelessness, bitterness and gall.

²⁰Whenever I remember, my soul is downcast within me.

Our Hope—His Faithfulness

²¹This I recall to my heart—
therefore I have hope:
²²Because of the mercies of ADONAI
we will not be consumed, for His compassions never fail.
²³They are new every morning!
Great is Your faithfulness.
²⁴"ADONAI is my portion," says my soul,
"therefore I will hope in Him."
²⁵ADONAI is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul that seeks Him.
²⁶It is good to wait quietly for the salvation of ADONAI.
²⁷It is good for a man to bear the yoke in his youth.
²⁸Let him sit alone and be silent, since He has laid it upon him.
²⁹Let him put his mouth in the dust—
there may yet be hope.

Intercession for Justice

³⁰Let him offer his cheek to the one who strikes him.^b
Let him have his fill of disgrace.
³¹For the Lord will not reject forever.
³²For though He has caused grief, yet He will have compassion
according to His abundant mercies.
³³For He does not afflict from His heart or grieve the sons of men.
³⁴To crush under His foot
all the prisoners of the land, ³⁵to deprive a person of justice before the face of Elyon, ³⁶to defraud a person in his lawsuit—would the Lord not see?
³⁷Who speaks and it comes to pass unless the Lord has decreed it?
³⁸Is it not from the mouth of Elyon that both calamities and good things proceed?

^b 3:30. cf. Matt. 5:39.

³⁹Why should any living person complain when punished for his sins?
⁴⁰Let us examine and test our ways, and let us return to ADONAI.
⁴¹Let us lift up our heart and hands to God in heaven.
⁴²We have transgressed and rebelled—
You have not pardoned.
⁴³You covered Yourself with anger and pursued us.
You have slain without pity.
⁴⁴You shrouded Yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can get through.
⁴⁵You have made us scum and refuse in the midst of the peoples.
⁴⁶All our enemies opened their mouth wide against us.
⁴⁷Panic and pitfall have befallen us, devastation and destruction.
⁴⁸Streams of tears run down my eyes because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.
⁴⁹My eye flows unceasingly, without stopping,
⁵⁰until ADONAI looks down from heaven and sees.
⁵¹My eye torments my soul because of all the daughters of my city.
⁵²For no reason, my enemies hunted me down like a bird.
⁵³They cut off my life in the Pit,
and cast stones upon me.
⁵⁴Waters flowed over my head.
I said, “I have been cut off!”
⁵⁵I called on Your Name, ADONAI, from the depths of the Pit.
⁵⁶You heard my voice,
“Do not close Your ears to my cry for relief.”
⁵⁷You drew near on the day I called to You.
You said, “Do not fear!”
⁵⁸Lord, You pled my soul’s case,
You redeemed my life.^a ⁵⁹ADONAI, You saw the wrong done to me;
judge my cause!
⁶⁰You have seen all their vengefulness, all their schemes against me.
⁶¹You heard their taunt, ADONAI,

^a 3:58. cf. 1John 2:1.

all their plots against me.
⁶²The lips of my assailants and their whispering are against me all day long.
⁶³Look at them, sitting or standing, they mock me in their song.
⁶⁴Pay them back what they deserve,
ADONAI,
according to the work of their hands.
⁶⁵Give them a distraught heart.
May Your curse be on them.
⁶⁶Pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the heavens of ADONAI.

4

Devastation of Jerusalem

¹How dulled is the gold, how tarnished the fine gold.
The sacred gems are poured out at the corner of every street.
²The precious sons of Zion, once worth their weight in gold—alas! now they are treated like clay jars, the work of a potter’s hands!
³Even jackals offer their breast to nurse their young.
The daughter of my people
has become cruel,
like ostriches in the desert.
⁴The nursing infant’s tongue clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst.
Little children ask for bread,
but no one gives it to them.
⁵Those who used to eat delicacies are desolate in the streets.
Those who were brought up in purple embrace trash heaps.
⁶For the iniquities of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom,^b which was overthrown in a moment,^b yet no hands turned to her.
⁷Purer than snow were her princes,^c whiter than milk,

^b 4:6. cf. Luke 10:12; 2Pet. 2:6.

^c 4:7. Or, Nazirite, consecrated ones.

their bodies more ruddy than rubies, their appearance like sapphire.
⁸Their form has become darker than soot!
 They are not recognized in the street.
 Their skin has shriveled on their bones, withered like a tree.
⁹Better are those slain by the sword than those struck down by famine—they waste away, racked with pain, for lack of fruits of the field.
¹⁰The hands of compassionate women boiled their own children.
 They became their food when the daughter of my people were destroyed.
¹¹ADONAI has vented His fury.
 He has poured out His burning anger.
 Yes, He kindled a fire in Zion that devoured her foundations.
¹²The kings of the earth did not believe,
 nor did the inhabitants of the world, that enemy and foe would enter the gates of Jerusalem.
¹³Yet it happened
 because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her kohanim, who shed in her midst
 the blood of the tzadikim^d.
¹⁴They wander in the streets, like blind men.
 They are so defiled with blood,
 no one can touch their garments.
¹⁵“Turn away! Unclean!”
 They cry to them.
 “Turn away, turn away! Don’t touch!”
 So they fled and wandered about.
 People among the nations say,
 “They can stay here no longer.”
¹⁶ADONAI Himself has scattered them.
 He will look on them no more.
 They did not respect the kohanim.
 They did not favor the elders.
¹⁷Even now our eyes waste away looking in vain for our help.
 From our towers we watched for a nation that could not save us.
¹⁸They hunted our steps,
 so we could not walk in our streets.

^d 4:13. Or just ones; or the righteous.

Our end was near.
 Our days were numbered,
 for our end had come.
¹⁹Our pursuers were swifter than eagles of the sky;
 they pursued us over the mountains;
 they ambushed us in the wilderness.
²⁰The anointed of ADONAI,
 the breath of our nostrils, was captured in their pits,
 of whom we have said, “Under His shadow we will live
 among the nations.”
²¹Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, you who dwell in the land of Uz.
 To you also will the cup be passed.
 You will be drunk and stripped naked.
²²O daughter of Zion, your punishment is accomplished;
 He will exile you no longer.
 But, O daughter of Edom,
 He will punish your iniquity and uncover your sins.

5

Remember Us!

¹Remember, ADONAI,
 what has come upon us.
 Look, and see our disgrace!
²Our inheritance is turned over to strangers,
 our homes to foreigners.
³We have become orphans, fatherless, our mothers are like widows.
⁴We pay silver for the water we drink;
 our wood comes at a price.
⁵Our pursuers are at our necks.
 We are weary and have no rest.
⁶We have held out our hand to Egypt and Assyria to be satisfied with bread.
⁷Our fathers sinned and are no more,
 but we bear their punishment.
⁸Slaves rule over us.
 There is no one to deliver us from their hand.
⁹We get our bread at the peril of our lives because of the sword in the desert.

¹⁰Our skin is hot as an oven due to fever from famine.

¹¹The women in Zion have been ravished, maidens in the towns of Judah.

¹²Princes are hung up by their hands;
elders are dishonored.

¹³Young men toil at the millstone.
Boys stagger under loads of wood.

¹⁴Elders are gone from the gate, young men from their music.

¹⁵Joy has ceased in our hearts.
Our dance has turned into mourning.

¹⁶The crown has fallen from our head.
Oy to us, for we have sinned!

¹⁷Because of this our heart is faint, for these things our eyes are dim,

¹⁸for Mount Zion, which lies desolate, as jackals prowl over it.

Hashivenu (Restore Us)

¹⁹You, ADONAI, are enthroned forever;
Your throne endures from generation to generation.^a ²⁰Why do You always forget us and forsake us for so long?

²¹Bring us back to You, ADONAI, and we will return.

Renew our days as of old—

²²unless You have utterly rejected us and are exceedingly angry with us.

^a 5:19. cf. Rev. 4:9-10; 5:13.

Ecclesiastes

1

Kohelet: the Preacher

¹The words of Kohelet^b, son of David, king in Jerusalem.

²Futile! Futile! says Kohelet.

Completely meaningless!
Everything is futile!^c

³What does a person gain in all his labor that he toils under the sun?

⁴A generation comes,
and a generation goes,
but the earth remains forever.

⁵The sun rises and the sun sets, and hurries back to the place it rises.

⁶The wind goes toward the south, and circles around to the north.
Round and round it swirls about,
ever returning to its circuits.

⁷All the rivers flow into the sea, yet the sea is never full.
To the place where the rivers flow,
there they go again.

⁸All things are wearisome.
No one can express them.
The eye is never satisfied with seeing,
nor the ear filled with hearing.

⁹What has been is what will be,
and what has been done
will be done again.
There is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰Is there anything about which is said, “Look! This is new!”?
It was already here long ago,
in the ages long before us.

¹¹There is no remembrance for former things, and things yet to come will not be remembered by those who follow.

Search for Meaning in Life

¹²I, Kohelet, am king over Israel in Jerusalem.

^b 1:1. Heb. Kohelet, meaning preacher; collector of sentences.
^c 1:2. cf. Rom. 8:20.

¹³I applied my heart to seek and examine by wisdom all that is done under heaven. What a burdensome task God has given the sons of men to keep them occupied. ¹⁴I have seen all the deeds done under the sun; and behold, all is meaningless and chasing after the wind.

¹⁵What is crooked cannot be made straight.
What is missing cannot be counted.

¹⁶I spoke with my heart saying: “I have grown rich and increased in wisdom more than any who were before me over Jerusalem. Indeed, my heart has experienced much wisdom and knowledge.” ¹⁷So I applied my heart to know wisdom as well as to know madness and folly. I learned that this too was pursuit of the wind.

¹⁸For with much wisdom comes much grief,
and whoever keeps increasing knowledge, increases heartache.

2

Futility of Human Pleasures

¹I said within myself, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure to see what is good.” Yet behold, this too was meaningless. ²I said of laughter, “It is madness!” and of pleasure, “What does it accomplish?” ³I thought deeply about how to cheer my flesh with wine—letting my heart guide me with wisdom—and how to grasp folly, so that I could see what was worthwhile for the sons of men to do under heaven during the few days of their lives.

⁴I increased my possessions. I built myself houses and I planted myself vineyards. ⁵I made royal gardens and parks for myself, and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. ⁶I constructed for myself pools of water to irrigate a forest of flourishing trees. ⁷I purchased male and female servants and had other servants who were born in my house. I also owned more herds and flocks than all my predecessors in Jerusalem.⁸ I also amassed silver and gold for myself, as well as the treasure of kings and the provinces. I acquired male and female singers for myself, as well as the luxuries of humankind—vaults and vaults of them.⁹ So I became far wealthier than all before me in Jerusalem, yet my wisdom stayed with me.

¹⁰I denied myself nothing that my eyes desired;
I withheld from my heart
no enjoyment.
My heart took delight from all my toil—
this was my reward for all my labor.
¹¹Yet when I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had expended to accomplish it, behold, it all was futile and chasing after the wind.
There was nothing to be gained under the sun.

Futility of Human Wisdom

¹²Then I turned to consider wisdom, madness and folly. For what more can the one who succeeds the king do than what he has already done? ¹³I realized that:

Wisdom is more beneficial than folly as light is better than darkness.

¹⁴A wise man has his eyes in his head, while the fool walks in the darkness.
Yet, I also came to realize that the same destiny befalls them both.

¹⁵Then said I in my heart:
“I, even I, will have the same destiny as a fool.
So why have I become so wise?”
I said in my heart, “This too is meaningless.”
¹⁶For the wise man, together with the fool, is not remembered forever.
For in the days to come

both will be forgotten.
Alas, the wise, just like the fool, must die!

¹⁷And so I hated life, because the work done under the sun was grievous to me. All is but vapor and chasing after the wind.¹⁸ I also hated all the fruit of my toil for which I had labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the one who comes after me.¹⁹ Who knows if he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will be master over all the fruit of my toil for which I had wisely labored under the sun. This too is futile.
²⁰So I turned my heart over to despair over all the things for which I had toiled under the sun.
²¹For sometimes a man, who has labored with wisdom, knowledge and skill, must hand over as an inheritance to someone who did not work for it. This also is futile and a great misfortune.
²²For what does a man get for all his toil and longing of his heart for which he labored under the sun?
²³For all his days, his work is pain and grief. Even at night his mind does not rest. This also is futility.

²⁴There is nothing better for people than to eat and drink, and to find enjoyment in their labor. This too, I perceived, is from the hand of God.
²⁵For who can eat and who can have joy, apart from Him?
²⁶For to the one who pleases Him, He gives wisdom, knowledge and joy, but to the sinner He gives the task of gathering and accumulating wealth to give it to one who pleases God. This also is only vapor and striving after the wind.

A Time For Everything

¹For everything there is a season and a time for every activity under heaven:
²a time to give birth and a time to die,
a time to plant
and a time to uproot what is planted; ³a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down
and a time to build up;
⁴a time to weep and a time to laugh,

^a 2:8. The word shiddah appears only here in the Bible. In the Mishnah it means a type of chest.

- a time to mourn and a time to dance; ⁵a time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing; ⁶a time to seek and a time to lose, a time to keep
 and a time to discard; ⁷a time to tear apart and a time to mend,
 a time to be silent and a time to speak; ⁸a time to love and a time to hate,
 a time for war and a time for peace.

⁹What gain, then, does the laborer get with his toil? ¹⁰I have seen the task that God has given to the children of men to keep them occupied.

Yet Eternity In Their Heart

¹¹He has made everything beautiful in its time. Moreover, He has set eternity in their heart—yet without the possibility that humankind can ever discover the work that God has done from the beginning to the end. ¹²I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and enjoy themselves in their lifetime. ¹³Also when anyone eats and drinks, and finds satisfaction in all of his labor, it is the gift of God. ¹⁴I know that everything that God does will endure forever. There is no adding to it or taking from it. God has made it so, that they will revere Him.

¹⁵Whatever exists, has already been and whatever will be, has already been, but God recalls what has passed.

¹⁶I have also seen under the sun:
 In the place of justice
 there was wickedness,
 and in the place of righteousness
 there was wickedness.

¹⁷I said in my heart:
 “The righteous and the wicked,
 God will judge.
 For there is a time for every activity and for every deed.”

Humans Same As Beasts?

¹⁸I also said in my heart, “As for the sons of man, God tests them so that they may see that they are but animals.” ¹⁹For the destiny of humankind and the destiny of animals are one and the same. As one dies, so dies the other. Both have the same breath—a human has no advantage over an animal—both are fleeting. ²⁰Both go to one place. Both were taken from the dust, and both return to the dust. ²¹Who knows that the spirit of the sons of man ascends upward and the animal’s spirit descends into the earth?

²²So I perceived that nothing is better than for man to enjoy his works, because that is his portion. For who can bring him back to see what will be in the future?

Futility of Human Labor

¹Again I looked and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun, and behold, I saw the tears of the oppressed, but they have no comforter. Power is in the hand of their oppressors, but they had no comforter.

²So I considered the dead, who are already dead, more fortunate than the living, who are still alive.

³Yet better than both is one who has not yet been, who has never seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

⁴Then I saw that all toil and all skill that is done come from man’s envy of his neighbor; this too is fleeting and striving after the wind.

⁵The fool folds his hands together and eats his own flesh.

⁶Better is a handful with tranquility than two handfuls of toil and striving after the wind.

⁷Again I saw something futile under the sun:

⁸There is one who has no one else, neither son nor brother, yet there is no end to all his toil.

 His eyes are not content with riches.
 “So, for whom am I toiling, and depriving myself of prosperity?”
 This too is meaningless—a grievous task!

Two Are Better Than One

⁹Two are better than one, because they get a good return for their effort.
¹⁰For if they fall,
 the one will lift up his companion.
 But oy to the one who falls and has no one to lift him up!
¹¹Furthermore, if two lie together,
 then they will be warm.
 But how can one keep warm alone?
¹²Though a man might overpower one,
 two can stand against him.
 Moreover a threefold cord cannot be quickly broken.

¹³Better is a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to take warning. ¹⁴For he came out of prison to become king—though he was born poor in his kingdom. ¹⁵I considered all the living that walk under the sun as well as the next youth who stands in his place. ¹⁶There is no end to all the people—to all who were before him. Also those who will come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this too is meaningless and striving after the wind.

Watch Your Words Before God

¹⁷Watch your feet when you go to the House of God. Draw near to listen, rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they are doing wrong.

5

¹Do not be quick with your mouth nor hasty in your heart to utter a word in God’s presence.

For God is in heaven, and you are on the earth—
 therefore, let your words be few.
²As a dream comes with excessive burdens so a fool’s voice with too many words.
³When you swear a vow to God, don’t delay in fulfilling it.
 For He takes no delight in fools.
 Pay what you vow!
⁴It is better for you not to vow than to vow and not pay.
⁵Don’t let your mouth lead your flesh to sin, and don’t say before the messenger,
 “It was a mistake!”
 Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands?
⁶Many dreams and many words are meaningless.
 Therefore, fear God!

Bureaucratic Oppression

⁷If you see the oppression of the poor or perversion of justice and righteousness in the province, do not be shocked at the matter. For one authority watches over another authority, and higher ones are over them. ⁸Though the profit of the land is taken by all, a king is served by the fields.

Futility of Wealth

⁹A lover of money never has enough money, and a lover of wealth is never satisfied with his income.
 This too is futile.
¹⁰When goods increase,
 so do those who consume them.
 So what advantage are they to the owner except he sees it with his eyes?
¹¹The sleep of the laborer is sweet, whether he eats little or much—but the excess of the rich permits him no sleep.

¹²There is a grievous wrong that I have seen under the sun: wealth hoarded by its owner to his own hurt, ¹³or wealth lost in a bad investment, and when he fathers a son, there is nothing in his hand.

¹⁴As he came from his mother's womb, naked he will return as he came.

He takes nothing from his labor that he can carry in his hand.

¹⁵This too is a grievous wrong. Just as he came, so will he go, so what does he gain, from his toiling for the wind?

¹⁶So, all his days he eats in darkness, and he has much grief, sickness, and humiliation.

¹⁷Behold, this is what I myself have seen. It is beneficial and good for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy all of his toil that he labors under the sun during the few days of his life that God has given him—for this is his reward. ¹⁸Additionally, everyone to whom God has given riches and wealth, and empowers him to eat from it, to receive his share, and to rejoice in his labor—this is a gift of God. ¹⁹For he will not often consider the days of his life, since God keeps him occupied with the joy of his heart.

Futility of Living Without God

¹There is a misery that I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy upon humanity. ²God gives a man riches, wealth and honor, so that he lacks nothing that his heart desires, yet God does not enable him to eat from it—instead a foreigner will eat it. This is fruitless—an agonizing illness.

³Even if a man should father a hundred children and live many years, however many the days of his years may be, yet his soul is never satisfied with his prosperity and he does not have a proper burial, then I say that it is better for the stillborn than him. ⁴Even though it comes in futility and departs into darkness, though its name is shrouded in darkness, ⁵though it has never seen or experienced the sun, it has more rest than the other. ⁶Even if the other man were to live a thousand years twice and never enjoy good things—do not all go to the same place?

⁷All a man's labor is for his mouth, yet his appetite is not satisfied. ⁸So what advantage has the wise over the fool? What does the pauper gain by knowing how to walk before the living? ⁹Better is what the eyes see than the pursuit of the soul's desires. This too is fleeting and striving after wind.

¹⁰Whatever exists has already been named, and it has been made known what humanity is. But man cannot contend with the One who is mightier than he. ¹¹When there are many words, futility increases! How does that benefit anyone?

¹²For who knows what is good for one during his life—during the few days of his fleeting life—that pass like a shadow? For who can tell a person what happens after him under the sun?

7

Lessons from Mourning

¹Better is a good reputation than precious oil and the day of death than the day of birth.

²Better to go to a house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting, since that is the end of all mankind—and the living should take it to heart.

³Grief is better than laughter, for though the face is sad, the heart may be glad.

⁴The heart of the wise is in a house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in a house of pleasure.

Wisdom Better Than Folly

⁵Better to hear a rebuke from the wise than to listen to the song of fools.

⁶For like the crackling of thorns

- under a pot,
so is the laughter of the fool.
This too is vapor.
⁷For extortion drives a wise man crazy, and a bribe corrupts the heart.
- ⁸Better the end of a matter than its beginning.
Better a patient spirit than a proud one.
⁹Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit,^a for anger settles in the bosom of fools.
¹⁰Do not say, “Why were the old days better than these?”
For it is not from wisdom that you ask about this.
¹¹Wisdom is as good as an inheritance, and even better
for those who see the sun.
¹²For wisdom is a shelter as money is a shelter, but the advantage of knowledge is this:
wisdom preserves the life of the one who possesses it.
- ¹³Consider the work of God, for who can straighten what He has bent?
¹⁴In a time of prosperity, prosper!
But in a time of adversity, consider:
God has made one as well as the other.
Therefore man cannot discover anything about his future.

Avoid Extremes

- ¹⁵During my fleeting days I have seen both of these things:
sometimes a righteous one perishes in his righteousness and sometimes a wicked one lives long in his wickedness.
¹⁶Do not be overly righteous nor overly wise—
why confound yourself?
¹⁷Do not be overly wicked and do not be a fool—
why die before your time?
¹⁸It is good to grasp the one

^a 7:9. cf. Matt. 5:22.

- and not withdraw your hand from the other.
For the one who fears God will escape both extremes.
¹⁹Wisdom makes a wise man stronger than ten rulers in a city.
²⁰Surely there is not a righteous person on earth
who does what is good and doesn't sin.^b ²¹Also, do not pay attention to every word people say, otherwise you might hear your servant mocking you—²²for your heart knows that many times you too have mocked others.
- ²³All this I have tested with wisdom and I said, “I determined to be wise”—but it was far from me. ²⁴Whatever it may be, it is far off and very profound—who can fathom it? ²⁵So I turned my heart to understand, to search and seek out wisdom and an explanation of things and to know the stupidity of wickedness and madness of folly.

- ²⁶I find more bitter than death
the woman who is a snare, whose heart is a trap,
and whose hands are chains.
He who pleases God will escape her,
but a sinner will be captured by her.

²⁷“Look,” said Kohelet, “I have discovered this while adding one thing to another to find the scheme of things—²⁸which my soul is still seeking, but not finding—I found one upright man among a thousand, but one upright woman among them all I have not found. ²⁹Only this have I discovered: God made mankind upright, but they went seeking after many schemes.”

8

Wisdom's Light and Limits

¹Who is like the wise person?

^b 7:20. cf. Rom. 3:23.

Who knows the meaning of a matter?
A person's wisdom makes his face shine, transforming the harshness of his face.

²I say: "Obey the king's command, and especially in regard to the oath of God. ³Do not be hasty to rush out of his presence. Do not stand up for an evil cause, because he will do whatever he desires. ⁴Since the word of a king has authority, who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'"

⁵Whoever obeys his command will not experience harm, and a wise person's heart discerns the proper time and procedure. ⁶For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter, though a person's trouble is heavy upon him.

⁷Since no one knows what will be,
who can tell when it will happen?

⁸No one has authority over the wind to restrain it,
nor authority over the day of death.
As no one is discharged during a battle, so wickedness cannot rescue its master.

⁹I have seen all this while applying my mind to everything done under the sun: sometimes one person dominates another person to his own harm. ¹⁰Then I saw the wicked buried—they used to come and go from the holy place, but will soon be forgotten in the very city where they did this. This too is meaningless.

¹¹When the sentence against a crime is not swiftly carried out, the human heart is encouraged to do evil. ¹²Even though a sinner might commit a hundred crimes and prolong his days, yet I know that it will be well for those who fear God, for those who revere Him. ¹³But it will not go well with the wicked, and he will not lengthen his days like a shadow, because he does not fear God.

¹⁴There is another enigma that occurs upon the earth: there are righteous people who are requited according to the work of the wicked, and there are wicked people who are requited according to the work of the righteous. I said, "This also is meaningless."
¹⁵So I recommend enjoyment, because there is nothing better for humanity under the sun except to eat, drink and enjoy it. So this joy will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life that God gives him under the sun.

¹⁶When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to observe the activity that is done upon the earth (his eyes not seeing sleep either day or night), ¹⁷then I saw all the work of God. No one can comprehend the work that is done under the sun. Despite all human efforts to seek it out, no one comprehends. Even if a wise person claims to know, he cannot really comprehend.

One Destiny for All

¹For all this I laid on my heart and to ascertain all this: that the righteous and the wise, as well as their works are in the hand of God. Whether love or hatred, no one knows—everything awaits them.

²Everyone shares the same destiny: for the righteous and the wicked; for the good, the ritually clean and the defiled; for one who sacrifices and one who does not sacrifice; as the good person so the sinner; as the one who swears like the one who fears an oath.

³This is a misery in everything done under the sun: that the same destiny awaits everyone. Moreover, the hearts of all humans are full of evil, and folly is in their hearts during their lives—after that they die. ⁴Everyone who is among the living has hope—even a living dog is better off than a dead lion.

⁵For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing.
They have no further reward,
even the memory of them is forgotten.

⁶Their love, their hatred, and their zeal have already perished;
never again will they have a share in anything that is done under the sun.

⁷Go! Eat your bread with gladness and drink your wine with a merry heart, for God has already accepted your deeds. ⁸Let your clothes always be white, and do not spare oil on your head.⁹ Live joyously with the wife whom you love all the days of your fleeting life that He has given you under the sun during all your fleeting days—for this is your portion in life and in your toil that you labor under the sun.

¹⁰Whatever your hand finds to do, do with your all strength, for there is no work or planning or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, where you are going.

¹¹I further observed under the sun:
The race is not to the swift nor the battle to the mighty, nor does bread come to the wise, or wealth to the discerning,
or favor to the skillful;
for time and chance befall them all.

¹²Moreover, no man knows his time:
like fish caught in a fatal net or birds caught in a snare, so people are trapped in a time of calamity, that falls upon them suddenly.

¹³I also observed this as wisdom under the sun, and it greatly impressed me. ¹⁴There was a little city with a few people in it and a mighty king came against it, surrounded it, and built great siege works against it. ¹⁵Now a poor, wise man was found in it, and he delivered the city by his shrewdness. Yet nobody remembered that poor man! ¹⁶So I said: “Wisdom is better than strength.” But the poor man’s wisdom is despised and his words are not heeded.

¹⁷The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than a ruler’s shout among fools.

¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

10

Wisdom and Folly

¹Dead flies make a perfumer’s oil stink, so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

²The heart of the wise is to his right, and the heart of the fool is to his left.

³Even as the fool walks along the way, his heart lacks sense and tells everyone what a fool he is.

⁴If a ruler’s spirit rises up against you, do not leave your post,
for composure allays great offences.

⁵There is a wrong I have seen
under the sun
like an error proceeding from a ruler.

⁶Fools are placed in many high positions, while the rich sit in low ones.

⁷I have seen slaves on horses, and princes walking on the ground like slaves.

⁸Whoever digs a pit may fall into it, and whoever breaks through a fence may be bitten by a snake.

⁹Whoever quarries stones may be hurt by them, and whoever splits logs may be endangered by them.

¹⁰If the iron axe is blunt and one doesn’t sharpen the edge, then he must exert more force.
So wisdom has the advantage of giving success.

¹¹If the snake bites before it is charmed, there is no profit for the charmer.

¹²Words from the mouth of the wise are gracious,
but the lips of a fool destroy him.

¹³The words from his mouth begin as folly and end as grievous madness—

¹⁴and the fool multiplies words.

No one knows what will happen, and who can tell him what will happen after him?

¹⁵The mischief of fools wearies them for he doesn’t know how to go to town.

¹⁶Oy to you, O land, when your king is a youth^a

^a 10:16. Or, servant.

and your princes feast in the morning.

¹⁷Happy are you, O land,
when your king is a son of nobles, and your princes eat at the proper time—in self-control and not in drunkenness!

¹⁸By laziness the rafters sag, and by idle hands the house leaks.

¹⁹A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes life glad—but money is the answer for everything.

²⁰Do not ridicule the king—
even in your thoughts, nor curse the rich in your bedroom.
For a bird of the air may carry your voice, and a winged creature may report your words.

11

Wisdom of the Long View

¹Cast your bread upon the waters, for after many days you will find it.

²Give portions to seven, or even to eight, for you do not know what disaster may happen upon the earth.

³If the clouds are full,
they empty out rain upon the earth.
Whether a tree falls to south or north,
the tree lies wherever it falls.

⁴Whoever keeps watching the wind will not sow and whoever gazes at the clouds will not reap.

⁵Just as you do not know how the spirit passes into the bones in the womb of a pregnant woman, so you do not know the work of God who makes all things.

⁶In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening

do not let your hand be idle,
for you do not know
if this or that will succeed, or if both will prosper together.

⁷Light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun.

⁸For if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all.
But let him remember the days of darkness—for there will be many.
Everything to come is obscure.

⁹Rejoice, young man, in your childhood, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth.
Walk in the ways of your heart and in the sight of your eyes, but know that for all these things
God will bring you to judgment.

¹⁰So banish anxiety from your heart and cast off distress from your body, for youth and prime of life are fleeting.

12

Ode for the Aging

¹So remember your Creator
in the days of your youth:
before the days of misery come,
and years draw near when you will say:

“I have no pleasure in them”—

²before the sun and light and moon and the stars grow dark, and the clouds dissipate after the rain,

³in the day the keepers of the house tremble,
and the strong men stoop, when grinders stop because they are few,
and those peering out windows grow dim,

⁴when doors are shut in the street and the sound of the mill fades, when one arises at the chirp of a bird and all their songs grow faint, ⁵when they also are afraid of heights and of dangers on the road, when the almond tree blossoms,

 the grasshopper drags itself along,
 and the caper berry fails to excite—for a man is going to his eternal home, and mourners go about in the street—⁶before the silver cord is snapped, or the golden bowl is crushed,
 or the jug at the cistern is shattered, or the wheel at the well is broken.
⁷Then the dust returns to the ground it came from,
 and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

⁸“Evanescient vapors,” says Kohelet.
 All is futility.

Conclusion: Fear God

⁹Furthermore, Kohelet was not only wise but he also taught the people knowledge. He pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰*Kohelet* searched to find delightful words and truthful, accurate sayings. ¹¹The words of the wise are like goads, their collective sayings are like firmly affixed nails. They have been given by one Shepherd. ¹²Be warned my son of anything in addition to them: There is no end to the making of many books, and excessive study wearies the flesh.

¹³A final word, when all has been heard:
 Fear God and keep His mitzvot!
 For this applies to all mankind.
¹⁴God will bring every deed into judgment, including everything that is hidden,
 whether it is good or evil.

Esther

Persian King's Banquet

¹This is what happened in the days of Ahasuerus, the Ahasuerus who reigned over 127 provinces from India to Ethiopia. ²At that time King Ahasuerus sat on his royal throne in the castle in Shushan. ³In the third year of his reign, he gave a banquet for all his princes and his servants. The military leaders of Persia and Media plus the nobles and officials of the provinces were present.

⁴He displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendor and glory of his majesty for many days, 180 days. ⁵When these days were over, the king gave a banquet, lasting seven days, in the garden court of the king's palace for all the people who were present in the palace at Shushan, for both the greatest to the least. ⁶There were white and blue linen curtains hung by cords of fine linen and purple on silver rings and marble columns, gold and silver couches on a mosaic pavement of alabaster, marble, mother-of-pearl and minerals. ⁷Wine was served in golden goblets, each of which was different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant according to the king's wealth. ⁸In keeping with the law, there were no restrictions on drinking for the king had instructed the supervisors of his household to comply with each person's desire. ⁹In addition Queen Vashti held a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Ahasuerus.

Vashti Refuses to Appear

¹⁰On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry from the wine, he commanded Mehuman, Bizzetha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas—the seven eunuchs who attended Ahasuerus the king—¹¹to bring Queen Vashti before the king wearing the royal crown. He wanted to show the peoples and the officials her beauty, for she was very attractive. ¹²But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command conveyed by the eunuchs. Then the king became furious, and burned with anger.

¹³So the king consulted the wise men who discerned the times, for it was the king's practice to consult experts in matters of law and justice. ¹⁴Those closest to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who had access to the king's presence and were the highest in the kingdom.

¹⁵“By law, what is to be done with Queen Vashti, for failing to obey the command of King Ahasuerus conveyed by the eunuchs?”

¹⁶Then Memucan answered in the presence of the king and the princes: “Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king, but also all the princes and peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus. ¹⁷For the queen's conduct will go out to all the women making their husbands contemptible in their eyes, by saying, ‘King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in before him, but she would not come!’ ¹⁸This very day the noblewomen of Persia and Media who have heard of the matter concerning the queen will respond similarly to all the king's princes and there will be no end to the contempt and anger. ¹⁹If it pleases the king, let a royal commandment go forth from him, and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed, that Vashti may not come into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal status to another who is more worthy than she. ²⁰Then the king's edict, which he will enact, will be proclaimed throughout all his vast kingdom, and all the wives will give their husbands honor from the greatest to the smallest.”

²¹The matter pleased the king and the princes. So the king did according to the word of Memucan. ²²He sent letters throughout all the royal provinces, to each province in its own script, and to each people in its own language, that every man should be in charge of his own household, and speak the language of his own people.

Esther Wins Favor

¹After these things when King Ahasuerus' anger subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decreed against her. ²Then the king's servants who attended him said: "Let a search be made on the king's behalf for beautiful young virgins. ³Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom to gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the palace at Shushan in the house of women under the supervision of Hegai the king's eunuch, who oversees the women. Let them be given beauty treatments. ⁴Then let the young woman who pleases the king become queen instead of Vashti."

This advice pleased the king and he acted accordingly.

⁵There was a Jewish man in the Shushan palace whose name was Mordecai, son of Jair son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjamite, ⁶who had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the captives that had been carried away with King Jeconiah of Judah, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had taken away. ⁷He had raised Hadassah—that is Esther—his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The girl was attractive and had a beautiful figure. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her to him as his own daughter.

⁸After the king's order and decree became known, many young women were assembled in the palace of Shushan under the supervision of Hegai. Esther also was taken into the king's household under the supervision of Hegai, guardian of the women. ⁹This young woman pleased him and found favor with him. He quickly arranged her beauty treatments and provided her special food. He also provided her with seven specially chosen young women from the king's household. Then he moved her and her maids to the best place in the women's house.

¹⁰Esther had not disclosed her people or her lineage, because Mordecai had commanded her not to make them known. ¹¹Every day Mordecai walked in front of the women's courtyard to find out how Esther was, and what might happen to her.

¹⁵When the turn came for Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai who had taken her as his daughter, to go to the king, she did not ask for anything except what Hegai the king's eunuch, the guardian of the women, advised. And Esther won favor in the eyes of all who saw her. ¹⁶Then Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus at his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tevet, in the seventh year of his reign. ¹⁷Now the king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she won his grace and favor more than all the other virgins. So he placed the royal crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

¹⁸Then the king gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his princes and servants. He proclaimed a holiday for the provinces and distributed gifts in keeping with the king's wealth.

¹⁹When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate. ²⁰Esther had not yet made known her lineage or her people, just as Mordecai had told her. Esther continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.

Mordecai Foils a Plot

²¹In those days while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the doorway, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus. ²²But Mordecai found out about the plot and told it to Queen Esther. Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name. ²³When the matter was investigated and found to be so, they were both hanged on a gallows. It was then written in the book of the chronicles in the king's presence.

Haman Hates the Jews

¹Some time later King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, elevating him and setting his chair above all the officials who were with him. ²All the king's servants who were at the king's gate bowed down and paid honor to Haman, for the king had commanded it. But Mordecai would not bow down or pay him honor.

³Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why are you disobeying the king's command?" ⁴Day after day, they spoke to him but he would not listen to them. Therefore they told Haman in order to see whether Mordecai's resolve would prevail, for he had told them that he was a Jew.

⁵When Haman saw that Mordecai was not bowing down or paying him honor, Haman was filled with rage. ⁶But it was repugnant in his eyes to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him the identity of Mordecai's people. So Haman sought to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.

⁷In the first month (that is the month of Nisan), in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast the pur (that is, 'the lot') in the presence of Haman from day to day and month to month, up to the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

⁸Haman then said to King Ahasuerus: "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom whose laws differ from those of every other people and who do not obey the king's laws. It is not in the king's interest to tolerate them. ⁹If it pleases the king, let an edict be written to destroy them. I will pay 10,000 talents of silver into the hands of those who carry out this business, to put it into the king's treasuries."

¹²The king's scribes were summoned in the first month, on the thirteenth day, and an edict was written as Haman had commanded. Everything Haman commanded was written to the king's provincial governors, and to the officials who were in every province, and to the officials of every people, province by province, according to its script and people by people according to its language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's ring. ¹³Dispatches were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, stating to destroy, slay, and annihilate all the Jews—from the youth to the elderly, both little children and women—on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their possessions. ¹⁴A copy of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to all people, so that they would be ready for that day. ¹⁵The couriers went out hurriedly with the king's command and the edict was issued in the palace in Shushan. The king and Haman then sat down to drink. But the city of Shushan was dumbfounded.

If I Perish!

¹When Mordecai learned all that was done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the middle of the city crying out in a loud and bitter voice. ²He went only as far as the king's gate, because no one could enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth. ³In each and every province where the king's edict and law came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many put on sackcloth and ashes.

¹⁰Then Esther spoke to Hathach and gave him instructions for Mordecai: ¹¹"All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces fully understand that for anyone, man or woman, who approaches the king in the inner courtyard without being summoned, he has one law—that he be put to death, unless the king extends his golden scepter permitting him to live. But I have not been summoned to come to the king for 30 days." ¹²So they conveyed Esther's words to Mordecai.

¹³Mordecai told them to reply to Esther with this answer, "Do not think in your soul that you will escape in the king's household more than all the Jews. ¹⁴For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place—but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows whether you have attained royal status for such a time as this?"

¹⁵Esther sent this to reply to Mordecai, ¹⁶"Go! Gather together all the Jews who are in Shushan and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast in the same way. Afterwards, I will go in to the king, even though it is not according to the law. So if I perish, I perish!"

¹⁷So Mordecai left and did all that Esther commanded him.

Esther's Request of the King

¹On the third day, Esther put on her royal apparel and stood in the inner court of the palace, in front of the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the entrance. ²When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard, she found favor in his eyes, so the king held out to Esther the golden scepter in his hand and Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter.

³Then said the king to her, "What is it, Queen Esther? Whatever you request, even as much as half of the kingdom, it will be given to you."

⁴So Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

⁵The king replied, "Bring Haman quickly so we may do what Esther said." Then the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther prepared. ⁶As they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your request? It will be granted to you. Whatever you request, even as much as half the kingdom, it will be fulfilled."

⁷Esther answered and said, “My petition and my request is this: ⁸if I have found favor in the king’s eyes and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and my request, then let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet that I will prepare for them—and then I will do as the king requests.”

Gallows for Mordecai

⁹Haman went out that day happy and in good spirits. However, when Haman saw Mordecai at the king’s gate, and he did not rise or tremble before him, Haman was filled with rage against Mordecai. ¹⁰Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home.

He sent for his friends and his wife Zeresh. ¹¹Haman boasted to them about his vast wealth, his many sons, and how the king had promoted him and exalted him above the other officials and servants of the king. ¹²Haman added, “And that’s not all! Queen Esther invited only me to accompany the king to a banquet that she prepared. And she has also invited me along with the king tomorrow. ¹³Yet all this does not satisfy me, as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate.”

¹⁴Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, “Let them set up a gallows 50 cubits high, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go happily with the king to the banquet.” This idea delighted Haman and he ordered the gallows to be built.

The King Honors Mordecai

¹That night sleep deserted the king, so he ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, be brought in and read before the king. ²It was found recorded there that Mordecai had revealed that Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s eunuchs who guarded the door, had conspired to kill King Ahasuerus.

³The king asked, “What honor or recognition has been shown to Mordecai for this?”

The king’s servants that attended him replied, “Nothing has been done for him.”

⁴The king said, “Who is in the courtyard?” Now Haman had just come into the outer court of the king’s palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

⁵The king’s servants answered, “Haman is standing in the courtyard.”

The king said, “Let him come in.”

⁶When Haman entered, the king asked him, “What should be done for a man whom the king desires to honor?”

Now Haman thought to himself, “Whom would the king desire to honor rather than me?” ⁷So Haman replied, “For the man whom the king desires to honor, ⁸let them bring a royal robe that the king has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on his head. ⁹Then let the robe and the horse be placed into the hand of one of the king’s most noble princes. Let them clothe the man whom the king desires to honor and parade him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming, ‘This is what is done for a man the king desires to honor!’”

¹⁰The king said to Haman, “Go quickly! Take the robe and the horse, just as you suggested, for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king’s gate! Do not neglect anything that you recommended.”

¹¹So Haman took the robe and the horse, robed Mordecai, and paraded him through the city streets, proclaiming: “This is what is done for the man whom the king desires to honor.”

¹²Afterwards, Mordecai then returned to the king’s gate, but Haman rushed to his home, grief-stricken and with his head covered.

¹³Haman recounted to his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him. His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, “Since Mordecai, before whom you have begun your downfall, is of Jewish descent, you won’t be able to stand against him. In fact, you will certainly fall before him!” ¹⁴While they were still talking with him, the king’s eunuchs came and hurried Haman along to the banquet Esther had prepared.

7

Esther Intercedes for Her People

¹So the king and Haman came to dine with Queen Esther,² and as they were drinking wine on the second day, the king asked Esther again, “Whatever you request, even as much as half of the kingdom, it will be given to you.”

³So Queen Esther answered, “If I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it pleases the king, grant me my life—this is my petition. And spare the life of my people—this is my request!⁴ For we have been sold, I and my people, for destruction, slaughter and annihilation. If we had simply been sold as male and female slaves, I would have remained silent, for such distress would not be worth disturbing the king.”

⁵King Ahasuerus responded to Queen Esther, “Who is he? Where is the man that presumed to do this?”

⁶Esther replied, “The man—the adversary and foe—is this wicked Haman!”

Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen.⁷ Enraged, the king got up from the banquet of wine and withdrew to the palace garden. But Haman stayed behind to plead with Queen Esther for his life, for he realized that the king had determined a catastrophic end for him.

⁸When the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the same couch where Esther was. The king exclaimed, “Will he also assault the queen while she is with me in the palace?”

As soon as these words came out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.⁹ Harbonah, one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, “Look, a gallows fifty cubits high is standing next to Haman’s house. Haman himself made it for Mordecai, who spoke good on behalf of the king!”^a

The king said, “Hang him on it!”¹⁰ So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s rage subsided.

8

A Decree to Protect the Jews

¹That same day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Then Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had revealed how he was related to her.² The king took off his signet ring, which he had taken back from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther then appointed Mordecai over Haman’s estate.

⁵She said, “If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor before him and it seems right to the king, and if I am pleasing in his eyes, let an edict be written rescinding the dispatches devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are throughout the king’s provinces.⁶ For how can I endure seeing the disaster that will fall on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my relatives?”

⁷King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, “I have decided to give Haman’s estate to Esther and had him hanged on the gallows, because he stretched out his hand against the Jews.⁸ Now write in the king’s name on behalf of the Jews what seems good to you and seal it with the king’s signet ring. For a decree that is written in the king’s name, and sealed with the king’s ring, cannot be revoked.”

⁹So the king’s scribes were called at that time—on the 23rd day of the third month, the month of Sivan. It was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to all the Jews, as well as to the officials, governors and advisors of all the 127 provinces that stretch from India to Ethiopia. To each province it was written in its own script and in its own language, and also to the Jews in their own writing and language.¹⁰This decree was written in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed with the king's ring, and sent on horseback by couriers who rode on the king's horses specially bred for their speed.

¹¹The king granted the right for Jews in every city to assemble themselves and to protect themselves—to destroy, kill and annihilate any army of any people or province that might attack them and their women and children, and to plunder their possessions.

¹²The day appointed for this in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar. ¹³A copy of the written edict was distributed to every province and made known to the peoples of every nationality so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

¹⁴The couriers that rode royal horses raced out, pressed on by the king's command. The decree was also given out at the palace at Shushan.

¹⁵Then Mordecai went out from the king's presence in blue and white royal robes, with a large gold crown, and also a purple robe of fine linen. The city of Shushan shouted and rejoiced. ¹⁶For the Jews there was light and gladness, joy and honor. ¹⁷Throughout every province and throughout every city, wherever the king's edict and his law went, the Jews had gladness and joy, banquets and holidays. Many peoples of the land became Jews, because the fear of the Jews had overcome them.

Jews Defend Themselves

¹Consequently, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (that is the month Adar), the king's edict and his law drew near to be carried out. On that day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but contrary to expectations the Jews gained the upper hand over those that hated them. ²Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus in order to lay hands on those seeking their harm. No one was able to stand against them, for fear of them had fallen on all the peoples. ³Even all the administrators of the provinces, the officers and governors, and those doing business for the king, helped the Jews, for the dread of Mordecai had fallen on them. ⁴Mordecai was prominent at the palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces. The man Mordecai was growing ever more powerful.

⁵The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying, and they did whatever they wished to those who hated them. ⁶In the citadel at Shushan the Jews killed and destroyed 500 people, ⁷including Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, ⁸Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, ⁹Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha, ¹⁰the 10 sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. They slew them but did not lay their hands on the plunder.

¹¹On that day the number of those that were killed in the citadel at Shushan was brought to the king's attention. ¹²Then the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed 500 men in the citadel of Shushan, including Haman's ten sons. What have they done, in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your request? It shall be granted to you. What other petition do you have? It shall be done."

¹³"If it please the king," Esther said, "let the Jews in Shushan be allowed to carry out today's edict tomorrow also, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

¹⁴The king commanded that this be done. A decree was issued in Shushan and they hanged Haman's 10 sons. ¹⁵The Jews in Shushan gathered together on the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and they killed 300 men in Shushan, but they did not put their hands on the plunder.

¹⁶Meanwhile the rest of the Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered together to protect themselves and to get relief from their enemies. They killed 75,000 of their enemies, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder. ¹⁷This happened on the thirteenth day of Adar and on the fourteenth day they rested, making it a day of feasting and gladness.

¹⁸But the Jews that were in Shushan had assembled on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth and on the fifteenth they rested, making it a day of feasting and gladness.

¹⁹That is why the rural Jews—those living in unwallled villages—make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a day of sending presents of food to one another.

Purim Festival

²⁰Mordecai recorded these events and he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far, ²¹urging them to celebrate the fourteenth and fifteenth days of Adar every year ²²as the days when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into celebration. These were to be days of feasting, celebration and sending presents of food to one another and giving gifts to the poor.

²³So the Jews agreed to continue the commemoration they had begun, and do what Mordecai had written to them. ²⁴For Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur—that is, the lot—to ruin and destroy them. ²⁵But when it came to the king's attention, he issued a written edict that the wicked scheme Haman^a had devised against the Jews should come back on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. (²⁶For this reason, these days were called Purim, from the word pur.) Therefore because of everything in this letter and because of what they had seen and what had happened to them, ²⁷the Jews established and took upon themselves, upon their descendants, and upon all who joined with them, that they would commemorate these two days in the way prescribed and at the appointed time every year. ²⁸These days should be remembered and observed in every generation by every family and in every province and every city. These days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor their remembrance perish from their descendants.

²⁹Then Queen Esther the daughter of Abihail, and also Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. ³⁰He sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of shalom and truth, ³¹to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, just as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them and just as they had established for themselves and their descendants, matters regarding their times of fasting and lamentations. ³²Esther's command confirmed these regulations about Purim and it was written into the records.

¹Now King Ahasuerus imposed a tribute upon the entire land, even to the coastlands of the sea. ²All the acts of his power and might, along with the full account of the greatness of Mordecai and the story of how the king promoted him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? ³For Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus, preeminent among the Jews, and held in high esteem by the multitude of his people. He sought their good and spoke for the welfare of his descendants.

Daniel

Kashrut as a Test of Faithfulness

¹In the third year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. ²God gave King Jehoiakim of Judah into his hand, along with some of the vessels of the House of God. He brought them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god and put the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

³Then the king told Ashpenaz the chief of his officials^b to bring in some of the sons of Israel from royal descent and nobility—⁴youths without any defect, handsome, proficient in all wisdom, knowledgeable, intelligent and capable of serving in the king's palace. He was to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans. ⁵The king allotted them a daily portion from the king's delicacies and from the wine that he drank. They were to be trained for three years, and at the end they were to stand before the king.

⁸But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the king's delicacies or with the wine he was drinking, so he entreated the chief official for permission not to defile himself. ⁹Now God caused the chief official to show mercy and compassion to Daniel. ¹⁰But the chief official said to Daniel: "I fear my lord the king, who allotted your food and your drink. Why should he see your faces looking poorly, unlike the other youths your age? Then the king would have my head because of you."

¹¹Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel,

^b 1:3. Or, eunuch (passim).

Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, ¹²"Please test your servants for ten days, giving us just vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³Then compare our appearance and the appearance of the youths who eat the king's delicacies, and treat your servants according to what you see." ¹⁴So he listened to them in this matter and tested them for ten days.

¹⁵At the end of ten days their appearance looked better and their bodies healthier than all the youths who ate the king's food. ¹⁶So the guard took away their delicacies and the wine they were supposed to drink and gave them vegetables instead.

¹⁷Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and proficiency in every kind of wisdom and literature, and Daniel could understand all sorts of visions and dreams.

¹⁸At the end of the time set by the king to bring them in, the chief official presented them before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹When the king spoke with them, he did not find among all of them anyone like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah; so they entered the king's service. ²⁰In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers throughout his realm.

²¹Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

The King's Dream and Demand

¹In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams. His spirit was troubled and sleep escaped him. ²So the king issued an order to summon the magicians, astrologers, sorcerers and Chaldeans in order to explain to the king his dreams. When they came and stood before the king, ³he said to them, “I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand the dream.”

⁴Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic^a, “May the king live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will declare the interpretation.”

⁵The king answered the Chaldeans saying, “I firmly decree: If you do not make the dream and its meaning known to me, you will be torn limb from limb and your houses reduced to rubble. ⁶But if you tell the dream and its meaning, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. So tell me the dream and its meaning!”

⁷They responded a second time, saying, “Let the king tell his servants the dream and we will declare the interpretation.”

⁸The king replied saying, “I know for sure that you are buying time since you see that I have firmly decreed ⁹that if you do not reveal the dream to me, there is only one verdict^b for you. You have conspired to say something false and fraudulent, until such a time as things might change. So then, tell me the dream and I will know that you can tell me its meaning.”

¹⁰The Chaldeans answered the king saying, “There is no man on earth who can meet the king’s demand. For no great king, however great or mighty, has ever asked such a thing from any magician, astrologer or Chaldean. ¹¹What the king asks is too difficult. There is no one who could declare it to the king, except the gods whose dwelling is not with mortals!”

¹²Because of this, the king became furiously angry and gave orders to execute all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³So the decree went out that the wise men were about to be slaughtered. They also sought Daniel and his companions to execute them. ¹⁴Then Daniel spoke with tact and discretion to Arioch, who was captain of the king’s guard and who had set out to execute the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁵He spoke up and said to Arioch, the king’s captain, “Why is the king’s decree so urgent?” Then Arioch informed Daniel about the matter.

^b 2:9. Or, law.

¹⁶So Daniel went in and asked the king to grant him time, so that he might disclose the interpretation to the king. ¹⁷Then Daniel went to his house and informed his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah about the matter ¹⁸so they would request mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his friends would not perish along with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

The Dream Revealed to Daniel

¹⁹During the night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven ²⁰and answered, saying:

“Blessed be the Name of God
forever and ever,

for wisdom and might are His.

²¹He changes times and seasons.

He removes kings and installs kings.

He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning.

²²He reveals deep and hidden things.

He knows what lies in darkness and light dwells with Him.

²³To You, O God of my fathers,
I give thanks and praise!

For You gave me wisdom and power.

You have made known to me
what we asked of You.

You revealed to us the word of the king.”

Daniel Interprets the Dream

²⁴Then Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon and said to him, “Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king and I will declare the interpretation to the king.”

²⁵So Arioch quickly ushered Daniel into the king’s presence and said to him, “I have found a man among the sons of the exiles from Judah, who can make known the interpretation to the king.”

²⁶The king then asked Daniel (who was renamed Belteshazzar), “Are you able to reveal to me the dream that I saw, as well as its interpretation?”

²⁷Daniel answered the king, saying: “The mystery about which the king inquired is such that neither wise men, astrologers, magicians, or sorcerers can disclose it to the king. ²⁸But, there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar the things that will happen in the latter days. The dream and the visions that went through your head as you lay on your bed are these.

²⁹“To you, O king—as you lay on your bed—came thoughts about what will come to pass in the future. The Revealer of mysteries has made known to you what is going to happen. ³⁰But as for me, this mystery is not revealed to me because I possess more wisdom than any other living person, but in order that the king may know the interpretation and understand the thoughts of your heart.

The Statue of Four Kingdoms

³¹“You looked, O king, and behold, there before you stood a huge statue—an enormous and dazzling image, whose appearance was awesome. ³²The head of that statue was of pure gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, ³³its legs of iron, and its feet partly iron and partly clay. ³⁴While you were watching, a stone was cut out, but not by hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. ³⁵Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were crushed together, and became like chaff from summer threshing-floors that the wind blows away. Not a trace of them could be found. Then the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶“This was the dream. Now we will tell the king its interpretation. ³⁷You, O king, are the king of kings to whom the God of heaven has given sovereignty, power, might and glory. ³⁸Wherever mankind, beasts of the field, and fowls of the heaven dwell, He has given them into your hand, and made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

³⁹“Now after you another kingdom will arise, one inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron—for iron shatters and breaks everything—and just as iron smashes everything, so will it shatter and crush all the others. ⁴¹Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly potter’s clay and partly iron, so this will be a divided kingdom. It will have some of the strength of the iron, for you saw the iron mixed with clay. ⁴²As the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. ⁴³Just as you saw iron mixed with clay, people will mix with one another, but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.

⁴⁴“Now in the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will this kingdom be left to another people. It will crush and bring to an end all of these kingdoms. But it will endure forever. ^c⁴⁵For just as you saw a stone cut out of a mountain, yet not by hands, crush the iron, bronze, clay, silver and gold, the great God has made known to the king what will happen in the future. Now the dream is certain, and its interpretation is trustworthy.”

⁴⁶Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and paid homage to Daniel and gave orders that an offering and incense be provided for him. ⁴⁷In response the king said to Daniel, “Surely your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings,^d and the revealer of mysteries, for you were able to reveal this secret!”

⁴⁸Then the king promoted Daniel and lavished on him many marvelous gifts and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹Moreover, at Daniel’s request the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego over the administration of the province of Babylon, while Daniel remained at the royal court.

A Gold Idol and a Blazing Furnace

¹King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, sixty cubits high and six cubits wide. He set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ²Then King Nebuchadnezzar summoned the satraps, prefects, governors, counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the authorities of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ³Then the satraps, administrators, governors, counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the authorities of the provinces assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had erected. They stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁸At that time certain Chaldeans came forward and denounced the Jews. ⁹They spoke up and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “May the king live forever! ¹⁰You, O king, made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music, must fall down and worship the golden image, ¹¹and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire. ¹²There are certain Jews whom you appointed over the administration of the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego—those men pay no heed to you, O king. They do not serve your gods, nor will they worship the golden image that you have set up.”

¹³Furious with rage, Nebuchadnezzar ordered Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego to be summoned. When these men were brought before the king, ¹⁴Nebuchadnezzar responded to them saying, “Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, that you don’t serve my gods or worship the golden image that I set up? ¹⁵Now if you are ready, at the moment you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp and pipes and all kinds of music you must fall down and worship the image that I have made. But if you do not worship, you will immediately be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire! Then what god will be able to deliver you out of my hands?”

¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego replied to the king saying, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to answer you concerning this matter. ¹⁷If it is so, our God whom we serve is able to save us from the furnace of blazing fire and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸Yet even if He does not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image that you set up.”

¹⁹Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage and the appearance of his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego. He ordered the furnace to be heated seven times hotter than it was normally heated ²⁰and commanded some of the mighty men in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego and to cast them into the furnace of blazing fire. ²¹So these men, wearing their robes, tunics, hats and other clothes, were bound and thrown into the furnace of blazing fire. ²²But because the king’s order was so urgent and the furnace so extremely hot, a raging flame killed those men who carried up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego. ²³And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, fell bound into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire.

²⁴Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and leapt to his feet. He asked his ministers, “Didn’t we cast three men bound into the middle of the fire?”

They replied to the king, “Surely, O king.”

²⁵But he answered saying, “Look! I see four men walking about unbound and unharmed in the middle of the fire, and the fourth has the appearance like a son of the gods!”

²⁶Nebuchadnezzar then approached the door of the furnace of blazing fire and exclaimed, “Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, servants of the Most High God, come out and come here!”

So Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego came out from the middle of the fire. ²⁷When the satraps, administrators, governors and royal ministers had gathered around, they saw that the fire had no effect on the bodies of these men. Not a hair of their head was singed, nor were their robes scorched, nor was there a smell of fire on them.

²⁸Nebuchadnezzar exclaimed, “Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, who has sent His angel and delivered His servants who trusted in Him! They defied the king’s edict and to gave up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. ²⁹Therefore I hereby decree that any people, nation or language that says anything slanderous against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego will be torn limb from limb and their house made a pile of rubble, because there is no other god that is able to deliver in this way.”

³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar Acknowledges God’s Kingdom

³¹King Nebuchadnezzar—

To all peoples, nations and languages who dwell in all the earth: May your peace abound!

³²It seemed good to me to declare the signs and wonders that God Most High has done for me.

³³How great are His signs, how mighty are His wonders!

His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
His dominion from generation to generation.

Dream: “Chop Down the Tree!”

¹I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace. ²I had a dream that frightened me. While on my bed the images and visions in my mind^a terrified me. ³So I issued a decree to bring all the wise men of Babylon before me so that they could make known to me the meaning of the dream. ⁴When the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans and diviners came in, I recounted the dream to them, but they were unable to make known its interpretation to me.

⁵Finally Daniel—whose name was Belteshazzar after the name of my god and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods—came in before me and I told him the dream.

⁶I said, “Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery baffles you. Consider my dream that I have seen and tell me its interpretation.

⁷“These are the visions in my head while I was on my bed: I looked, and behold, there was a tree in the midst of the earth. Its height was enormous. ⁸The tree grew large and became strong and its top reached to heaven; it was visible to the ends of the earth. ⁹Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all. Beneath it the beasts of the field found shade and birds of the sky lived in its branches, and from it all creatures were fed.

¹⁰“I was watching the visions in my mind while on my bed, and behold, a watcher, a holy one, descended from heaven. ¹¹He called loudly, saying:

‘Chop down the tree
and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit!
Let beasts flee from under it,
and birds from its branches.

¹²Yet leave a stump with its roots in the earth, in fetters of iron and bronze,
in the tender grass of the field.
Let him be damp
with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth.

¹³Let his mind be altered from that of a man and let an animal’s mind be given to him and let seven periods of time pass over him.

¹⁴This sentence is by the decree of the watchers, this verdict by the command of the holy ones,
so that the living may know that the Most High is sovereign over the realm of man and bestows it to whomever
He wishes, and may set over them
even the lowliest of men.’

¹⁵“I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw this dream. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me its meaning, for none of the wise men of my kingdom are able to make known to me its interpretation. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

Interpretation: A King Eats Grass

¹⁶Then Daniel, whose name is also Belteshazzar, was perplexed for a brief time; his thoughts alarmed him. The king answered, and said, “Belteshazzar, don’t let the dream or the interpretation disturb you.”

But Belteshazzar replied, “My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you and its interpretation for your enemies! ¹⁷The tree that you saw grow large and strong, whose top reached to heaven and that was visible to all the earth, ¹⁸whose leaves were beautiful and whose fruit was so abundant that there was food for all in it and beneath which the beasts of the fields lived and in its branches birds of the sky dwelt—¹⁹it is you, O king! For you have grown great and mighty. Your greatness reaches to heaven, and your authority extends to the end of the earth.

²⁰“You, O king, saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Chop down the tree and destroy it! Yet leave a stump with its roots in the ground, in fetters of iron and bronze, in the grass of the field. Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, until seven time periods pass over him.’

²¹“This is the interpretation, O king. It is the decree of the Most High that has come upon my lord the king:

²²“You will be driven away from people and will dwell with the wild animals. You will feed on grass like an ox and be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven periods of time will pass over you until you know that the Most High is sovereign over the realm of mankind and gives it to whomever He wishes.

²³“The command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots means that your kingdom will be restored to you^a as soon as you understand that Heaven is sovereign.

²⁴Therefore, O king, may my counsel be acceptable to you: Renounce your sins through righteousness and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps your prosperity will be prolonged.”

Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream Fulfilled

²⁵All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.

²⁶At the end of twelve months, as he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, ²⁷the king exclaimed, "Is this not the great Babylon that I have built as the royal residence by my mighty power and for the glory of my majesty?"

²⁸The words were still in the king's mouth when a voice fell from heaven. "King Nebuchadnezzar, it has been decreed to you that your kingdom has been removed from you! ²⁹You will be driven away from men and you will live with the beasts of the field. You will feed on grass like an ox and seven periods of time will pass over you until you come to know that the Most High is sovereign over the realm of mankind and gives it to whomever He wishes."

³⁰Immediately the word about Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven away from men, ate grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

³¹But at the end of the appointed days, I Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes up to heaven and my sanity returned to me. So I blessed the Most High and I praised and honored Him who lives forever.

"For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and His kingdom endures
from generation to generation!

³²All the inhabitants of earth are counted as nothing.
He does as He wills with the army of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth.
No one can hold back His hand,
or say to Him,
'What have you done?'

³³"At that moment my sanity returned to me, and my majesty and my splendor were restored to me, for the glory of my kingdom. My ministers and nobles sought me out and I was reestablished over my kingdom. I became even greater than before. ³⁴Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt and honor the King of heaven, because all His works are right and His ways just. He is able to humble those who walk in pride."

Handwriting on the Wall

¹King Belshazzar held a great feast for 1,000 of his nobles and was drinking wine in front of the thousand. ²When Belshazzar tasted the wine, he issued an order to bring in the gold and silver vessels that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the Temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his consorts and his concubines could drink from them. ³So they brought the gold vessels that were taken out of the Temple of the House of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, consorts and concubines drank from them. ⁴They drank the wine and praised the gods made of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood and stone.

⁷The king called loudly to summon the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. The king said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me what it means will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain around his neck, and will have authority as the third ruler in the kingdom!"

⁸Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the inscription nor tell the king what it meant. ⁹So King Belshazzar became even more terrified and his face grew pale. His nobles were baffled.

¹⁰The queen hearing the words of the king and his nobles entered the banquet hall. The queen spoke out and said, "May the king live forever! Do not let your thoughts frighten you, or your face be so pale! ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father, he was found to have insight and intelligence, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. So King Nebuchadnezzar your father made him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans and diviners. ¹²This man Daniel, whom the king named Belshazzar, was found to have extraordinary spirit, knowledge and insight for interpreting dreams, explaining riddles, and solving problems. Now, let Daniel be summoned and he will explain the interpretation.”

¹³So Daniel was brought before the king and the king said to Daniel, “Are you Daniel who is one of the captives of Judah that my father the king brought from Judah? ¹⁴I have heard about you, how a spirit of the gods is in you and how there has been found in you insight, discernment and extraordinary wisdom. ¹⁵Just now the wise men and diviners were brought before me to read this writing and to make its meaning known to me, but they are unable to declare its interpretation. ¹⁶However, I have heard about you that you are able to provide interpretations and to solve difficult problems. Now if you are able to read the writing and explain to me its meaning, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain around your neck and have the authority to rule as the third in the kingdom.”

¹⁷Then Daniel answered the king saying, “You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king and tell him its meaning. ¹⁸Your majesty, God Most High gave your father Nebuchadnezzar the kingdom, as well as greatness, glory, and splendor. ¹⁹Because of the grandeur that He bestowed on him, all the peoples, nations and languages dreaded and feared him. He killed whomever he wanted and spared anyone he wanted; he raised up whomever he wished and humbled anyone he wished. ²⁰But when his heart became haughty and his spirit hardened with pride, he was deposed from his royal throne and stripped of his glory. ²¹He was driven away from among men and his mind became like an animal, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; he fed on grass like an ox, and his body was damp with the dew of heaven until he recognized that God Most High is sovereign over the realm of mankind and that He sets up over it whomever He wills.

²²“But you his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this. ²³Instead you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven. You had the vessels of His House brought before you, and you and your nobles, your consorts and your concubines have been drinking wine in them. You have praised the gods made of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or understand. Yet you did not honor the God who holds in His hand your very breath and all your ways. ²⁴Therefore, the hand was sent from Him that wrote this inscription.

²⁵“Now this is the writing that was inscribed:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL UPARSIN.

²⁶This is the interpretation of the inscription: MENE: God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.

²⁷TEKEL: You have been weighed in the balances and found wanting.

²⁸PERES: Your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

²⁹Then at Belshazzar’s command, they clothed Daniel with purple, put a chain of gold around his neck, and issued a proclamation about him that he would have the authority as third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰On that very night King Belshazzar of the Chaldeans was slain.

¹So Darius the Mede took over the kingdom at the age of 62.

Delivered from the Lions’ Den

²It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the whole kingdom ³with

three administrators over them, one of whom was Daniel. These satraps were accountable to them so that the king would not be troubled. ⁴Now this Daniel was distinguishing himself among the supervisors and satraps because he had an extraordinary spirit in him. In fact, the king planned to appoint him over the entire kingdom. ⁵At this time the supervisors and satraps tried to find ground for a charge against Daniel regarding the kingdom. But they were unable to find fault or corruption, because he was trustworthy and no negligence or dishonesty could be found in him. ⁶Finally these men said, “We’re not going to find any basis for charges against this man Daniel, unless we find something against him regarding the law of his God.”

⁷So these supervisors and satraps went in to the king as a group, and said to him, “King Darius, live forever!” ⁸All the supervisors of the realm, the magistrates and satraps, ministers and governors, have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce a decree that anyone who prays to any god or man for 30 days other than you O king, will be cast into the lions’ den. ⁹Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it may not be altered, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed.” ¹⁰Thereupon King Darius issued the written decree.

¹¹Now when Daniel learned that a written decree had been issued, he went into his house, where the windows in his upper room opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he knelt down, prayed and gave thanks before his God, just as he did before. ¹²Then these men came as a group and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. ¹³So they approached the king and spoke to him about the royal decree: “Didn’t you issue a written decree that anyone who prays to any god or man for 30 days—except for you, O king—shall be cast into the den of lions?”

The king replied, “The decree stands, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed.”

¹⁴Then they answered and said to the king: “Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the decree that you put in writing. He still prays three times a day!” ¹⁵When the king heard this report, he was deeply distressed, and he set his mind on how he might rescue Daniel. Until sunset he struggled to find a way to save him.

¹⁶Then these men came as a throng in to the king, and said to the king: “Remember, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or edict which the king issues may be altered.”

¹⁷So the king gave the order and Daniel was brought and thrown into the lions’ den. Now the king spoke to Daniel saying, “May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!” ¹⁸A stone was brought to block the mouth of the den. The king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet of his nobles, so that nothing could be changed regarding Daniel. ¹⁹Then the king went to his palace and passed the night fasting—no entertainment was brought before him. He was unable to sleep.

²⁰At dawn the king got up and hurried to the lions’ den. ²¹As he reached the den, he cried out to Daniel with a voice of anguish. The king spoke out to Daniel saying: “Daniel, servant of the living God, was your God, whom you serve continually, able to rescue you from the lions?”

²²Daniel spoke to the king: “May the king live forever! ²³My God sent His angel to shut the lions’ mouths^a so that they haven’t harmed me, because I was found innocent before Him. Nor have I committed any crime against you, O king.”

²⁴Then the king was overjoyed, and ordered Daniel taken up out of the den. So Daniel was lifted out of the pit. No injury of any kind was found on him because he had trusted in his God. ²⁵At the king’s command, those men who had maliciously accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the lions' den—they, their children, and their wives. They had not even reached the bottom of the pit before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

²⁶Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages dwelling in all the earth:

“May your peace be abundant!

²⁷I issue a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom people are to tremble with fear before the God of Daniel.

“For He is the living God,
enduring forever!

His kingdom will never be destroyed,
His dominion will never end.^a ²⁸He delivers and rescues.

He performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on earth.
He has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions!”

²⁹So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel's Vision of Four Beasts

¹In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind as he was on his bed. He wrote down a summary of the dream.

²Daniel said: “I was looking in my vision at night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were churning up the great sea. ³Four huge beasts came up from the sea, each different from the others.

⁴“The first was like a lion with eagle's wings. As I watched, its wings were pulled off and it was lifted off the ground. It was made to stand upon two feet like a man, and the heart of a human was given to it.

⁵“And behold there before me was another beast, a second one, like a bear. It raised itself up on one side; it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, ‘Arise, devour much flesh!’

⁶“After that I looked, and behold, there was another one like a leopard. On its back it had four wings like those of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and it was given authority to rule.

⁷“After this in my vision at night, I looked and behold there was a fourth beast—terrifying, frightening, tremendously strong, with large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed—and anything that was left it trampled with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that came before it; it had ten horns.^b

⁸“While I was pondering the horns, behold, another horn, a small one, sprang up between them, and three of the first horns were uprooted from before it. And behold, this horn had eyes resembling human eyes and a mouth speaking boastfully.^c

Ancient of Days and Son of Man

⁹“While I was watching, thrones were set up, and the Ancient of Days took his seat.
His garment was as white as snow, and the hair of His head like pure wool.
His throne was ablaze with flames, its wheels a burning fire.^d

¹⁰A river of fire was flowing and coming out from before Him.
Thousands of thousands attended Him and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.^e
The court was seated, and the books were opened.^f

¹¹“I kept watching because of the boastful words that the horn was speaking. I continued watching until the beast was slain and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire.^g

¹²As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion had been taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

¹³“I was watching in the night visions.

Behold, One like a Son of Man,^h coming with the clouds of heaven.
He approached the Ancient of Days,
and was brought into His presence.

¹⁴Dominion, glory and sovereignty were given to Him that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will never pass away, and His kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.ⁱ

Interpretation of the Beasts

¹⁵“As for me, Daniel, my spirit was disturbed within me, and the visions of my head alarmed me. ¹⁶I approached one of those standing nearby and asked him the true meaning of all this. So he spoke with me and revealed the interpretation of these things: ¹⁷“These large beasts, four in number, are four kings that will rise from the earth. ¹⁸But the kedoshim of the Most High will receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever—yes, forever and ever.^j

¹⁹“Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast that was different from all the others, exceedingly terrifying with iron teeth and bronze claws, which broke in pieces and devoured and then stomped with its feet anything that remained. ²⁰Of the ten horns on its head, the other horn that sprang up before which three others fell—that horn eyes and a mouth speaking arrogant things, and its appearance was more imposing than its companions. ²¹As I was watching, that horn was waging war against the kedoshim and overpowering them,²² until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was rendered in favor of the kedoshim of the Most High—when the time came and the kedoshim possessed the kingdom.^k

²³“Thus he explained: ‘The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on earth that will be different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, and trample it and crush it. ²⁴As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise. Another will arise after them, but he will be different from the previous ones; he will subdue three kings.^l ²⁵He will speak words against the Most High, and will continually harass the kedoshim of the Most High,^m and will try to change the appointed times and law. The kedoshim will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.ⁿ ²⁶But the court will sit and he will be stripped of his power to be destroyed and abolished for all time. ²⁷Then the kingdom, power, and greatness of the kingdoms under all heaven will be given to the people of the kedoshim of the Most High.^o Their kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions will serve and obey him.’

²⁸This is the conclusion of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me and the color drained from my face. But I kept the matter in my heart.”

Daniel’s Vision of a Ram and Goat

was beside the Ulai Canal. ³I lifted up my eyes and looked up, behold, a ram with two horns was standing in front of the canal. The two horns were long but one was longer than the other, but the longer one grew up last. ⁴I saw the ram charging toward the west and north and south. No animal could stand against him—none could deliver from his hand. So he did as he pleased and magnified himself.

⁵“While I was contemplating this, behold, a male goat came from the west crossing the face of the whole earth without touching the ground! Now the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes. ⁶He came up to the two-horn ram that I had seen standing beside the canal, and charged it with raging strength. ⁷I saw him attacking the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering his two horns. Now the ram was not strong enough to stand against him, so he knocked the ram to the ground and trampled him. No one could rescue the ram from his power.

⁹“Out of one of them came forth a small horn, which grew extremely large to the south and the east, and toward the beautiful land. ¹⁰It grew as high as the host of heaven and hurled some of the host and the stars down to the earth and trampled them. ¹¹It set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host. It took away from him the daily offering and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down. ¹²The host was given over along with the daily sacrifice, in the course of its rebellion. It will hurl truth to the ground and prosper in what it does.

¹³“Then I heard a holy one speaking and another holy one said to the one who was speaking, ‘How long will the vision last, the daily sacrifice be forsaken because of rebellion, the sanctuary be surrendered and the host be trampled?’ ¹⁴Then he said to me: ‘For 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be vindicated.’

Interpretation of Vision: Persian Ram and Greek Goat

¹⁷“He came near to where I was standing, and as he approached I was terrified and fell on my face. But he said to me, ‘Son of man, understand that the vision pertains to the time of the end.’

¹⁸“While he was speaking to me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. But he touched me and stood me up, ¹⁹and said: ‘Behold, I am going to inform you about what will happen later in the time of wrath, for the vision pertains to the appointed time of the end. ²⁰The ram that you saw with the two horns stands for the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹The buck, the male goat, is the king of Greece; and the large horn between his eyes is the first king. ²²The four horns that replaced the one that was broken represent four kingdoms that will arise from this nation, though not with its power.

²³“Now toward the end of their reign, when the measure of transgressions is completed, a stern-faced king, a master of intrigue, will arise. ²⁴His power will be mighty, but it will not be by his strength alone. He will cause extraordinary devastation, and succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy both the powerful and the holy people. ²⁵By his cunning he will cause deceit to prosper under his hand and he will consider himself superior. He will destroy many, taking them unaware. He will even stand up against the Prince of princes, yet he will be broken, but not by human hands.

²⁶“Now the vision of the evenings and mornings that has been told to you is true, but seal up the vision for it concerns many days from now.’

^a 8:21. Alexander the Great.

²²“Then I, Daniel, was stricken and languished for days. Then I got up and went about the king’s business, but I was astounded at the vision and no one could explain it.

Daniel Confesses Israel’s Sins

⁴“I prayed to ADONAI my God and confessed, saying: ‘O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy with those who love Him and keep His mitzvot, ⁵we have sinned; we have committed iniquity; we have acted wickedly; we have rebelled; we have turned away from Your mitzvot and from Your rulings. ⁶We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, ^b who spoke in Your name to our kings, our leaders and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

⁷“You Lord are righteousness, but shame covers our face to this day—the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, near and far, in all the countries where you have banished them—because they behaved unfaithfully toward you. ⁸ADONAI, shame covers our face—our kings, our leaders, our fathers—because we have sinned against you. ⁹The Lord our God is compassionate and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against Him. ¹⁰We have not obeyed the voice of ADONAI Eloheinu by walking in His Torah that He set before us through His servants the prophets. ¹¹Yes, all Israel has transgressed Your Torah and has turned away—not obeying Your voice.

“Therefore the curse and sworn judgment written in the Torah of Moses the servant of God has been poured out upon us, for we have sinned against Him. ¹²So He has confirmed His words that he spoke against us and against our rulers who ruled over us by bringing on us a great calamity. Under the whole heaven nothing like this has ever been done to Jerusalem! ^c¹³As it is written in the Torah of Moses, all this calamity came on us, yet we have not sought the favor of ADONAI Eloheinu by turning away from our iniquities and paying attention to Your truth. ¹⁴So ADONAI was intent on bringing the calamity upon us, for ADONAI Eloheinu is righteous in all His deeds that He has done—while we have not paid attention to His voice.

¹⁵“So now, ADONAI Eloheinu, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and made for Yourself a Name to this day—we have sinned, we have acted wickedly. ¹⁶Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, let Your anger and Your fury turn away, please, from Jerusalem, Your city, Your holy mountain. Because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become an object of scorn to all those around us.

¹⁷“So now, our God, listen to the prayers and petitions of Your servant, and cause Your face to shine upon Your devastated Sanctuary, for the sake of my Lord. ¹⁸Give ear, my God, and hear! Open Your eyes and see our desolation and the city called by Your name. We do not present our supplications before You because of our own righteousness, but because of Your great compassions. ¹⁹Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen and act! For Your own sake, O my God, do not delay! For Your city and Your people are called by Your name.’

The Mashiach and Seventy Weeks of my God—²¹yes, while I was praying, Gabriel, the one I had seen in the earlier vision,^a came to me swiftly about the time of the evening offering.

²²“He instructed me and said to me: ‘Daniel, I have come now to give you insight and understanding.’²³At the beginning of your requests, a message went out, and I have come to declare it to you, for you are greatly esteemed. Therefore consider the message and understand the vision:

²⁴“Seventy weeks^b are decreed concerning your people and your holy city, to put an end to transgression to bring sin to an end, to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Holy of Holies.

²⁵So know and understand: From the issuing of the decree to restore and to build Jerusalem until the time Mashlach,^c the Prince, there shall be seven weeks and 62 weeks.

It will be rebuilt, with plaza and moat, but it will be in times of distress.

²⁶Then after the 62 weeks Mashlach will be cut off and have nothing.^d Then the people of a prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary.^e But his end will come like a flood. Until the end of the war that is decreed there will be destruction.

²⁷Then he will make a firm covenant with many for one week, but in the middle of the week he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. And on a wing of abominations will come one who destroys,^f until the decreed annihilation is poured out on the one who destroys.”^g

Angelic Princes Battle for 21 Days

¹In the third year of King Cyrus of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar. The oracle was true and concerns a great war. He understood the message and gained insight through a vision.

²“In those days, I, Daniel was mourning for three whole weeks. I ate no rich food, nor did meat or wine enter my mouth, nor did I anoint myself with oil, until the end of three weeks.

⁷“Only I, Daniel, saw the vision; the men that were with me did not see the vision. Nevertheless, such a great terror fell upon them that they fled and hid themselves.⁸ So I was left alone to see this great vision. My strength drained from me and my vigor was destroyed; I could not summon any strength.⁹ Yet I heard the sound of his words. When I heard him speaking, I fell on my face in a deep sleep with my face to the ground.¹⁰

¹¹“Then behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees.¹² He said to me, ‘Daniel, highly valued man, carefully consider the words I am speaking to you. Stand up! For now I have been sent to you.’ When he spoke this word to me, I stood up trembling.

¹³“Then he said to me, ‘Don’t be afraid, Daniel! For from the first day that you set your heart to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. I have come because of your words. ¹³However, the prince of the kingdom of Persia resisted me for 21 days, but behold Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me because I had been detained there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future days. For the vision concerns days yet to come.'

¹⁵"While he was speaking these words to me, I bowed my face toward the ground and was speechless. ¹⁶Then behold, one who resembled a human touched my lips. I opened my mouth and spoke, and said to him that stood before me, 'O my Lord because of the vision, anguish has overcome me and I have no strength. ¹⁷For how can this servant of my Lord speak with my Lord since no strength remains in me and no spirit is left in me?'

¹⁸"Again the one who looked like a man touched me and strengthened me. ¹⁹Then he said: 'Highly valued man, do not fear! Shalom to you. Be strong, now! Chazak!'

"Even as he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, 'Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.'

²⁰"Then he said: 'Do you understand why I have come to you? Now I must return to fight against the prince of Persia! When I go, behold, the prince of Greece will come. ²¹But first, I will tell you what is recorded in the writing of truth.' (No one strengthened me against these, except Michael your prince.^k ¹"And in the first year of Darius the Mede, I took my stand to support and protect him).

Kings of the South and the North

²"Now I will declare the truth. Behold, three more kings will arise in Persia. Then a fourth will be far richer than all. When he becomes powerful through his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the realm of Greece.

^r 10:21. cf. Rev. 12:7.

³Then a mighty king will arise, who will rule with great authority and do as he pleases. ⁴But as soon as he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken up and distributed to the four winds of heaven—though it will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the authority he exercised, for his kingdom will be uprooted and given to others besides these.

⁵"Then the king of the south will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he, and he will rule a greater kingdom than his. ⁶After some years they will form an alliance. The daughter of the king of the south will approach the king of the north to make an agreement. But she will not retain her position of power, nor will his strength endure. Instead she will be given up, together with her escort, her father and the one who supported her in those times. ⁷But another shoot from her roots will arise in his place. He will come against the army of the king of the north and enter his fortress. He will fight against them and prevail. ⁸He will also carry off their gods into captivity to Egypt, along with their metal images and their precious articles of silver and gold. For a few years he will stay away from the king of the north.

¹¹"Then the king of the south, enraged, will march out and fight against the king of the north, who will also muster a massive army. But the army will be defeated. ¹²But when the army is carried off, the heart of the king of the south will become arrogant, and will slaughter thousands and thousands, yet he will not prevail. ¹³The king of the north will raise up another army, one greater than the first. After an interval of some years, he will advance with a great army and with abundant supplies.

¹⁴“In those times many will rise up against the king of the south. The lawless sons among your own people will raise themselves up in order to confirm the vision, but they will stumble. ¹⁵Then the king of the north will come, build a siege-ramp and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the south will not prevail—not even their select troops will have strength to prevail. ¹⁶But the invader will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to stand against him. He will take his stand in the beautiful land and its devastation in his hand. ¹⁷His intention will be to come with the strength of his entire kingdom, but he will reach an agreement with him. He will give him a daughter in marriage in order to destroy the kingdom, but his plans will not succeed or help him. ¹⁸Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and capture many. But a commander will put an end to his insolence and pay him back for his insolence. ¹⁹He will then turn his face toward the strongholds of his own land, but he will stumble and fall, not to be found again.

²¹“Then in his place will arise a despicable person, on whom royal honor has not been conferred. He will come in a time of tranquility, and seize the kingdom through intrigue. ²²Armies will be utterly swept away from before him and will be broken, as well as the leader of the covenant. ²³After an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully; he will rise to power with a small force. ²⁴Without warning, he will invade the richest province and accomplish what his fathers or predecessors were unable to do. He will lavish on them plunder, loot and spoils. He will plot the overthrow of strongholds, though only for a while.

²⁵“He will summon his strength and courage against the king of the south with a great army. The king of the south will wage war with a very large and mighty army, but he will not succeed because of plots devised against him. ²⁶Those who eat his delicacies will destroy him, and his army will be swept away; many will be slain in battle. ²⁷These two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will sit at the same table and speak lies, but to no avail, for the end will still come at the appointed time. ²⁸The king of the north will return to his own land with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action and then return to his own land.

²⁹“At the appointed time he will invade the south again, only this time the outcome will not be as before. ³⁰The ships of Kittim^a will come against him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his rage against the holy covenant. When he returns, he will favor those who forsake the holy covenant.

³²With smooth words he will seduce those who act wickedly against the covenant, but the people who know their God will stand strong and prevail. ³³Those who are wise among the people will instruct many, though for many days they will fall by the sword, or be burned, captured or pillaged. ³⁴When they stumble, they will receive a little help, but many will join them deceitfully. ³⁵Even some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified and made spotless until the time of the end—for it will still come at the appointed time.

An Ungodly King Exalts Himself

³⁶“So the king will do as he pleases, exalting and magnifying himself above every god. He will even speak outrageous things against the God of gods. He will prosper until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been decided will be done. ³⁷He will show no regard for the gods^c of his fathers or the one desired by women, nor will he show regard for any god, but will exalt himself above all.³⁸ Instead of these, he will honor a god of fortresses—a god his fathers did not acknowledge he will honor with gold, silver, precious stones and costly things.³⁹ He will attack strong fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge him. He will give them authority over many and will parcel out land for a price.

⁴⁰“Now at the time of the end the king of the south will attack him, and the king of the north will storm out against him with chariots, horsemen and many ships. He will invade lands and pass through them like an overflowing river. ⁴¹He will also invade the Beautiful Land. Many will be overthrown, but these will escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon. ⁴²He will extend his hand against other countries; the land of Egypt will not escape. ⁴³He will gain control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver, as well as all of the riches of Egypt. The Libyans and the Cushites will also be under his feet. ⁴⁴But reports from the east and north will alarm him, and he will set out in a great rage to destroy and annihilate many. ⁴⁵He will pitch his royal tents between the seas and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he will meet his doom with no one to help him.’

¹“At that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over the sons of your people, will arise. ²There will be a time of distress such as has never occurred since the beginning of the nation until then. ³But at that time your people—everyone who is found written in the book—will be delivered. ⁴2 Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake—some to everlasting life, and others to shame and everlasting contempt.⁵ ³Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavenly expanse. And those who turn many to righteousness will be like the stars forever and ever. ⁴But you, Daniel, close up the words and seal the book until the time of the end. ^h Many will run back and forth and knowledge will increase.’

The Final Outcome

⁵Then I, Daniel, looked and behold, two others stood there, one on this bank of the river and the one on the other bank of the river. ⁶One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long until the end of the wondrous things?”

⁷Then I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, as he raised both his right and left hands toward heaven and swore an oath by Him who lives forever, saying, “It is for a time, times, and a half. Then when the breaking of the power of the holy people comes to an end, all these things will be finished.”

⁸Now I heard, but I did not understand. So I said, ‘My Lord, what will be the outcome of these things?’

⁹Then he said: “Go your way, Daniel. For the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand.

¹¹“From the time that the daily burnt offering is taken away, and abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. ¹²Happy is the one who keeps waiting, and reaches the 1,335 days. ¹³But you, go your way till the end. You will rest and then at the end of days you will arise to receive your portion.”

Cyrus Decrees: Rebuild the Temple

¹Now in the first year of King Cyrus of Persia, in order to accomplish the word of ADONAI from the mouth of Jeremiah, ADONAI stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his entire kingdom, announcing in a written edict, saying:

²“Thus says King Cyrus of Persia: ADONAI, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build a House for Him in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³Whoever is among you from all His people—may his God be with him—may go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the House of ADONAI, the God of Israel—He is the God who is in Jerusalem. ⁴As for anyone who remains, wherever they may be living, let the people of those places supply him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings for the House of God in Jerusalem.”

⁵So the patriarchal leaders of Judah and Benjamin, along with the kohanim and the Levites—everyone whose spirit God had stirred up—arose to go up to build the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem. ⁶All those around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, gold, goods, cattle and valuable gifts, besides all that was willingly offered.

⁷Then King Cyrus brought out the vessels from the House of ADONAI that Nebuchadnezzar had brought from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his gods. ⁸King Cyrus of Persia had them brought out by Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out for Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah. ⁹And this was the inventory of them:

- gold basins—30
- silver basins—1,000
- silver utensils—29
- ¹⁰gold bowls—30
- other silver bowls—410
- other vessels—1,000

¹¹In all there were 5,400 vessels of gold and silver. Sheshbazzar brought them all along when the exiles were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Numbering Those Returning

¹Now these are the people of the province who went up from the captives of the exile, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken captive to Babylon. They returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his town. ²They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordechai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah.

 the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, and the sons of Ami.

⁵⁸All the Temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants—392.

⁵⁹The following came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they were not able to prove their family connection^a or their ancestry^b whether they were from Israel:

⁶⁰the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah,
 the sons of Nekoda—652.

⁶¹Also from the sons of the kohanim:

 the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, and the sons of Barzillai. (He took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was subsequently called by their name). ⁶²These sought their records in the genealogical lists, but did not find them. So they were disqualified from the priesthood. ⁶³As a result, the governor said to them that they should not eat any of the most holy food until a kohen was ministering with the Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁴The entire assembly totaled 42,360, ⁶⁵not including their male and female servants, who numbered 7,337. They also had 200 male and female singers. ⁶⁶They had 736 horses, 245 mules, ⁶⁷435 camels, 6,702 donkeys.

⁶⁸When they arrived at the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem, some of the heads of the families gave voluntary offerings toward the rebuilding of the House of God on its foundation. ⁶⁹According to their ability, they gave to the treasury for this work 61,000 gold drachmas, 5,000 silver minas and 100 priestly tunics.

and the Temple servants settled in their own towns, and all the rest of Israel in their towns.

Rebuilding the Temple

¹When the seventh month arrived and the sons of Israel were settled in the towns, the people gathered together as one man in Jerusalem. ²Then Jeshua son of Jozadak, his fellow kohanim, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his associates began to build the altar of the God of Israel, in order to offer burnt offerings on it as written in the Torah of Moses, the man of God. ³They set up the altar on its fixed resting place despite their fear of the peoples of the lands and they offered burnt offerings on it to ADONAI, both the morning and the evening sacrifices. ⁴They also kept the Feast of Sukkot as it is written and offered the prescribed number of daily burnt offerings according to the requirement for each day.

⁵After that they presented the regular burnt offerings, the new moon sacrifices and the sacrifices for all the sacred moadim of ADONAI, as well as all the freewill offerings brought to ADONAI. ⁶From the first day of the seventh month, they began to offer burnt offerings to ADONAI, though the foundation of the Temple of ADONAI had not been laid. ⁷So they gave money to the stone-masons and carpenters, and food, beverages, and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians to bring cedar trees by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, as authorized by King Cyrus of Persia.

⁸In the second month of the second year after they had come to the House of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers—the kohanim, the Levites and all who returned from captivity to Jerusalem—began the work. They appointed the Levites from twenty years of age and older to supervise the work on the House of ADONAI.

⁹Then Jeshua, his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood together to supervise those working in the House of God, along with the sons of Henadad, their sons, and their brothers, the Levites.

¹⁰When the builders had laid the foundation of the Temple of ADONAI, the kohanim, arrayed in their vestments and with clarions, and the Levites sons of Asaph with cymbals, were stationed to praise ADONAI as prescribed by King David of Israel. ¹¹With praise and thanksgiving they sang to ADONAI,

“For He is good;

For His mercy upon Israel
endures forever.”

Then all the people gave a great shout of praise to ADONAI because the foundation of the House of ADONAI had been laid. ¹²But many of the kohanim, Levites and patriarchal leaders, older men who had seen the former House, wept loudly at the sight of the founding of this House, while many shouted for joy. ¹³People could not distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy from the sound of the people’s weeping. For the people were shouting so loudly that the sound was heard far away.

Resistance Weakens the People

¹When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple for ADONAI the God of Israel, ²they approached Zerubbabel and the leading patriarchs and said to them, “Let us build with you, for like you we seek your God and have been sacrificing to Him since the days of Esarhaddon, king of Assyria, who brought us here.”

³But Zerubbabel, Jeshua and the rest of the prominent patriarchs of Israel said to them, “It is not for you and us to build a House for our God—but we alone will build it for ADONAI the God of Israel, just as Cyrus—king of Persia—has commanded us.”

⁴Then the people of the land began discouraging^a the people of Judah and making them afraid to build. ⁵They bribed advisors in order to thwart their plans all the days of King Cyrus of Persia and until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

⁶During the reign of Ahasuerus at the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. ⁷Also during the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his associates wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia. The letter was written in Aramaic and translated. ⁸Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter concerning Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes as follows:

⁹From Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates—the judges and the officials, the magistrates, and governors over the Erechites, the Babylonians, the people of Susa (that is, the Elamites)¹⁰ and the rest of the peoples whom the great and noble Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and the rest of Trans-Euphrates.⁶

(Now ¹¹this is a copy of the letter they sent to him.)

To Artaxerxes the king, from your servants, the men of Trans-Euphrates:

Now ¹²let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding the rebellious and wicked city. They are completing the walls and repairing the foundations.

¹³“Furthermore, let it be known to the king, that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, no more tribute, taxes or duty will be paid and the royal revenue will suffer. ¹⁴Now since we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not proper for us to see the king dishonored, we are sending this message to inform the king ¹⁵so that a search may be made in the book of records of your fathers and you will discover in the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, inciting internal revolts from ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed. ¹⁶We are informing the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls completed,

⁶ 4:10. passim. Lit. beyond the river.

you will no longer have any possession in Trans-Euphrates.”

¹⁷The king sent this reply:

“To Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates who dwell in Samaria and the others in Trans-Euphrates.

“Shalom!

¹⁸“The letter that you sent to us has been translated and read in my presence. ¹⁹At my order a search was made and it was found that this city has from earliest times revolted against kings and that rebellion and sedition continually occur in it. ²⁰Mighty kings have ruled over Jerusalem governing all the Trans-Euphrates, and tribute, taxes, and duty were paid to them.

²³Then, as soon as the copy of the letter from King Artaxerxes was read in the presence of Rehum, Shimshai the scribe and their associates, they hurried off to the Jews in Jerusalem and by force and power compelled them to stop. ²⁴Thus the work on the House of God in Jerusalem ceased. It remained at a standstill until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Prophets Restart the Project

¹Now Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the prophet, the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. ²Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the House of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets of God were with them supporting them.

³At that time Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-bozenai, and their associates came to them and asked them, “Who gave you the authority to build this House and to complete this structure?”⁴ They also asked them, “What are the names of the men who are constructing this building?”

⁵But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius and a written reply about it be returned.

⁶This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shetar-bozenai, and his colleagues, officials of Trans-Euphrates, sent to King Darius. ⁷The report they sent to him was written as follows:

“To King Darius.

“All Shalom!

⁸“Be it known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the House of the great God, which is being built with large stones and timber is being set in the walls. Now this work is being done diligently and is succeeding in their hands.

⁹Then we questioned those elders, asking them, “Who gave you the authority to build this House and to complete this structure?”¹⁰ We also asked them their names in order to inform you, so that we might write the names of the men who were in charge of them.

¹¹They responded to us saying,

“We are servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the House that was built many years ago. A great king of Israel built and finished it. ¹²But because our fathers angered the God of heaven, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Chaldean. He destroyed this House and carried the people away to Babylon.

¹³However, in the first year of Cyrus, king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this House of God. ¹⁴Even the gold and silver utensils of the House of God that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Temple in Jerusalem and had carried away to the temple in Babylon—King Cyrus took those things from the temple in Babylon and gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.

¹⁵Then he said to him, “Take these vessels and go and deposit them in the Temple in Jerusalem and let the House of God be built in its place!”¹⁶ So this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the House of God in Jerusalem. From that time until now it has been under construction, yet it is not yet finished.¹

¹⁷“Now, if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon, to see if in fact King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this House of God in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us his decision about this matter.”

6

Darius Endorses Rebuilding

¹King Darius then issued an order and a search was made in the archives stored in the treasury at Babylon. ²A scroll was found in the citadel of Ecbatana in the province of Media, and this was written on it:

“Memorandum:

³“In the first year of Cyrus the king, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning the House of God at Jerusalem.

“Let the House be rebuilt as a place where sacrifices are offered. Let its foundations be laid. Its height is to be sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits ⁴with three layers of large stones and one layer of timber. Let the expense be paid from the king’s house. ⁵Also let the gold and silver vessels of the House of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the Temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and brought to the Temple in Jerusalem; you shall deposit them in the House of God.

⁶“Now then, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shetar-bozenai, and their colleagues, officials of Trans-Euphrates, all of you stay away from there. ⁷Leave the work of this House of God alone! Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this House of God in its place.

⁸“Moreover, I hereby issue a decree as to what you are to do for these elders of the Jews to rebuild this House of God. The complete costs are to be paid to these men from the royal treasury, from the tribute from Trans-Euphrates so that they are not hindered.

⁹“Whatever is needed—young bulls, rams or lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven or wheat, salt, wine and oil, as requested by the kohanim in Jerusalem—must be given to them daily without neglect, ¹⁰so that they may offer pleasing sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

¹¹“Furthermore, I decree that if anyone changes this edict, a beam is to be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and impaled on it, and because of this, his house be made a pile of refuse. ¹²May God, who makes His name to dwell there, overthrow any king or people who lifts his hand to cause such change to destroy this House of God in Jerusalem. I Darius have issued a decree; let it be carried out with diligence.”

Completion and Dedication of the Temple

¹³Then Tattenai the governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-bozenai, and their associates diligently carried it out, just as King Darius had sent. ¹⁴So the elders of the Jews continued building and prospering through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They finished building according to the command of the God of Israel and according to the decrees of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia. ¹⁵The Temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

¹⁶Then the sons of Israel—the kohanim, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication of the House of God with joy. ¹⁷For the dedication of this House of God they offered 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 male lambs, and, as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸They appointed the kohanim in their divisions and the Levites in their divisions over the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

¹⁹The exiles celebrated the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, ²⁰for every one of the kohanim and the Levites had purified themselves and all of them were ceremonially pure. They slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, and for their fellow kohanim and for themselves. ²¹So those of Bnei-Yisrael who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the impurity of the nations of the land to seek ADONAI the God of Israel. ²²They celebrated the Feast of Matzot with joy for seven days, because ADONAI had given them joy and had changed the heart of the king of Assyria toward them so as to strengthen their hands in the work on the House of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra Returns From Babylon

¹Now after these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah, ²son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub, ³son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth, ⁴son of Zerariah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki, ⁵son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the kohen gadol— ⁶this Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a scribe skilled in the Torah of Moses that ADONAI the God of Israel had given. The king granted him everything he requested, because the hand of ADONAI his God was upon him. ⁷Some of Bnei-Yisrael and some of the kohanim, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the sanctuary servants also came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

⁸He arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king. ⁹He began his aliyah from Babylon on the first day of the first month and entered Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, because the good hand of his God was upon him. ¹⁰For Ezra had set his heart to seek the Torah of ADONAI, to observe and to teach its statutes and ordinances in Israel.

King Artaxerxes' Letter to Ezra

¹¹Now this is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the kohen, the scribe, a teacher of matters pertaining to the mitzvot of ADONAI and His statutes over Israel:

¹²“Artaxerxes, king of kings,

“To Ezra the kohen, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven.

¹³“I have now issued a decree that anyone in my kingdom from the people of Israel—even the kohanim and Levites—who wish to go up to Jerusalem with you may go. ¹⁴For you are sent by the king and his seven counselors to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem with regard to the Law of your God, which is in your hand, ¹⁵and to bring the silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶together with all the silver and gold that you find in the whole province of Babylon, as well as the freewill offerings of the people and the kohanim for the House of their God in Jerusalem. ¹⁷Furthermore, with this silver you should be sure to buy bulls, rams and lambs, along with their grain offerings and their drink offerings and offer them on the altar of the House of your God in Jerusalem. ¹⁸You may do whatever seems good to you and your brothers with the remaining silver and gold, according to the will of your God.

¹⁹“The vessels that are entrusted to you for the service of the House of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. ²⁰The rest of the needs for the House of your God that you may have occasioned to supply, you may provide from the royal treasury.

²¹“I, King Artaxerxes, hereby issue a decree to all the treasurers of Trans-Euphrates to diligently provide all that Ezra the kohen, scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may ask of you— ²²up to 100 talents of silver, 100 cors of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of oil, and salt without limit. ²³Everything that the God of heaven has required, let it be done with diligence for the House of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? ²⁴We also notify you that you have no authority to impose tribute, tax or duty on any of the kohanim, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, sanctuary servants, or attendants at this House of God.

²⁵“Now you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint judges and magistrates who may administer justice to all the people in Trans-Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach those who do not know them.

²⁶Let anyone who does not observe the Law of your God and the law of the king, be punished with due diligence, whether it is death or banishment, confiscation of goods or imprisonment.”

²⁷Blessed be ADONAI, the God of our fathers, who has put it into the heart of the king to beautify the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem in this way ²⁸and who has extended lovingkindness to me before the king and his counselors and all the king's mighty princes. I gained strength, as the hand of ADONAI my God was upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

8

A Holy People and Their Witness

¹Now these are the patriarchal leaders, and the genealogical records of those who came up with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

²from the sons of Phinehas—Gershom;

from the sons of Ithamar—Daniel;

from the sons of David—Hattush;

³from the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh—Zechariah and with him were 150 males were enrolled by genealogy;

⁴from the sons of Pahath-moab—Eliehoenai the son of Zerariah and with him were 200 males enrolled by genealogy;

⁵from the sons of Shechaniah—the son of Jahaziel and 300 males with him.

⁶from the sons of Adin—Ebed the son of Jonathan and 50 males with him;

⁷from the sons of Elam—Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah and 70 males with him;

⁸from the sons of Shephatiah—Zebadiah the son of Michael and 80 males with him;

⁹from the sons of Joab—Obadiah the son of Jehiel and 128 males with him;

¹⁰from the sons of Shelomith—the son of Josiphiah and 160 males with him;

¹¹from the sons of Bebai—Zechariah the son of Bebai and 28 males with him;

¹²from the sons of Azgad—Johanan the son of Hakkatan and 110 males with him;

¹³from the sons of Adonikam (they came later, but these are their names)—Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah and 60 males with them;

¹⁴from the sons of Bigvai—Uthai and Zaccur and 70 males with him.

¹⁵I assembled them at the river that flows toward Ahava. We camped there for three days, and I observed the people and the kohanim, but I did not find any Levites there. ¹⁶So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, who were leaders and for Joiarib and Elnatan who were men of learning. ¹⁷I sent them to Iddo, the leader at the place Casiphia. I put words in their mouths to speak to Iddo and his brother, who were sanctuary servants at Casiphia, in order to bring us ministers for the House of our God.

²¹Then I proclaimed a fast there at the Ahava River so that we might humble ourselves before our God and seek from Him a straight way for us, our little ones, and all of our possessions. ²²For I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and cavalry to protect us from the enemy along the way, because we had spoken to the king saying, “The gracious hand of our God is upon everyone who seeks

Him, but His great anger is against everyone who forsakes Him.” ²³So we fasted and sought our God about this, and He responded to our plea.

²⁴Then I set apart twelve of the leading kohanim—Sherebiah, Hashabiah and with them ten of their brothers—²⁵and I weighed out for them the silver, the gold and the utensils, the contribution to the House of our God that the king, his counselors, his officials and all Israel who were present had offered. ²⁶Specifically, I weighed into their hand 650 talents of silver, silver utensils worth 100 talents, 100 talents of gold, ²⁷20 golden bowels valued at 1000 darics, and two exquisite vessels of gleaming bronze, as precious as gold.

²⁸Then I said to them, “You are holy to ADONAI and the vessels are holy. The silver and the gold are a freewill offering to ADONAI, the God of your fathers. ²⁹Guard them carefully until you weigh them before the leading kohanim and the Levites and the leading patriarchs of Israel in Jerusalem, in the storerooms of the House of ADONAI.” ³⁰So the kohanim and the Levites received the silver, the gold and the vessels by weight to bring them to Jerusalem to the House of our God.

³¹Then we set out from the Ahava River on the twelfth day of the first month to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was upon us and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the way. ³²So we came to Jerusalem and remained there for three days. ³³On the fourth day the silver, the gold, and the utensils were weighed out in the House of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the kohen. Eleazar the son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui. ³⁴Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the total weight was recorded at that time.

³⁵Then the exiles returning from captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs and as a sin offering 12 male goats. All of this was a burnt offering to ADONAI. ³⁶Then they delivered the decrees of the king to the king’s Persian governors and to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, who then gave help to the people and the House of God.

Interceding for Unfaithful Remnant

¹Now when these things had been completed, the leaders approached me to say: “The people of Israel, the kohanim and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands who practice detestable things just like the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians and the Amorites. ²For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons and have mingled the holy seed with the peoples of the lands. Indeed, the hand of the leaders and the officials have been at the forefront in this unfaithful act.”

⁵At the time of the evening offering, I rose up from my self-abasement with my garment and robe torn, then I bowed down on my knees and spread out my hands to ADONAI my God. ⁶I prayed, “O my God, I am ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God! For our iniquities are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens. ⁷From the days of our fathers to this day our guilt has been great. Because of our iniquities we, our kings and our kohanim have been subjected to the sword, to captivity, to plunder and to humiliation at the hand of the kings of the lands, as it is today.

⁸“But now for a brief moment ADONAI our God has shown us favor in leaving us a remnant and giving us as a peg in His holy place. Thus our God has enlightened our eyes and has given us a little relief in our bondage.

⁹Though we are slaves, our God has not forsaken us in our bondage. He has extended lovingkindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, reviving us in order to restore the House of our God, to raise up its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

¹⁰“So now, our God, what should we say after this? For we have forsaken Your mitzvot ¹¹that You commanded through Your servants the prophets saying, ‘The land that you are entering to possess is a land defiled by the impurities of the peoples of the lands. Through their abominations, they have filled it from one end to the other with their uncleanness. ¹²Therefore, do not give your daughters to their sons nor take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek their shalom or their welfare, so that you may be strong, eat the good things of the land and leave it as an inheritance for your children forever.’

¹³“After everything that has happened to us because of our evil deeds and our great guilt—for You, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and given us a remnant such as this—¹⁴shall we once again break Your mitzvot and intermarry with the peoples who commit such detestable actions as these? Would You not be angry enough with us to destroy us, leaving us no remnant or survivor? ¹⁵*ADONAI*, God of Israel, You are righteous, for we are left this day as a remnant. Behold, here we are before You in our guilt; because of it no one can stand before You.”

Putting Away Pagan Wives

¹While Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and prostrating himself before the House of God, a very large assembly of Israelites—men, women and children—gathered around him. The people also wept very bitterly. ²Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel. ³So now let us make a covenant with our God to send away all these women and their offspring, in accordance with the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Torah. ⁴Arise! For this matter concerns you. We are with you, so be strong and do it!”

⁵So Ezra rose up and made the leading kohanim, the Levites, and all Israel take an oath to do according to this word; and they took the oath. ⁶Then Ezra got up from before the House of God and went into the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no bread and drank no water, because he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

⁷A proclamation was then circulated throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all of the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem. ⁸Everyone who did not come within three days, would forfeit all his property according to the counsel of the officials and the elders, and would himself be excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

⁹So within three days all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled in Jerusalem. On the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people were sitting in the plaza before the House of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the rain. ¹⁰Then Ezra the kohen stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful and taken foreign wives, increasing the guilt of Israel. ¹¹So now, give praise to ADONAI, the God of your fathers, and do His will. Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from your foreign wives.”

¹²The entire assembly answered and said with a loud voice, “Yes, we will do just as you have said.” ¹³However, there are many people here and it is the rainy season, and we are not able to stand outside. Besides, this task cannot be resolved in one or two days, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter. ¹⁴Let our leaders stand for the whole assembly. Let everyone in our cities who has married a foreign woman come at an appointed time, and with them the elders of each city and its judges, until the burning wrath of our God is turned back from us in this matter.” ¹⁵Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah stood against this, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite. ¹⁶So the exiles did as proposed. Ezra the kohen, set apart men who were patriarchal leaders of their fathers’ households each designated by name. So they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to consider the matter, ¹⁷and they were finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women on the first day of the first month.

¹⁸Among the sons of the kohanim it was found that the following had married foreign women: The sons of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah. ¹⁹They all gave their hands in pledge to put away their wives, and for their guilt, they offered a ram of the flock as a guilt offering.

²⁰Also from the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

²¹From the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uziah.

²²From the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasah.

²³From the Levites:

Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah—he is Kelita—Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer.

²⁴From the singers: Eliashib.

From the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

²⁵Also from Israel:

From the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah and Benaiah.

²⁶From the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.

²⁷From the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.

²⁸From the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai and Athlai.

²⁹From the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal and Ramoth.

³⁰From the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh.

³¹From the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³²Benjamin, Malluch and Shemariah.

³³From the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh and Shimei.

³⁴From the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel, ³⁵Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhu, ³⁶Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasai, ³⁸Bani, Binnui, Shimei, ³⁹Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah, ⁴⁰Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴²Shallum, Amariah and Joseph.

⁴³From the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel and Benaiah.

⁴⁴All these had taken foreign women, and some of them had children by these wives.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah Intercedes for Jerusalem

¹The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah: Now it happened that in the month of Kislev in the twentieth year, while I was in Shushan the capitol, ²that Hanani, one of my brothers, together with some men from Judah, arrived and I asked them about the Judeans, the remnant who had survived the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

³They said to me, “The remnant who have survived the captivity there in the province are in great distress and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down and its gates have been burned with fire.”

⁴Upon hearing these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days. I prayed and fasted before the God of heaven.⁵Then I said:

“ADONAI, God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps the covenant and lovingkindness with those who love Him and keep His mitzvot, ⁶please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open to hear the prayer of Your servant that I am praying before You today both day and night on behalf of Your servants, the Bnei-Yisrael. I am confessing the sins of Bnei-Yisrael that we have sinned against You—yes, I and my ancestral house have sinned. ⁷We have acted very corruptly against You. We have not kept the mitzvot, the statutes, nor the rulings that You commanded Your servant Moses.

⁸“Please recall the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you act unfaithfully, I will scatter you among the peoples, ⁹but if you return to Me and obey My mitzvot, and do them, then even if your dispersed people are at the ends of the heavens, I will gather them from there, and bring them back to the place where I have chosen for My Name to dwell.’

¹⁰“They are Your servants and Your people whom You redeemed by Your great strength and by Your mighty hand. ¹¹Please, my Lord, let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and to the prayer of Your servants who delight in revering Your Name. Give Your servant success today and grant compassion in the presence of this man.”

Now I was cupbearer to the king.

Favor with the King

¹Then in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was set before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before. ²So the king said to me, “Why is your face so sad when you are not ill? This can be nothing but sadness of heart.”

I was very frightened, ³but I said to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”

⁴The king asked me, “What is your request?”

Then I prayed to the God of heaven, ⁵and I answered the king, “If it seems good to the king and if your servant has found favor in your sight, send me to the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried that I may rebuild it.”

⁶Then the king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked me, “How long will your journey take, and when will you return?” Since it pleased the king to send me, I set a time for him.

⁷I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let him give me letters for the governors of Trans-Euphrates that will enable me to pass through until I arrive in Judah, ⁸as well as a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king’s forest so he will give me lumber to make beams for the gates of the fortress adjacent to the Temple, for the wall of the city and for the residence I will occupy.”

The king granted me the requests because the good hand of my God was upon me.

⁹Then I went to the governors of Trans-Euphrates and I gave them the king's letters. The king had also sent army officials and cavalry with me.

¹⁰When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite officials heard all this, they were very displeased that a man had come to seek the welfare of Bnei-Yisrael.

Inspecting the Walls

¹¹I came to Jerusalem, and after I was there for three days, ¹²I got up during the night along with a few men. But I did not tell anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no animals with me except the animal I was riding. ¹³By night I went out by the Valley Gate toward Jackal Spring and the Dung Gate, inspecting the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire. ¹⁴Then I moved on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, where there was not enough room for my animal to pass with me; ¹⁵so I went up the valley by night, examining the wall. Finally, I turned back and returned to the Valley Gate. ¹⁶The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, but as yet I had not told the Jews, the kohanim, the nobles, the officials or the rest of the workers.

¹⁷Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation we are in: Jerusalem is desolate and its gates have been burnt. Come! Let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so that we will no longer be a disgrace."

¹⁸Then I told them how the good hand of my God was on me and the words that the king had said to me. Then they replied, "Let us begin building!" So they prepared themselves for this good work.

¹⁹But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. They said, "What is this you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

²⁰I responded to them saying, "The God of heaven will bring us success. We His servants will arise and build. But you have no part, right, or historical claim in Jerusalem."

3

The Builders of the Wall

¹Then Eliashib the kohen gadol and his brothers, the kohanim, arose and built the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and set up its doors, dedicating it as far as the Tower of the Hundred and as far as the Tower of Hananel.

²The men of Jericho built next to it and Zaccur the son of Imri built next to them.

³The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate. They laid its beams and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. ⁴Next to them Meremoth son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz made repairs. Adjacent to them Meshullam son of Berechiah, son of Meshezabel made repairs, and next to them Zadok son of Baana made repairs. ⁵The men of Tekoa made repairs next to them, but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work of their masters.

⁶Joiada son of Paseah, and Meshullam son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate. They laid its beams and set up its doors, its bolts and its bars. ⁷Adjacent to them worked Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, men from Gibeon and Mizpah who are under the jurisdiction of the governor of Trans-Euphrates. ⁸Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, worked adjacent to him, and Hananiah, one of the perfumers, worked next to him. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall. ⁹Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem made repairs next to them. ¹⁰Jedaiah son of Harumaph repaired the section adjacent to them opposite his house, and Hattush son of Hashabneiah worked next to them. ¹¹Malchijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Furnaces. ¹²Shallum son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, and his daughters repaired the next section.

¹³Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. They also repaired a thousand cubits of wall up to the Dung Gate.

¹⁴Malchijah son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth-cherem, repaired the Dung Gate. He built it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

¹⁵Shallun son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He built it, covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Shelah by the King's Garden, as far as the stairs going down from the City of David. ¹⁶Beyond him Nehemiah son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Beth-zur, made repairs as far as the tombs of David and the artificial pool and the House of the Warriors.

¹⁷After him, the Levites made repairs under Rehum son of Bani, and beside him, Hashabiah, the ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district. ¹⁸After him repairs were made by their brothers under Bavvai son of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Keilah. ¹⁹Adjacent to him Ezer son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section opposite the ascent to the armory at the corner buttress. ²⁰After him Baruch son of Zaccai zealously repaired another section from the corner buttress up to the door of the house of Eliashib, the kohen gadol. After him Meremoth son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz, repaired another section from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.

²²And after him the kohanim worked, men from the surrounding district. ²³After them Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their house. After them Azariah son of Maaseiah, son of Ananiah, worked beside his house. ²⁴Beyond him Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section from the house of Azariah up to the inner buttress and the corner. ²⁵Palai son of Uzai made repairs opposite the inner buttress and the tower coming out from the upper palace, which is by the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah son of Parosh ²⁶and the Temple servants living on the Ophel made repairs up to the area opposite the Water Gate toward the east and the projecting tower. ²⁷After him the men of Tekoa repaired another section from opposite the great projecting tower to the wall of the Ophel.

²⁸Above the Horse Gate the kohanim worked, each in front of his own house.

²⁹After them Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house and after him Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, the guard of the East Gate, made repairs. ³⁰After him Hananiah, son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another portion. After him Meshullam son of Berechiah made repairs in front of his living quarters. ³¹After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs up to the house of the Temple servants, and the merchants opposite the Inspection Gate and as far as the room above the corner. ³²Between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants worked.

Opposition Mocks the Rebuilding

³³Now when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he became very angry and was greatly enraged. He mocked the Jews ³⁴in the presence of his colleagues and the army of Samaria, saying:

“What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they revive the stones from the heaps of rubble that are burnt?”

³⁵Then Tobiah the Ammonite, who was beside him, said: “Even if a fox climbed on what they are building, it would break down their stone wall!”

³⁶Hear, our God, for we are despised. Turn their insult back on their own head! Give them up as plunder in a land of captivity. ³⁷Do not cover their guilt or blot out their sin from before You, for they have provoked You to anger before the builders.

³⁸So we rebuilt the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a heart to work.

¹Now when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the people of Ashdod heard that restoration of the walls of Jerusalem was proceeding and that the breaches had begun to be closed, they became extremely angry. ²They all conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to stir up trouble against it. ³But we prayed to our God and stationed a guard against them day and night.

⁴Meanwhile the people of Judah said, “The strength of the laborers is failing. There is so much rubble that we are unable to rebuild the wall.”

⁵Our adversaries also said, “They will not know or perceive anything, until we come among them and kill them, and put an end to the work!”

⁶So it happened that the Jews living near them came and told us ten times over, “Wherever you turn, they will attack us!”

Working and Watching

⁷So I stationed people in the lower places behind the wall in the exposed places. I stationed the people by families with their swords, spears and bows. ⁸When I looked things over, I rose up and said to the nobles, the rulers and the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the great and awesome Lord, and fight on behalf of your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes.”

⁹Now when our enemies heard that their plan was known to us, and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to his work. ¹⁰From that day on, half of my men were doing the work, while half of them took hold of the spears, shields, bows and breastplates, and the leaders were behind the entire house of Judah. ¹¹Those building the wall and those bearing heavy burdens kept one hand on the work and the other holding a weapon. ¹²So each of the builders had his sword strapped to his side while they were building, and the shofar blower was beside me.

¹³Then I said to the nobles, the rulers and the rest of the people, “The work is extensive and spread out, and we are widely separated from one another on the wall. ¹⁴Wherever you hear the sound of the shofar, join us there. Our God will fight for us!”

¹⁵So we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from dawn until the stars came out. ¹⁶Also at that time I said to the people, “Let every man and his helper lodge inside Jerusalem, so they can be guards for us by night and workers by day.” ¹⁷So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my workers, nor the guards who were with me took off our clothes; each man even had his weapon at the water.

Considering the Poor

¹Then there was a great outcry from the people and their wives to their fellow Jews. ²There were those who said, “We and our sons and our daughters are numerous. We must take grain, so we may eat and live.”

⁴Still others were saying, “We have borrowed money to pay the king’s tax on our fields and vineyards. ⁵And now, though we share the same flesh as our brothers, and our children are just like their children, still we subject our sons and our daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved but our hands are tied since our fields and vineyards belong to others.”

⁶I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words. ⁷I pondered them in my heart and then I opposed the nobles and the officials, saying to them, “Usury! Each of you is putting his brother in debt!”

So I convened a great assembly to deal with them. ⁸I said to them, “As much as possible, we have bought back our fellow Jews who had been sold to the nations. Now you also are selling your brothers so that they will be sold back to us?” Then they became silent and could not find anything to say.

⁹Then I said, “The thing that you are doing is not good! Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God, in order to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies? ¹⁰Even I, my brothers, and my servants are lending them money and grain. Let this usury stop, now! ¹¹Now, return to them this very day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves and their houses, as well as the hundredth that you have extracted from them on the money, the grain, the new wine, and the fresh oil.”

¹²Then they said, “We will restore these and require nothing from them. We will do just as you say.”

Then I summoned the kohanim and I made them swear to do according to this promise. ¹³Also I shook out my garment, and said, “In this way may God shake out from His house and from His property every one that does not keep this promise. In this way may he be shaken out and emptied!”

And all the assembly replied, “Amen!” and they praised ADONAI. So the people did according to this promise.

Nehemiah’s Unselfishness

¹⁴Moreover, from the day when I was appointed to be the governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes—twelve years—neither I, nor my relatives have eaten the bread allocated to the governor. ¹⁵The earlier governors, those preceding me, placed heavy burdens on the people, and took bread and wine from them, in addition to forty shekels of silver. Their attendants also lorded over the people. But I did not do so, out of fear of God. ¹⁶Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall, without even buying a field. All my attendants were gathered there for the work.

¹⁷Furthermore, 150 Judeans and officials, as well as those that came to us from the nations around us, were at my table. ¹⁸Now, each day one ox and six choice sheep, as well as some fowl, were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundance of every kind of wine was prepared. Despite all this, I did not require the governor’s food allowance, because the work was already heavy on this people.

¹⁹Remember me for good, O my God, for all that I have done for this people.

Attempts to Intimidate Nehemiah

¹Now it was reported to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and no breach remained in it—even though at that time I had not positioned the doors in the gates. ²Sanballat and Geshem sent word to me, saying, “Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono.”

But they were scheming to do me harm.

³So I sent messengers to them saying, “I am doing an important work, so I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?”

⁴They sent me the same message four times, and each time I returned a similar response to them. ⁵But the fifth time Sanballat sent his young aide to me in this way, he had an open letter in his hand. ⁶In it was written:

“It has been heard among the nations—and Geshem substantiates it—that you and the Jews are planning to revolt. That is why you are rebuilding the wall. Furthermore, according to these reports, you are to become their king ⁷and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem saying, ‘There is a king in Judah.’ Now, the king is going to hear about these reports. So come now! Let us confer together.”

⁸Then I sent a message to him, saying, “Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are devising them from your own heart.”

⁹For they were all trying to intimidate us, thinking, “Their hands will become weak from the work and it will not be done.”

So now, strengthen my hands!

¹⁰Then I went to the house of Shemaiah, son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel. He was confined to his home. He said, “Let us meet in the House of God, within the Temple. Let us shut the doors of the Temple, for they are coming to kill you. Indeed, they will come to kill you at night.”

¹¹But I said, “Should a man like me flee? Who in my position could go into the Temple and live? I will not go in.”

¹²I recognized that God had not really sent him, for he had pronounced the prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³He had been hired so that I might become so frightened that I would do this and thereby sin. Then they would give me a bad name in order to discredit me.

¹⁴Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these works of theirs, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who have been trying to intimidate me.

¹⁵So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in just 52 days. ¹⁶When all our enemies heard, all the surrounding nations were afraid and fell greatly in their own eyes, because they realized that this work had been accomplished by our God.

¹⁷Also in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah and replies from Tobiah kept coming to them. ¹⁸For many in Judah were under oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah. ¹⁹Moreover, they kept telling me about his good deeds and then reporting my words to him. Also Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

Hanani, Hananiah and the Returning Exiles

¹After the wall had been rebuilt, the doors set up, and the gatekeepers, singers and Levites appointed, ²I put in charge over Jerusalem, my brother Hanani along with Hananiah the commander of the fortress, for he was a man of integrity and feared God more than many. ³I said to them, “The gates of Jerusalem must not be opened until the sun is hot. While those are still on duty, have them shut and bar the doors. Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their post and some near their homes.”

⁴Now the city was spacious and large, but there were few people within it and no houses were being built. ⁵So my God put into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the people to be registered by genealogy. I found the scroll of the genealogical record of those who formerly returned. I found the following written there:

⁶These are the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the exile, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had taken away, and who returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each man to his own town. ⁷Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of Bnei-Yisrael was:

⁸The sons of Parosh—2,172

⁹The sons of Shephatiah—372

¹⁰The sons of Arah—652

¹¹The sons of Pahat-moab, from the sons of Jeshua and Joab—2,818

¹²The sons of Elam—1,254

¹³The sons of Zattu—845

¹⁴The sons of Zaccai—760

¹⁵The sons of Binnui—648

¹⁶The sons of Bebai—628

¹⁷The sons of Azgad—2,328

¹⁸The sons of Adonikam—667

¹⁹The sons of Bigvai—2,067

²⁰The sons of Adin—655

²¹The sons of Ater of Hezekiah—98

²²The sons of Hashum—328

²³The sons of Bezai—324

²⁴The sons of Hariph—112

²⁵The sons of Gibeon—95

²⁶The men of Bethlehem and Netophah—188

²⁷The men of Anathoth—128

²⁸The men of Beth-azmaveth—42

²⁹The men of Kiriath-jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth—743

³⁰The men of Ramah and Geba—621

- ³¹The men of Michmas—122
³²The men of Bethel and Ai—123
³³The men of the other Nebo—52
³⁴The sons of the other Elam—1,254
³⁵The sons of Harim—320
³⁶The sons of Jericho—345
³⁷The sons of Lod, Hadid and Ono—721
³⁸The sons of Senaah—3,930
³⁹The kohanim:
 The sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua—973
⁴⁰The sons of Immer—1,052
⁴¹The sons of Pashhur—1,247
⁴²The sons of Harim—1,017
⁴³The Levites: the sons of Jeshua of Kadmiel from the sons of Hodeiah—74
⁴⁴The singers: the sons of Asaph—148
⁴⁵The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita and the sons of Shobai—138.
⁴⁶The sanctuary servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaot, ⁴⁷the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁸the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Salmal, ⁴⁹the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, ⁵⁰the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, ⁵¹the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, ⁵²the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephishesim, ⁵³the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵⁴the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵⁵the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, ⁵⁶the sons of Nezhiah and the sons of Hatipha.
⁵⁷The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida, ⁵⁸the sons of Jala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁹the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim and the sons of Amon.
⁶⁰All the Temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants—392.
⁶¹Now the following were the ones who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon and Immer—but they were not able to identify their ancestral houses or whether their descendants were from Israel: ⁶²the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah and the sons of Nekoda—642.

⁶³Also of the kohanim: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai. (Their ancestor took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and subsequently was called by their name.) ⁶⁴These sought their names in the genealogies, but were not found; so they were disqualified from the priesthood. ⁶⁵The governor said to them that they should not eat any of the most holy things until a kohen arose with Urim and Thummim^a.

⁶⁶The whole congregation together was 42,360, ⁶⁷not including their male and female servants—these were 7,337—as well as 245 male and female singers.

⁶⁸There were 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

⁶⁹Some from among the family leaders contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury: gold drachmas—1,000; bowls—50; and priestly tunics—500. ⁷⁰Those from the heads of ancestral lines gave to the treasury for the work: gold drachmas—20,000; silver minas—2,000. ⁷¹The rest of the people gave: gold drachmas—20,000; silver minas—2,000; and priestly tunics—67.

⁷²So the kohanim, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, and the Temple servants, even all Israel, dwelt in their towns.

Ezra Reads the Torah

Then the seventh month came and Bnei-Yisrael were in their towns.

8

¹Then all the people were brought as a single body into the plaza that was before the Water Gate. They said to Ezra the scribe, "Bring out the Torah scroll of Moses that ADONAI had commanded Israel."

²Ezra the kohen brought the Torah before

the assembly, which included men and women and all who could understand what they heard. This happened on the first day of the seventh month.³ So he read from it before the plaza in front of the Water Gate from first light until midday, in the presence of the men and women, and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the scroll of the Torah.⁴ Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform constructed for this purpose. Standing near him at his right hand were Mattitiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah and at his left hand were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam.

⁵Ezra opened the scroll in the sight of all the people for he was above all the people. When he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶Ezra blessed ADONAI, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, amen!" as they lifted up of their hands. Then they bowed down and worshiped ADONAI with their faces to the ground.

⁹Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the kohen-scribe, and the Levites who were teaching the people said to all the people, "Today is kadosh to ADONAI your God. Do not mourn or weep!" For all the people had been weeping when they heard the words of the Torah.

¹⁰So he said to them, "Go! Eat choice food, drink sweet drinks, and send portions to those who have nothing ready. For today is kadosh to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of ADONAI is your strength."

¹¹Then the Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Hush! For today is kadosh. Do not grieve."¹² So all the people departed to eat and drink, to send portions and to celebrate with great joy, because they came to understand the words that were explained to them.

^a 8:8. Or, translating (into Aramaic).

Sukkot Joy

¹³On the second day, the heads of the families along with the kohanim and the Levites gathered around Ezra to ponder the words of the Torah.¹⁴ They found written in the Torah that ADONAI had commanded through Moses that Bnei-Yisrael should dwell in sukkot during the feast of the seventh month.¹⁵ So that they should proclaim and spread this message in all their towns and in Jerusalem saying, "Go out to the hill country and bring olive branches and wild olive branches, myrtle branches, palm branches and branches of other leafy trees to make sukkot, just as it is written."¹⁶ So the people went out and brought branches, and made sukkot for themselves, each on their own roof, in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the House of God, in the plaza before the Water Gate and in the plaza of the Ephraim Gate.¹⁷ The entire assembly who had returned from the captivity made sukkot and dwelt in the sukkot. Since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day Bnei-Yisrael had not done so—and the joy was very great.

¹⁸Day after day from the first day to the last day, he read from the scroll of the Torah of God. So they kept the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day, according to the regulation, there was a solemn assembly.

Levites Tell Israel's Story

¹Now on the twenty-fourth day of this same month, Bnei-Yisrael gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and putting dust on their heads.² The offspring of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, standing and confessing their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.³ They stood in their place and read in the scroll of the Torah of ADONAI their God for a quarter of the day; and for another quarter they were confessing and prostrating themselves before ADONAI their God.

⁴Then the Levites —Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani —stood on the platform and cried out with a loud voice to ADONAI their God. ⁵The Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah—said: “Stand up! Bless ADONAI your God, from everlasting to everlasting! May Your glorious Name be blessed; may it be exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶You alone are ADONAI. You made the heavens, even the highest heaven with all its array, ^bthe earth and everything on it, the seas and everything in them. You give life to them all, and the multitudes of heaven worship You.

⁷“You are ADONAI, the God who chose Abram, brought him from Ur of the Chaldeans and gave him the name Abraham. ⁸You found his heart faithful before You and made the covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, Hittite, Amorite, Perizzite, Jebusite and the Girgashite to his seed. You have fulfilled Your words, for You are righteous.

¹³“You descended on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You gave them just judgments, reliable laws, and good statutes and mitzvot. ¹⁴You made known to them Your holy Shabbat and ordained for them mitzvot, statutes and Torah by the hand of Your servant Moses. ¹⁵You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger, and brought them water from the rock for their thirst. You told them to go in to possess the land that You had sworn to give them.^c

^b 9:6. cf. Col. 1:16.

¹⁶“But they, our ancestors, became arrogant. They stiffened their neck and did not obey Your mitzvot. ¹⁷They refused to obey and did not remember Your wonders that You did among them. Instead, they became stiff-necked and in their rebellion, appointed a leader in order to return to their bondage. But You are a God of forgiveness, merciful and compassionate, slow to anger, and abounding in love. Therefore You did not abandon them, ¹⁸even when they made a cast image of a calf for themselves and said, ‘This is your god who brought you up from Egypt!’ or when they committed great blasphemies.

²²“You gave them kingdoms and peoples and You allotted them their boundaries of the land. They possessed the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the country of Og king of Bashan. ²³You multiplied their descendants like the stars of heaven, and You brought them into the land that You told their ancestors to enter and inherit. ²⁴So the children went in and possessed the land. You subdued before them the Canaanites who were the inhabitants of the land. You delivered them into their hands, along with their kings and the peoples of the land to deal with them as they pleased. ²⁵They captured fortified cities and fertile land. They took possession of houses full of every good thing—hewn cisterns, vineyards, olive groves, and an abundance of fruit trees. They ate and were satisfied, and grew fat. They enjoyed Your great goodness.

²⁶“Nonetheless they became contentious and rebelled against You. They cast Your Torah behind their back. They killed Your prophets who warned them^a to return to You; they committed appalling blasphemies. ²⁷Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their enemies who oppressed them. But in the time of their distress, they cried out to You and You heard from heaven. According to Your great compassion, You gave them deliverers, who rescued them out of the hand of their enemies.

²⁸“But as soon as they were at rest, they returned to doing evil before You. Therefore You abandoned them into the hand of their enemies who ruled over them. When they repented and cried out to You, You heard from heaven, and according to Your compassion You delivered them many times.

²⁹“You warned them in order to turn them back to Your Torah, but they became insolent and disobeyed Your mitzvot. They sinned against Your ordinances—those by which if a man does them he will live. They turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck, and would not listen. ³⁰You bore with them for many years and admonished them by Your Ruach through the hand of Your prophets. Yet they would not listen, so You handed them over to the peoples of the lands. ³¹Nevertheless, in Your great compassion, You did not put an end to them or abandon them, for You are a gracious and compassionate God.

³²“So now, our God—the great, mighty and awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy—do not let all the hardship that has befallen us seem insignificant to you—our kings, our leaders, our kohanim, our prophets, our ancestors and all Your people, from the time of the kings of Assyria to this day. ³³You are righteous in all that has come upon us. For You have acted faithfully while we have done wickedly. ³⁴Our kings, our leaders, our kohanim, and our ancestors have not kept Your Torah or paid attention to Your mitzvot or Your testimonies by which you have admonished them.

³⁵“Even in their own kingdom with the abundance of Your good things that You gave them, or with the spacious and fertile land that You set before them, they did not serve You or turn back from their evil deeds.

³⁶“But see, even today we are slaves! Slaves in the land that You gave to our ancestors to eat of its fruit and its bounty. We are slaves in it. ³⁷Its abundant produce goes to the kings You have set over us due to our sins. They rule over our bodies and over our livestock as they please. We are in great distress!

10

Renewed Covenant

¹“Now because of all this, we are making a binding agreement in writing, and the names of our leaders, our Levites and our kohanim are affixing their seals on the document. ²On the sealed document were:

Nehemiah, the governor, son of Hachaliah, Zedekiah, ³Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, ⁴Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah, ⁵Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, ⁶Harim, Meremot, Obadiah, ⁷Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, ⁸Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, ⁹Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the kohanim.

¹⁰And the Levites were:

Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui from the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel, ¹¹and their associates Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, ¹²Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,

¹³Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

¹⁴Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.

¹⁵The leaders of the people:

Parosh, Pahat-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

¹⁶Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

¹⁷Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

¹⁸Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,

¹⁹Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,

²⁰Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

²¹Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

- ²²Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²³Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, ²⁴Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, ²⁵Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, ²⁶Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, ²⁷and Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁸Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

²⁹“Now the rest of the people—the kohanim, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands for the sake of the Torah of God, along with their wives, their sons and their daughters who were able to understand—³⁰all join their brothers the nobles, and enter into a curse and an oath to walk in the Torah of God given through Moses the servant of God, and to keep and do all the mitzvot of ADONAI our Lord, along with His ordinances and His statutes.

³⁵“We—the kohanim, the Levites and the people—have cast lots concerning the offering of wood, to bring it into the House of our God according to our ancestral house at the appointed times year by year to burn on the altar of ADONAI, our God, as it is written in the Torah. ³⁶Also to bring the firstfruits of our land and the first fruits of all fruit trees year by year to the House of ADONAI, ³⁷and the firstborn of our sons and our livestock as written in the Torah; the firstborn of our cattle and our sheep to the House of our God—to the kohanim ministering in the House of our God;³⁸ and the first of our coarse meal, along with our offerings—the fruit from every kind of tree, new wine and oil—to the kohanim at the storerooms of the House of our God, as well as a tenth of the crop of our land to the Levites, for they, the Levites, receive tithes in all the towns where we labor.

³⁹“Also the kohen, a descendant of Aaron, will be with the Levites when the Levites receive the tithe, and the Levites will bring a tenth of the tithes up to the House of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury. ⁴⁰For Bnei-Yisrael and the sons of Levi will bring the grain offering, new wine, and oil to the storerooms where the utensils for the Sanctuary, and for the ministering kohanim, the gatekeepers, and the singers are kept.

11

Resettlement of the Land

¹So the leaders of the people dwelt in Jerusalem while the remainder of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine remained in the other towns. ²Then the people blessed all the men who volunteered to dwell in Jerusalem.

³These are the leaders of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. (Some of Israel, the kohanim, the Levites, the Temple servants, and the children of Solomon’s servants dwelt in the towns of Judah, each on his own property in their towns, ⁴and some of the descendants of Judah and Benjamin dwelt in Jerusalem).

From the sons of Judah: Athaiah son of Uzziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalalel, from the descendants of Perez; ⁵also Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Col-hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, son of the Shilonite. ⁶In all, 468 sons of Perez dwelt in Jerusalem—valiant men.

⁷Now these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiiah. ⁸Following him were 928 valiant men. ⁹Joel son of Zichri was in charge over them; Judah son of Hassenuah was second over the city.

¹⁰Of the kohanim: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jachin, ¹¹Seraiah son of Hilkiyah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the ruler of the House of God, ¹²their relatives who performed the work of the House—822. Also Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah, ¹³and his relatives, leaders of ancestral lines—242. Also Amashsai son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer, ¹⁴and their relatives were 128 valiant warriors. Zabdiel son of Haggadolim was in charge over them.

¹⁵From the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah of Bunni. ¹⁶From the leaders of the Levites, Shabbethai and Jozabad had oversight over the external business of the House of God. ¹⁷Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, the director who led the thanksgiving prayer. Also Bakbukiah, second among his relatives, and then Abda son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun. ¹⁸In all there were 284 Levites in the holy city.

¹⁹Also there were 172 gatekeepers Akkub, Talmon and their brothers—who kept watch at the gates.

²⁰The rest of Israel, the kohanim, and the Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each in his own inheritance.

²¹But the Temple servants dwelt on the Ophel, with Ziha and Gishpa over the Temple servants. ²²The one in charge over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mica, from the sons of Asaph who were singers responsible for the service in the House of God. ²³The king's command concerning them was to provide regular daily support for the singers. ²⁴Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, from the descendants of Zerach the son of Judah, was the king's agent for any matter concerning the people.

²⁵Now as for the villages with their fields, some of the people of Judah dwelt in Kiriatharba and its towns, in Dibon and its towns, in Jekabzeel and its villages, ²⁶in Jeshua; in Moladah, in Beth-pelet; ²⁷in Hazar-shual, in Beersheba and its towns, ²⁸in Ziklag, in Meconah and its towns, ²⁹in En-rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth, ³⁰in Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, in Lachish and its fields, and in Azekah and its towns. So they settled from Beersheba to the Hinnom valley.

³¹The descendants of Benjamin dwelt in Geba, Michmas and Aijah, Bethel and its towns, ³²Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, ³³Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, ³⁴Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, ³⁵Lod, Ono and Ge-harashim. ³⁶Some of the divisions of the Levites of Judah settled with Benjamin.

Identifying the Kohanim and Levites

¹Now these are the kohanim and the Levites who returned with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ²Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, ³Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremot, ⁴Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah, ⁵Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, ⁶Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, ⁷Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, and Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the kohanim and their brothers in the days of Jeshua.

⁸The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah—he and his brothers conducted the songs of praise—⁹and Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, were opposite them in ranks. ¹⁰Jeshua fathered Joiakim, Joiakim fathered Eliashib, Eliashib fathered Joiada, ¹¹Joiada fathered Jonathan, and Jonathan fathered Jaddua.

¹²In the days of Joiakim, the family leaders of the kohanim were: Meraiah for Seraiah, Hananiah for Jeremiah, ¹³Meshullam for Ezra, Jehohanan for Amariah, ¹⁴Jonathan for Melicu, Joseph for Shebaniah, ¹⁵Adna for Harim, Helkai for Meraiot,¹⁶ Zechariah for Iddo, Meshullam for Ginnethon,¹⁷ Zichri for Abijah, Piltai for Miniamin and Moadiah,¹⁸ Shammua for Bilgah, Jehonathan for Shemaiah,¹⁹ Mattenai for Joianib, Uzzi for Jedaiah,²⁰ Kallai for Sallai, Eber for Amok,²¹ Hashabiah for Hilkiah, and Nethanel for Jedaiah.

²²The family heads of the Levites were recorded in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, as well as for the kohanim, up until the reign of Darius the Persian.²³ The family leaders among the sons of Levi were recorded in the Book of the Chronicles up to the days of Johanan son of Eliashib.

²⁴So the leaders of the Levites were: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua son of Kadmiel, with their brothers facing them, to give praise and thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, one section responding to the other.²⁵ Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers guarding the storehouses at the gates.²⁶ These served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, son of Jozadak, in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the kohen-scribe.

Dedicating the Wall

²⁷At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought out Levites from all their places to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with joy and thanksgiving, and songs with cymbals, harps and lyres.²⁸ The companies of singers were also assembled from the district around Jerusalem and from the Netophathite villages,²⁹ and from Beth-gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmavet, for the singers had built communities for themselves round about Jerusalem.

³⁰After the kohanim and the Levites had purified themselves, they purified the people, the gates, and the wall.³¹ Then I led the leaders of Judah up on the wall, and I appointed two great choirs to give thanks. One of the processions went to the right on the wall toward the Dung Gate,³² and going after them, Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah—³³Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,³⁴ Judah, Benjamin,

Shemaiah and Jeremiah,³⁵ some of the kohanim with trumpets, Zechariah son of Jonathan, son of Shemaiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Micaiah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph,³⁶ and his brothers, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah and Hanani—all with the musical instruments of David the man of God—and Ezra the scribe was ahead of them.³⁷ They went over the Fountain Gate and continued up the stairs of the city of David at the ascent to the wall, and passed, above the house of David all the way to the Water Gate toward the east.

³⁸The second thanksgiving choir proceeded to the left. I followed them, along with half of the people on the wall above the Tower of the Furnaces as far as the Broad Wall,³⁹ over the Ephraim Gate, the gate of the old city, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate. They stopped at the Gate of the Guard.

⁴⁰So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the House of God.⁴¹ So did I along with half the officials with me, and the kohanim—Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah with their trumpets—⁴²and also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam and Ezer. The singers sang under the direction of Jezrahiah.⁴³ On that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced, for God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The joy in Jerusalem could be heard from far off.

⁴⁴On that day men were appointed over the storehouses for the offerings, firstfruits and tithes. They were to gather into them the portions from the fields of the cities required by the Torah for the kohanim and the Levites. For Judah delighted in the kohanim and in the Levites who were ministering.⁴⁵ They kept the ceremonial functions of their God and the ceremony of the purification according to the command of David and of Solomon his son.⁴⁶ For of old, in the days of David and Asaph, there were leaders of the singers who sang songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

⁴⁷So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel gave daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers. They also set apart the portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the portion for the sons of Aaron.

Please Remember This, My God

¹On that day, the scroll of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people. The command was found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite should enter into the assembly of God forever. ²For they did not meet Bnei-Yisrael with bread and water, but instead hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing. ³When they heard the Torah, they separated from Israel all of mixed ancestry.

⁴Prior to this Eliashib the kohen was given authority over the storerooms in the House of our God. ⁵He was closely associated with Tobiah and provided him with a large chamber previously used to store the offerings, frankincense, and the Temple vessels, and also the tithes of grain, wine and oil prescribed for the Levites, singers and gatekeepers, along with the offerings for the kohanim.

⁶I was not in Jerusalem during all this, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon, I went to the king. After a period of time, I requested to take leave from the king ⁷and returned to Jerusalem. Then I discovered the evil that Eliashib had done by preparing a chamber for Tobiah in the courts of the House of God. ⁸It greatly displeased me, so I threw all of Tobiah's household goods outside of the storeroom ⁹and commanded the storerooms to be cleansed. Then I restored the utensils of the House of God, the offerings and the frankincense.

¹⁰I also learned that the portions for the Levites had not been provided, and that each of the Levites and singers who performed the work had gone back to his own field. ¹¹So I rebuked the leaders and asked, "Why has the House of God been forsaken?" I assembled them and stationed them at their posts.

¹²Then all Judah brought the tithe of grain, new wine and oil to the storehouses. ¹³I put Shelemiah the kohen, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites in charge over the storehouses, and made Hanan son of Zaccur son of Mattaniah their assistant, because these men were considered faithful. They were responsible for distributing to their brothers.

¹⁴Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out my loving kindness that I have done for the House of my God and for overseeing it.

¹⁵In those days, I saw in Judah some people treading winepresses on the Shabbat, some bringing and loading heaps of grain on donkeys, as well as wine, grapes, figs and various other burdens, bringing them into Jerusalem on the Shabbat day. So I warned them about selling food on that day. ¹⁶Men from Tyre who lived there were bringing fish and all kinds of merchandise and were selling it on the Yom Shabbat to the children of Judah, even in Jerusalem.

¹⁷So I complained to the nobles of Judah and asked them, "What is this evil thing that you are doing? You are profaning Yom Shabbat! ¹⁸Didn't your ancestors do exactly the same causing our God to bring all this evil upon us and upon this city? So now you are bringing even more wrath upon Israel by profaning Yom Shabbat."

¹⁹When evening darkness began to fall on the gates of Jerusalem before Yom Shabbat, I commanded the doors to be shut. I further commanded that they should not be opened till after Yom Shabbat. I appointed some of my attendants over the gates so that no burden could enter during Shabbat.

²⁰Once or twice the traders and those selling all kinds of merchandise camped outside Jerusalem. ²¹But I warned them and said to them, "Why are you camping next to the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time they no longer came on the Shabbat.

²²Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves, and to come and guard the gates in order to sanctify Yom Shabbat. Remember this also on my behalf, O my God, and have compassion on me according to the greatness of your lovingkindness.

²³In those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab.²⁴Half of their children spoke the dialect of Ashdod or the language of other peoples, but none of them understood the language of Judah.²⁵So I rebuked them. I cursed them, beat some of their men and pulled their beards. I made them swear by God, saying, “You shall not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons—or for yourselves.²⁶Didn’t Solomon king of Israel sin about these things? Yet among many nations there was never any king like him. Yes, he was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel.

Nevertheless, the foreign women caused even him to sin.^{a 27}Must we then hear about you doing all this great evil, thereby being unfaithful with our God by marrying foreign women?”

²⁸Now one of the sons of Joiada, son of Eliashib the kohen gadol, was son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him from me.²⁹O my God, please remember them for the defilement of the priesthood as well as the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.³⁰So I purged them from everything foreign and I assigned duties for the kohanim and the Levites, each to his own task,³¹and for the wood offering at appointed times and for the first fruits.

Remember me, O my God, for good.

^a 13:26. cf. Matt. 6:29.

1 Chronicles

1

From Adam to Abraham

¹Adam, Seth, Enosh, ²Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared, ³Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech; ⁴Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

⁵The sons of Japheth:

Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tuval, Meshech and Tiras.

⁶The sons of Gomer:

Ashkenaz, Diphath and Togarmah.

⁷The sons of Javan:

Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim and Rodanim.

⁸The sons of Ham:

Cush, Mizraim, Put and Canaan.

⁹The sons of Cush:

Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raama and Sabteca.

The sons of Raama:

Sheba and Dedan.

¹⁰Cush fathered Nimrod; he was the first mighty warrior on the earth.

¹¹Mizraim fathered Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, ¹²Pathrusim, Casluhim— from whom the Philistines came—and Caphtorim.

¹³Canaan fathered Zidon his firstborn, Heth, ¹⁴and the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites, ¹⁵the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites, ¹⁶the Arvadites, the Zemarites and the Hamathites.

¹⁷The sons of Shem:

Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud;

Aram: Uz, Chul, Geter and Meshech.

¹⁸Arpachshad fathered Shelah and Shelah fathered Eber.

¹⁹To Eber were born two sons:

the name of the one was Peleg^a—for in his days the earth was divided—and his brother's name was Joktan.

²⁰Joktan fathered:

Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah;

²¹Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, ²²Ebal, Abimael,

^a 1:19. Meaning, division.

Sheba, ²³Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All these were sons of Joktan.

²⁴Shem, Arpachshad, Shelah,

²⁵Eber, Peleg, Reu,

²⁶Serug, Nahor, Terah,

²⁷Abram—that is Abraham.

Abraham's Descendants

²⁸The sons of Abraham:

Isaac and Ishmael.

²⁹These are their descendants:

the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, ³⁰Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, ³¹Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael.

³²The sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine:

she bore Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah.

The sons of Jokshan:

Sheba and Dedan.

³³The sons of Midian:

Ephah, Epheser, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah.

All these were the sons of Keturah.

³⁴Abraham also fathered Isaac.

The sons of Isaac:

Esau and Israel.

³⁵The sons of Esau:

Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam and Korah.

³⁶The sons of Eliphaz:

Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, Kenaz, Timna and Amalek.

³⁷The sons of Reuel:

Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah.

³⁸The sons of Seir:

Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer and Dishan.

³⁹The sons of Lotan:

Hori and Homam.

Lotan's sister was Timna.

⁴⁰The sons of Shobal:

Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi and Onam. The sons of Zibeon:

Aiah and Anah.

⁴¹The sons of Anah:

Dishon.

The sons of Dishon:

Hamran, Eshban, Ithran and Cheran.

⁴²The sons of Etzer:

Bilhan, Zaavan, Jaakan.

The sons of Dishan:

Uz and Aran.

Edom's Rulers

⁴³Now these were the kings who ruled in the land of Edom, before any king ruled over Bnei-Yisrael:

Bela the son of Beor, the name of his city was Dinhabah.

⁴⁴When Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah ruled in his place.

⁴⁵When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites ruled in his place.

⁴⁶When Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, ruled in his place—the name of his city was Avith.

⁴⁷When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah ruled in his place.

⁴⁸When Samlah died, Shaul of Rehoboth-on-the-River ruled in his place.

⁴⁹When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor ruled in his place.

⁵⁰When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad ruled in his place—the name of his city was Pai, and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-zahab. ⁵¹Then Hadad died.

So the tribal chiefs of Edom were: chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth ⁵²chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon ⁵³chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar, ⁵⁴chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

2

Israel and Judah's Descendants

¹These are the sons of Israel:

Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, ²Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

³The sons of Judah:

Er, Onan and Shelah—the three were born to him by Bath-shua the Canaanite woman. But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of ADONAI, so He put him to death. ⁴Then Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Perez and Zerah. Judah had five sons in all.

⁵The sons of Perez:

Hezron and Hamul.

⁶The sons of Zerah:

Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol and Dara, five in all.

⁷The sons of Carmi:

Achar, the troubler of Israel who violated the ban of devoted things.

⁸The sons of Ethan: Azariah.

⁹The sons of Hezron who were born to him:

Jerahmeel, Ram and Chelubai.

¹⁰Ram fathered Amminadab;

Amminadab fathered Nahshon, the leader of the children of Judah.

¹¹Nahshon fathered Salma;

Salma fathered Boaz.

¹²Boaz fathered Obed;

Obed fathered Jesse.

¹³Jesse fathered Eliab his firstborn, Abinadab was second, Shimea third, ¹⁴Nethanel fourth, Raddai fifth, ¹⁵Ozem sixth, and David seventh.

¹⁶Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. The three sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, Joab and Asahel. ¹⁷Abigail bore Amasa, and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.

¹⁸Caleb son of Hezron fathered children by Azubah his wife and by Jerioth. These were her sons: Jeshar, Shobab and Ardon.

¹⁹When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur. ²⁰Hur fathered Uri and Uri fathered Bezalel.

²¹Afterward Hezron had relations with the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead—he had married her when he was 60 years old—and she bore him Segub.

²²Segub fathered Jair, who had 23 cities in the land of Gilead. ²³But Geshur and Aram took the towns of Jair from them, along with Kenath and its surrounding villages, 60 towns.

All these were the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.

²⁴After the death of Hezron in Caleb-ephraim, Abijah, Hezron's wife, bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

²⁵Now the sons of Jerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron: Ram the firstborn, then Bunah, Oren, Ozem and Ahijah. ²⁶Jerahmeel had another wife whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

²⁷The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel:

Maaz, Jamin and Eker.

²⁸The sons of Onam:

Shammai and Jada.

The sons of Shammai:

Nadab and Abishur.

²⁹The name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.

³⁰The sons of Nadab:

Seled and Appaim, but Seled died without children.

³¹The sons of Appaim:

Ishi, who was the father of Sheshan.

Sheshan was the father of Ahlai.

³²The sons of Jada the brother of Shammai:

Jeter and Jonathan—Jeter died without sons.

³³The sons of Jonathan:

Pelet and Zaza.

These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

³⁴Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. But Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha. ³⁵So Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as a wife, and she bore him Attai. ³⁶Then Attai fathered Nathan, and Nathan fathered Zabad. ³⁷Zabad fathered Ephlal and Ephlal fathered Obed. ³⁸Obed fathered Jehu, and Jehu fathered Azariah. ³⁹Azariah fathered Helez, and Helez fathered Eleasah. ⁴⁰Eleasah fathered Sisamai, and Sisamai fathered Shallum. ⁴¹Shallum fathered Jekamiah, and Jekamiah fathered Elishama.

⁴²Now the sons of Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel:

Meshah his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and his son Mareshah the father of Hebron.

⁴³The sons of Hebron:

Korah, Tappuah, Rekem and Shema.

⁴⁴Shema fathered Raham, the father of Jorkeam. Rekem fathered Shammai. ⁴⁵The son of Shammai was Maon and Maon was the father of Beth-Zur.

⁴⁶Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza and Gazez; and Haran fathered Gazez.

⁴⁷The sons of Jahdai:

Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah and Shaaph.

⁴⁸Maacah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah. ⁴⁹She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheba the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibeon. The daughter of Caleb was Achsah. ⁵⁰These were the descendants of Caleb.

The sons of Hur the firstborn of Ephraim:

Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim, ⁵¹Salma the father of Beth-lehem and Hareph the father of Beth-gader.

⁵²Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim had sons:

Haroeh, half of the Menuhites. ⁵³The clans of Kiriath-jearim: the Itrites, the Puhtites, the Shumathites, the Mishraites; from them came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.

⁵⁴The sons of Salma:

Beth-lehem, the Netophathites, Atroth-beth-joab, half the Manahathites, the Zorites, ⁵⁵and the clans of scribes who lived at Jabez: the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Sucathites. These were the Kenites who descended from Hammath, the father of the Rechabites.

3

David's Descendants

¹Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron:

the firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelite woman;

second, Daniel, by Abigail the Carmelite woman;

²third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of King Talmi of Geshur;

fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith;

³fifth, Shephatiah by Abital; the sixth, Ithream by his wife Eglah.

⁴Six were born to him in Hebron. There he reigned seven years and six months; then in Jerusalem he reigned 33 years.

⁵These were born to him in Jerusalem:

Shimea, Shobab, Nathan and Solomon. These four were from Bath-shua^a the daughter of Ammiel; ⁶and the other nine were Ibhar, Elishama, Eliphelet, ⁷Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁸Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet. ⁹All these were sons of David, besides his sons by the concubines. Tamar was their sister.

¹⁰Solomon's son was Rehoboam.

Abijah was his son,

Asa his son,

Jehoshaphat his son,

¹¹Joram his son,

Ahaziah his son,

Joash his son,

¹²Amaziah his son,

Azariah his son,

Jotham his son,

¹³Ahaz his son,

Hezekiah his son,

Manasseh his son,

¹⁴Amon his son,

and Josiah his son.

¹⁵The sons of Josiah:

Johanan the firstborn,

Jehoiakim the second,

Zedekiah the third,

and Shallum the fourth.

¹⁶The sons of Jehoiakim:

Jeconiah was his son,

Zedekiah his son.

¹⁷The sons of Jeconiah, the captive:

Shealtiel his son, ¹⁸Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama and Nedabiah.

¹⁹The sons of Pedaiah:

^a 3:5. Also known as Bethsheba.

Zerubbabel and Shimei.

The sons of Zerubbabel:

Meshullam and Hananiah; Shelomith was their sister, ²⁰and five others:

Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah and Jushabhesed.

²¹The sons of Hananiah:

Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, whose son was Rephaiah, whose son was Arnan, whose son was Obadiah, whose son was Shecaniah.

²²The descendants of Shecaniah:

Shemaiah and sons Hatush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat—six in all.

²³The sons of Neariah: Elioenai, Hizkiah and Azrikam—three in all.

²⁴The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Anani—seven in all.

4

Judah's Descendants

¹The sons of Judah:

Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur and Shobal.

²Reaiah the son of Shobal fathered Jahath, and Jahath fathered Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.

³These were the sons of Etam:

Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash. The name of their sister was Hazlelponi.

⁴Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These were the descendants of Hur the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Beth-lehem.

⁵Ashhur, the father of Tekoa, had two wives, Helah and Naarah. ⁶Naarah bore him Ahuzam, Hepher, Timeni and Ahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

⁷The sons of Helah:

Zereth, Zohar and Ethnan.

⁸Koz fathered Anub and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel, the son of Harum.

Prayer of Jabez

⁹Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. His mother named him Jabez saying, "Because I bore him with pain."¹⁰ Jabez called out to the God of Israel, saying, "If only You would greatly bless me, and enlarge my territory. Let Your hand be with me and keep me from harm so that I might not suffer pain." ADONAI granted what he asked.

Other Descendants of Judah

¹¹Chelub, the brother of Shuhah, fathered Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. ¹²Eshton fathered Beth-rapha, Paseah and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash. These were the men of Recah.

¹³The sons of Kenaz:

Othniel and Seraiah.

The sons of Othniel:

Hatath ¹⁴and Meonothai, who fathered Ophrah.

Seraiah fathered Joab, the father of Geharashim^a, for they were craftsmen.

¹⁵The sons of Caleb, son of Jephunneh:

Iru, Elah and Naam.

The son of Elah:

Kenaz.

¹⁶The sons of Jehallelel:

Ziph, Ziphah, Tiriah and Asarel.

¹⁷The sons of Ezrah:

Jether, Mered, Ephraim and Jalon. She also bore Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. ¹⁸(His Judahite wife bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soho and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) These were the sons of Bithiah, Pharaoh's daughter whom Mered married.

¹⁹The sons of Hodia's wife, the sister of Naham:

the father of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

²⁰The sons of Shimon:

Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-hanan and Tilon.

The sons of Ishi:

Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

²¹The sons of Shelah, son of Judah:

Er the father of Lecah, Ladah the father of Mareshah, the families of the linen workers at Beth-ashbea, ²²and Jokim, the men of Cozeba, and Joash and Saraph, who had dominion in Moab and Jashubi-lehem (the records are ancient). ²³These were the potters and those who lived in Netaim and Gederah; they lived there while doing the king's work.

Descendants of Simeon

²⁴The sons of Simeon:

Nemuel, Jamim, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul, ²⁵his son Shallum, his son Mibsam, and his son Mishma.

²⁶The descendants of Mishma:

Hammuel, Zaccur his son and Shimei his son. ²⁷Now Shimei had 16 sons and six daughters. But his brothers did not have many sons, so their family did not become as numerous as the sons of Judah. ²⁸They dwelt in Beer-sheba, Moladah, Hazar-shual, ²⁹Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, ³⁰Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, ³¹Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susim, Beth-biri and Shaaraim. These were their towns until the reign of David, ³²together with their villages, Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen and Ashan—five in all, ³³along with all the villages that surrounded these towns as far as Baal. These were their habitations.

Registered in their genealogical records were: ³⁴Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah the son of Amaziah, ³⁵Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, son of Seraiah, son of Asiel, ³⁶Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshoiaah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, ³⁷and Ziza son of Shiphi, son of Allon, son of Jedaiah, son of Shimri, son of Shemaiah—³⁸these mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their clans increased greatly. ³⁹Now they went to the entrance of Gedor, to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. ⁴⁰They found rich and good pasture, and the land was spacious, quiet, and peaceful. The former inhabitants were Hamites. ⁴¹Now those whose names are recorded came during the days of King Hezekiah of Judah. They attacked the encampments of the Hamites, as well as the Meunim who were found there, and utterly wiped them out to this very day. They settled in their place because there was pasture there for their flocks. ⁴²About 500 of them from the descendants of Simeon, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, went to Mount Seir ⁴³where they struck down the remaining Amalekites who had escaped, and they live there to this day.

Descendants of Reuben

¹The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel—he was the firstborn, but when he defiled his father’s bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph son of Israel—so he is not reckoned as the firstborn in the genealogical record. ²Though Judah was the strongest among his brothers, and a ruler came from him, ^b the birthright belonged to Joseph.

³The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Enoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

⁴The descendants of Joel:

his son Shemaiah, his son Gog, his son Shimei, ⁵his son Micah, his son Reaiah, his son Baal ⁶and his son Beerah whom Tillegath-pilneser king of Assyria carried into exile. He was the leader of the Reubenites.

⁷His kinsmen by their families, as listed in their genealogical records:

the leader Jeiel, Zechariah, ⁸and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel.

They settled in Aroer as far as Nebo and Baal-meon, ⁹while in the east they settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness from this side of the river Euphrates, because their cattle had multiplied in the land of Gilead.

¹⁰Now in the days of Saul they had made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand. So they lived in their encampments in the entire eastern area of Gilead.

¹¹Now the sons of Gad lived opposite them in the land of Bashan as far as Salcah:

¹²Joel the leader, Shapham second, then Janai and Shaphat in Bashan. ¹³Their kinsmen according to their ancestral families: Michael,

^b 5:2. cf. Matt. 2:6.

Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber—seven in all.

¹⁴These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jehishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz. ¹⁵Ahi son of Abdiel, son of Guni was leader of their ancestral families. ¹⁶They lived in Gilead, in Bashan and its surrounding villages, and in all the pasturelands of Sharon, up to their borders. ¹⁷All these were recorded by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

¹⁸The sons of Reuben and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 warriors ready for war—men who carried shield and sword and drew the bow, and were skilled in battle. ¹⁹So they made war with the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish and Nodab. ²⁰They received help against them, so that the Hagrites and all who were with them were delivered into their hand, for they cried out to God during the battle. He answered their supplications, because they put their trust in Him. ²¹They took away their livestock: 50,000 of their camels, 250,000 sheep, and 2,000 donkeys, as well as 100,000 people. ²²For many fell slain, because the war was of God. So they dwelt in their place until the exile.

Manesseh East of Jordan

²³Now the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh settled in the land from Bashan to Baal-hermon, Senir and Mount Hermon. They were numerous. ²⁴These were the heads of their clans: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, Jahdiel. They were mighty men of valor, famous men, heads of their clans.

²⁵But they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land whom God had destroyed before them. ²⁶So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of King Pul of Assyria—the spirit of Tillegath-pilneser king of Assyria—and he carried away the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

Descendants of Levi

²⁷The sons of Levi:

Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

²⁸The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

²⁹The children of Amram:

Aaron, Moses and Miriam.

The sons of Aaron:

Nadav and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

³⁰Eleazar fathered Phinehas and Phinehas fathered Abishua. ³¹Abishua fathered Bukki, and Bukki fathered Uzzi. ³²Uzzi fathered Zerariah and Zerariah fathered Meraloth. ³³Meraioth fathered Amariah and Amariah fathered Ahitub. ³⁴Ahitub fathered Zadok and Zadok fathered Ahimaaz. ³⁵Ahimaaz fathered Azariah and Azariah fathered Johanan. ³⁶Johanan fathered Azariah, who served as kohen in the House that Solomon built in Jerusalem. ³⁷Azariah fathered Amariah, and Amariah fathered Ahitub. ³⁸Ahitub fathered Zadok, and Zadok fathered Shallum. ³⁹Shallum fathered Hilkiah, and Hilkiah fathered Azariah, ⁴⁰and Azariah fathered Seraiah, and Seraiah fathered Jehozadak. ⁴¹Jehozadak went into captivity when ADONAI exiled Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

¹The sons of Levi:

Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

²These are the names of the sons of Gershon:

Libni and Shimel.

³The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

⁴The sons of Merari:

Mahli and Mushi.

These are the families of the Levites according to their clans.

⁵Of Gershon:

Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, ⁶Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son and Jeatherai his son.

⁷The sons of Kohath:

Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, ⁸Elkanah his son, and Eblasaph his son, Assir his son, ⁹Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son and Shaul his son.

¹⁰The sons of Elkanah:

Amasal and Ahimoth, ¹¹his son Elkanah, Zophai his son, Nahath his son, ¹²Ellab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son.

¹³The sons of Samuel:

his first born Vashni, then Ablah.

¹⁴The sons of Merari:

Mahli, Libni his son, Shimel his son, Uzzah his son, ¹⁵Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.

¹⁶Now these are the men David appointed to be in charge of the singing in the House of ADONAI, after the Ark came to rest. ¹⁷They ministered with song in front of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon built the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem. They carried out their avodah according to their regulations.

¹⁸These are the ones who took their station, with their sons.

Of the sons of the Kohathites:

Heman the singer, son of Joel, son of Samuel, ¹⁹son of Elkanah, son of Jeroham, son of Ellel, son of Toah, ²⁰son of Zuph, son of Elkanah, son of Mahath, son of Amasal, ²¹son of Elkanah, son of Joel, son of Azariah, son of Zephaniah, ²²son of Tahath, son of Assir, son of Eblasaph, son of Korah, ²³son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, son of Israel.

²⁴His kinsman Asaph stood on his right... Asaph son of Berechiah, son of Shimea, ²⁵son of Michael, son of Baaselah, son of Malchijah, ²⁶son of Ethni, son of Zerah, son of Adalah, ²⁷son of Ethan, son of Zimmah, son of Shimel, ²⁸son of Jahath, son of Gershon, son of Levi.

²⁹On the left hand their kinsmen the sons of Merari: Ethan son of Kishi, son of Abdi, son of Malluch, ³⁰son of Hashabiah, son of Amaziah, son of Hilkiah, ³¹son of Amzi, son of Bani, son of Shemer, ³²son of Mahli, son of Mushi, son of Merari, son of Levi.

³³Their fellow Levites were appointed for all the avodah of the tabernacle of the House of God. ³⁴But Aaron and his sons were the ones presenting offerings on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the service of the Holy of Holies and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

³⁵Now these are the sons of Aaron:

Eleazar his son, Phineas his son, Abishua his son, ³⁶Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, ³⁷Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, ³⁸Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

Towns and Lands for Levites

³⁹Now these are their dwelling places according to their encampments in their territories. To Aaron's sons of the Kohathite families (for theirs was the first lot), ⁴⁰to them they assigned Hebron in the land of Judah, and the open land around it; ⁴¹but the fields of the city and the villages, they gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh. ⁴²To sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge: Hebron, also Libnah with its open land, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its open land, ⁴³Hilen with its open land, Debir with its open land, ⁴⁴Ashan with its open land, and Beth-shemesh with its open land. ⁴⁵From the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its open land, and Alemeth with its open land, and Anathoth with its open land. They had 13 cities in all among their families.

⁴⁹So Bnei-Yisrael gave to the Levites the cities with their open land. ⁵⁰They also assigned by lot from the tribe of the children of Judah, from the tribe of the children of Simeon, and from the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities that were mentioned by name.

⁵¹Some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their territory from the tribe of Ephraim. ⁵²They assigned to them as cities of refuge: Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim with its open land, Gezer also with its open land, ⁵³Jokmeam with its open land, Beth-horon with its open land ⁵⁴Aijalon with its open land, and Gath-rimmon with its open land. ⁵⁵Also from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner with its open land and Bileam with its open land, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath. ⁵⁶To the sons of Gershon were assigned, from the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its open land and Ashtaroth with its open land, ⁵⁷and from the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh with its open land, Dobrath with its open land, ⁵⁸Ramoth with its open land, and Anem with its open land, ⁵⁹and from the tribe of Asher, Mashal with its open land, Abdon with its open land, ⁶⁰Hukok with its open land, Rehob with its open land, ⁶¹and from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its open land, Hammon with its open land and Kiriathaim with its open land. ⁶²To the rest—the sons of Merari—were assigned, from the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono with its open land, Tabor with its open land, ⁶³and beyond the Jordan at Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness with its open land, Jahaz with its open land, ⁶⁴Kedemoth with its open land, and Mephaath with its open land ⁶⁵and from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its open land, Mahanaim with its open land, ⁶⁶Heshbon with its open land, and Jazer with its open land.

³⁸Azel had six sons and these were their names:

Azrikam, Bocru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan—all these were sons of Azel.

³⁹The sons of his brother Eshek:

Ulam his firstborn, Jeush second, and Eliphelet third. ⁴⁰Now the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons and grandsons—150. All these were descendants of Benjamin.

Kohanim and Levites in Nehemiah's Day

¹So all Israel were registered by genealogies—behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness. ²The first to settle on their property in their towns were Israelites, kohanim, Levites and the Temple servants. ³Those from the children of Judah, the children of Benjamin, and the children of Ephraim and Manasseh who settled in Jerusalem were: ⁴Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, who was a descendant of Perez son of Judah.

⁵From the Shilonites:

Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.

⁶From the sons of Zerah: Jeuel and their kinsmen—690.

⁷From the sons of Benjamin:

Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah; ⁸Ibneiah son of Jeroham; and Elah son of Uzzi, son of Michri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibneiah, ⁹and their kinsmen, according to their genealogies—956. All these men were leaders of their clans.

¹⁰From the kohanim:

Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin, ¹¹Azariah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the ruler of the House of God; ¹²Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah and Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer, ¹³and their kinsmen, heads of their clans 1,760 very able men for the work of avodah in the House of God.

¹⁴From the Levites:

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, from the sons of Merari; ¹⁵Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zichri, son of Asaph; ¹⁶Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

¹⁷The gatekeepers:

Shallum; Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman and their brothers. Shallum was the leader; ¹⁸he serves to this day at the king's gate to the east. These were the gatekeepers for the camp of the descendants of Levi. ¹⁹Shallum son of Kore, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, and his kinsmen from his ancestral clan, the Korahites, were assigned to guard the gates of the Tent. Their ancestors had been responsible for guarding the entrance to the dwelling of ADONAI ²⁰when Phinehas, son of Eleazar had been ruler over them in time past and ADONAI was with him. ²¹Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the door of the Tent of Meeting.

²²All these chosen to be gatekeepers at the gates were 212. These were registered in the genealogical records of their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their offices. ²³They and their sons were guards of the gates of the House of ADONAI, that is, the Tabernacle. ²⁴The gatekeepers were posted on the four sides, toward the east, west, north, and south. ²⁵Their kinsmen in their villages were to come from time to time and serve with them for seven days. ²⁶For the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were entrusted over the chambers and over the treasuries in the House of God. ²⁷They would spend the night around the House of God, because they were assigned to guard it and were in charge of opening it morning by morning.

²⁸Now some of them had charge of the utensils for avodah, for by count they brought them in and by count they took them out. ²⁹Some of them were appointed over the equipment and over all the utensils of the sanctuary, as well as over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense and the spices. ³⁰But some of the sons of the kohanim prepared the mixture of spices. ³¹Mattithiah, one of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was in charge of preparing the flat cakes. ³²Some of the relatives of Kohathites were in charge of preparing the rows of bread every Shabbat.

³³Now these were the singers, patriarchal leaders of the Levites, who stayed in the chambers and were exempt from other service, for they were on duty day and night. ³⁴These were heads of the Levite families, chiefs in their genealogical records. These lived in Jerusalem.

³⁹Ner fathered Kish and Kish fathered Saul. Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.

⁴⁰The son of Jonathan was Merib-baal and Merib-baal fathered Micah.

⁴¹The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Taharea and Ahaz.

⁴²Ahaz fathered Jarah and Jarah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri.

Zimri fathered Moza ⁴³and Moza fathered Binea; Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.

⁴⁴Azel had six sons:

Azkam, Bocru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

Saul Dies on Mount Gilboa

¹Now the Philistines fought against Israel. The men of Israel fled before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. ²The Philistines pursued Saul and his sons. The Philistines killed Saul's sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchishua. ³The battle raged around Saul and the archers spotted him and he was wounded by the archers.

⁴Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through, so that these uncircumcised will not come and torture me."

But his armor-bearer refused to do it, because he was terrified. Therefore Saul took the sword and fell on it. ⁵When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died. ⁶So Saul and his three sons died; his whole household died together. ⁷Now when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled. The Philistines then came and lived in them.

⁸The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹They stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines proclaiming the good news to their idols and to the people. ¹⁰They put his armor in the house of their gods, and hung his head in the house of Dagon.

¹¹Now when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²all the valiant men arose and retrieved the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons and brought them to Jabesh. They buried their bones under the oak tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

So Saul died because of his unfaithful acts that he committed against the word of ADONAI, which he did not keep, and he even consulted a medium for guidance ¹⁴rather than inquire of ADONAI. So He put him to death and transferred the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

David's Rise and Capture of Zion

¹Then all Israel gathered to David at Hebron, saying: "Behold, we are your own flesh and blood. ²In the past, even when Saul was king, you were the one that led out and brought in Israel. ADONAI your God also said to you, ⁴You shall shepherd My people Israel and you shall be ruler over My people Israel."

³When all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, David made a covenant with them in Hebron before ADONAI. They anointed David king over Israel, in keeping with the word of ADONAI by the hand of Samuel.

⁴Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem—that is Jebus, where the Jebusite inhabitants of the land lived. ⁵Now the residents of Jebus said to David, "You cannot get in here!" Nevertheless David captured the stronghold of Zion, which is now the city of David.

⁶David had said, "Whoever strikes down the Jebusites first will be commander-in-chief." So Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became commander. ⁷David lived in the stronghold; for this reason it is called the city of David. ⁸He fortified the city all around, from the Millo to the surrounding walls, and Joab repaired the rest of the city. ⁹David grew more and more powerful because ADONAI-Tzva'ot was with him.

David's Mighty Men

¹⁰Now these were chiefs of David's mighty men, who strongly supported him in his kingdom, together with all Israel to make him king, according to the word of ADONAI, over Israel. ¹¹This is the list of David's mighty men: Jashobeam the son of Hachmoni, was the chief of the 30; he wielded his spear against 300 and slew them all at one time. ¹²After him was Eleazar son of Dodo the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men. ¹³He was with David at Pas Dammim, when the Philistines assembled there for battle. There was a plot of ground full of barley where the army retreated from before the Philistines, ¹⁴but they took a stand in the middle of the plot; they defended it and struck down the Philistines. ADONAI delivered a great victory.

¹⁵Three of the 30 leaders went down to David at the rock at the cave of Adullam, while a band of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁶At that time, David was in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was in Bethlehem. ¹⁷David had a craving and said, "If only someone would give me water to drink from the cistern by the gate in Bethlehem!" ¹⁸So the three broke through the Philistine camp and drew water from the cistern by the gate in Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But David refused to drink it. He poured it out to ADONAI ¹⁹and said: "Far be it for me that I should do this before my God! Can I drink the blood of these men who risked their lives?"—for they brought it at the risk of their lives and he would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the Three mighty men.

²⁰Abishai, Joab's brother, was chief of the Three. He once wielded his spear against 300 and slew them. Thus he won a name among the Three. ²¹Of the Three, he was more highly esteemed than the other two and became their commander, even though he was not one of the three.

²²Beniah son of Jehoiada was a valiant man from Kabzeel who had done mighty deeds. He killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab, and went down and killed a lion inside a pit on a snowy day. ²³He also killed the giant Egyptian man who was five cubits tall. In his hand the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver's beam, yet Beniah attacked him with a club. He snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear. ²⁴These were the exploits of Beniah son of Jehoiada, who gained renown among the three mighty men. ²⁵Behold, he was more honorable than the 30, yet he was not one of the Three. Nevertheless, David set him over his bodyguard.

²⁶The mighty men were:

Asael Joab's brother,
Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,

²⁷Shammoth the Harorite,

Helez the Pelonite,

²⁸Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

Abiezer the Anathothite,

²⁹Sibbecai the Hushathite,

Ilai the Ahohite,

³⁰Mahrai the Netophathite,

Heled son of Baanan the Netophathite,

³¹Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah of the children of Benjamin,

Benaiah the Pirathonite,

³²Hurai of Nahale-gaash,

Abiel the Arbathite,

³³Azmaveth the Baharumite,

Eliabba the Shaalbonite,

³⁴the sons of Hashem the Gizonite,

Jonathan son of Shageh the Hararite,

³⁵Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite,

Eliphai son of Ur,

³⁶Hepher the Meherathite,

Ahijah the Pelonite,

³⁷Hezro the Carmelite,

Naarai the son of Ezbai,

³⁸Joel the brother of Nathan,

Mibhar son of Hagri,

³⁹Zelek the Ammonite,

Nahrai the Berothite, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah, ⁴⁰Ira the Ithrite,

Gareb the Ithrite,

⁴¹Uriah the Hittite,

Zabad son of Ahlai,

⁴²Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and 30 with him,

⁴³Hanan son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

⁴⁴Uzzijah the Ashterathite,
Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotam the Aroerite,

⁴⁵Jedaiah son of Shimri and Joha his brother the Tizite,

⁴⁶Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah, sons of Elnaam,
and Ithmah the Moabite;

⁴⁷Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

All Israel Rallies to David

¹Now these are the men who came to David at Ziklag when he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish. They were among the warriors who assisted him in battle. ²They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left to sling stones and shoot arrows from the bow. They were Saul's kinsmen from Benjamin. ³Their chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, Jeziel and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite, ⁴Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the 30 and leading the 30, ⁵Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite, ⁶Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Hariphite, ⁷Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam, the Korahites, ⁸Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

⁹Some of the Gadites there withdrew to follow David to the stronghold in the wilderness. They were valiant men trained for battle, armed with shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions and were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains. ¹⁰Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, ¹¹Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, ¹²Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, ¹³Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, ¹⁴Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh. ¹⁵These were the Gadites, leaders of the army. The least was equal to 100 and the greatest to 1,000.

¹⁶These were the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it was overflowing its banks, routing all those in the valleys to the east and to the west.

¹⁷Some of the children of Benjamin and also from Judah came to David at the stronghold.

¹⁸David went out to meet them and answered them saying, "If you come to me in peace to support me, then my heart will be united with you. But if it is to betray me to my adversaries, when my hands have done no wrong, then may the God of our fathers take notice and judge."

¹⁹Then a spirit came upon Amasai, leader of the 30,

"We are yours, David,
on your side, son of Jesse.

Shalom, shalom to you,
and shalom to him who helps you,
for your God supports you!"

So David welcomed them and made them leaders of the troops.

²⁰Some from Manasseh went over to David when he went with the Philistines to battle against Saul. But they did not help them because the Philistine rulers after consultation sent him away, saying: "It would cost us our heads if he defected to his master Saul."

²¹When he went to Ziklag, these from Manasseh joined him—Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, Zillethai, the leaders of thousands that were from Manasseh. ²²They helped David against the raiding bands, for all of them were valiant warriors and they were officers in the army. ²³Day by day men came to David to help him until there was a great army like the army of God.

²⁴These are the numbers of the heads of those armed for war who came to David in Hebron to transfer Saul's kingdom to him, according to the word of ADONAI:

²⁵The sons of Judah that bore shield and spear were 6,800, armed for war;

²⁶from the sons of Simeon, 7,100 brave warriors ready for war;

²⁷from the sons of Levi 4,600; ²⁸Jehoiada the leader of the Aaronides and with him

3,700; ²⁹Zadok, a young mighty man of valor, with 22 commanders from his clan;

³⁰from the sons of Benjamin, Saul's kinsmen, 3,000 for up to that time the majority of them had kept their allegiance to Saul's house;

³¹from the sons of Ephraim 20,800 valliant warriors, famous men in their clan; ³²from the half-tribe of Manasseh 18,000 who were designated by name to come and make David king;

³³from the sons of Issachar—men who know how to interpret the signs of the times to determine what Israel should do—200 chiefs with all their kinsmen under their command;

³⁴from Zebulun 50,000 warriors prepared for battle, arrayed with all types of weapons of war and ready to give their undivided loyalty;

³⁵from Naphtali 1,000 officers, along with 37,000 with shield and spear;

³⁶from the Danites, 28,600 equipped for battle;

³⁷from Asher 40,000 experienced warriors arrayed for battle;

³⁸and from beyond the Jordan, from the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh 120,000 armed with every type of weapons of war.

³⁹All these fighting men, prepared for the battle line, came to Hebron with a whole heart to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of Israel were also of one heart to make David king. ⁴⁰So they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their kinsmen had given them provision. ⁴¹Moreover those who were near to them, from as far as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. There was flour, pressed figs, raisins, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep in abundance—for indeed, there was joy in Israel.

13

Ark Retrieved from Kiriath-jearim

¹Then David consulted with the officers of the thousands and of the hundreds, with every leader. ²David said to the entire assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and is from ADONAI Eloheinu, let us spread the word to our kinsmen who remain in all the regions of Israel, along with the kohanim and Levites in their towns and pasturelands to come and join us. ³Let us bring the Ark of our God back to us—for we did not inquire of it in the days of Saul.” ⁴The entire assembly agreed to do so, for the proposal seemed right in the eyes of all the people.

⁵So David assembled all Israel from the Shihor of Egypt to the entrance of Hamat, to bring the Ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

⁶David and all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kiriath-jearim, that was in Judah to bring up from there the Ark of God, ADONAI who sits enthroned above the cheruvim, which is called by His Name.

⁷They transported the Ark of God upon a new cart from the house of Abinadab. Uzza and Ahio guided the cart ⁸while David and all Israel celebrated before God with all their might, with songs, lyres, harps, timbrels, cymbals and trumpets. ⁹But when they came to the threshing-floor of Hidon, Uzza reached out his hand to hold the Ark, because the oxen stumbled. ¹⁰The anger of ADONAI burned against Uzza, and He struck him down, because he reached out his hand and touched the Ark. He died there before God.

¹¹David was angry because ADONAI had burst out against Uzza. So he called that place Perez-uzza as it is to this day.

¹²David feared God that day, saying, “How can I ever bring the Ark of God to me?”

¹³So David did not take the Ark with him to the City of David, but left it in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹⁴So the Ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months; ADONAI blessed the house of Obed-edom and everything that he had.

¹Now King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David, as well as cedar logs, stonemasons and carpenters, to build a palace for him.

²Then David knew that ADONAI had established him king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.

³David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David fathered more sons and daughters. ⁴These are the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ⁵Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, ⁶Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁷Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.

David Breaks Through at Baal-perazim

⁸When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David, but David heard of it and went out before them. ⁹Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁰So David inquired of God, asking, "Should I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them over into my hand?"

Then ADONAI said to him, "Go up! I will give them over into your hand."

¹¹So they came up to Baal-perazim, where David defeated them. David said, "God burst out against my enemies by my hand, like waters burst out!" Therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim^a. ¹²They abandoned their gods there, so David ordered and they were burned with fire.

¹³But the Philistines again raided the valley. ¹⁴So David again inquired of God, and God said to him, "Do not go up after them, but circle around behind them and come against them in front of the baca trees^b. ¹⁵As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the baca trees, then go out to battle. For God has gone out before you to strike down the army of the Philistines."

¹⁶David did just as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.

¹⁷So the fame of David spread throughout every land, and ADONAI brought the fear of him upon all nations.

^a 14:11. Meaning, the lord who breaks through.

^b 14:14. Meaning is unclear; sometimes translated as balsam trees, mulberry tree or shrubs.

15

Ark Enters Jerusalem

¹David built houses made for himself in the City of David; he then prepared a place for the Ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

²Then David said, "No one should carry the Ark of God except the Levites, for ADONAI has chosen them to carry the Ark of ADONAI and to serve Him forever." ³David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the Ark of ADONAI up to its place that he had prepared for it.

⁴David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites:

⁵from the sons of Kohath:

Uriel the leader and 120 of his kinsmen;

⁶from the sons of Merari:

Asaiah the leader and 220 of his kinsmen;

⁷from the sons of Gershon:

Joel the leader with 130 of his kinsmen;

⁸from the sons of Elizaphan:

Shemaiah the leader with 200 of his kinsmen;

⁹from the sons of Hebron:

Eliel the leader with 80 of his kinsmen;

¹⁰from the sons of Uzziel:

Amminadab the leader and 112 of his kinsmen.

¹¹David summoned Zadok and Abiathar the kohanim, along with the Levites, Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab. ¹²He told them, "You are the heads of the Levitical families. Sanctify yourselves, you and your kinsmen, so that you may bring up the Ark of ADONAI, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it. ¹³Because you were not there the first time, ADONAI our God burst out upon us, for we did not seek Him regarding the prescribed way."

¹⁴So the kohanim and the Levites sanctified themselves in order to bring up the Ark of ADONAI, the God of Israel. ¹⁵The Levites carried the Ark of God on their shoulders with poles, just as Moses commanded according to the word of ADONAI.

¹⁶David ordered the leaders of the Levites to appoint their kinsmen, the singers, with musical instruments, harps, lyres, and cymbals, to joyfully make their voices heard.¹⁷ So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his brothers, Asaph son of Berechiah; from their brothers the descendants of Merari, Ethan son of Kushaiah;¹⁸ and with them their relatives second in rank: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphalehu and Mikneiahu, and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel.

¹⁹The singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals; ²⁰Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoh, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play harps according to alamoth^a, ²¹but Mattithiah, Eliphalehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jehiel and Azariah were to lead with lyres, according to the sheminith^b. ²²Chenaniah, leader of the Levites in music, was to direct the music because he was a master. ²³Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the Ark. ²⁴The kohanim Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezez were to blow the trumpets before the Ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah were gatekeepers for the Ark.

²⁵So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of the thousands went to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI out of the house of Obed-edom with rejoicing. ²⁶Because God helped the Levites who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. ²⁷Now David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the Ark, and as were the singers and Henaniah the leader of the songs of the singers. David also wore a linen ephod. ²⁸Thus all Israel brought up the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI with shouting, with the sound of the shofar, trumpets and cymbals, and the playing of lyres and harps.

²⁹As the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI

^a 15:20: Meaning unknown; is thought to be a musical term, although some have speculated it might have meant "soprano," connecting it with a word for "maidens."
^b 15:21: Meaning unknown; also thought to be a musical term, some have also speculated it to mean "bass" to compliment alamoth (see footnote 6).

came to the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked out the window. When she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she despised him in her heart.

Worship in David's Tent

¹They brought the Ark of God and set it in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. ²After David finished offering the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of ADONAI. ³He then distributed to everyone in Israel—man and woman alike—to each a loaf of bread, a date cake and a raisin cake.

⁴He appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the Ark of ADONAI, to petition, to thank and to praise ADONAI, the God of Israel. ⁵Asaph was the chief and second to him were Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom and Jehiel. They were to play harps and lyres; Asaph was to sound the cymbals, ⁶and the kohanim Benaiah and Jahaziel were to blow trumpets continually before the Ark of the Covenant of God.

⁷On that day David first appointed Asaph and his kinsmen to give thanks to ADONAI:

⁸Give thanks to ADONAI,
call upon His Name.

Make His deeds known
among the peoples.

⁹Sing to Him! Sing praises to Him!
Tell of all His wonderful acts.

¹⁰Glory in His holy Name!
Let the heart of those who seek ADONAI rejoice.

¹¹Seek ADONAI and His strength.
Seek His face always.

¹²Remember the wonders He has done,
His signs and judgments of His mouth,

¹³O descendants of Israel His servant,
O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!

¹⁴He is ADONAI our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
¹⁵Remember His covenant forever, the word that He commanded
for a thousand generations—
¹⁶that He made with Abraham, swore to Isaac, ¹⁷and confirmed in a decree with Jacob to Israel as an everlasting covenant, ¹⁸saying: “To you I give the land of Canaan
as your allotted inheritance.”

¹⁹When you were but a few in number,
very few, and strangers in it, ²⁰and wandered from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another, ²¹He allowed no one to oppress them, but for their sake He reprovved kings:
²²“Touch not My anointed ones,
and do My prophets no harm.”
²³Sing to ADONAI, all the earth!
Proclaim His salvation from day to day.
²⁴Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonderous works
among all the peoples.
²⁵For great is ADONAI and greatly to be praised.
He is to be feared above all gods.
²⁶For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
but ADONAI made the heavens.
²⁷Splendor and majesty are before Him;
strength and joy are in His place.
²⁸Ascribe to ADONAI,
O families of the peoples,
ascribe to ADONAI glory and strength.
²⁹Ascribe to ADONAI
the glory due to His Name.
Bring an offering and come before Him.
Worship ADONAI in the splendor of holiness.
³⁰Tremble before Him, all the earth!
The world is firmly established—
it will not be moved.
³¹Let the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice!
Let them say among the nations:
“ADONAI reigns!”
³²Let the sea roar and all that is in it.

Let the field rejoice and all that is in it.
³³Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before ADONAI, for He comes to judge the earth.

³⁴Give thanks to ADONAI for He is good,
for His mercy endures forever.
³⁵Declare, “Save us, O God of our salvation!
Gather and rescue us from the nations, that we may give thanks to Your holy Name, that we may glory in Your praise.”
³⁶Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
Then all the people said “Amen,”
and “Praise ADONAI.”

³⁷So David left Asaph and his kinsmen there before the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI, to minister before the Ark continually, according to each day's requirements, ³⁸including Obed-edom and his 68 kinsmen. Obed-edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were gatekeepers.
³⁹Also he left Zadok the kohen and his fellow kohanim before the Tabernacle of ADONAI in the high place that was at Gibeon ⁴⁰to offer burnt offerings to ADONAI on the altar of burnt offering, regularly morning and evening, according to all that is written in the Torah of ADONAI that He commanded Israel. ⁴¹Along with them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, designated by name to give thanks to ADONAI—for His mercy endures forever. ⁴²Heman and Jeduthun had trumpets and cymbals for music and other instruments for praising God. The sons of Jeduthun were to be at the gate.

⁴³Then all the people departed each one to his home, and David returned to bless his household.

Covenant Promise to David

¹After David settled in his place, David said to Nathan the prophet, “Look! I am living in a house of cedar, while the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI is under a tent.”

²Then Nathan said to David, “Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.”

³But that same night the word of God came to Nathan, saying: ⁴“Go and tell David My servant, thus says ADONAI, ‘You are not to build Me a house in which to dwell. ⁵For I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought Israel out to this day. I have gone from tent to tent, and from one dwelling to another. ⁶Wherever I went throughout all Israel, did I ever speak a word to any of the judges of Israel whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’”

⁷“So now, say this to My servant David, ‘Thus says ADONAI Tzva’ot, I took you from the pasture and from following the sheep, to be prince over My people Israel. ⁸I have been with you wherever you went and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make your name like the names of the great ones that are in the earth. ⁹I will establish a place for My people Israel, and plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and shall tremble no more. Violent people will no longer wear them down, as they did formerly, ¹⁰from the days I ordered judges to be over My people Israel. I will subdue all your enemies.’

“Moreover, I declare to you that ADONAI will build you a house. ¹¹It will be that when your days are fulfilled to go with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹²He will build a house for Me and I will establish his throne forever. ¹³I will be a father to him and he will be a son to Me,^a I will not withdraw My lovingkindness from him, as I withdrew it from the one who ruled before you. ¹⁴I will appoint him over My House and My kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever.”

¹⁵According to all these words and according to all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

¹⁶Then King David went in and sat before ADONAI, and said, “Who am I, ADONAI Elohim, and what is my family, that You have brought me thus far? ¹⁷And this was not enough in

^a 17:13. cf. Matt. 3:17; 17:5; Heb. 1:5.

Your eyes, O God! You have spoken about the future of Your servant’s household. You have regarded me as the most distinguished of men, ADONAI Elohim.

¹⁸“What more can David say to You for honoring Your servant? For You know Your servant. ¹⁹ADONAI, for the sake of Your servant and according to Your own heart, You have done all these great things, to reveal all Your greatness.

²⁰“ADONAI, there is none like You and there is no other god besides You, as we have heard with our own ears. ²¹And who is like Your people Israel—the one nation on earth whom God went out to redeem as a people for Himself and to make a Name for Yourself by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed from Egypt? ²²You made Your people Israel Your own people forever, and You, ADONAI, became their God.

²³“Now, ADONAI, may the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and his house be confirmed forever. Do as You have spoken ²⁴so that it might be established and Your Name might be magnified forever, saying, ‘ADONAI-Tzva’ot, the God of Israel, is Israel’s God.’ Then the house of David Your servant will be established before You.

²⁵“You, my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build a house for him. So Your servant has found courage to pray before You. ²⁶Now, ADONAI, You are God! You have promised this good thing to Your servant. ²⁷Now You are willing to bless the house of Your servant, so that it may continue forever before You, for it is You, ADONAI who have blessed, and it is blessed forever!”

King David’s Rule Expands

¹In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them. He took Gath and its villages from the hand of the Philistines.

²He also defeated Moab, and the Moabites became vassals to David and brought tribute.

³Moreover, David defeated King Hadadezer of Zobah at Hamath, when he went to establish his dominion to the Euphrates River. ⁴David captured from him 1,000 chariots, 7,000 horsemen and 20,000 infantrymen. David hamstringed all the chariot horses but reserved 100 of them for chariots.

⁵When the Arameans of Damascus came to help King Hadadezer of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 of the Arameans. ⁶David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus and the Arameans became subject to David and brought tribute. ADONAI gave David victory wherever he went. ⁷David took the gold shields that were on Hadadezer's servants and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸From Tibhath and from Kun, Hadadezer's cities, David took a very large quantity of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze sea, pillars and bronze vessels.

⁹When King Tou of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of King Hadadezer of Zobah, ¹⁰he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet and bless him because he fought against Hadarezer and defeated him—for Hadadezer had many wars with Tou. He also sent all kinds of articles of gold, silver and bronze.

¹¹King David dedicated these articles to ADONAI, along with the silver and gold that he had taken from all the nations: from Edom and Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines and Amalek.

¹²Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. ¹³Then he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became vassals to David. So ADONAI gave David victory wherever he went.

¹⁴David reigned over all Israel and he administered justice and righteousness to all his people. ¹⁵Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was secretary. ¹⁶Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech son of Abiathar were kohanim, and Shavsha was scribe. ¹⁷Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and Pelethites, and David's sons were chief officials in the service of the king.

Defeating the Ammonites

¹Now in the course of time Nachash king of the Ammonites died and his son became king in his place. ²David said: "I will show lovingkindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father dealt loyally with me."

So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. But when David's emissaries came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to console him, ³the Ammonite officials said to Hanun, "Do you really think that David is honoring your father, by sending messengers to express sympathy? Have not his servants come to you to explore and spy out the country to overthrow it?" ⁴So Hanun took David's emissaries and shaved them. He cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks and sent them away.

⁵When some people came and told David about the men, he sent messengers to meet them for the men were thoroughly humiliated. The king said: "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow and then return."

⁶When the children of Ammon realized they had made themselves a stench to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram-naharaim^b, Aram-maacah and Zobah. ⁷So they hired 32,000 chariots along with the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. The children of Ammon also assembled from their cities and moved out to the battle.

⁸On hearing this, David sent Joab and the entire army of mighty men. ⁹The children of Ammon came out and took up battle formation at the city gate, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. ¹⁰When Joab saw that there was a battle line against him both in front and rear, he selected some of Israel's best men and deployed them against the Arameans. ¹¹He put the rest of the people under the command of his brother Abishai, and arrayed them against the Ammonites. ¹²He said: “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you will help me, but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will help you. ¹³*Chazak!* Take courage for the sake of our people and the cities of our God! ADONAI will do what is good in His eyes.”

¹⁴So Joab and the people who were with him advanced to battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him. ¹⁵When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they likewise fled before his brother Abishai and withdrew into the city. Then Joab went to Jerusalem.

¹⁶After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they sent messengers and had the Arameans brought from across the River^a with Shophah the commander of Hadadezer’s army leading them.

¹⁷When David was informed he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan. He came against them and took up positions against them. David took up positions against the Arameans in battle and they fought with him. ¹⁸But the Arameans fled before Israel. David killed 7,000 Aramean charioteers and 40,000 infantrymen. He also killed Shophah the commander of the army.

¹⁹Now when Hadadezer’s vassals saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. Thus the Arameans were no longer willing to help the Ammonites.

Clearing Out the Giants

¹At the turn of the year, the season when kings go out to war, Joab led out the army and devastated the land of the Ammonites. He went and besieged Rabbah, while David remained in Jerusalem. Joab smote Rabbah and left it in ruins. ²David took the crown from the head of their king—its weight was found to be a talent^b of gold and it was set with precious stones—and it was placed on ^a 19:16. That is, the Euphrates.

^b 20:2. About 70 pounds.

David’s head. He took a vast amount of spoils from the city. ³Furthermore, he removed the people who were in it and set them to work with saws, sharp iron tools and axes. Thus he did to all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

⁴Now it came about after this, that war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck down Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaim, and they were subdued. ⁵Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear had a shaft like a weaver’s beam. ⁶Once again there was a battle at Gath, where there was a man of great stature who had 24 fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot. He too also descended from the giants. ⁷When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David’s brother, struck him down.

⁸These were descendants of the giants in Gath; they fell by the hand of David and his servants.

Census and Plague

¹Then satan stood up against Israel and incited David to count Israel. ²So David told Joab and the leaders of the people, “Go, count Israel from Beersheba to Dan. Then bring me a report so I may know their number.”

³But Joab said, “May ADONAI multiply His people 100 times over! But my master the king, are they not all my master’s servants? Why does my master require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt to Israel?”

⁴Nevertheless the king’s word prevailed against Joab. So Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and finally came back to Jerusalem.

⁵Joab gave the number of the census of the people to David: in all Israel there were 1,100,000 sword-wielding men; Judah had 470,000 sword-wielding men. ⁶But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, for the king’s word was detestable to Joab.

But God was displeased with this thing and He struck Israel.

⁸Then David said to God, "I have sinned greatly by doing this. But now, I entreat you, take away the guilt of Your servant for I have behaved very foolishly."

⁹Then ADONAI spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying: ¹⁰"Go and speak to David, saying, 'Thus says ADONAI, "I offer you three things; choose one of them and I will bring it upon you.'""

¹¹So Gad went to David and said to him, "Thus says ADONAI: 'Select for yourself ¹²either three years of famine, or three months being swept away from before your adversaries and the sword of your enemies overtaking you or three days of the sword of ADONAI, pestilence in the land and the angel of ADONAI ravaging throughout all the territories of Israel. Now, consider what I should reply to the one who sent me.'"

¹³David said to Gad, "I am in a great anguish! Let me fall into the hand of ADONAI for His compassion is very great. But do not let me fall into the hand of man."

¹⁴So ADONAI sent a plague upon Israel, and 70,000 men of Israel fell. ¹⁵And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but while he was doing so, ADONAI saw and was grieved over the calamity. He said to the destroying angel, "Enough! Now withdraw your hand!"

The angel of ADONAI was then standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁶David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of ADONAI standing between the earth and the heaven with a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. ¹⁷David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded to count the people? I alone am the one who sinned and behaved wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand, ADONAI my God, be against me and against my father's house, but do not let the plague be on Your people."

¹⁸So the angel of ADONAI told Gad to instruct David that David should go up and build an altar to ADONAI on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹So David went up by the word of Gad, which he spoke in the Name of ADONAI.

²⁰While Ornan was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the angel. His four sons who were with him hid themselves. ²¹When David came to Ornan, Ornan looked up and saw David. He went out from the threshing floor and bowed to David with his face to the ground.

²²Then David said to Ornan: "Give me the site of this threshing floor that I may build an altar to ADONAI. Sell it to me for full price, so the plague on the people may be stopped."

²³Then Ornan said to David, "Take it! Let my lord the king do whatever seems good in his eyes. Look, I will give the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this."

²⁴King David said to Ornan, "No, I insist on buying it for the full price. For I will not take for ADONAI what is yours, or sacrifice a burnt offering that cost me nothing."

²⁵So David gave Ornan 600 shekels of gold by weight for the place. ²⁶David built there an altar to ADONAI and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called on ADONAI and He answered him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering. ²⁷Then ADONAI commanded the angel, and he put his sword back in its sheath.

²⁸At that time, when David saw that ADONAI had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there. ²⁹For the Tabernacle of ADONAI, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. ³⁰But David could not go before it to seek God for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of ADONAI.

¹Then David said, "This is the place where the House of ADONAI Elohim will be, along with the altar for burnt sacrifices for Israel."

Preparing for the Temple

²David gave orders to assemble the foreigners in the land of Israel, and assigned them to be masons to quarry stones to build the House of God. ³David supplied an abundance of iron for nails for the doors of the gates and for the joints, so much bronze that it could not be weighed, ⁴and cedar logs without number, for the Zidonians and the Tyrians brought an abundance of cedar logs to David.

⁵David said, “Solomon my son is young and inexperienced and the House that is to be built for ADONAI must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all the nations. Therefore I will make preparation for it.” So David made extensive preparations before his death.

⁶Then He called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a House for ADONAI, the God of Israel. ⁷David said to Solomon, “My son, I had it in my heart to build a House for the name of ADONAI my God. ⁸But the word of ADONAI came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and fought many battles. You will not build a House for My Name because you have shed much blood before Me on the earth. ⁹Behold, a son will be born to you who will be a man at rest. I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon and I will confer shalom and quietness on Israel in his days. ¹⁰He will build a House for My name; he will be My son and I will be His Father. ¹¹I will establish his royal throne over Israel forever.’

¹²“Now, my son, may ADONAI be with you, and may you succeed in building the House of ADONAI your God as He spoke concerning you. ¹³Only may ADONAI give you insight and understanding when He gives you charge over Israel so that you may observe the Torah of ADONAI your God. ¹⁴Then you will prosper, if you carefully observe the statutes and the ordinances that ADONAI commanded Moses concerning Israel. Chazak! And be courageous! Do not be afraid or dismayed.

¹⁵“Now behold, with great pain I have provided for the House of ADONAI 100,000 talents of gold, a million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weighing for there is so much of it. I have also prepared wood and stone, and you must add to them. ¹⁶Moreover, you have an abundance of workmen: stonemasons, masons, carpenters and every kind of craftsmen skilled in every kind of material—¹⁶in gold, silver, bronze and iron—beyond number. Arise and work! May ADONAI be with you.”

¹⁷David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, ¹⁸“Is not ADONAI your God with you? Has He not given you rest on every side? For He has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand and the land is subdued before ADONAI and before His people. ¹⁹Now set your hearts and souls to seek after ADONAI your God. Rise up and build the Sanctuary of ADONAI Elohim so that you can bring the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI and the holy vessels of God into the House built for the Name of ADONAI.”

23

Census of Levites

¹When David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

²He also gathered together all the leaders of Israel along with the kohanim and the Levites. ³The Levites 30 years old or more were counted; their head count was 38,000 men. ⁴Of these, there were 24,000 to oversee the work of the House of ADONAI, 6,000 officers and judges, ⁵4,000 gatekeepers, and 4,000 for praising ADONAI “with the instruments which I made for giving praise.”

⁶David organized them into divisions:

The sons of Levi:

Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

⁷Of the Gershonites:

Ladan and Shimei.

⁸The sons of Ladan:

Jehiel the leader, Zetham and Joel—three.

⁹The sons of Shimei:

Shelomith, Haziël and Haran—three.

These were the heads of the clans of Ladan.

¹⁰The sons of Shimei:

Jahath, Zina, Jeush and Beriah.

These were the sons of Shimei—four.

¹¹Jahath was the first and Zizah the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were enrolled together as a single clan.

¹²The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel—four.

¹³The sons of Amram:

Aaron and Moses.

Aaron, along with his descendants, was set apart to be consecrated as most holy forever, to burn incense before ADONAI, to minister to Him, and to bless in His name forever. ¹⁴But as for Moses the man of God, his sons are named among the tribe of Levi.

¹⁵The sons of Moses:

Gershom and Eliezer.

¹⁶The sons of Gershom:

Shebuel, the leader.

¹⁷The sons of Eliezer:

Rehabiah the chief. Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.

¹⁸The sons of Izhar:

Shelomith the leader.

¹⁹The sons of Hebron:

Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

²⁰The sons of Uzziel:

Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

²¹The sons of Merari:

Mahli and Mushi.

The sons of Mahli:

Eleazar and Kish. ²²Eleazar died having no sons but only daughters; the sons of Kish, their kinsmen, took them as wives.

²³The sons of Mushi:

Mahli, Eder, and Yeremot—three.

²⁴These were the sons of Levi by clans, with the heads of clans as they were enrolled and with a list of their names by heads who carried out the task of avodah in the House of ADONAI from 20 years old and upward. ²⁵For David said: "ADONAI, the God of Israel, has given His people rest and He dwells in Jerusalem forever. ²⁶Therefore, the Levites need not carry the Tabernacle and all the vessels for avodah." ²⁷For according to David's final instructions, the Levites 20 years old and upward were counted.

²⁸For their duty was to help the descendants of Aaron in the avodah of ADONAI's House concerning the courtyards and rooms, the purification of all holy things and the performance of the avodah of God's House, ²⁹the rows of bread, the fine flour for the grain offering, the matzot, the cake baked on the griddle or mixed and every measure of capacity and length, ³⁰and to stand every morning to thank and praise ADONAI. They also did this in the evening ³¹and whenever burnt offerings were offered to ADONAI on Shabbatot, New Moons and the moadim. They were to serve regularly before ADONAI, according to the proper number in the manner prescribed for them. ³²They were to keep watch over the Tent of Meeting, the Holy Place and the sons of Aaron their kinsmen for avodah in the House of ADONAI.

¹Now these were the divisions of the sons of Aaron.

The sons of Aaron were Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ²But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no children, so Eleazar and Ithamar served as kohanim. ³David, with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them into their offices according to their avodah. ⁴More leading men were found among the sons of Eleazar than among the sons of Ithamar, so they divided them: the sons of Eleazar had 16 leaders of clans and the sons of Ithamar had eight leaders of clans. ⁵Thus, they were impartially divided by lot for there were officials of the Holy Place and officials of God, both from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.

⁶The scribe Shemaiah, son of Nethanel from the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king, the princes, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the leaders of the clans of the kohanim and of the Levites: one clan taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

⁷Now the first lot came for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah, ⁸the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim, ⁹the fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin, ¹⁰the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for Abijah, ¹¹the ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shecaniah, ¹²the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim, ¹³the thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Heshebeab, ¹⁴the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer, ¹⁵the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Hapizzez, ¹⁶the nineteenth for Petahiah the twentieth for Jehezkel, ¹⁷the twentyfirst for Jachin, the twentysecond for Gamul, ¹⁸the twentythird for Delaiah, the twentyfourth for Maaziah.

¹⁹These were their duties for their avodah upon entering into the House of ADONAI according to the ordinance given to them by the hand of Aaron their father, just as ADONAI the God of Israel had commanded him.

²⁰As for the rest of the sons of Levi:
from the sons of Amram: Shubael;
from the sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.

²¹As for Rehabiah, from the sons of Rehabiah

Isshiah was the first.

²²From the Izharites: Shelomoth; from the sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.

²³The sons of Hebron: Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

²⁴The sons of Uzziel: Micah;
from the sons of Micah: Shamir.

²⁵The brother of Micah, Ishiah;
from the sons of Ishiah: Zechariah.

²⁶The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi;
the sons of Jaaziah: Beno.

²⁷The sons of Merari:
from Jaaziah: Beno, Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri.

²⁸From Mahli:
Eleazar, who had no sons.

²⁹From Kish, the sons of Kish: Jerahmeel.

³⁰The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth.

These were the sons of the Levites by their clans. ³¹These also cast lots even as their kinsmen the sons of Aaron did in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech and the heads of the clans of the kohanim and the Levites—the families of the oldest just like those of his youngest brother.

25

Orders of Prophetic Levites

¹Moreover, David and the commanders of the army, set apart for avodah the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun who prophesied with lyres, harps and cymbals. The list of those who performed this work according to their service was: ²from the sons of Asaph:

Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were under the supervision of Asaph, who prophesied under the hand of the king.

³As for Jeduthun, from Jeduthun's sons: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Hashabiah and Mattithiah—six, under the charge of their father Jeduthun—who prophesied with the harp, giving thanks and praise to ADONAI.

⁴As for Heman, from Heman's sons: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth. ⁵All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer according to the promise of God to lift up a horn. God gave Heman 14 sons and three daughters.

⁶All these were under the direction of their father for singing in the House of ADONAI with cymbals, harps and lyres for the avodah of the House of God under the hand of the king. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman along with ⁷with their kinsmen all trained and skillfull singers of ADONAI, numbered 288. ⁸They cast lots for their divisions on the principal of small and great alike, teacher as well as student.

⁹Now the first lot went to Asaph's son Joseph—12

the second to Gedaliah, his brothers and sons—12;

¹⁰the third to Zaccur, his sons and his brothers—12;

¹¹the fourth to Izri, his sons and his brothers—12;

¹²the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers—12;

¹³the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
¹⁴the seventh to Jesarelah, his sons and his brothers—12;
¹⁵the eighth to Jeshaiiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
¹⁶the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers—12;
¹⁷the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his brothers—12;
¹⁸the 11th to Azarel, his sons and his brothers—12;
¹⁹the 12th to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
²⁰the 13th to Shubael, his sons and his brothers—12;
²¹the 14th to Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
²²the 15th to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers—12;
²³the 16th to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers—12;
²⁴the 17th to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers—12;
²⁵the 18th to Hanani, his sons and his brothers—12;
²⁶the 19th to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers—12;
²⁷the 20th to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers—12;
²⁸the 21st to Hothir, his sons and his brothers—12;
²⁹the 22nd to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers—12;
³⁰the 23rd to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers—12;
³¹the 24th to Romamti-ezer, his sons and his brothers—12.

26

Gatekeepers and Treasurers

¹The divisions of the gatekeepers:
of the Korahites: Meshelemiah son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

²Meshelemiah had sons:

Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second,
Zebadiah the third,
Jathniel the fourth,
³Elam the fifth,
Jehohanan the sixth,
and Eliehoenai the seventh.

⁴Obed-edom had sons:
Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second,
Joah the third,
Sacar the fourth,
Nethanel the fifth,
⁵Ammiel the sixth,
Issachar the seventh,
and Peullethai the eighth,
(for God had blessed him).

⁶To his son Shemaiah were born sons who were leaders of their clans, for they were men of great ability. ⁷The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad. His brothers Elihu and Semachiah were also valiant men. ⁸All these were descendants of Obed-edom. They and their sons and their kinsmen were capable men with the strength to do the work—62 of Obed-edom.

⁹Meshelemiah had sons and brothers—18 able men.

¹⁰Also Hosah, a descendant of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first), ¹¹Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, and Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Hosah were 13.

¹²These divisions of the gatekeepers by their chief men had duties corresponding to their kinsmen for avodah in the House of ADONAI. ¹³So they cast lots, small and great alike, by clans for each gate.

¹⁴The lot for the east gate fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for Zechariah his son, an insightful counselor, and his lot came out for the north gate. ¹⁵To Obed-edom the south gate and to his sons the storehouse. ¹⁶To Shuppim and Hosah the east gate by the Shallecheth gate on the ascending highway. Guard corresponded to guard. ¹⁷There were six Levites on the east, four a day on the north, four a day on the south, and at the storehouse by pairs. ¹⁸At the colonnade on the west, there were four on the road and two at the colonnade itself. ¹⁹These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of Korah and the sons of Merari.

²⁰And the Levites: Ahijah was over the treasuries of the House of God and the treasuries of the dedicated things. ²¹The descendants of Ladan who were sons of Gershon through Ladan and were chiefs of the clans of Ladan the Gershonite were Jehieli, ²²the sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother. They were over the treasuries of the House of ADONAI.

²³Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, the Uzzielites:

²⁴Shebuel son of Gershom son of Moses was officer over the treasuries. ²⁵His relatives through Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son and Shelomith his son.

²⁶This Shelomith and his kinsmen were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things that King David and the chiefs of the clans and the commanders over thousands and hundreds, and other army commanders had dedicated.

²⁷They dedicated some of the plunder taken in battles to maintain the House of ADONAI.

²⁸All that Samuel the seer, Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner and Joab son of Zeruiah had dedicated, and any other dedicated thing was in the care of Shelomith and his relatives.

²⁹Of the Izharites: Henaniah and his sons were assigned outside duties as officers and judges over Israel.

³⁰Of the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his brothers, 1,700 capable men, had oversight of Israel west of the Jordan for all the work of ADONAI and for the king's service. ³¹As for the Hebronites: Jerijah was the chief of the Hebronites according to the genealogical records of their families. In the fortieth year of David's reign a search was made and found in them were valiant men in Jazer of Gilead.

³²His relatives, 2,700 men of valor, were heads of clans whom King David had appointed over the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of the Manasseh in every matter pertaining to God and the affairs of the king.

27

David's Officers

¹The number of Bnei-Yisrael—heads of clans, officers of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all matters of the divisions that came in and went out month by month throughout the year—each division had 24,000.

²Over the first division, for the first month, was Jashobeam son of Zabdiel. His division had 24,000. ³He was a descendant of Perez, the head of all the officers of the army for the first month.

⁴Over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite. Mikloth was the chief officer and his division consisted of 24,000.

⁵The third army commander, for the third month, was Benaiah son of Jehoiada the kohen. He was leader of his division, which consisted of 24,000. ⁶This was Benaiah, who was a mighty man of the 30 and had charge over the 30. Ammizabad his son was over his division.

⁷The fourth commander, for the fourth month, was Asahel brother of Joab. Zebadiah, his son, succeeded him. His division consisted of 24,000.

⁸The fifth commander, for the fifth month, was Shamhuth the Izrahite. His division consisted of 24,000.

⁹The sixth commander, for the sixth month, was Ira the son of Ikkes the Tekoite. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹⁰The seventh commander, for the seventh month, was Heletz the Pelonite, from the children of Ephraim. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹¹The eighth commander, for the eighth month, was Sibbcai the Hushathite from the Zerahites. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹²The ninth commander, for the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anathotite, of the Benjamites. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹³The tenth commander, for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite of the Zerahites. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹⁴The eleventh commander, for the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite a descendant of Ephraim. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹⁵The twelfth commander, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹⁶Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel: of the Reubenites: Eliezer son of Zichri was the chief officer; of the Simeonites: Shephatiah son of Maacah;

¹⁷of Levi: Hashabiah son of Kemuel; of Aaron: Zadok; ¹⁸of Judah: Elihu, one of David's brothers; of Issachar: Omri son of Michael;

¹⁹of Zebulun: Ishmaiah son of Obadiah; of Naphtali: Jerimoth son of Azriel;

²⁰of the children of Ephraim: Hoshea son of Azariah;

of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Joel son of Pedaiah;

²¹of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead: Iddo son of Zechariah;

of Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner;

²²of Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham.

These were the officers of the tribes of Israel.

²³But David did not count those 20 years old and under, because ADONAI had said He would multiply Israel as the stars of heaven. ²⁴Joab the son of Zeruiah began to count them, but did not finish. Wrath came upon Israel for this and the number was not entered into the account in the chronicles of King David.

²⁵Over the king's storehouses: Azmaveth son of Adiel.

Over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, in the villages and in the citadels: Jonathan son of Uziah;

²⁶over the field laborers for tilling the ground: Ezri the son of Chelub;

²⁷over the vineyards: Shimei the Ramathite; over the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars: Zabdi the Shiphmite;

²⁸over the olive trees and the sycamore trees in the lowland: Baal-hanan the Gederite; over the cellars of oil: Joash;

²⁹over the cattle grazing in Sharon: Shirtai the Sharonite;

over the cattle grazing in the valleys: Shaphat son of Adlai;

³⁰over the camels: Obil the Ishmaelite; over the donkeys: Jehdeiah the Meronothite;

³¹and over the flocks: Jaziz the Hagrite.

All these were stewards over the property of King David.

³²Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, learned man and scribe. Jehiel son of Hachmoni tutored the king's sons.

³³Ahithophel was the king's counselor. Hushai the Arkite was the king's friend. ³⁴Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiatar. Joab was the commander of the king's army.

Men and Materials

¹Now David assembled all the leaders of Israel in Jerusalem—the tribal officers, the commanders of the divisions that served the king, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, and the stewards over all the property and livestock of the king and of his sons, along with the high officials, the mighty warriors and all the men of valor.

²Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Listen to me, my brothers and my people! As for me, it was in my heart to build a resting place for the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI and for the footstool of our God. So I made the preparations for the building. ³But God said to me, 'You will not build a House for My name because you are a man of war and have shed blood.' ⁴Yet ADONAI, the God of Israel, has chosen me out of all my ancestral house to be king over Israel forever. For He chose Judah as ruler, and of the house of Judah, my father's house, and of my father's sons, He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel. ⁵Moreover, of all my sons—for ADONAI has given me many sons—He has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of ADONAI over Israel.

⁶“He said to me, ‘Solomon your son will build My House and My courts for I have chosen him to be a son to Me and I will be a father to him. ⁷I will establish his kingdom forever, if he resolutely observes My mitzvot and My ordinances as at this day.’ ⁸Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of ADONAI and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek all the mitzvot of ADONAI your God so that you may possess this good land and may bequeath it to your children after you forever.

⁹“Now you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve Him with a whole heart and with a willing mind; for ADONAI searches all hearts and understands every intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever. ¹⁰Consider now, for ADONAI has chosen you to build a House for the Sanctuary. Chazak! And do it!”

¹¹Then David gave Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, its houses, its storerooms, its upper rooms, its inner rooms, and the place of atonement; ¹²and the plan of all that he had by the Ruach for the courts of the House of ADONAI and all the surrounding rooms, for the storehouses of the House of God and for the treasuries of the dedicated things; ¹³ also for the divisions of the kohanim and the Levites, for all the tasks of the avodah of the House of ADONAI, and for all the vessels of avodah in the House of ADONAI. ¹⁴For gold, the weight of gold for all vessels of every kind of avodah, and silver, the weight of silver for all vessels for every type of avodah; ¹⁵and the weight for the gold menorot and their gold lamps, including the weight of each menorah and its lamps, for the silver menorot, including the weight of each menorah and its lamps according to the use of each menorah; ¹⁶also the weight of gold for the tables of the rows of bread, for every table and silver for the silver tables; ¹⁷and the forks, the basins, and the pitchers of pure gold, and for the golden bowls with the weight for every bowl, and for the silver bowls with the weight for every bowl; ¹⁸and for the altar of incense with the weight of refined gold; and gold for the form of the chariot—the cheruvim—that spread out their wings covering the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI.

¹⁹“All this I put in writing is from the hand of ADONAI upon me as He gave me insight regarding the plan of all the works.”

²⁰Also David said to his son Solomon: “Chazak! And be courageous, and do it! Do not be afraid or dismayed, for ADONAI Elohim my God is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you until all the work for the avodah of the House of ADONAI is finished. ²¹Now behold, here are the divisions of the kohanim and the Levites for all the avodah of the House of God, and with you in all the work are willing men, skilled in all types of tasks. Also the officials and all the people are at your command.”

29

David Commissions His Son

¹Then King David said to the entire assembly: “My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced and the task is great, for the palace is not for man but for ADONAI Elohim. ²Now I have made every effort to prepare for the House of my God gold for the golden objects, silver for silver, copper for copper, iron for iron, and wood for wood; onyx stones and inlay stones, stones of antimony and variegated colors—every kind of precious stones and marble in abundance. ³Moreover, in my devotion to the House of my God, I have given over my private treasure of gold and silver to the House of my God, in addition to all that I have already supplied for the holy House: ⁴3,000 gold talents of gold from Ophir, and 7,000 talents of refined silver to overlay the walls of the houses—⁵gold for golden objects and silver for silver for all the work—into the hands of craftsmen. Who then will offer willingly, consecrating himself this day to ADONAI?”

⁶Then the leaders of the clans, the officials of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and hundreds and the supervisors over the king's work contributed willingly. ⁷They gave for the service of the House of God: 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics of gold, 10,000 talents of silver, 18,000 talents of bronze and 100,000 talents of iron. ⁸Whoever possessed stones gave them to the treasury of the House of ADONAI in the care of Jehiel the Gershonite. ⁹Then the people rejoiced over their freewill offerings because with a whole heart they offered willingly to ADONAI. King David also rejoiced with great joy.

¹⁰David blessed ADONAI before the whole congregation saying,

“Blessed are You, ADONAI, God of Israel our father,
from eternity to eternity!

¹¹Yours, ADONAI, is the greatness, the power and the splendor,
and the victory and the majesty, indeed everything in heaven and earth.

Yours is the kingdom, ADONAI and You are exalted above all.

¹²Both riches and honor come from You.
You rule over everything.
In Your hand is power and might,
in Your hand, to magnify and give strength to all.

¹³Now, our God, we give you thanks and praise Your glorious Name.

¹⁴“But who am I and who are my people that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For everything comes from You, and from Your hand we have given to You. ¹⁵For we are sojourners before You, mere transients like our fathers. Our days on the earth are like a shadow, without security. ¹⁶ADONAI Eloheinu, all this abundance that we have laid aside to build You a House for Your holy Name is from Your hand; it all belongs to You. ¹⁷I know, my God, that You search the heart and take pleasure in uprightness. With integrity of heart I have willingly offered all these things. And now I have seen with joy Your people who are present here willingly contribute to You. ¹⁸ADONAI, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel our fathers, preserve forever such motives and thoughts in the heart of Your people and make their heart constant toward You. ¹⁹As for my son Solomon, give him a whole heart to keep Your mitzvot, Your decrees and Your statutes, and to fulfill them all and to build the Temple for which I have made provision.”

²⁰Then David said to the whole congregation, “Now bless ADONAI your God.”

So the whole congregation blessed ADONAI, the God of their fathers. They bowed down and fell prostrate before ADONAI and the king.

Solomon Acclaimed King

²¹The next day, they sacrificed sacrifices to ADONAI and offered burnt offerings to ADONAI; 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams and 1,000 lambs, along with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²²So they ate and drank before ADONAI on that day with great joy.

Then they designated Solomon the son of David as king a second time, anointing him before ADONAI as ruler and Zadok as kohen. ²³So Solomon sat on the throne of ADONAI as king instead of his father David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴All the officials and mighty men, as well as all the sons of King David, pledged their hand in support of King Solomon. ²⁵ADONAI highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had never been on any king before him in Israel.

²⁶Now David son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. ²⁷The length of his reign over Israel was 40 years. He reigned in Hebron seven years and he reigned in Jerusalem 33 years. ²⁸He died at a good old age, full of days, riches and honor, and his son Solomon became king in his place.

²⁹Now the acts of King David, the first and the last, behold, are written in the chronicles of Samuel the seer, in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet and in the chronicles of Gad the seer ³⁰together with all his reign, his power and the events that involved him, Israel and all the kingdoms of the lands.

1

Solomon Asks for Wisdom at Gibeon

¹Now Solomon the son of David firmly established himself over his kingdom. For ADONAI his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.

²Solomon spoke to all Israel—to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the leading patriarchs—³and Solomon and the whole assembly with him went to the high place that was at Gibeon, for the Tent of Meeting of God was there, which Moses the servant of ADONAI had made in the wilderness. ⁴Now David had brought up the Ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place that David had prepared for it because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. ⁵But the bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur had made was there in front of the Tabernacle of ADONAI, and Solomon and the assembly inquired of Him there. ⁶So Solomon went up before ADONAI to the bronze altar that was at the Tent of Meeting and offered 1,000 burnt offerings on it.

⁷That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, “Ask! What should I give you?”

⁸Solomon answered God, “You have shown great lovingkindness to my father David and now You have made me king in his place. ⁹Now, ADONAI Elohim, let Your word to my father David be fulfilled for You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth. ¹⁰Now give me wisdom and knowledge that I may go out and come in before this people. For who can govern this great people of Yours?”

¹¹Then God said to Solomon, “Since this was in your heart and you have not asked for riches, possessions or honor, nor for the life of those who hate you and have not even asked for long life but have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself—so you can govern My people over whom I have made you king—¹²wisdom and knowledge will be given to you. Moreover, I will give you riches, possessions and honor, such as none of the kings who were before you ever had and none after you will have.”

¹³Then Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place that was at Gibeon, from in front of the Tent of Meeting. So he reigned over Israel.

Horses and Chariots from Egypt

¹⁴Solomon accumulated chariots and horsemen. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. ¹⁵The king made silver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plentiful as sycamores in the foothills. ¹⁶Solomon’s horses were imported from Egypt and from Keve—the king’s merchants purchased them from Keve at a price. ¹⁷They imported a chariot from Egypt for 600 talents of silver and a horse for 150. So by the same means they were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

Solomon Prepares to Build

¹⁸Then Solomon vowed to build a House for the Name of ADONAI, as well as a royal palace for himself.

¹Solomon recruited 70,000 men as carriers, 80,000 as stonecutters in the mountains and 3,600 supervisors over them.

²Then Solomon sent word to Hiram the king of Tyre saying, “Deal with me as you did with my father David when you sent him cedars to build a house to dwell in. ³Behold, I am about to build a House for the Name of ADONAI my God and to dedicate it to Him for burning fragrant incense before Him, for regular arrangement of the Bread of the Presence and for burnt offerings every morning and evening as well as on Shabbatot, New Moons and moadim of ADONAI Eloheinu. Upon Israel this is forever.

⁴“The House that I am about to build will be great, because our God is greater than all the gods. ⁵But who is able to build Him a House, since the heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain Him? Who then am I that I should build Him a House—except to burn incense before Him?

⁶“So now, send me a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, and in purple, crimson and blue yarn, and experienced in engraving, to work in Judah and Jerusalem with the skilled men who are with me, whom my father David provided. ⁷Send me also cedar, evergreen and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants are skilled in cutting timber in Lebanon. Indeed my servants will work with yours ⁸to prepare an abundance of timber for me, because the House that I am about to build will be large and magnificent. ⁹Now, behold, I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, 20,000 measures^a of ground wheat, 20,000 measures of barley, 20,000 vats of wine and 20,000 vats^b of oil.”

¹⁰Then King Hiram of Tyre, replied in a letter that he sent to Solomon, “Because ADONAI loves His people, He has made you king over them.” ¹¹Then Hiram continued, “Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth. He gave King David a wise son, endowed with insight and understanding, who will build a House for ADONAI and a royal house for himself. ¹²So now I am sending Hiram-abi—a skilled man endowed with understanding ¹³who is the son of a woman from the daughters of Dan and whose father was a man from Tyre—a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, in purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to engrave all kinds of engraving, and who can execute any design given to him. He will work with your skilled men and with the skilled men of my lord David your father. ¹⁴Now let my lord send to his servants the wheat and barley, the oil and wine he has promised ¹⁵and we will cut as many logs from Lebanon as much as you need, and float them in rafts by sea to Jaffa. You can then take them up to Jerusalem.”

¹⁶Solomon counted all the foreign men in the land of Israel, like the census that his father David had taken, and 153,600 were found. ¹⁷He appointed 70,000 of them to carry loads, 80,000 to quarry stones in the mountains, and 3,600 overseers to supervise the people working.

Solomon Builds the Temple in Jerusalem

¹Then Solomon began to build the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah—where ADONAI appeared to his father David—at the place that David prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ²He began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign. ³Now the foundation Solomon laid for the building of the House of God was 60 cubits long and 20 cubits wide, according to the old standard. ⁴The porch in front of the House along its width was 20 cubits and its height was 120 cubits, and the inside was overlaid with pure gold. ⁵He paneled the main hall with cypress wood, which he overlaid with fine gold and embossed on it palm trees and chains. ⁶He adorned the House with precious stones and the gold he used was gold from Parvaim. ⁷Furthermore He overlaid the beams, thresholds, walls and doors of the House with gold and carved cheruvim on the walls.

⁸He made the Holy of Holies, its length corresponding to the width of the House—20 cubits long and 20 cubits wide. He overlaid it with 600 talents of fine gold. ⁹The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He also overlaid the upper rooms with gold. ¹⁰Next

^a 2:9. A kor was about 10 bushels.

^b 2:10. A vat was a little over 5 gallons.

he made two sculptured cheruvim in the Holy of Holies and overlaid them with gold. ¹¹The wingspan of the cheruvim was 20 cubits. One wing of the first cheruv was five cubits long and touched the wall of the House, while the other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cheruv. ¹²Similarly, one wing of the second cheruv was five cubits long and touched the wall of the House, while the other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cheruv. ¹³Thus the wingspan of these cheruvim was 20 cubits. They stood on their feet facing the main hall. ¹⁴Furthermore, he made the veil of blue, purple, crimson yarn and fine linen with cheruvim worked into it.

¹⁵In the front of the House he made two pillars 35 cubits high, each with a capital on the top measuring five cubits. ¹⁶He made interwoven chains for the inner Sanctuary and put them on top of the pillars. He also made 100 pomegranates and attached them to the chains. ¹⁷He erected the pillars in front of the Temple, one to the south and the other to the north. The one to the south he named Jachin and the one to the north Boaz.

The Temple Furnishings

¹Moreover, he made a bronze altar 20 cubits long, 20 cubits wide and ten cubits high. ²He also made the Sea of cast metal ten cubits across from brim to brim, perfectly round. It was five cubits high and its circumference was 30 cubits.

³Beneath it, figures like bulls were set all around it, ten cubits encircling the Sea. The bulls were in two rows, cast in one piece with it. ⁴The Sea stood on 12 bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The Sea rested upon them and their hindquarters were all turned inward. ⁵It was a handbreadth thick, and the brim was like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held 3,000 vats. ⁶He also made ten basins for washing and placed five on the right side and five on the left. In them the items used for the burnt offering were rinsed, but the kohanim washed in “the Sea”.

⁷Next he made the ten menorot^a of gold in the manner prescribed for them and set them in the Temple, five on the right hand and five on the left. ⁸He also made ten tables and placed them in the Temple, five on the right side and five on the left. He also made 100 gold bowls.

¹¹Huram also made the pots, the shovels and the bowls. So Huram-abi finished the work that he had undertaken for King Solomon in the House of God: ¹²the two pillars, the bowls and the two capitals on the top of the pillars, and the two lattice-works to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, ¹³and the 400 pomegranates for the two lattice-works (two rows of pomegranates for each lattice-work to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars). ¹⁴He also made the stands, the basins upon the stands, ¹⁵and the one Sea with the 12 bulls under it, ¹⁶as well as the pots, the shovels and the meat hooks. All the utensils Huram-abi made for King Solomon for the House of ADONAI were of polished bronze. ¹⁷The king had them cast with clay earth from the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zeredah. ¹⁸Solomon made all these utensils in such great quantities that the weight of the bronze could not be determined.

¹⁹Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in the House of God, including the golden altar, the tables on which was the Bread of Presence, ²⁰the menorot with their lamps of pure gold to burn in front of the inner sanctuary as prescribed ²¹with the flowers and the lamps and the tongs of gold, the purest gold, ²²and the snuffers, the bowls, the spoons and the fire-pans of pure gold, and the doors of the House—the inner doors for the Holy of Holies and the doors of the House, that is, the Temple—were of gold.

¹When all the work that Solomon undertook for the House of ADONAI was finished, Solomon brought in the things David his father consecrated—the silver, gold and all the furnishings—and put them in the treasuries of the House of God.

Consecration of the Temple

²Then Solomon gathered to Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the patriarchal leaders of Bnei-Yisrael, in order to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI from the city of David, which is Zion. ³All the men of Israel gathered together to the king at the feast that is in the seventh month.

⁴So all the elders of Israel came and the Levites took up the Ark ⁵and brought up the Ark and the Tent of Meeting along with all the sacred furnishings that were in the Tent. The Levitical kohanim brought them up. ⁶Meanwhile, King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israel who gathered with him before the Ark, were sacrificing so many sheep and bulls that they could not be counted or numbered.

⁷The kohanim brought in the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI to its place, into the inner Sanctuary of the House, into the Holy of Holies under the wings of the cheruvim. ⁸The cheruvim spread their wings over the place of the Ark so that the cheruvim covered the Ark and its poles from above. ⁹Now the poles were so long that the ends of the poles extending from the Ark could be seen in front of the inner Sanctuary, though they could not be seen from outside; and they are there to this day. ¹⁰There was nothing in the Ark except the two tablets that Moses had placed there at Horeb, where ADONAI made a covenant with Bnei-Yisrael when they came out of Egypt.

God's Glory Fills the Temple

¹¹And it came to pass, when the kohanim came out of the Holy Place—for all the kohanim that were present had consecrated themselves, without regard to divisions—¹²all the Levite singers—Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, their sons and their relatives—dressed in fine linen with cymbals, harps and lyres, were standing at the east end of the altar and with them were 120 kohanim blowing trumpets. ¹³Then it came to pass that when the trumpeters and singers joined as one to extol and praise ADONAI, and when the sound of the trumpets, cymbals and musical instruments and the praise of ADONAI—“For He is good, for His mercy endures forever”—grew louder, the Temple, the House of ADONAI, was filled with a cloud. ¹⁴The kohanim could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of ADONAI filled the House of God.

ADONAI Has Chosen Jerusalem

¹Then Solomon declared, “ADONAI has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud; ²I have built You a magnificent House and a place for You to dwell forever.”

³Then, while all the congregation of Israel was standing the king turned his face and blessed the whole congregation of Israel. ⁴He said: “Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, who with His hands has fulfilled what He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying: ⁵‘Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a House that My Name might be there. Nor did I choose any man to be a leader over My people Israel. ⁶But I have chosen Jerusalem that My Name would abide there and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.’

⁷“Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a House for the Name of ADONAI, the God of Israel. ⁸But ADONAI said to David my father: ‘As for you wanting in your heart to build a House for My Name, you did well that this was in your heart. ⁹Nevertheless, you will not build the House. Rather your son who will be born to you, he will build the House for My Name.’

¹⁰“Now ADONAI has confirmed His promise that He spoke. I have succeeded my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, just as ADONAI promised, and I have built the House for the Name of ADONAI, the God of Israel. ¹¹There have I set the Ark in which is the Covenant of ADONAI that He made with Bnei-Yisrael.”

Solomon’s Prayer

¹²Then he stood before the altar of ADONAI in front of the entire congregation of Israel and spread forth his hands. ¹³For Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high and placed it in the midst of the court. He stood on it and knelt down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven ¹⁴and he said, “ADONAI, God of Israel, there is no God like You in the heavens or in the earth, keeping covenant and showing mercy to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart. ¹⁵You have kept the promise You made to Your servant David, my father. Surely you spoke with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand—as it is today.

¹⁶“Now therefore, ADONAI, God of Israel, keep for Your servant David, my father, that which You have promised him saying:

‘For you will never be cut off, you will not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne—if only your sons pay attention to their way, to walk in My Torah as you have walked before Me.’^a ¹⁷“Now therefore, ADONAI God of Israel, let Your word, which You spoke to Your servant David, be confirmed.

¹⁸“But will God indeed dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold—heaven even the highest heaven—cannot contain You. How much less this House that I have built! ¹⁹Yet attend to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, ADONAI my God, to hear the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before

You ²⁰that Your eyes may be open toward this House day and night, toward the place where You have said You would put Your Name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant will pray toward this place. ²¹Hear the supplications of Your servant and Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear from Your dwelling place, from heaven, and when You hear, forgive.

²²“If a man sins against his neighbor and is required to swear an oath, and he comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this House, ²³then hear from heaven and act. Judge Your servants, repaying the wicked by bringing down on his own head what he has done and vindicating the righteous by rewarding him according to his righteousness.^b

²⁶“When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, if they pray toward this place and confess Your Name, turning from their sin because You afflicted them, ²⁷then may You hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel. Indeed may You teach them the good way in which they should walk. Send rain upon Your land that You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

²⁸“When there is famine in the land, when there is pestilence, blight, mildew, locust or grasshopper, when their enemies besiege them in the land by their gates, whatever plague or sickness may come, ²⁹and any prayer or plea is offered by any individual or by all Your people Israel—each acknowledging his own afflictions and pain, even spreading his hands toward this House—³⁰then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place and forgive. May You give to every man according to all his ways, as You know his heart—for

You alone know the hearts of the children of men—³¹so that they will fear You and walk in Your ways all the days that they live in the land that You gave to our fathers.

³²Moreover, concerning the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel but comes from a distant land for the sake of Your great Name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this House, ³³then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place and do whatever the foreigner asks of You. Then all the peoples of the earth will acknowledge Your Name and revere You, as Your people Israel do, and they will know that this House which I have built is called by Your Name.

³⁴“When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and they pray to You toward this city that You have chosen and the House that I have built for Your Name, ³⁵then hear from heaven their prayer and their petition, and uphold their cause.

³⁶When they sin against You—for there is no man that does not sin^c—and You become angry with them and hand them over to the enemy who takes them captive to a land far off or near, ³⁷when they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and they repent and seek You in the land of their captivity saying,

‘We have sinned,
we have committed inquiry,
we have acted wickedly,’

³⁸“and they return to You with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity where they were taken captive, and they pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers and the city which You have chosen and toward the House which I have built for Your Name, ³⁹then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, their prayer and their petitions and uphold their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

⁴⁰“Now my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open, and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.

⁴¹Now arise, ADONAI Elohim,

^c 6:36. cf. Rom. 3:10; Eph. 2:3; 1John 1:8-10.

to Your resting place,
You and the Ark of Your might.
May Your kohanim, ADONAI Elohim, be clothed with salvation, and may Your godly ones rejoice in goodness.

⁴²ADONAI Elohim, do not reject
Your anointed one.
Remember the loyalty of Your servant David.”

7

Sukkot and Shemini Atzeret

¹Now when Solomon finished praying the fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of ADONAI filled the House. ²The kohanim could not even enter into the House of ADONAI because the glory of ADONAI filled the House of ADONAI. ³When all Bnei-Yisrael saw the fire come down and the glory of ADONAI above the House, they bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground, prostrating themselves and praising ADONAI,

“For He is good
and His mercy endures forever.”

⁴Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before ADONAI. ⁵King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the House of God. ⁶The kohanim stood at their posts, as did the Levites with the musical instruments of ADONAI that King David had made for praising ADONAI—“for His mercy endures forever”—whenever David offered praise by their hand. Opposite them were the kohanim who sounded trumpets while all Israel was standing.

⁷Moreover, Solomon consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was before the House of ADONAI, because there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, since the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to contain the burnt offering, the grain offering and the fat. ⁸At that time, Solomon observed the feast for seven days and all Israel with him—a very great assembly from Lebo-hamath to the Brook of Egypt.

⁹On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, for they had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the feast for seven days. ¹⁰On the 23rd day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that ADONAI had done for David, Solomon and Israel His people.

ADONAI'S Promise to Solomon

¹²Then ADONAI appeared to Solomon at night and said to him: "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself for a House of sacrifice. ¹³If I shut up heaven that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people, ¹⁴when My people, over whom My Name is called, humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. ¹⁵Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to the prayer offered in this place. ¹⁶For now I have chosen and consecrated this House so that My Name may be there forever. My eyes and My heart shall be there perpetually.

¹⁷"As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, doing all that I have commanded you, keeping My statutes and My ordinances, ¹⁸then I will establish your royal throne as I covenanted with your father David saying, 'You shall not lack a man to be ruler in Israel.' ¹⁹But if you turn away and forsake My decrees and My mitzvot that I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them, ²⁰then I will uproot them from My land which I gave them, and this House which I have consecrated for My Name I will cast out of My sight. I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

²¹As for this House, which is so exalted, every one passing by it shall be appalled and say, 'Why has ADONAI done this to this land and to this House?' ²²And they will answer, 'Because they have forsaken ADONAI, the God of their fathers who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and clung to other gods, worshipping and serving them. Therefore He has brought all this misery upon them'"

8

Solomon's Exploits Throughout the Land

¹It came to pass at the end of 20 years, during which Solomon built the House of ADONAI and his own palace, ²that he built the cities which Hiram had given to him and settled Bnei-Yisrael there. ³Then Solomon marched against Hamath-zobah and overpowered it. ⁴He built up Tadmor in the wilderness and all the store cities that he built in Hamath. ⁵He also built upper Beth-horon and lower Beth-horon as fortified cities with walls, gates and bars, ⁶as well as Baalath and all his store cities, and cities for his chariots and cities for his horsemen—every thing that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the land that he ruled.

⁷All the people that were left of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, who were not of Israel, ⁸that is, those of their descendants that were left after them in the land, whom Bnei-Yisrael did not destroy—these Solomon conscripted for forced labor, as it is to this day. ⁹But Solomon did not make slaves of Bnei-Yisrael for his work. Rather, they were his soldiers, his chief officers and commanders of his chariots and horsemen. ¹⁰These were the chief officers of King Solomon, 250 who ruled over the people.

¹¹Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house that he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the palace of King David of Israel, because the places where the Ark of ADONAI has entered are holy."

¹²At that time, Solomon offered burnt offerings to ADONAI on the altar of ADONAI which he had built before the porch, ¹³according to the daily requirement for offerings commanded by Moses for Shabbatot, for New Moons and for the moadim three times a year—at the Feast of Matzot, at the Feast of Shavuot and at the Feast of Sukkot. ¹⁴Following the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the kohanim for their avodah and the Levites for their duties—to praise and minister alongside the kohanim according to the daily assignment—and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate, because this is what David the man of God had commanded. ¹⁵They did not depart from the king’s commandment to the kohanim and Levites in any matter, including the treasuries.

¹⁶Thus all Solomon’s work was carried out from the day of the foundation of the House of ADONAI until it was finished. So the House of ADONAI was completed.

¹⁷Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Elat on the coast of the land of Edom.

¹⁸And Hiram sent him ships commanded by his servants and servants that knew the sea. They went with Solomon’s servants to Ophir and obtained from there 450 talents of gold and brought them to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Jerusalem

¹When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon’s fame, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions. ²Accompanied by a large caravan train, including camels carrying an abundance of spices and gold, and precious stones, she came to Solomon and spoke with him about all that was in her heart. ³Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from Solomon which he did not explain to her.

³When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the palace he had built, ⁴as well as the food on his table, the seating of his courtiers, the service and attire of his attendants, his cupbearers and their attire, and his procession with which he went up to the House of ADONAI, it took her breath away.

⁵She said to the king: “The report that I heard in my own land about your achievements and your wisdom is true. ⁶But I did not believe their reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. And behold, not even half of the greatness of your wisdom was described to me—you surpass the report that I heard! ⁷How blessed are your men, how blessed are your courtiers who continually stand in your presence and hear your wisdom. ⁸Blessed be ADONAI your God who delighted in you, setting you on His throne as king before ADONAI your God. Because your God loved Israel, establishing them forever, He made you king over them to execute justice and righteousness.”

⁹Then she gave the king 120 gold talents, large quantities of spices and precious stones. There had never been such quantities of spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon. ¹⁰The servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon who brought gold from Ophir also brought algumwood and precious stones. ¹¹From the sandalwood the king made ramps for the House of ADONAI and for the royal palace, and lyres and harps for the singers—nothing like them had ever been seen before in the land of Judah. ¹²King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for—more than what she had brought to the king. Then she with her courtiers, returned, going back to her own land.

Solomon Exceeds All the Earth’s Kings

¹³Now the weight of gold that Solomon received in one year was 666 gold talents, ¹⁴besides what the traders and merchants brought and the gold and silver that all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the region brought to Solomon. ¹⁵King Solomon made 200 shields of beaten gold, 600 shekels of beaten gold for each shield, ¹⁶and also 300 shields of beaten gold, 300 shekels of gold for each shield. The king put them in the palace of the Lebanon Forest. ¹⁷Furthermore, the king made a large ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold. ¹⁸The throne had six steps and a golden footstool attached to it, and arms on each side of the seat. Two lions stood beside the arms ¹⁹and 12 lions stood on the six steps, one at each end of each step. None like it was ever made for any kingdom. ²⁰All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold and all the vessels of the palace of the Lebanon Forest were of pure gold—silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon. ²¹Because the king's ships sailed to Tarshish with Hiram's servants once every three years, the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks.

²²So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. ²³And all the kings of the earth sought an audience with Solomon to listen to the wisdom that God had put in his heart. ²⁴Everyone brought his tribute—vessels of silver, vessels of gold, garments, armor, spices, horses and mules—in the due amount each year.

²⁵Solomon had 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen that he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem. ²⁶And he ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt. ²⁷The king made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plentiful as the sycamore trees that are in the foothills. ²⁸Horses were brought for Solomon from Egypt and from all countries.

Solomon Buried in David's City

²⁹Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, the beginning and the end, are they not written in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Jedo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? ³⁰Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel 40 years. ³¹Then Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David, and Rehoboam his son became king in his place.

10

The Revolt Against Rehoboam at Shechem

¹Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. ²Now it came to pass that when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard this—for he was in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon—Jeroboam returned from Egypt. ³So they sent and summoned him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came to Rehoboam and spoke to Rehoboam saying, ⁴“Your father made our yoke grievous but now lighten the harsh labor of your father and his heavy yoke that he put on us—then we will serve you.”

⁵He answered them, “Come back to me in three days.” So the people departed.

⁶Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was alive, saying, “How do you advise me to answer this people?”

⁷They answered him saying, “If you will be kind to this people and please them and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.”

⁸But he disregarded the counsel that the elders had given him and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him. ⁹He said to them, “How do you advise me to answer this people who have spoken to me saying, ‘Lighten the yoke that your father put on us?’”

¹⁰The young men that grew up with him answered him saying: “Speak thus to the people who spoke to you saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, now you make it lighter for us’. Thus shall you say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. ¹¹Now, whereas my father laid a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will do so with scorpions.’”

¹²Then Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had said to them saying, “Come back to me on the third day.” ¹³The king answered them harshly. King Rehoboam ignored the counsel of the elders ¹⁴and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men saying, “I will make your yoke heavy—I will make it even heavier. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with scorpions.”

¹⁵So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from God so that ADONAI might establish His word that He had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king saying,

“What portion do we have in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse!
To your tents, O Israel!
Now look after your own house,
David!”

So all Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷But Rehoboam continued to reign over Bnei-Yisrael who lived in the cities of Judah. ¹⁸Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor, but men of Israel pelted him to death with stones. King Rehoboam, however, managed to mount his chariot and to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

11

¹Now when Rehoboam arrived at Jerusalem, he assembled the House of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel in order to restore the kingdom back to Rehoboam.

²But the word of ADONAI came to Shemaiah the man of God saying: ³“Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin saying, ⁴“Thus says ADONAI, You shall not go up nor fight against your kinsmen. Let everyone return to his house for this matter is of Me.’” So they listened to the words of ADONAI and returned from marching against Jeroboam.

Reign of Rehoboam

⁵Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built fortified cities for defense in Judah.

⁶He built up Beth-lehem, Etam, Tekoa, ⁷Beth-zur, Soco, Adullam, ⁸Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, ⁹Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, ¹⁰Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron, which are fortified cities in Judah and in Benjamin. ¹¹He also strengthened the fortified towns and put commanders in them, along with stores of food, oil and wine. ¹²He also put shields and spears in every town, and made them very strong. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

¹³Moreover, the kohanim and the Levites from all their territories throughout Israel presented themselves to him. ¹⁴The Levites even abandoned their pastures and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them as kohanim to ADONAI, ¹⁵and had appointed his own priests for the high places, for the he-goats and for the calves that he had made. ¹⁶Those from all the tribes of Israel, who had set their hearts to seek ADONAI, followed the Levites to Jerusalem to sacrifice to ADONAI, the God of their fathers. ¹⁷So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

²²Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as chief and commander among his brothers, for he intended to make him king. ²³He also wisely dispersed some of his sons throughout the territories of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities and he gave them plenty of food and sought many wives for them.

Shishak Attacks Jerusalem

¹Now it came to pass, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and he had become strong, that he and all Israel with him forsook the Torah of ADONAI. ²It so happened that in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, King Shishak of Egypt marched against Jerusalem—because they had been unfaithful to ADONAI—³with 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horsemen and innumerable troops that came with him from Egypt: Lybians, Sukkites and Cushites. ⁴He captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

⁵Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the officers of Judah who had gathered in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, “Thus says ADONAI:

“You have abandoned Me—so I also have abandoned you into the hand of Shishak.”

⁶Then the officers of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, “ADONAI is just.”

⁷But when ADONAI saw that they humbled themselves, the word of ADONAI came to Shemaiah saying: “Since they have humbled themselves, I will not destroy them but grant them some measure of deliverance, and My wrath will not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸However, they will become subjects to him so that they may learn the difference between serving Me and serving the kings of the earth.”

⁹So Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem and took away the treasures of the House of ADONAI and the treasures of the king’s palace. He took away everything; he even took away the golden shields that Solomon had made. ¹⁰So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and entrusted them to the hands of the captains of the royal guard that guarded the entrance to the royal palace. ¹¹Whenever the king entered into the House of ADONAI, the guards would carry them and then bring them back into the guard chamber. ¹²Because Rehoboam humbled himself, the anger of ADONAI turned from him and He did not destroy him completely. Indeed there were good things in Judah.

¹³So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned as king. Rehoboam was 41 years old when he began to reign and he reigned 17 years in Jerusalem—the city that ADONAI had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put His Name there. His mother’s name was Naamah, the Ammonite. ¹⁴But he did evil because he had not set his heart to seek ADONAI.

¹⁵Now the acts of Rehoboam, from beginning to end, are they not written in the chronicles of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer for genealogies? There were continuous wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. ¹⁶Then Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. Then his son Abijah became king in his place.

Abijah’s Bold Speech

¹In the 18th year of King Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah. ²He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Micalah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.

There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³Abijah went into battle with an army of valiant warriors, 400,000 chosen men, while Jeroboam arranged for battle against him 800,000 chosen men, mighty warriors.

⁴Abijah stood on top of Mount Zemaraim, which is a hill of Ephraim, and said, “Listen to me Jeroboam and all Israel! ⁵Don’t you know that ADONAI, God of Israel, has given kingship over Israel to David forever—to him and his sons by a covenant of salt? ⁶Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his master. ⁷Riffraff and scoundrels gathered around him and pressed hard on Rehoboam son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted and could not stand up to them.

⁸“So now, do you intend to oppose the kingdom of ADONAI, which is in the hand of David’s descendants? Are you indeed a great multitude—and with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made for you as gods? ⁹Have you not banished the kohanim of ADONAI, the sons of Aaron, as well as the Levites, and then appointed your own priests—just as the peoples of the lands do? Can whoever comes to consecrate himself with a bull from a young cow and seven rams become a priest—for gods of nothing?

¹⁰“But as for us, ADONAI is our God! And we have not forsaken Him. We have the sons of Aaron ministering as kohanim to ADONAI and the Levites in their work. ¹¹Every morning and evening they burn to ADONAI burnt offerings and sweet incense. They set the rows of bread on the pure table and they light the golden menorah with its lamps burning every evening—for we keep the service of ADONAI Eloheinu—but you have forsaken Him. ¹²So look, God is with us at our head, and His kohanim with the signal trumpets to sound an alarm against you. O men of Israel, do not fight against ADONAI, the God of your fathers—for you will not succeed!”

¹³But Jeroboam had commanded the ambush to go around and come from the rear. So while they were in front of Judah, the ambush was behind them. ¹⁴When Judah turned around, behold, the battle was before and behind them. They cried out to ADONAI and the kohanim blew the trumpets. ¹⁵Then the men of Judah raised a battle cry, and as the men of Judah shouted, God struck down Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶Then men of Israel fled before Judah and God delivered them into their hand. ¹⁷So Abijah and his people defeated them with a great slaughter, and 500,000 chosen men of Israel fell slain. ¹⁸Thus men of Israel were subdued at that time, while the children of Judah prevailed—because they relied upon ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

¹⁹Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured towns from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephron with its villages. ²⁰Jeroboam could not muster strength again in the days of Abijah. Finally ADONAI struck him and he died.

²¹But Abijah grew powerful and took to himself 14 wives and fathered 22 sons and 16 daughters. ²²Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways and his sayings, are written in the chronicles of the prophet Iddo. ²³Then Abijah slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. His son Asa became king in his place. During his days the land was untroubled for ten years.

Asa’s Reforms Bring ADONAI’s Rest

¹Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of ADONAI his God. ²He removed the foreign altars and the high places, smashed the pillars and cut down the Asherah poles. ³He commanded Judah to seek ADONAI, the God of their fathers, and to obey the Torah and the mitzvah. ⁴He also removed the high places and the incense stands out of all the cities of Judah. So the kingdom remained untroubled under him. ⁵He built up fortified cities in Judah, for the land was untroubled and he was not engaged in warfare during those years because ADONAI had given him rest.

⁶Then he said to Judah, “Let us build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is still ours because we have sought ADONAI Eloheinu. We sought Him and He has given us rest all around.” So they built and were successful.

Appeal to Defeat the Cushites

⁷Now Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah who bore shields and spears and 280,000 from Benjamin who bore shields and drew bows. All of these were valiant warriors.

⁸Then Zerah the Cushite marched against them with an army of a million men and 300 chariots. When he arrived at Mareshah, ⁹Asa went out to meet him and they arrayed for battle in the valley of Zephath at Mareshah.

¹⁰Then Asa cried to ADONAI his God and said, "ADONAI, there is no one like You to help in battle between the mighty and the powerless. Help us, ADONAI Eloheinu, for we rely on You and in Your Name we have come against this multitude. You are ADONAI Eloheinu! Let no man prevail against You."

¹¹So ADONAI struck down the Cushites before Asa and before Judah. The Cushites fled ¹²and Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. So many of the Cushites fell that they could not recover because they were shattered before ADONAI and before His army. They carried away very much spoil. ¹³They destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the terror from ADONAI came on them. They plundered all the cities, for there was much spoil in them. ¹⁴They also attacked the tents of herdsmen and carried off many sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

Prophets Encourage Further Reforms

¹The Ruach Elohim came upon Azariah the son of Oded. ²He went out to meet Asa, and said to him, "Listen to me Asa, all Judah and Benjamin. ADONAI is with you as long as you are with Him. If you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will spurn you. ³For many days Israel was without the true God, without a teaching kohen and without Torah. ⁴But in their distress they turned to ADONAI, the God of Israel, and sought Him, and He was found by them. ⁵In those times there was no shalom for anyone coming or going, for there were many conflicts among all the inhabitants of the lands. ⁶Nation was crushed by nation and city by city, for God troubled them with every kind of distress. ⁷But you, chazak! Do not let your hands be slack for there is reward for your labor."

⁸When Asa heard these words as well as the prophecy of the prophet Oded, he took courage and removed the abominations from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns that he had seized in the hill country of Ephraim. He also repaired ADONAI's altar that was in front of ADONAI's entryway. ⁹He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, as well as those dwelling with them from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon—for many had defected to him from Israel when they saw that ADONAI his God was with him. ¹⁰So they assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. ¹¹On that day they sacrificed to ADONAI 700 bulls and 7,000 sheep from the spoil that they had brought. ¹²They entered into a covenant to seek ADONAI, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and soul. ¹³Whoever would not seek ADONAI, God of Israel, would be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman. ¹⁴They also made an oath to ADONAI with a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets and with shofarot. ¹⁵All Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and sought Him with all their will and He was found by them. Then ADONAI gave them rest all around. ¹⁶He also deposed Maacah, the mother of King Asa, from being queen because she had made an abominable image for Asherah. Asa cut down her abominable image, crushed it and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

¹⁷Though the high places were not removed from Israel, still Asa's heart was completely committed to ADONAI all his days. ¹⁸He brought into the House of God his father's consecrated articles, as well as his consecrated articles of silver and gold, and utensils. ¹⁹So there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

Asa Backslides

¹In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, King Baasa of Israel marched against Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from leaving or coming to King Asa of Judah.

²In response, Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of the House of ADONAI and from the royal palace, and sent them to King Ben-hadad of Aram who lived in Damascus saying, ³“Let there be a covenant between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with King Baasha of Israel so that he may withdraw from me.”

⁷At that time the seer Hanani came to King Asa of Judah and said to him: “Because you have depended on the king of Aram, and not depended on ADONAI your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram has escaped out of your hand. ⁸Were not the Cushites and the Libyans a mighty army with many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on ADONAI, He delivered them into your hand. ⁹For the eyes of ADONAI range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose heart keeps covenant with Him. You have acted foolishly in this matter. Indeed, from now on you will have wars.”

¹⁰Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in the prison for he was enraged at him for this. Also Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time. ¹¹Behold, the acts of Asa, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

¹²Now in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet. His illness was severe, yet even in his disease he did not seek ADONAI but physicians.

¹³Finally Asa slept with his fathers, dying in the forty-first year of his reign. ¹⁴He was buried in his own tomb, which he had hewn out for himself in the city of David. They laid him in his resting place, which was filled with sweet spices and various blended perfumes and they made a very large fire for him.

Jehosaphat Restores Judah to Torah

¹Jehoshaphat his son became king in his place and took firm hold of his position against Israel. ²He stationed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah and set garrisons throughout the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

³ADONAI was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the first ways of his father David. He did not seek the Baalim ⁴but sought the God of his father, and walked in His mitzvot rather than the deeds of Israel. ⁵So ADONAI established the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat so that he had great riches and honor. ⁶His heart was devoted to the ways of ADONAI. Furthermore he removed the high places and the Asherah poles from Judah.

⁷Then in the third year of his reign he sent his officials—Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah—to teach in the towns of Judah. ⁸With them were the Levites Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tob-adonijah and with them Elishama and Jehoram the kohanim. ⁹They taught throughout Judah, having with them a Torah scroll of ADONAI. They went throughout all the towns of Judah and taught the people.

¹⁰Now the fear of ADONAI fell on all the kingdoms of the lands around Judah, so that they did not make war with Jehoshaphat. ¹¹Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver for tribute. The Arabs also brought him flocks—7,700 rams and 7,700 he-goats.

¹²So Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful. He built forts and storage cities in Judah ¹³and carried out extensive work in the cities of Judah. He had men of war, valiant warriors, in Jerusalem.

¹⁴These were their appointees according to their clans. From Judah, captains of thousands: Adnah the commander with 300,000 valiant warriors; ¹⁵and next to him Jehohanan the commander with 280,000; ¹⁶and next to him, Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to ADONAI with 200,000 valiant warriors.

¹⁷From Benjamin: Eliada a valiant warrior with 200,000 men armed with bow and shield; ¹⁸and next to him Jehozabad with 180,000 equipped for war.

¹⁹These were the men who served the king besides those whom the king stationed in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

Prophecy of the Deceiving Spirit

¹Now Jehoshaphat had wealth and honor in abundance but he allied himself with Ahab by marriage. ²Some years later he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and bulls for him and the people with him, and urged him to march with him against Ramoth-gilead.

³King Ahab of Israel asked King Jehoshaphat of Judah, “Will you go with me against Ramoth-gilead?”

He replied, “I am as you are and my people as your people, and we will be with you in battle.”

⁴Jehoshaphat then said to the king of Israel, “Please, let us seek, today, the word of ADONAI.”

⁵So the king of Israel assembled the prophets—400 men—and asked them, “Should we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or should I hold off?”

They answered, “Go up, for God will give it into the king’s hand!”

⁶But Jehoshaphat asked, “Isn’t there another prophet of ADONAI here of whom we should inquire?”

⁷The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man through whom we can inquire of ADONAI—but I hate him, because he has never prophesied anything good about me but always evil. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.”

But Jehoshaphat said, “May the king never say such a thing.”

⁸So the king of Israel called an official and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah quickly!”

⁹Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah, wearing their robes, were sitting on their thrones on the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria with all the prophets prophesying before them. ¹⁰Zedekiah son of Henaanah made for himself iron horns and declared, “Thus says ADONAI, ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are exterminated!’”

¹¹All the other prophets were prophesying similarly, saying “March against Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for ADONAI will give it into the hand of the king.”

¹²Now the messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, “Look, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king. So please let your word be like one of them and speak favorably.”

¹³But Micaiah replied, “As ADONAI lives, what my God says that is what I will say.”

¹⁴When he came to the king, the king asked him, “Micaiah, should we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or should I hold off?”

He replied, “March and be victorious! They will be given into your hand!”

¹⁵But the king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the Name of ADONAI?”

¹⁶So he said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd,^a and ADONAI said, ‘These have no master—let each man return home in shalom.’”

¹⁷So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you that he never prophesies good about me, only evil?”

¹⁸Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of ADONAI. I saw ADONAI sitting on His throne with the whole host of heaven standing on His right and on His left. ¹⁹And ADONAI said: ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?’

Then one said this and another said that, ²⁰until a spirit came forward and stood before ADONAI and said, ‘I will entice him.’

So ADONAI said to him, ‘How?’

²¹He answered, ‘I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’

^a 18:16. cf. Matt. 9:36; Mark 6:34.

Then He said, 'You will entice him and you will also succeed. Go and do so.'

²²So now, behold, ADONAI has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours and ADONAI has decreed disaster against you."

²³Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah approached Micaiah, slapped him on the cheek and said, "How did the spirit of ADONAI pass over me to speak to you?"

²⁴Micaiah replied, "Behold, you will see on the day that you go to hide in an inner room."

²⁵Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah and turn him over to Amon, governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son, ²⁶and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in prison and make him eat the bread and water of affliction—until I return in shalom.'""

²⁷Then Micaiah said, "If you ever return in shalom, ADONAI has not spoken through me." He added: "Listen, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

²⁸So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah marched against Ramoth-gilead.

²⁹Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and they went into the battle.

³⁰Now the king of Aram had already ordered his chariot commanders saying: "Don't attack anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel alone."

³¹So when the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat they thought, "This is the king of Israel." So they turned to attack him but Jehoshaphat cried out. ADONAI helped him and God diverted them from him. ³²When the chariot commanders realized that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

³³But a man drew his bow aimlessly and struck the king of Israel between the lower armor and the breastplate. The king said to the charioteer, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

³⁴The battle raged that day and the king of Israel remained propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans until dusk. Then at sunset he died.

Jehoshaphat's Judicial Reforms

¹Then King Jehoshaphat of Judah returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem. ²Jehu son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate ADONAI? Because of this, wrath from before ADONAI is against you. ³Nevertheless, good things are found in you, for you have removed the Asherah poles out of the land and have set your heart to seek God."

⁴Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem and he went out again among the people from Beersheba over to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to ADONAI, the God of their fathers. ⁵He also appointed judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city. ⁶He said to the judges. "Consider what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for ADONAI who is with you when you pass judgment. ⁷Now then, let the fear of ADONAI be upon you. Be very careful what you do, for there is no injustice or favoritism or bribe-taking with ADONAI Eloheinu."

⁸In Jerusalem also, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, kohanim and the leading patriarchs of Israel to render the judgment of ADONAI and to settle disputes among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

⁹He charged them saying, "This is how you shall act: in the fear of ADONAI, faithfully and wholeheartedly. ¹⁰When any dispute comes to you from your kinsmen who live in their cities, whether bloodshed, or concerning Torah, mitzvot, statutes or ordinances, you must warn them so that they will not be guilty before ADONAI. Otherwise wrath will come upon you and your kinsmen. Act accordingly and you will not be guilty.

¹¹"Behold, Amariah the chief kohen will be over you in all matters pertaining to ADONAI, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the House of Judah, in all the matters pertaining to the king. Also the Levites will serve as officials before you. Act courageously and may ADONAI be with the good.”

20

Jehoshaphat's Prayer and the Valley of Bracha

¹Now it happened after this that the Moabites and the Ammonites together with other Ammonites came to make war against Jehoshaphat. ²Some came and reported to Jehoshaphat saying, “A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Aram, and are already in Hazazon-Tamar” (that is En-Gedi).

³Jehoshaphat was afraid so he resolved to seek ADONAI, and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. ⁴Judah assembled to seek help from ADONAI; indeed, they came from all the cities of Judah to seek ADONAI.

⁵Then Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem in the House of ADONAI in front of the new courtyard ⁶and said:

“ADONAI, God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in Your hand and no one can stand against You. ⁷Are you not our God who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel and gave it to the descendants of Your friend Abraham forever? ⁸They settled in it and built You a Temple there for Your Name saying, ⁹“If calamity comes upon us—the sword of judgment, pestilence or famine—we will stand before this House and before You—for Your Name is in this House—and cry to You in our distress and You will hear and deliver us.”

¹⁰“Now behold, the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir—whose land You did not allow Israel to invade when they came from the land of Egypt, instead they turned aside from them and did not destroy them—¹¹now behold, how they repay us by coming to drive us out of Your possession that You gave us as an inheritance. ¹²Our God, will

You not execute judgment on them? For we have no power to face this great multitude that is attacking us. We do not know what to do—but our eyes are on You.”

¹³All Judah was standing before ADONAI with their infants, their wives and their children.

¹⁴Then in the midst of the congregation, the Ruach ADONAI came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, ¹⁵and he said:

“Listen all Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat. Thus ADONAI says to you, ‘Do not be afraid or be dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s. ¹⁶Tomorrow go down against them as they come up the ascent of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the valley in front of the wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷You will not fight in this battle. Take your positions, stand and see the salvation of ADONAI with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid or be dismayed. Tomorrow go out to face them, for ADONAI is with you.’”

¹⁸Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the ground and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before ADONAI to worship ADONAI. ¹⁹Levites, from the sons of Kohath and the sons of Korah, stood up to praise ADONAI, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

²⁰Early in the morning they arose and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. As they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, O Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in ADONAI your God and you will be confirmed. Trust in His prophets and you will succeed.” ²¹After consulting with the people, he appointed singers to ADONAI praising the splendor of His holiness, as they went out before the army saying,

“Praise ADONAI,
for His mercy endures forever.”

²²As they began singing and praising, ADONAI set ambushes against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir who had come against Judah, and they were defeated. ²³For the Ammonites and Moabites rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to exterminate and annihilate them. When they had exterminated the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

²⁴When Judah came to the lookout in the wilderness and looked for the multitude, behold, only corpses were lying on the ground—no one had escaped. ²⁵When Jehoshaphat and his people went to take the plunder, they found an abundance of goods, clothing and precious articles, which they pillaged, more than they could carry away. For three days they were taking the plunder because there was so much. ²⁶On the fourth day they assembled in the valley of Bracha^a where they blessed ADONAI. That is why the name of that place is called the Valley of Bracha to this day.

²⁷Then every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat at their head, returned joyfully to Jerusalem for ADONAI had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸They came to Jerusalem to the House of ADONAI with harps, lyres and trumpets. ²⁹So the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the region because they heard that ADONAI had fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was untroubled for his God gave him rest all around.

Jehoshaphat's Last Days

³¹Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was 35 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shlihi. ³²He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not stray from it, doing what was right in the eyes of ADONAI. ³³However, the high places were not removed, nor did the people direct their hearts to the God of their fathers.

³⁴Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from beginning to end, behold, they are written in the annals of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is included in the book of the kings of Israel.

³⁵Afterward, King Jehoshaphat of Judah allied himself with King Ahaziah of Israel, thereby acting wickedly. ³⁶He joined with him to construct ships to go to Tarshish, and they constructed the ships in Ezion-geber.

^a 20:26. i.e., blessing.

³⁷Then Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, ADONAI will break up your works." So the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish.

Jehoram Slays His Brothers

⁴Now when Jehoram had risen over his father's kingdom and made himself strong, he slew all his brothers with the sword, along with some of the officers of Israel. ⁵Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. ⁶He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did (for Ahab's daughter was his wife), and he did evil in the eyes of ADONAI. ⁷However, ADONAI was not willing to destroy the house of David because of the covenant He had made with David, and since He had spoken a word to give a lamp to him and his sons always.

⁸In his days Edom rebelled against Judah's rule and set up a king over themselves. ⁹So Jehoram crossed over with his officers and all his chariots with him. He rose up by night and struck the Edomites who were surrounding him and the chariot commanders. ¹⁰Thus Edom has been in rebellion against Judah to this day. Then Libnah also revolted from under his hand at that time—because he had forsaken ADONAI, the God of his fathers. ¹¹Moreover, he built high places on the mountains of Judah and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot and led Judah astray.

Elijah's Letter of Judgment

¹²A letter from Elijah the prophet came to him saying:

"Thus says ADONAI, the God of your father David: Since you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, ¹³but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, leading Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into prostitution just as the house of Ahab committed prostitution and you have also slain your brothers—your own family, who were better than you— ¹⁴behold, ADONAI is going to strike your people, your children, your wives, and all your possessions with a monumental catastrophe. ¹⁵You yourself will be stricken by multiple illnesses of your intestines, day after day, until your intestines drop out because of the illness."

¹⁶Then ADONAI stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabs that neighbored the Cushites. ¹⁷They rose up against Judah, invaded it and carried away all the possessions found in the royal palace, as well as his sons and his wives. No son was left to him except Jehoahaz, his youngest.

¹⁸After all this, ADONAI smote his intestines with an incurable disease, ¹⁹and it continued day after day for two years, so that at the end his bowels fell out because of his sickness and he died in great agonies. His people made no fire in his honor like the fire of his fathers. ²⁰He was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years and he passed away, to no one's regret. He was buried in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

Ahaziah Falls with Ahab

¹Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place for the troops that invaded the camp with the Arabians had slain all the older ones. Thus Ahaziah the son of Jehoram became king over Judah. ²Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. ³He too walked in the ways of the house of Ahab for his mother counseled him to do evil. ⁴He did evil in the sight of ADONAI, like the house of Ahab, for they were his counselors after his father's death—to his destruction. ⁵He also followed their counsel when he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram, ⁶so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds inflicted on him at Ramah when he fought Hazael king of Aram. Then Azariah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he had been wounded.

⁷Now through his coming to Joram, God brought about Ahaziah's downfall. Upon his arrival, Ahaziah went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom ADONAI had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. ⁸So it came to pass that when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, he came upon the officers of Judah and Azaiah's relatives, who had been attending Azaiah, and slew them. ⁹He then searched for Azaiah who was caught hiding in Samaria. Then they brought him to Jehu, put him to death and buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought ADONAI with all his heart." Then there was no one in the house of Azaiah to hold power over the kingdom.

Athaliah and Joash

¹⁰Now when Athaliah, Azaiah's mother, saw that her son had died, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah. ¹¹But Jehoshebeath, the king's daughter, took Joash the son of Azaiah and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. Because Jehoshebeath, daughter of King Jehoram and wife of Jehoiada the kohen, was the sister of Azaiah, she could hide him from Athaliah so she could not kill him. ¹²He remained hidden with them in the House of God for six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

¹Now in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself and brought the officers of hundreds—Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri—into a covenant with him. ²They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah and the leading patriarchs of Israel. They came to Jerusalem ³and the entire congregation made a covenant with the king in the House of God. Then he said to them:

“Behold, the king’s son! He must reign as ADONAI promised concerning David’s sons. ⁴This is what you should do: a third of you, kohanim and Levites coming on duty on Shabbat will keep watch at the gates, ⁵a third of you shall be in the royal palace, and a third at the Foundation Gate, and all the people shall be in the courtyard, and all the people should be in the courtyard of the House of ADONAI. ⁶But let no one enter into the House of ADONAI except the kohanim and the ministering Levites. They may come in, for they are kadosh, and let all the people observe the service of ADONAI. ⁷The Levites will surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand, and whoever enters the House, let him be killed. Stay close to the king in his comings and goings.”

⁸So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the kohen commanded. Each took his men, those that were on duty on Shabbat and those who went off duty on Shabbat, for Jehoiada the kohen had not dismissed any of the divisions. ⁹And Jehoiada the kohen delivered to the officers of hundreds King David’s spears, shields and bucklers that were in the House of God. ¹⁰Then he stationed all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand around the king—from the south side of the House to the north side of the House by the altar and by the House.

¹¹Then they brought out the king’s son and placed upon him the crown and the insignia. They proclaimed him king, and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and declared, “Long live the king!”

¹²When Athaliah heard the shouting of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people to the House of ADONAI. ¹³She looked, and behold, the king was standing by his pillar at the entrance and the officers and the trumpeters were beside the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing the trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments were leading the praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, “Treason, treason!”

¹⁴Jehoiada the kohen brought out the officers of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, “Bring her out from between the ranks and put to the sword anyone who follows her.”

For the kohanim said, “Do not put her to death in the House of ADONAI.”

¹⁵So they seized her as she arrived at the entrance of the Horse Gate of the royal palace and killed her there. ¹⁶Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people and the king to be the people of ADONAI. ¹⁷All the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down, smashed its altars and images into pieces, and slew Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars.

¹⁸Then Jehoiada placed the oversight of the House of ADONAI under the authority of the Levitical kohanim, whom David had assigned over the House of ADONAI to offer the burnt offerings of ADONAI, as it is written in the Torah of Moses, accompanied by rejoicing and singing as ordered by David. ¹⁹He also stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the House of ADONAI so that no one who was ritually impure for any reason could enter. ²⁰He took the officers of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the House of ADONAI. They came through the upper gate of the royal house and seated the king upon the royal throne, ²¹and all the people of the land rejoiced. The city was quiet for Athaliah had been slain with the sword.

Joash Repairs the Temple

¹Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem 40 years. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. ²Joash did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI all the days of Jehoiada the kohen.

³Jehoiada took two wives by whom he fathered sons and daughters. ⁴It came to pass after this that Joash had a heart to renovate the House of ADONAI. ⁵He assembled the kohanim and the Levites and told them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel year by year to repair the House of your God. Do this quickly!"

However, the Levites did not act quickly. ⁶So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief and asked him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the tax of Moses the servant of ADONAI on the congregation of Israel for the Tent of the Testimony?"

⁷For the sons of wicked Athaliah had broken into the House of God, and had even used all the sacred things of the House of ADONAI for the Baalim^a. ⁸So the king commanded that a box be made and placed outside the gate of the House of ADONAI. ⁹A proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring in to ADONAI the tax of Moses, God's servant, upon Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰All the officers and all the people rejoiced, and brought in and cast into the chest until it was full. ¹¹Whenever the chest was brought by the Levites to the king's officers and when they saw that it was full of money, the royal scribe and the officer of the kohen gadol would come and empty the box and take it back to its place. Thus they did daily and gathered much money. ¹²The king and Jehoiada gave it to workmen who carried out the work for the House of ADONAI. They hired masons and carpenters to renovate the House of ADONAI, as well as craftsmen in iron and bronze to repair the House of ADONAI. ¹³So the workmen labored and the renovation work progressed in their hands. They restored the House of God to its original design, and strengthened it. ¹⁴When they had finished, they brought the remainder of the money before the king and Jehoiada and they made it into vessels for the House of ADONAI—vessels for avodah and for burnt offering, pans and utensils of gold and silver. Then they offered burnt offerings in the House of ADONAI continually all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵When Jehoiada reached a ripe old age, he died. He was 130 years old when he died. ¹⁶So he was buried in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good things in Israel and toward God and His House.

Joash Betrays the Righeous Kohen

¹⁷Now after the death of Jehoiada, the chiefs of Judah came and bowed down to the king. Then the king listened to them. ¹⁸They forsook the House of ADONAI, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherah poles and the idols. Wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for their guilt. ¹⁹ADONAI sent prophets to them to bring them back to Him and although they admonished them, they would not listen.

²⁰Then the Ruach Elohim came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the kohen.^b He stood above the people and said to them, "Thus says God, 'Why do you transgress the mitzvot of ADONAI? You will not succeed. Because you have forsaken ADONAI, He has also forsaken you.'"

²¹But they conspired against him, and by order of the king, they stoned him to death in the courtyard of the House of ADONAI. ²²Thus King Joash disregarded the loyalty which his father Jehoiada had shown to him—and slew Jehoiada's son. As he was dying, he said: "May ADONAI see and avenge!"

Judgment on Joash and His Chieftains

²³It came to pass that at the turn of the year, the Aramean army came up against him. They invaded Judah and Jerusalem and massacred all the chieftains of the people, and sent all their plunder to the king of Damascus.

^b 24:20. cf. Luke 4:29; Acts 7:58; 10:44; 11:15.

²⁴Although the Aramean army came with only a small number of men, ADONAI gave over a much larger army into their hands, because they had forsaken ADONAI, God of their fathers. So they executed judgment upon Joash.

²⁵When they withdrew from him—for they left him very sick—his own servants plotted against him because of the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the kohen, and assassinated him on his bed. He died and was buried in the city of David—but not in the tombs of the kings.

²⁶These men conspired against him: Zabad son of Shimiath the Ammonitess and Jehozabad son of Shimriath the Moabite.

²⁷Now concerning his sons and the many prophecies against him and the rebuilding of the House of God, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son became king in his place.

Amaziah Begins Well

¹Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan from Jerusalem. ²Now he did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI, but not wholeheartedly. ³Once he had the kingdom firmly secured under him, he executed his courtiers who had assassinated his father the king. ⁴He did not put their children to death, but acted according to what is written in the Torah, in the book of Moses, which ADONAI commanded saying,

“Parents should not die for the children, neither should the children die for the parents, but every person should die for his own sin.”

⁵Amaziah gathered together the people of Judah and assigned them according to their clans to officers of thousands and officers of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He mustered those from 20 years old and upward, and found 300,000 chosen men, able to go to war, able to handle spear and shield. ⁶He also hired 100,000 valiant warriors from Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

⁷But a man of God came to him saying, “O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for ADONAI is not with Israel—not with any of the children of Ephraim. ⁸For if you go and fight courageously in battle, God will overthrow you before the enemy, for God has power to help and to bring down.”

⁹But Amaziah said to the man of God, “And what is to be done about the 100 talents that I have given to the Israelite troops?”

The man of God answered, “ADONAI is able to give you much more than that.”

¹⁰So, Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim to go back to their homes. Their anger burned greatly against Judah and they returned home in a rage.

¹¹Amaziah then took courage and leading his army, marched to the Valley of Salt. He struck down 10,000 men of Seir. ¹²The army of Judah also captured 10,000 alive, and brought them to the top of the cliff. They threw them down from the top of the cliff and everyone fell to their death.

¹³Meanwhile the troops that Amaziah had sent back and not allowed to go with him to battle raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-Horon. They struck down 3,000 of them and took considerable spoils.

Idolatry and Defiance

¹⁴Now after Amaziah returned from slaughtering the Edomites, he had the gods of the men of Seir brought and installed as his gods. He prostrated himself before them and burned incense to them. ¹⁵The anger of ADONAI burned against Amaziah, and He sent a prophet to him, who said to him, “Why have you sought after the gods of the people who could not deliver their own people from your hand?”

¹⁶But while he was still speaking to him, the king said to him, “Have we appointed you a counselor to the king? Stop! Why should you be struck down?”

So the prophet stopped after he said, “Now I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have acted this way and have not listened to my counsel.”

¹⁷Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent this message to Joash son of Jehohaz son of Jehu, king of Israel saying, “Come, let us meet face to face.”

¹⁸Joash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah saying: “The thorn bush in Lebanon sent a message to the cedar in Lebanon saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ Then a wild beast of Lebanon passed by and trampled the thorn bush. ¹⁹You say, ‘Behold, I have defeated Edom.’ So now your heart has become arrogant and proud. Stay home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah with you?”

²⁵Amaziah the son of King Joash of Judah lived 15 years after the death of Joash son of Jehohaz king of Israel. ²⁶Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, the first and the last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷From the time that Amaziah turned away from following ADONAI, they conspired against him in Jerusalem, so he fled to Lachish. But they sent men after him to Lachish and put him to death there. ²⁸Then they brought him back on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

Uzziah Strengthens Judah’s Defenses

¹Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was 16 years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. ²He built Eloth and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers. ³Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king, and he reigned 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Jecoliah from Jerusalem. ⁴He did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI just as his father Amaziah had done. ⁵He continued to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding through the visions of God. As long as he sought ADONAI, God made him prosper.

⁹Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate and at the Angle, and fortified them. ¹⁰He also built towers in the wilderness and dug out many cisterns because he had much livestock, and he had farmers in the foothills and in the plain and vinedressers in the mountains and in the fertile fields—for he loved the soil.

¹¹Uzziah also had a well-trained army ready to go out to battle by divisions, according to the numbers mustered by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the official, under Hananiah, one of the king’s chieftains. ¹²The total number of family leaders over the fighting men was 2,600, ¹³and under their command was an army of 307,500 trained for war with mighty power to support the king against the enemy. ¹⁴Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows and slingstones for the entire army. ¹⁵In Jerusalem he made machines designed by skillful men to be used on the towers and on the corners to shoot arrows and hurl large stones. So his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped until he became strong.

Uzziah Usurps the Kohanim

¹⁶But when he became strong, his heart grew so haughty that he acted corruptly. For he trespassed against ADONAI his God by entering into the Temple of ADONAI to burn incense upon the altar of incense. ¹⁷Then Azariah the kohen with 80 valiant kohanim of ADONAI followed him in. ¹⁸They opposed Uzziah the king and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to ADONAI, but for the kohanim, the descendants of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the Sanctuary, for you have acted unfaithfully. You will have no honor from ADONAI Elohim."

¹⁹Then Uzziah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became angry. While he was raging at the kohanim tza'arat broke out on his forehead right in front of the kohanim in the House of ADONAI, beside the incense altar. ²⁰When Azariah the chief kohen and all the other kohanim stared at him, behold, his forehead had tza'arat! So they rushed him out of there. Indeed, he himself hurried to get out because ADONAI had smitten him.

²¹King Uzziah had tza'arat until the day of his death. He lived in a separate house with tza'arat, for he was cut off from the House of ADONAI. Jotham his son was in charge of the king's house and governed the people of the land.

²²Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from beginning to end, were recorded by the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz. ²³So Uzziah slept with his fathers and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial that belonged to the kings, for they said: "He had tza'arat." Then Jotham his son became king in his place.

Good King Jotham Prospers

¹Jotham was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. ²He did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI, just as his father Uzziah had done. But unlike his father, he did not enter into the Temple of ADONAI. The people, however, acted corruptly. ³He rebuilt the upper gate of the House of ADONAI and did extensive building on the wall of Ophel. ⁴He also built towns in the Judean hills and forts and towers in the forests.

⁵Jotham also fought the king of the Ammonites and prevailed against them. That year the Ammonites paid him 100 talents of silver, 10,000 measures of wheat and 10,000 of barley. The Ammonites brought him the same amount also in the second and third years.

⁶Jotham became powerful because he ordered his ways before ADONAI his God. ⁷Now the rest of the acts of Jotham and all his wars and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸He was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. ⁹Jotham slept with his fathers and they buried him in the city of David. Ahaz his son became king in his place.

Ahaz's Sin in the Valley of Ben-hinnom

¹Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king, and he reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. But he did not do what was right in the eyes of ADONAI as his father David had done, ²but followed the ways of the kings of Israel, and even made molten images for the Baalim. ³Moreover, he burned incense in the valley of Ben-hinnom and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom ADONAI had driven out before Bnei-Yisrael. ⁴He offered sacrifices and burned incense in the high places, on the hills and under every leafy tree.

⁵Therefore ADONAI his God gave him into the hand of the king of Aram who defeated him and took away from him many prisoners and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who inflicted many casualties on him.⁶In one day, Pekah the son of Remaliah killed 120,000 valiant soldiers of Judah—because they had forsaken ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

Mercy Shown to Judah's Captives

⁹But a prophet of ADONAI named Oded was there and he went out to meet the army on its return to Samaria. He said to them, "Behold, because ADONAI, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He has given them into your hand and you have slaughtered them in a rage that reaches to heaven.¹⁰So now you intend to bring into bondage the children of Judah and Jerusalem as your male and female slaves? Are you not also guilty of transgressions against ADONAI your God?"¹¹So now, listen to me. Send back the prisoners you have captured from your kinsmen—for the fierce wrath of ADONAI is upon you!"

¹²Then some of the leaders of the sons of Ephraim—Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai—confronted those coming from the campaign,¹³and said to them, "Do not bring the captives in here, for that would cause us to trespass against ADONAI. Do you intend to add to our sins and our guilt? For our guilt is already great, and his fierce anger is already against Israel."

¹⁴So the soldiers released the captives and the plunder in the presence of the chieftains and the entire congregation.¹⁵Then the men designated by name stood up and took the captives, and they clothed all who were naked from the plunder. They gave them clothes and sandals, food and drink, anointed them, led all the feeble ones on donkeys, and brought them back to their kinsmen at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

Ahaz Leads Judah Into Idolatry

¹⁶About that time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria for help.¹⁷Once again the Edomites had come and invaded Judah and taken captives,¹⁸while the Philistines had raided the towns in the foothills and in the South of Judah. They captured and occupied Beth-shemesh, Aijalon and Gederot, as well as Soho, Timnah and Gimzo with their villages.¹⁹For ADONAI humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he threw off restraint in Judah and trespassed against ADONAI.²⁰Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came against him and afflicted him instead of strengthening him—²¹even though Ahaz plundered the House of ADONAI, the house of the king and the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria—it did not help him.

²²In his time of distress, this same King Ahaz acted even more unfaithfully to ADONAI.²³He even sacrificed to the gods of Damascus after he had been defeated, for he said, "Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them and they will help me." But they caused the downfall of him and all Israel.

²⁴Ahaz even collected the utensils of the House of God and cut the utensils of the House of God into pieces. He shut the doors of the House of ADONAI and made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.²⁵In every town of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods—provoking ADONAI, the God of his fathers.

²⁶Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.²⁷Then Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of Jerusalem, but he was not brought into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Hezekiah his son became king in his place.

Hezekiah Restores the Temple

⁵Then he said to them: "Listen to me, Levites! Sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the House of ADONAI, the God of your fathers, and remove the defilement out of the holy place. ⁶Our fathers acted unfaithfully and did evil in the sight of ADONAI Eloheinu and have forsaken Him. They turned their faces away from ADONAI's dwelling place and turned their backs on Him. ⁷They also shut the doors of the porch and put out the lamps. They did not burn incense or offering any burnt offerings in the Holy Place to the God of Israel. ⁸Therefore, the wrath of ADONAI was upon Judah and Jerusalem. He has made them an object of horror, dread and scorn, as you are seeing with your own eyes. ⁹Behold, for this our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, daughters and wives are in captivity.

¹⁰"Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with ADONAI, the God of Israel, so that His fierce anger may turn away from us. ¹¹My sons, now do not be negligent, for ADONAI has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and to be His ministers and to burn incense to Him."

¹²Then these Levites arose: from the sons of Kohath, Mahath son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah; from the sons of Merari, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel; from the sons of Gershon, Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah; ¹³from the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; from the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴from the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

¹⁵When they had gathered their brothers and sanctified themselves, they went in, as the king ordered according to the words of ADONAI, to cleanse the House of ADONAI.

¹⁶So the kohanim went into the inner part of the House of ADONAI to purify it. They brought out to the courtyard of the House of ADONAI every impure thing that they found in the temple of ADONAI. Then the Levites received it and carried it out to Kidron Valley. ¹⁷They began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and by the eighth day of the month they reached the porch of ADONAI. For eight days they consecrated the House of ADONAI and finished on the sixteenth day of the first month.

¹⁸Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have purified the entire House of ADONAI—the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the table of the rows of bread with all the vessels. ¹⁹We have also prepared and consecrated all the articles that King Ahaz discarded in his unfaithfulness, while he was king. Behold, they are now before the altar of ADONAI."

²⁰Then King Hezekiah arose early gathered the leaders of the city and went up to the House of ADONAI. ²¹They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs and seven he-goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary and Judah, and he commanded the kohanim—the sons of Aaron—to offer them on the altar of ADONAI. ²²So they slaughtered the bulls and the kohanim took the blood and sprinkled it against the altar; next they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood against the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled the blood against the altar. ²³The he-goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the congregation, and they laid their hands on them. ²⁴The kohanim then slaughtered them and purified the altar with their blood to make atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

²⁵He stationed the Levites in the House of ADONAI with cymbals, harps and lyres, according to the command of David, of Gad the king's seer and of Nathan the prophet. For the command was by the authority of ADONAI through His prophets. ²⁶So the Levites stood with David's instruments and the kohanim with the trumpets.

²⁷Then Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of ADONAI also began with the trumpets, together with the instruments of King David of Israel. ²⁸The entire congregation prostrated themselves, while the singers sang and the trumpeters played. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

²⁹Now at the completion of the burnt offering, the king and all who were present with him knelt down and worshiped. ³⁰Moreover, King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to sing praises to ADONAI with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness and bowed down and worshiped.

³¹Then Hezekiah responded and said, "You have now consecrated yourselves to ADONAI. Come hear and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the House of ADONAI." The congregation brought in sacrifices and thankofferings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings.

³²The number of the burnt offerings that the congregation brought was 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs—all of these as a burnt offering to ADONAI. ³³The animals consecrated as sacrifices were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep. ³⁴The kohanim, however, were too few to flay all the burnt offerings, so their kinsmen, the Levites, helped them until the work was completed, and until other kohanim had consecrated themselves. For the Levites had been more conscientious to consecrate themselves than the kohanim. ³⁵There were also a great many burnt offerings, along with the fat of the peace offerings and the drink offering at every burnt offering.

Thus the avodah of the House of ADONAI was reestablished. ³⁶Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had enabled the people to accomplish, because it happened so suddenly.

Hezekiah and all Israel Celebrate Pesach

¹Hezekiah then sent word to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh to come to the House of ADONAI at Jerusalem to keep the Passover for ADONAI, the God of Israel. ²The king and his officials and the entire congregation in Jerusalem had decided to celebrate Passover in the second month. ³For they were not able to celebrate it at the regular time, since not enough kohanim had consecrated themselves, nor had the people assembled in Jerusalem. ⁴The matter seemed right in the eyes of the king and of the entire community. ⁵So they decided to issue a decree and to proclaim it throughout all Israel from Beer-sheba to Dan, calling the people to come to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover for ADONAI, the God of Israel. For it had not been celebrated as prescribed for a long time.

⁶At the king's command, the couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with letters from the king and his officials saying:

"You men of Israel, turn back to ADONAI, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, and He will return to the remnant of you who escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria. ⁷Do not be like your fathers and brothers who acted unfaithfully against ADONAI, the God of their fathers, so that He made them a horror as you see. ⁸Do not stiffen your neck as your fathers did, but reconcile to ADONAI, and come to His Temple, which He has consecrated forever, and worship ADONAI your God that His burning anger may turn away from you. ⁹For if you return to ADONAI, your brothers and children will receive compassion before their captors, and will return to this land. For ADONAI your God is compassionate and merciful; He will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him."

¹⁰As the couriers traveled from town to town through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh and as far as Zebulun, they were scorned and mocked. ¹¹Nevertheless some men from Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

¹³Now a very large assembly gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Matzot in the second month. ¹⁴They arose and removed the altars and all the incense altars that were in Jerusalem, and threw them into the Kidron Valley. ¹⁵Then they slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The kohanim and the Levites were ashamed and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings into the House of ADONAI. ¹⁶They stood at their post as prescribed in the Torah of Moses, the man of God. The kohanim sprinkled the blood that they received from the hand of the Levites. ¹⁷For there were many in the congregation that had not consecrated themselves, therefore the Levites were in charge of slaughtering the Passover lambs for everyone that was not ceremonially clean in order to consecrate them to ADONAI. ¹⁸Although a great multitude of the people—many of them from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun—had not purified themselves, they still ate the Passover lamb contrary to what is written.

But Hezekiah prayed for them saying: “May ADONAI who is good, atone for ¹⁹every one who prepares his heart to seek ADONAI, the God of his fathers, even though he is not pure according to rules of the sanctuary.” ²⁰ADONAI heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

²¹So the children of Israel who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Matzot for seven days with great gladness. The Levites and the kohanim were praising ADONAI every day with loud instruments for ADONAI. ²²Then Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who demonstrated good understanding of the service of ADONAI. For seven days they ate their assigned portions while sacrificing peace offerings and praising ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

²³Then the whole congregation decided to celebrate seven more days—so for another seven days they celebrated with gladness.

²⁴Hezekiah king of Judah contributed 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep to the congregation, and the officials contributed 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep to the congregation, and great numbers of kohanim consecrated themselves.

²⁵The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced with the kohanim and the Levites, and all who had assembled from Israel, both the strangers coming from the land of Israel and the residents of Judah. ²⁶There was great joy in Jerusalem, for nothing like this had happened in Jerusalem since the time of Solomon son of David king of Israel. ²⁷Then the Levitical kohanim arose and blessed the people, and ADONAI heard their voice, for their prayer reached heaven, His holy dwelling place.

Restoring the Kohanim and Levites

¹When all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the towns of Judah and smashed the pillars, smashed the Asherah poles and demolished the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as throughout Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all Bnei-Yisrael returned to their towns, each to their own property.

²Then Hezekiah reestablished the divisions of the kohanim and the Levites together with their divisions, each of the kohanim and Levites according to his service: for burnt offerings, peace offerings, to minister, to praise, or to sing praises in the gates of the courts of ADONAI. ³The king also contributed a portion of his own assets for the burnt offerings: the morning and the evening burnt offerings and the burnt offerings for Shabbatot, the New Moons and the moadim, as it is written in the Torah of ADONAI. ⁴Moreover, he commanded the people, the residents of Jerusalem, to give the portion allotted to the kohanim and the Levites, so that they might devote themselves to the Torah of ADONAI.⁵ As soon as the word spread, Bnei-Yisrael gave generously the first-fruits of their grain, wine, oil, honey and all the produce of the field, as well as tithe of all the abundance.⁶ The children of Israel and Judah who lived in the towns of Judah, also brought in the tithe of bulls and sheep, and the tithe of the sacred things consecrated to ADONAI their God. They piled them in heaps.⁷ In the third month the heaps began to accumulate and finished in the seventh month.⁸ When Hezekiah and the officials came and saw the heaps, they blessed ADONAI and His people Israel.

⁹Hezekiah asked the kohanim and the Levites about the heaps.¹⁰ Azariah the chief kohen from the house of Zadok, replied to him saying, “Ever since the gifts began to be brought into the House of ADONAI, we have had enough to eat and more than enough, for ADONAI has blessed His people with plenty left over.”

¹¹Then Hezekiah ordered them to prepare storerooms in the House of ADONAI, and they prepared them.¹² They faithfully brought in the offerings and the tithes and the consecrated gifts. Conaniah the Levite was the leader in charge over them and Shimei his brother was next in rank.¹³ Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath and Benaiah were supervisors under Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the leader in charge of the House of God.¹⁴ Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, distributing the offering of ADONAI and the consecrated gifts.¹⁵ Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah faithfully assisted him in the towns of the kohanim, making allocations to their brothers by divisions—to great and little alike,¹⁶ only considering genealogical records, to the males three years old and upward—to all who entered into the House of ADONAI, to perform the daily duties according to their responsibilities and their divisions—¹⁷to the kohanim who were genealogically registered by their ancestral houses, as well as to the Levites 20 years old and upward, according to their duties and their divisions.¹⁸ The genealogical registry included all their little ones, their wives and sons and daughters of the entire assembly. Thus in their faithfulness they consecrated themselves as holy.

¹⁹As for the sons of Aaron, the kohanim, who lived in the fields of the common lands of their towns—in every town—men were designated by name to distribute portions to all the males among the kohanim and to all who were genealogically registered among the Levites.²⁰ Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah. He did what was good, right and true before ADONAI his God.²¹ Every work he undertook in the service of the House of God and in the Torah and the mitzvot to seek his God, he did wholeheartedly and succeeded.

Assyrian's Failed Seige of Jerusalem

¹After these acts of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah. He encamped against the fortified cities, intending to break into them for himself.² When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and intended to wage war against Jerusalem,³ he consulted with his officers and warriors about blocking the waters of the springs outside the city, and they supported him.⁴ Many people assembled and blocked off all the springs and the raging wadi in the land saying, “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?”⁵ Then he took courage and rebuilt the entire wall that had been broken down, raised up the towers, added another outer wall, fortified the Millo in the city of David, and made plenty of weapons and shields.

⁶He also appointed military officers over the people and assembled them before him in the square at the city gate, and encouraged them saying,⁷ “Chazak! Be courageous! Do not be afraid or dismayed by the king of Assyria and the whole horde that is with him—for we have more with us than he has with him! ⁸With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is ADONAI Eloheinu to help us and to fight our battles.” So the people were encouraged by the words of King Hezekiah of Judah.

⁹After this, when King Sennacherib of Assyria, while he and all his forces with him were besieging Lachish, sent his servants to Jerusalem to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying:

¹⁰“Thus says King Sennacherib of Assyria, ‘What are you relying on that you would stay in Jerusalem, under siege?’ ¹¹Is not Hezekiah misleading you, to let you die by famine and thirst, saying, ‘ADONAI Eloheinu will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria?’” ¹²Has not the same Hezekiah removed His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem saying, “You shall worship before one altar and upon it you shall burn incense?”

¹³Do not you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands ever able to deliver their land out of my hand? ¹⁴Who among all the gods of these nations—which my fathers utterly destroyed—could deliver his people from my hand? How then is your God able to deliver you from my hand? ¹⁵So now, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like this. Do not believe him, for no god of any nation or any kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand and from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand!”

¹⁶His servants spoke further against ADONAI Elohim and against His servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷Sennacherib also wrote letters reviling ADONAI, the God of Israel, speaking against Him saying, “Just as the gods of the nations of the lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah shall not deliver His people from my hand.” ¹⁸Then they cried out loudly in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall to terrify and frighten them, in order to capture the city. ¹⁹They spoke against the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth made by human hands.

²⁰Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz prayed about this and cried out to heaven.

²¹Then ADONAI sent an angel who annihilated every mighty warrior, commander and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he withdrew in disgrace to his own land. When he entered the house of his god some of his own children struck him down with the sword. ²²Thus ADONAI delivered Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all, and helped them in every way. ²³Many brought offerings to ADONAI in Jerusalem and valuable gifts to King Hezekiah of Judah. From then on he was highly regarded in the eyes of all the nations.

Hezekiah’s Pride and Humility

²⁴In those days Hezekiah became deathly ill, but he prayed to ADONAI who responded to him and gave him a sign. ²⁵But Hezekiah did not respond according to the favor done to him. His heart became haughty, so wrath came upon him and upon Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride in his heart—both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem—so that the wrath of ADONAI did not fall upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷Now Hezekiah had very abundant riches and honor. He even made treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and for all kinds of valuables, ²⁸and storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine and oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds for the flocks. ²⁹Moreover, he built towns and acquired flocks and herds in abundance, for God had given him very many possessions.

³⁰It was also Hezekiah who stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon and channeled them downward to the west side of the city of David. Hezekiah succeeded in all that he did. ³¹But when the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon were sent to him to inquire about the wonder that had happened in the land, God left him alone to test him, to know all that was in his heart.

Hezekiah's Death and Honor

³²Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ³³So Hezekiah slept with his fathers and they buried him in the upper section of the tombs of the sons of David. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. His son Manasseh became king in his place.

King Manasseh's Transgressions

⁷Then he placed the carved image of the idol that he had made in the House of God—of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, “In this House and in Jerusalem that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My Name forever. ⁸I will never again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for their fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them—all the Torah, the statutes, and the ordinances delivered by the hand of Moses.”

⁹But Manasseh led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray, so that they did more evil than the nations whom ADONAI destroyed before Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁰ADONAI spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention.

Assyrians Sent to Chasten Manasseh

¹¹Therefore, ADONAI brought against them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria, who captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze shackles, and led him to Babylon.

¹²In his distress, he entreated ADONAI his God and greatly humbled himself before the God of his fathers. ¹³When he prayed to Him, He was moved by his entreaty, heard his plea and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that ADONAI, He is God.

¹⁵He also removed the foreign gods and idols from the House of ADONAI, as well as all the altars that he had built on the mount of the House of ADONAI and in Jerusalem and threw them outside the city. ¹⁶He rebuilt the altar of ADONAI and sacrificed on it sacrifices of fellowship and thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve ADONAI the God of Israel. ¹⁷Nevertheless, the people still sacrificed in the high places, but only to ADONAI their God.

¹⁸Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the Name of ADONAI the God of Israel, behold, they are written in the records of the kings of Israel. ¹⁹His prayer also, and how God was moved by his entreaty, all his sin and his unfaithfulness, and the sites on which he built high places and erected the Asherah poles and the carved images before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the records of Hozai. ²⁰Manasseh slept with his fathers and they buried him in his own house. His son Amon became king in his place.

Wicked King Amon Assassinated

²¹Amon was 22 years old when he became king and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. ²²He did what was evil in the sight of ADONAI just as his father Manasseh had done. Amon sacrificed to all the carved images that Manasseh his father had made, and worshipped them. ²³He did not humble himself before ADONAI as his father Manasseh had humbled himself. Instead Amon increased his guilt. ²⁴So his servants conspired against him and assassinated him in his own house. ²⁵Then the people of the land struck down all who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

34

Josiah Restores the Temple

¹Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned 31 years in Jerusalem. ²He did right in the eyes of ADONAI, and walked in the ways of his father David. He did not turn aside to the right or to the left. ³In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek after the God of his father David. In the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, the Asherah poles, and the carved and molten images. ⁴They tore down the altars of the Baal in his presence and chopped down the sun-images that were above them. Also the Asherah poles and the carved and molten images he smashed into pieces, ground into dust, and scattered upon the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. ⁵Then he burned the bones of the priests on their altars—so he purged Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, with their surrounding ruins, ⁷he broke down the altars, the Asherah poles, crushed the carved images into powder, and chopped down all the sun-images throughout all the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

⁸Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, after purging the land and the House, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the House of ADONAI his God. ⁹They came to Hilkiyah the kohen gadol and handed over the silver money that was brought into the House of God, which the Levites, the gatekeepers, had collected from Manasseh, Ephraim and all the remnant of Israel, as well as from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰Then they put it in the hands of the workmen who were in charge of the House of ADONAI. The workmen who were working in the House of ADONAI spent it on repairing and restoring the House. ¹¹They in turn gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone as well as timber—for joining and making beams—for the buildings that the kings of Judah had let fall into ruin. ¹²The men did the work faithfully. Over them were appointed Jahath and Obadiah, Levites from the sons of Merari, along with Zechariah and Meshullam from the sons of Kohath, to supervise, while other Levites—all skilled musicians—¹³were over the burden-bearers and supervised all who worked from task to task. Some of the Levites were also scribes, overseers and gatekeepers.

Torah Scroll Found in the Temple

¹⁴While they were bringing out the silver that had been brought into the House of ADONAI, Hilkiyah the kohen found a Torah scroll of ADONAI given by Moses. ¹⁵Hilkiyah responded by telling Shaphan the scribe, “I have found a scroll of the Torah in the House of ADONAI.” Hilkiyah gave the scroll to Shaphan.

¹⁶Then Shaphan brought the scroll to the king and moreover returned a report to the king, saying, “Your servants are doing everything that was committed to them. ¹⁷They have melted down the silver that was found in the House of ADONAI and handed it over to the overseers and into the hand of the workmen.” ¹⁸Shaphan the scribe also said to the king, “Hilkiyah the kohen has given me a scroll.” Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

¹⁹When the king heard the words of the Torah, he tore his clothes. ²⁰The king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king’s servant, saying, ²¹“Go! Inquire of ADONAI for me and for the remnant in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that has been found. For great is the wrath of ADONAI that will be poured out upon us—because our fathers did not observe the word of ADONAI to do according to all that is written in this scroll.”

Huldah the Prophetess

²²So Hilkiah, and those whom the king commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tokahath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe—now she was living in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter—and spoke to her about this.

²³She said to them, “Thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: ‘Tell the man who sent you to me, ²⁴“Thus says ADONAI, ‘Behold, I am bringing disaster on this place and on its inhabitants—all the curses that are written in the book that they have read before the king of Judah. ²⁵For they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods in order to provoke Me with all the works of their hands. Therefore, My wrath will be poured out upon this place and it will not be quenched.’” ²⁶But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of ADONAI, thus you will say to him, “Thus says ADONAI the God of Israel, ‘Regarding the words which you have heard, ²⁷because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against the inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, tore your clothes, and wept before Me, I have heard you,’ says ADONAI. ²⁸‘Behold, I will gather you to your fathers and you will be buried in your grave in shalom. Your eyes will not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place and upon the inhabitants.’”

So they brought her word back to the king.

²⁹Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰The king went up to the House of ADONAI with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the kohanim, the Levites, and all the people from the oldest to the youngest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the House of ADONAI.

³¹Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before ADONAI—to follow ADONAI and to observe His mitzvot, His regulations and His decrees with all his heart and with all his soul and to obey the words of the covenant written in this book. ³²Moreover, he made all that were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand with him. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. ³³Josiah removed all the abominations from the whole territory of Bnei-Yisrael and made all who were found in Israel to worship ADONAI their God. All his days they did not turn away from following ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

Josiah Keeps Pesach

¹Josiah celebrated Passover unto ADONAI in Jerusalem. They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month.

²He reinstated the kohanim to their duties and encouraged them in the service of the House of ADONAI. ³He said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were consecrated to ADONAI, “Put the holy Ark in the House which Solomon the son of King David of Israel built. Since it is no longer a burden on your shoulders now, serve ADONAI your God and His people Israel. ⁴Prepare yourselves by your ancestral houses in your divisions, according to the writing of King David of Israel and according to the writing of his son Solomon.

⁵Stand in the holy place by the divisions of the ancestral houses, by sons of the people and by divisions of ancestral houses of the Levites. ⁶Now sanctify yourselves, slaughter

the Passover lamb and prepare it for your kinsmen, according to the word of ADONAI by the hand of Moses.”

⁷Josiah provided for all the people who were present, flocks of lambs and goats totaling 30,000, all for the Passover offerings, as well as 3,000 bulls—all from the king’s possessions.

⁸His officials also gave a freewill offering to the people, the kohanim and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah and Jehiel—the administrators of the House of God—donated to the kohanim 2,600 Passover offerings, and 300 bulls. ⁹Likewise, Conaniah along with Shemaiah and Nethaniel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad, leaders of the Levites, provided 5,000 Passover lambs for the Levites and 500 bulls.

¹⁰So the avodah was prepared and the kohanim stood at their posts with the Levites in their divisions according to the king’s command. ¹¹They slaughtered the Passover lambs and while the kohanim sprinkled the blood handed to them, the Levites flayed them. ¹²Then they removed the portions to be burnt to give them to the divisions of ancestral houses of the people to present to ADONAI, as it is written in the book of Moses. They did the same with the bulls. ¹³They roasted the Passover lambs with fire according to the ordinance, then boiled the sacred parts in pots, caldrons and pans, and brought them quickly to all the people. ¹⁴Afterward, they made preparations for themselves and for the kohanim, because the kohanim, the sons of Aaron, were busy sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fat until nightfall. So the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the kohanim, the sons of Aaron.

¹⁶So on that day the entire service of ADONAI was prepared to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of ADONAI according to the command of King Josiah. ¹⁷The Bnei-Yisrael present celebrated the Passover at that time and observed the Feast of Matzot for seven days. ¹⁸Passover had not been celebrated like that in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet, and none of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did with the kohanim, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah.

Death of Josiah

²⁰After all this, when Josiah had set the House in order, King Neco of Egypt came up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates and Josiah went out to engage him. ²¹But Neco sent messengers to him saying, “What is there between me and you, king of Judah? I am not coming against you today but against the house that wars with me and God has ordered me to hurry. Stop for your sake from meddling with God who is with me, so that He will not destroy you!”

²²Josiah, however, would not turn away from him but disguised himself in order to fight him. He did not listen to Neco’s words from the mouth of God and went to fight him in the plain of Megiddo. ²³Archers shot King Josiah and the king said to his servants, “Take me away, for I am seriously wounded.” ²⁴So his servants carried him out of the chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had. They brought him to Jerusalem where he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned over Josiah.

²⁵Now Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah, and to this day all the singers, male and female, commemorated Josiah in their laments. And they made them an ordinance in Israel and behold, they are written in the lamentations. ²⁶Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his deeds of devotion as written in the Torah of ADONAI, ²⁷and his acts, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Defiance Leads to Devastation

¹Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in Jerusalem in his father's place. ²Joahaz^a was 23 years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. ³The king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and imposed a fine on the land of 100 talents of silver and a talent of gold. ⁴The king of Egypt made Eliakim, his brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

⁵Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. He did evil in the sight of ADONAI his God. ⁶Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon marched against him and bound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon. ⁷Nebuchadnezzar also took some of the vessels of the House of ADONAI to Babylon and put them in his temple in Babylon. ⁸Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, the detestable things he did, and all that was found against him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

⁹Jehoiachin was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did evil in the sight of ADONAI. ¹⁰At the turn of the year, King Nebuchadnezzar sent and had him brought to Babylon along with the precious articles from the House of ADONAI and made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. ¹²He did evil in the sight of ADONAI his God and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet who spoke from the mouth of ADONAI. ¹³He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him take an oath by God. He also stiffened his neck and hardened his heart so as not to turn to ADONAI, the God of Israel. ¹⁴Furthermore, all the leading kohanim and the people became very unfaithful, following all the abominations of the nations. They defiled the House of ADONAI, which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ADONAI, the God of their fathers, sent word to them through His messengers again and again, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. ¹⁶But they mocked the messengers of God and despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets until the wrath of ADONAI rose against His people, until there was no remedy. ¹⁷Therefore He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the House of their Temple. He had no pity on young man or virgin, elderly or infirm—He gave them all into his hand. ¹⁸All the vessels of the House of God, large and small, and the treasures of the House of ADONAI, as well as the treasures of the king and his officers were all brought to Babylon. ¹⁹They burned the House of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all the palaces with fire and destroyed everything of value. ²⁰He exiled to Babylon those who had escaped the sword and they became slaves to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia—²¹in fulfillment of the word of ADONAI by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had paid back her Shabbat rests—for as long as it lay desolate—the Shabbat rest was kept till 70 years were complete.

Proclamation of Cyrus of Persia

²²Now in the first year of King Cyrus of Persia—fulfilling the word of ADONAI by the mouth of Jeremiah—ADONAI stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia so that he sent a proclamation throughout all his kingdom and also put it in writing, saying: ²³“Thus says King Cyrus of Persia ‘ADONAI, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build Him a House in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever among you of all His people may go up and may ADONAI his God be with him.’”

Forefathers of Yeshua the Messiah

¹The book of the genealogy^a of Yeshua ha-Mashiach, Ben-David,^b Ben-Avraham:
²Abraham fathered Isaac, Isaac fathered Jacob, Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers, ³Judah fathered Perez and Zerah by Tamar,^c Perez fathered Hezron, Hezron fathered Ram, ⁴Ram fathered Amminadab, Amminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon, ⁵Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab, Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth,^d Obed fathered Jesse, ⁶and Jesse fathered David the king.

David fathered Solomon by the wife of Uriah,^e ⁷Solomon fathered Rehoboam, Rehoboam fathered Abijah, Abijah fathered Asa, ⁸Asa fathered Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat fathered Joram, Joram fathered Uzziah, ⁹Uzziah fathered Jotham, Jotham fathered Ahaz, Ahaz fathered Hezekiah, ¹⁰Hezekiah fathered Manasseh, Manasseh fathered Amon, Amon fathered Josiah, ¹¹and Josiah fathered Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

¹²After the Babylonian exile Jeconiah fathered Shealtiel, Shealtiel fathered Zerubbabel, ¹³Zerubbabel fathered Abiud, Abiud fathered Eliakim, Eliakim fathered Azor, ¹⁴Azor fathered Zadok, Zadok fathered Achim, Achim fathered Eliud, ¹⁵Eliud fathered Eleazar, Eleazar fathered Matthan, Matthan fathered Jacob, ¹⁶and Jacob fathered Joseph the husband of Miriam, from whom was born Yeshua who is called the Messiah.
¹⁷So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, from David until the Babylonian exile are fourteen generations, and from the Babylonian exile until the Messiah are fourteen generations.

The Miraculous Birth of Yeshua

¹⁸Now the birth of Yeshua the Messiah happened this way. When His mother Miriam was engaged to Joseph but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Ruach ha-Kodesh.
¹⁹And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man and not wanting to disgrace her publicly, made up his mind to dismiss her secretly.
²⁰But while he considered these things, behold, an angel of ADONAI appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Miriam as your wife, for the Child conceived in her is from the Ruach ha-Kodesh.
²¹She will give birth to a son; and you shall call His name Yeshua, for He will save His people from their sins."

²²Now all this took place to fulfill what was spoken by ADONAI through the prophet, saying,
²³"Behold, the virgin shall conceive and give birth to a son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," which means "God with us."^f

²⁴When Joseph woke up from his sleep, he did as the angel of ADONAI commanded him and took Miriam as his wife.
²⁵But he did not know her intimately until she had given birth to a Son. And he called His name Yeshua.

2

Wise Men Follow His Star

¹Now after Yeshua was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, magi from the east came to Jerusalem, ²saying, "Where is the One who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him."^g ³When King Herod heard, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

⁴And when he had called together all the ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, he began to inquire of them

^f 1:23. Isa. 7:14; 8:8, 10.

^g 2:2. cf. Isa. 9:5-6(6-7); Jer. 23:5; 30:9.

where the Messiah was to be born.⁵ So they told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet:

⁶“And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
For out of you shall come a ruler who will shepherd My people Israel.”^a

⁷Then Herod secretly called the magi and determined from them the exact time the star had appeared. ⁸And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search carefully for the Child. And when you have found Him, bring word back to me so that I may come and worship Him as well.”

⁹After listening to the king, they went their way. And behold, the star they had seen in the east went on before them, until it came to rest over the place where the Child was. ¹⁰When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great gladness. ¹¹And when they came into the house, they saw the Child with His mother Miriam; and they fell down and worshiped Him. Then, opening their treasures, they presented to Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.^b ¹²And having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their own country by another way.

The Angel of ADONAI Appears

¹³Now when they had gone, behold, an angel of ADONAI appears to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Get up! Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the Child, to kill Him.”^c

¹⁴So he got up, took the Child and His mother during the night, and went to Egypt. ¹⁵He stayed there until Herod’s death. This was to fulfill what was spoken by ADONAI through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called My son.”^d

^a 2:6. Mic. 5:1(2); cf. 2 Sam. 5:2.

^b 2:11. cf. Ps. 72:10-11.

^c 2:13. cf. Exod. 1:16.

^d 2:15. Hos. 11:1.

¹⁶Then when Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he became furious. And he sent and killed all boys in Bethlehem and in all its surrounding area, from two years old and under, according to the time he had determined from the magi. ¹⁷Then was fulfilled what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁸“A voice is heard in Ramah, weeping and loud wailing, Rachel sobbing for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more.”^e

¹⁹But when Herod died, behold, an angel of ADONAI appears in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰saying, “Get up! Take the Child and His mother and go to the land of Israel, for those seeking the Child’s life are dead.”

²¹So he got up, took the Child and His mother, and went to the land of Israel. ²²But hearing that Archelaus was king of Judea in place of his father Herod, he became afraid to go there. Then after being warned in a dream, he withdrew to the region of the Galilee. ²³And he went and lived in a city called Natzeret;^f to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets, that Yeshua shall be called a Natzrati.

John’s Witness to Israel’s Leaders

¹In those days, John the Immerser came proclaiming in the wilderness of Judea, ²“Turn away from your sins, for the kingdom of heaven is near!”^g ³For he is the one Isaiah the prophet spoke about, saying,

“The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
‘Prepare the way of ADONAI, and make His paths straight.’”^h

⁴Now John wore clothing from camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts¹ and wild honey. ⁵Then Jerusalem was going out to him, and all Judea and all the region around the Jordan. ⁶Confessing their sins, they were being immersed by him in the Jordan River.

⁷But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his immersion, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?" ⁸Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance; ⁹and do not think that you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father'! For I tell you that from these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. ¹⁰Already the axe is laid at the root of the trees; therefore every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire!

¹¹"As for me, I immerse you in water for repentance. But the One coming after me is mightier than I am; I am not worthy to carry His sandals. He will immerse you in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and fire. ¹²His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He shall clear His threshing floor and gather His wheat into the barn; but the chaff He shall burn up with inextinguishable fire."^j

The Heavens Open at Yeshua's Mikveh

¹³Then Yeshua came from the Galilee to John, to be immersed by him in the Jordan. ¹⁴But John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I need to be immersed by You, and You are coming to me?"

¹⁵But Yeshua responded, "Let it happen now, for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." So John yielded to Him.

¹⁶After being immersed, Yeshua rose up out of the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Ruach Elohim^k descending like a dove and coming upon Him. ¹⁷And behold, a voice from the heavens said, "This is My Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased!"^l

Overcoming Temptation with God's Word

¹Then Yeshua was led by the Ruach into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ²After He had fasted for forty days and forty nights, He was hungry. ³And when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are Ben-Elohim, tell these stones to become bread."

⁴But He replied, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"^m

⁵Then the devil took Him into the holy city and placed Him on the highest point of the Temple. ⁶"If You are Ben-Elohim," he said, "throw Yourself down. For it is written,

'He shall command His angels concerning you,'ⁿ and 'upon their hands they shall lift you up, so that you may not strike your foot against a stone.'"^o

⁷Yeshua said to him, "Again it is written, 'You shall not put ADONAI your God to the test.'"^p

⁸Again, the devil takes Him to a very high mountain and shows Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me."

¹⁰Then Yeshua says to him, "Go away, satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship ADONAI your God, and Him only shall you serve.'"^q ¹¹Then the devil leaves Him. And behold, angels came and began to take care of Him.

Yeshua Withdraws to Seek God

¹²Now when Yeshua heard that John had been handed over, He withdrew to the Galilee.

¹³Leaving Natzeret, He came and settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali. ¹⁴This was to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁵“Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the nations—¹⁶the people sitting in darkness have seen a great light, and those sitting in the region and shadow of death, on them a light has dawned.”^a ¹⁷From then on, Yeshua began to proclaim, “Turn away from your sins, for the kingdom of heaven is near.”

Raising Up Fishers of Men

¹⁸Now as Yeshua was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon who was called Peter and Andrew his brother. They were casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹And He said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.” ²⁰Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

²¹Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, Jacob the son of Zebedee and John his brother. They were in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and He called them. ²²Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed Him.

²³*Yeshua* was going throughout all the Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and sickness among the people. ²⁴News about Him spread throughout all Syria. And they brought to Him all the sick—those tormented by various diseases and afflictions, those plagued by demons, the epileptics, the paralyzed—and He healed them. ²⁵And large crowds followed Him from the Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

Drash on the Mountain

¹Now when Yeshua saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain. And after He sat down, His disciples came to Him. ²And He opened His mouth and began to teach them, saying,

- ³“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
⁴“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
⁵“Blessed are the meek,
for they shall inherit the earth.
⁶“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.
⁷“Blessed are the merciful, for they shall be shown mercy.
⁸“Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they shall see God.
⁹“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.
¹⁰“Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

¹¹“Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, on account of Me.

¹²Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great! For in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”^b

Called to Be Salt and Light

¹³“You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt should lose its flavor, how shall it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled under foot by men.

¹⁴“You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket. Instead, they put it on a lampstand so it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before men so they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.”

^b 5:12. cf. 2 Chr. 36:16.

Filling the Law to the Fullest

¹⁷“Do not think that I came to abolish the Torah or the Prophets! I did not come to abolish, but to fulfill. ¹⁸Amen, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or serif^c shall ever pass away from the Torah until all things come to pass. ¹⁹Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others the same, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps and teaches them, this one shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the Pharisees and Torah scholars, you shall never enter the kingdom of heaven!

²¹“You have heard it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not murder,^d and whoever commits murder shall be subject to judgment.’ ²²But I tell you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be subject to judgment. And whoever says to his brother, ‘Raca’ shall be subject to the council^e; and whoever says, ‘You fool!’ shall be subject to fiery Gehenna.

²³“Therefore if you are presenting your offering upon the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, ²⁴leave your offering there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.

²⁵“Make friends quickly with your opponent while you are with him on the way. Otherwise, your opponent may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the assistant, and you will be thrown into prison. ²⁶Amen, I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid back the last penny!^f

It is better for you that one part of your body should be destroyed, than that your whole body be thrown into Gehenna.^h ³⁰And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away! It is better for you that one part of your body should be destroyed, than that your whole body go into Gehenna.

³³“Again, you have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but shall carry out your oaths to ADONAI.’^j ³⁴But I tell you, do not swear at all—not by heaven, for it is the throne of God; ³⁵or by the earth, for it is the footstool of His feet;^k or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King.^l ³⁶And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. ³⁷But let your word ‘Yes’ be ‘Yes’ and your ‘No,’ ‘No’—anything more than this is from the evil one.”

Overcoming Evil with Good

³⁸“You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.’^m ³⁹But I tell you, do not resist an evildoer. But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn to him also the other. ⁴⁰And the one wanting to sue you and to take your shirt, let him also have your coat. ⁴¹Whoever forces you to go one mile, go with him two. ⁴²Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵so that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. ⁴⁶For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Even the tax collectors do the same, don't they? ⁴⁷And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than anyone else? Even the pagans do that, don't they? ⁴⁸Therefore be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect."

Righteous Living

¹"Beware of practicing your righteousness before others to be seen by them; otherwise you have no reward from your Father in heaven. ²So whenever you do tzedakah, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, so that they may be glorified by men. Amen, I tell you, they have their reward in full! ³But when you do tzedakah, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴so that your tzedakah may be in secret; and your Father, who sees in secret, shall reward you.

⁵"When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Amen, I tell you, they have their reward in full! ⁶But you, when you pray, go into your inner room; and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, shall reward you. ⁷And when you are praying, do not babble on and on like the pagans; for they think they will be heard because of their many words. ⁸Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

⁹"Therefore, pray in this way:

'Our Father in heaven,
sanctified be Your name.

¹⁰Your kingdom come,
Your will be done

on earth as it is in heaven.

¹¹Give us this day our daily bread.

¹²And forgive us our debts as we also have forgiven our debtors.

¹³And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one."^a

¹⁴"For if you forgive others their transgressions, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ¹⁵But if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your transgressions.

¹⁶"And whenever you fast, do not become sad-faced like the hypocrites, for they neglect their faces to make their fasting evident to men. Amen, I tell you, they have their reward in full! ¹⁷But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, ¹⁸so that your fasting won't be evident to men, but to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.^b

²²"The eye is the lamp of the body. Therefore if your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. ²³But if your eye is bad, your body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

²⁴"No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stick by one and look down on the other. You cannot serve God and money."^d

Overcoming Worry with Trust

²⁵"So I say to you, do not worry about your life—what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food and the body more than clothing?

^a 6:13. Some mss. add: For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

^b 6:16-18. cf. Isa. 58:3-6.

^c 6:19. Lit. act of eating, devouring.

³¹“Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’³²For the pagans eagerly pursue all these things; yet your Father in heaven knows that you need all these. ³³But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. ³⁴Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

7

Measuring Your Measure

¹“Stop judging, so that you may not be judged. ²For with the judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

⁶“Do not give what is holy to dogs or throw your pearls before pigs; otherwise they will trample them under their feet, then turn and rip you to shreds.

⁷“Ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and it shall be opened to you. ⁸For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it shall be opened.

⁹“For what man among you, when his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰Or when he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? ¹¹If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him! ¹²So in all things, do to others what you would want them to do to you—for this is the Torah and the Prophets.

¹³“Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and those who enter through it are many. ¹⁴How narrow is the gate and difficult the way that leads to life, and those who find it are few.”

Judging the Fruit

²¹“Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord!’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. ²²Many will say to Me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, didn’t we prophesy in Your name, and drive out demons in Your name, and perform many miracles in Your name?’ ²³Then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you. Get away from Me, you workers of lawlessness!’”^h words of Mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. ²⁵And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house; and yet it did not fall, for its foundation had been built on the rock. ²⁶Everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. ²⁷And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house; and it fell—and great was its fall.”

²⁸Now when Yeshua had finished these words, the crowds were astounded at His teaching, ²⁹for He was teaching them as one having authority and not as their Torah scholars.

8

Healing Those who Trust

¹When He came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him. ²And a man with tzara'at came to Him and bowed down before Him, saying, “Master, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”

³Yeshua stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing. Be cleansed.” Immediately his tzara'at was cleansed. ⁴And Yeshua said to him, “See that you tell no one; but go show yourself to the kohen and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”^a ⁵Now when Yeshua came into Capernaum, a centurion came begging for help. ⁶“Master,” he said, “my servant is lying at home paralyzed, horribly tormented.”

⁷Yeshua said to him, “I’ll come and heal him.”

⁸But the centurion said, “Master, I’m not worthy to have You come under my roof. But just say the word and my servant will be healed. ⁹For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

¹⁰Now when Yeshua heard this, He marveled and said to those who were following, “Amen, I tell you, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith! ¹¹Moreover, I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and they will recline at table with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. ¹²But the sons of the kingdom will be driven out into the outer darkness; in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

¹³Then Yeshua said to the centurion, “Go. As you have believed, let it be done for you.” And the servant was healed in that same hour.

¹⁴And when Yeshua came into Peter’s house, He saw Peter’s mother-in-law lying down, sick with a fever. ¹⁵Yeshua touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and began to take care of Him.

¹⁶When evening came, the people brought to Him many who were afflicted by demons. He forced out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. ¹⁷So was fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

“He Himself took our sicknesses and carried away our diseases.”^b

Following the Call

¹⁸Now when Yeshua saw a crowd around Him, He gave orders to go to the other side of the sea. ¹⁹Then a Torah scholar came to Him and said, “Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go.”

²⁰Yeshua tells him, “Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.”

²¹Then another of the disciples said, “Master, first let me go and bury my father.”

²²But Yeshua tells him, “Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Master of the Storm

²³As He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him. ²⁴Suddenly a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves. But Yeshua kept on sleeping. ²⁵So they came and woke Him up, saying, “Master, save us! We’re perishing!”

²⁶He said to them, “Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became totally calm.

²⁷The men were amazed, saying, “What kind of person is this? Even the winds and the sea obey Him!”

Freedom from Demons

²⁸When He came to the other side, into the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-plagued men coming from the graveyard^c met Him. They were so violent that no one could pass by that way. ²⁹And they screamed, “What’s between You and us,^d Ben-Elohim? Have You come here to torment us, before the appointed time?”

³⁰Now a large herd of pigs was feeding some distance away from them. ³¹The demons kept begging Him, “If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs.”

³²And He told them, “Go!” So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the cliff into the sea and drowned. ³³The herdsmen ran away, went into the town, and told everything, including what had happened to the demon-plagued men. ³⁴The whole town came out to meet Yeshua. And when they saw him, they begged Him to leave their region.

Authority to Pardon Sins

¹After getting into a boat, Yeshua crossed over and came to His own town. ²Just then, some people brought to Him a paralyzed man lying on a cot. And seeing their faith, Yeshua said to the paralyzed man, “Take courage, son! Your sins are forgiven.”

^c 8:28. Lit. tombs.

^d 8:29. A Hebrew idiom, lit. What to us and you?

³Then some of the Torah scholars said among themselves, “This fellow blasphemes!”

⁴And knowing their thoughts, Yeshua said, “Why are you entertaining evil in your hearts?

⁵For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? ⁶But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to pardon sins...” Then He tells the paralyzed man, “Get up, take your cot and go home.” ⁷And he got up and went home. ⁸When the crowd saw it, they were afraid and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

A Physician for Sinners

⁹As Yeshua was passing by from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector’s booth. He said to him, “Follow Me.” And he got up and followed Him.

¹⁰Now it happened that when Yeshua was reclining at the table in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Yeshua and His disciples. ¹¹When the Pharisees saw this, they said to His disciples, “Why does this Teacher of yours eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

¹²But when He heard this, Yeshua said, “Those who are healthy have no need for a doctor, but those who are sick do. ¹³Now go and learn what this means: ‘Mercy I desire, and not sacrifice.’^e For I didn’t come to call the righteous, but the sinful.”

Teaching New Ways

¹⁴Then John’s disciples came to Him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?”^f

¹⁵And Yeshua said to them, “The guests of the bridegroom cannot mourn while the bridegroom is with them, can they? But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

¹⁶“And no one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch pulls away from the garment and a worse tear happens. ¹⁷Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise the skins burst, and the wine spills out and the skins are ruined. But they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved.”

Compassion in the Shepherd's Touch

¹⁸Just as He was saying these things to them, a synagogue leader came and began to bow before Him, saying, “My daughter has just died, but come lay Your hand on her and she will live.” ¹⁹And Yeshua got up and began to follow him, with His disciples. .

²⁰Just then a woman, losing blood for twelve years,^a came from behind and touched the tzitzit of His garment. ²¹For she kept saying to herself, “If only I touch His garment, I will be healed.”

²²But then Yeshua turned and saw her. “Take heart, daughter,” He said, “your faith has made you well.” That very hour the woman was healed.

²³When Yeshua came into the synagogue leader's house and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd wailing, ²⁴He said, “Go away, for the girl isn't dead, but sleeping.” And they began jeering at Him. ²⁵But when the crowd had been cleared out, He went in and took her hand, and the girl got up. ²⁶And news of this spread all around that region.

²⁷As Yeshua went on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out, “Ben-David, have mercy on us!”

²⁸When He went into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Yeshua said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?”

“Yes, Master,” they said to Him.

²⁹Then He touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith, let it be done for you.” ³⁰And their eyes were opened. And Yeshua warned them sternly, “See that no one knows.” ³¹But they went out and spread the news about Him all around that region.

³²As they were going out, a mute man plagued by a demon was brought to Him.

³³After the demon was driven out, the mute

man started speaking. The crowds were astounded, saying, “Never has anything like this been seen in Israel!” ³⁴But the Pharisees were saying, “By the prince of demons He drives out demons.”

³⁵Now Yeshua was going around all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and sickness. ³⁶When He saw the crowds, He felt compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.^b ³⁷Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. ³⁸Therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest that He may send out workers into His harvest field.”

Instructions to the Twelve

¹Yeshua summoned His twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, so they could drive them out and heal every kind of disease and sickness. ²Now these are the names of the twelve emissaries: first, Simon, called Peter, and his brother Andrew; Jacob the son of Zebedee and John his brother; ³Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; Jacob, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ⁴Simon the Zealot,^c and Judah the man from Kriot,^d the one who also betrayed Him.

⁵Yeshua sent out these twelve and ordered them, “Do not go to the Gentiles, and do not enter into any Samaritan town. ⁶But go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷As you go, proclaim, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near!’ ⁸Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those with tzara'at, drive out demons. Freely you received, freely give. ⁹Do not get gold or silver or copper for your money belts,

But if it's not worthy, let your shalom return to you. ¹⁴And whoever will not receive you or listen to your words, as you leave that house or that town, shake the dust off your feet. ¹⁵Amen, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah^f on the Day of Judgment than for that town.

¹⁶“Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. ¹⁷But beware of men, for they will hand you over to the courts and flog^g you in their synagogues. ¹⁸You will be brought before governors and kings because of Me, as a witness to them and to the Gentiles. ¹⁹But when they hand you over, do not worry about how or what you should say, for it shall be given to you in that hour what you should say. ²⁰For it is not you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

²¹“Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against their parents and have them put to death. ²²And you will be hated by all because of My name, but the one who endures to the end shall be saved. ²³Whenever they persecute you in one city, flee to the next. Signs and Wonders Bear Witness

¹When Yeshua had finished instructing His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and preach in their towns. ²Now when John heard in prison about the works of the Messiah, he sent word through his disciples ³and said to Yeshua, “Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?”

⁴*Yeshua* replied, “Go report to John what you hear and see: ⁵the blind see and the lame walk, those with tzara’at are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised and the poor have good news proclaimed to them. ⁶Blessed is the one who is not led to stumble because of Me.”^a

A Prophet Without Honor

⁷Now as they were leaving, Yeshua began to talk to the crowd concerning John. “What did you go out to the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? ⁸No? So what did you go out to see? A man dressed in finery? Look, those who wear finery are in the palaces of kings! ⁹Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, even more than a prophet. ¹⁰This is the one about whom it is written,

‘Behold, I send My messenger
before You,
who will prepare Your way before You.’^b

¹¹“Amen, I tell you, among those born of women, none has arisen greater than John the Immerser. Yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. ¹²From the days of John the Immerser until now, the kingdom of heaven is treated with violence, and the violent grasp hold of it. ¹³For all the prophets and the Torah prophesied until the time of John. ¹⁴And if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come. ¹⁵He who has ears, let him hear!

¹⁶“But to what shall I compare this generation? It’s like children sitting in the market-places who call to one other, saying,

¹⁷“We played the flute for you, but you did not dance.
We wailed,
but you did not mourn.”

²⁰Then Yeshua began to denounce the towns where most of His miracles had happened, because they did not turn from their sins. ²¹“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon,^d they would have turned long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²²Nevertheless I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the Day of Judgment than for you. ²³And you, Capernaum? Will you be lifted up to heaven? No, you will go down to Sheol! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained to this day. ²⁴Nevertheless I tell you that it will be more bearable for the land of Sodom on the Day of Judgment than for you.”

Yeshua Teaches the Ways of His Father

²⁵At that time Yeshua said in response, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and discerning and revealed them to infants. ²⁶Yes, Father, for this way was pleasing to You.

²⁷“All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son^e and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him. ²⁸Come to Me, all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and ‘you will find rest for your souls.’^f ³⁰For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.”

The Lord of Shabbat

¹At that time Yeshua went through the grain fields on Shabbat. His disciples became hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. ²But when the Pharisees saw this, they said to Him, “Look, Your disciples are doing what is not permitted on Shabbat.”

³But He said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did when he became hungry, and those with him? ⁴How he entered into the house of God, and they ate the showbread, which was not permitted for him to eat, nor for those with him, but only for the kohanim?^g ⁵Or haven’t you read in the Torah that on Shabbat the kohanim in the Temple break Shabbat and yet are innocent? ⁶But I tell you that something greater than the Temple is here. ⁷If you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice,’^h you wouldn’t have condemned the innocent. ⁸For the Son of Man is Lord of Shabbat.”

⁹Leaving from there, He went into their synagogue. ¹⁰A man with a withered hand was there. And so that they might accuse Him, they questioned Yeshua, saying, “Is it permitted to heal on Shabbat?”

¹¹He said to them, “What man among you will not grab his sheep and lift it out, if it falls into a pit on Shabbat? ¹²How much more valuable then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is permitted to do good on Shabbat.”

¹³Then He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out and it was restored, as healthy as the other. ¹⁴But the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

God’s Chosen Servant Brings Hope

¹⁵Knowing this, Yeshua went away from there. And large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all. ¹⁶And He sternly warned them not to make Him known. ¹⁷This was to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁸“Here is My servant whom I chose, the One I love, in whom My soul takes delight.

I will put My Ruach upon Him, and He shall proclaim justice to the nations.

¹⁹He will not quarrel or cry out, nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.

²⁰A crushed reed He will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out, until He brings forth justice to victory.

²¹And in His name the nations shall hope.”ⁱ

Whose Power Will Rule?

²²Then a demon-plagued man, who was blind and mute, was brought to Yeshua; and He healed him, so that he spoke and saw. ²³All the crowds were astounded and saying, “This can’t be Ben-David, can it?”

²⁴But hearing this, the Pharisees said, “This fellow drives out demons only by beelzebul, the ruler of demons.”

²⁵Knowing their thoughts, Yeshua said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is destroyed, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶If satan drives out satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand? ²⁷And if I drive out demons by beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason, they will be your judges. ²⁸But if I drive out demons by the Ruach Elohim, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²⁹Or how can one enter a strong man’s house and carry off his property, unless he first ties up the strong man? Then ⁱ 12:18-21. Isa. 42:1-4.

he will thoroughly plunder his house. ³⁰He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

³¹“For this reason I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but blasphemy against the Ruach will not be forgiven. ³²Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Ruach ha-Kodesh will not be forgiven, neither in this age nor in the one to come.”

³³“Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree rotten and its fruit rotten; for the tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴You brood of vipers! How can you who are evil say anything good? For from the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵The good man from his good treasury brings forth good, and the evil man from his evil treasury brings forth evil. ³⁶But I tell you that on the Day of Judgment, men will give account for every careless word they speak. ³⁷For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

A Sign Greater than Jonah

³⁸Then some of the Torah scholars and Pharisees answered Him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.”

³⁹But Yeshua replied to them, “An evil and adulterous generation clamors for a sign, yet no sign shall be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. ⁴⁰For just as Jonah was in the belly of the great fish for three days and three nights,^a so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights. ⁴¹The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah. And behold, something greater than Jonah is here. ⁴²The Queen of the South^b will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. And behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

^a 12:40. Jonah 2:1(1:17).

⁴³“Now when an unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places looking for rest and doesn’t find it. ⁴⁴Then it says, ‘I’ll go back home where I came from.’ And when it comes, it finds the house vacant, swept clean, and put in order. ⁴⁵Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there. And that man’s last condition becomes worse than the first. So also will it be for this evil generation.”

Who Is Yeshua’s Family?

⁴⁶While Yeshua was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and brothers were standing outside, trying to speak to Him. ⁴⁷Someone said to Him, “Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, trying to speak to You.”^c

⁴⁸But to the one telling Him this, Yeshua responded, “Who is My mother? And who are My brothers?” ⁴⁹Stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers. ⁵⁰For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven, he is My brother and sister and mother.”

Simple Stories, Profound Truths

¹On that day after Yeshua left the house, He was sitting by the sea. ²And large crowds gathered around Him; so He got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood on the shore. ³And He told them many things in parables, saying, “Behold, a sower went out to spread some seed. ⁴As he was scattering the seed, some seeds fell by the road; and the birds came and ate them up. ⁵Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they didn’t have much soil. They sprang up immediately, because the soil wasn’t deep. ⁶But when the sun came up, they were scorched; and because they had no roots, they withered away. ⁷Other seeds fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew and choked them out. ⁸But others fell on good soil and were producing fruit. They yielded a crop—some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. ⁹He who has ears, ^dlet him hear.”

^c 12:47. Some mss. omit this verse.

¹⁰Then the disciples came to Him and said, “Why do You speak to them in parables?”

¹¹And He replied to them, “To you has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.

¹²For whoever has, to him more will be given and he will have plenty. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. ¹³For this reason I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see,

and hearing they do not hear nor do they understand.

¹⁴”And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,

‘You will keep on hearing
but will never understand;
you will keep looking, but will never see.
¹⁵For the heart of this people has become dull,

their ears can barely hear,
and they have shut their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes,

hear with their ears,
and understand with their hearts.

Then they would turn back,
and I would heal them.”^e

¹⁶“But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. ¹⁷Amen, I tell you, many a prophet and tzaddik longed to see what you are seeing and did not see, and to hear what you are hearing and did not hear.”

Parable of the Sower Explained

¹⁸“You then, hear the parable of the sower.

^d 13:9, 43. Some mss. add to hear.

^e 13:14-15. Isa. 6:9-10.

¹⁹When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and doesn’t understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the one having been sown along the road.

²⁰“The one sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy. ²¹Yet he has no root himself but lasts only a short while; and when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he falls away.

²³“Now the one sown on the good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands. He indeed bears fruit, yielding a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty times what was sown.”

Yeshua Tells More Parables

²⁴He presented to them another parable, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. ²⁵But while the men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away. ²⁶Now when the stalk sprouted and produced grain, then the weeds also appeared.

²⁷So the slaves of the landowner came and said to him, ‘Master, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Then where did the weeds come from?’ ²⁸But he replied, ‘An enemy did this.’ Now the slaves say to him, ‘Do you want us, then, to go out and gather them up?’ ²⁹But he says, ‘No, for while you are gathering up the weeds, you may uproot the wheat with them.

³⁰Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time, I will tell the reapers, “First, gather up the weeds and tie them in bundles to burn them up; but gather the wheat into my barn.””

³¹He presented to them another parable, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. ³²It’s the smallest of all seeds; yet when it’s full grown, it’s greater than the other herbs. It becomes like a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches.”³³

³³He told them another parable, “The kingdom of heaven is like hametz, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened.”

³⁴All these things Yeshua spoke to the crowds in parables. And apart from a parable, He wasn’t speaking to them, ³⁵in order to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet, saying,

“I will open My mouth in parables,
I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world.”^b

³⁶Then He sent the crowds away and went into the house. His disciples came to Him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.”

³⁷He answered, “The one sowing the good seed is the Son of Man, ³⁸and the field is the world. And the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the weeds are the sons of the evil one. ³⁹The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. ⁴⁰Therefore just as the weeds are gathered up and burned with fire, so shall it be at the end of the age. ⁴¹The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all stumbling blocks^c and those who practice lawlessness. ⁴²They will throw them into the fiery furnace^d; in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. ⁴³Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun^e in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear!

⁴⁷“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea, gathering things of every kind. ⁴⁸When it was filled, they pulled it ashore; and they sat down and gathered up the good into containers, but threw the bad away. ⁴⁹So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth and separate the wicked from among the righteous ⁵⁰and throw them into the fiery furnace;^f in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

⁵¹“Have you understood all these things?” They said to Him, “Yes.”

⁵²Then He said to them, “Therefore every Torah scholar disciplined for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure both new things and old.”

Unbelief in the Hometown Synagogue

⁵³Now when Yeshua had finished these parables, He left that place. ⁵⁴Coming into His hometown, He began to teach them in their synagogue so that they were amazed. “Where did this fellow get this wisdom and these mighty works?” they said. ⁵⁵“Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t His mother called Miriam, and His brothers Jacob and Joseph and Simon and Judah?^g ⁵⁶And His sisters, aren’t they all with us? So where does He get all these things?”^h ⁵⁷And they took offense at Him.

But Yeshua said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own house.”⁵⁸ And He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

Yeshua’s Cousin Beheaded

¹At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Yeshua. ²He said to his servants, “This is John the Immerser—he has risen from the dead! Because of this, these powers are at work in Him.” ³For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, the wife of his brother

Philip, ⁴because John had been telling him, “It is not permitted for you to have her.”⁸⁵Although Herod wanted to kill John, he feared the crowd because they considered John a prophet.

⁶But when Herod’s birthday celebration came, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod, ⁷so much that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. ⁸Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me the head of John the Immerser, here on a platter!” ⁹The king became sorrowful; but because of his oaths and those reclining with him, he commanded it to be given. ¹⁰And he sent and had John beheaded in the prison. ¹¹His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. ¹²John’s disciples came forth and took the body and buried it. Then they went and reported to Yeshua.

Feeding Hungry Followers

¹³Now when Yeshua heard this, He went away from there privately by boat to an isolated place. But when the crowds heard, they followed Him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴As Yeshua came ashore, He saw a large crowd and felt compassion for them and healed their sick. ¹⁵When it became evening, the disciples came to Him, saying, “This place is isolated, and the hour is already late. Send the crowds away so they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

¹⁶But Yeshua said to them, “They don’t need to leave—you give them something to eat.”

¹⁷“We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish,” they said to Him.

¹⁸“Bring them here to Me,” He said.

¹⁹Ordering the crowd to recline on the grass, He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking up to heaven, He offered the bracha. After breaking the loaves, He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of broken pieces left over. ²¹Now those eating were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

¹⁷ 14:4. cf. Lev. 18:16; 20:21.

Testing Peter’s Faith to Walk on Water

²²Right away, Yeshua made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away. ²³After He had sent the crowds away, He went up on the hillside by Himself to pray. And when evening came, He was there alone. ²⁴But the boat was already a long way^h from land, tossed around by the waves, for the wind was against it. ²⁵Now in the fourth watchⁱ of the night, Yeshua came to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶But when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It’s a ghost!” And they cried out with fear.

²⁷But immediately, Yeshua spoke to them, saying, “Take courage! I am. Don’t be afraid.”

²⁸Answering, Peter said to Him, “Master, if it’s You, command me to come to You on the water.”

²⁹And He said, “Come!”

And Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water to go to Yeshua. ³⁰But seeing the wind, he became terrified. And beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, “Master, save me!”

³¹Immediately Yeshua reached out His hand and grabbed him. And He said to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?”

³²When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³And those in the boat worshiped Him, saying, “You really are Ben-Elohim!”^j

³⁴After they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. ³⁵And when the men of that place recognized Yeshua, they sent word into all the surrounding region. And they brought to Him all those who were in bad shape³⁶ and kept begging Him that they might just touch the tzitzit of His garment—and all who touched it were cured.

³And answering, He said to them, “Why do you also transgress the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother’^a and ‘He who speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death.’^b ⁵But you say, ‘Whoever tells his father or mother, “Whatever you might have gained from me is a gift to God,”^c he need not honor his father.’ On account of your tradition, you made void the word of God. ⁷Hypocrites! Rightly did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying,

⁸“This people honors Me
with their lips,
but their heart is far from Me.

⁹And in vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”^d

¹⁰Then Yeshua called the crowd and said to them, “Hear and understand. ¹¹It’s not what goes into the mouth that makes the man unholy; but what comes out of the mouth, this makes the man unholy.”^e

¹²Then the disciples came and said to Him, “Do You know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard this saying?”

¹³But He replied, “Every plant that My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. ¹⁴Leave them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit.”

¹⁵Then Peter answered and said to Him, “Explain this parable to us.”

¹⁶“Are you also still lacking understanding?” Yeshua said. ¹⁷“Don’t you grasp that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and then is ejected into the sewer? ¹⁸But the things that proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and those things make the man unholy. ¹⁹For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, and slander.^f ²⁰These are the things that make the man unholy; but to eat with unwashed hands does not make the man unholy.”

A Reward for a Humble Woman

²¹Now Yeshua left from there and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon. ²²And behold, a Canaanite woman from that district came out and started shouting, “Have mercy on me, O Master, Ben-David! My daughter is severely tormented by a demon.”

²³But He did not answer her a word. And when His disciples came, they were urging Him, saying, “Send her away, because she keeps shouting at us.”

²⁴But He responded, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

²⁵So she came and got down on her knees before Him, saying, “Master, help me!”

²⁶And answering, He said, “It’s not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

²⁷But she said, “Yes, Master, but even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.”

²⁸Then answering, Yeshua said to her, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed in that very hour.

²⁹After Yeshua left there, He went along the Sea of Galilee. Then He went up on a mountainside and was sitting there. ³⁰And large crowds came to Him, bringing with them the lame, blind, disabled, mute, and many others. And they laid them at His feet, and He healed them. ³¹So the crowd marveled when they saw the mute speaking, the disabled made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing.^g And they praised the God of Israel.

Feeding More Hungry Followers

³²*Yeshua* called His disciples and said, “I have compassion for the crowd, because they've stayed with Me for three days now and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry, because they might pass out on the way."

³³The disciples said to Him, "Where in this wasteland is enough bread to satisfy such a large crowd?"

³⁴Yeshua said to them, "How many loaves do you have?"

"Seven," they said, "and a few small fish."

³⁵After directing the crowd to recline on the ground, ³⁶He took the seven loaves and the fish; and after giving thanks, He broke them. And He began giving them to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. ³⁷And they all ate and were satisfied. And they picked up the broken pieces left over—seven baskets full. ³⁸And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. ³⁹And after sending away the crowds, Yeshua got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

Religious Leaders Demand Signs

¹Now the Pharisees and Sadducees came up, and testing Yeshua, they asked Him to show them a sign from heaven. ²But He replied to them, "When evening comes, you say, 'Fair weather coming, for the sky is red,' ³and in the morning, 'Stormy weather today, for the sky is red and gloomy.' You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times! ⁴An evil and adulterous generation clamors for a sign, yet no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah."^h And leaving them behind, He went away.

⁵Now when the disciples came to the other side of the sea, they had forgotten to take bread. ⁶"Watch out," Yeshua said to them, "and beware of the hametz of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

⁷And they began to discuss among themselves, saying, "We didn't bring any bread."

⁸But knowing this, Yeshua said, "O you of ^h 16:4. cf. Jonah 2:1(1:17).

little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves that you have no bread? ⁹You still don't get it? Don't you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets of leftovers you gathered? ¹⁰Or how about the seven loaves for the four thousand and all the baskets of leftovers you gathered? ¹¹How is it that you don't understand that I wasn't talking to you about bread? Now beware of the hametz of the Pharisees and Sadducees!" ¹²Then they understood that He wasn't talking about the hametz in the bread, but about the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

The Father Reveals His Son

¹³When Yeshua came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

¹⁴They answered, "Some say John the Immerser, others say Elijah, and still others say Jeremiah or one of the other prophets."

¹⁵He said, "But who do you say I am?"

¹⁶Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

¹⁷Yeshua said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven! ¹⁸And I also tell you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My community^j; and the gates of Sheol will not overpower it. ¹⁹I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you forbid on earth will have been forbidden in heaven and what you permit on earth will have been permitted in heaven."

²⁰Then He ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that He was the Messiah.

First Prediction: Death & Resurrection

²¹From that time on, Yeshua began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and be killed, and be raised on the third day.

²²Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "Never, Master! This must never happen to You!"

²³But He turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but the things of men.”

²⁴Then Yeshua said to His disciples, “If anyone wants to follow after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. ²⁵For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. ²⁶For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world but forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? ²⁷For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then ‘He will repay everyone according to his deeds.’^a ²⁸Amen, I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.”

17

Two Witnesses and a Voice from Heaven

¹After six days, Yeshua takes with Him Peter and Jacob and John his brother, and brings them up a high mountain by themselves. ²Now He was transfigured before them; His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. ³And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Yeshua. ⁴Peter responded to Yeshua, “Master, it’s good for us to be here! If You wish, I will make three sukkot here—one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”^b

⁵While He was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them; and behold, a voice from out of the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased. Listen to Him!”^c

⁶When the disciples heard this, they fell face down, terrified. ⁷But Yeshua came and touched them. “Get up,” He said. “Stop being afraid.” ⁸And lifting their eyes, they saw no one except Yeshua alone.

^a 16:27. Prov. 24:12; cf. Ps. 62:13(12); Dan. 12:2.

^b 17:4. cf. Exod. 40:34.

^c 17:5. cf. Ps. 2:7; Prov. 30:4; Isa. 9:5(6); Deut. 18:15.

⁹As they were coming down from the mountain, Yeshua commanded them, saying, “Do not tell anyone about the vision until the Son of Man is raised from the dead.”

¹⁰The disciples questioned Him, saying, “Why then do the Torah scholars say that Elijah must come first?”

¹¹Yeshua replied, “Indeed, Elijah is coming and will restore all things.^d ¹²I tell you that Elijah already came; and they didn’t recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted. In the same way, the Son of Man is about to suffer at their hands.”¹³ Then the disciples understood that He was speaking to them about John the Immerser.

See What Faith Can Do

¹⁴When they came to the crowd, a man came to Yeshua, falling on his knees before Him and saying, ¹⁵“Master, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and suffers badly. For he often falls into the fire and often into the water. ¹⁶I brought him to Your disciples, but they couldn’t heal him.”

¹⁷And answering, Yeshua said, “O faithless and twisted generation!^e How long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me.”¹⁸ Yeshua rebuked the demon and it came out of him, and the boy was healed from that very hour.

¹⁹Then the disciples came to Yeshua in private and said, “Why couldn’t we drive it out?”

²⁰And He said to them, “Because you trust so little. Amen, I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.”⁽²¹⁾^f

Second Prediction: Death and Resurrection

²²Now while they were gathering in the Galilee, Yeshua said to them, “The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men;

^d 17:10-11. cf. Mal. 3:23(4:5).

^e 17:17. cf. Deut. 32:5.

^f 17:21. Most manuscripts omit verse 21: But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.

²³and they will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised.” And the disciples became greatly distressed.

²⁴When they came to Capernaum, the collectors of the Temple tax came to Peter and said, “Your teacher pays the Temple tax,^g doesn’t He?”

²⁵“Yes,” Peter said.

Now when Peter came into the house, Yeshua spoke to him first, saying, “What do you think, Simon? The kings of the earth, from whom do they collect tolls or tax? From their sons or from strangers?”

²⁶After Peter said, “From strangers,” Yeshua said to him, “Then the sons are free.

²⁷But so that we do not offend them, go to the sea and throw out a hook, and take the first fish that comes up. And when you open its mouth, you’ll find a coin.^h Take that, and give it to them, for Me and you.”

18

Childlike Humility

¹At that hour the disciples came to Yeshua, saying, “Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

²And He called a child to Himself, set him in the midst of them, ³and said, “Amen, I tell you, unless you turn and become like children, you shall never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴Whoever then shall humble himself like this child, this one is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵And whoever welcomes one such child in My name, welcomes Me.

⁶“But whoever causes one of these little ones who trust in Me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone hung around his neck and to be sunk in the depth of the sea! ⁷Woe to the world because of snares! For snares must come, but woe to that man through whom the snare comes!

⁸“And if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It’s better for you to enter into life crippled or lame than, having two hands or two feet, to be thrown into fiery Gehenna. ⁹If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. It’s better for you to enter into life with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into fiery Gehenna.

Parable of the Lost Sheep

¹⁰“See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven continually see the face of My Father in heaven.⁽¹¹⁾ⁱ

¹²“What do you think? If a certain man has a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, won’t he leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go looking for the one that is straying? ¹³And if he finds it, amen I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that didn’t stray. ¹⁴Even so, it’s not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.”

Restoring a Lost Brother

¹⁵“Now if your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault while you’re with him alone. If he listens to you, you have won your brother. ¹⁶But if he does not listen, take with you one or two more, so that ‘by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may stand.’^j ¹⁷But if he refuses to listen to them, tell it to Messiah’s community. And if he refuses to listen even to Messiah’s community, let him be to you as a pagan and a tax collector.

¹⁸“Amen, I tell you, whatever you forbid on earth will have been forbidden in heaven and what you permit on earth will have been permitted in heaven. ¹⁹Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father in heaven. ²⁰For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in their midst.”

¹¹ 18:11. Some manuscripts add verse 11: For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost; cf. Lk. 19:10.

^j 18:16. Deut. 19:15.

Lessons about Forgiveness

²¹Then Peter came to Him and said, “Master, how often shall I forgive my brother when he sins against me? Up to seven times?”

²²Yeshua said to him, “No, not up to seven times, I tell you, but seventy times seven.^a ²³Therefore, the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves. ²⁴When he had begun to settle up, a man was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.^b ²⁵But since he didn’t have the money to repay, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. ²⁶Then the slave fell on his knees and begged him, saying, ‘Be patient with me, and I’ll repay you everything.’ ²⁷And the master of that slave, filled with compassion, released him and forgave him the debt.

²⁹“So his fellow slave fell down and kept begging him, saying, ‘Be patient with me, and I’ll pay you back.’ ³⁰Yet he was unwilling. Instead, he went off and threw the man into prison until he paid back all he owed.

³¹“So when his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply distressed. They went to their master and reported in detail all that had happened. ³²Then summoning the first slave, his master said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave all that debt because you pleaded with me. ³³Wasn’t it necessary for you also to show mercy to your fellow slave, just as I showed mercy to you?’ ³⁴Enraged, the master handed him over to the torturers until he paid back all he owed.

³⁵“So also My heavenly Father will do to you, unless each of you, from your hearts, forgives his brother.”

^a 18:22. Lit. seventy-seven; cf. Gen. 4:24.

^b 18:24. One talent was worth 6000 denarii, or about 16 years’ wages.

19

Marriage and Covenant Faithfulness

¹Now when Yeshua had finished these words, He moved on from the Galilee and entered the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. ²Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there. ³Pharisees came up to Yeshua, testing Him and saying, “Is it permitted for a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?”

⁴“Haven’t you read?” He answered. “He who created them from the beginning ‘made them male and female’^c and said, ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’^d ⁶So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no man separate.”

⁷They said to Him, “Why then did Moses command to ‘give her a certificate of divorce and put her away?’^e

⁸Yeshua said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart Moses permitted you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. ⁹Now I tell you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery.”^f

¹⁰The disciples said to Him, “If that’s the case for a man and his wife, it’s better not to marry!”

¹¹But He said to them, “Not everyone can accept this saying—only those to whom it has been given. ¹²For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother’s womb; and there are eunuchs who were made that way by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who can accept this, let him accept it.”

Receiving the Kingdom of Heaven

¹³Then little children were brought to Yeshua so that He might lay hands upon them and pray. Then the disciples rebuked those who brought them.^g ¹⁴But Yeshua said, “Let the little children come to Me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.” ¹⁵After laying His hands upon them, He went on from there.

¹⁶Now behold, one came to Him and said, “Teacher, what good shall I do to have eternal life?”

¹⁷“Why do you ask Me about what is good?” Yeshua said to him. “There is only One who is good; but if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.”

¹⁸“Which ones?” he said.

Yeshua said, “Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, ¹⁹honor your father and mother, and ‘love your neighbor as yourself.’”^h

²⁰“All these I’ve kept,” the young man said to Him. “What do I still lack?”

²¹Yeshua said to him, “If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you own, and give to the poor; and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.” ²²But when the young man heard this statement, he went away grieving, for he had much property.

²³Then Yeshua said to His disciples, “Amen, I tell you, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. ²⁴Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁵When the disciples heard this, they were utterly astonished and said, “Then who can be saved?”

²⁶And looking, Yeshua said to them, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”ⁱ ²⁷Then Peter said to Him, “Look, we’ve left everything to follow You! So what will we have?”

²⁸And Yeshua said to them, “Amen, I tell you, when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne in the new world,^j you who have followed Me shall also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or property, for My name’s sake, will receive a hundred times as much, and will inherit eternal life. ³⁰But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

Parable of the Day Laborers

¹“For the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household, who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. ²Now when he had agreed with the workers for a denarius per day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing in the marketplace, idle. ⁴And to them he said, ‘You go into the vineyard too, and I’ll give you whatever is right.’ ⁵So they went. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour and did the same. ⁶And about the eleventh hour, he went out and found others standing around. And he said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle the whole day?’

⁷“Because no one hired us,’ they said to him.

“He said to them, ‘You go into the vineyard, too.’

⁸“Now when evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.’ ⁹And those who had come about the eleventh hour each received a denarius. ¹⁰And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; yet they too received a denarius.

¹¹“But when they received it, they began to grumble against the master of the house, ¹²saying, ‘These last guys did one hour, and you've made them equal to us, who bore the burden and scorching heat of the day!

¹³“But answering, he said to one of them, ‘Friend, I’m doing you no wrong. Didn’t you agree with me on a denarius? ¹⁴Take what is yours and go. But I want to give this last guy the same as you. ¹⁵Am I not permitted to do what I want with what belongs to me? Or is your eye evil because I am good?’

¹⁶“So the last will be first, and the first last.”

Third Prediction: Death and Resurrection

¹⁷Now as Yeshua was going up to Jerusalem, He took the Twelve aside privately; and on the way he told them, ¹⁸“Look, we’re going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the ruling kohanim and Torah scholars. They will condemn Him to death ¹⁹and hand Him over to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify. Yet on the third day, He will be raised up.”^a

Leading by Serving

²⁰Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came with her sons to Yeshua, and she was kneeling down and asking something from Him.

²¹“What do you want?” He said to her.

She said to Him, “Declare that these two sons of mine might sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your kingdom.”

²²But Yeshua replied, “You don’t know what you’re asking! Are you able to drink the cup I am about to drink?”

“We are able,” they say to Him.

²³He said to them, “You shall indeed drink My cup. But to sit on My right and left, this isn’t Mine to grant. Rather, it’s for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father.”

²⁴Now when the ten heard, they became indignant with the two brothers. ²⁵But Yeshua called them over and said, “You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones play the tyrant over them. ²⁶It shall not be this way among you.

But whoever wants to be great among you shall be your servant, ²⁷and whoever wants to be first among you shall be your slave—²⁸just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

What Do You Want Me to Do for You?

²⁹Now as they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. ³⁰And here two blind men sitting by the roadside, when they heard that Yeshua was passing by, cried out, saying, “Have mercy on us, O Master, Ben-David!”^b ³¹The crowd warned them to be quiet, but they cried out all the more, saying, “Have mercy on us, O Master, Ben-David!”^b

³²Yeshua stopped and called out to them. “What do you want Me to do for you?” He said.

³³They said to Him, “Master, let our eyes be opened!”^c ³⁴Moved with compassion, Yeshua touched their eyes. Instantly they regained their sight and followed Him.^c

Baruch Ha-Ba! Blessed Is He Who Comes!

¹Now as they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Yeshua sent two disciples, ²saying to them, “Go into the village before you. Right away, you’ll find a donkey tied up and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to Me. ³If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Master needs them.’ And right away he will send them.”

⁴This happened to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet, saying,

⁵“Say to the daughter of Zion, ‘See, your King is coming to you,

humble and sitting on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey.”^d

⁶The disciples went and did as Yeshua had directed them. ⁷They brought the donkey and colt and put their clothing on them, and He sat on the clothing. ⁸Most of the crowd spread their clothing on the road, and others began cutting branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. ⁹The crowds going before Him and those following kept shouting, saying, “Hoshia-na to Ben-David!

Baruch ha-ba b’shem ADONAI!
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!
Hoshia-na in the highest!”^e

¹⁰When He entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred up, saying, “Who is this?”¹¹And the crowds kept saying, “This is the prophet Yeshua, from Natzeret in the Galilee.”

¹²Then Yeshua entered the Temple^f and drove out all those selling and buying in the Temple. He overturned the tables of the moneychangers^g and the seats of those selling doves.^h¹³And He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’ⁱ but you are making it ‘a den of thieves!’”^j

¹⁴The blind and lame came to Him in the Temple, and He healed them. ¹⁵But when the ruling kohanim and Torah scholars saw the wonders He performed, and the children crying out in the Temple and saying, “Hoshia-na to Ben-David,” they became indignant. ¹⁶And they said to Him, “Do You hear what these children are saying?” “Yes,” Yeshua said to them. “Haven’t you ever read, ¹⁷Then He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, and He spent the night there.

Faith Moves Mountains

¹⁸Now early in the morning, as He was returning to the city, He became hungry. ¹⁹Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, He came up to it and found nothing on it except leaves only. And He said to it, “May no fruit ever come from you again!” And the fig tree shrivelled up at once.

²⁰When the disciples saw it they were astonished. “How did the fig tree shrivel on the spot?” they asked.

²¹Yeshua answered them, “Amen, I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ it will happen. ²²And whatever you ask in prayer, trusting, you shall receive.”

Questions about Yeshua’s Authority

²³Now when He entered the Temple, the ruling kohanim and the elders of the people came to Him while He was teaching, saying, “By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?”

²⁴Yeshua replied to them, “I also will ask you one question. If you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵John’s immersion, where was it from? From heaven or from men?”

They began to dialogue among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say to us, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’²⁶ But if we say, ‘From men,’ we fear the crowd, for all hold up John as a prophet.”²⁷ So answering Yeshua, they said, “We don’t know.”

Then He said to them, “Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things.”

^k 21:16. Ps. 8:3(2).

A Parable about Intentions and Actions

²⁸“Now what do you think? A man had two sons, and he went to the first and said, ‘Son, go work in the vineyard today.’ ²⁹The son answered, ‘I won’t,’ but afterward he had a change of heart and went. ³⁰The man went to the second son and said the same thing. But he answered, ‘I will, sir,’ and didn’t go. ³¹Which of the two did the will of the father?”

“The first,” they said.

Yeshua said to them, “Amen, I tell you, the tax collectors and prostitutes are going ahead of you into the kingdom of God. ³²For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and prostitutes did believe him; and even after you saw this, you had no change of heart to believe him.”

Parable of the Vineyard

³³“Listen to another parable. There was a master of a household who planted a vineyard. He put a hedge around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a tower. ³ Then He leased it to some tenant farmers and went on a journey. ³⁴Now when fruit season drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his fruit. ³⁵But grabbing his servants, the tenants beat up one, killed another, and stoned still another. ³⁶Again the master sent other servants, even more than the first, and they did the same thing to them. ³⁷Finally he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

³⁸“But when the tenants saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir! Come on, let’s kill him and get his inheritance!’ ³⁹So grabbing him, they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. ⁴⁰Therefore when the master of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?”

⁴¹“He will bring those miserable men to a miserable end,” they said to Him, “and will lease the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him his share of the fruits in their seasons.” ⁴²Yeshua said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures^b?

‘The stone which the builders rejected, this has become the chief cornerstone.

This came from ADONAI, and it is marvelous in our eyes.’^c

⁴³Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to people producing its fruits. ⁴⁴Whoever falls on this stone will be shattered; but the one upon whom it falls, it will crush him.”^d

⁴⁵When the ruling kohanim and Pharisees heard Yeshua’s parables, they realized He was talking about them. ⁴⁶Although they were trying to seize Him, they feared the crowds, because they regarded Him as a prophet.

Invitation to the Wedding Feast

¹Yeshua answered and spoke to them again in parables, saying, ²“The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who made a wedding feast for his son. ³He sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, but they wouldn’t come. ⁴Again he sent out other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who were invited, “Look, I’ve prepared my meal. My oxen and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast!”’

⁵“But paying no attention, they went away, one to his own farm, another to his business. ⁶And the rest grabbed his servants, humiliated them, and killed them. ⁷Now the king became furious! Sending his troops, he destroyed those murderers and set fire to their city.

⁸“Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. ⁹So go into the highways and byways, and invite everyone you find to the wedding feast. ¹⁰And those servants went out into the highways and gathered together all they found, both bad and good; and the wedding was filled with guests.

¹¹“But when the king came in to look over the guests, he saw a man there who wasn’t dressed in wedding clothes. ¹²‘Friend,’ he said to him, ‘how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’ But the man was silent. ¹³Then the king said to his servants, ‘Tie him up hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness; in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ ¹⁴For many are called, but few are chosen.”

A Trap about Paying Taxes

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might trap Him with a word. ¹⁶And they sent to Him some of their disciples, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that You are honest and teach the way of God in truth. And what others think doesn’t concern You, for You do not look at men’s appearance. ¹⁷Tell us therefore, what do You think? Is it permitted to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

¹⁸But Yeshua, knowing their wickedness, said, “Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites? ¹⁹Show Me the tax money.”

So they brought Him a denarius.

²⁰And He said to them, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?”

²¹“Caesar’s,” they said to Him.

Then He said to them, “Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” ²²And hearing this, they were amazed. So they left Him and went away.

Religious Leaders Ask a Tricky Question

²³On that day, Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came to Yeshua and questioned Him, saying, ²⁴“Teacher, Moses said, ‘If someone dies having no children, his brother as next of kin shall marry his widow and father children for his brother.’^e ²⁵Now there were seven brothers among us. The first married and died; and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother. ²⁶In the same way also the second, and the third, down to the seventh. ²⁷Last of all, the woman died. ²⁸So in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had married her.”

²⁹But answering, Yeshua said to them, “You’ve gone astray, because you don’t understand the Scriptures or the power of God. ³⁰For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ³¹But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven’t you read what was spoken to you by God, saying, ³²‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living!”^f ³³When the crowds heard this, they were astounded at His teaching.

The Greatest Mitzvot

³⁴But the Pharisees, when they heard that Yeshua had silenced the Sadducees, gathered together in one place. ³⁵And testing Him, one of them, a lawyer, asked, ³⁶“Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Torah?”

³⁷And He said to him, “‘You shall love ADONAI your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’^g ³⁸This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹And the second is like it, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’^h ⁴⁰The entire Torah and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

Yeshua Overturns the Arguments

⁴¹Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Yeshua asked them a question, ⁴²saying, “What do you think about the Messiah? Whose Son is He?”ⁱ “David’s,” they say to Him.

⁴³“Then how is it,” He says to them, “that

Seven Woes

¹Then Yeshua spoke to the crowds and to His disciples, ²saying, "The Torah scholars and Pharisees sit on the seat of Moses. ³So whatever they tell you, do and observe. But don't do what they do; for what they say, they do not do. ⁴They tie up heavy loads, hard to carry,^b and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves aren't willing to lift a finger to move them. ⁵All their works they do to be noticed by men. They make their tefillin wide and their tzitziyot long.^c ⁶They love the place of honor at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, ⁷greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called rabbi by men.

⁸"But you are not to be called rabbi; for One is your Teacher, and you are all brothers. ⁹And call no man on earth your father; for One is your Father, who is in heaven. ¹⁰Nor are you to be called teachers; for One is your Teacher, the Messiah. ¹¹But the greatest among you shall be your servant. ¹²Whoever exalts himself shall be humbled, and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted.

¹³"But woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut people out of the kingdom of heaven. For you do not enter yourselves, nor do you let those enter who are trying to go in.⁽¹⁴⁾^d ¹⁵"Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel over land and sea to make one convert. And when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as yourself.

¹⁶"Woe to you, blind guides! You say, 'Whoever swears by the Temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the Temple, he is obligated.'¹⁷O fools and blind ones! Which is greater, the gold or the Temple that made the gold holy?^c ¹⁸And you say, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the offering on it, he is obligated.'¹⁹O blind ones! Which is greater, the offering or the altar that makes the offering holy?^f ²⁰Therefore, whoever swears by the altar, swears both by the altar and everything on it. ²¹And whoever swears by the Temple, swears both by the Temple and by Him who dwells in it. ²²And whoever swears by heaven, swears both by the throne of God and by Him who sits on it.

²³"Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! You tithe^g mint and dill and cummin, yet you have neglected the weightier matters of Torah—justice and mercy and faithfulness. ²⁷"Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like white-washed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but inside are full of dead men's bones and everything unclean. ²⁸In the same way, you appear righteous to men on the outside, but are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

the prophets and decorate the monuments of the tzaddikim.³⁰ And you say, ‘If we’d been alive in the days of our forefathers, we wouldn’t have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’³¹ So you testify against yourselves, that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets.³² Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers!³³ O snakes, you brood of vipers! How will you escape the condemnation of Gehenna?

³⁴“Because of this, behold, I’m sending you prophets and wise men and Torah scholars. Some of them you will kill and execute at the stake, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city.³⁵ And so, upon you shall come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berechiah,^h whom you murdered between the Temple and the altar.ⁱ ³⁶Amen, I tell you, all these things will come upon this generation.”

Holy Temple to Be Destroyed

³⁷“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem who kills the prophets and stones those sent to her! How often I longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing!³⁸ Look, your house is left to you desolate!³⁹ For I tell you, you will never see Me again until you say, ‘Baruch ha-ba b’shem ADONAI. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!’”^k

¹Now when Yeshua went out and was going away from the Temple, His disciples came up to point out to Him the Temple buildings.² “Don’t you see all these?” He responded to them. “Amen, I tell you, not one stone will be left here on top of another—every one will be torn down!”

Signs of the End of Time

³As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?”

⁴*Yeshua* answered them, “Be careful that no one leads you astray!⁵ For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Messiah,’ and will lead many astray. You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for this must happen but it is not yet the end.⁷ For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines and earthquakes in various places.⁸ But all these things are only the beginning of birth pains.

⁹“Then they will hand you over to persecution and will kill you. You will be hated by all the nations because of My name.¹⁰ And then many will fall away and will betray one another and hate one other.¹¹ Many false prophets will arise and lead many astray.¹² Because lawlessness will multiply, the love of many will grow cold.¹³ But the one who endures to the end will be saved.¹⁴ This Good News of the kingdom shall be proclaimed in the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

¹⁵“So when you see ‘the abomination of desolation,’^m which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the Holy Place (let the reader understand),¹⁶ then those in Judea must flee to the mountains.¹⁷ The one on the roof must not go down to take what is in his house,¹⁸ and the one in the field must not turn back to get his coat.¹⁹ Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!²⁰ Pray that your escape will not happen in winter, or on Shabbat.²¹ For then there will be great trouble,ⁿ such as has not happened since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will.²² And unless those days were cut short, no one would be delivered. But for the sake of the chosen, those days will be cut short.

²³“Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here’s the Messiah,’ or ‘There He is,’ do not believe it. ²⁴For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up^a and show great signs and wonders so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen.

²⁵See, I have told you beforehand.

²⁶“So if they say to you, ‘Look, He is in the wilderness,’ do not go out. Or, ‘Look, He is in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it. ²⁷For just as lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so also will be the coming of the Son of Man. ²⁸For wherever the carcass is, there the vultures will gather.

²⁹“But immediately after the trouble of those days,

‘the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light
and the stars will fall from heaven and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.’^b

³⁰Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the land will mourn, and they will see ‘the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven’^c with power and great glory. ³¹He will send out His angels with a great shofar, and they will gather together His chosen from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.”^d

Watching for Messiah’s Return

³²“Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. ³³So also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, at the door. ³⁴Amen, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. ³⁵Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.^e ³⁶But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven nor the Son,^f except the Father alone.

³⁷“For just as the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸For in those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark.

³⁹And they did not understand until the flood came and swept them all away.^g So shall it be at the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰Then two men will be in the field, one taken and one left. ⁴¹Two women will be grinding at the mill, one taken and one left.^h ⁴²Therefore stay alert; for you do not know what day your Lord is coming. ⁴³But know this, that if the master of the house had known what time the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and not let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴So you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.”

The Faithful Servant

⁴⁵“Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master put in charge of his household to give them food at the proper time?

⁴⁶Blessed is that servant whose master finds him so doing when he comes. ⁴⁷Amen, I tell you, his master will put him in charge of all his possessions. ⁴⁸But if that wicked servant says in his heart, ‘My master is taking a long time,’ ⁴⁹and he begins to beat his fellow servants, and he eats and drinks with drunkards, ⁵⁰the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. ⁵¹And he will cut him in two and assign his place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Parable of the Ten Virgins

¹“Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. ²Five of them

⁵“Now while the bridegroom was taking a long time, they all got drowsy and started falling asleep. ⁶But in the middle of the night there was a shout, ‘Look, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’ ⁷Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. ⁸Now the foolish ones said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, since our lamps are going out.’ ⁹But the wise ones replied, ‘No, there won’t be enough for us and for you. Instead, go to those who sell, and buy some for yourselves.’

¹⁰“But while they were going off to buy, the bridegroom came. And those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut. ¹¹Now later, the other virgins came, saying, ‘Sir, Sir, open up for us!’

¹²“But he replied, ‘Amen, I tell you, I do not know you.’ ¹³Therefore stay alert, for you know neither the day nor the hour.”

Parable of the Talents

¹⁴“For it is like a man about to go on a journey. He called his own servants and handed over his possessions to them. ¹⁵To one he gave five talents,^l to another two, and to another one, each according to his own ability. Then he went on his journey.

¹⁶“Immediately the one who had received the five talents went and traded with them and gained five more. ¹⁷In the same way, the one with two gained two more. ¹⁸But the one who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money.

¹⁹“Now after a long time, the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. ²⁰The one who had received the five talents came up and brought another five talents, saying, ‘Master, you handed me five talents. Look, I’ve gained five more.’ ²¹His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You were faithful with a little, so I’ll put you in charge of much. Enter into your master’s joy!’

²²“The one who had received the two talents also came up and said, ‘Master, you handed me two talents. Look, I’ve gained two more.’ ²³His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You were faithful with a little, so I’ll put you in charge of much. Enter into your master’s joy!’

²⁴“Then the one who had received the one talent also came up and said, ‘Master, I knew that you are a hard man, reaping where you didn’t sow and gathering where you scattered no seed. ²⁵So I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.’

²⁶“But his master responded, ‘You wicked, lazy servant! You knew that I reap where I didn’t sow and gather where I scattered no seed? ²⁷Then you should have brought my money to the brokers, and when I came I would have received it back with interest. ²⁸Therefore take the talent away from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents. ²⁹For to the one who has, more shall be given, and he shall have an abundance. But from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away. ³⁰Throw the worthless servant out, into the outer darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’”

The Righteous Judge

³¹“Now when the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on His glorious throne. ³²All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them from one another, just as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.^k ³³And He will put the sheep on His right, but the goats on His left. ³⁴Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. ³⁵For I was hungry and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger and you invited Me in; ³⁶I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me.^a ³⁷“Then the righteous will answer Him, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You? Or thirsty and give You something to drink?’³⁸And when did we see You a stranger and invite You in? Or naked and clothe You?’³⁹When did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?’

⁴⁰“And answering, the King will say to them, ‘Amen, I tell you, whatever you did to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.’^b⁴¹Then He will also say to those on the left, ‘Go away from Me, you cursed ones, into the everlasting fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels.’⁴²For I was hungry and you gave Me nothing to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me nothing to drink;⁴³I was a stranger and you did not invite Me in; naked and you did not clothe Me; sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.’

⁴⁴“Then they too will answer, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not care for You?’⁴⁵Then He will answer them, saying, ‘Amen, I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me.’⁴⁶These shall go off to everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting life.”^c

The Conspiracy Grows

¹Now it happened that when Yeshua had finished all these words, He said to His disciples, ²“You know that Passover comes in two days, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be executed.”

³Then the ruling kohanim and elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the kohen gadol named Caiaphas. ⁴They plotted together in order that they might seize Yeshua by stealth and kill Him. ⁵“But not during the festival,” they were saying, “so there won’t be a riot among the people.”

A Woman Anoints Yeshua for Burial

⁶Now while Yeshua was in Bethany at the house of Simon ha-Metzora, ⁷a woman came up to Him with an alabaster jar of very expensive oil. And she poured it on His head as He was reclining at the table. ⁸But when the disciples saw this, they were indignant, saying, “Why this waste? ⁹It could have been sold for a lot, and the money given to the poor!”

¹⁰But Yeshua, knowing this, said to them, “Why do you cause trouble for this woman? She’s done Me a mitzvah. ¹¹You always have the poor with you,^d but you won’t always have Me. ¹²For when she poured this oil on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial. ¹³Amen, I tell you, wherever this Good News is proclaimed in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Betrayed and Sold for Silver

¹⁴Then one of the Twelve, the one called Judah of Kriot, went to the ruling kohanim ¹⁵and said, “What are you willing to give me if I hand Him over to you?” And they weighed out thirty shekels^e of silver for him. ¹⁶From then on, Judah began looking for a chance to hand Him over.

¹⁷Now on the first day of matzah,^f the disciples came to Yeshua, saying, “Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

¹⁸He said, “Go into the city to a certain man, and tell him, ‘The Teacher says, “My time is near; at your house I am to keep the Passover with My disciples.”’”¹⁹The disciples did as Yeshua had ordered them, and they prepared the Passover.^g

²⁰Now when it was evening, Yeshua was reclining at the table with the Twelve. ²¹As they were eating, He said, “Amen,

I tell you, one of you will betray Me.”

²²And being very sorrowful, they began, each one, to say to Him, “I’m not the one, am I, Master?”

²³And He replied, “The one who dipped his hand in the bowl with Me, he’s the one who will betray Me.^h²⁴The Son of Man indeed goes, just as it is written about Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed!ⁱ It would have been better for that man if he had not been born!”

²⁵And Judah, the one betraying Him, replied, “I’m not the one, am I, Rabbi?”

Yeshua said to him, “You’ve said it yourself.”

²⁶Now while they were eating, Yeshua took matzah;^j and after He offered the bracha, He broke and gave to the disciples and said, “Take, eat; this is My body.”²⁷ And He took a cup; and after giving thanks, He gave to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you;²⁸ for this is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the removal of sins.^k²⁹ But I say to you, I will never drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in My Father’s kingdom.”

³⁰After singing the Hallel,^l they went out to the Mount of Olives.³¹ Then Yeshua said to them, “This night you will all fall away because of Me; for it is written,

‘I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’^m

³²But after I am raised up, I will go before you to the Galilee.”

³³But Peter replied to Him, “Though all fall away because of You, I’ll never fall away.”

³⁴Yeshua said to him, “Truly, I tell you, this very night, before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.”

³⁵“Even if I must die with You,” Peter says to Him, “I’ll never deny You!” And so said all the disciples.

“Your Will Be Done”

³⁶Then Yeshua comes with them to a place called Gethsemane, and He tells the disciples, “Sit here, while I go over there and pray.”

³⁷And He took along Peter and Zebedee’s two sons, and He began to be sorrowful and troubled.³⁸ Then He tells them, “My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with Me.”³⁹ Going a little farther, He fell face down and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me! Yet not as I will, but as You will.”

⁴⁰Then He comes to the disciples and finds them sleeping; and He tells Peter, “So couldn’t you keep watch with Me for one hour?⁴¹ Keep watching and praying, so that you won’t enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”⁴² Again for a second time He went away and prayed, saying, “My Father, if this cannot pass away unless I drink it, let Your will be done.”⁴³ And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.⁴⁴ So He left them again and prayed a third time, saying the same words once more.⁴⁵ Then He comes to the disciples and says to them, “Still sleeping? Taking your rest? Look, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of sinners.⁴⁶ Get up, let’s go! Look, My betrayer is near.”

Taken into Custody

⁴⁷While Yeshua was still speaking, here came Judah, one of the Twelve, and with him a big crowd with swords and clubs, from the ruling kohanim and elders of the people.

⁴⁸Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, ‘The One I kiss, He’s the One—seize Him!’⁴⁹ And immediately Judah drew nearⁿ to Yeshua and said, “Shalom, Rabbi!” and kissed Him.

⁵⁰“Friend,” Yeshua said to him, “do what you’ve come to do.” Then they came up and threw their hands on Yeshua and seized Him.

⁵¹And suddenly, one of those with Yeshua stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and he struck the kohen gadol's servant and cut off his ear.

⁵²Then Yeshua said to him, "Put your sword back in its place! For all who take up the sword shall perish by the sword.^a ⁵³Or do you suppose that I cannot call on My Father, and at once He will place at My side twelve legions^b of angels? ⁵⁴How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be so?"

⁵⁵At that hour Yeshua said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs, to capture Me as you would a revolutionary?^c Every day I sat teaching in the Temple, and you didn't seize Me. ⁵⁶But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets would be fulfilled." Then all the disciples fled, abandoning Him.

⁵⁷Now those who had seized Yeshua led Him away to Caiaphas, the kohen gadol, where the Torah scholars and elders had gathered. ⁵⁸Peter was following Him from a distance as far as the courtyard of the kohen gadol. And after going inside, he was sitting with the guards, to see the outcome.

Yeshua's Trial Begins

⁵⁹Now the ruling kohanim and all the Sanhedrin kept trying to get false testimony against Yeshua so they could put Him to death. ⁶⁰But they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward ⁶¹and said, "This fellow said, 'I'm able to destroy the Temple of God and rebuild it in three days!'"

⁶²The kohen gadol stood up and said to Yeshua, "Have You no answer? What's this they're testifying against You?" ⁶³But Yeshua kept silent.

The kohen gadol said to Him, "I charge You under oath by the living God, tell us if You are Mashiach Ben-Elohim!"^d

⁶⁴"As you have said," replied Yeshua. "Besides that, I tell you, soon after you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven."^e

⁶⁵Then the kohen gadol tore his clothes and said, "Blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, you've heard the blasphemy. ⁶⁶What's your verdict?"^f

"Guilty," they answered. "He deserves death!" ⁶⁷Then they spat in His face and pounded Him with their fists.^g Others slapped Him and demanded, ⁶⁸"Prophecy to us, you Messiah! Which one hit You?"

Peter Denies Yeshua

⁶⁹Meanwhile, Peter was sitting in the courtyard. A servant girl came over to him and said, "You also were with Yeshua of the Galilee."

⁷⁰But he denied it before everyone, saying, "I don't know what you're talking about!"

⁷¹When he went onto the porch, another servant girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This man was with Yeshua ha-Natzrati."

⁷²Again he denied it with an oath: "I don't know the Man!"

⁷³A little while later, some of the bystanders approached Peter and said to him, "Surely you're one of them, too—your accent gives you away."

⁷⁴Then he began to curse^h and to swear an oath: "I do not know the Man!" Right then, a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵Then Peter reminded himself of the word Yeshua had said: "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went away and wept bitterly.

Judah's Remorse

¹When daybreak came, the ruling kohanim and elders of the people conspired against Yeshua to put Him to death. ²And they tied Him up, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate, the governor. ³Then Judah,

His betrayer, saw that Yeshua had been condemned. Feeling remorse, he brought the thirty silver pieces back to the ruling kohanim and elders, ⁴saying, “I’ve sinned, betraying innocent blood!”

But they said, “What’s that to us? You see to it yourself!” ⁵After tossing the silver into the Temple sanctuary, he left. Then he went off and hanged himself. ⁶But the ruling kohanim took the silver pieces and said, “It is not permitted to put these in the treasury, since it is blood money.” ⁷So after they conferred, they bought with them the potter’s field, as a cemetery for strangers. ⁸For this reason that field has been called the “Field of Blood” to this day. ⁹Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “And they took the thirty silver pieces, the price of Him on whom a price had been set by Bnei-Yisrael; ¹⁰and they gave them for the potter’s field, just as ADONAI arranged for me.”ⁱ

¹¹Now Yeshua stood before the governor. The governor questioned Him, saying, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

“You say so,” Yeshua said. ¹²And while He was accused by the ruling kohanim and elders, He did not answer.

¹³Then Pilate said to Him, “Don’t You hear how many things they testify against you?” ¹⁴Yeshua did not answer, not even one word, so the governor was greatly amazed.

¹⁵Now during the feast, the governor was accustomed to release to the crowd one prisoner, anyone they wanted. ¹⁶At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Yeshua Bar-Abba. ¹⁷So when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Which one do you want me to release for you? Yeshua who is Bar-Abba, or Yeshua who is called Messiah?”^j ¹⁸For he knew that they had handed Him over out of envy.

¹⁹While Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him a message, saying,

“Don’t have anything to do with that righteous Man, for today I’ve suffered many things in a dream because of Him.”

²⁰Now the ruling kohanim and elders persuaded the crowds that they should ask for Bar-Abba and destroy Yeshua. ²¹But the governor responded, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?”

And they said, “Bar-Abba!”

²²Pilate said to them, “What then shall I do with Yeshua, who is called Messiah?”

“Execute Him!” all of them say.

²³But Pilate said, “Why? What evil has He done?”

But they kept shouting all the more, saying, “Let Him be executed!”

²⁴When Pilate saw he was accomplishing nothing, but instead a riot was starting, he took some water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. “I am innocent of this blood,”^k he said. “You see to it yourselves!”

²⁵All the people answered and said, “His blood be on us and on our children!”^l

²⁶Then he released to them Bar-Abba. And after he had Yeshua scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Nailed to a Stake

²⁷Then the governor’s soldiers took Yeshua into the Praetorium and gathered the whole cohort around Him. ²⁸They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe around Him. ²⁹And after braiding a crown of thorns, they placed it on His head and put a staff in His right hand. And falling on their knees before Him, they mocked Him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” ³⁰They spat on Him, and they took the staff and beat Him over and over on the head. ³¹When they finished mocking Him, they stripped the robe off Him and put His own clothes back on Him. And they led Him away to crucify Him.

³²As they came out, they found a man from Cyrene, Simon by name. They forced him into service, to carry Yeshua’s cross-beam.^m ³³And when they came to a place called Golgotha (that is to say, Place of a Skull),³⁴ they offered Him wine mixed with gall to drink;^a but after tasting, He was unwilling to drink it.³⁵ And when they had crucified Him, they divided His clothing among themselves by casting lots.^b ³⁶And they sat down and kept guard over Him there. ³⁷Over His head they put the charge against Him, which read: "THIS IS YESHUA, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

³⁸Then two outlaws were executed with Him, one on the right and one on the left. ³⁹Those passing by were jeering at Him,^c shaking their heads ⁴⁰and saying, "You who are going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! If you are Ben-Elohim, come down from the stake!"

⁴¹Likewise the ruling kohanim, along with the Torah scholars and elders, were also mocking Him. ⁴²"He saved others," they were saying, "but He can't save Himself? He's the King of Israel! Let Him come down now from the stake, and we'll believe in Him! ⁴³He trusts in God; let God rescue Him now, if He wants Him.^d For He said, 'I am Ben-Elohim.'" ⁴⁴Even the outlaws who were executed with Him were ridiculing Him in the same way.^e

Yeshua Lays Down His Life

⁴⁵Now from the sixth hour, darkness fell upon all the land until the ninth hour.^f ⁴⁶About the ninth hour Yeshua cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?"^g that is, "My God, My God, why have You abandoned Me?"

⁴⁷When some of those standing there heard it, they began saying, "This Man is calling for Elijah."⁴⁸ Right away one of them ran and took a sponge. He filled it with sour wine and put it on a stick, and was offering it to Yeshua to drink.⁴⁹ But the rest were saying, "Leave Him alone! Let's see if Elijah comes to save Him."

⁵⁰And Yeshua cried out again with a loud voice and gave up His spirit.

⁵¹And behold, the curtainⁱ of the Temple was split in two, from top to bottom. And the earth quaked and rocks were split apart. ⁵²And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the kedoshim who were sleeping were raised to life. ⁵³And coming forth out of the tombs after His resurrection, they went into the holy city and appeared to many.

⁵⁴Now the centurion, and those with him keeping guard over Yeshua, when they saw the earthquake and what was happening, they became terribly frightened and said, "This really was the Son of God!"

The Tomb Is Sealed

⁵⁵Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Yeshua from the Galilee, serving Him. ⁵⁶Among them were Miriam from Magdala, Miriam the mother of Jacob and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

⁵⁷Now when it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had also become a disciple of Yeshua. ⁵⁸This man went to Pilate and asked for Yeshua's body. Then Pilate ordered it to be given up. ⁵⁹And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth. ⁶⁰And he laid it in his own new tomb,^j which he had cut in the rock. Then he rolled a large stone up to the door of the tomb and went away. ⁶¹Now Miriam from Magdala was there, and the other Miriam, sitting opposite the tomb.

Guarding the Tomb

⁶²Now on the next day, which is after the preparation, the ruling kohanim and Pharisees were gathered before Pilate. ⁶³"Sir," they said, "we remember how that deceiver said while He was still alive, 'After three days I'm to be raised.'" ⁶⁴Therefore, order the tomb to be made secure until the third day, so His disciples do not come and steal Him away. They will tell the people, 'He is risen from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first!"

⁵"You have a guard," Pilate said to them. "Go, make it as secure as you know how."

⁶So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone along with the soldiers of the guard.

The Son Is Risen!

¹Now after Shabbat, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Miriam of Magdala and the other Miriam came to look at the tomb. ²And suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of ADONAI descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³His appearance was like lightning,^k and his clothing as white as snow. ⁴And those keeping watch were shaken for fear of him and became like dead men.

⁵But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know you are looking for Yeshua who was crucified. ⁶He is not here; for He is risen, just as He said. Come, see the place where He^l was lying. ⁷Go quickly now and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead. And behold, He's going before you to the Galilee. There you will see Him. See, I have told you!" ⁸They quickly left the tomb, with fear yet with great joy, and ran to bring news to His disciples.

^r 28:3. cf. Dan. 10:6.

The Good News Cannot Be Hidden

⁹And behold, Yeshua met them. "Shalom!" He said. They drew near, grasped his feet, and worshiped Him. ¹⁰"Don't be afraid," Yeshua said to them. "Go tell My brothers to head for the Galilee, and there they will see Me."

¹¹Now while they were going, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the ruling kohanim all that had happened. ¹²And when they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of silver to the soldiers, ¹³saying, "Tell them, 'His disciples came at night and stole Him away while we were sleeping.' ¹⁴And if this is heard by the governor, we'll appease him and keep you out of trouble." ¹⁵So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story was spread among the Judeans to this day.

Authority to Make Disciples Everywhere

¹⁶Now the eleven disciples went to the Galilee, to the mountain Yeshua had designated. ¹⁷When they saw Him, they worshiped; but some wavered. ¹⁸And Yeshua came up to them and spoke to them, saying, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me.^m ¹⁹Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, immersing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Ruach ha-Kodesh, ²⁰teaching them to observe all I have commanded you. And remember! I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

The Kingdom Is Coming Now

¹The beginning of the Good News of Yeshua ha-Mashiach, Ben-Elohim. ²As Isaiah the prophet has written,

“Behold, I send My messenger before
You,
who will prepare Your way.”^a

³The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
‘Prepare the way of ADONAI,
and make His paths straight.’”^b

⁴John appeared, immersing in the wilderness, proclaiming an immersion involving repentance for the removal of sins. ⁵All the Judean countryside was going out to him, and all the Jerusalemites. As they confessed their sins, they were being immersed by him in the Jordan River.

⁶John wore clothes made from camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷“After me comes One who is mightier than I am,” he proclaimed. “I’m not worthy to stoop down and untie the strap of His sandals.”⁸I immersed you with water, but He will immerse you in the Ruach ha-Kodesh.^c

The Spirit Rests on Yeshua

⁹In those days, Yeshua came from Natzeret in the Galilee and was immersed by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰Just as He was coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens ripping open and the Ruach as a dove coming down upon Him. ¹¹And there came a voice from the heavens: “You are My Son, whom I love; with You I am well pleased!”^d

^a 1:2. cf. Ex. 23:20, Mal. 3:1.

^b 1:3. Isa. 40:3.

^c 1:8. cf. Joel 2:28f; Ezek. 36:26; Zech. 12:10.

^d 1:11. cf. Ps. 2:7, 12; Prov. 30:4; Isa. 9:5(6).

¹²That instant, the Ruach drives Him into the wilderness. ¹³He was in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by satan. And He was with the wild beasts, and the angels were taking care of Him.

Fishermen Follow Him

¹⁴Now after John was put in jail, Yeshua came into the Galilee, proclaiming the Good News of God. ¹⁵“Now is the fullness of time,” He said, “and the kingdom of God is near! Turn away from your sins, and believe in the Good News!”

¹⁶Passing along by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Simon’s brother Andrew casting a net in the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷And Yeshua said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men.”¹⁸Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

¹⁹Going a little farther, He saw Jacob the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who were in their boat mending the nets. ²⁰Immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired hands and followed Him.

Demons Flee at His Command

²¹And they went into Capernaum. Right away, on Shabbat, He entered the synagogue and began to teach. ²²And they were astounded at His teaching, for He was teaching them as one having authority^e and not as the Torah scholars.

²³Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, ²⁴“What have we to do with You, Yeshua of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are! You’re the Holy One of God!”

²⁵*Yeshua* rebuked him, saying, “Quiet! Come out of him!”²⁶And the unclean spirit, after throwing the man into convulsions and

²⁷They were all so amazed that they asked among themselves, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him!”

²⁸And immediately news about Him spread throughout the region surrounding Galilee.

The Hurting Become Whole

²⁹As soon as they left the synagogue, they went with Jacob and John to the house of Simon and Andrew. ³⁰Now Simon’s mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever. Right away, they told Yeshua about her. ³¹He came and raised her up by taking her hand. The fever left her, and she began to take care of them.

³²When evening came, at sunset, the people brought to Him all the sick and those who were afflicted by demons. ³³The whole town gathered together at the door. ³⁴He healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. And He would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.

³⁵Very early, while it was still night, Yeshua got up, left, and went away to a place in the wilderness; and there He was praying. ³⁶Then Simon and those with him hunted for Yeshua. ³⁷And when they found Him, they said to Him, “Everybody’s looking for You.”

³⁸He said to them, “Let’s go somewhere else, to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also—this is what I came for.” ³⁹And He went throughout all the Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and driving out demons.

⁴⁰A man with tzara’at comes to Him, begging Him and falling on his knees, saying, “If You are willing, You can make me clean.”

⁴¹Moved with compassion, Yeshua stretched out His hand and touched him. He said, “I am willing. Be cleansed.” ⁴²Immediately, the tzara’at left him, and he was cleansed.

⁴³Yeshua sent him away at once, sternly warning him. ⁴⁴He said to him, “See that you say nothing to anyone, but go show yourself to the kohen.^f Then, for your cleansing, offer

^f 1:44. cf. Lev. 13:6, 13, 17, 23; 14:39.

what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.” ⁴⁵But he went out and began to proclaim and spread the word, so much that Yeshua could no longer enter a town openly but had to stay out in wilderness areas. Still, they kept on coming to Him from everywhere.

Power to Pardon the Paralyzed

¹When He returned to Capernaum after some days, it was heard that He was at the house. ²So many were gathered that there was no longer room for them even outside the door. He kept proclaiming the word to them.

³Some people came bringing to Him a paralyzed man, carried by four men. ⁴When they couldn’t get near Yeshua because of the crowd, they removed the roof where He was. After digging through, they lowered the mat on which the paralyzed man was lying. ⁵Yeshua, seeing their faith, said to the paralyzed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

⁶But some of the Torah scholars were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, ⁷“Why does this fellow speak like this? He blasphemes! Who can pardon sins but God alone?”

⁸Immediately Yeshua, knowing in His spirit that they were raising questions this way within themselves, said to them, “Why are you questioning these things in your hearts? ⁹Which is easier, to say to the paralyzed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, and take your mat and walk?’ ¹⁰But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority to pardon sins on earth....” He tells the paralyzed man, ¹¹“I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home!”

¹²At once the man got up, took his mat, and walked before them all. They were all astonished and glorified God, saying, “We’ve never seen anything like this!”⁸

⁸ 2:5-12. cf. Isa. 53:12.

Fellowship with Sinners

¹³Again, Yeshua went out by the sea. The whole crowd kept coming to Him, and He continued to teach them. ¹⁴As He was passing by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's booth. He said to him, "Follow Me." And he got up and followed Him.

¹⁵Now it happens that Yeshua was reclining at the table in Levi's house, and many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Yeshua and His disciples. For there were many, and they were following Him. ¹⁶When the Torah scholars of the Pharisees saw Him eating with sinners and tax collectors, they began to say to His disciples, "With tax collectors and sinners He eats?"

¹⁷And when He heard this, Yeshua said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a doctor, but those who are sick do. I did not come to call the righteous, but the sinful."

Feasting in His Presence

¹⁸Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. They came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

¹⁹And Yeshua said to them, "The guests of the bridegroom cannot fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.

²¹"No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. Otherwise the patch pulls away from the old, and a worse tear happens. ²²And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins; and the wine is lost, also the skins. But one puts new wine into fresh wineskins."

Shabbat Restoration

²³Now It happened on Shabbat that Yeshua was going through the grain fields; and His disciples began to make their way, plucking

the heads of grain.^a ²⁴The Pharisees were saying to Him, "Look, why are they doing what is not permitted on Shabbat?"^b

²⁵And He said to them, "Haven't you ever read what David did when he was in need, and he and those with him became hungry?"^c

²⁶How he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was kohen gadol and ate the showbread, which is permitted only for the kohanim to eat, and gave some even to those who were with him?"

²⁷Then He said to them, "Shabbat was made for man, and not man for Shabbat. ²⁸So the Son of Man is Lord even of Shabbat."

3

A Mitzvah on Shabbat

¹Yeshua entered the synagogue again, and a man with a withered hand was there. ²Now some were carefully watching Him, to see if He would heal him on Shabbat, so that they might accuse Him. ³He said to the man with the withered hand, "Stand up here in the center." ⁴Then He said to them, "Is it permitted on Shabbat to do good or to do evil, to save a life or to kill?"^d But they kept silent.

⁵After looking around at them with anger, grieved by their hardness of heart, He says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. ⁶The Pharisees went out right away with the Herodians and began plotting against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Crowds Clamor for Yeshua

⁷Yeshua withdrew to the sea with His disciples, and a large crowd from the Gallilee followed. From Judea,⁸ and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon, a great number, hearing all He was doing, came to Him. ⁹He told His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him because of the crowd, so that they wouldn't mob Him.

¹⁰For He had healed many, so that all those afflicted fell down before Him in order to touch Him. ¹¹And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, would fall down before Him and cry out, "You are Ben-Elohim!" ¹²But Yeshua strictly ordered them not to make Him known.

Appointing the Twelve

¹³Now He climbs up on the mountain and calls those He Himself wanted, and they came to Him. ¹⁴He appointed twelve (whom He also named emissaries), so that they might be with Him and He might send them to proclaim the Good News, ¹⁵and to have power to drive out demons. ¹⁶And He appointed the Twelve: to Simon He gave the name Peter; ¹⁷to Jacob and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee, He gave the name Boanerges, which is Sons of Thunder; ¹⁸and Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, Jacob the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot;^e ¹⁹and Judah from Kriot, who also betrayed Him.

Binding the Strong Man

²⁰Then He comes into a house, and again a crowd gathers so they couldn't even eat. ²¹When His family heard about this, they went out to take hold of Him; for they were saying, "He's out of His mind!"

²²The Torah scholars who came down from Jerusalem said, "He's possessed by beelzebul," and, "By the ruler of demons He drives out demons."

²³He called them and began speaking to them in parables: "How can satan drive out satan? ²⁴If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. ²⁶And if satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand but his end has come.

²⁷"But no one can enter a strong man's house to ransack his property, unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he will thoroughly plunder his house. ²⁸Amen, I tell you, all things will be forgiven the sons of men, the sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; ²⁹but whoever slanders^f the Ruach ha-Kodesh never has release, but is guilty of an eternal sin!" ³⁰For they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

A Spiritual Family Begins

³¹Then His mother and brothers come. Standing outside, they sent word to Him, summoning Him. ³²A crowd was sitting around Him, and they tell Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers are outside looking for You." ³³Answering them, He said, "Who are My mother and My brothers?" ³⁴Looking at those sitting in a circle around Him, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! ³⁵For whoever does the will of God, he is My brother and sister and mother."

4

Storytelling Opens Hearts

¹Again Yeshua began to teach by the sea. A large crowd gathered around Him, so He got into a boat on the sea and sat down. And the crowd was by the sea on the land. ²He began teaching them many things by parables, and in His teaching, He said to them: ³"Listen! Behold, a sower went out to spread some seed. ⁴It happened that as he sowed, some fell beside the road; and the birds came and ate it up.

⁵"Other seed fell on rocky ground, where it didn't have much soil. It sprang up immediately, because the soil wasn't deep. ⁶But when the sun came up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

⁷"Other seed fell among the thorns; and the thorns grew and choked it, and it yielded no crop.

⁸"And others fell into the good soil and were producing fruit, springing up and increasing. They yielded a crop, producing thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold.”⁹ And He said, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

¹⁰When Yeshua was alone, those around Him with the Twelve started asking Him about the parables. ¹¹And He told them, “To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God. But for those who are outside, everything is in parables,^a so that

¹²“Seeing, they may see and not perceive, and hearing, they may hear and not understand,
so they may not turn back and be forgiven.”^b

¹³He said to them, “Don’t you grasp this parable? Then how will you understand all the parables? ¹⁴The sower sows the word. ¹⁵These are the ones beside the road where the word is sown. Whenever they hear, satan comes quickly and takes away the word that has been sown in them.

¹⁶“These are the ones sown on rocky ground. When they hear the word, immediately they receive it with joy. ¹⁷And they have no root in themselves but last only a short while. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately they fall away.

¹⁸“And others are the ones sown among the thorns. They have heard the word; ¹⁹but the worries of the world, the seduction of wealth, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

²⁰“And those are the ones sown on the good soil. They hear the word and accept it and produce fruit, thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold.”

Reaping What You Sow

²¹He also was saying to them, “Is a lamp put under a basket or a bed? No, shouldn’t it be placed on a lampstand? ²²For there is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, nor anything kept secret except that it would come to light.

²³If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

²⁴Then He continued, “Pay attention to what you hear. With the measure you use, it will be measured to you; and more will be added to you. ²⁵For whoever has, to him more will be given. And whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.”

What Is the Kingdom of God Like?

²⁶And He was saying, “The kingdom of God is like when a man spreads seed on the soil ²⁷and falls asleep at night and gets up by day, and the seed sprouts and grows. He himself doesn’t know how. ²⁸Automatically, the earth brings forth a crop—first the blade, then the head, then the full grain in the head. ²⁹But when the grain is ready, at once he sends in the sickle, for the harvest has come.”

³⁰Yeshua also said, “How should we picture the kingdom of God? Or by what story shall we present it? ³¹It is like a mustard seed when it’s planted in the ground. Though the smallest of all seeds in the earth, yet when planted it grows up and becomes the largest of all the herbs. It puts forth big branches, so the birds of the air can nest in its shade.”^c

³³With many such parables He used to tell them the word, as much as they were able to hear. ³⁴But apart from a parable, He wasn’t speaking to them. Yet when they were alone, to His own disciples He would explain everything.

Power Over Nature

³⁵Now on that same day in the evening, He says to them, “Let’s cross over to the other side.” ³⁶After leaving the crowd, they take Him along in the boat, just as He was. And other boats were with Him.

³⁷A great windstorm arises, and the waves were rushing into the boat. The boat was beginning to fill up. ³⁸But Yeshua was in the back of the boat, sleeping on a pillow. They wake Him up and say to Him, “Teacher, don’t you care that we are perishing?”

³⁹So He woke up and rebuked the wind. And He said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" Then the wind stopped, and it became totally calm. ⁴⁰And He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Even now you have no faith?"

⁴¹They were struck with awe and said to one another, "Who is this? Even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

Power Over Demons

¹They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. ²As soon as Yeshua got out of the boat, a man from the graveyard^d with an unclean spirit met Him. ³He lived among the tombs, and no one could restrain him anymore, even with a chain. ⁴For he had often been bound with shackles and chains, but the chains had been ripped apart by him and the shackles broken. No one was strong enough to tame him. ⁵And through it all, night and day, at the graveyard and in the mountains, he kept screaming and gashing himself with stones.

⁶When he saw Yeshua from a distance, he ran and bowed down before Him. ⁷Crying out with a loud voice, he said, "What's between You and me, Yeshua, Ben El Elyon? I'm warning you, in the name of God, do not torment me!"

⁸For Yeshua had said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!" ⁹Then Yeshua began questioning him, "What is your name?"

And he answered, "My name is Legion,^e for we are many." ¹⁰He kept begging Him not to send them out of the country. ¹¹Now a large herd of pigs was feeding on the hillside nearby. ¹²The unclean spirits urged Him, saying, "Send us to the pigs, so we may enter them." ¹³So Yeshua gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs. And the herd, about two thousand in number, rushed down the cliff and were drowned in the sea.

^d 5:2. Lit. tombs.

¹⁴The herdsmen ran away and told the town and countryside, and they came to see what had happened. ¹⁵Now they came to Yeshua and saw the madman who had had the legion. He was sitting there, dressed in clothes and in his right mind. The people were scared.

¹⁶Those who had seen it described in detail what had happened to the man plagued by a demon, and they also told about the pigs. ¹⁷And they began to beg Yeshua to leave their country. ¹⁸As He was getting into the boat, the man who had been infested with demons kept begging to remain with Him. ¹⁹Yeshua did not let him, but He told him, "Go home to your friends and tell them how much ADONAI has done for you, how He showed you mercy."

²⁰So he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis^f how much Yeshua had done for him. And all were amazed.

Power in His Touch

²¹When Yeshua had crossed over in the boat again to the other side, a big crowd gathered around Him; and He was by the sea. ²²Then one of the synagogue leaders, named Jairus, comes. Seeing Him, he falls at His feet. ²³He begs Him a great deal, saying, "My little daughter is near death! Come and lay hands on her so that she may be healed and live!"

²⁴So Yeshua went off with him, and a big crowd was following Him and pressing upon Him. ²⁵And there was a woman with a blood flow for twelve years,^g ²⁶who had suffered much under many doctors. She had spent all that she had without benefit; instead, she grew worse. ²⁷When she heard about Yeshua, she came through the crowd from behind and touched His garment. ²⁸For she kept saying, "If I touch even His clothes, I shall be healed."

²⁹Right away the blood flow stopped, and she felt in her body that she was healed from her disease. ³⁰At once Yeshua, knowing in Himself that power had gone out from Him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My clothes?"

^f 5:20. The name means Ten Cities.

^g 5:25. cf. Lev. 15:25-29.

³¹His disciples responded, “You see the crowd pressing upon You and you say, ‘Who touched Me?’”³²But He kept looking around to see who had done this.

³³But the woman, scared and shaking, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.³⁴And He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in shalom and be healed from your disease.”

³⁵While Yeshua was still speaking, messengers come from the house of the synagogue leader, saying, “Your daughter is dead. Why do you still trouble the Teacher?”

³⁶But ignoring what they said, Yeshua tells the synagogue leader, “Do not be afraid; only believe.”³⁷He did not let anyone follow Him except Peter, Jacob, and John, the brother of Jacob.

³⁸They come to the house of the synagogue leader. He sees a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly.³⁹After entering, He said to them, “Why make such a fuss and weep? The child didn’t die, but is sleeping.”

⁴⁰They start jeering at Him. But after sending all of them out, He takes the child’s father and mother, and those with Him, and enters where the child was.⁴¹Then, taking hold of the child’s hand, He tells her, “Talitha koum,”^a which means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up.”⁴²Immediately, the girl stood up and began to walk around! (She was twelve years old.) And they were overcome with astonishment.⁴³But He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this, and He said something to eat should be given to her.

Responding to Rejection

¹Now Yeshua went out from there, and He comes to His hometown, and His disciples follow Him.²When Shabbat came, He began to teach in the synagogue. Many listeners were amazed, saying, “Where did this fellow get these things? What’s this wisdom given to Him? Such miracles are done by His hands!³Isn’t this the carpenter, the son of Miriam, and the brother of Jacob and Joseph and Judah and Simon? Aren’t His sisters here with us?” And they took offense at Him.

⁴Then Yeshua began saying to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his own house.”⁵He was not able to do any miracle, except that He laid hands on a few sick people and healed them.⁶And He was astonished because of their unbelief.^b And He was going around among the villages teaching.

¹⁰He was also telling them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place.¹¹And whatever place will not receive you or listen to you, as you leave from there, shake the dust off the bottom of your feet as a witness against them.”¹²So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent,¹³and they were driving out many demons and anointing with oil many who were sick and healing them.

¹⁴King Herod heard, for Yeshua’s name had become known. Some were saying, “John the Immerser has risen from the dead! Because of this, these powers are at work in Him!”¹⁵But others were saying, “It’s Elijah!” Still others were saying, “It’s a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.”^d

¹⁶But when Herod heard, he said, “John, the one I beheaded, has been raised!”¹⁷For Herod himself sent and arrested John and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because Herod had married her.¹⁸For John had been telling

Herod, “It is not permitted for you to have your brother’s wife.”^e ¹⁹Now Herodias had a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she wasn’t able. ²⁰For Herod was in awe of John and kept him safe, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man. When he listened to John he was confused, but he still listened gladly.

²¹An opportunity came—when Herod, on his birthday, gave a banquet for his high officials, military brass, and the leaders of the Galilee. ²²When the daughter of Herodias^f came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those reclining with him. And the king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you want, and I’ll give it to you!” ²³He vowed to her, “Whatever you ask of me I’ll give you, up to half of my kingdom!”

²⁴She left the room and said to her mother, “What should I ask for?”

Her mother said, “The head of John the Immerser!”

²⁵Immediately she rushed to the king and requested, “I want you to give me, right now, the head of John the Immerser on a platter!”

²⁶The king became very sorrowful; but because of his oaths and those reclining with him, he didn’t want to refuse her.

²⁷Immediately the king sent an executioner and gave orders to bring John’s head. And the executioner went out and beheaded John in the prison, ²⁸brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹When John’s disciples heard, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

Feeding 5000 Families

³⁰The twelve emissaries gathered together with Yeshua, and they reported to Him all they had done and taught. ³¹There were many coming and going, and they had no time even to eat. So He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to an isolated place and rest awhile.” ³²So they left privately by boat to an isolated place. ³³However, the people saw them leaving, and many recognized them. They ran on foot from all the towns to get there ahead of them. ³⁴As Yeshua came ashore, He saw a large crowd and felt compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd.^g So He taught them many things.

³⁵When it was already late, His disciples came to Him and said, “This place is isolated, and the hour is already late. ³⁶Send these people away so they can go into the nearby countryside and the villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

³⁷But He answered and said to them, “You give them something to eat!”

And they said to Him, “Should we go and spend two hundred denarii on bread to give them something to eat?”

³⁸Then He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.”

When they found out, they said, “Five, and two fish.”

³⁹Then Yeshua made them all sit down in groups on the green grass. ⁴⁰So they reclined in groups of hundreds and fifties. ⁴¹And He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking up to heaven, He offered the bracha. He broke the loaves and kept giving them to the disciples to serve to the people; and He divided the two fish among them all. ⁴²They all ate and were satisfied, ⁴³and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and fish. ⁴⁴Now there were five thousand men who ate the loaves.

Walking on Water

⁴⁵Right away, Yeshua made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He Himself was sending the crowd away. ⁴⁶After leaving them, He went up on the hillside to pray.

⁴⁷And when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea and He was alone on the land. ⁴⁸He saw the disciples struggling to row, for the wind was against them. Around the fourth watch in the night,^h Yeshua comes to them, walking on the sea; and He wanted to pass by them. ⁴⁹But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought He was a ghost and cried out—⁵⁰for they all saw Him and were terrified.

But immediately, He spoke to them. He said, “Take courage! I am. Do not be afraid.”⁵¹Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped. They were utterly dumbfounded, ⁵²for they still hadn’t understood about the loaves. Instead, their hearts were hardened.

Miracles Multiply

⁵³After they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and set anchor there. ⁵⁴As they got out of the boat, immediately people recognized Yeshua. ⁵⁵They ran about the region and began to carry around on their mats all those who were in bad shape, to wherever they heard He was. ⁵⁶And wherever He entered villages, towns, or countryside, people were placing the sick in the marketplaces and begging Him to let them touch even the tzitzit of His garment—and all who touched it were being healed.

Hearts Harden

¹Now the Pharisees and some of the Torah scholars who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Yeshua. ²And they saw that some of His disciples were eating bread with unclean hands, that is, not washed. ³(For the Pharisees and all Jewish people do not eat unless they wash their hands up to the elbow, keeping the tradition of the elders. ⁴And when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they perform a ritual washing.^a There are many other traditions they have received and hold, such as the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels.)^b

⁵The Pharisees and Torah scholars questioned Yeshua, “Why don’t Your disciples walk

according to the tradition of the elders? Why do they eat bread with unwashed hands?”

⁶And He said to them, “Rightly did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written,

“This people honors Me with their lips
but their heart is far from Me.

⁷And in vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”^c

⁸Having left behind the commandment of God, you hold on to the tradition of men.”

⁹He was also telling them, “You set aside the commands of God, in order that you may validate your own tradition. ¹⁰For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘He who speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death.’^d ¹¹But you say if anyone tells his father or mother, ‘Whatever you might have gained from me is korban (that is, an offering to God),’ ¹²then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother, ¹³making void the word of God with your tradition that you’ve handed down. And you do many such things.”^e

¹⁴Then Yeshua called the crowd again and began saying to them, “Hear Me, everyone, and understand. ¹⁵There is nothing outside the man that can make him unholy by going into him. Rather, it is what comes out of the man that makes the man unholy.”^f (¹⁶)^g

¹⁷When He had left the crowd and entered the house, His disciples questioned Him about the parable. ¹⁸And He said to them, “Are you then also lacking understanding? Don’t you grasp that whatever goes into the man cannot make him unholy? ¹⁹For it does not enter into the heart but into the stomach, and then goes out into the sewer, cleansing all foods.”^h

of the man that makes the man unholy. ²¹For from within, out of the heart of men, come evil intentions, sexual immorality, theft, murder, ²²adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustfulness, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. ²³All these evil things come from within and make the man unholy.”

Miracles Touch Gentile Lives

²⁴Yeshua got up and left from there to the region of Tyre. When He had entered a house, He didn't want anyone to know; but He couldn't escape notice. ²⁵A woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him. She came immediately and fell at His feet. ²⁶The woman was a Greek, from Syrophenicia. And she kept begging Yeshua to drive the demon out of her daughter.

²⁷He was telling her, “First let the children get their fill, for it's not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs.”

²⁸“Yes, Master,” she said to Him, “but even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs.”

²⁹Then He said to her, “Because of this word, go your way! The demon has left your daughter.” ³⁰She went home and found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

³¹Again He left the region of Tyre and came through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, within the region of the Decapolis. ³²They bring Him a deaf man who had a speech impediment, and they beg Him to lay His hand on him. ³³Yeshua took him aside from the crowd to a private place, and He put His fingers in the man's ears. After spitting, He touched the man's tongue. ³⁴Looking up to heaven, He says to the man, “Ephphatha,”ⁱ which means “Be opened!”

³⁵Immediately the man's ears were opened, his tongue was loosened, and he began to speak plainly. ³⁶Yeshua ordered them not to tell anyone. But the more He ordered them, the more they continued proclaiming it. ³⁷People were completely astounded, saying, “He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear and the mute speak!”

Do You Still Not Understand?

¹In those days, there was another large crowd with nothing to eat, and Yeshua called the disciples. He said to them, ²“I have compassion for the crowd, because they've stayed with Me for three days now and have nothing to eat. ³If I send them home hungry they'll pass out on the way, for some of them have come from very far away.”

⁴His disciples answered Him, “How can anyone satisfy these people with bread here in a wasteland?”

⁵“How many loaves do you have?” Yeshua was asking them.

⁶He directed the crowd to recline on the ground. After taking the seven loaves and giving thanks, He broke them and began giving them to His disciples to serve; and they served them to the crowd. ⁷They also had a few small fish and, after offering a bracha for them, He commanded these to be served as well. ⁸They ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the broken pieces left over—seven baskets. ⁹About four thousand^j were there, and Yeshua sent them away.

¹⁰Right away, He got into the boat with His disciples and went to the area of Dalmanutha. ¹¹The Pharisees came and began to argue with Him, demanding a sign from heaven; to test Him. ¹²Sighing deeply in His spirit, Yeshua said, “Why does this generation demand a sign? Amen, I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation.” ¹³Leaving them, He got back into the boat and crossed to the other side.

The Un-Seeing Disciples

¹⁴Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, and they had only one loaf in the boat. ¹⁵Yeshua was warning them, “Watch out! Beware of the hametz of the Pharisees and the hametz of Herod.”

^j 8:9. 4000 men or families; cf. Matt. 15:32-39.

¹⁶They began to discuss with each other that they had no bread. ¹⁷And Yeshua, aware of this, said to them, “Why do you discuss that you have no bread? You still don’t get it? Don’t you understand? Are your hearts hardened? ¹⁸Having eyes, don’t you see? And having ears, don’t you hear? And don’t you remember? ¹⁹When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up?”

“Twelve,” they say to Him.

²⁰“When I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up?”

“Seven,” they say to Him.

²¹He said to them, “Do you still not understand?”

Eyes that Need Opening

²²They come to Bethsaida. Some people bring a blind man to Yeshua and beg Him to touch the man. ²³Taking the blind man by the hand, Yeshua brought him outside the village. After spitting on the man’s eyes and laying His hands on him, Yeshua asked the man, “Do you see anything?”

²⁴The man looked up and said, “I see men! They look like trees walking about.” ²⁵Then Yeshua put His hands on the man’s eyes again. The man looked intently, his sight was restored, and he began to see everything clearly.

²⁶Yeshua sent him straight home, saying, “Don’t even enter the village!”

²⁷Now Yeshua and His disciples went out to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that I am?”

²⁸They told Him, “John the Immerser; and others Elijah; but others, one of the prophets.”^a ²⁹Then He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Peter answered Him, “You are the Messiah!”³⁰ And He warned them not to tell anyone about Him.

^a 8:28. cf. Deut. 18:17-19; Mal. 4:5.

Revealing the Mission

³¹Then He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and be killed, and after three days rise again. ^b ³²He was speaking openly about this. And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. ³³But turning around and looking at His disciples, He rebuked Peter. He said, “Get behind Me, satan! You are not setting your mind on the things of God, but the things of men.”

³⁴Then He called the crowd, along with His disciples, and said to them, “If anyone wants to follow after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and keep following Me. ³⁵For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the sake of the Good News will save it. ³⁶For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? ³⁷For what could a man give in exchange for his soul? ³⁸For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this unfaithful and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels!”

¹Yeshua was telling them, “Amen, I tell you, there are some standing here who will never taste death until they see the kingdom of God come with power!”

A Glimpse of His Glory

²After six days, Yeshua takes with Him Peter and Jacob and John, and brings them up a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them. ³His clothes became radiant and brilliantly white, whiter than any launderer on earth could bleach them. ⁴Then Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Yeshua.

⁵Peter responds to Yeshua, “Rabbi, it’s good” for us to be here. Let's make three sukkot—one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”^c (He didn't know what to say, for they were terrified.)

⁷Then a cloud came, overshadowing them;^c and out of the cloud came a voice, “This is My Son, whom I love. Listen to Him!”^d ⁸Suddenly when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Yeshua.

⁹As they were coming down from the mountain, Yeshua ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man rose up from the dead. ¹⁰They kept this word to themselves, discussing among themselves what it is to rise up from the dead. ¹¹And they questioned Him, saying, “Why do the Torah scholars say that Elijah must come first?”

¹²Now He told them, “Indeed Elijah comes first;^e he restores all things. And how is it written that the Son of Man must suffer much and be treated with contempt?^f ¹³I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they wanted, just as it is written about him.”^g

The Secret of Prayer

¹⁴When they came to the disciples, they saw a big crowd around them and the Torah scholars arguing with them. ¹⁵Suddenly, when the whole crowd saw Yeshua, they were amazed and began running to greet Him. ¹⁶He questioned them, “What are you arguing about with them?”

¹⁷And a man from the crowd answered Him, “Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a spirit that makes him mute. ¹⁸Whenever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes stiff. I told Your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn't!”

¹⁹And answering them, He said, “Oh faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me.”

²⁰They brought the boy to Yeshua. When the spirit saw Him, immediately it threw the boy into a convulsion. The boy fell to the ground and began rolling around and foaming at the mouth. ²¹*Yeshua* asked the father, “How long has this been happening to him?”

“Since he was a child,” the man answered. ²²“It has often thrown him into fire or water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion and help us!”

²³“If You can?” Yeshua said to him. “All things are possible for one who believes!”

²⁴Immediately the boy's father cried out, “I believe! Help my unbelief!”

²⁵When Yeshua saw that a crowd was gathering fast, He rebuked the unclean spirit, telling it, “I command you, deaf and mute spirit, come out of him and do not ever enter him again!”

²⁶After howling and shaking the boy wildly, it came out. The boy became so much like a corpse that many were saying, “He's dead!”

²⁷But Yeshua took him by the hand and lifted him, and the boy stood up.

²⁸After Yeshua came into the house, His disciples began questioning Him in private, “Why couldn't we drive it out?”

²⁹And He said to them, “This kind cannot come out except by prayer.”^h

³⁰They left from there and passed through the Galilee. Yeshua didn't want anyone to know, ³¹for He was teaching His disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him. And after He is killed, three days later He will rise up.” ³²But the disciples didn't understand this statement, and they were afraid to question Him about it.

The Secret of Childlike Humility

³³Then they came to Capernaum. And when Yeshua was in the house, He began to ask the disciples, “What were you discussing on the way?” ³⁴But they kept quiet, because on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest.

^h 9:29. Some manuscripts add and fasting.

³⁵Sitting down, He called the Twelve and said to them, "If any man wants to be first, he shall be least of all and the servant of everyone."³⁶Taking a small child, He set him in the midst of them. And taking him in His arms, He said to them, ³⁷"Whoever welcomes one of these children in My name; welcomes Me; and whoever welcomes Me, welcomes not Me but the One who sent Me."

³⁸John said to Him, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he wasn't following us."

³⁹But Yeshua responded, "Don't stop him! No one who does a miracle in My name will be able soon afterward to speak evil about Me. ⁴⁰He who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in My name because you belong to Messiah, amen I tell you, he will never lose his reward."

⁴²"But whoever causes one of these little ones who trust in Me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone put around his neck and to be thrown into the sea!"

The Secret of Salt

⁴³"And if your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off! It is better for you to enter into life crippled than, having two hands, to go to Gehenna,^a into the unquenchable fire. (⁴⁴)^b ⁴⁵And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off! It's better for you to enter life lame than, having your two feet, to be thrown into Gehenna. (⁴⁶)⁴⁷ If your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out! It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into Gehenna, ⁴⁸where

'their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.'^c

Abide in Marriage

¹Then getting up from there, Yeshua goes to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. Again crowds gather around Him, and, as was His custom, He began to teach them once more.

²Pharisees came up, and to test Him they began asking, "Is it permitted for a man to divorce his wife?"

³And He replied to them, "What did Moses command you?"

⁴The Pharisees said, "Moses permitted a man to write a bill of divorce and to put her away."^d

⁵But Yeshua said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment! ⁶But from the beginning of creation, God 'made them male and female. ⁷For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, ⁸and the two shall become one flesh.'^e So they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁹Therefore what God has joined together, let no man separate!"

¹⁰In the house, the disciples began questioning Him about this again. ¹¹And He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. ¹²And if she divorces her husband and marries another, she is committing adultery."

Let the Little Ones Come!

¹³Now people were bringing little children to Yeshua so He might touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who brought them. ¹⁴But when Yeshua saw this, He got angry. He told them, "Let the little children come to Me! Do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁵Amen, I tell you, ^d 10:4. Deut. 24:1-4.

^e 10:6-8. Gen. 1:27, 5:2, 2:24.

whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it!"¹⁶ And He took them in His arms and began blessing them, laying His hands on them.

The Cost of Discipleship

¹⁷As Yeshua was setting out on His way, a man ran up to Him, fell on his knees before Him, and asked, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁸"Why do you call Me good?" Yeshua said to him. "No one is good except One—that is God. ¹⁹You know the commandments, 'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony,' do not cheat, 'honor your father and mother.'"^f

²⁰The man responded, "Teacher, all these I have kept since my youth!"

²¹Looking at him, Yeshua loved him and said, "One thing you lack. Go, sell as much as you have, and give to the poor; and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me." ²²But at this statement, the man became sad and went away grieving, for he had much property.

²³Then looking around, Yeshua says to His disciples, "How hard it will be for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!" ²⁴The disciples were amazed at His words. But Yeshua answers again and says to them, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶The disciples were even more astonished, saying among themselves, "Then who can be saved?"

²⁷Looking at them, Yeshua said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God."^g

²⁸Peter began to say to Him, "Look, we've left everything to follow You!"

²⁹"Amen, I tell you," Yeshua replied, "there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or property, for My sake and for the sake of the Good News,³⁰ who will not receive a hundred times as much now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and property, along with persecutions; and in the olam ha-ba, eternal life. ³¹But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

Death and Resurrection Revealed

³²They were on the way going up to Jerusalem, and Yeshua was going ahead of them. And they were amazed, while those who followed were fearful. Again Yeshua took the Twelve aside and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him.

³³He said, "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars. They will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles.^h ³⁴They will mock Him and spit on Him, scourge Him and kill Him. Yet after three days, He will rise again!"

³⁵Then Jacob and John, the sons of Zebedee, come up to Him, saying, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask of You."

³⁶And He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

³⁷They said to Him, "Let us sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory."

³⁸But Yeshua answered them, "You don't know what you're asking! Are you able to drink the cup I drink, or endure the immersion I must endure?"

³⁹They said to Him, "We are able."

And Yeshua said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink, and you will endure the immersion I must endure. ⁴⁰But to sit on My right or left is not Mine to grant—it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

⁴¹Now when the ten heard, they started to get angry with Jacob and John. ⁴²And calling them over, Yeshua said to them, "You know those recognized as rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones play the tyrant over them. ⁴³Yet it is not this way among you. But whoever wants to be great among you shall be your servant, ⁴⁴and whoever wants to be first among you shall be slave of all. ⁴⁵For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Ben-David Heals the Blind

⁴⁶Then they came to Jericho. Now as Yeshua was leaving Jericho with His disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus the son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. ⁴⁷When he heard that it was Yeshua of Natzeret, he began to cry out, “Ben-David, Yeshua! Have mercy on me!” ⁴⁸Many were warning him to be quiet; but he kept crying out all the more, “Ben-David, have mercy on me!”^a

⁴⁹*Yeshua* stopped and said, “Call him over.”

So they call the blind man, saying, “Take heart! Get up, He’s calling you!” ⁵⁰Throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and came to Yeshua.

⁵¹And answering him, Yeshua said, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

The blind man said, “Rabboni, I want to see again!”

⁵²*Yeshua* said to him, “Go! Your faith has made you well.” Instantly he regained his sight and began following Yeshua down the road.

Ben-David Enters Jerusalem

¹Now as they draw near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, to the Mount of Olives, Yeshua sends two of His disciples ²and says to them, “Go into the village ahead of you. Right away as you enter it, you will find a colt tied up that no one has ever sat upon.^b Untie it and bring it. ³If anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Master needs it.’ And right away he will send it back here.”^c

⁴They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a door. And they untied it. ⁵Some people standing there began saying to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”

⁶They answered just as Yeshua had told them, and the people let them go. ⁷And they brought the colt to Yeshua and laid their cloaks on it, and He sat on it. ⁸Many spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread branches cut from the fields.^d ⁹Those going before and those following kept shouting, “Hoshia-na! Baruch ha-ba b’shem ADONAI!

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!

¹⁰Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father
David!

Hoshia-na in the highest!”^e

¹¹And He entered Jerusalem and went into the Temple. After looking around at everything, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve, since it was already late.

The Fruit of the Faithful

¹²The next day, when they had left Bethany, He became hungry. ¹³Seeing from a distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if He would find any fruit on it. When He came up to it, He found nothing except leaves, because it wasn’t the season for figs. ¹⁴And He said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” And His disciples were listening.

¹⁵Then they came to Jerusalem. And He entered the Temple and started to drive out those selling and buying in the Temple. He overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of those selling doves, ¹⁶and He wouldn’t let anyone carry goods through the Temple. ¹⁷And He began to teach them, saying, “Is it not written,

‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations?’^f

But you have made it a 'den of thieves.'"⁸
¹⁸The ruling kohanim and Torah scholars heard this and began looking for a way to destroy Him; for they were afraid of Him, because the whole crowd was astonished at His teaching. ¹⁹Whenever evening came, Yeshua and His disciples would leave the city.

²⁰As they were passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree shriveled from the roots. ²¹Peter remembered and said to Yeshua, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree You cursed has shriveled up!"

²²And Yeshua answered, saying to them, "Have faith in God! ²³Amen, I tell you, if someone says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart but trusts that what he says is happening, so shall it be for him. ²⁴For this reason I say to you, whatever you pray and ask, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. ²⁵Whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your transgressions."^{(26)h}

A Question for a Question

²⁷Again they come to Jerusalem. While Yeshua was walking in the Temple, the ruling kohanim, Torah scholars, and elders come up to Him. ²⁸And they start saying to Him, "By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority to do these things?"

²⁹*Yeshua* said to them, "I will put one question to you. Answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ³⁰The immersion of John—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me!"

³¹They began to dialogue among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' ³²But if we say, 'From men'...?" They were afraid of the crowd, for all held that John really was a prophet. ³³So answering Yeshua, they say, "We don't know."

And Yeshua tells them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

12

Taking the Kingdom by Force

¹*Yeshua* began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard. He put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a tower. He leased it to some tenant farmers and went on a journey. ²And at the season, he sent a servant to collect from the tenants part of the vineyard's fruit. ³But grabbing him, they beat him up and sent him away empty-handed. ⁴And again the man sent another servant to them, and they wounded his head and treated him shamefully. ⁵He sent another, and that one they killed; and so on with many others, beating some and killing some. ⁶He had yet one, a well-loved son. He sent him to them last of all, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

⁷"But those tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir! Come on, let's kill him and the inheritance will be ours!' ⁸So grabbing the son, they killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.

⁹"What then will the master of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants and give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰Haven't you read this Scripture?

"The stone which the builders rejected, this has become the chief cornerstone.

¹¹This came from ADONAI, and it is marvelous in our eyes."ⁱ

¹²They were trying to seize Yeshua, because they realized that He spoke the parable against them. But they feared the crowd, so they left Him and went away.

⁸ 11:17. Jer. 7:11.

^h 11:26. Some mss. add: But if you don't forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions.

A Test of Loyalty

¹³Then they send some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Yeshua in order to trap Him with a word. ¹⁴They come and say to Him, “Teacher, we know that You are honest, and what others think doesn’t concern You. You don’t look at men’s appearance, but teach the way of God according to the truth. Is it permitted to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? ¹⁵Should we pay, or shouldn’t we?”

But Yeshua saw through their hypocrisy and said to them, “Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a denarius so I may see it.”

¹⁶They brought one. And He said to them, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?” “Caesar’s,” they said to Him.

¹⁷Then Yeshua said to them, “Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they were completely amazed at Him.

The Challenge of the Sadducees

¹⁸Then Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came and began questioning Yeshua, saying, ¹⁹“Teacher, Moses wrote for us that ‘if a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, then his brother should take the widow and father children for his brother.’” ²⁰There were seven brothers; and the first took a wife and, when he died, left no offspring. ²¹And the second took her and died, leaving no offspring, and the third likewise. ²²Now the seven left no offspring. Last of all, the woman died, too. ²³In the resurrection, when they rise up, whose wife will she be? For all seven had married her.”

²⁴*Yeshua* said to them, “Isn’t this the reason you’ve gone astray, because you don’t understand the Scriptures or the power of God? ²⁵For when they rise up from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ²⁶But concerning the dead being raised, haven’t you read in the book of Moses about the burning bush? How God said to him, ‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?’” ²⁷He’s not the God of the dead, but of the living. You have gone far astray!”

Love Ends the Argument

²⁸One of the Torah scholars came and heard them debating. Seeing that Yeshua had answered them well, he asked Him, “Which commandment is first of all?”

²⁹*Yeshua* answered, “The first is, ‘Shema Yisrael, ADONAI Eloheinu, ADONAI echad. Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is One. ³⁰And you shall love ADONAI your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’” ³¹The second is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’” ³²There is no other commandment greater than these.”

³²“Well said, Teacher,” the Torah scholar said to Him. “You have spoken the truth, that He is echad, and besides Him there is no other.”

³³And ‘to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, and with all the strength,’ and ‘to love the neighbor as oneself,’ ³⁴is much more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

³⁴When Yeshua saw that he had answered wisely, He said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And no one dared any longer to question Him.

Who Is King David’s Lord?

³⁵While Yeshua was teaching in the Temple, He said, “How is it that the Torah scholars say that the Messiah is Ben-David? ³⁶David himself, through the Ruach ha-Kodesh, said,

‘ADONAI said to my Lord,
“Sit at My right hand,
until I put Your enemies under Your feet.”’”^h

³⁷If David himself calls Him ‘Lord,’ in what way is He his son?” And the large crowd was listening to Him with delight.

⁴¹He sat down opposite the treasury and began watching how the people were putting money into the offering box. Many rich people were putting in a lot. ⁴²Then a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, worth less than a penny. ⁴³Calling His disciples over, He said to them, “Amen, I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those contributing to the box! ⁴⁴For they all put in from their surplus; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything she had, her whole living.”

13

Signs of the End

¹As Yeshua was going out of the Temple, one of His disciples said to Him, “Teacher, look! What stones and what buildings!”

²*Yeshua* said to him, “You see these great buildings? Not one stone here will be left upon another. Every one will be torn down!”

³As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the Temple, Peter, Jacob, John, and Andrew were questioning Him privately, ⁴“Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?”

⁵*Yeshua* began to tell them, “Watch out that no one leads you astray! ⁶Many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and they will lead many astray. ⁷When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed, for this must happen but it is not yet the end. ⁸For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines. These things are only the beginning of birth pains.

⁹“Watch out for yourselves! They will hand you over to the courts, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings because of Me, as a witness to them. ¹⁰The Good News must first be proclaimed to all the nations. ¹¹When they arrest you and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what to say. Say whatever is given to you in that hour, for it is not you who speaks but the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ¹²Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. And children will rise up against parents and have them put to death. ¹³And you will be hated by all because of My name, but the one who endures to the end will be saved.”

Birth Pangs Before Deliverance

¹⁴“But when you see ‘the abomination of desolation’ⁱ standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then those in Judea must flee to the mountains. ¹⁵The one on the roof must not go down, nor enter to take anything out of his house. ¹⁶And the one in the field must not turn back to get his cloak. ¹⁷Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! ¹⁸Pray that it will not happen in winter.

¹⁹“For in those days there will be trouble such as has never happened,^j not since the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will. ²⁰And unless ADONAI had cut short those days, no one would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom He chose, He cut short the days.

²¹“And then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here’s the Messiah!’ or, ‘Look, there He is!’ do not believe it. ²²For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up^k and show signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, the chosen. ²³So be careful! See, I have told you everything beforehand.”

Messianic Victory

²⁴“But in those days, after that trouble,

‘the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give
its light,

²⁵and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.”^a

²⁶And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in clouds’^b with great power and glory. ²⁷Then He will send out the angels and will gather together His chosen from the four winds, from the end of the earth, to the end of heaven.”

Keep Watch

²⁸“Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹So also, when you see all these things happening, know that it is near, at the door. ³⁰Amen, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. ³¹Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away. ³²But of that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven nor the Son, except the Father.

³³“Keep on the lookout! Stay alert! For you do not know when the time is. ³⁴It is like a man away on a journey. After leaving his house and putting his servants in charge and giving each his task; he also commanded the doorkeeper to watch. ³⁵Therefore stay alert, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, when the rooster crows, or in the early morning. ³⁶So watch in case, coming suddenly, he finds you asleep. ³⁷What I say to you I say to all: ‘Stay alert!’”

Anointed for Burial

¹Now it was two days before Passover and the Feast of Matzah. The ruling kohanim and Torah scholars were searching for a way to grab Yeshua by stealth and kill Him. ²“But not during the festival,” they were saying, “so there won’t be a riot among the people.”

⁶But Yeshua said, “Leave her alone. Why do you cause trouble for her? She’s done Me a mitzvah. ⁷For you always have the poor with you, and you can do good for them whenever you want; but you won’t always have Me. ⁸She did what she could—she came beforehand to anoint My body for burial. ⁹Amen, I tell you, wherever the Good News is proclaimed in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

¹⁰Then Judah from Kriot, one of the Twelve, went out to the ruling kohanim to betray Yeshua to them. ¹¹They were delighted when they heard this and promised to give him money. And Judah began looking for a chance to hand Him over.

New Covenant at the Last Seder

¹²Now on the first day of matzah, when they were slaughtering the Passover lamb, Yeshua’s disciples say to Him, “Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

¹³He sends two of His disciples and tells them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him, ¹⁴and wherever he enters, tell the homeowner, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is My guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?”’¹⁵ He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.”

¹⁶The disciples went out, came to the city, and found just what Yeshua had told them. And they prepared the Passover. ¹⁷When it was evening, He came with the Twelve. ¹⁸As they were reclining and eating, Yeshua said, “Amen, I tell you, one of you who is eating with Me will betray Me.”

¹⁹They began to be sorrowful and to say to Him one by one, “I’m not the one, am I?”

²⁰He said to them, “It’s one of the Twelve, one who dips with Me in the bowl.”^c ²¹For the Son of Man indeed goes, just as it is written about Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born!”

²²And while they were eating, He took matzah;^d and after He offered the bracha, He broke it and gave it to them and said, “Take; this is My body.”^e ²³And He took a cup; and after giving thanks, He gave to them and they all drank from it. ²⁴And He said to them, “This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.”^e ²⁵Amen, I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God.”

Denial Predicted

²⁶After singing the Hallel,^f they went out to the Mount of Olives. ²⁷And Yeshua said to them, “You will all fall away, for it is written,

‘I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’^g

²⁸But after I’m raised up, I will go before you to the Galilee.”

²⁹Peter said to Him, “Even though all fall away, I won’t!”

³⁰And Yeshua said to him, “Amen, I tell you, today—this very night—before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.”

³¹But Peter kept insisting exceedingly, “Even if I must die with You, I’ll never deny You!” And they all were saying the same.

A Night of Painful Prayer

³²Then they come to a place whose name is Gethsemane; and Yeshua says to His disciples, “Sit here while I pray.” ³³He takes with Him Peter, Jacob, and John; and He began to be deeply distressed and troubled. ³⁴And He tells them, “My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch.”

³⁵Going a little farther, He fell to the ground and began praying that if possible this hour might pass Him by. ³⁶And He was saying, “Abba, Father, all things are possible for You! Take this cup from Me! Yet not what I will, but what You will.”

³⁷Then He comes and finds them sleeping; and He tells Peter, “Simon, you’re asleep? Couldn’t you keep watch for one hour? ³⁸Keep watching and praying, so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.” ³⁹Again He went away and prayed, saying the same words. ⁴⁰And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy. They didn’t know what to answer Him. ⁴¹And He comes the third time and says to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Enough! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Get up, let’s go! Look, My betrayer is near.”

Betrayed and Abandoned

⁴³Right away, while Yeshua was still speaking, Judah comes up, one of the Twelve, and with him a crowd with swords and clubs, from the ruling kohanim, Torah scholars, and elders.

⁴⁴Now His betrayer had given them a signal, saying, “The One I kiss, He’s the One! Seize Him and lead Him away under guard.”

⁴⁸Yeshua said to them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs, to capture Me as you would against a revolutionary? ⁴⁹Every day I was with you in the Temple teaching, and you didn’t seize Me. But this is so that the Scriptures^b would be fulfilled.” ⁵⁰And all fled, abandoning Him.^c ⁵¹A certain young man was following Him, with nothing but a linen cloth around his body, and they grabbed him. ⁵²But he ran away naked, leaving behind the linen cloth.

Falsely Charged

⁵³Then they led Yeshua away to the kohen gadol. And all the ruling kohanim, elders, and Torah scholars gathered. ⁵⁴Peter had followed Him from a distance, right into the courtyard of the kohen gadol. He was sitting with the guards, warming himself by the fire.

⁵⁵Now the ruling kohanim and all the Sanhedrin kept trying to get evidence against Yeshua so they could put Him to death, but they weren’t finding any. ⁵⁶Many were giving false testimony against Him, but their testimony wasn’t consistent. ⁵⁷Some stood up and began to give false testimony against Him, saying, ⁵⁸“We heard Him say, ‘I will destroy this Temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.’” ⁵⁹Yet even then, their testimony didn’t agree.

⁶⁰The kohen gadol stood up in the middle and questioned Yeshua, saying, “Do You have no answer? What is this they’re testifying against You?”

⁶¹But keeping silent, Yeshua did not answer. Again the kohen gadol questioned Him, “Are you Mashiach, Son of the Blessed One?”^d

⁶³Tearing his clothes, the kohen gadol says, “Why do we still need witnesses? ⁶⁴You’ve heard the blasphemy. What seems right to you?”

Then all condemned Him as deserving death. ⁶⁵Some began to spit on Him, to blindfold Him, and to beat Him with their fists, saying, “Prophecy!” Also the guards slapped Him around.

The Rooster Crows

⁶⁶As Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the kohen gadol comes by. ⁶⁷Seeing Peter warming himself, she looked straight at him. “You also were with Yeshua of Natzeret,” she says.

⁶⁸But he denied it, saying, “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about!” Then he went outside to the gateway, and a rooster crowed.

⁶⁹Seeing him, the servant girl began again to tell the bystanders, “This is one of them.”

⁷⁰But again he denied it. And a little while later, the bystanders were again saying to Peter, “Surely you’re one of them, for you’re also a Galilean.”

⁷¹But he began to curse himself and to swear an oath: “I do not know this Man you’re talking about!”⁷²Right then, a rooster crowed a second time. Then Peter called to mind the word Yeshua had said to him: “Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.” And he broke down and began to weep.

Handed Over to the Romans

¹Right at daybreak, the ruling kohanim held a meeting to consult with the elders and Torah scholars and the whole Sanhedrin. They tied up Yeshua, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate. ²Pilate interrogated Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

Yeshua answers him, “As you say.”

³The ruling kohanim began to accuse Him of many things. ⁴Again, Pilate asked Him, “Aren’t you going to answer? Look how many charges they’re bringing against You!” ⁵But Yeshua did not answer, so Pilate was amazed.

⁶Now during the feast, he used to release to them one prisoner, anyone they were asking for. ⁷Now a man named Bar-Abba^f had been in jail with the rebels who had committed murder during the rebellion. ⁸The crowd came up and began to request what he was accustomed to do for them. ⁹But Pilate answered them, saying, “Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?” ¹⁰For he knew that out of envy the ruling kohanim had handed Him over. ¹¹But the ruling kohanim stirred up the crowd, so he would release Bar-Abba to them instead.

¹²Then answering again, Pilate said to them, “So what do you want me to do with the One you call the King of the Jews?”

¹³They shouted back, “Execute Him!”

¹⁴Pilate responded, “Why? What evil has He done?”

But they shouted all the more, “Execute Him!”

¹⁵Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Bar-Abba for them. And after he had Yeshua scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

¹⁶The soldiers took Him away, into the palace, the governor’s mansion called the Praetorium. And they call together the cohort^g of soldiers. ¹⁷They dress Him up in purple. After braiding a crown of thorns, they put it on Him. ¹⁸And they began to salute Him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” ¹⁹Over and over, they kept hitting Him on the head with a staff and spitting on Him; and kneeling down, they worshiped Him. ²⁰When they finished mocking Him, they stripped the purple off Him and put His own clothes back on Him. And they led Him out to crucify Him.

Crucified as King of the Jews

²¹Now Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was coming in from the countryside. The soldiers force this passerby to carry Yeshua’s cross-beam.^h ²²They bring Yeshua to the place called Golgotha (which is translated, Place of a Skull). ²³They were offering Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He didn’t take it. ²⁴Then they crucify Him and divide up His clothing among themselves, casting lots for themⁱ to see who should take what.

²⁵Now it was the third hour^j when they nailed Him on the stake. ²⁶And the inscription of the charge against Him was written above: “THE KING OF THE JEWS.” ²⁷And with Him they execute two outlaws, one on His right and one on His left.^{(28)k}

²⁹Those passing by were jeering at Him, shaking their heads and saying, “Ha! You who are going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days, ³⁰save Yourself by coming down from the stake!”

³¹Likewise the ruling kohanim, along with the Torah scholars, were also mocking Him among themselves. “He saved others,” they were saying, “but He can’t save Himself?” ³²Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down now from the stake, so we may see and believe!” Even those executed with Him were ridiculing Him.

Death and Burial

³³When the sixth hour had come, darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour.^l

³⁴At the ninth hour Yeshua cried out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?”^m which is translated, “My God, My God, why have You abandoned Me?”ⁿ

³⁵When some of the bystanders heard it, they began saying, “Look, He’s calling for Elijah.”³⁶ Then someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine. He put it on a stick and was offering it to Yeshua to drink, saying, “Wait, let’s see if Elijah comes to take Him down.”³⁷ But letting out a loud cry, Yeshua breathed His last.

⁴⁰ There were also women watching from a distance. Among them were Miriam from Magdala, Miriam the mother of Jacob the younger and of Joses,^b and Salome. ⁴¹ They would follow Him and serve Him when He was in the Galilee. Many other women who had gone up together with Him to Jerusalem were there also.

⁴² Now evening had already come. Since it was the Day of Preparation, that is, the day before Shabbat, ⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea, a respected council member who himself was waiting for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for Yeshua’s body.

⁴⁴ Pilate was surprised that He was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him whether Yeshua had been dead for long. ⁴⁵ When Pilate learned this from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶ Joseph bought a linen cloth, took Him down, wrapped Him in the linen, and laid Him in a tomb that had been cut out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. ⁴⁷ Miriam from Magdala and Miriam the mother of Joses were watching where Yeshua’s body was placed.

come and anoint Yeshua’s body. ² Very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they come to the tomb. ³ They were saying to each other, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?”

⁴ Looking up, they see that the stone (it was really huge) had been rolled away. ⁵ As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe; and they were startled. ⁶ But he said to them, “Do not be alarmed. You are looking for Yeshua of Natzeret, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here! See the place where they put Him. ⁷ But go, tell His disciples and Peter, ‘He is going before you to the Galilee. There you will see Him, just as He told you.’”

⁸ And going outside, they fled from the tomb, gripped by trembling and amazement. They didn’t say anything to anybody, for they were afraid.

He Is Risen^c

⁹ After He had risen early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Miriam of Magdala, from whom He had driven out seven demons. ¹⁰ She went and brought word to those who had been with Him, while they were mourning and weeping. ¹¹ When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they refused to believe.

¹² After that, He appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking on their way to the country. ¹³ They went and reported it to the rest, but they did not believe them either. ¹⁴ Later He appeared to them, the eleven, as they were reclining at the table. He rebuked them for their unbelief and hardheartedness, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had been raised.

Tell the World!

¹⁵ He told them, “Go into all the world and will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well.”

¹⁹Then the Lord Yeshua, after He had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. ²⁰And they went out and proclaimed everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the signs that follow.

Prophecy of Birth to the Barren

⁵In the days of Herod, King of Judah, there was a kohen named Zechariah from the priestly division of Abijah. ⁶Elizabeth, his wife, was from the daughters of Aaron. ⁷Together they were righteous before ADONAI, walking without fault in all His commandments and instructions. ⁸But they were childless, because Elizabeth was barren and both of them were elderly.

⁹Now it happened to be Zechariah's time to serve as kohen before ADONAI in the order of his division. ¹⁰According to the custom of the priestly office, it became his lot to enter the Holy Place of ADONAI to burn incense. ¹¹And the whole crowd of people was praying outside at the hour of incense burning. ¹²An angel of ADONAI appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. ¹³Zechariah was in turmoil when he saw the angel, and fear fell upon him. ¹⁴But the angel said, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give birth to your son, and you will name him John. ¹⁵And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. ¹⁶He will be great before ADONAI; and he should not drink wine and intoxicating beverage,^c but he will be filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh just out of his mother's womb. ¹⁷Many of Bnei-Yisrael will turn to ADONAI their God. ¹⁸And he will go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers to the children^d and the disobedient ones to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready for ADONAI a prepared people.

¹⁹Zechariah said to the angel, "How will I know this for certain? I'm an old man, and my wife is well-advanced in age."

²⁰And speaking to him, the angel declared, "I am Gabriel, the one standing in God's presence. I was commissioned to tell you and proclaim to you this good news. ²¹So look, you will be silent and powerless to speak until the day these things happen, since you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their time."

²²The people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering about his long delay in the Holy Place. ²³But when he came out, he couldn't speak to them. Then they realized that he had seen a vision in the Holy Place. He was making signs to them but remained mute. ²⁴When the days of his priestly service had been completed, he went home. ²⁵After these days, his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and hid herself for five months, saying, ²⁶"ADONAI has done this for me! In these days He looked upon me, to take away my disgrace among the people."^e

Prophecy of Birth to the Virgin

²⁷Then in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent by ADONAI into a town in the Galilee named Natzeret ²⁸and to a virgin engaged to a man named Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Miriam. ²⁹And coming to her, the angel said, "Shalom, favored one! ADONAI is with you."^f ³⁰But at the message, she was perplexed and kept wondering what

³⁵And responding, the angel said to her, “The Ruach ha-Kodesh will come upon you, and the power of Elyon will overshadow you. Therefore, the Holy One being born will be called Ben-Elohim. ³⁶Behold, even your relative Elizabeth has conceived a son in her old age; and the one who was called barren is six months pregnant. ³⁷For nothing will be impossible with God.”^k ³⁸So Miriam said, “Behold, the servant of ADONAI. Let it be done to me according to your word.” And the angel left her.

Elizabeth Greets Miriam with Joy

³⁹Now in those days, Miriam got up and quickly traveled into the hill country, to a town in Judah. ⁴⁰She entered Zechariah’s home and happily greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹When Elizabeth heard Miriam’s greeting, the unborn child leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was completely filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ⁴²She then cried out with a great shout, saying, “You are blessed among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. ⁴³Who am I, that the mother of my Master should come to me? ⁴⁴For even when I just heard the sound of your greeting in my ear, the unborn child leaped with joy in my womb. ⁴⁵Blessed is she who trusted that there would be a fulfillment of those things spoken to her by ADONAI.”

Zechariah Breaks His Silence

⁵⁶Miriam stayed with her for three months and then returned to her home. ⁵⁷Upon Elizabeth’s full term to deliver, she gave birth to a son. ⁵⁸Her neighbors and relatives heard how ADONAI had shown her His great mercy, and they began to rejoice with her.

⁶³Asking for a small tablet, he wrote, “John is his name.” They were all astonished! ⁶⁴And his mouth was immediately unlocked as well as his tongue, and he began to speak, praising God. ⁶⁵Fear came on all those who lived around them, and all these matters were talked about throughout the hill country of Judah. ⁶⁶Everyone who heard pondered these things in their hearts, saying, “What then will this child become?” For the hand of ADONAI was on him.

Yeshua’s Birth in Bethlehem

¹Now it happened in those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus to register all the world’s inhabitants. ²This was the first census taken when Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³Everyone was traveling to be registered in his own city.

⁴Now Joseph also went up from the Galilee, out of the town of Natzeret to Judah, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was from the house and family of David.^g ⁵He went to register with Miriam, who was engaged to him and was pregnant.

⁶But while they were there, the time came for her to give birth—⁷and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped Him in strips of cloth and set Him down in a manger, since there was no room for them in the inn.

Shepherds Witness Angelic Praises

⁸Now there were shepherds in the same region, living out in the fields and guarding their flock at night. ⁹Suddenly an angel of ADONAI stood before them, and the glory of ADONAI shone all around them; and they were absolutely terrified.

¹⁰But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid! For behold, I proclaim Good News to you, which will be great joy to all the people. ¹¹A Savior is born to you today in the city of David, who is Messiah the Lord. ¹²And the sign to you is this: You will find an infant wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger.”

¹³And suddenly a multitude of heavenly armies appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

¹⁴“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth shalom to men of good will.”

¹⁵And when the angels departed from them into the heavens, the shepherds were saying to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened which ADONAI has made known to us!” ¹⁶So they hurried off and found Miriam and Joseph, and the Baby lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they had seen this, they made known the word that had been spoken to them concerning this Child. ¹⁸And all those who heard were amazed at the things the shepherds told them. ¹⁹But Miriam treasured all these things, pondering them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, just as they had been told.

Temple Prophets Rejoice

²¹When eight days had passed for His brit-milah,^h He was named Yeshua, the name given by the angel before He was conceived in the womb. ²²And when the days of their purification were fulfilled,ⁱ according to the Torah of Moses, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present to ADONAI. ²³As it is written in the Torah of ADONAI, “Every firstborn male that opens the womb shall be called holy to ADONAI.”^j ²⁴So they offered a sacrifice according to what was said in the Torah of ADONAI: “a pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons.”^k

²⁵Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and pious, waiting for the consolation of Israel.^l The Ruach ha-Kodesh was on him. ²⁶And it had been revealed to him by the Ruach ha-Kodesh that he would not die before he had seen the Anointed One of ADONAI. ²⁷So in the Ruach, Simeon came into the Temple; and when the parents brought the Child Yeshua to do for Him according to the custom of the Torah,²⁸ Simeon received Him into his arms and offered a bracha to God, saying,

²⁹“Now may You let Your servant go in peace, O Sovereign Master,^m according to Your word.

³⁰For my eyes have seen Your salvation,

³¹which You have prepared in the presence of all peoples:

³²A light for revelation to the nationsⁿ and the glory of Your people Israel.”

³³And His father and mother were marveling at the things that were said about Him. ³⁴And Simeon offered a bracha over them and said to Miriam His mother, “Behold, this One is destined to cause the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that is opposed, ³⁵so the thoughts of many hearts may be uncovered. (And even for you, a sword will pierce through your soul.)”

³⁶Now Anna, a daughter of Phanuel of the tribe of Asher, was a prophetess. She was well advanced in age, having lived with a husband only^o seven years ³⁷and then as a widow until age eighty-four. She never left the Temple, serving night and day with fasting and prayers. ³⁸And coming up at that very instant, she began praising God and speaking about the Child to all those waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.^p

³⁹When Joseph and Miriam had completed everything according to the Torah of ADONAI, they returned to the Galilee, to their own city of Natzeret. ⁴⁰The Child kept growing and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon Him.

The Boy Astonishes Jerusalem Scholars

⁴¹Now His parents were going every year to Jerusalem for the Passover feast. ^a⁴²When He became twelve years old, they were going up according to festival custom. ⁴³As they headed home after completing the days, the boy Yeshua remained in Jerusalem, but His parents didn't know. ⁴⁴Supposing He was in the caravan, they went a day's journey, then began looking for Him among relatives and friends. ⁴⁵When they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for Him.

⁴⁶After three days they found Him in the Temple, sitting in the center of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. ⁴⁷And all those hearing Him were astonished at His understanding and His answers. ⁴⁸When His parents saw Yeshua, they were overwhelmed. And His mother said to Him, "Child, why did you do this to us? Look! Your father and I were searching for You frantically!"

⁴⁹He said to them, "Why were you searching for Me? Didn't you know that I must be about the things of My Father?" ⁵⁰But they did not grasp the message He was telling them.

⁵¹Then He went down with them to Natzeret and was obedient to them. But His mother treasured all these words in her heart. ⁵²And Yeshua kept increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

John the Immerser at the Jordan

¹It was now the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—when Pontius Pilate was

^a 2:41. cf. Exod. 23:15; Lev. 23:4-8; Deut. 16:1-8.

governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of the Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene. ²During the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came upon John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. ³And he came into all the surrounding region of the Jordan, proclaiming an immersion of repentance for the removal of sins. ⁴As it is written in the scroll of the words of Isalah the prophet,

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

'Prepare the way of ADONAI, and make His paths straight.

⁵Every valley shall be filled up and every mountain and hill brought low.

The crooked shall be made straight and the rough ways made smooth,

⁶and all humanity shall see the salvation of God."^b

⁷Therefore John was saying to the crowds that came out to be immersed by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸Therefore produce fruits worthy of repentance; and don't even begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father!' For I tell you that from these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. ⁹Even now the axe is laid at the root of the trees, so every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire!"

¹⁰The crowds were asking him, "What should we do?"

¹¹He answered them, saying, "Whoever has two coats, let him give to the one who has none; and whoever has food, let him do the same."^c

¹²Tax collectors also came to him to be immersed. "Teacher," they said to him, "what should we do?"

^b 3:4-6. Isa. 40:3-5.

¹³He said to them, “Do not take more than you are supposed to.”

¹⁴Also soldiers asked him, saying, “And what should we do?”

He said to them, “Do not take things from anyone by force, do not falsely accuse anyone, and be content with your wages.”^d

¹⁵Now the people were filled with expectation, and all were wondering in their hearts about John, whether he might be the Messiah.

¹⁶John answered them all, saying, “As for me, I immerse you with water. But One is coming who is mightier than I am; I am not worthy to untie the strap of His sandals! He will immerse you in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and fire.

¹⁷His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and gather the wheat into His barn, but the chaff He will burn up with inextinguishable fire.”^e ¹⁸So with many other exhortations, John proclaimed Good News to the people. ¹⁹But Herod the tetrarch—after being rebuked by John because of Herodias, his brother’s wife, and because of all the evil things Herod had done—²⁰added even this on top of them all: he shut up John in prison.

²¹Now when all the people were immersed, Yeshua also was immersed. And while He was praying, heaven was opened ²²and the Ruach ha-Kodesh came down upon Him in bodily form like a dove. And from out of heaven came a voice, “You are My Son, whom I love—with You I am well pleased!”^f

The Lineage of Yeshua Ben-David Ben-Elohim

²³*Yeshua* was about thirty years old when He began his ministry. He was the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, ²⁴the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, ²⁵the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, ²⁶the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, ²⁷the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, ²⁸the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, ²⁹the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, ³⁰the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, ³¹the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,^g ³²the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, ³³the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, ³⁴the son of Jacob, the son of Yitzhak, the son of Abraham,^h the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, ³⁵the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, ³⁶the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, ³⁷the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Kenan, ³⁸the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam,ⁱ the son of God.

Temptation in the Wilderness

¹*Yeshua*, now filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh, returned from the Jordan. He was led by the Ruach in the wilderness ²for forty days, being tested by the devil. Now He ate nothing during those days, and when they had ended, He was hungry.

³The devil said to Him, “If You are Ben-Elohim, tell this stone to become bread.”

⁴*Yeshua* answered him, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone.’”^j

⁵And leading Him up, the devil showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in an instant.

⁶And the devil said to Him, “I’ll give to You all this authority along with its glory, because it has been handed over to me and I can give it to anyone I wish. ⁷Therefore, if you will worship before me, all this shall be Yours.”

⁸But answering, Yeshua told him, “It is written, ‘You shall worship ADONAI your God, and Him only shall you serve.’”^a ⁹Then he brought Yeshua to Jerusalem and placed Him on the highest point of the Temple. He said to Him, “If You are Ben-Elohim, throw Yourself down from here. ¹⁰For it is written,

‘He will command His angels concerning you, to guard you,’^b

¹¹and ‘upon their hands they will lift you up, so that you may not strike your foot against a stone.’”^c

¹²But answering, Yeshua said to him, “It is said, ‘You shall not put ADONAI your God to the test.’”^d ¹³And when the devil had completed every test, he departed from Him until another occasion.

Isaiah’s Prophecy Fulfilled in Natzeret

¹⁴*Yeshua* returned in the power of the Ruach to the Galilee, and news about Him went out through all the surrounding region. ¹⁵He taught in their synagogues, and everyone was praising Him. ¹⁶And He came to Natzeret, where He had been raised. As was His custom, He went into the synagogue on Shabbat, and He got up to read. ¹⁷When the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him, He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,

¹⁸“The Ruach ADONAI is on me, because He has anointed me to proclaim Good News to the poor.
He has sent me^e to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free the oppressed, ¹⁹and to proclaim the year of ADONAI’s favor.”^f

²⁰He closed the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. All eyes in the synagogue were focused on Him. ²¹Then He began to tell them, “Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your ears.”

²²All were speaking well of Him and marveling at the gracious words coming out of His mouth. And they were saying, “Isn’t this the son of Joseph?”

²³But He said to them, “Doubtless you will say to Me this proverb, ‘Doctor, heal yourself!’ and ‘What we have heard was done at Capernaum, do as much here also in your hometown.’”

²⁴But He said, “Truly, I tell you, ‘No prophet is accepted in his own hometown.’”^g ²⁵But with all truthfulness I say to you, that there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when heaven was closed for three and a half years and there came a great famine over all the land. ²⁶Elijah was not sent to any of them, but only to Zarephath in the land of Sidon, to a widowed woman.^h ²⁷There were many with tzara’at in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them were purified apart from Naaman the Syrian.”^h

²⁸Now all in the synagogue were filled with rage upon hearing these things. ²⁹Rising up, they drove Him out of the town and brought Him as far as the edge of the mountain on which their city had been built, in order to throw Him off the cliff. ³⁰But passing through the middle of them, He went on His way.

Healing and Deliverance in Capernaum and Beyond

³¹*Yeshua* came down to Capernaum, a town in the Galilee. He was teaching them on Shabbat, ³²and they were astounded at His teaching because His message had authority. ³³In the synagogue was a man who had an unclean demonic spirit, and he cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴“Ah! What have we to do with You, Yeshua of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are! You are the Holy One of God!”

^f 4:18-19. Isa. 61:1-2a(61:1-2a LXX); 58:6d(58:6d LXX); cf. Lev. 25:10.

³⁵Yeshua rebuked him, saying, “Quiet! Come out of him!” And when the demon threw him down in their midst, it came out without hurting him.

³⁶They were all amazed, and they spoke to one another, saying, “What is this message? For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out.” ³⁷So His reputation grew, spreading to every place in that region.

³⁸After He left the synagogue, Yeshua entered Simon’s home. Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they petitioned Him concerning her. ³⁹Then standing over her, He rebuked the fever and it left her. Immediately she arose to wait on them.

⁴⁰When the sun was setting, they brought to Yeshua all who were sick with various diseases. And He was laying hands on each one and healing them. ⁴¹Even demons were coming out from many, shouting out and saying, “You are Ben-Elohim!”ⁱ But He was rebuking them and not permitting them to speak, because they knew Him to be the Messiah.

⁴²Now when it was day, He left and went to a desert place. The crowds were searching for Him, and they came to Him and were trying to keep Him from leaving them. ⁴³But He said to them, “I must proclaim the Good News of the kingdom of God^l to the other towns also. It was for this purpose I was sent.” ⁴⁴So He kept preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

Calling Fishermen at the Kinneret

¹It happened that the crowds were pressing upon Yeshua to hear the word of God as He

ⁱ 4:41. cf. Ps.2:7.

^l 4:43. cf. Dan. 7:14, 27.

was standing by the Lake of Kinneret, ²when He saw two boats standing beside the lake. Now the fishermen had left them and were washing the nets. ³Getting into one of the boats, Simon’s boat, Yeshua asked him to push out a ways from the land. Then sitting down, He taught the crowds from the boat.

⁴When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, “Go out into the deep water, and let down your nets for a catch.”

⁵Simon replied, “Master, we’ve worked hard all night and caught nothing. But at Your word I will let down the nets.” ⁶When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets began to break. ⁷So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink. ⁸But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Yeshua’s knees, saying, “Go away from me, Master, for I am a sinful man!” ⁹For amazement had gripped him and all who were with him, over the catch of fish they had netted; ¹⁰so also Jacob and John, Zebedee’s sons, who were partners with Simon.

But Yeshua said to Simon, “Do not be afraid. From now on, you will be catching men.” ¹¹So when they had brought the boats to the landing, they left everything and followed Him.

Yeshua Heals and News Spreads

¹²Now while Yeshua was in one of the towns, a man covered with tzara’at appeared. And when he saw Yeshua, he fell on his face and begged Him, saying, “Master, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”

¹³Yeshua stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing. Be cleansed!” Immediately, the tzara’at left him. ¹⁴Yeshua ordered him to tell no one, but commanded him, “Go and show yourself to the kohen.^k Then bring an offering for your cleansing, just as Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

¹⁵But the news about Yeshua was spreading all the more, and many crowds were coming together to hear and to be healed of their diseases. ¹⁶Yet He would often slip away into the wilderness and pray.

Crowds Gather from the Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem

¹⁷Now on one of those days, Yeshua was teaching. Pharisees and Torah scholars were sitting there, who had come from every village of the Galilee and Judea, as well as from Jerusalem. And ADONAI's power to heal was in Him. ¹⁸And behold, men were carrying a paralyzed man on a stretcher, trying to bring him in and place him before Yeshua. ¹⁹But when they found no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his stretcher through the tiles, right in the middle before Yeshua. ²⁰When He saw their faith, He said, "Man, your sins are forgiven."

²¹Then the Torah scholars and the Pharisees began to question, saying, "Who is this fellow speaking blasphemies? Who can pardon sins but God alone?"

²²Yeshua, knowing their thoughts, replied to them, "Why are you raising questions in your hearts? ²³Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? ²⁴But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to pardon sins..." He said to the paralyzed one, "I tell you, get up and take your cot, and go home!"

²⁵Immediately he got up before them, picked up what he had been lying on, and went home, glorifying God. ²⁶Astonishment took hold of them, and they glorified God and all were filled with awe, saying, "We've seen incredible things today!"

The Banquet at Levi's House

²⁷After these things, Yeshua went out and observed a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth. He said to him, "Follow Me." ²⁸And leaving everything, he got up and followed Him.

²⁹Levi made a great banquet for Yeshua at his house, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. ³⁰The Pharisees and their Torah scholars began murmuring to His disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

³¹And Yeshua answered and said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a doctor, but those who are sick do. ³²I did not come to call the righteous, but the sinful to repentance."

³³But they said to Him, "John's disciples often fast and offer prayers, as do the disciples of the Pharisees. But Your disciples are eating and drinking."

³⁴But Yeshua said to them, "You cannot make the guests of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you? ³⁵But the days will come; and when the bridegroom is taken away from them, then they will fast in those days."

³⁶Now he was also telling them a parable. "No one tears a patch from a new garment to use it on an old garment. Otherwise he will rip the new, and the patch from the new will not match the old. ³⁷And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins, it will be spilled out, and the skins will be destroyed. ³⁸But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins. ³⁹No man who drinks old wine wants new, because he says, 'The old is fine.'"

6

Shabbat in the Grain Fields

¹Now during Shabbat, Yeshua was passing through grain fields; and His disciples were picking and eating heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. ²But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not permitted on Shabbat?"

³Then answering them, Yeshua said, "Haven't you read what David did when he was hungry, and those with him? ⁴How he entered into the house of God, took and ate the showbread which only the kohanim are permitted to eat, and even gave it to those with him?”^a ⁵He said to them, “The Son of Man is Lord of Shabbat.”

Shabbat Controversy at the Synagogue

⁶On a different Shabbat, Yeshua entered the synagogue and was teaching. A man was there, whose right hand was paralyzed. ⁷But closely watching Him were the Torah scholars and Pharisees, to see if He heals on Shabbat, so that they might find grounds to accuse Him. ⁸But He knew their opinions and said to the man with the paralyzed hand, “Get up and stand in our midst.” And getting up, the man stood.

⁹*Yeshua* said to them, “I ask you, is it permitted on Shabbat to do good or to do evil, to save or to destroy a life?” ¹⁰Then looking around at everyone, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” The man did, and his hand was restored. ¹¹But they were filled with fury and discussed among themselves what they might do to Yeshua.

¹²And it was during these days that Yeshua went out to the mountain to pray, and He spent all night in prayer to God. ¹³When day came, He called His disciples, choosing from among them twelve whom He also named emissaries—¹⁴Simon, whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; and Jacob and John; and Philip and Bartholomew; ¹⁵and Matthew and Thomas; Jacob the son of Alphaeus; Simon who was called the Zealot; ¹⁶Judah the son of Jacob; and Judah from Kriot, who became a traitor.

The Sermon on the Plain

¹⁷Then Yeshua came down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of His disciples and a multitude of people, from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon, ¹⁸had come to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases. Even those disturbed by defiling spirits were being healed. ¹⁹Everyone in the crowd was trying to touch Him, because power flowed from Him and He was healing them all.

²⁰And looking up at His disciples, He said;

“Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

²¹Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be satisfied.

Blessed are you who weep now,
for you shall laugh.

²²Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude you, and revile you,
and spurn your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.

²³Rejoice in that day and jump for joy! For behold, your reward is great in heaven! For their fathers used to treat the prophets the same way.”^b

²⁴But woe to you who are rich, for you are receiving your comfort in full.

²⁵Woe to you who are full,
for you shall be hungry.

Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you shall mourn and weep.

²⁶Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers used to treat the false prophets the same way.”^c

²⁷“But I say to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸bless those who curse you, pray for the ones who mistreat you. ²⁹To the one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also. And from the one who takes your cloak, do not hold back your shirt. ³⁰Give to every one who asks you; and whoever takes something of yours, make no demands upon him.

³¹“Do to others as you would have them do to you. ³²If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. ³³And if you do good to those who are doing good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do this. ³⁴And if you lend to those from whom you expect to take, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners in order to receive back the same.

³⁵“But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. ^a Then your reward will be great and you will be sons of Elyon, for He is kind to the ungrateful and evil ones. ³⁶Be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate to you.”

³⁷Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Pardon, and you will be pardoned. ³⁸Give, and it will be given to you—a good measure, pressed down, shaken together, overflowing, will be given into your lap. For whatever measure you measure out will be measured back to you.”

³⁹He also spoke this parable to them: “The blind cannot show the way to the blind, can he? Won’t they both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

⁴⁵“Out of the good treasure of his heart the good man brings forth good, and out of evil the evil man brings forth evil. For from the overflow of the heart his mouth speaks.”

⁴⁶“Why do you call Me ‘Master, Master’ and do not do what I say? ⁴⁷Everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and does them, I will show you what he is like. ⁴⁸He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock. And when a flood came, the torrent burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built.

⁴⁹“But the one who hears yet does not do is like a man who built a house upon land without a foundation. When the torrent burst against it, immediately it collapsed—and the destruction of that house was great!”

A Centurion’s Faith at Capernaum

¹When Yeshua finished all His drash in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum. ²Now a certain centurion had a valued slave, who was ill and about to die. ³When he heard about Yeshua, he sent Jewish elders to Him, asking Him to come and save his slave. ⁴When they came to Yeshua, they begged Him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy for You to grant this, ⁵for he loves our people and even built our synagogue.”

⁶Now Yeshua started to go with them; and when He wasn’t far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to Him, “Master, do not trouble Yourself, for I’m not worthy for You to come under my roof. ⁷That is why I didn’t consider myself worthy to come to You. But say the word and let my servant be healed. ⁸For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

⁹Now when Yeshua heard this, He was amazed at him. Turning to the crowd following Him, He said, “I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith.” ¹⁰When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

An Amazing Report Spreads throughout all Judea

¹¹The next day Yeshua traveled to a town called Nain, and coming along with Him were

^a 6:35. cf. Prov. 19:17.

His disciples and a large crowd. ¹²Just as He came near the town gate, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, a widow. A considerable crowd from the town was with her.

¹³When the Lord saw her, He felt compassion for her and said, "Don't cry." ¹⁴Then He came up and touched the coffin, and the pallbearers came to a standstill. He said, "Young man! I tell you, get up!" ¹⁵The dead man sat up and began speaking, and Yeshua gave him to his mother.^b

¹⁶Fear took hold of them all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has appeared among us, and God has visited His people."

¹⁷This report concerning Him spread throughout all Judea and the surrounding region.

John Seeks Confirmation from Prison

¹⁸John's disciples reported to him about all these things. Calling two of his disciples, ¹⁹John sent them to the Lord, saying, "Are you the One who is to come, or should we look for another?"

²⁰When they appeared before Him, the men said, "John the Immerser sent us to you, saying, 'Are you the One who is to come, or shall we look for another?'"

²¹At this very hour He was healing many of diseases, sicknesses, and evil spirits; and He granted sight to many who were blind. ²²And answering, He said to them, "Go report to John what you saw and heard: the blind see, the lame walk, those with tzara'at are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news proclaimed to them.^c ²³Blessed is he who is not led to stumble because of Me."

²⁴And after John's messengers left, He began to speak about John to the crowds. "What did you go out to the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? ²⁵No? So what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine garments? Look, those who wear finery and live in luxury are in the palaces of kings! ²⁶Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, even more than a prophet. ²⁷This is the one about whom it is written,

'Behold, I send My messenger before You, who will prepare Your way before You.'^d ²⁸I say to you, there is no one greater than John among those born of women; yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

²⁹And when all the people heard, even the tax collectors, they affirmed God's justice, because they had been immersed with John's immersion. ³⁰But the Pharisees and Torah lawyers, not having been immersed by John, declared God's purpose invalid for themselves.

³¹"So then, to what shall I compare the people of this generation? What are they like? ³²They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to each other, saying,

'We played the flute for you, and you didn't dance. We sang a dirge, and you didn't weep.'

³³"For John the Immerser has come not eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.'³⁴The Son of Man has come eating and drinking. and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'³⁵Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

An Unwelcome Woman Finds Favor

³⁶Now one of the Pharisees was asking Yeshua if He would eat with him. Upon entering the Pharisee's home, He reclined at the table: ³⁷And behold, a woman in the town who was a sinner, when she discovered that Yeshua was reclining at the Pharisee's home, brought an alabaster jar of perfume.³⁸ As she stood behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began to drench His feet with tears and kept wiping them with her head of hair. Then she was kissing His feet and anointing them with perfume.

³⁹Now when the Pharisee who invited Him saw this, he said to himself, “If this were a prophet, He would know what sort of woman is touching Him—that she’s a sinner.”

⁴⁰And answering, Yeshua said to him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.”

And he said, “Say it, Teacher!”

⁴¹“A moneylender had two debtors. One owed him five hundred denarii,^a but the other fifty. ⁴²When neither could repay him, he canceled both debts. So which of them will love him more?”

⁴³Simon replied, “I suppose the one who had the bigger debt canceled.”

“You have judged correctly,” Yeshua said.

⁴⁴Turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you didn’t give Me water for My feet. But she has drenched My feet with tears and wiped them with her hair.^b

⁴⁵You didn’t greet Me with a kiss; but from the time she entered, she has not stopped kissing My feet. ⁴⁶You didn’t anoint My head with oil, but she has anointed My feet with perfume. ⁴⁷For this reason I tell you, her sins, which are many, have been forgiven—for she loved much. But the one who is forgiven little, loves little. ⁴⁸He then said to her, “Your sins have been forgiven.”

⁴⁹But those who were reclining at table with Him began to say to one another, “Who is this, who even forgives sins?”

⁵⁰Then He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in shalom.”

Sowing Good News from Town to Town

¹Soon afterward, Yeshua began traveling

^a 7:41. 1 denarius = 1 day’s wage.

^b 7:44. cf. Gen. 18:4-8.

throughout towns and villages, preaching and proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom of God. The twelve were also with Him. ²And certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities — Miriam, the one called Magdalene, out of whom seven demons had gone; ³Joanna, the wife of Kuza, Herod’s finance minister; Susanna; and many others—were supporting them out of their own resources.

⁴And when a large crowd was gathering and those from various towns were traveling to Him, He spoke by means of a parable. ⁵“The sower went out to spread his seed. As he sowed, some fell beside the road and was trampled; and the birds of the air ate it up. ⁶And other seed fell on rock; when it came up, that seed withered away because it had no moisture. ⁷Other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it. ⁸And other seed fell into the good soil; and when it came up, it produced fruit a hundredfold.” While saying these things, He would call out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

⁹Now His disciples were asking Him what this parable meant. ¹⁰Then Yeshua said to them, “To you has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God; but to the others it is given in parables,^c in order that ‘Seeing, they may not see,

and hearing, they may not understand.’^d

¹¹“Now the parable is this: the seed is the word of God. ¹²Those beside the road are the ones who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, so that they may not believe and be saved. ¹³But those on the rocky places are the ones who, when they hear, accept the word with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a season, and in a time of testing fall away. ¹⁴Now that which fell into the thorns are those who were hearing; but as they go along the way, they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and they do not bear mature fruit. ¹⁵But the seed in the good soil are those with a praiseworthy and good heart, who have heard the word and hold it fast and bear fruit with patient endurance.

^c 8:10. cf. Prov. 1:6.

^d 8:10. cf. Isa. 6:9; Ezek. 17:2.

¹⁶“Now no one after lighting a lamp covers it with some object or places it under a bed. But he puts it on a lampstand so that all those who enter may be able to see the light.

¹⁷For nothing is hidden that will not become evident, nor secret that shall not be known and come into open view. ¹⁸So pay attention how you listen. For whoever has, to him more will be given. And whoever does not have, even what he supposes he has will be taken away from him.”

¹⁹Yeshua’s mother and brothers came to Him, but were not able to reach Him through the crowd. ²⁰Now it was reported to Him, “Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You.”

²¹But answering, He said to them, “My mother and My brothers are these who are hearing the word of God and doing it.”

Crossing a Stormy Sea

²²Now on one of those days Yeshua and His disciples got into a boat, and He said to them, “Let’s move to the other side of the lake.” So they set out. ²³Then as they were sailing, He fell asleep. A violent windstorm came down on the lake, and they were swamped with water and in danger.

²⁴They came to Yeshua and woke Him, saying, “Master, Master, we’re perishing!” He got up and rebuked the wind and the surging wave of water. Then they stopped, and it became calm.^e

²⁵Then Yeshua said to them, “Where is your faith?” But they were afraid and marveled, saying to one another, “Who then is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him!”

Not Welcome in the Gerasenes

²⁶They sailed over to the country of the ^e 8:24. cf. Ps. 65:8(7).

Gerasenes, which is on the opposite side of the Galilee. ²⁷A demon-plagued man from the town met Yeshua as He was coming out onto the land. The man hadn’t worn any clothing for a long time and was living not in a house but in the tombs.

²⁸Seeing Yeshua, he cried out and fell down before Yeshua, and with a loud voice said, “What’s between You and me, Yeshua, Ben El Elyon? I’m begging You, do not torment me!”

²⁹For Yeshua commanded the defiling spirit to come out of the man. For many times it had seized him so that, even though he was restrained and bound with chains and shackles, he would break the chains and be driven by the demons into the desert.

³⁰Yeshua questioned him, “What is your name?”

“Legion,” he said, for many demons had entered him. ³¹They kept begging Him not to command them to depart into the abyss.^f

³²Now a large herd of pigs was feeding on the mountain. The demons urged Yeshua to let them enter these pigs, and He gave them permission. ³³Then the demons came out of the man and entered into the pigs. The herd rushed down the cliff into the lake and was drowned. ³⁴But when the herdsmen saw what happened, they ran away and reported it in the town and countryside.

³⁵People went out to see what had happened. They came to Yeshua and found the man from whom the demons had gone—clothed and in his right mind, sitting at the feet of Yeshua. And they were frightened.

³⁶Now those who had seen it reported how the demon-plagued man had been restored.

³⁷And all the people from the region surrounding the Gerasenes asked Yeshua to go away from them because they were overcome by great fear. So He got into a boat and returned.

³⁸The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with Yeshua. But Yeshua sent him away, saying, ³⁹“Return to your home, and describe all that God has done for you.” So he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole town all that Yeshua had done for him.

^f 8:31. cf. Rev. 9:1; 20:1-3.

Interrupted on the Way to a Miracle

⁴⁰As Yeshua returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they were all expecting Him. ⁴¹And here came a man named Jairus, a leader in the synagogue. Falling at Yeshua's feet, he begged Him to come to his house, ⁴²because his only daughter, about twelve years old, was dying. But as He made His way, the masses were crushing in upon Him.

⁴³And there was a woman with a blood flow for twelve years,^a who could not be healed by anyone. ⁴⁴She came up from behind and touched the tzitzit of Yeshua's garment. Immediately, her blood flow stopped. ⁴⁵*Yeshua* said, "Who touched Me?"

When everyone denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds are surrounding You and pressing in!"

⁴⁶But Yeshua said, "Someone touched Me, for I recognized power going out from Me." ⁴⁷Then seeing that she did not escape notice, the woman came trembling and fell prostrate before Him. In the presence of all the people, she confessed why she had touched Him and how she had been healed immediately. ⁴⁸He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in shalom."

⁴⁹While He was still speaking, someone comes from the house of the synagogue leader, saying, "Your daughter has died. Don't bother the Teacher anymore."

⁵⁰But hearing this, Yeshua replied to him, "Do not fear—just keep trusting, and she shall be restored."

⁵¹When Yeshua came into the house, He didn't let anyone enter with Him except Peter, John, Jacob, and the child's father and mother. ⁵²And everyone was weeping and lamenting her; but He said, "Don't weep, for she didn't die but is sleeping." ⁵³But they were ridiculing Him, knowing she had died.

⁵⁴But Yeshua, took her by the hand and called out, saying, "Child, get up!" ⁵⁵Her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. Yeshua ordered food to be given to her to eat. ⁵⁶Her parents were utterly astonished, but He ordered them to say nothing of what had happened.

Sending Out the Twelve

¹Now when Yeshua called the twelve together, He gave them power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases. ²He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal. ³And He said to them, "Take nothing for the journey—no walking stick, no travel bag, no bread, no money, nor even to have two shirts. ⁴Whatever house you enter, stay there and depart from there. ⁵And whoever does not receive you, when you leave that town, shake off the dust from your feet as a witness against them." ⁶So they went out and began traveling throughout the villages, proclaiming the Good News and healing everywhere.

⁷Now Herod the tetrarch heard all that was happening. He was very confused, because some were saying that John had been raised from the dead, ⁸but others that Elijah had appeared, and others that some prophet from among the ancients had arisen. ⁹But Herod said, "I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he kept trying to see Him.

A Hungry Crowd in a Desolate Place

¹⁰When the emissaries returned, they described to Yeshua all they had done. Then He took them along and withdrew privately to a city named Bethsaida. ¹¹But the crowds found out and followed Him. So Yeshua welcomed them and began speaking to them about the kingdom of God and curing those in need of healing.

¹²Now the day began to wind down, and the twelve came and said to Yeshua, "Send the crowd away, so they might go into the nearby villages and countryside and find food and lodging; for we are in a desolate place here.”

¹³But Yeshua said to them, “You give them something to eat!”

But they said, “We have no more than five loaves of bread and two fish, unless we go to buy food for all these people.”¹⁴For there were about five thousand men.

Then Yeshua said to His disciples, “Have the people recline in groups of about fifty each.”¹⁵They did so, and all reclined.¹⁶And He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking up to heaven, He offered the bracha and broke them. And He kept giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd.¹⁷Then they all ate and were satisfied. And what was left over was picked up, twelve baskets of the fragments.

Secrets Revealed to the Disciples Alone

¹⁸Once when Yeshua was praying alone and His disciples were near, He put a question to them, saying, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”

¹⁹They replied, “John the Immerser, but others Elijah, and others that some prophet from among the ancients has arisen.”

²⁰Then He said to them, “But who do you that say I am?”

Then Peter answered and said, “The Messiah of God.”

²¹But Yeshua warned them, and He ordered them not to tell this to anyone,²²saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.”

²³Then Yeshua was saying to everyone, “If anyone wants to follow Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross every day, and follow Me.²⁴For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.

²⁵“For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world but loses or forfeits himself?²⁶For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and the glory of the Father and the holy angels.^{b 27}But I tell you truthfully, there are some standing here who will never taste death until they see the kingdom of God.”

Glorified on a Mountain

²⁸About eight days after these teachings, Yeshua took Peter, John, and Jacob with Him and went up the mountain to pray.²⁹While He was praying, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothing flashed like white lightning.³⁰And behold, two men were talking with Him, Moses and Elijah.³¹Appearing in glory, they were speaking of Yeshua’s departure, which was about to take place in Jerusalem.

³²Now Peter and those with him were overcome with sleep. But when they awakened, they saw Yeshua’s glory and the two men standing with Him.³³And as they were leaving Yeshua, Peter said to Him, “Master, it’s good for us to be here. Let’s make three sukkot: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not knowing what he was saying.

³⁴While he was yet saying these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.³⁵Then a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, the One I have chosen. Listen to Him!”^{c 36}And after the voice happened, Yeshua was found alone. They kept quiet and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.

Coming Down from the Mountaintop

³⁷On the next day as they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met Yeshua.³⁸Suddenly a man from the crowd shouted out loudly, saying, “Teacher, I’m begging You to look at my son, for he’s my only child!³⁹You see, a spirit takes hold of him, and he immediately screams. It throws him into convulsions with frothing. It hardly ever leaves him—it’s crushing him!⁴⁰ I begged Your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn't."

⁴¹Then answering, Yeshua said, "O faithless and twisted generation,^a how long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here."⁴² And while the boy was still approaching Yeshua, the demon knocked him down to the ground and threw him into convulsions. But Yeshua rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and restored him to his father.⁴³ And all were amazed at the mighty power of God. But as everyone was marveling at all He was doing, He said to His disciples,⁴⁴ "Put these words into your ears: the Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men."⁴⁵ But they did not understand this statement; it was yet concealed from them so they could not grasp it. And they were afraid to ask Him about this statement.

⁴⁶Now a dispute began between the disciples as to who might be the greatest among them.⁴⁷ But Yeshua, knowing the reasoning of their heart, took a child and set him by His side.⁴⁸ He said to them, "Whoever welcomes this child in My name, welcomes Me. And whoever welcomes Me, welcomes the One who sent Me. The one who is the least among all of you is the one who is great."

⁴⁹John replied, "Master, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he doesn't follow along with us."

⁵⁰Yeshua said to him, "Do not stop him, for he who is not against you is for you."

Samaria Turns Yeshua Away

⁵¹When the days were approaching for Him to be taken up, Yeshua was determined to go up to Jerusalem.⁵² He sent messengers before Him, and they went and entered a Samaritan village to make His arrangements.⁵³ But they did not receive Him, because He was focused on going up to Jerusalem.⁵⁴ When His disciples Jacob and John saw this, they said, "Master, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them^b?"⁵⁵ But Yeshua turned and rebuked them.^c

⁵⁶Then they moved on to another village.⁵⁷ As they were traveling on the road, someone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

⁵⁸But Yeshua said to him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."⁵⁹ He said to another, "Follow Me."

But that one said, "First let me go and bury my father."

⁶⁰But Yeshua said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

⁶¹Then another also said, "I will follow You, Master, but first let me say goodbye to those in my home."

⁶²But Yeshua said to him, "No one who has put his hand to the plow and looked back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Yeshua Sends Out the Seventy

¹Now after these things, the Lord assigned seventy^d others and sent them out by twos before Him into every town and place where He Himself was about to go.² And He was telling them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore, beg the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.

³"Go forth! Look, I am sending you as lambs in the midst of wolves.⁴ Do not be burdened with a money belt, travel bag, or shoes; and do not greet anyone along the way.⁵ Whatever home you enter, first say, "Shalom be on this home."⁶ If a son of shalom is there, your shalom will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you.⁷ And remain in this same home, eating and drinking the things they offer, for the worker is deserving of his wage.

^b 9:54. Some mss. add just as Elijah did.

^c 9:55, 56. Some mss. add and said, "You do not know what kind of spirit you have—for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save."

^d 10:1, 17. Some mss. say seventy-two.

^a 9:41. cf. Deut. 32:5.

Do not keep moving from house to house.

⁸“Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what they set before you. ⁹Then heal the sick in that town, and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’ ¹⁰But if you enter a town and they do not welcome you, then go out into its streets and say, ¹¹‘Even the dust of your town sticking to our feet, we wipe off as a witness to you. But know this! The kingdom of God has come near.’ ¹²I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom^e on that day than for that town.

¹³“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have tumbled long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴Yet it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the Judgment than for you! ¹⁵And you, Capernaum? You won’t be lifted up to heaven, will you? No, you will go down as far as Sheol. ¹⁶The one who listens to you hears Me, and the one who rejects you rejects Me, and the one who rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me.”

Returning with a Good Report

¹⁷Then the seventy returned with joy, saying, “Master, even the demons submit to us in Your name!”

¹⁸And Yeshua said to them, “I was watching satan fall like lightning from heaven. ¹⁹Behold, I have given you authority to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. ²⁰Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names have been written in the heavens.”^g

²¹In that very hour, He was overjoyed in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and said, “I praise You, Father, Master of the universe, that You have hidden these things from the wise and discerning and revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, for this way was pleasing to You. ²²All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him.”

²³Then turning to the disciples, He said privately, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! ²⁴For I tell you, many prophets and kings desired to see what you are seeing yet did not see, and to hear what you are hearing yet did not hear.”

Who Is My Neighbor?

²⁵Now a certain Torah lawyer stood up to entrap Yeshua, saying, “Teacher, what should I do to gain eternal life?”

²⁶Then Yeshua said to him, “What has been written in the Torah? How do you read it?”

²⁷And he replied, “You shall love ADONAI your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.”^h

²⁸Yeshua said to him, “You have answered correctly. Do this and you will live.”

²⁹But wanting to vindicate himself, he said to Yeshua, “Then who is my neighbor?”

³⁰Yeshua replied, “A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho. He was attacked by robbers, who stripped him and beat him. Then they left, abandoning him as half dead. ³¹And by chance, a kohen was going down that road; but when he saw the man, he passed by on the opposite side. ³²Likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the opposite side. ³³But a Samaritan who was traveling came upon him; and when he noticed the man, he felt compassion. ³⁴He went up to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on olive oil and wine. Then setting him on his own animal, he brought him to a lodge for travelers and took care of him. ³⁵The next day he took out two denariiⁱ and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him. And whatever else you spend, upon my return I will repay you myself.’ ³⁶Which of these three seems to you a neighbor to the one attacked by robbers?”

³⁷And he said, “The one who showed mercy to him.”

Then Yeshua said to him, “Go, and you do the same.”

At Home with Miriam and Martha

³⁸Now while they were traveling, Yeshua entered a certain village; and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her house. ³⁹She had a sister called Miriam, who was seated at the Master’s feet, listening to His teaching. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted with much serving; so she approached Yeshua and said, “Master, doesn’t it concern you that my sister has left me to serve alone? Then tell her to help me!”

⁴¹But answering her, the Lord said, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and bothered about many things; ⁴²but only one thing is necessary. For Miriam has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her.”^a

11

Praying Along the Way

¹Now Yeshua was praying in a certain place. When He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Master, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”

²Then Yeshua said to them, “When you pray, say,

‘Father,
sanctified be Your Name,
Your kingdom come.^b

³Give us each day our daily bread.

⁴And forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone indebted to us.

And lead us not into temptation.”

⁵Then Yeshua said to them, “Which of you has a friend and will go to him in the middle of the night and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, ⁶because a friend of mine has come to me on his journey and I have nothing to set before him.’ ⁷Then from within he may answer, saying, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can’t get up to give you anything.’ ⁸I tell you, even if the friend will not get up and give him anything out of friendship, yet because of the man’s persistence he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

⁹“So I say to you, ‘Ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and it shall be opened to you. ¹⁰For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.’ ¹¹What father, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? ¹²And if he asks for an egg, will he give him a scorpion? ¹³If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Ruach ha-Kodesh^c to those who ask Him!”

Crowds Demand a Sign from Heaven

¹⁴Now Yeshua was driving out a demon, and it was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute one spoke and the crowds were amazed. ¹⁵But some among them said, “By beelzebul, the ruler of demons, He drives out demons.” ¹⁶Others, testing Him, were demanding from Him a sign from heaven.

²⁴“When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places looking for rest. Not finding any, it says, ‘I will return to my house where I came from.’ ²⁵And when it comes, it finds the house swept and put in order. ²⁶Then it goes and takes along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and settle there. And that man’s last condition becomes worse than the first.”

²⁷Then as Yeshua was saying these things, a certain woman in the crowd, raising her voice, said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that carried You and the breasts that nursed You!”

²⁸But He said, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and obey it.”

²⁹With the crowds increasing, Yeshua began to say, “This generation is a wicked generation. It demands a sign, yet no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. ³⁰For just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites,^e so also the Son of Man will be to this generation. ³¹The Queen of the South will rise up at the Judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon.^f And behold, something greater than Solomon is here. ³²The men of Nineveh will rise at the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, because they repented at Jonah’s proclamation. And indeed, one greater than Jonah is here.

³³“No one lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on the lampstand so that those entering may see the light. ³⁴Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light. But when it is sick, your body is full of darkness. ³⁵Therefore, watch out that the light in you is not darkness. ³⁶If then your body is full of light, with no part of it dark, it will be as full of light as when a lamp gives you light with its gleam.”

Dinner with a Pharisee

³⁷As He spoke, a Pharisee asked Yeshua to eat with him, so He entered and sat down. ³⁸But the Pharisee was surprised when he saw that Yeshua did not do the ritual handwashing before the meal. ³⁹But the Lord said to him, “You Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and plate, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. ⁴⁰Fools! Didn’t He who created the outside also create the inside? ⁴¹But give as tzedakah those things that are within, and indeed everything is pure to you.

⁴²“But woe to you Pharisees, for you tithe the mint, rue, and every garden herb,^g yet bypass justice and the love of God. It is necessary to do these things without neglecting the others. ⁴³Woe to you Pharisees, for you love the best seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces. ⁴⁴Woe to you, for you are like unmarked tombs, and people walk over them without knowing.”

⁴⁵But answering, one of the Torah lawyers says to Him, “Teacher, when You say these things, You insult us too.”

⁴⁶Then Yeshua said, “Woe to you Torah lawyers as well, for you weigh the people down with burdens hard to carry, yet you yourselves will not touch the burdens with even a finger.

⁴⁷“Woe to you, for you build the tombs of the prophets whom your own fathers killed! ⁴⁸So you are witnesses and approve the deeds of your fathers, for indeed they killed them and you are building their tombs.

An Aside with the Disciples

¹Meanwhile, when thousands of people had gathered, so many that they were trampling one another, Yeshua began speaking first to His disciples, "Be on guard yourselves against the hametz of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ²There is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known. ³Therefore, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in private rooms will be proclaimed from the housetops.

⁴"I say to you, My friends, you should not be afraid of those who kill the body, since after this they have nothing more they can do. ⁵But I will show you whom you should fear. Fear the One who, after the killing, has authority to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear this One!

⁶"Aren't five sparrows being sold for two pennies?^b Yet not one of them is forgotten before God. ⁷Indeed, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. So do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows. ⁸Now I tell you, whoever acknowledges Me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge him before the angels of God. ⁹But the one who denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God. ¹⁰And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who slanders^c the Ruach ha-Kodesh will not be forgiven. ¹¹And when they bring you to the synagogues, rulers, and authorities, do not worry about how you should defend yourself or what you should say, ¹²because the Ruach ha-Kodesh will teach you at that time what is necessary to say."

A Request from the Crowd

¹³Then someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

¹⁴But Yeshua said to him, "Man, who made Me a judge or arbitrator over you?" ¹⁵Then He said to them, "Watch out! Be on guard against all kinds of greed, because one's life does not consist in the abundance of the material goods he possesses."^d ¹⁶And Yeshua told them a parable, saying, "The land of a certain rich man produced good crops. ¹⁷And he began thinking to himself, saying, 'What shall I do? I don't have a place to store my harvest!'" ¹⁸And he said, 'Here's what I'll do! I'll tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I'll store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹And I'll say to myself, 'O my soul, you have plenty of goods saved up for many years! So take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry.'" ²⁰But God said to him, 'You fool! Tonight your soul is being demanded back from you! And what you have prepared, whose will that be?'^e ²¹So it is with the one who stores up treasure for himself and is not rich in God."

Instructions for the Disciples

²²Then Yeshua said to His disciples, "So I say to you, do not worry about life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will wear. ²³For life is more than food and the body more than clothing. ²⁴Consider the ravens. They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn, yet God feeds them. How much more valuable you are than birds!

²⁵"And which of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?^f ²⁶So if you cannot do even something very little, why do you worry about other things? ²⁷Consider the lilies, how they grow. They neither toil nor spin. Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these. ²⁸But if God so clothes the grass in the field—which is here today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow—then how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith?

²⁹“So do not seek what you will eat and what you will drink, and do not keep worrying. ³⁰For all the nations of the world strive after these things. But your Father knows that you need these things. ³¹Instead, seek His kingdom, and these things shall be added to you. ³²Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father chose to give you the kingdom.

³⁵“Have your belt strapped on and lamps burning. ³⁶Be like people waiting for their master to return from a wedding feast, so that when he comes and knocks, they may open to him immediately.

³⁷“Happy are those slaves whose master finds them alert when he comes. Amen, I tell you, he will prepare himself and have them recline at table, and will come and serve them.

³⁸”And if he comes in the second or even the third watch^h and finds them so, they will be happy. ³⁹But understand this, that if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁰You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you don’t expect.”

⁴¹Then Peter said, “Master, are You telling this parable for us, or for everyone?”

⁴²And the Lord said, “Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master will put in charge of his servants, to give them their food portion at the proper time? ⁴³Blessed is that servant whose master finds him so doing when he comes. ⁴⁴Truly I tell you, his master will put him in charge of all his possessions.

⁴⁵“But if that servant says in his heart, ‘My master is taking a long time to come,’ and he begins to beat the young slave boys and girls and to eat and drink and get drunk, ⁴⁶the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. And he will cut him in two and assign him a place with the unfaithful.

⁴⁷“That slave who knew his master’s will but did not prepare or act according to his desire will be harshly whipped. ⁴⁸But the one who did not know and did things worthy of a beating will be whipped lightly. From everyone given much, much will be required; and from the one for whom more is provided, all the more they will ask of him.

⁴⁹“I came to pour out fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already ablaze! ⁵⁰But I have an immersion to endure,ⁱ and how distressed I am until it is finished!

⁵¹“Do you suppose that I have come to bring shalom on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. ⁵²From now on there will be five in one house in opposition, three against two and two against three. ⁵³They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”^j

Lessons for the Crowds

⁵⁴Then He also was saying to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, instantly you say, ‘A rainstorm is coming’—and so it is. ⁵⁵And when a south wind is blowing, you say, ‘It will be a scorcher’—and so it is. ⁵⁶Hypocrites! The surface of the earth and sky you know how to interpret yet you don’t know how to interpret this present time? ⁵⁷Why can’t you judge for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁸For while you are going with your accuser to the authorities, make an effort to come to ¹Now there were some present at the same time who told Yeshua about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. ²He answered and said to them, “Do you suppose that these Galileans are worse sinners than the rest of the Galileans because they have suffered these things? ³No, I tell you! But unless you repent, you all will perish the same way.

⁴“Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and were killed, do you suppose that they are worse sinners than all the people living in Jerusalem? ⁵No, I tell you! But unless you repent, you all will perish the same way.

⁶Then Yeshua began telling this parable: “A man had a fig tree he had planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. ⁷So he said to the gardener, ‘Indeed, for three years I’ve come searching for fruit on this fig tree and found none. Remove it! Why does it use up the ground?’

⁸“But answering, the gardener said to him, ‘Master, leave it alone for this year also, until I dig around it and apply fertilizer. ⁹And if it bears fruit, good. But if not, cut it down.’”

Teaching by Example at the Synagogue

¹⁰Now Yeshua was teaching in one of the synagogues on Shabbat. ¹¹And behold, there was a woman with a disabling spirit for eighteen years, bent over and completely unable to stand up straight. ¹²When Yeshua saw her, He called out to her and said, “Woman, you are set free from your disability.” ¹³Then He laid hands on her, and instantly she stood up straight and began praising God.

¹⁴But the synagogue leader, indignant that Yeshua had healed on Shabbat, started telling the crowd, “There are six days in which work should be done^b—so come to be healed on those days and not on Yom Shabbat!”

¹⁵But the Lord answered him and said, “Hypocrites! On Shabbat doesn't each of you untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it away to give it drink? ¹⁶So this one, a daughter of Abraham incapacitated by satan for eighteen years, shouldn't she be set free from this imprisonment on Yom Shabbat?” ¹⁷When Yeshua said these things, all His opponents were put to shame; but the whole crowd was rejoicing at all the glorious things done by Him.^c

Teaching throughout the Towns and Villages

¹⁸So Yeshua was saying, “What is the kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it? ¹⁹It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and dropped into his own garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches.”^d ²⁰Again He said, “To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? ²¹It is like hametz, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened.

²²And He continued on His journey through the towns and villages, teaching and making His way to Jerusalem. ²³And someone said to Him, “Master, are only a few being saved?”

Then Yeshua said to them, ²⁴“Make every effort to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. ²⁵Once the Master of the household gets up and shuts the door, and you're standing outside and begin knocking on the door, saying, ‘Master, open up for us,’ then He will say to you, ‘I don't know where you come from.’ ²⁶Then you will start to say, ‘We ate and drank in Your company, and You taught in our streets.’ ²⁷But He will say, ‘I tell you, I don't know where you come from. Get away from Me, all of you evildoers!"^e

²⁸"There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves thrown out. ²⁹And they will come from the east and west and from the north and south, and they will recline at table in the kingdom of God. ³⁰And indeed, some are last who shall be first, and some are first who shall be last."

A Warning to Move On

³¹In that hour, some Pharisees came up and said to Yeshua, "Get out and leave from here, because Herod wants to kill You!"

³²But Yeshua said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Indeed, I'm driving out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach My goal.'

³³But I must keep going today and tomorrow because it just can't be that a prophet would perish outside Jerusalem.

³⁴"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem who kills the prophets and stones those sent to her! How often I longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing. ³⁵Look, your house is left to you desolate!^f For I tell you, you will never see Me until you say, 'Baruch ha-ba b'shem ADONAI. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!'^g"

A Dinner Conversation on Shabbat

¹Now when Yeshua went into the home of one of the leaders of the Pharisees to eat a meal on Shabbat, they were watching Him closely. ²And there before Him was a man swollen with fluid. ³So Yeshua said to the Torah lawyers and the Pharisees,

"Is it permitted to heal on Shabbat, or not?"

⁴But they kept silent. So Yeshua took hold of him and healed him, and He sent him away.

⁵Then He said to them, "Which of you, with a son or an ox falling into a well on Yom Shabbat, will not immediately pull him out?"^h ⁶And they could not reply to these things.

⁷Yeshua began telling a parable to those who had been invited, when He noticed how they were choosing the seats of honor. He said to them, ⁸"When you are invited by someone to a wedding, don't take the seat of honor, for someone more highly esteemed than you may have been invited by him. ⁹Then the one who invited both of you will come to you and say, 'Give up this seat.' And with shame, you would proceed to take the lowest seat.

¹⁰But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest seat so that when the one who invited you comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you shall be honored in the presence of all those who are dining with you. ¹¹For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."ⁱ

¹²Then Yeshua was also saying to the one who invited Him, "When you host a luncheon or dinner, don't invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors. Otherwise they might invite you in return as your payback. ¹³But when you host a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind; ¹⁴and you will be blessed, since they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

¹⁵Now hearing this, one of those dining with Yeshua said to Him, "Blessed is he who eats bread in the kingdom of God."

¹⁶But Yeshua said to him, "A certain man was hosting a large banquet, and he invited many. ¹⁷At the time for the banquet, he sent his slave to tell those who had been invited, 'Come, everything is already prepared.'

¹⁸"But every one of them began to beg off. The first said to him, 'I bought a farm, and I'm obligated to go out to see it. I'm asking you to have me excused.’¹⁹ Then another one said, ‘I’ve purchased five teams of oxen, and I’m going to check them out. I’m asking you to have me excused.’²⁰ Still another said, ‘I’ve married a wife, so I cannot come.’^a ²¹“The slave came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house got angry and said to his slave, ‘Quickly go out into the squares and alleys of the city and bring here the poor, the maimed, the blind, and the lame.’

²²“And the slave said, ‘Master, I have done as you instructed, and still there is room.’

²³“So the master said to the slave, ‘Go out into the thoroughfares and fenced areas, and press them to come in so my home may be filled.’²⁴ For I tell you, none of those men who were invited will taste my banquet.”

Telling Parables Along the Road

²⁵ Now great crowds were traveling with Yeshua; and He turned and said to them, ²⁶“If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters—and yes, even his own life—he cannot be My disciple. ²⁷Whoever does not carry his own cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.

³¹“Or what king, going to make war against another king, won’t first sit down to consider whether he is able with ten thousand to confront the one coming against him with twenty thousand?^b ³²If not, while the other is still far away, he sends an ambassador and asks for peace. ³³So in the same way, whoever does not renounce all that he has, cannot be My disciple.

³⁴“Therefore, salt is good; but if the salt should lose its flavor, how shall it be made salty again? ³⁵It is not suitable for the soil or for a manure heap—it is thrown out. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

⁸“Or which woman, if she has ten silver coins and loses one coin,^c does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search thoroughly until she finds it? ⁹ When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I’ve found the coin I had lost!’ ¹⁰ In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

¹¹ Then Yeshua said, “A certain man had two sons, ¹² and the younger of them said to the father, ‘Father, give me the share of the property that comes to me.’ So he divided his wealth between them.

¹³“Not many days later, the younger son gathered everything and traveled to a far country, and there he squandered his inheritance on wild living. ¹⁴ Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine came against that country, and he began to be in need. ¹⁵ So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶ And he was longing to fill up on the carob pods the pigs were eating, but no one was giving him any.

¹⁷“But when he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired workers have food overflowing, but here I am dying of hunger!’ ¹⁸I’ll get up and go to my father, and I’ll say to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your presence. ¹⁹I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired workers.

²⁰“And he got up and went to his own father. But while he was still far away, his father saw him and felt compassion. He ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. ²¹Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your presence. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

²²“But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quick! Bring out the best robe and put it on him! Put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. ²³Bring the fattened calf and kill it! Let’s celebrate with a feast!’ ²⁴For this son of mine was dead and has come back to life—he was lost and is found!’ Then they began to celebrate.

²⁵“Now his older son was out in the field. And as he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶And he called out to one of the servants and began to ask what these things could be.

²⁷“The servant said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he got him back safe and sound.’

²⁸“But the older son was angry and didn’t want to go in. So his father came outside and pleaded with him. ²⁹But he answered and said to his father, ‘Look, so many years I’ve slaved away for you—not once did I ignore your order. Yet you’ve never given me a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. ³⁰But when this son of yours came—the one who has squandered your wealth with prostitutes—for him you killed the fattened calf!’”

³¹“Then the father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and everything that is mine is yours. ³²But it was right to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead but has come back to life! He was lost, but is found.’”

A Lesson for the Disciples

¹Now Yeshua was also saying to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a household manager, and this manager was accused of squandering his belongings. ²So he called the manager and said to him, ‘What’s this I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.’

³“Then the manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I’m not strong enough to dig; I’m ashamed to beg. ⁴I know what I’ll do, so that when I’m put out of management others will welcome me into their homes.’ ⁵So he called in each one of his master’s debtors, and he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

⁶“He said, ‘One hundred units of olive oil.’

“The manager said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write fifty.’ ⁷Then he said to another, ‘Now how much do you owe?’

“He said, ‘A hundred units of wheat.’

“The manager said to him, ‘Take your bill and write eighty.’

⁸“Now the master praised the crooked manager because he had acted shrewdly, for the sons of this age are smarter when dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. ⁹I say to you, make friends for yourselves from the wealth of the world, so when it runs out, they will welcome you into the eternal shelters.

¹⁰“One who is faithful in the smallest matters is also faithful in much, and the one unjust in the smallest matters will likewise be unjust in much. ¹¹So then, if you cannot be trusted with unjust wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? ¹²Now if you have not been trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you anything of your own? ¹³No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stick by one and look down on the other. You cannot serve God and money.”^a

The Pharisees Listen In

¹⁴Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and sneering at Yeshua. ¹⁵But He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves before the people, but God knows your hearts.^b For what is prized among men is detestable in God’s sight.”

¹⁶“The Torah and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since then, the Good News of the kingdom of God is being proclaimed, and everyone tries forcing his way in. ¹⁷But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for a single serif^c of the Torah to fail. ¹⁸Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery. And he who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

²²“It happened that the poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s side. Then the rich man also died and was buried. ²³And from Sheol, as he was in torment, he raised his eyes. And he sees Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his side.^d ²⁴So he cried out and said, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me! And send Lazarus so he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool off my tongue, because I am suffering torment in this flame.’^e

²⁵“But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that in your life you received your good things, even as Lazarus received the bad things. But now he is comforted here, and you are tormented. ²⁶Besides all this, between us and you a great chasm is firmly set, so that those who want to cross over to you cannot, nor can those from there cross over to us.

²⁷“Then the rich man said, ‘I beg you then, Father Abraham, send Lazarus to my father’s house! ²⁸For I have five brothers to warn, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.’

²⁹“But Abraham says, ‘They have Moses and the Prophets. Let them listen to them.’

³⁰“But he said, ‘No, Father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’

³¹“But Abraham said, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead!’”

17

Back to Teaching His Own

¹Then Yeshua said to His disciples, “Stumbling blocks are bound to come, but woe to the one by whom they come! ²It would be better for him to have a millstone put around his neck and to be hurled into the sea, than for him to cause one of these little ones to stumble.

³“Keep yourselves alert! If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. ⁴Even if he sins against you seven times a day, and seven times returns to you, saying, ‘I repent,’ you shall forgive him.”

⁵Then the emissaries said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!”

⁶Then the Lord said, “If you have faith like a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you. ⁷But if you have a slave who is plowing or tending sheep, who among you will say to him when he comes in from the field, ‘Come right in, and recline at table?’

⁸But won’t he instead say to him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat! Dress yourself and wait on me while I eat and drink; and afterward, you may eat and drink?’ ⁹He doesn’t thank the slave because he did what he was

On the Move through Samaria

¹¹Now while going up to Jerusalem, Yeshua was passing between Samaria and the Galilee.

¹²As He entered a certain village, ten men with tzara'at came toward Him. They stood some distance away ^f¹³and raised their voices, saying, "Yeshua, Master, have mercy on us!"

¹⁴When He saw them, He said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the kohanim."^g And as they went, they were cleansed. ¹⁵Now one of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back, glorifying God with a loud voice. ¹⁶And he fell at Yeshua's feet, facedown, giving Him thanks. And he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷Then Yeshua answered and said, "Weren't ten cleansed? But where are the nine? ¹⁸Weren't any found who came back to give glory to God except this foreigner?" ¹⁹Then Yeshua said to the man, "Stand up and go! Your faith has made you well."

²⁰Now when Yeshua was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with signs to be seen. ²¹Nor will they say, 'Look, here!' or 'There!' For behold, the kingdom of God is in your midst."

²²Then Yeshua said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. ²³They will say to you, 'Look, there!' or 'Look, here!' Do not go and chase after them. ²⁴For just as the lightning flashes from one part of the sky and lights up another part, so will the Son of Man be in His day. ²⁵But first He must suffer much and be rejected by this generation. ²⁶As it was in the days of Noah,^h so will it also be in the days of the Son of Man. ²⁷They were eating, drinking, marrying, and being given in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

²⁸"It was just the same in the days of Lot.ⁱ They were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building. ²⁹But on the day Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed them all. ³⁰Things will be the same on the day when the Son of Man is made fully known. ³¹In that day, the one who is on the roof, and his possessions in the house, must not go down to take them away. In the same way, the one who is in the field must not turn back. ³²Remember Lot's wife!^j ³³Whoever tries to keep his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life will preserve it.

³⁴"I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed. One will be taken along and the other left. ³⁵There will be two women grinding at the same place. One will be taken and the other left."^{(36)^k}

³⁷"Where, Lord?" they replied.

And He said to them, "Where there is a corpse, there also will the vultures be gathered."^l

¹Then Yeshua told them a parable to show that they should always pray and not be discouraged, ²He said, "There was a judge in a certain city who neither feared God nor respected people. ³And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him, saying, 'Give me justice against my opponent.'

⁴"He was unwilling at the time. But afterward he said to himself, 'Although I don't fear God or respect people, ⁵yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice so she won't wear me out by her incessant coming.'"

⁶Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge is saying. ⁷Won't God do justice for His chosen ones, who cry out to Him day and night? Will He be slow to help them? ⁸I tell you,

He will quickly give them justice. But when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?"

⁹Then Yeshua spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, while holding others in contempt. ¹⁰"Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹The Pharisee stood and was praying this to himself: 'O God, I thank You that I am not like other people—thieving, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹²I fast twice a week and tithe on all that I get.'

¹³"But the tax collector, standing some distance away, wouldn't even lift his eyes toward heaven, but beat his chest, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, the sinner!'" ¹⁴I tell you, this man, rather than the other, went down to his home declared righteous. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

¹⁵Now they were bringing even their babies to Yeshua, so He might touch them. But when the disciples saw this, they began rebuking them. ¹⁶But Yeshua called for them, saying, "Let the little children come to Me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁷Amen, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it."

¹⁸And a religious leader inquired of Yeshua, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁹"Why are you calling Me good?" Yeshua said to him. "No one is good except One—that is God. ²⁰You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.'" ^b

²¹The man said, "All these I have kept since my youth."

²²When Yeshua heard this, He said to him, "One thing you still lack. Sell all, as much as you have, and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me." ²³But upon hearing these things, he became deeply distressed, for he was very rich.

²⁴Gazing at him, Yeshua said, "How hard it is for the rich to enter into the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶Then those who heard said, "Then who can be saved?"

²⁷But Yeshua said, "What is impossible with men is possible with God."^c

²⁸Then Peter said, "Look, we've left everything of our own to follow You."

²⁹And Yeshua said to them, "Amen, I tell you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, ³⁰who will not receive many times as much in this age; and in the olam ha-ba, eternal life."

³¹Then Yeshua took the twelve aside and said to them, "Look, we're going up to Jerusalem, and everything written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be carried out. ³²He will be handed over to the Gentiles, and He will be mocked and insulted and spat upon. ³³After they have scourged Him, they will kill Him. Yet on the third day, He will rise again." ³⁴But they understood none of these things; this message was hidden from them, and they did not understand what He was saying.

Approaching Jericho

³⁵Now as Yeshua was approaching Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting by the road, begging. ³⁶But when he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening. ³⁷They told him that Yeshua ha-Natzrati was passing by. ³⁸And he cried out, saying, "Yeshua, Ben-David, have mercy on me!"

³⁹And those leading the way were scolding him, so he would be quiet. But he kept shouting all the more, "Ben-David, have mercy on me!"

⁴⁰So Yeshua stopped and ordered the blind man to be brought to Him. And when he came near, Yeshua asked him, ⁴¹"What do you want Me to do for you?"

And he said, "Master, I want to see again!"

⁴²Yeshua said to him, "Receive your sight.

Your faith has made you well.”⁴³ Immediately the man received his sight and began following Yeshua, glorifying God. And when all the people saw it, they also gave praise to God.

Visiting Zacchaeus in Jericho

¹Now Yeshua entered Jericho and was passing through. ²And here was a man by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. ³Zacchaeus was trying to see who Yeshua was, but he couldn't because of the crowd, for he was short in height. ⁴So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Yeshua, for He was about to pass through that way.

⁵When Yeshua came to the place, He looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today.”

⁶Zacchaeus hurried and came down and welcomed Him joyfully.

⁷But when everyone saw it, they began to grumble, saying, “Yeshua has gone to be the guest of a sinner!”

⁸But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord. “Look, Master, half of my possessions I give to the poor, and if I have somehow cheated anyone, I repay four times as much!”^d

⁹Then Yeshua said to him, “Today salvation has come to this home, because he also is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.”

¹¹As they were listening to this, Yeshua went on to tell a parable, because He was near Jerusalem and they supposed that the kingdom of God was about to appear at once. ¹²Therefore He said, “A certain nobleman went to a faraway land to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. ¹³And calling ten of his own slaves, he gave them ten minas^e and said to them, ‘Do business until I come back.’¹⁴ But his citizens detested him and they sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We don't want this fellow to reign over us!’¹⁵ When he returned after receiving the kingdom, he called for those slaves to whom he had given the money. He wanted to know how much business they had done. ¹⁶Now the first appeared, saying, ‘Master, your one mina has made ten.’¹⁷ The master said to him, ‘Well done, good slave! Because you were faithful with so little, take charge over ten cities.’¹⁸ Also, the second slave came, saying, ‘Your mina, Master, made five.’¹⁹ Then he also said to this one, ‘You are likewise over five cities.’²⁰ But another came, saying, ‘Master, here is your mina. I was keeping it safe in a handkerchief, ²¹for I was afraid of you because you are a strict man. You take what you did not make and reap what you did not sow.’²² He said to him, ‘By the words of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked slave! You knew that I am strict, taking what I did not make and reaping what I did not sow?’²³ Then why didn't you put my money in the bank, so that when I came back I could have collected it with interest?’²⁴ Then to the bystanders he said, ‘Take the mina from him, and give it to the one who has ten minas.’²⁵ But they said to him, ‘Sir, he has ten minas!’²⁶ I tell you, to everyone who has, more shall be given. But from the one who doesn't have, even what he does have shall be taken away. ²⁷But those hostile to me, who didn't want me to reign over them, bring them here and execute them before me.’”

Riding into Jerusalem

²⁸After saying these things, Yeshua was going on ahead, up to Jerusalem. ²⁹When He got near Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives,^f He sent two of the disciples, ³⁰saying, “Go into the village ahead. As you enter, you will find a colt tied up, that no one has ever sat upon. Untie it and bring it. ³¹And if anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ you shall say, ‘The Master needs it.’”

^f 19:29. Lit. the mountain called “of Olives.”

³²Those who were headed out found things just as He told them. ³³Then as they were untying the colt, his owners said to them, “Why are you untying the colt?”

³⁴They said, “The Master needs it.” ³⁵Then they brought it to Yeshua, threw their cloaks^a on the colt, and set Yeshua on it.^b ³⁶And as He went along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road.^c ³⁷When Yeshua came near the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began to rejoice. They praised God with a loud voice for all the miracles they had seen, ³⁸saying, “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of ADONAI!^d Shalom in heaven and glory in the highest!”

³⁹Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, rebuke Your disciples!”

⁴⁰But answering, Yeshua said, “I tell you that if these keep silent, the stones will shout out!”^e

⁴¹As He drew near and saw Jerusalem, He wept over her, ⁴²saying, “If only you had recognized this day the things that lead to shalom! But now they are hidden from your eyes. ⁴³For the days will come upon you when your enemies will surround you with barricades and hem you in on all sides.^f ⁴⁴And they will smash you to the ground—you and your children within you. And they won’t leave within you one stone upon another, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation.”

Confrontation at the Temple

⁴⁵Then Yeshua entered the Temple and began to drive out the merchants, ⁴⁶saying to them, “It is written,

‘My house shall be a house of prayer,’^g

but you have made it a ‘den of thieves.’”^h

⁴⁷And He was teaching every day in the Temple. The ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars, even the leaders of the people, were trying to destroy Him; ⁴⁸but they could not find any way to do it, because all the people were hanging on His words.

¹On one of the days while Yeshua was teaching the people in the Temple and proclaiming the Good News, the ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars, together with the elders, confronted Him. ²And they spoke, saying to Him, “Tell us by what authority are You doing these things? Or who is the one who gave You this authority?”

³But answering, Yeshua said to them, “I also will ask you a question, and you tell Me: ⁴the immersion of John—was it from heaven or from men?”

⁵They reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’ ⁶But if we say, ‘From men,’ then all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John is a prophet.” ⁷So they answered that they didn’t know where it came from.

⁸And Yeshua said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

⁹Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard,ⁱ leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey for a long time. ¹⁰And at the season, he sent a servant to the tenants so that they would give him part of the vineyard’s fruit. But the tenants beat him up and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹So he proceeded to send another servant. They beat him too and treated him shamefully, and they sent him away empty-handed. ¹²And he proceeded to send a third one. They wounded this one too, and they threw him out.

¹³“Now the master of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my son, whom I

^h 19:46. Jer. 7:11.

ⁱ 20:9. cf. Isa. 5:1-7.

love. Probably they will show him respect.’
¹⁴But when the tenants saw him, they discussed the matter among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir! Let’s kill him so the inheritance will be ours.’¹⁵So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the master of the vineyard do to them?¹⁶He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.”

But when they heard this, they said, “May it never happen!”

¹⁷Then Yeshua looked right at them and said, “Then what is this that has been written,

‘The stone which the builders rejected,
 this has become the chief cornerstone’?¹

¹⁸Everyone who falls on that stone will be shattered; but the one upon whom it falls, it will crush him.”^k

¹⁹The Torah scholars and the ruling kohanim tried to grab Him that very hour, because they realized that He spoke this parable against them—but they feared the people.

Silencing the Opposition

²⁰Now they watched Him and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, in order to trap Him in His words so they could hand Him over to the power and authority of the governor.²¹And they asked Him, saying, “Teacher, we know that You tell it straight and You teach it straight. You show no partiality, but teach the way of God according to the truth.²²Is it permitted for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

²³But carefully considering their treachery, Yeshua said to them, ²⁴“Show me a denarius.¹ Whose image and inscription does it have?”

And they said, “Caesar’s.”

²⁵Then He said to them, “Well then, give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”²⁶And they could not trap Him in His words in the presence of the people. Astonished by His answer, they kept silent.

²⁷Then some of the Sadducees (who deny there is a resurrection) came and questioned Yeshua.²⁸“Teacher,” they said, “Moses wrote for us that ‘if a man’s brother dies’ having a wife ‘but no children, then his brother should take the widow and father children for his brother.’^m²⁹Now there were seven brothers, and the first took a wife and died childless;³⁰and the second³¹and the third took her, but in this same way, each of the seven brothers died and left no children.³²Finally the woman died too.³³So in the resurrection, whose wife is she? For all seven had married her.”

³⁴*Yeshua* said to them, “The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage.³⁵But those considered worthy to reach the olam ha-ba and the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.³⁶For they can no longer die, because they are like angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.³⁷But at the burning bush even Moses revealed that the dead are raised, when he calls ADONAI ‘the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ⁿ³⁸Now He is God not of the dead but of the living, for to Him they all are living.”

³⁹Some of the Torah scholars replied, “Teacher, You have said it well.”⁴⁰For they no longer dared to question Him about anything.

⁴¹Then Yeshua said to them, “How can they say that the Messiah is Ben-David?⁴²For David himself says in the Book of Psalms,

‘ADONAI said to my Lord,
 “Sit at My right hand,
⁴³until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.’”^o

⁴⁴David then calls Him ‘Lord’; so how is He his son?”

⁴⁵Then with all the people listening, Yeshua said to the disciples, ⁴⁶“Beware of the Torah scholars, who like to walk around in long robes. They love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and places of honor at feasts. ⁴⁷They devour widows' houses and make long prayers as a show. These men will receive greater condemnation!"

21

Teaching in the Temple

¹Then Yeshua looked up and saw the rich dropping their gifts into the treasury box. ²He also saw a poor widow dropping in two small copper coins. ³And He said, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all the rest. ⁴For all these put in their gifts from their surplus. But she, out of her poverty, put in all she had to live on."

⁵And while some were talking about the Temple, how it was decorated with beautiful stones and offerings, Yeshua said, ⁶"As for these things you are looking at, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another. Every one will be torn down!"

⁷And they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, so when will these things happen? What will be the sign that these things are about to take place?"

⁸And He said, "Watch out that you are not led astray! For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He' and 'The time is near!' Do not follow them. ⁹And when you hear of wars and chaos, do not be terrorized. For these things need to happen first, but the end will not come at once."

¹⁰Then He continued telling them, "Nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹There will be great earthquakes along with famines and epidemics in various places, and there will be terrors along with great signs from heaven. ¹²But before all these things, they will grab you and persecute you, handing you over to the synagogues and prisons, and leading you away to kings and governors on account of My name. ¹³This will lead you to be a witness. ¹⁴So make up your minds not to prepare ahead of time to defend yourselves—¹⁵for I Myself will give you speech and wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or refute. ¹⁶But you will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends—and they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷And you will be hated by all because of My name. ¹⁸Yet not a hair of your head will be lost. ¹⁹By your endurance, you will gain your souls.

²⁰"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then recognize that her desolation is near. ²¹Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those inside the city must get out, and those in the countryside must not enter her. ²²For these are the days of punishment, to fulfill all that has been written. ^b

²³"Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath on this people. ²⁴They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led away captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. ^c ²⁵"There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars. And upon the earth nations will be confused by the roaring of the sea and its waves. ^d²⁶People will lose heart from fear and anticipation of what is overtaking the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ^e

²⁷And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ^f

²⁸Now when these things begin to happen, stand straight and lift up your heads, because your salvation is near!"

²⁹Then Yeshua told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees. ³⁰As soon as they sprout their leaves, you see it and you know at once that summer is near. ³¹So also, when you see these all these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. ³²Amen, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. ³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.⁸

³⁴“But watch out so your hearts are not weighed down by carousing, strong drink, and the worries of life. Do not let that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. ³⁵For it will come rushing upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶But stay alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things about to happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

³⁷So during the days Yeshua was teaching in the Temple, but in the nights He went out and stayed on the Mount of Olives.^h ³⁸And all the people would come early in the morning to hear Him in the Temple.

The Day before Pesach

¹Now the Feast of Matzah, which is called Passover, was approaching. ²The ruling kohanim and Torah scholars were searching for a way to do away with Yeshua, for they were afraid of the people.

³Then satan entered into Judah, the one from Kriot, one of the twelve. ⁴And he went away and talked with the ruling kohanim and officers of the Temple guard about how he might deliver Yeshua over to them. ⁵They were delighted and agreed to give him money. ⁶So he agreed and began looking for a chance to hand Yeshua over to them without a crowd.

⁷Then came the day of matzah when the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. ⁸Now Yeshua sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us, so we may eat.”

⁹Then they said to Him, “Where do You want us to prepare?”

¹⁰And He said to them, “Behold, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house that he enters. ¹¹And say to the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you, “Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?’” ¹²And with that, he will show you a large upper room, fully furnished. Make preparations there.” ¹³So they left and found just what Yeshua had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

The Seder in the Upper Room

¹⁴When the hour came, Yeshua reclined at table, and the emissaries with Him. ¹⁵And He said to them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶For I tell you, I will never it eat again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

¹⁷And when He had taken a cup and offered the bracha, He said, “Take this and share it among yourselves. ¹⁸For I tell you that I will never drink of the fruit of the vine from now on, until the kingdom of God comes.”

¹⁹And when He had taken *matzah*ⁱ and offered the bracha, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is My body, given for you. Do this in memory of Me.” ²⁰In the same way, He took the cup after the meal, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you.^j ²¹But look, the hand of the one betraying Me is with Mine on the table.^k ²²For indeed, the Son of Man is going as has been predetermined; but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!”

²³So they began to discuss among themselves which of them it might be who would do this thing. ²⁴But there was also a quarrel among them about which of them is considered the greatest. ²⁵And Yeshua said to them, “The kings of the nations have mastery over them, and those exercising authority over them are called ‘benefactors.’ ²⁶But with you, it is not so. Rather, let the one who is greatest among you become like the youngest, and the one who leads like the one who serves. ²⁷For who is greater, the one who reclines or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines? But I am among you as one who serves.

²⁸“You are the ones who have remained with Me in My times of testing. ²⁹And just as

My Father has granted Me a kingdom, so I grant to you³⁰ that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and you shall sit upon thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

³¹“Simon, Simon! Indeed, satan has demanded to sift you all like wheat. ³²But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith will not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

³³But Simon said to Him, “Master, I am ready to go with You even to prison and to death!”

³⁴But Yeshua said, “I tell you, Peter, a rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know Me.”

³⁵And He said to them, “When I sent you out without a money pouch and travel bag and sandals, you didn’t lack anything, did you?”

They said, “No, nothing.”

³⁶Then He said to them, “But now, whoever has a money pouch must carry it as well as a travel bag. And whoever does not own a sword must sell his cloak and buy one. ³⁷For I tell you that this which is written must be fulfilled in Me: ‘And he was counted with the lawless.’^a For what is written about Me is being fulfilled.”

³⁸But they said, “Master, look here! Two swords!”

And He said to them, “It is enough.”

Yeshua Prays at the Mount of Olives

³⁹And Yeshua came out and went as usual to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed Him. ⁴⁰When he reached the place, He said to them, “Pray that you will not enter into temptation.” ⁴¹And He pulled back about a stone’s throw from them, got on His knees, and began to pray, ⁴²saying, “Father, if You are willing, take this cup from Me; yet not My will, but Yours be done.”

⁴³Now an angel from heaven appeared to Him and strengthened Him. ⁴⁴And in His anguish, He was praying fervently; and His sweat was like drops of blood falling down on the ground. ⁴⁵When He rose up from prayer, He came to the disciples and found them asleep, exhausted from grief. ⁴⁶And He said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray, so that you won’t enter into temptation.”

Betrayed!

⁴⁷While Yeshua was speaking, suddenly a crowd came, and the one called Judah, one of the Twelve, approached Yeshua to kiss Him. ⁴⁸But Yeshua said to him, “Judah, with a kiss you betray the Son of Man?”^b

⁴⁹When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they said to Him, “Master, shall we strike with the sword?” ⁵⁰And one of them struck the servant of the kohen gadol and cut off his right ear.

⁵¹But Yeshua answered and said, “Stop this now!” And He touched the man’s ear and healed him.

⁵²Then Yeshua said to the ruling kohanim, officers of the Temple guard, and the elders who had come against Him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as you would against a revolutionary? ⁵³Every day I was with you in the Temple, yet you did not lay a finger on Me. But this is yours—the hour and the power of darkness.” ⁵⁴Then they seized Yeshua and led Him away and brought Him into the house of the kohen gadol. But Peter was following from a distance.

Denied Three Times

⁵⁵Now they had lit a fire in the center of the courtyard and sat down together, and Peter was sitting among them. ⁵⁶Then a servant girl saw him sitting at the fire. She looked straight at him and said, “This one was with Him too!”

⁵⁷But he denied it, saying, “Woman, I don’t know Him!”

⁵⁸A little later, another saw him and said, “You too are one of them.”

But Peter said, “Man, I am not!”

⁵⁹And about an hour later, another began to insist, saying, “Certainly this fellow was with Him, for he too is a Galilean!”

⁶⁰But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what

^b 22:47. cf. Ps. 55:12-13, 20.

you're talking about!" And immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. ⁶¹And the Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, 'Before the rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times.'

⁶²And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Beaten by Roman Soldiers

⁶³Now the men who were guarding Yeshua began mocking and beating Him. ⁶⁴They blindfolded Him and kept asking Him, saying, "Prophecy! Who is the one who hit You?" ⁶⁵And reviling Him, they were saying many other things against Him.

Brought Before the Council

⁶⁶As it became day, the elders of the people gathered together, both ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and they led Him away to their council, saying, ⁶⁷"If You are Mashiach, tell us."

But Yeshua said to them, "If I tell you, you will never believe; ⁶⁸and if I ask you, you will never answer. ⁶⁹But from now on, the Son of Man is seated at the right hand of the power of God."^c

⁷⁰Then they all said, "Are You then Ben-Elohim?"

And to them He said, "You say that I am."

⁷¹Then they said, "What further need do we have for testimony? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth!"

Brought Before Pilate

¹Then the entire assembly got up and brought Yeshua to Pilate. ²And they began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this fellow subverting our nation, forbidding payment of taxes to Caesar and saying that He Himself is Messiah—a king."

³So Pilate questioned Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

^c 22:69. cf. Dan. 7:13(LXX); Ps. 110:1(109:1 LXX).

"As you say," Yeshua replied.

⁴Then Pilate said to the ruling kohanim and the crowds, "I find no case against this Man."

⁵But they kept insisting, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, starting from the Galilee to as far as here."

⁶But when Pilate heard this, he asked whether the Man was a Galilean. ⁷And when he learned that Yeshua was from Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

Brought Before Herod

⁸Now Herod was overjoyed when he saw Yeshua, for he had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had heard about Him and was hoping to see some miracle done by Him. ⁹He was questioning Yeshua on many issues, but Yeshua did not answer at all. ^d¹⁰And the ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars stood their ground, strongly accusing Him.

¹¹Now Herod together with his soldiers were treating Him with contempt and mocking Him. ^eThey put splendid clothing on Him and sent Him back to Pilate. ¹²And Herod and Pilate became friends with one another from that very day, for previously they had been enemies with one another.

Pilate's Decree

¹³Now Pilate called together the ruling kohanim, the leaders, and the people. ¹⁴And he said to them, "You brought this Man to me as one who incites the people to revolt. But having examined Him in your presence, I have found no case against this Man regarding what you accuse Him of doing. ¹⁵Nor did Herod, for he sent Him back to us. Indeed, He has done nothing that is worthy of death. ¹⁶Therefore I will scourge Him and release Him."⁽¹⁷⁾^f ¹⁸But they shouted out all together, saying, "Take this fellow away! Release to us Bar-Abba!"^g ¹⁹(He was someone who had been thrown into prison for a rebellion in the city and murder.)

²⁰Again Pilate addressed them, wanting to release Yeshua; ²¹but they kept shouting out, saying, “Execute, execute Him!”

²²And a third time he spoke to them, “Why? What evil has this One done? I have found in Him no fault deserving of death. Therefore, I will scourge and release Him.”

²³But they were insistent, demanding with loud shouts that He be executed. And their voices prevailed. ²⁴So Pilate decreed that their demand be put into effect. ²⁵And He released the one they were asking for, the one thrown in jail for insurrection and murder. But he handed over Yeshua to their will.

Executed on the Stake

²⁶As they led Him away, they grabbed a man, Simon of Cyrene, coming in from the countryside. They placed on him the cross-beam,^a to carry behind Yeshua.

²⁷Now a great multitude of people was following Him, including women who were mourning and singing dirges for Him. ²⁸But Yeshua, turning to them, said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but for yourselves and your children. ²⁹For indeed, the days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are barren, and the wombs that never gave birth, and the breasts that did not feed.’

³⁰Then they will begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us!’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us!’^b

³¹For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

³²Others, two evildoers, were also led away to be put to death with Him. ³³When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified Him and the evildoers, one on His right and the other on His left.

³⁴But Yeshua was saying, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” Then they cast lots, dividing up His clothing.^c

³⁵The people stood there watching. And even the leaders were sneering at Him, saying, “He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Messiah of God, the Chosen One!”^d

³⁶The soldiers likewise mocked Him, coming up and bringing Him sour wine,^e ³⁷and saying, “If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself.”

³⁸Now there was also an Inscription over Him:^f THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. ³⁹One of the evildoers hanging there was jeering at Him, saying, “Aren’t You the Messiah? Save Yourself—and us!”

⁴⁰But the other one, rebuking him, replied, “Don’t you fear God, since you are under the same sentence? ⁴¹We’re getting what we deserve for our actions, and rightly so—but this One has done nothing wrong.” ⁴²And he said, “Yeshua, remember me when You come into Your kingdom.”

⁴³*Yeshua* said to him, “Amen, I tell you, today you shall be with Me in Paradise.”

Temple Curtain Torn in Two

⁴⁴It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour,^g ⁴⁵for the sun died out. And the curtain^h of the Temple was torn in two.

⁴⁶And Yeshua, crying out with a loud voice, said, “Father, ‘into Your hands I entrust My spirit.’”ⁱ When He had said this, He breathed His last.

⁴⁷Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he began glorifying God, saying, “Truly this was a righteous Man.”

⁴⁸And all the crowds assembled for this spectacle, when they saw what had happened, began to turn back, beating their breasts. ⁴⁹But all Yeshua’s acquaintances, and the women who were following Him from the Galilee, were standing at a distance, watching these things.

Buried in a Rich Man's Tomb

⁵⁰Now there was a man named Joseph, a council member, a good and righteous man. ⁵¹(He had not been in agreement with the council and their action.) He was from the Judean town of Arimathea, and he was waiting for the kingdom of God. ⁵²This man went to Pilate and asked for Yeshua's body. ⁵³And he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb^f cut out of the rock, where no one had ever yet been laid.

⁵⁴Now it was the Day of Preparation, and Shabbat was approaching. ⁵⁵The women who had come with Him from the Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how His body was laid. ⁵⁶Then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes. But on Shabbat they rested according to the commandment.

Women Visit the Garden Tomb

¹Now on the first day of the week, at day-break, the women came to the tomb, carrying the spices they had prepared. ²They found the stone had been rolled away from the tomb; ³but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Yeshua.

⁴And while they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. ⁵The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you search for the living among the dead? ⁶He is not here, but He is risen! Remember what He told you when He was still in the Galilee, ⁷saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be executed, and on the third day rise up."

⁸And they were reminded of His words. ⁹And when they returned from the tomb,

^f 23:53. cf. Isa. 53:9b.

they told all these things to the eleven and to everyone else. ¹⁰Now it was Miriam from Magdala, Joanna, the Miriam of Jacob and others together with them who were telling these things to the emissaries. ¹¹But these words appeared to them as nonsense, and they would not believe them. ¹²But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Leaning in, he sees only the linen cloths. And he went away to his home, marveling at what had happened.

Eyes Open in Emmaus

¹³Now behold, two of them on that very day were traveling to a village named Emmaus, a distance of about seven miles^k from Jerusalem. ¹⁴They were speaking with one another about all the things that had been happening. ¹⁵While they were talking and discussing, Yeshua Himself approached and began traveling with them. ¹⁶But their eyes were kept from recognizing Him.

¹⁷Then He said to them, "What are these things you are discussing with one another as you are walking along?"

They stood still, looking gloomy. ¹⁸Then the one named Cleopas answered and said to Him, "Are You the only one visiting Jerusalem who doesn't know the things that happened there in these days?"

¹⁹Yeshua said to them, "What kind of things?"

And they said to Him, "The things about Yeshua from Natzeret, who was a Prophet, powerful in deed and word before God and all the people—²⁰how the ruling kohanim and our leaders handed Him over to be sentenced to death, and they executed Him. ²¹But we were hoping that He was the One about to redeem Israel. Besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened.

²²"But also some women among us amazed us. Early in the morning they were at the tomb. ²³When they didn't find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said He is alive! ²⁴Some of those with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women said, but they did not see Him.”

²⁵Yeshua said to them, “Oh foolish ones, so slow of heart to put your trust in all that the prophets spoke! ²⁶Was it not necessary for Messiah to suffer these things and to enter into His glory?” ²⁷Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He explained to them the things written about Himself in all the Scriptures.

²⁸They approached the village where they were going, and He acted as though He were going farther on. ²⁹But they urged Him, saying, “Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is already gone.” So He went in to stay with them.

³⁰And it happened that when He was reclining at the table with them, He took the matzah,^a offered a bracha and, breaking it, gave it to them. ³¹Then their eyes were opened and they recognized Him, and He disappeared from them.

Good News for the Disciples in Jerusalem

³²They said to one another, “Didn’t our heart burn within us while He was speaking with us on the road, while He was explaining the Scriptures to us?” ³³And they got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem. They found the eleven and others with them gathered together, ³⁴saying, “The Lord is risen indeed! He has appeared to Simon!” ³⁵Then they began telling about the events on the road and how He became recognized by them in the breaking of the matzah.

³⁶While they were speaking of these things, Yeshua Himself stood in the midst of them and said, “Shalom Aleichem!” ³⁷But they were startled and terrified, thinking they were seeing a ghost.

^a 24:30, 35. Lit. bread (at Passover, unleavened bread).

³⁸Then He said to them, “Why are you so shaken? And why do doubts arise in your heart? ³⁹Look at My hands and My feet—it is I Myself! Touch Me and see! For a spirit doesn’t have flesh and bones, as you see I have.” ⁴⁰And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.

⁴¹But while they were still in disbelief due to joy and wonder, He said to them, “Do you have anything to eat here?”

⁴²They gave Him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³and He took it and ate it in their presence.

⁴⁴Then He said to them, “These are My words which I spoke to you while I was still with you—everything written concerning Me in the Torah of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.

⁴⁵Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, ⁴⁶and He said to them, “So it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and that repentance for the removal of sins^b is to be proclaimed in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.^c ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹And behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you; but you are to stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.”

Yeshua Ascends into Heaven

⁵⁰Then Yeshua led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands^d and blessed them. ⁵¹And while blessing them, He departed from them from them and was taken up into heaven. ⁵²After worshiping Him, they returned to Jerusalem with great joy. ⁵³And they were continually in the Temple, praising God.

John

1

The Word Becomes Flesh

¹In the beginning was the Word.^e The Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was with God in the beginning. ³All things were made through Him, and apart from Him nothing was made that has come into being. ⁴In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. ⁵The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overpowered it.

⁶There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷He came as a witness to testify about the light, so that through him everyone might believe. ⁸He was not the light, but he came to bear witness concerning the light. ⁹The true light, coming into the world, gives light to every man.

¹⁰He was in the world, and the world was made through Him; but the world did not know Him. ¹¹He came to His own, but His own did not receive Him. ¹²But whoever did receive Him, those trusting in His name, to these He gave the right to become children of God. ¹³They were born not of a bloodline, nor of human desire, nor of man's will, but of God. ¹⁴And the Word became flesh and tabernacled among us. We looked upon His glory,^f the glory of the one and only^g from the Father, full of grace and truth.

¹⁵John testifies about Him. He cried out, saying, "This is He of whom I said, 'The One who comes after me is above me, because He existed before me.'" ¹⁶Out of His fullness, we have all received grace on top of grace. ¹⁷Torah was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁸No one has ever seen God; but the one and only God,^h in the Father's embrace, has made Him known.

John's Witness to Israel's Leaders

¹⁹This is John's testimony, when the Judean leaders sent kohanim and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

²⁰He openly admitted and did not deny; he admitted, "I am not the Messiah."

²¹"What then? Are you Elijah?" they asked him.

"I am not," said John.

"Are you the Prophet?"

"No," he answered.

²²So they said to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

²³He said, "I am 'the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of ADONAI,'" as the prophet Isaiah said."

²⁴Now those sent were from the Pharisees.

²⁵They asked him, "If you're not the Messiah, Elijah, or the Prophet, why then are you immersing?"

²⁶"I immerse in water," John answered.

"Among you stands One you do not know,

²⁷coming after me, whose sandals I'm not worthy to untie." ²⁸These things happened in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was immersing.

Behold, the Lamb of God

²⁹The next day, John sees Yeshua coming to him and says, "Behold, the Lambⁱ of God who takes away the sin of the world!" ³⁰This is the One about whom I told you, 'He who comes after me is above me, because He was before me.' ³¹I didn't know Him, but I came immersing with water so that He might be revealed to Israel."

³²Then John testified, "I have seen the Ruach coming down like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on Him. ³³I did not know Him; but the One who sent me to immerse in water said to me, 'The One on whom you see the Ruach coming down and remaining, this is the One who immerses in the Ruach ha-Kodesh.’

³⁴And I have seen and testified that this is Ben-Elohim.^a

Yeshua’s First Disciples

³⁵Again the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples³⁶ and watched Yeshua walking by. He said, “Behold, the Lamb of God!”³⁷The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Yeshua.

³⁸*Yeshua* turned around and saw them following. He said to them, “What are you looking for?”

They said to Him, “Rabbi” (which is translated Teacher), “where are you staying?”

³⁹“Come and see,” Yeshua tells them. So they came and saw where He was staying, and they spent that day with Him. It was about the tenth hour.^b

⁴⁰Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John speak and followed Yeshua.⁴¹First he finds his own brother Simon and tells him, “We’ve found the Messiah!” (which is translated Anointed One).

⁴²Andrew brought Simon to Yeshua. Yeshua looked at him and said, “You are Simon, son of John. You shall be called Kefa (which is translated Peter).”

Disciples Offer Witness

⁴³The next day, Yeshua decided to go to the Galilee. He finds Philip and says to him, “Follow Me!”⁴⁴Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the same town as Andrew and Peter.

⁴⁵Philip finds Nathanael and tells him, “We’ve found the One that Moses in the Torah, and also the prophets, wrote about—Yeshua of Natzeret, the son of Joseph!”

⁴⁶“Natzeret!” Nathanael answered. “Can anything good come from there?”

Philip said to him, “Come and see.”

⁴⁷*Yeshua* saw Nathanael coming toward Him. He said, “Look, a true Israelite! There’s nothing false in him.”

⁴⁸Nathanael said to Him, “How do you know me?”

Yeshua answered, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

⁴⁹“Rabbi,” Nathanael answered, “You are Ben-Elohim! You are the King of Israel!”^c

⁵⁰“Because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree, you believe?” Yeshua replied to him. “You will see greater things than that!”

⁵¹And He said, “Amen, amen I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God going up and coming down on the Son of Man!”^d

Water to Wine

¹On the third day, there was a wedding at Cana in the Galilee. Yeshua’s mother was there,² and Yeshua and His disciples were also invited to the wedding.³When the wine ran out, Yeshua’s mother said to Him, “They don’t have any wine!”

⁴*Yeshua* said to her, “Woman, what does this have to do with you and Me? My hour hasn’t come yet.”

⁵His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever He tells you.”

⁶Now there were six stone jars, used for the Jewish ritual of purification, each holding two to three measures.^e⁷*Yeshua* said to them, “Fill the jars with water!” So they filled them up to the top.⁸Then He said to them, “Take some water out, and give it to the headwaiter.” And they brought it.

⁹Now the headwaiter did not know where it had come from, but the servants who had drawn the water knew. As the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, he calls the bridegroom¹⁰ and says to him, “Everyone brings out the good wine first, and whenever they are drunk, then the worse. But you’ve reserved the good wine until now!”¹¹*Yeshua* did this, the first of the signs, in Cana of the Galilee—He revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

Yeshua Purges the Temple

¹²After this Yeshua went down to Capernaum with His mother, brothers,^f and disciples, and they stayed there a few days. ¹³The Jewish feast of Passover was near, so Yeshua went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴In the Temple, He found the merchants selling oxen, sheep, and doves; also the moneychangers sitting there. ¹⁵Then He made a whip of cords and drove them all out of the Temple, both the sheep and oxen. He dumped out the coins of the moneychangers and overturned their tables. ¹⁶To those selling doves, He said, “Get these things out of here! Stop making My Father’s house a marketplace!” ¹⁷His disciples remembered that it is written, “Zeal for your House will consume Me!”^g ¹⁸The Judean leaders responded, “What sign do You show us, since You are doing these things?”

¹⁹“Destroy this Temple,” Yeshua answered them, “and in three days I will raise it up.”

²⁰The Judean leaders then said to Him, “Forty-six years this Temple was being built, and You will raise it up in three days?” ²¹But He was talking about the temple of His body. ²²So after He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He was talking about this. Then they believed the Scripture and the word that Yeshua had spoken.

²³Now when He was in Jerusalem for the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name, seeing the signs He was doing. ²⁴But Yeshua did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew all men. ²⁵He did not need anyone to testify about man, for He knew what was in man.

A Pharisee Comes Seeking Truth

¹Now there was a man, a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jewish people. ²He came to Yeshua at night and said, “Rabbi, we know that You, a teacher, have come from God. For no one can perform these signs which You do unless God is with Him!”

³Yeshua answered him, “Amen, amen I tell you, unless one is born from above,^h he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

⁴“How can a man be born when he is old?” Nicodemus said to Him. “He cannot enter his mother’s womb a second time and be born, can he?”

⁵Yeshua answered, “Amen, amen I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit,ⁱ he cannot enter the kingdom of God. ⁶What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁷Do not be surprised that I said to you, ‘You all must be born from above.’ ⁸The wind blows where it wishes and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

The Father’s Love Revealed

⁹“How can these things happen?” Nicodemus said.

¹⁰Yeshua answered him, “You’re a teacher of Israel and you do not understand these things? ¹¹Amen, amen I tell you, We speak about what We know and testify about what We have seen. Yet you all do not receive Our testimony! ¹²If you do not believe the earthly things I told you, how will you believe when I tell you about heavenly things? ¹³No one has gone up into heaven except the One who came down from heaven—the Son of Man. ¹⁴Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert,^j so the Son of Man must be lifted up, ¹⁵so that whoever believes in Him may have eternal life!

¹⁶“For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through Him. ¹⁸The one who believes in Him is not condemned; but whoever does not believe has been condemned already, because he has not put his trust in the name of the one and only Ben-Elohim.

¹⁹“Now this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world and men loved the darkness instead of the light,^a because their deeds were evil. ²⁰For everyone who does evil hates the light and does not come to the light, so that their deeds will not be exposed. ²¹But whoever practices the truth comes to the light, so that it may be made known that his deeds have been accomplished in God.”

The Living Word, Source of Life

²²Afterwards, Yeshua and His disciples came to the land of Judea. There He was staying with them and immersing. ²³Now John also was immersing at Aenon near Sallm, because much water was there and many were coming and being immersed; ²⁴for John had not yet been thrown into prison.

²⁵Now an argument came up between John's disciples and a Judean concerning purification. ²⁶They came to John and said, “Rabbi, the One who was with you beyond the Jordan, the One you testified about—look, He is immersing, and all are coming to Him!”

²⁷John answered, “A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven. ²⁸You yourselves testify that I said, ‘I am not the Messiah,’ but rather, ‘I am sent before Him.’ ²⁹The one who has the bride is the bridegroom, but the best man rejoices when he stands and hears the bridegroom's voice. So now my joy is complete! ³⁰He must increase, while I must decrease.”

³¹The One who comes from above is above all. The one who is from the earth is of the earth, and of the earth he speaks. The One who comes from heaven is above all. ³²And what He has seen and heard, He testifies to that; yet no one receives His testimony. ³³Whoever receives His testimony has certified that God is true.

³⁴The One whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God gives the Ruach without limit. ³⁵The Father loves the Son and has given everything into His hand. ³⁶He who trusts in the Son has eternal life. He who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

Yeshua Offers Living Water

¹Now Yeshua knew that the Pharisees heard that He was making and immersing more disciples than John. ²(Although Yeshua Himself was not immersing, His disciples were.) ³So He left Judea and went back again to the Galilee.

⁴But He needed to pass through Samaria. ⁵So He comes to a Samaritan town called Shechem, near the plot of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. ⁶Now Jacob's well was there. So Yeshua, exhausted from the journey, was sitting by the well. It was midday.⁴

⁷A Samaritan woman comes to draw water. “Give me a drink,” Yeshua tells her, ⁸for His disciples had gone away to the town to buy food.

⁹Then the Samaritan woman tells Him, “How is it that You, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?” (For Jewish people don't deal with Samaritans.)

¹⁰*Yeshua* replied to her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, ‘Give Me a drink,’ you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.”

¹¹“Sir,” the woman tells Him, “You don't have a bucket, and the well is deep. Then from where do You get this living water? ¹²You're not greater than our father Jacob, are You? He gave us this well. He drank out of it himself, with his sons and his cattle.”

¹³*Yeshua* replied to her, “Everyone who drinks from this water will get thirsty again. ¹⁴But whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never be thirsty. The water that I give him will become a fountain of water within him, springing up to eternal life!”

¹⁵“Sir,” the woman tells Him, “give me this water, so I won’t get thirsty or have to come all the way here to draw water!”

¹⁶He tells her, “Go call your husband, and then come back here.”

¹⁷“I don’t have a husband,” the woman replied.

Yeshua tells her, “You’ve said it right, ‘I have no husband.’”¹⁸For you’ve had five husbands, and the man you have now isn’t your husband. This you’ve spoken truthfully!”

¹⁹“Sir,” the woman tells Him, “I see that You are a prophet!”²⁰Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you all say that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem.”

²¹Yeshua tells her, “Woman, believe Me, an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²²You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³But an hour is coming—it is here now—when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people as His worshipers. ²⁴God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.”

²⁵The woman tells Him, “I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called the Anointed One.)^d When He comes, He will explain everything to us.”

²⁶Yeshua tells her, “I—the One speaking to you—I am.”

Ready for Harvest

²⁷At this moment, His disciples came back. They were amazed that He was speaking with a woman. Yet no one said, “What do You want?” or “Why are You speaking with her?”

²⁸So the woman left her water jar and went back to the town. She tells the people, ²⁹“Come see a man who told me everything I ever did! He couldn’t be the Messiah, could He?” ³⁰The people left the town and began coming to Him.

^d 4:25. Christ (Gk.) and Messiah (Heb.) both mean Anointed One.

³¹Meanwhile, the disciples were pressing Him, “Rabbi, eat!”

³²But He said to them, “I have food to eat that you know nothing about.”

³³So the disciples were saying to each other, “No one brought Him food to eat, did they?”

³⁴Yeshua tells them, “My food is to do the will of the One who sent Me and to accomplish His work. ³⁵Don’t you say, ‘Four more months, and then comes the harvest’? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields! They are white and ready for harvest.

³⁹Many of the Samaritans from that town put their trust in Him because of the word of the woman testifying, “He told me everything I ever did!” ⁴⁰So when the Samaritans came to Him, they kept asking Him to stay with them. He stayed there two days, ⁴¹and many more believed because of His word. ⁴²They kept telling the woman, “It’s no longer because of your words that we believe. We’ve heard for ourselves! Now we know that this really is the Savior of the world!”

Life for a Dying Son

⁴³After the two days, He went on from there into the Galilee. ⁴⁴Now Yeshua Himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. ⁴⁵But when He came into the Galilee, they welcomed Him. For they had seen all He had done at the feast in Jerusalem, since they also had gone up to celebrate.

⁴⁶So He went again to Cana of the Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. Now there was a nobleman whose son was sick in Capernaum. ⁴⁷When he heard that Yeshua had come from Judea to the Galilee, he went to Him and begged Him to come down and heal his son; for he was about to die.

⁴⁸Then Yeshua said to him, “Unless you all see signs and wonders, you’ll never believe!”

⁴⁹The nobleman said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies!"

⁵⁰Yeshua tells him, "Go! Your son lives!"

The man believed the word that Yeshua said to him and started off. ⁵¹While on his way down, his servants met him, saying that his son was living. ⁵²So he asked them the hour when the boy began to get better. They said, "The fever left him yesterday at about the seventh hour."^a ⁵³Then the father realized that it was the same hour Yeshua said to him, "Your son lives!" Now he himself believed, along with his whole household. ⁵⁴Yeshua did this as the second sign, after He had come again from Judea into the Galilee.

Healing on Shabbat

¹After this there was a Jewish feast, and Yeshua went up to Jerusalem. ²Now in Jerusalem there is a pool by the sheep gate, called Bethzatha in Aramaic,^b which has five porches. ³In these a crowd of invalids was lying around—blind, lame, disabled.⁽⁴⁾^c

⁵Now a certain man had been an invalid there for thirty-eight years. ⁶Seeing him lying there and knowing he had been that way a long time, Yeshua said to him, "Do you want to get well?"

⁷The invalid answered Him, "Sir, I have nobody to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up. While I'm trying to get in, somebody else steps down before me!"

⁸Yeshua tells him, "Get up! Pick up your mat and walk!"

⁹Immediately, the man was healed! He took up his mat and started walking around. Now that day was Shabbat, ¹⁰so Judean leaders were saying to the man who was healed, "It's

^a 4:52. One o'clock.

^b 5:2. Lit. in Hebrew, Bethesda (Heb.) means House of Mercy. Bethzatha (Aram.) means the place of poured out water.

^c 5:3. ASV adds: They waited for the water to be moved. Other mss. also add verse 4: because an angel of the Lord sometimes went to the pool and moved the water. Then, whoever went into the water first was healed from whatever disease he had.

Shabbat! It's not permitted for you to carry your mat."

¹¹But he answered them, "The man who made me well told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"

¹²They asked him, "Who is the man who told you, 'Pick up your mat and walk?'" ¹³But the man who had been healed didn't know who it was, for Yeshua had slipped away into the crowd in that place.

¹⁴Afterwards, Yeshua finds him in the Temple. He said to him, "Look, you've been healed! Stop sinning, so nothing worse happens to you." ¹⁵The man left and told the Judean leaders that it was Yeshua who had made him well.

Sent by the Father

¹⁶Because Yeshua was doing these things on Shabbat, the Judean leaders started persecuting Him. ¹⁷But Yeshua said to them, "My Father is still working, and I also am working."

¹⁸So for this reason the Judean leaders kept trying even harder to kill Him—because He was not only breaking Shabbat,^d but also calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.

¹⁹Therefore Yeshua answered them, "Amen, amen I tell you, the Son cannot do anything by Himself. He can do only what He sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise. ²⁰For the Father loves the Son and shows Him everything He does. He will show Him even greater works than these, so that you will be amazed. ²¹For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever He wants.

²²The Father does not judge anyone, but has handed over all judgment to the Son ²³so that all should honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

²⁴"Amen, amen I tell you, whoever hears My word and trusts the One who sent Me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed over from death into life. ²⁵Amen, amen I tell you, an hour is coming and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of Ben-Elohim. Those who hear will live!^b For just as the Father has life in Himself, so also He has granted the Son to have life in Himself.²⁷ Also He has given the Son authority to judge, because He is the Son of Man.

²⁸“Do not be amazed at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear His voice²⁹ and come out!^e Those who have done good will come to a resurrection of life, and those who have done evil will come to a resurrection of judgment.³⁰ I can do nothing on My own. Just as I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just, for I do not seek My own will, but the will of the One who sent Me.”

The Father Testifies about the Son

³¹“If I testify about Myself, My witness is not valid.³² There is another who testifies about Me, and I know that the testimony He gives is true.³³ You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.³⁴ I do not receive the testimony of man, but I say these things so that you may be saved.³⁵ He was the lamp that was burning and shining, and you wanted to rejoice for a while in his light.

³⁶“But the testimony I have is greater than that from John. The works the Father has given Me to finish—the very works I am doing—testify about Me, that the Father has sent Me.³⁷ And the Father who sent Me has testified concerning Me. You have never heard His voice nor seen His form.³⁸ Nor do you have His Word living in you, because you do not trust the One He sent.³⁹ You search the Scriptures because you suppose that in them you have eternal life. It is these that testify about Me.⁴⁰ Yet you are unwilling to come to Me so that you may have life!

⁴¹“I do not accept glory from men.⁴² But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves.⁴³ I have come in My Father’s name, and you do not receive Me. But if another comes in his own name, you will receive him.⁴⁴ How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and you do not seek the glory that comes from God alone?

⁴⁵“Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father. The one who accuses you is Moses, in whom you have put your hope.

⁴⁶For if you were believing Moses, you would believe Me—because he wrote about Me.

⁴⁷But since you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”^f

New Manna in the Wilderness

¹Afterwards, Yeshua went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also known as the Sea of Tiberias.² A large crowd kept following Him, because they were watching the signs He was performing on the sick.³ Then Yeshua went up the mountainside and sat down there with His disciples.⁴ Passover, the Jewish feast, was near.

⁵Lifting up His eyes and seeing a large crowd coming to Him, Yeshua said to Philip, “Where will we buy bread so these may eat?”⁶ Now Yeshua was saying this to test him, for He knew what He was about to do.

⁷Philip answered Him, “Two hundred denarii^g isn’t enough to buy bread for each to get a little bit!”

⁸One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to Him, ⁹“There’s a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish—but what’s that for so many?”

¹⁰*Yeshua* said, “Make the people recline.” There was much grass in the area. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number.¹¹ Then Yeshua picked up the loaves. And having given thanks, He distributed bread to everyone who was reclining. He did the same with the fish, as much as they wanted.

¹²When the people were full, Yeshua said to His disciples, “Gather up the leftovers, so nothing is wasted.”¹³ So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had finished eating.

^e 5:28-29. cf. Ezek. 37:12; Ps. 16:10; Dan. 12:2.

^f 5:46-47. cf. Deut. 18:15-19.

^g 6:7. One denarius was the daily wage for a laborer.

¹⁴When the people saw the sign that Yeshua performed, they began to say, “This is most certainly the Prophet who is to come into the world!”^a ¹⁵Realizing that they were about to come and seize Him by force to make Him king, Yeshua withdrew again to the mountain, Himself alone.

The Savior on the Sea

¹⁶Now when evening came, Yeshua’s disciples went down to the sea. ¹⁷Getting into a boat, they set out to cross the sea toward Capernaum. By now it had become dark, and still Yeshua had not come to them. ¹⁸A great wind began to blow, stirring up the sea.

¹⁹After they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia,^b they catch sight of Yeshua walking on the sea, approaching the boat. They were terrified! ²⁰But Yeshua says to them, “I am. Don’t be afraid.”^c ²¹Then they wanted to take Him into the boat, and right away the boat reached the shore where they were headed.

The Bread from Heaven

²²The next day, the crowd remaining on the other side of the sea realized that no other boat had been there except the one, and that Yeshua hadn’t gone into the boat with His disciples, but that His disciples had gone away alone. ²³Some other boats from Tiberias came close to the place where they had eaten the bread after the Master had given thanks. ²⁴So when the crowd realized that neither Yeshua nor His disciples were there, they got into the boats and set off for Capernaum to find Him. ²⁵When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said, “Rabbi, when did You get here?”

²⁶*Yeshua* responded to them, “Amen, amen I tell you, you seek Me not because you saw signs, but because you ate all the bread and were filled. ²⁷Don’t work for food that spoils, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on Him, God the Father has put the seal of approval.”

²⁸Then they said to Him, “What shall we do to perform the works of God?”

²⁹*Yeshua* answered them, “This is the work of God, to trust in the One He sent.”

³⁰So they said to Him, “Then what sign do You perform, so that we may see and believe You? What work do You do? ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, ‘Out of heaven He gave them bread to eat.’”^d

³²*Yeshua* answered them, “Amen, amen I tell you, it isn’t Moses who has given you bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³For the bread of God is the One coming down from heaven and giving life to the world.”

³⁴So they said to Him, “Sir, give us this bread from now on!”

³⁵*Yeshua* said to them, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in Me will never be thirsty. ³⁶But I told you that you have seen Me, yet you do not believe. ³⁷Everyone the Father gives Me will come to Me, and anyone coming to Me I will never reject. ³⁸For I have come down from heaven not to do My own will but the will of the One who sent Me.

³⁹“Now this is the will of the One who sent Me, that I lose not one of all He has given Me, but raise each one on the last day. ⁴⁰For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who sees the Son and trusts in Him may have eternal life; and I will raise him up on the last day.”

⁴¹Some of the Judeans^e started to grumble about Him, because He said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.” ⁴²They were saying, “Isn’t this Yeshua the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can He now say, ‘I have come down from heaven?’”

⁴³*Yeshua* answered, “Stop grumbling among yourselves! ⁴⁴No one can come to Me unless My Father who sent Me draws him—and I will raise him up on the last day. ⁴⁵It is written in the Prophets, ‘They will all be taught by God.^f Everyone who has listened and learned from the Father comes to Me.^{4b} Not that anyone has seen the Father except the One who is from God—He has seen the Father.

⁴⁷“Amen, amen I tell you, he who believes has eternal life.⁴⁸ I am the bread of life.⁴⁹ Your fathers ate the manna in the desert, yet they died.⁵⁰ This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat and not die.⁵¹ I am the living bread, which came down from heaven. If anyone eats this bread, he will live forever. This bread is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.”

⁵²Then the Jews began arguing with one another, “How can this man give us His flesh to eat?”

⁵³So Yeshua said to them, “Amen, amen I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves.⁵⁴ He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

⁵⁵“For My flesh is real food and My blood is real drink.⁵⁶ He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him.⁵⁷ Just as the living Father sent Me and I live because of the Father, so the one who eats of Me will also live because of Me.⁵⁸ This is the bread that came down from heaven—not like the bread your fathers ate and then died. He who eats this bread will live forever.”

⁵⁹He said these things while teaching at the synagogue in Capernaum.

Fallout from a Hard Teaching

⁶⁰So when many of His disciples heard this, they said, “This is a hard teaching. Who can listen to it?”

⁶¹But Yeshua knew His disciples were murmuring, so He said to them, “Does this offend you?⁶² Then what if you see the Son of Man going back up to the place where He was before?⁶³ It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no benefit. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and are life!⁶⁴ Yet some of you do not trust.” Yeshua knew from the beginning who were the ones who did not trust, as well as which one would betray Him.

⁶⁵Then He told them, “For this reason I’ve told you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by the Father.”

⁶⁶From this time, many of His disciples left and quit walking with Him.⁶⁷ So Yeshua said to the Twelve, “You don’t want to leave also, do you?”

⁶⁸Simon Peter answered Him, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life!⁶⁹ We have trusted and have come to know that you are the Holy One of God.”

⁷⁰Yeshua answered them, “Didn’t I choose you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is the adversary!”⁷¹ Now He was speaking of Judah, the son of Simon of Kriot—for he, one of the Twelve, was about to betray Him.

Anticipating Hostility at Sukkot

¹After these events, Yeshua was walking about in the Galilee. He did not want to walk in Judea, because the Judean leaders wanted to kill Him.² Now the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles^g was near.³ Therefore His brothers said to Him, “Leave here and go to Judea, so Your disciples also may see the works You are doing.⁴ No one who wants to be well known does everything in secret. If You are doing these things, show Yourself to the world!”⁵ For not even His brothers were trusting in Him.

⁶Therefore Yeshua said to them, “My time has not yet come, but your time is always at hand.⁷ The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify that its works are evil.⁸ You go on up to the Feast. I’m not going to this Feast, because My time hasn’t yet fully come.”⁹ After saying these things, He stayed in the Galilee.

¹⁰But after His brothers went to the Feast, He also went, not openly but secretly.¹¹ Then the Judean leaders were searching for Him at the Feast and kept asking, “Where is that fellow?" ¹²There was a lot of murmuring about Him in the crowds. Some were saying, "He is good." But others were saying, "Not so! He leads the people astray." ¹³Yet no one spoke openly about Him for fear of the Judean leaders.

Teaching at the Temple

¹⁴About halfway through the Feast, Yeshua went up to the Temple and began teaching. ¹⁵Then the Judean leaders were amazed, saying, "How does this man know so much, having never been taught?"^a

¹⁶*Yeshua* answered, "My teaching is not from Me, but from Him who sent Me. ¹⁷If anyone wants to do His will, he will know whether My teaching comes from God or it is Myself speaking. ¹⁸Whoever speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He who seeks the glory of the One who sent Him, He is true and there is no unrighteousness in Him. ¹⁹Hasn't Moses given you the Torah? Yet none of you keeps it. Why are you trying to kill Me?"

²⁰The crowd answered, "You have a demon! Who's trying to kill you?"

²¹*Yeshua* answered, "I did one good work, and all of you are amazed. ²²Because Moses has given you circumcision (though it is not from Moses, but from the patriarchs), you circumcise a man on Shabbat. ²³If a man receives circumcision on Shabbat so that the Torah of Moses may not be broken, why are you angry that I healed a man's whole body on Shabbat? ²⁴Do not judge by appearance, but judge righteously."

²⁵Then some of the people from Jerusalem were saying, "Isn't this the person they're trying to kill? ²⁶Look, He speaks openly and they're saying nothing to Him. Can it be that the leaders know He is the Messiah? ²⁷But we know where this person is from. But the Messiah, whenever He may come, no one knows where He is from."

²⁸Then, while teaching in the Temple courts, Yeshua cried out, "You know both who I am and where I am from! I have not come on My own, but the One who sent Me is true. You do not know Him, ²⁹but I know Him because I am from Him and He sent Me."

³⁰Then they were trying to seize Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come. ³¹Yet many from the crowd believed in Him and were saying, "When the Messiah comes, He won't perform more signs than this person has, will He?" ³²The Pharisees heard people in the crowd murmuring these things about Him, and the ruling kohanim and Pharisees sent guards to arrest Him.

³³*Yeshua* said, "I am with you only a little while longer, and then I am going to the One who sent Me. ³⁴You will look for Me but will not find Me. Where I am, you cannot come."

³⁵The Judean leaders then said among themselves, "Where is this person about to go that we shall not find Him? He's not going to the Diaspora to teach the Greeks, is He? ³⁶What did He mean by saying, 'You will look for Me but will not find Me. Where I am, you cannot come'?"

Satisfying Spiritual Thirst

³⁷On the last and greatest day of the Feast, Yeshua stood up and cried out loudly, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. ³⁸Whoever believes in Me, as the Scripture says, 'out of his innermost being will flow rivers of living water.'"^b ³⁹Now He said this about the Ruach, whom those who trusted in Him were going to receive; for the Ruach^c was not yet given, since Yeshua was not yet glorified.

⁴⁰When they heard these words, some of the crowd said, "This man really is the Prophet." ⁴¹Others were saying, "This is the Messiah." Still others were saying, "The Messiah doesn't come from the Galilee, does He? ⁴²Didn't the Scripture say that the Messiah comes from the seed of David and from Bethlehem, David's town?"^d ⁴³So a division arose in the crowd because of Yeshua. ⁴⁴Some wanted to capture Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

Religious Adversaries

⁴⁵Then the guards returned to the ruling kohanim and Pharisees, who asked them, “Why didn’t you bring Him?”

⁴⁶“Never has anyone spoken like this man,” the guards answered.

⁴⁷The Pharisees responded, “You haven’t been led astray also, have you? ⁴⁸Have any of the rulers or Pharisees believed in Him? ⁴⁹No, but this mob that doesn’t know the Torah—they are cursed!”

⁵⁰Nicodemus, the one who had come to Yeshua before and was one of them, said to them, ⁵¹“Our Torah doesn’t judge a man unless it first hears from him and knows what he’s doing, does it?”

⁵²They answered him, “You aren’t from the Galilee too, are you? Search, and see that no prophet comes out of the Galilee!”^e ⁵³Then everyone went to his own house.

8

Mercy for a Sinful Woman

¹But Yeshua went to the Mount of Olives.

²At dawn, He came again into the Temple. All the people were coming to Him, and He sat down and began to teach them.

³The Torah scholars and Pharisees bring in a woman who had been caught in adultery. After putting her in the middle, ⁴they say to Yeshua, “Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of committing adultery. ⁵In the Torah, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do You say?” ⁶Now they were saying this to trap Him, so that they would have grounds to accuse Him.

But Yeshua knelt down and started writing in the dirt with His finger. ⁷When they kept asking Him, He stood up and said, “The sinless one among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.” ⁸Then He knelt down again and continued writing on the ground.

⁹Now when they heard, they began to leave, one by one, the oldest ones first, until Yeshua was left alone with the woman in the middle.

¹⁰Straightening up, Yeshua said to her, “Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?”

¹¹“No one, Sir,” she said.

“Then neither do I condemn you,” Yeshua said. “Go, and sin no more.”

The Light of the World

¹²*Yeshua* spoke to them again, saying, “I am the light of the world. The one who follows Me will no longer walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

¹³Then the Pharisees said to Him, “You are testifying about Yourself, so Your testimony is not valid.”

¹⁴*Yeshua* answered them, “Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is valid. For I know where I came from and where I am going. But you don’t know where I come from or where I am going. ¹⁵You judge according to the flesh, but I do not judge anyone. ¹⁶Yet even if I do judge, My judgment is true, because it is not I alone but I with the Father who sent Me. ¹⁷Even in your Torah it is written that the testimony of two men is true. ¹⁸I am one witness for Myself, and the Father who sent Me bears witness for Me.”

¹⁹Then they said to Him, “Where is your Father?”

Yeshua answered, “You know neither Me nor My Father. If you knew Me, you would also know My Father.” ²⁰He spoke these words in the treasury while teaching in the Temple, but no one arrested Him because His hour had not yet come.

²¹Then again Yeshua spoke to them, “I am going away. You will look for Me and die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come.”

²²“He won’t kill Himself, will He?” the Judeans asked. “Is that why He says, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come?’”

²³*Yeshua* said, “You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. ²⁴Therefore I told you that you will die in your sins. If you don’t believe that I am, you will die in your sins.”

^e 7:52. The earliest manuscripts do not include John 7:53-8:11. Others locate the passage after 7:36 or after 21:25.

^f 8:17. cf. Dt. 17:6; 19:15.

²⁵So they asked Him, “Who are you?”

Yeshua replied, “What have I been telling you from the beginning? ²⁶I have much to say and judge about you. But the One who sent Me is true, and I tell the world what I heard from Him.” ²⁷They didn’t understand that He was talking to them about the Father.

²⁸So Yeshua said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know who I am. I do nothing by Myself, but speak just what the Father has taught Me. ²⁹The One who sent Me is with Me. He has not left Me alone, because I always do what is pleasing to Him.”

³⁰As He was speaking these things, many people put their trust in Him.

³¹Then Yeshua said to the Judeans who had trusted Him, “If you abide in My word, then you are truly My disciples. ³²You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free!”

³³They answered Him, “We are Abraham’s children and have never been slaves to anyone! How can you say, ‘You will become free?’”

³⁴Yeshua answered them, “Amen, amen I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. ³⁵Now the slave does not remain in the household forever; the son abides forever. ³⁶So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed! ³⁷I know you are Abraham’s children; yet you are trying to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. ³⁸I tell of what I have seen with the Father; so also you do what you heard from the Father.”^a ³⁹“Abraham is our father,” they replied to Him.

Yeshua said to them, “If you are Abraham’s children, do the deeds of Abraham. ⁴⁰But now you are seeking to kill Me—a Man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. This Abraham did not do! ⁴¹You are doing the deeds of your father.”

They said to Him, “We were not born as illegitimate children—we have one Father, God Himself!”

⁴²Yeshua said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love Me, for from God I came and now I am here. For I have not come on My own, but He sent Me. ⁴³Why don’t you understand My speech? Because you’re not able to hear My word! ⁴⁴You are of your father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. Whenever he speaks lies he is just being himself—for he is a liar and the father of lies.

⁴⁵“But because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me. ⁴⁶Which one of you convicts Me of sinning? If I am telling the truth, why don’t you believe Me? ⁴⁷He who belongs to God hears the words of God. The reason you don’t hear^b is because you do not belong to God.”

⁴⁸The Judean leaders responded, “Aren’t we right to say you are a Samaritan and have a demon?”

⁴⁹Yeshua answered, “I do not have a demon! I honor My Father, yet you dishonor Me. ⁵⁰But I do not seek My own glory; there is One who is seeking and judging. ⁵¹Amen, amen I tell you, if anyone keeps My word, he will never see death.”

⁵²“Now we know You have a demon!” the Judean leaders said to Him. “Abraham and the prophets died. Yet You say, ‘If anyone keeps My word, he will never taste death.’ ⁵³You are not greater than our father Abraham who died, are You? The prophets also died! Who do You make Yourself out to be?”

⁵⁴Yeshua answered, “If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father who gives Me glory—the One of whom you say, ‘He is our God.’^c ⁵⁵Yet you do not know Him, but I know Him. If I say I do not know Him, I will be a liar like you. Yet I do know Him and keep His Word. ⁵⁶Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day; he saw it and was thrilled.”

⁵⁷Then the Judeans said to Him, “You’re not even fifty years old and you’ve seen Abraham?”^d

⁵⁸Yeshua answered, “Amen, amen I tell you, before Abraham was, I am!”

⁵⁹Then they picked up stones to throw at Him, but Yeshua hid Himself and went out from the Temple.^e

Bringing Light to the Blind

¹As Yeshua was passing by, He saw a man who had been blind since birth. ²His disciples asked Him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?”

³*Yeshua* answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned. This happened so that the works of God might be brought to light in him. ⁴We must do the work of the One who sent Me, so long as it is day! Night is coming when no one can work. ⁵While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

⁶Having said these things, He spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud on the blind man’s eyes. ⁷He told him, “Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam” (which is translated Sent). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing.

⁸Therefore his neighbors and those who had seen him as a beggar kept saying, “Isn’t this the one who used to sit and beg?”

⁹“This is the one!” some said.

“No, but it looks like him,” said others.

But the man himself kept saying, “I am!”

¹⁰So they asked him, “Then how were your eyes opened?”

¹¹He answered, “The Man who is called Yeshua made mud, rubbed it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So I went away and washed, and then I received my sight!”

¹²“Where is He?” they asked him.

“I don’t know,” he said.

¹³They bring to the Pharisees the man who once was blind. ¹⁴Now the day was Shabbat when Yeshua made the mud and opened the man’s eyes. ¹⁵So again the Pharisees were asking him how he received his sight. He responded, “He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see!”

¹⁶So some of the Pharisees began saying, “This man isn’t from God, because He doesn’t keep Shabbat!” But others were saying, “How can a sinner perform such signs?” So there was a split among them.

¹⁷Again they say to the blind man, “What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?”

And he said, “He’s a prophet.”

¹⁸So the Judean leaders didn’t believe that he had been blind and received his sight until they called his parents. ¹⁹They questioned them, “Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? Then how does he see now?”

²⁰Then his parents answered, “We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. ²¹We don’t know how he now sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him—he’s old enough. He will speak for himself.” ²²His parents said this because they were afraid of the Judean leaders. For the Judean leaders had already agreed that anyone who professed Yeshua to be Messiah would be thrown out of the synagogue. ²³That’s why his parents said, “He’s old enough—ask him.”

²⁴So a second time they called the man who had been blind and said, “Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner!”

²⁵The man replied, “I don’t know whether He’s a sinner. One thing I do know is that I was blind, but now I see!”

²⁶So they asked him, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

²⁷“I told you already and you didn’t listen!” the man responded. “What, do you want to hear it again? You don’t want to become His disciples too, do you?”

²⁸They railed at him and said, “You’re a disciple of that One, but we’re disciples of Moses! ²⁹We know that God has spoken to Moses; but as for this fellow, we don’t know where He is from.”

³⁰The man replied to them, “That’s amazing! You don’t know where He is from, yet He opened my eyes! ³¹We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners; but if anyone fears Him and does His will, He hears this one. ³²Since the beginning of the world, no one has ever heard that anyone has opened the eyes of a man born blind. ³³If this man were not from God, He couldn’t do anything.”

³⁴They replied to him, “You were born completely in sin, and you’re teaching us?” And they threw him out.

Is Seeing Believing?

³⁵Yeshua heard that they had thrown him out. Finding him, He said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"^a ³⁶The man answered, "Who is He, Sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in Him!"

³⁷Yeshua said, "You have seen Him—He is the One speaking with you."

³⁸He said, "Lord, I believe!" And he worshiped Him.

³⁹Yeshua said, "For judgment I came into this world, so that those who don't see may see, and the ones who do see may become blind."

⁴⁰Some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard Him say this and asked, "We're not blind too, are we?"

⁴¹Yeshua said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin. But now you say, 'We see.' So your sin remains."

The Faithful Hear the Shepherd's Voice

¹"Amen, amen I tell you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber. ²But he who enters through the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice. The shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

⁴"When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them; and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." ⁶Yeshua told them this parable, but they did not understand what He was telling them.

⁷So Yeshua said again, "Amen, amen I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸All those who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹I am the gate!^b If anyone comes in through Me, he will be saved. He will come and go and find pasture. ¹⁰The thief comes only to steal, slaughter, and destroy. I have come that they might have life, and have it abundantly!

¹¹"I am the Good Shepherd.^c The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. ¹²The hired worker is not the shepherd, and the sheep are not his own. He sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and flees. Then the wolf snatches and scatters the sheep. ¹³The man is only a hired hand and does not care about the sheep.

¹⁴"I am the Good Shepherd. I know My own and My own know Me, ¹⁵just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father. And I lay down My life for the sheep. ¹⁶I have other sheep that are not from this fold; those also I must lead, and they will listen to My voice. So there shall be one flock, one Shepherd.

¹⁷"For this reason the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, so that I may take it up again. ¹⁸No one takes it away from Me, but I lay it down on My own. I have the authority to lay it down, and I have the authority to take it up again. This command I received from My Father."

¹⁹Again a division arose among the Judeans because of these words. ²⁰Many of them were saying, "He has a demon. He's insane! Why listen to Him?" ²¹Others said, "These are not the sayings of someone who is plagued by a demon. A demon cannot open the eyes of the blind, can it?"

Some Despise the Light and Harden

²²Then came Hanukkah;^d it was winter in Jerusalem. ²³Yeshua was walking in the Temple around Solomon's Colonnade. ²⁴Then the Judean leaders surrounded Him, saying, "How long will You hold us in suspense? If You are the Messiah, tell us outright!"

²⁵Yeshua answered them, "I told you, but you don't believe! The works I do in My Father's name testify concerning Me. ²⁶But you don't believe, because you are not My sheep. ²⁷My sheep hear My voice. I know them, and they follow Me. ²⁸I give them eternal life! They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of My hand. ²⁹My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all. And no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. ³⁰I and the Father are one."

³¹Again the Judean leaders picked up stones to stone Him. ³²Yeshua answered them, "I've shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these are you going to stone Me?"

³³The Judean leaders answered, "We aren't stoning you for a good work, but for blasphemy. Though You are a man, You make Yourself God!"

³⁴Yeshua answered them, "Isn't it written in your Writings, ^e 'I have said you are gods'? ³⁵If he called them 'gods,' to whom the Word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), ³⁶do you say of Him, the One the Father set apart and sent into the world, 'You speak blasphemy,' because I said, 'I am Ben-Elohim'?"

³⁷"If I don't do the works of My Father, don't believe Me! ³⁸But if I do, even if you don't trust Me, trust the deeds. Then you may come to know and continue to understand that the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father." ³⁹Therefore they tried to capture Him again, but He escaped from their hand.

⁴⁰Again He went back across the Jordan to the place where John first started immersing, and He stayed there. ⁴¹Many people came to Him and were saying, "John performed no sign, but all John said about this man was true." ⁴²And many trusted in Him there.

11

Lazarus Is Dead

¹Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Miriam and her sister Martha. ²This was the same Miriam who anointed the Master with perfume and wiped His feet with her hair. It was her brother Lazarus who was sick. ³So the sisters sent a word to Yeshua, saying, "Master, the one you love is sick!"

⁴When Yeshua heard this, He said, "This sickness will not end in death. It is for God's glory, so that Ben-Elohim may be glorified through it." ⁵Now Yeshua loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. ⁶However, when He heard that Lazarus was sick, He stayed where He was for two more days.

⁷Then after this, He said to His disciples, "Let's go up to Judea again."

⁸"Rabbi," the disciples say to Him, "just now the Judean leaders were trying to stone You! And You're going back there again?"

⁹Yeshua answered, "Aren't there twelve hours in the day? If a man walks in the day, he doesn't stumble, because he sees the light of the world. ¹⁰But if a man should walk around at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

¹¹After He said this, He tells them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I'm going there to wake him up."

¹²So the disciples said to Him, "Master, if he has fallen asleep, he will get better." ¹³Now Yeshua had spoken about his death, but they thought He was talking about ordinary sleep.

¹⁴Then Yeshua told them clearly, "Lazarus is dead! ¹⁵I'm glad for your sake I wasn't there, so that you may believe. Anyway, let's go to him!"

¹⁶Then Thomas called the Twin^f said to the other disciples, "Let's go too, so that we may die with Him!"

Comforting the Mourners

¹⁷So when Yeshua arrived, He discovered that Lazarus had been in the tomb already for four days. ¹⁸Bethany was less than two miles^g from Jerusalem, ¹⁹and many of the Judeans had come to Martha and Miriam to console them about their brother.

²⁰When Martha heard that Yeshua was coming, she went out to meet Him; but Miriam sat in the house. ²¹Martha said to Yeshua, "Master, if You had been here, my brother wouldn't have died! ²²But I know, even now, that whatever You may ask of God, He will give You."

²³*Yeshua* said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

²⁴Martha said to Him, "I know, he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

²⁵*Yeshua* said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life! Whoever believes in Me, even if he dies, shall live. ²⁶And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

²⁷She says to Him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, Ben-Elohim who has come into the world." ²⁸After she said this, she left and secretly told her sister Miriam, "The Teacher is here, and He's calling for you."

²⁹As soon as Miriam heard, she quickly got up and was coming to Him. ³⁰Now Yeshua had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met Him. ³¹The Judeans, who were with Miriam in the house and comforting her, seeing how quickly she got up and went out, followed her. They thought she was going to the tomb to weep there.

³²So when Miriam came to where Yeshua was, she saw Him and fell at His feet, saying to Him, "Master, if You had been here, my brother would not have died!"

³³When Yeshua saw her weeping, and the Judeans who came with her weeping, He was deeply troubled in spirit and Himself agitated. ³⁴"Where have you laid him?" He asked.

"Come and see, Master," they tell Him.

³⁵*Yeshua* wept. ³⁶So the Judeans said, "See how He loved him!"

³⁷But some of them said, "Couldn't this One, who opened the eyes of the blind man, have also kept this man from dying?"

Yeshua's Word Raises the Dead

³⁸So Yeshua, again deeply troubled within Himself, comes to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹*Yeshua* says, "Roll away the stone!"

Martha, the dead man's sister, said to Him, "Master, by this time he stinks! He's been dead for four days!"

⁴⁰*Yeshua* says to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

⁴¹So they rolled away the stone. Yeshua lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard Me. ⁴²I knew that You always hear Me; but because of this crowd standing around I said it, so that they may believe that You sent Me."

⁴³And when He had said this, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴⁴He who had been dead came out, wrapped in burial clothes binding his hands and feet, with a cloth over his face. And Yeshua tells them, "Cut him loose, and let him go!"

Better that One Man Die

⁴⁵Therefore many of the Judeans, who had come to Miriam and had seen what Yeshua had done, put their trust in Him. ⁴⁶But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Yeshua had done.

⁴⁷So the ruling kohanim and Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin. "What are we doing?" they asked. "This Man is performing many signs! ⁴⁸If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our holy place and our nation."

⁴⁹But one of them, Caiaphas, who was kohen gadol that year, said to them, "You know nothing! ⁵⁰You don't take into account that it is better for you that one man die for the people rather than for the whole nation to be destroyed."

⁵¹Now he did not say this by himself; but as the kohen gadol that year, he prophesied that Yeshua would die for the nation. ^a ⁵²And not for the nation only, but also so that He might gather together into one the scattered children of God. ^b

⁵³So from that day on, they plotted to kill

^a 11:51. cf. Is. 53:8.

Him. ⁵⁴Therefore Yeshua no longer walked openly among the Judeans, but went from there to the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with His disciples.

⁵⁵Now the Jewish Passover was near; and many people went up out of the regions to Jerusalem before Passover, to purify themselves. ⁵⁶So they were searching for Yeshua, saying to one another as they stood in the Temple, “What do you think? Won’t He come to the feast at all?” ⁵⁷Now the ruling kohanim and Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it so that they might arrest Him.

Miriam Anoints the Messiah

¹Six days before Passover, Yeshua came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Yeshua had raised from the dead. ²So they prepared a dinner there for Yeshua. Martha was serving, and Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him. ³Then Miriam took a pound^c of very expensive oil of pure nard and anointed Yeshua’s feet, and she wiped His feet dry with her hair. Now the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

⁴But Judah from Kriot, one of His disciples, the one who was about to betray Him, said, ⁵“Why wasn’t this oil sold for three hundred denari^d and the money given to the poor?” ⁶Now he said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief. Since he had the moneybox, he used to steal from what was put in it.

⁷Therefore Yeshua said, “Leave her alone! She set it aside for the day of My burial. ⁸You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have Me.”

⁹Now a large crowd of Judeans knew He was there and came, not only for Yeshua but also to see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. ¹⁰So the ruling kohanim made plans to kill Lazarus also, ¹¹because on account of him many of the Jewish people were going and putting their trust in Yeshua.

Israel’s King Has Come

¹²The next day, the huge crowd that had come up for the feast heard that Yeshua was coming to Jerusalem. ¹³So they took palm branches and went out to meet Him, shouting,

“Hoshia-na!

Baruch ha-ba b’shem ADONAI!

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!^e
The King of Israel!”

¹⁴Finding a young donkey, Yeshua sat on it, as it is written,

¹⁵“Fear not,

Daughter of Zion!

Look! Your King is coming, sitting on a donkey’s colt.”^f

¹⁶His disciples did not understand these things at first. But when Yeshua was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that the crowd had done these things for Him.

¹⁷So the crowd, which had been with Yeshua when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, kept on telling everyone about it. ¹⁸It was also for this reason that the crowd came out to meet Him, because they heard that He had performed this sign. ¹⁹So the Pharisees said to each other, “You see that you can’t do anything. Look, the whole world has taken off after Him!”

Fallen Seed Produces a Harvest

²⁰Now there were some Greeks among those who were going up to worship at the feast. ²¹These came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in the Galilee. “Sir,” they said, “we want to see Yeshua.”²² Philip comes and tells Andrew; Andrew and Philip come and tell Yeshua.

²³Yeshua answers them, saying, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified! ²⁴Amen, amen I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the earth and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it produces much fruit. ²⁵He who loves his life will lose it, and the one who hates his life in this world will keep it forever. ²⁶If any man serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, there also will My servant be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

²⁷“Now My soul is troubled. And what shall I say? ‘Father, save Me from this hour?’ But it was for this reason I came to this hour. ²⁸Father, glorify Your name!”

Then a voice came out of heaven, “I have glorified it, and again I will glorify it!”

²⁹Therefore the crowd that was standing there and heard it was saying that it had thundered. Others were saying, “An angel has spoken to Him.”

³⁰Yeshua responded, “This voice hasn’t come for My sake, but for yours. ³¹Now is the judgment of this world! Now the prince of this world will be driven out! ³²And as I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to Myself.” ³³He said this to show the kind of death He was about to die.

³⁴The crowd answered Him, “We’ve heard from Scripture^a that the Messiah remains forever. How can You say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?”

Choose Either the Light or the Darkness

³⁵Therefore Yeshua said to them, “The light is with you for a little longer. Walk while you have the light, so that the darkness will not overtake you. The one who walks in darkness doesn’t know where he is going. ³⁶While you have the light, believe in the light so that you may become sons of light.” Yeshua spoke these things, then left and hid Himself from them.

^a 12:34. Lit. Law, here applied to the Torah, Prophets, and Writings; cf. Isa. 9:6(7); Dan. 7:14.

³⁷But even though He had performed so many signs before them, they weren’t trusting in Him. ³⁸This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet, who said, “ADONAI, who has believed our report?

To whom has the arm of ADONAI been revealed?”^b

³⁹For this reason they could not believe, for Isaiah also said,

⁴⁰“He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, so they might not see with their eyes nor understand with their hearts and turn back,
and I would heal them.”^c

⁴¹Isaiah said these things because he saw His glory and spoke of Him.

⁴²Nevertheless many, even among the leaders, put their trust in Him. But because of the Pharisees, they were not confessing Yeshua,^d so they would not be thrown out of the synagogue;^e ⁴³for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

⁴⁴Yeshua cried out, “Whoever puts trust in Me believes not in Me but in the One who sent Me! ⁴⁵And whoever beholds Me beholds the One who sent Me. ⁴⁶As light I have come into the world, so that everyone who trusts in Me should not remain in darkness.

⁴⁷“If anyone hears My words but doesn’t keep them, I do not judge him; for I came to save the world, not to judge the world. ⁴⁸The one who rejects Me and doesn’t receive My words has a judge; the word I spoke will judge him on the last day. ⁴⁹For I did not speak on My own, but the Father Himself who sent Me has commanded Me what to say and speak. ⁵⁰And I know that His commandment is life everlasting. Therefore what I say, I say just as the Father has told Me.”

Modeling Servanthood

¹Now it was just before the feast of Passover. Yeshua knew that His hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them until the end.^f ²While the seder meal was happening, the devil had already put in the heart of Judah from Kriot that he should hand over Yeshua. ³*Yeshua* knew that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was returning to God. ⁴So He gets up from the meal and lays aside His outer garment; and taking a towel, He wrapped it around His waist. ⁵Then He pours water into a basin. He began to wash the disciples' feet, drying them with the towel wrapped around Him.

⁶Then He comes to Simon Peter, who says to Him, "Master, are You going to wash my feet?"

⁷*Yeshua* responded, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand after these things."

⁸Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!"

Yeshua answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with Me."

⁹Simon Peter said to Him, "Master, then not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!"

¹⁰*Yeshua* said to him, "He who has bathed has no need to wash, except the feet; he is completely clean. And you all are clean, though not every one." ¹¹He knew who was betraying Him; for this reason, He said, "Not all of you are clean."

¹²So after He had washed their feet and put His robe back on and reclined again, He said to them, "Do you understand what I have done for you? ¹³You call Me 'Teacher' and 'Master'—and rightly you say, for I am. ¹⁴So if I, your Master and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash each other's feet. ¹⁵I have given you an example—you should do for each other what I have done for you.

¹⁶"Amen, amen I tell you, a servant isn't greater than his master, and the one who is sent isn't greater than the one who sent him.

¹⁷If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them!"

Yeshua Reveals His Betrayer

¹⁸"I am not speaking to all of you—I know whom I have chosen. But so the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats My bread has lifted up his heel against Me.'^g ¹⁹From now on I am telling you, before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe that I am. ²⁰Amen, amen I tell you, he who receives the one I send, receives Me; and he who receives Me, receives the One who sent Me."

²¹After He said these things, Yeshua was agitated in spirit and testified, "Amen, amen I tell you, one of you will betray Me!"

²²The disciples began looking at each other, perplexed—who was He talking about? ²³One of His disciples, whom Yeshua loved, was reclining at His side. ²⁴Simon Peter nods to him and says, "Ask Him—who is He talking about?"

²⁵Then he who leaned on Yeshua's chest says to Him, "Master, who is it?"

²⁶*Yeshua* answers, "It's the one I will give this bit of matzah to, after I dip it." After dipping the matzah,^h He takes it and gives it to Judah from Kriot, the son of Simon. ²⁷And with that bit, satan entered into him. Then Yeshua tells him, "What you're about to do, do quickly!"

²⁸But no one reclining at the table knew why Yeshua said this to him. ²⁹Since Judah had the moneybox, some thought Yeshua was telling him, "Buy what we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰So after Judah received the bit of matzah, he left immediately. Now it was night.

Leaving a Legacy of Love

³¹Then when Judah had gone out, Yeshua said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and ^g 13:18. cf. Ps. 41:10(g).

God is glorified in Him!³²If God is glorified in Him,^a God will glorify Him in Himself, and will glorify Him at once.³³Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will search for Me; and just as I told the Judean leaders, so I say to you now, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'

³⁴"I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, so also you must love one another.³⁵By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

³⁶"Master, where are You going?" Simon Peter said to Him.

Yeshua answered, "Where I am going, you cannot follow Me now; but you will follow Me later."

³⁷Peter said to Him, "Master, why can't I follow You now? I'll lay down my life for You!"

³⁸Yeshua answers, "Will you lay down your life for Me? Amen, amen I tell you, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times!"

The Way to the Father's House

¹"Do not let your heart be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in Me.²In My Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?³If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you to Myself, so that where I am you may also be.⁴And you know the way to where I am going."^b

⁵Thomas said to Him, "Master, we don't know where You are going. How can we know the way?"

⁶Yeshua said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life! No one comes to the Father except through Me.⁷If you have come to know Me, you will know My Father also. From now on, you do know Him and have seen Him."

⁸Philip said to Him, "Master, show us the Father, and it is enough for us."

⁹Yeshua said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time, and you haven't come to know Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father?'¹⁰Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words I say to you, I do not speak on My own; but the Father dwelling in Me does His works.¹¹Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me—or at least believe because of the works themselves.

¹²"Amen, amen I tell you, he who puts his trust in Me, the works that I do he will do; and greater than these he will do, because I am going to the Father.¹³And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.¹⁴If you ask Me^c anything in My name, I will do it."

The Believer's Helper

¹⁵"If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.¹⁶I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper^d so He may be with you forever—¹⁷the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not behold Him or know Him. You know Him, because He abides with you and will be in you.¹⁸I will not abandon you as orphans;^e I will come to you.¹⁹In a little while, the world will no longer behold Me, but you will behold Me. Because I live, you also will live!

²⁰"In that day, you will know that I am in My Father, you are in Me, and I am in you.²¹He who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me. He who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal Myself to him."

²²Judah (not the one from Kriot) said to Him, "Master, what has happened, that You are about to reveal Yourself to us and not the world?"

²³Yeshua answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our dwelling with him. ²⁴He who does not love Me does not keep My words. And the word you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me. ²⁵These things I have spoken to you while dwelling with you. ²⁶But the Helper, the Ruach ha-Kodesh whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you everything and remind you of everything that I said to you.

²⁷"Shalom I leave you, My shalom I give to you; but not as the world gives! Do not let your heart be troubled or afraid. ²⁸You've heard Me say, 'I am going away and I am coming back to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. ²⁹I have told you now before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe!

³⁰"I will not talk with you much longer, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has nothing on Me. ³¹But in order that the world may know that I love the Father, I do exactly as the Father commanded Me.

"Get up, let's go from here!"

Abiding in the Vine

¹"I am the true vine, and My Father is the gardener. ²Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit, He trims so that it may bear more fruit. ³You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. ⁴Abide in Me, and I will abide in you. The branch cannot itself produce fruit, unless it abides on the vine. Likewise, you cannot produce fruit unless you abide in Me.

⁵"I am the vine; you are the branches. The one who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for apart from Me, you can do nothing. ⁶If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away like a branch and is dried up. Such branches are picked up and thrown into the fire and burned.

⁷"If you abide in Me and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it shall be done for you. ⁸In this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be My disciples."

⁹"Just as the Father has loved Me, I also have loved you. Abide in My love! ¹⁰If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love. ¹¹These things I have spoken to you so that My joy may be in you, and your joy may be full.

¹²"This is My commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you. ¹³No one has greater love than this: that he lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴You are My friends if you do what I command you.

¹⁵"I am no longer calling you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing. Now I have called you friends, because everything I have heard from My Father I have made known to you.

¹⁶"You did not choose Me, but I chose you. I selected you so that you would go and produce fruit, and your fruit would remain. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in My name.

¹⁷"These things I command you, so that you may love one another."

The World Hates God's Own

¹⁸"If the world hates you, know that it has hated Me before you. ¹⁹If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own. But you are not of the world, since I have chosen you out of the world; therefore the world hates you.

²⁰"Remember the word I spoke to you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.' ²¹If they persecuted Me, they will persecute you also. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

²²"But all these things they will do to you for the sake of My name, because they do not know the One who sent Me. ²³If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin.

⁸ 15:20. Jn. 13:16.

²³“He who hates Me also hates My Father. ²⁴If I had not done works among them that no one else did, they would have no sin. But now they have seen and have hated both Me and My Father. ²⁵So is fulfilled the word written in their Scripture,^a “They hated Me for no reason.”^b

²⁶“When the Helper comes—whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father—He will testify about Me. ²⁷And you also testify, because you have been with Me from the beginning.”

¹“I have spoken these things to you so that you may be kept from stumbling. ²They will throw you out of the synagogues. Yes, an hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God. ³They will do these things because they have never known the Father or Me. ⁴But I have spoken these things to you so that when their hour comes, you may remember that I told you of them. I did not tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you.”

The Ruach Reveals Truth

⁵“But now I am going to the One who sent Me, and not one of you is asking Me, ‘Where are you going?’ ⁶Because I have spoken these things to you, grief has filled your heart. ⁷But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away! For if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you.

⁸“When He comes, He will convict the world about sin, righteousness, and judgment: ⁹concerning sin, because they do not believe in Me; ¹⁰concerning righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will no longer see Me; ¹¹and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

¹²“I still have much more to tell you, but you cannot handle it just now. ¹³But when the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on His own; but whatever He hears, He will tell you. And He will declare to you the things that are to come. ¹⁴He will glorify Me, because He will take from what is Mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵Everything that the Father has is Mine. For this reason I said the Ruach will take from what is Mine and declare it to you.”

Death and Resurrection Foretold

¹⁶“A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again in a little while, you will see Me.”

¹⁷Then some of His disciples said to one another, “What does He mean by telling us, ‘A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again in a little while, you will see Me’? And, ‘Because I am going to the Father?’”

¹⁸They kept on saying, “What’s this He’s saying, ‘A little while’? We don’t know what He’s talking about!”

¹⁹*Yeshua* knew that they wanted to question Him, so He said to them, “Are you asking each other about this, that I said, ‘A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again in a little while, you will see Me’? ²⁰Amen, amen I tell you, you will weep and mourn, but the world will celebrate. You will be filled with sorrow, but your sorrow will turn to joy!

²¹“When a woman is in labor, she has pain because her hour has come. ^c But when she gives birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, because of the joy that a human being has been born into the world. ²²So also you have sorrow now; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you!

²³“In that day, you will ask Me nothing. Amen, amen I tell you, whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you. ²⁴Up to now, you have not asked for anything in My name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be full.

²⁵“These things I have spoken to you in metaphors. An hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in metaphors, but will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶In that day, you will ask in My name—and I'm not telling you that I will ask the Father on your behalf. ²⁷For the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came forth from God. ²⁸I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again I am leaving the world and going to the Father."

²⁹His disciples say, "See, now You're speaking plainly and not in metaphors. ³⁰Now we know that You know everything and have no need to be asked anything. By this we believe that You came forth from God."

³¹Yeshua answered them, "Do you now believe? ³²Look, the hour is coming—indeed has come—when you will be scattered, each to his own, and you will abandon Me. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. ³³These things I have spoken to you, so that in Me you may have shalom. In the world you will have trouble, but take heart! I have overcome the world!"

17

The Son Glorifies the Father

¹Yeshua spoke these things; then, lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, "Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, so the Son may glorify You. ²Even as You gave Him authority over all flesh, so may He give eternal life to all those You have given Him. ³And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Yeshua the Messiah, the One You sent. ⁴I glorified You on earth by finishing the work that You have given Me to do. ⁵Now, Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory which I had with You before the world came to be."

Yeshua Prays for His Disciples

⁶"I have made Your name known to the men of this world that You gave Me. They were Yours; You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. ⁷Now they have come to know that everything You have given Me is from You. ⁸The words, which You gave Me, I have given to them. They received them and truly understood that I came from You, and they believed that You sent Me. ⁹I ask on their behalf. Not on behalf of the world do I ask, but on behalf of those You have given Me, for they are Yours. ¹⁰All Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I have been glorified in them. ¹¹I am no longer in the world; but they are in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name that You have given Me, so that they may be one just as We are. ¹²While I was with them, I was keeping them in Your name that You have given Me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the son of destruction,^d so that the Scripture would be fulfilled.

¹³"But now I am coming to You. I say these words while I am still in the world, so that they may have My joy made full in themselves. ¹⁴I have given them Your word; and the world hated them, because they are not of the world just as I am not of the world. ¹⁵I am not asking that You take them out of the world, but that You keep them from the evil one. ¹⁶They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

¹⁷"Make them holy in the truth. Your word is truth. ¹⁸Just as You sent Me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. ¹⁹And for their sakes I make Myself holy, so that they also may be made holy in truth."

Interceding for All Believers

²⁰"I pray not on behalf of these only, but also for those who believe in Me through their message, ²¹that they all may be one. Just as You, Father, are in Me and I am in You, so also may they be one in Us, so the world may believe that You sent Me. ²²The glory that You have given to Me I have given to them, that they may be one just as We are one—²³I in them and You in Me—that they may be perfected in unity, so that the world may know that You sent Me and loved them as You loved Me.

²⁴"Father, I also want those You have given Me to be with Me where I am, so that they may see My glory—the glory You gave Me, for You loved Me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵Righteous Father, the world did not know You, but I knew You; and these knew that You sent Me. ²⁶I made your Name known to them, and will continue to make it known, so that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them.”

Betrayed and Arrested

¹When Yeshua had said these things, He went out with His disciples across the Kidron Valley,^a where there was a garden, which He and His disciples entered. ²Now Judah, who was betraying Him, also knew the place, because Yeshua had often met there with His disciples. ³So Judah, having taken a band of soldiers and some officers from the ruling kohanim and Pharisees, comes there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. ⁴Then Yeshua, knowing all the things coming upon Him, went forward. He said to them, “Who are you looking for?”

⁵“Yeshua ha-Natzrati,” they answered Him.

Yeshua tells them, “I am.” Now Judah, the one betraying Him, was also standing with them. ⁶So when Yeshua said to them, “I am,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

⁷So again He asked them, “Who are you looking for?”

And they said, “Yeshua ha-Natzrati.”

⁸Yeshua answered, “I told you, I am! If you’re looking for Me, let these men go their way.” ⁹This was so the word would be fulfilled that He spoke: “I did not lose one of those You have given Me.”^b

¹⁰Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the servant of the kohen gadol, and cut off his right ear. Now the servant’s name was Malchus. ¹¹So Yeshua said to Peter, “Put the sword into the sheath! The cup the Father has given Me—shall I never drink it?”

Interrogated and Tried

¹²Then the band of soldiers, with the captain and the officers of the Judeans, seized Yeshua and tied Him up. ¹³They led Him first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the kohen gadol that year. ¹⁴Now Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Judean leaders that it was better for one man to die on behalf of the people.

¹⁵Simon Peter was following Yeshua with another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the kohen gadol, so he went with Yeshua into the court of the kohen gadol. ¹⁶But Peter was left standing outside by the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the kohen gadol, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper and brought Peter in.

¹⁷The maidservant at the door says to Peter, “Aren’t you one of this Man’s disciples too?”

He says, “No, I’m not.” ¹⁸The servants and officers were standing around a fire they had made, because it was cold and they were warming themselves. And Peter was also with them, standing and warming himself.

¹⁹The kohen gadol then questioned Yeshua about His disciples and His teaching. ²⁰“I have spoken openly to the world,” Yeshua answered him. “I always taught in the synagogues and the Temple, where all the Jewish people come together. I spoke nothing in secret. ²¹Why question Me? Ask those who have heard what I spoke to them. Look, they know what I said.”

²²When He had said this, one of the officers standing nearby gave Yeshua a slap, saying, “Is that the way you answer the kohen gadol?”

²³Yeshua answered him, “If I have spoken wrongly, give evidence of the wrong; but if rightly, why hit Me?” ²⁴Then Annas sent Him, still tied up, to Caiaphas, the kohen gadol.

²⁵Now Simon Peter was standing outside and warming himself. So they said to him, “Aren’t you one of His disciples too?”

He denied it and said, “No, I’m not!”

²⁶One of the servants of the kohen gadol, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said, “Didn’t I see you in the garden with Him?”

^a 18:1. cf. 2 Sam. 15:23.

^b 18:9. Similar to Jn. 6:39, 17:12.

²⁷Again Peter denied it, and immediately a rooster crowed.

²⁸Then they led Yeshua from Caiaphas to the Praetorium.^c It was early. They themselves did not enter the Praetorium, so they would not become unclean but might eat the Passover.

²⁹Therefore Pilate came out to them and said, "What charge do you bring against this man?"

³⁰They answered, "If He weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have handed Him over to you."

³¹Then Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and judge Him by your Torah!"

The Judean leaders responded, "We are not authorized to put anyone to death."³²This happened so that the word Yeshua spoke would be fulfilled, signifying what kind of death He was about to die.

³³So Pilate went back into the Praetorium, called for Yeshua, and asked Him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

³⁴"Are you saying this on your own," Yeshua answered, "or did others tell you about Me?"

³⁵Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and ruling kohanim handed You over to me! What have You done?"

³⁶Yeshua answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would be fighting so that I wouldn't be handed over to the Judean leaders. But as it is, My kingdom is not from here."

³⁷So Pilate said to Him, "Are you a king, then?"

Yeshua answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I was born, and for this reason I came into the world, so that I might testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice."

³⁸Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?" After he said this, he went out again to the Judean leaders. He said to them, "I find no case against Him. ³⁹But it's your custom that I release someone for you at Passover. So do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

⁴⁰They shouted back, "Not this One, but Bar-Abba!" Now Bar-Abba^d was a revolutionary.

Bound and Sentenced

¹Then Pilate took Yeshua and had Him scourged. ²The soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and dressed Him in a purple robe. ³They kept coming up to Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and slapping Him over and over.

⁴Pilate came out again. He said to them, "Look, I'm bringing Him out to you, to let you know that I find no case against Him." ⁵So Yeshua came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. "Behold, the Man!" Pilate said to them.

⁶When the ruling kohanim and officers saw Him, they yelled out, "Execute Him! Execute Him!"^e

Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves and execute Him! For I don't find a case against Him."

⁷The Judean leaders answered him, "We have a law,^f and according to the Torah He must die, because He claimed to be Ben-Elohim!"

⁸When Pilate heard this word, he became even more fearful. ⁹He went into the Praetorium again and said to Yeshua, "Where are You from?" But Yeshua gave him no answer. ¹⁰So Pilate said to Him, "You aren't speaking to me? Don't You know that I have the authority to release You, and I have the authority to crucify You?"

¹¹Yeshua answered, "You would have no authority over Me if it hadn't been given to you from above. For this reason, the one who handed Me over to you has the greater sin."

¹²Pilate tried to let Him go after this; but the Judean leaders cried out, saying, "If you release this Man, you are no friend of Caesar. Everyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar!"

¹³So when Pilate heard these words, he brought Yeshua out and sat down on the judge's seat at a place called the Stone Pavement (but in Aramaic,^a Gabbatha).¹⁴ It was the Day of Preparation for Passover, about the sixth hour.^b And Pilate said to the Judean leaders, "Behold, your king!"

¹⁵They shouted back, "Take Him away! Take Him away! Execute Him!"

Pilate said to them, "Should I execute your king?"

The ruling kohanim answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

¹⁶Finally, Pilate handed Yeshua over to be crucified.

A Sacrificial Death

¹⁷Then they took Yeshua. He went out, carrying His own crossbar, to the Place of a Skull, which in Aramaic^c is called Golgotha. ¹⁸There they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on each side and Yeshua in between.

¹⁹Pilate also wrote a sign and put it on the execution stake. It was written, "YESHUA HA-NATZRATI, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

²⁰Many Judeans read this sign, because the place where Yeshua was executed was near the city; it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek.

²¹The ruling kohanim of the Judeans were saying to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but that He said, 'I am King of the Jews.'" ²²"What I have written, I have written," Pilate answered.

²³So the soldiers, when they executed Yeshua, took His outer garments and made four parts, a part for each soldier. They took His tunic also, but it was seamless, woven top to bottom in one piece. ²⁴So they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it will be." This was so the Scripture would be fulfilled,

"They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots."^d

^b 19:14. i.e. noon.

^c 19:17. Lit. in Hebrew.

So the soldiers did these things.

²⁵Standing near the execution stake of Yeshua were His mother, His mother's sister, Miriam the wife of Clopas, and Miriam from Magdala. ²⁶Yeshua saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby. He tells His mother, "Woman, behold, your son!"

²⁷Then He tells the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" From that very hour, the disciple took her into his own home.

²⁸After this, when Yeshua knew that all things were now completed, to fulfill the Scripture He said, "I am thirsty."^e ²⁹A jar full of sour wine was sitting there, so they put a sponge soaked with the sour wine on a hyssop branch and brought it to His mouth. ³⁰When Yeshua tasted the sour wine, He said, "It is finished!" And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

³¹It was the Day of Preparation, and the next day was a festival Shabbat. So that the bodies should not remain on the execution stake during Shabbat, the Judean leaders asked Pilate to have the legs broken and to have the bodies taken away.

³²So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and then the other who had been executed with Yeshua. ³³Now when they came to Yeshua and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. ³⁴But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. ³⁵He who has seen it has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe. ³⁶These things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled, "Not a bone of His shall be broken."^f ³⁷And again another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him whom they have pierced."^g

³⁸After these things, Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate if he could take Yeshua's body away. Joseph was a disciple of Yeshua, but secretly for fear of the Judean leaders. Pilate gave permission, so Joseph came and took the body away. ³⁹Nicodemus, who had first visited Yeshua at night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. ⁴⁰Then they took the body of Yeshua and wrapped it in linen with the spices, as is the Jewish burial custom.

⁴¹Now in the place where He was executed, there was a garden. In the garden was a new tombⁱ where no one had yet been buried. ⁴²Because it was the Jewish Day of Preparation and the tomb was nearby, they laid Yeshua there.

The Lamb of God is Resurrected

¹Early in the morning on the first day of the week, while it is still dark, Miriam from Magdala comes to the tomb. She sees that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb. ²So she comes running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Yeshua loved. She tells them, "They've taken the Master out of the tomb, and we don't know where they've put Him!"

³Then Peter and the other disciple set out, going to the tomb. ⁴The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and arrived at the tomb first. ⁵Leaning in, he sees the linen strips lying there. But he didn't go in.

⁶Then Simon Peter comes following him, and he entered the tomb. He looks upon the linen strips lying there, ⁷and the face cloth that had been on His head. It was not lying with the linen strips, but was rolled up in a place by itself. ⁸So then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also entered. He saw and believed. ⁹For they did not yet understand from Scripture that Yeshua must rise from the dead. ¹⁰So the disciples went back to their own homes.

Yeshua Appears to Miriam

¹¹But Miriam stood outside the tomb weeping: As she was weeping, she bent down to look into the tomb. ¹²She sees two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where Yeshua's body had been lying.

¹³"Woman, why are you crying?" they say to her.

She says to them, "Because they took away my Master, and I don't know where they've put Him." ¹⁴After she said these things, she turned around. And she sees Yeshua standing there. Yet she didn't know that it was Yeshua.

¹⁵*Yeshua* says to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?"

Thinking He's the gardener, she says to Him, "Sir, if You've carried Him away, tell me where You've put Him, and I will take Him away."

¹⁶*Yeshua* says to her, "Miriam!"

Turning around, she says to Him in Aramaic, ^k"Rabboni!" (which means Teacher).

¹⁷*Yeshua* says to her, "Stop clinging to Me, for I have not yet gone up to the Father. Go to My brothers and tell them, 'I am going up to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.'"

¹⁸Miriam from Magdala comes, announcing to the disciples, "I've seen the Lord," and what He had said to her.

Yeshua Appears to the Disciples

¹⁹It was evening on that day, the first of the week. When the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Judean leaders, Yeshua came and stood in their midst! And He said to them, "Shalom aleichem!" ²⁰After He said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ²¹*Yeshua* said to them again, "Shalom aleichem! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you."

²²And after He said this, He breathed on them. And He said to them, "Receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh! ²³If you forgive anyone's sins, they are forgiven; but if you hold back, they are held back.”

²⁴One of the Twelve, Thomas called the Twin, was not with them when Yeshua came. ²⁵The other disciples were saying to him, “We’ve seen the Lord!”

But he replied to them, “Unless I see the nail prints in His hands, and put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand in His side, I will never believe!”

²⁶Eight days later the disciples were again inside, and Thomas was with them. Yeshua comes, despite the locked doors. He stood in their midst and said, “Shalom aleichem!”

²⁷Then He said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and look at My hands. Reach out your hand and put it into My side. Stop doubting and believe!”

²⁸Thomas answered and said to Him, “My Lord and my God!”

²⁹Yeshua said to Him, “Because you have seen Me, you have believed? Blessed are the ones who have not seen and yet have believed!”

The Reason for Signs and Wonders

³⁰Yeshua performed many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book. ³¹But these things have been written so that you may believe that Yeshua is Mashiach Ben-Elohim, and that by believing you may have life in His name.

Fish for Breakfast with the Risen One

¹After these things, Yeshua revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. Now here is how He appeared. ²Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in the Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two of the other disciples were together.

³Simon Peter said to them, “I’m going fishing.”

“We’re coming with you too,” they said.

They went out and got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing.

⁴At dawn, Yeshua stood on the beach; but the disciples didn’t know that it was Yeshua. ⁵So Yeshua said to them, “Boys, you don’t happen to have any fish, do you?”

“No,” they answered Him.

⁶He said to them, “Throw the net off the right side of the boat, and you’ll find some.” So they threw the net, and they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish.

⁷Therefore the disciple whom Yeshua loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tied his outer garment around himself—for he was stripped down for work—and threw himself into the sea. ⁸But the other disciples came in the boat from about two hundred cubits^a offshore, dragging the net full of fish.

⁹So when they got out onto the land, they saw a charcoal fire with fish placed on it, and bread. ¹⁰Yeshua said to them, “Bring some of the fish you’ve just caught.” ¹¹Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net to shore. There were 153 fish, many of them big; but the net was not broken. ¹²Yeshua said to them, “Come, have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared ask Him, “Who are You?”—knowing it was the Lord. ¹³Yeshua comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, and likewise the fish. ¹⁴This was now the third time that Yeshua was revealed to the disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Love Restores Peter

¹⁵When they had finished breakfast, Yeshua said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?”

“Yes, Lord,” he said to Him, “You know that I love you.”

He said to him, “Feed My lambs!”

¹⁶He said to him again a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me?”

“Yes, Lord,” he said, “You know that I love You.”

He said to him, “Take care of My sheep!”

^a 21:8. One cubit is about eighteen inches.

¹⁷He said to him a third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?"

Peter was grieved because He said to him for a third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know everything! You know that I love You!"

Yeshua said to him, "Feed My sheep!"^b

¹⁸"Amen, amen I tell you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go." ¹⁹Now this He said to indicate by what kind of death Peter was going to glorify God. And after this, Yeshua said to him, "Follow Me!"

²⁰Peter, turning around, sees the disciple following. This was the one whom Yeshua loved, who also had reclined against Yeshua's chest at the seder meal and said, "Master, who is the one who is betraying You?" ²¹Seeing him, Peter said to Yeshua, "Lord, what about him?"

²²Yeshua said to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me!" ²³Therefore this saying went out among the brothers and sisters, that this disciple would not die. Yet Yeshua did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?"

John's Witness

²⁴This is the disciple who is an eyewitness of these things and wrote these things. We know that his testimony is true. ²⁵There are also many other things that Yeshua did. If all of them were to be written one by one, I suppose that not even the world itself will have room for the books being written!

Acts

1

When Will Yeshua Restore the Kingdom?

¹I wrote the first volume, Theophilus, about all that Yeshua began to do and teach—²up to the day He was taken up, after He had given orders by the Ruach ha-Kodesh to the emissaries He had chosen. ³To them He showed Himself to be alive after His suffering through many convincing proofs, appearing to them for forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

⁴Now while staying with them, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for what the Father promised—which, He said, “you heard from Me. ⁵For John immersed with water, but you will be immersed in the Ruach ha-Kodesh not many days from now.”

⁶So when they gathered together, they asked Him, “Lord, are You restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time?”

⁷He said to them, “It is not your place to know the times or seasons which the Father has placed under His own control. ⁸But you will receive power when the Ruach ha-Kodesh has come upon you; and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and through all Judah, and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

⁹After saying all this—while they were watching—He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. ¹⁰While they were staring into heaven as He went up, suddenly two men stood with them in white clothing. ¹¹They said, “Men of Galilee, why do you keep standing here staring into heaven? This Yeshua, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw Him go into heaven.”

Appointing a New Emissary

¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives^a (which is near Jerusalem, a Shabbat day’s journey^b). ¹³When they had entered, they went up to the upper room where they were staying—Peter and John and Jacob and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; Jacob son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judah son of Jacob. ¹⁴All these with one mind were continuing together in prayer—along with the women and Miriam, Yeshua’s mother, and His brothers.

^a 1:12. Lit. the hill called Olivet, meaning olive grove.

¹⁵In those days, Peter stood up among the brothers and sisters (the number of names all together was about a hundred and twenty) and said, ¹⁶“Brothers,^c the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Ruach ha-Kodesh foretold by the mouth of David, concerning Judah—who became a guide to those who seized Yeshua. ¹⁷For he was counted among us and received his share of this office.” ¹⁸(Now this man Judah bought a field with the reward of his wickedness. Falling headfirst, he burst open in the middle and his intestines splattered out. ¹⁹And it became known to all those living in Jerusalem, so in their own language that field was called Akeldama^d—that is, ‘Field of Blood.’) ²⁰For it is written in the Book of Psalms,

‘Let his dwelling place become desolate, and let there be no one living in it’^e and ‘Let another take his position.’^f

²¹“Therefore one of the men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Yeshua went in and out among us—²²beginning with His immersion by John until the day He was taken up from us—must become a witness with us of His resurrection.”

²³So they nominated two—Joseph, called Barsabbas (also called Justus), and Matthias. ²⁴And they prayed and said, “You, O Lord, who knows the hearts of all men, show us which of these two You have chosen ²⁵to take the position in this office as emissary, from which Judah turned aside to go to his own place.” ²⁶Then they cast lots for them, and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was added to the eleven emissaries.

The Ruach Fills the Disciples

¹When the day of Shavuot^g had come, they were all together in one place. ²Suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³And tongues like fire spreading out appeared to them and settled on each one of them. ⁴They were all filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and began to speak in other tongues as the Ruach enabled them to speak out.

⁵Now Jewish people were staying in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation under heaven. ⁶And when this sound came, the crowd gathered. They were bewildered, because each was hearing them speaking in his own language. ⁷And they were amazed and astonished, saying, “All these who are speaking—aren’t they Galileans? ⁸How is it that we each hear our own birth language? ⁹Parthians and Medes and Elamites and those living in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,^h ¹⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and parts of Libya toward Cyrene, and visitors from Rome ¹¹(both Jewish people and proselytes), Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring in our own tongues the mighty deeds of God!” ¹²And they were all amazed and perplexed, saying to each other, “What does this mean?” ¹³Others, poking fun, were saying, “They are full of sweet new wine!”

Peter Speaks to the Shavuot Crowd

¹⁴But Peter, standing with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: “Fellow Judeans and all who are staying in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and pay attention to my words. ¹⁵These men are not drunk, as you suppose—for it’s only the third hour of the day!ⁱ ¹⁶But this is what was spoken about through the prophet Joel:

¹⁷‘And it shall be in the last days,’ says God,
‘that I will pour out My Ruach on all flesh.

Your sons and your daughters
shall prophesy,
your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

¹⁸Even on My slaves, male and female,
I will pour out My Ruach in those days,
and they shall prophesy.

¹⁹And I will give wonders in the sky above and signs on the earth beneath—blood, and fire, and smoky vapor.

²⁰The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the great and glorious
Day of ADONAI comes.

²¹And it shall be that everyone who calls on the name of ADONAI shall be saved.^j

²²“Men of Israel, hear these words! Yeshua ha-Natzrati—a Man authenticated to you by God with mighty deeds and wonders and signs God performed through Him in your midst, as you yourselves know—²³this Yeshua, given over by God’s predetermined plan and foreknowledge, nailed to the cross by the hand of lawless men, you killed. ²⁴But God raised Him up, releasing Him from the pains of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held by it. ²⁵For David says about Him,

‘I saw ADONAI always before me, for He is at my right hand
so that I might not be shaken.

²⁸You have made known to me the paths of life; You will fill me with joy in Your presence.^a

²⁹“Brothers, I can confidently tell you that the patriarch David died and was buried—his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰So because he was a prophet and knew God had sworn with an oath to him to seat one of his descendants on his throne,^b ³¹David saw beforehand and spoke of Messiah’s resurrection—that He was not abandoned to Sheol, and His body did not see decay.^c

³²“This Yeshua God raised up—we all are witnesses! ³³Therefore, being exalted to the right hand of God and receiving from the Father the promise of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, He poured out this—what you now see and hear. ³⁴For David did not ascend into the heavens; yet he himself says,

‘ADONAI said to my Lord,
“Sit at my right hand,
³⁵until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.’”^d

³⁶“Therefore let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made Him—this Yeshua whom you had crucified—both Lord and Messiah!”

Teshuvah—Thousands Immersed

³⁸Peter said to them, “Repent, and let each of you be immersed in the name of Messiah Yeshua for the removal of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ³⁹For the promise is for you and your children, and for all who are far away—as many as ADONAI our God calls to Himself.”

⁴⁰With many other words he warned them and kept urging them, saying, “Save yourselves from this twisted generation!”^e

⁴¹So those who received his message were immersed, and that day about three thousand souls were added.

New Covenant Community Begins

⁴²They were devoting themselves to the teaching of the emissaries and to fellowship, to breaking bread and to prayers. ⁴³Fear lay upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were happening through the emissaries. ⁴⁴And all who believed were together, having everything in common. ⁴⁵They began selling their property and possessions and sharing them with all, as any had need. ⁴⁶Day by day they continued with one mind, spending time at the Temple and breaking bread from house to house. They were sharing meals with gladness and sincerity of heart, ⁴⁷praising God and having favor with all the people. And every day the Lord was adding to their number^f those being saved.

A Lamé Beggar Walks

¹Now Peter and John were going up to the Temple at the ninth hour,^g the time of prayer. ²A man lame from birth was being carried—every day they used to put him at the Temple gate called Beautiful, so he could beg for tzedakah from those entering the Temple. ³When he saw Peter and John about to go into the Temple, he began asking to receive tzedakah.

⁴But Peter, along with John, looked straight at him and said, “Look at us!” ⁵So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. ⁶But Peter said, “Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give to you—in the name of Yeshua ha-Mashiach ha-Natzrati, get up and walk!” ⁷Then grabbing him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately the man’s feet and ankles were made strong.

⁸Jumping up, he stood and began walking; and he went with them into the Temple, walking and leaping and praising God!

⁹Now all the people saw him walking and praising God. ¹⁰They began to realize he was the one who used to sit begging for tzedakah at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple, and they were filled with wonder and astonishment over what had happened to him.

Peter Speaks at the Temple

¹¹While he was clinging to Peter and John, all the people together came running toward them in the place called Solomon's Portico.

¹²But when Peter saw, he responded to the people, "Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this? Why do you stare at us—as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? ¹³The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Servant^h Yeshua—the One you handed over and disowned before Pilate, though he had decided to release Him. ¹⁴But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be granted to you. ¹⁵You killed the Author of life—the One God raised from the dead! We are witnesses of it. ¹⁶Now through faith in the name of Yeshua, His name has strengthened this man whom you see and know. Indeed, the faith through Yeshua has given this man perfect health in front of you all.

¹⁷"Now brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, just as your leaders did. ¹⁸But what God foretold through the mouth of all His prophets—that His Messiah was to suffer—so He has fulfilled. ¹⁹Repent, therefore, and return—so your sins might be blotted out, ²⁰so times of relief might come from the presence of ADONAI and He might send Yeshua, the Messiah appointed for you. ²¹Heaven must receive Him, until the time of the restoration of all the things that God spoke about long ago through the mouth of His holy prophets. ²²Moses said, 'ADONAI your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your brothers. Hear and obey Him in all that He shall say to you. ²³And it shall be that every soul that will not listen to that Prophet shall be completely cut off from the people."ⁱ ²⁴Indeed, all the prophets who have spoken from Samuel on have announced these days. ²⁵You are the sons of the prophets and also of the covenant that God cut with your fathers,^j saying to Abraham, 'In your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.'^k ²⁶God raised up His Servant and sent Him first to you, to bless you all by turning each of you from your wicked ways."

Standing Before the Sanhedrin

¹As Peter and John were speaking to the people, the kohanim and the captain of the Temple and the Sadducees came up to them.

²They were indignant because Peter and John were teaching the people and announcing in Yeshua the resurrection of the dead. ³So they grabbed them and put them in jail until the next day, for it was already evening. ⁴But many who heard the message believed, and the number of the men came to about five thousand.

⁵On the next day, the rulers and elders and Torah scholars were gathered together in Jerusalem. ⁶Annas the kohen gadol was there, and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all those who were of high-priestly descent. ⁷When they had placed Peter and John in their midst, they began to inquire, "By what power or in what name did you do this?"

⁸Then Peter, filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh, said to them, "Rulers and elders of the people! ⁹If we are on trial today for a mitzvah done for a sick man, as to how this fellow was healed, ¹⁰let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Yeshua ha-Mashiach ha-Natzrati—whom you had crucified, whom God raised from the dead—this one stands before you whole. ¹¹This Yeshua is 'the stone—rejected by you, the builders—that has become the chief cornerstone.^a ¹²There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved!^b

¹³Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John and figured out they were laymen without training, they were amazed. They began to realize that these men had been with Yeshua. ¹⁴But seeing the healed man standing with them, they had nothing to say in response. ¹⁵When they had ordered Peter and John to go out of the council chamber, they began to confer with one another, ¹⁶saying, “What shall we do with these men? For indeed, it’s obvious to everyone living in Jerusalem that a remarkable miracle has happened through them, and we cannot deny it. ¹⁷But so it won’t spread any further among the people, let’s warn them not to speak anymore to anyone in this name.”

¹⁸So they called them in and ordered them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Yeshua. ¹⁹But Peter and John replied, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you decide. ²⁰For we cannot stop speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

²¹After threatening them again, they let them go—finding no way they could punish them on account of the people, because they all were glorifying God for what had happened. ²²For the man in whom this miracle of healing had happened was more than forty years old.

Prayer for Courage

²³As soon as they were released, Peter and John went to their own people and reported all that the ruling kohanim and elders had said to them. ²⁴When they heard it, they lifted their voices together to God and said, “O Sovereign Master, ‘You made heaven and earth and the sea, and everything in them.’^b ²⁵You said by the Ruach ha-Kodesh, through the mouth of our father David Your servant,

“Why did the nations rage and the peoples plot foolish things?
²⁶The kings of the earth took their stand and the rulers were gathered together against ADONAI and against His Anointed One.”^c

²⁷“For truly both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, were gathered together in this city against Your holy Servant Yeshua, whom You anointed. ²⁸They did whatever Your hand and Your purpose predetermined to happen. ²⁹And now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant Your servants to speak Your word with utmost courage—³⁰while You stretch out Your hand to heal, and signs and wonders take place through the name of Your holy Servant Yeshua.”

³¹When they had prayed, the place where they were gathered was shaken. And they were all filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and began to speak the word of God with boldness.

Ruach-Filled Community Life

³²Now the whole group of those who believed was one in heart and mind. No one would say anything he owned was his own, but they had everything in common. ³³With great power the emissaries were giving witness to the resurrection of the Lord Yeshua, and abundant favor was upon them all. ³⁴No one among them was needy, for all who were owners of lands or houses would sell them and bring the proceeds ³⁵and set them at the feet of the emissaries. And the proceeds were distributed according to the need each one had.

³⁶Now Joseph, also called Barnabas by the emissaries (which is translated Son of Encouragement), was a Levite and native of Cyprus. ³⁷He sold a field that he owned and brought the money and laid it at the feet of the emissaries.

Ananias and Sapphira Lie to the Ruach

¹On the other hand, a man named Ananias together with his wife, Sapphira, sold a property. ²He kept back some of the proceeds, with his wife's full knowledge, and brought part of it and set it at the feet of the emissaries.

³But Peter said, "Ananias, why has satan filled your heart to lie to the Ruach ha-Kodesh and keep back part of the proceeds of the land? ⁴While it remained unsold, it was your own, wasn't it? And after it was sold, wasn't it at your disposal? How did this deed get into your heart? You haven't lied to men but to God."

⁵As soon as he heard these words, Ananias fell down and died. Great fear came upon all who heard about it. ⁶The young men got up and wrapped him in a shroud, then carried him out and buried him.

⁷After an interval of about three hours, his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. ⁸Peter responded to her, "Tell me if you sold the land for this much."

She said, "Yes, for that much."

⁹Then Peter said to her, "How did you agree to test the Ruach ADONAI? Look, the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door—they will carry you out, too!"

¹⁰Immediately she fell down at his feet and died. When the young men came back in, they found her dead and carried her out and buried her beside her husband. ¹¹And great fear came over the whole community and all who heard these things.

Signs and Wonders, Angelic Jailbreak, and Bold Witness

¹²Meanwhile, through the hands of the emissaries many signs and wonders were happening among the people. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico. ¹³But no one else dared to join them, though the people continued to think highly of them. ¹⁴Yet more than ever those trusting in the Lord were added—large numbers of men and women. ¹⁵They even carried the sick into the streets and laid them on stretchers and cots, so that when Peter passed by at least his shadow might fall on some of them. ¹⁶Crowds were also gathering from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing those who were sick or tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all being healed.

¹⁷But the kohen gadol rose up, and all those with him (that is, the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy. ¹⁸They grabbed the emissaries and put them in a public jail. ¹⁹But during the night an angel of ADONAI opened the prison doors, and leading them out he said, ²⁰"Go, stand in the Temple and speak to the people the whole message about this Life." ²¹Now when they heard that, they entered the Temple at daybreak and began teaching.

When the kohen gadol and those with him arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin, even the council of elders of Bnei-Yisrael, and sent to the prison to have the prisoners brought in. ²²But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison. So they returned and reported, ²³saying, "We found the prison locked with maximum security and the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened up, we found no one inside."

²⁴When the captain of the Temple and the ruling kohanim heard these words, they were perplexed about them, wondering where this would lead. ²⁵But someone came and reported to them, "The men you put in prison are standing in the Temple and teaching the people!" ²⁶Then the captain went off with the officers and brought the emissaries—but not with force, because they feared they might be stoned by the people.

²⁷When they had brought them, they placed them before the Sanhedrin. The kohen gadol questioned them, ²⁸saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name—and look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring on us the blood of this Man!"

²⁹Peter and the emissaries replied, "We must obey God rather than men. ³⁰The God of our fathers raised up Yeshua, whom you seized and had crucified.^a ³¹This One God exalted at His right hand as Leader and Savior,^b to give repentance to Israel and removal of sins. ³²And we are witnesses of these events—as is the Ruach ha-Kodesh, whom God has given to those who obey Him.”

³³Now when they heard this, they became enraged and wanted to kill them. ³⁴But a certain Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Torah respected by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and gave orders to put the men outside for a little while. ³⁵Then he said to them, “Men of Israel, be careful what you are about to do with these men. ³⁶For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody; and a number of men, maybe four hundred, joined up with him. He was killed, and all who followed him were scattered and came to nothing. ³⁷After this fellow, Judah the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and got people to follow him. He also perished, and all who followed him were scattered. ³⁸So now I tell you, stay away from these men and leave them alone. For if this plan or undertaking is of men, it will come to an end; ³⁹but if it is of God, you will not be able to stop them. You might even be found fighting against God.” They took his advice, ⁴⁰called in the emissaries, flogged them, ordered them not to continue speaking in the name of Yeshua, and let them go.

⁴¹So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were considered worthy to be dishonored on account of His name.^c ⁴²And every day, in the Temple and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming Yeshua as the Messiah.

Appointed for Service

the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily support. ²So the Twelve called together the whole group of the disciples and said, “It is not right for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables. ³So, brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, full of the Spirit and wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this duty. ⁴But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the Word.”

⁵The statement pleased the whole group; and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Ruach ha-Kodesh, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch. ⁶They placed these men before the emissaries; and after praying, they laid hands on them.^e

⁷The word of God kept on spreading, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem greatly multiplied; even a great number of the kohanim were becoming obedient to the faith.

Stephen’s Testimony and Martyrdom

⁸Now Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people. ⁹But some men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen—both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, as well as some from Cilicia and Asia^f—stood up and began arguing with Stephen. ¹⁰But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Ruach by whom he was speaking.

¹¹Then they secretly instigated men into saying, “We have heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and against God!”

¹²They also incited the people, the elders, and the Torah scholars; and they rushed at Stephen, seized him, and led him away to the Sanhedrin. ¹³They set up false witnesses who said, “This man never stops speaking words against this holy place and the Torah. ¹⁴For we have heard him saying that this Yeshua ha-Natzrati will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us.”

¹⁵Watching him intently, everyone who was sitting in the Sanhedrin saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

¹Then the kohen gadol said, “Are these things so?”

²Stephen declared, “Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran. ³He said to him, ‘Leave your country and your relatives, and come here to the land that I will show you.’ ⁴Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. From there, after his father died, God moved him to this land where you now live. ⁵He gave him no inheritance in it—not even a foothold—yet He promised ‘to give it to him as a possession to him and to his descendants after him,’ even though he had no child.

⁶“But God spoke in this way, that his ‘descendants would be foreigners in a land belonging to others, and they would enslave and mistreat them for four hundred years. ⁷But I will judge the nation they serve as slaves,’ God said, ‘and afterward they shall come out and serve Me in this place.’⁸

⁸“Then God gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision.^h So he became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day, and so Isaac with Jacob, and Jacob with the twelve patriarchs. ⁹The patriarchs became jealous of Joseph and sold him into Egypt. Yet God was with him. ¹⁰He rescued him out of all his troubles and granted him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him governor over Egypt and all his household.

¹¹“Famine and great suffering came over all Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers could find no food. ¹²But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers there the first time. ¹³On the second visit, Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and his family became known to Pharaoh. ¹⁴So

Joseph sent and called for Jacob and all his relatives—seventy-five persons. ¹⁵Jacob went down to Egypt and died, he and our fathers. ¹⁶They were carried to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

¹⁷“But as the time drew near for the promise God had sworn to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt—¹⁸until ‘there arose another king over Egypt who knew nothing about Joseph.’ ¹⁹Dealing with our people with cruel cunning, this king mistreated our fathers and forced them to abandon their infants so they would not survive.

²⁰“At this time Moses was born—extraordinary before God. For three months he was nurtured in his father’s house. ²¹And when he was set outside, Pharaoh’s daughter took him and raised him as her own son. ²²Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was powerful in his words and deeds.

²³“When he was approaching forty years of age, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, Bnei-Yisrael. ²⁴When he saw one of them being treated unjustly, he went to the defense of the oppressed man and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian. ²⁵He was assuming that his brothers understood that by his hand God was delivering them, but they did not understand. ²⁶So on the next day he appeared to them as they were fighting. He tried to reconcile them in shalom, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?’

²⁷“But the one doing wrong to his neighbor pushed him away, saying, ‘Who appointed you ruler and judge over us?’ ²⁸You don’t want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday, do you?’^j ²⁹At this remark, Moses fled and became an exile in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

³⁰“When forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai in the flame of a burning bush. ³¹When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. But when he came up to look, there came the voice of ADONAI: ³²‘I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob.’^k

“Moses trembled in fear and did not dare to look. ³³But ADONAI said to him, ‘Take the sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. ³⁴I have surely seen the oppression of my people in Egypt and have heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them. Now come—let Me send you to Egypt.’

³⁵“This Moses—whom they rejected, saying, ‘Who appointed you as ruler and judge?’—is the one whom God sent as both ruler and redeemer, by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶This man led them out, performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years. ³⁷This is the Moses who said to Bnei-Yisrael, ‘God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers.’^a ³⁸“This is the one who was in the community in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers. He received living words to pass on to us. ³⁹Our fathers did not want to be obedient to him, but shoved him aside. And in their hearts they turned back to Egypt, ⁴⁰saying to Aaron, ‘Make gods for us who will go before us. For this Moses who led us out of the land of Egypt—we have no idea what has happened to him.’^b ⁴¹“And they made a calf in those days, offered a sacrifice to the idol, and were rejoicing in the works of their hands. ⁴²But God turned and gave them over to serve the host of heaven, just as it is written in the book of the Prophets:

‘It was not to Me that you brought sacrifices and offerings for forty years in the wilderness, was it, O House of Israel?

⁴³You also took up the tent of Moloch and the star of your god Rephan, the images you made to worship.
And I will deport you beyond Babylon.’^c

⁴⁴“Our fathers had the Tent of Witness in the wilderness—just as the One speaking to

Moses had directed him to make it according to the design he had seen. ⁴⁵Our fathers received it in turn and brought it in with Joshua when they took possession of the land of the nations that God drove out before our fathers. So it remained until the days of David, ⁴⁶who found favor in God’s sight. He asked to find a dwelling place for the God^d of Jacob. ⁴⁷But Solomon built a house for Him. ⁴⁸However, Elyon does not dwell in man-made houses. As the prophet says,

⁴⁹‘Heaven is My throne, and the earth is the footstool of My feet.

What kind of house will you build for Me,
says ADONAI,
or what is the place of My rest?

⁵⁰Did not My Hand make all these things?’^e

⁵¹“O you stiff-necked people! You uncircumcised of heart and ears! You always resist the Ruach ha-Kodesh; just as your fathers did, you do as well. ⁵²Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They killed the ones who foretold the coming of the Righteous One. Now you have become His betrayers and murderers—⁵³you who received the Torah by direction of angels and did not keep it!”

⁵⁴When they heard these things, they became enraged and began gnashing their teeth at him. ⁵⁵But Stephen, full of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God—and Yeshua standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶And he said, “Look, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!”

⁵⁷But they covered their ears; and crying out with a loud voice, they rushed at him with one impulse. ⁵⁸Driving him out of the city, they began stoning him, and the witnesses laid down their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹They went on stoning Stephen as he was calling out, “Lord Yeshua, receive my spirit!” ⁶⁰Then he fell on his knees and cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them!” After he said this, he died.^f

Saul Persecutes Messiah's Community

¹Now Saul was in agreement with Stephen's execution. On that day a great persecution arose against Messiah's community in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the region of Judea and Samaria, except the emissaries. ²Some devout men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him.

³But Saul was destroying Messiah's community, entering house after house; and dragging off men and women, he was throwing them into prison.

The Good News Spreads to Samaria

⁴Now those who had been scattered went around proclaiming the Word. ⁵Philip went down to the main city of Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah to them. ⁶The crowds were paying close attention to what Philip was saying—as they both heard and saw the signs that he was doing. ⁷For unclean spirits were coming out of many who were plagued, shrieking with a loud voice. Many paralyzed and crippled were healed also. ⁸So there was great joy in that city.

⁹Now a man named Simon had been practicing magic in the city and astonishing the people of Samaria, saying he was someone great. ¹⁰They all were paying special attention to him, saying, "This man is the power of God that is called 'Great.'" ¹¹And they kept paying attention to him, because for a long time he had astonished them with his magical arts. ¹²But when they believed Philip proclaiming the Good News about the kingdom of God and the name of Messiah Yeshua, both men and women were immersed. ¹³Even Simon himself believed; and after being immersed, he continued with Philip. And when he saw signs and great miracles happening, he was continually amazed.

¹⁴Now when the emissaries in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the message of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

¹⁵They came down and prayed for them to receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ¹⁶For He had not yet come upon them; they had only been immersed in the name of the Lord Yeshua. ¹⁷Then they began laying their hands on them, and they were receiving the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

¹⁸Now when Simon saw that the Ruach ha-Kodesh was given through the laying on of hands by the emissaries, he offered them money, ¹⁹saying, "Give this power to me, too—so that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh."

²⁰Peter said to him, "May your silver go to ruin, and you with it—because you thought you could buy God's gift with money!⁸ ²¹You have no part or share in this matter, because your heart is not right before God. ²²Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be pardoned. ²³For I see in you the poison of bitterness and the bondage of unrighteousness!"

²⁴Simon replied, "Pray for me, so that none of what you have said may come upon me."

²⁵So when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, proclaiming the Good News to many Samaritan villages.

An Ethiopian Asks about Isaiah 53

²⁶Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Get up, and go south on the road going down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a desert road.) ²⁷So he got up and went. And behold, an Ethiopian eunuch—an official who was responsible for all the treasure of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians—had traveled to Jerusalem to worship ²⁸and was now returning. Sitting in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah.

²⁹The Ruach said to Philip, "Go, catch up with this chariot."

³⁰Philip ran up and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

³¹"How can I," he said, "unless someone guides me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. ³²Now the passage of Scripture that he was reading was this:

⁸ 8:21. cf. 2 Kings 5:20–27.

“He was led as a sheep to slaughter;
and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so He opens not His Mouth.

³³In His humiliation justice was denied Him.
Who shall recount His generation?
For His life is taken away from the earth.”^a

³⁴The eunuch replied to Philip, “Please tell me, who is the prophet talking about—himself or someone else?” ³⁵Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he proclaimed the Good News about Yeshua.

³⁶Now as they were going down the road, they came to some water. The eunuch said, “Look, water! What’s to prevent me from being immersed?”

^{37b}³⁸He ordered the chariot to stop. They both got down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and Philip immersed him. ³⁹When they came up out of the water, the Ruach ADONAI snatched Philip away.^c The eunuch saw no more of him, for he went on his way, rejoicing.

⁴⁰But Philip found himself at Azotus. And as he passed through, he kept proclaiming the Good News to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Saul Turns from Murder to Messiah

¹Now Saul, still breathing out threats and murder against the Lord’s disciples, went to the kohen gadol. ²He requested letters of introduction from him to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any men or women belonging to the Way, he might bring them as prisoners to Jerusalem.

³As he was traveling, approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. ⁴Falling to the ground,

^a 8:32-33. Isa. 53:7-8.

^b 8:37. Some mss. include: And he said, “If you believe with all your heart, you may.” He replied, I believe that Yeshua the Messiah is the Son of God!”

he heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”

⁵“Who are You, Lord?” Saul said.

“I am Yeshua—whom you are persecuting.”^d

⁶But get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”^e

⁷The men travelling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one.^f

⁸Saul got up from the ground—but opening his eyes, he could see nothing. They led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

⁹For three days he could not see, and he did not eat or drink.

¹⁰Now there was a disciple named Ananias in Damascus. The Lord said to him, “Ananias.”

He said, “Here I am, Lord.”

¹¹The Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street named Straight, and ask in the house of Judah for someone from Tarsus named Saul. For look, he is praying; ¹²and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and laying his hands on him, so that he might regain his sight.”

¹³But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man—how much harm he has done to your kedoshim in Jerusalem.

¹⁴And here he has authority from the ruling kohanim to tie up all who call on Your name.”

¹⁵But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is a choice instrument to carry My name before nations and kings and Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁶For I will show him how much he must suffer for My name’s sake.”

¹⁷So Ananias left and entered into the house. Laying hands on Saul, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord—Yeshua, the One who appeared to you on the road by which you were coming—has sent me, so that you might regain your sight and be filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh.”

¹⁸Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was immersed; ¹⁹and when he had taken food, he was strengthened. Now for several days, he was with the disciples in ^d 9:5. Some mss. add: It is hard for you to kick against the goads.

Damascus.²⁰ Immediately he began proclaiming Yeshua in the synagogues, saying, “He is Ben-Elohim.”

²¹All those hearing him were amazed. They were saying, “Isn’t this the one who made havoc in Jerusalem for all those who call on this name? And hasn’t he come here to bring them as prisoners before the ruling kohanim?”²² But Saul kept growing stronger, and he was confounding the Jewish people living in Damascus by proving that Yeshua is the Messiah.²³ When many days had passed, these Jewish people plotted to kill him—²⁴but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night, to kill him.²⁵ But the disciples took Saul by night and let him down over the wall, lowering him in a basket.

²⁶When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he made attempts to join up with the disciples—but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.²⁷ But Barnabas took him in and brought him to the emissaries. He described to them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road and the Lord had spoken to him, and how he had spoken boldly in the name of Yeshua.

²⁸So Saul was with them, going in and out in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.²⁹ He was speaking and arguing with the Hellenists, but they were trying to kill him.³⁰ When the brothers found out, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

³¹So Messiah’s community throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had shalom and was built up. Walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, it kept multiplying.

Signs and Wonders Follow Peter

³²Peter went here and there among them all. He came down as well to the kedoshim living in Lydda.³³ There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years—he was paralyzed.³⁴ Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Messiah Yeshua heals you. Get up and pack up your bed.” Immediately, he got up!³⁵ All who lived in Lydda and the Plain of Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

³⁶In Joppa, there was a disciple named Tabitha (which translates as Dorcas). She was full of mitzvot and zedakah, which she continually did.³⁷ In those days, she became ill and died. When they had washed her for burial, they placed her in an upstairs room.³⁸ Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples—hearing that Peter was there—sent two men to him, begging him, “Please come to us without delay!”

³⁹So Peter got up and went with them. When he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room. All the widows were crying, showing all the tunics and other clothing Dorcas had made while she was with them.⁴⁰ But Peter sent them all outside, and he got down on his knees and prayed. Then, turning to the body, he said “Tabitha, get up!” She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.⁴¹ He gave her his hand and raised her up. Then he called the kedoshim and widows and presented her alive.⁶

⁴²It became known throughout Joppa, and many came to believe in the Lord.⁴³ So it happened that Peter stayed on in Joppa for several days with Simon, a tanner.^h

The Centurion’s Vision

¹Now in Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Cohort.² He was a devout man, revering God with all his household. He gave zedakah generously to the people and prayed to God continually.³ About the ninth hour of the day,ⁱ he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming and saying to him, “Cornelius!”

⁴He stared at him in terror and said, “What is it, Lord?”

The angel said to him, “Your prayers and zedakah have gone up as a memorial offering before God.⁵ Now send men to Joppa and call for Simon, also named Peter.⁶ He is being entertained as a guest by Simon the tanner, whose house is beside the sea.”

⁷When the angel speaking to him had left, he called two of his servants and a soldier from among those attached to his command.⁸ After he explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter’s Vision

⁹The next day, as the soldiers were traveling and approaching the city, Peter went up to the rooftop to pray, at about the sixth hour.^a ¹⁰Now he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they were preparing something, he fell into a trance. ¹¹He saw the heavens opened, and something^b like a great sheet coming down, lowered by its four corners to the earth. ¹²In it were all sorts of four-footed animals and reptiles and birds of the air.

¹³A voice came to him, “Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.”

¹⁴But Peter said, “Certainly not, Lord! For never have I eaten anything unholy or unclean.”^c

¹⁵Again a voice came to him, a second time: “What God has made clean, you must not consider unholy.” ¹⁶This happened three times, and the sheet was immediately taken up to heaven.

¹⁷Now while Peter was puzzling about what the vision he had seen might mean, behold, the men sent by Cornelius found Simon’s house and appeared before the gate. ¹⁸They called out and began to ask whether Simon, also called Peter, was staying in this place as a guest.

¹⁹Now while Peter was mulling over the vision, the Ruach said to him, “Look here, three men are looking for you. ²⁰But get up, go downstairs, and go with them without hesitating, because I Myself have sent them.”

²¹Going down to the men, Peter said, “Here, I’m the one you’re looking for. What is the reason for your coming?”

^c 10:14. cf. Lev. 10:10; 11:7-45; Deut. 14:4-20; Ezek. 4:14; Dan. 1:8.

²²And they said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man well-spoken of by all the Jewish people, was directed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear a message from you.”

²³So Peter invited them in to be his guests. The next day he got up and went with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.

Peter Goes to Cornelius

²⁴The following day he entered Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them and had called together his relatives and close friends. ²⁵As Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him.

²⁶But Peter pulled him up, saying, “Stand up! I too am just a man.”

²⁷Talking with him, Peter went inside and found many people gathered. ²⁸He said to them, “You yourselves know that it is not permitted for a Jewish man to associate with a non-Jew or to visit him. Yet God has shown me that I should call no one unholy or unclean. ²⁹So I came without objection when I was sent for. I ask, then, what is the reason why you sent for me?”

³⁰Cornelius declared, “Four days ago at this hour, I was praying minchah^d in my house. Suddenly, a man stood in front of me in shining clothes. ³¹He says, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your tzedakah remembered before God. ³²Therefore send to Joppa and ask for Simon, who is also called Peter. He is staying in the house of Simon the tanner, by the sea.’ ³³So I sent for you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here before God to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord.”

³⁴Then Peter opened his mouth and said, “I truly understand that God is not one to show favoritism,^e ³⁵but in every nation the one who fears Him and does what is right is acceptable to Him. ³⁶You know the message He sent to Bnei-Yisrael, proclaiming shalom through Messiah Yeshua—He is Lord of all. ³⁷You know the ^d 10:30. Lit. the ninth hour, 3 p.m., time of afternoon prayer.

^e 10:34. cf. Deut. 10:17; 2 Chr. 19:7

message that has spread throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the immersion that John proclaimed. ³⁸You know how God anointed Yeshua of Natzeret with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and power—how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him. ³⁹We are witnesses to all He did, both in the Judean countryside and in Jerusalem. They put Him to death by hanging Him on a tree, ⁴⁰but God raised Him up on the third day and caused Him to be visible— ⁴¹not to all the people, but to us, witnesses who were chosen beforehand by God. We ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. ⁴²And He commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that He is the One ordained by God as Judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³All the prophets testify about Him—that everyone who puts his trust in Him receives forgiveness of sins through His name.”

The Ruach Falls on the Gentiles

⁴⁴While Peter was still speaking these words, the Ruach ha-Kodesh fell on all those hearing the message. ⁴⁵All the circumcised believers who came with Peter were astonished, because the gift of the Ruach ha-Kodesh had been poured out even on the Gentiles. ⁴⁶For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and magnifying God.

Then Peter answered, ⁴⁷“Can anyone refuse water for these to be immersed, who have received the Ruach ha-Kodesh just as we did?” ⁴⁸So he commanded them to be immersed in the name of Messiah Yeshua. Then they asked him to stay for a few days.

Peter's Report to Jerusalem

¹Now the emissaries and brothers throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. ²But when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision took issue with him, ³saying, “You went to uncircumcised men and ate with them!”

⁴So Peter began explaining to them point by point, saying, ⁵“I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision—something like a great sheet coming down, being lowered from heaven by its four corners, and it came right to me. ⁶I looked inside, considering it carefully, and saw four-footed creatures of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the air. ⁷I also heard a voice saying, ‘Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.’

⁸“But I said, ‘Certainly not, Lord! For never has anything unholy or unclean entered my mouth.’ ⁹But a voice from heaven answered a second time, ‘What God has made clean, you must not consider unholy.’ ¹⁰This happened three times, and then everything was pulled up to heaven.

¹¹“At that very moment, three men arrived at the house where we were, sent to me from Caesarea. ¹²The Ruach told me to go with them without hesitating. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man's house. ¹³He reported to us how he had seen an angel standing in his house and saying, ‘Send to Joppa and bring Simon called Peter. ¹⁴He will speak words to you by which you will be saved—you and all your household.’

¹⁵“As I began to speak, the Ruach ha-Kodesh fell on them, just as on us at the beginning. ¹⁶And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, ‘John immersed with water, but you will be immersed in the Ruach ha-Kodesh.’ ¹⁷Therefore if God gave them the same gift as also to us after we put our trust in the Lord Messiah Yeshua, who was I to stand in God's way?”

¹⁸When they heard this they became quiet, and they glorified God, saying, “Then even to the Gentiles God has granted repentance leading to life!”

Discipling in Diaspora

¹⁹Now those scattered because of the persecution that happened in connection with Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, telling the message only to Judeans. ²⁰However, there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch and began speaking to the Hellenists also, proclaiming the Lord Yeshua.²¹ The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord.

²²News about these things reached the ears of the community in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. ²³When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he was thrilled. He encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with heartfelt devotion. ²⁴For Barnabas was a good man, full of the Ruach ha-Kodesh and faith. And a large number was added to the Lord.

²⁵Then Barnabas left for Tarsus to look for Saul,²⁶ and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met together with Messiah's community and taught a large number. Now it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called "Christianoi."^a ²⁷Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸One of them, named Agabus, stood up and predicted through the Ruach that there was going to be a great famine over all the world. (This took place during the reign of Claudius.)²⁹ So the disciples decided to send relief to those brothers and sisters living in Judea, each according to his ability.³⁰ This they did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Persecution and Deliverance

¹Now at that time Herod the king seized some from Messiah's community to do them harm. ²He had Jacob, John's brother, put to death with the sword. ³Seeing it pleased the Judean leaders, he proceeded to capture Peter as well. This was during the Days of Matzah. ⁴After seizing him, he put him in prison, handing him over to four squads with four soldiers each to guard him. He was intending to bring him before the people after Passover. ⁵So Peter was kept in prison, but prayer for him was being offered fervently to God by Messiah's community.

^a 11:26. Grk. Christianoi (Christians); Heb. M'shichim (Messianics); Eng. anointed ones; cf. Acts 26:28; 1 Pet. 4:16.

⁶Now that very night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping—bound with two chains between two soldiers, while guards before the gate were keeping watch over the prison. ⁷Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell. He poked Peter on the side and woke him up, saying, "Get up! Quick!" And the chains fell off his hands. ⁸Then the angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals," and he did so. Then he tells him, "Put on your cloak and follow me." ⁹Peter went out and kept following him—he didn't know that what was happening with the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. ¹⁰After they passed a first guard and a second, they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them by itself. They went out and walked along a narrow street. Suddenly the angel left him.

¹¹When Peter came to himself, he said, "Now I know for real that the Lord has sent His angel^b and delivered me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Judean people were expecting." ¹²When he realized this, he went to the house of Miriam, the mother of John (also called Mark), where many were assembled together and praying. ¹³When he knocked on the door of the entrance gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. ¹⁴Although she recognized Peter's voice, out of joy she did not open the gate but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gate. ¹⁵They said to her, "You're crazy!" But she kept insisting it was so. But they were saying, "It is his angel."

¹⁶But Peter kept on knocking. When they opened the gate, they saw him and were amazed! ¹⁷But he motioned with his hand for them to be silent, and he explained to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Go tell these things to Jacob and the brothers." Then he left and went to another place.

¹⁸When day came, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter. ¹⁹After Herod made a search for him and did not find him, he interrogated the guards and commanded that they be led away to execution. Then he went down from Judea and stayed in Caesarea.

Herod Gets His Due

²⁰Now it happened that Herod was furious with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they came to him, united. Having won over Blastus, the king's personal aide, they began asking for peace—because their country was supplied with food from the king's country.

²¹On an appointed day, Herod donned his royal robes and, taking his seat upon the throne, began to make a speech to them. ²²The people were shouting, "The voice of a god and not a human!" ²³Immediately, an angel of the Lord struck him down—because he did not give God the glory. And he was eaten by worms and died.

²⁴But the word of God kept on growing and multiplying. ²⁵And Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem when they had fulfilled their service, taking along John (who was also called Mark).

Sent Out from Antioch

¹Now in the Antioch community, there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius the Cyrenian, Manaen (brought up since childhood with Herod the Tetrarch), and Saul. ²While they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Ruach ha-Kodesh said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." ³Then after fasting, praying, and laying hands on them, they sent them off.

⁴So, sent out by the Ruach ha-Kodesh, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. ⁵When they arrived at Salamis, they began to proclaim the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They also had John^c as a helper.

^c 13:5. cf. Acts 12:25.

⁶When they had gone throughout the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a man who was a magician—a Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar-Yeshua. ⁷He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God. ⁸But Elymas the magician (for so his name is translated) was opposing them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. ⁹But Saul, who is also Paul, filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh, fixed his gaze on him ¹⁰and said, "O you, full of all deceit and trickery, son of the devil, enemy of all righteousness—will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord?" ¹¹Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you,^e and you shall be blind and not see the sun for awhile." Immediately, cloudiness and darkness fell upon him, and he went about seeking people to lead him by the hand. ¹²When he saw what had happened, the proconsul believed, because he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul's Message in Diaspora Synagogues

¹³Setting sail from Paphos, Paul's company came to Perga in Pamphylia. John left them and returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴But they passed on from Perga and came to Antioch of Pisidia. Entering the synagogue on the Shabbat, they sat down. ¹⁵After the reading of the Torah and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, speak."

¹⁶So Paul, standing up and motioning with his hand, said, "Men of Israel and God-fearers, listen. ¹⁷The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt,^f and with an outstretched arm He led them out of there. ¹⁸For about forty years He put up with them in the wilderness.^g ¹⁹And when He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan,

He gave their land as an inheritance^a—²⁰all of this took about 450 years. After that, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul, son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. ²²After removing him, He raised up David to be their king. He also testified about him and said, ‘I have found David, the son of Jesse, a man after My heart, who will do My will.’^b

²³“From this man’s seed, in keeping with His promise, God brought to Israel a Savior^c—Yeshua. ²⁴Before His coming, John had proclaimed an immersion of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵As John was completing his service, he said, ‘What do you suppose me to be? I am not He. But behold, One is coming after me, whose sandal I’m not worthy to untie.’

²⁶“Brothers, sons of the family of Abraham and those among you who are God-fearers, it is to us the message of this salvation has been sent. ²⁷For those who live in Jerusalem and their rulers—not recognizing Him or the sayings of the Prophets that are read every Shabbat—fulfilled these words by condemning Him. ²⁸Though they found no charge worthy of a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have Him executed. ²⁹When they had carried out all that had been written about Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb. ³⁰But God raised Him from the dead! ³¹For many days He appeared to those who had come up from the Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now His witnesses to the people.

³²“And we proclaim to you Good News—the promise to the fathers has arrived! ³³For God has fulfilled this promise to the children—to us—by raising up Yeshua, as it is also written in the second psalm:

‘You are My Son.
Today I have become Your Father.’^d

³⁴“But since He raised Him up from the dead, never to return to decay, He has spoken in this way, ‘I will give you the holy and sure mercies of David.’^e ³⁵Therefore He also says in another psalm, ‘You will not permit Your Holy One to see decay.’^f ³⁶For after David had served God’s purpose in his own generation, he went to sleep and was laid with his fathers and saw decay. ³⁷But the One whom God raised up did not see decay.

³⁸“Therefore, let it be known to you, brothers, that through this One is proclaimed to you the removal of sins, including all those from which you could not be set right by the Torah of Moses. ³⁹Through this One everyone who keeps trusting is made righteous.

⁴⁰“Be careful, then, so that what is said in the Prophets may not come upon you:

⁴¹“Look, you scoffers, be amazed and vanish away.
For I am doing a work in your days—a work you will never believe, even if someone tells it to you in detail.’^g”

⁴²As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people kept begging them to speak these things to them the next Shabbat. ⁴³When the synagogue meeting broke up, many of the Jewish people and God-fearing inquirers followed Paul and Barnabas, who were speaking with them and trying to persuade them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴The following Shabbat, almost the entire city came together to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵When the Jewish leaders saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and tried to contradict what Paul was saying by reviling him. ⁴⁶Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, “It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken to you first. Since you reject it and judge yourselves unfit for eternal life—behold, we turn to the Gentiles.

⁴⁷For so the Lord has commanded us, ‘I have placed you as a light to the nations, so that you may bring salvation to the end of the earth.’^h”

⁴⁸When the Gentiles heard this, they were thrilled and glorified the word of the Lord; and as many as had been inscribed for eternal life believed.¹

⁴⁹Now the word of the Lord spread throughout the whole region. ⁵⁰But the Jewish leaders incited the God-fearing women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and they drove them out of their district. ⁵¹But Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet against them,¹ and they went on to Iconium. ⁵²And the disciples were filled with joy and the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

Mixed Crowds Believe Amidst Persecution

¹Now in Iconium, the same thing happened—they entered as usual into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a large number of Jewish and Greek people believed. ²But the Jewish people who would not believe stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.

³So they stayed there a considerable time, speaking boldly in the Lord—who was testifying to the message of His grace, granting signs and wonders to come about by their hands. ⁴But the population of the city split; some were with the Jewish leaders and some were with the emissaries. ⁵Now it happened that an attempt was made by both the Gentiles and Jewish people, along with their rulers, to abuse and stone them. ⁶But they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and the surrounding countryside. ⁷There they proclaimed the Good News.

⁸Now a man was sitting in Lystra without strength in his feet, lame from birth, who had never walked. ⁹This man heard Paul speaking. When Paul looked intently at him and saw that he had faith to be healed, ¹⁰he said with a loud voice, “Stand right up! On your feet!” And the man leaped up and began to walk around!

¹¹Now the crowd, seeing what Paul had done, lifted up their voices, saying in Lycaonian, “The gods have become like men and come down to us!” ¹²And they began calling Barnabas “Zeus” and Paul “Hermes” (because he was the main speaker).

¹³The priest of Zeus, whose temple was before the front gate of the city, brought bulls and garlands; he wanted to offer a sacrifice with the people. ¹⁴But when the emissaries Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their clothes and rushed out among the crowd, crying out ¹⁵and saying, “Men, why are you doing these things? We too are human, just like you! We proclaim the Good News to you, telling you to turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them.^k ¹⁶In past generations He allowed all the nations to go their own ways.¹⁷ Yet He did not leave Himself without a witness—He did good by giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with joy and gladness.”^m ¹⁸Even saying these things, they barely restrained the crowd from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹But Jewish people came from Antioch and Iconium; and after they won the crowd over and stoned Paul, they were dragging him out of the city, supposing him to be dead. ²⁰But while the disciples surrounded him, he got up and went back into the city. On the next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe. ²¹After proclaiming the Good News to that city and making many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. ²²They were strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in faith, and saying, “It is through many persecutions that we must enter the kingdom of God.” ²³When they had handpicked elders for them in every community, and prayed with fasting, they placed them in the care of the Lord—in whom they had put their trust.

²⁴Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia. ²⁵After speaking the message in Perga, they went down to Attalia. ²⁶From there they sailed back to Antioch (where they had been entrusted to the gracious care of God for the work now completed). ²⁷When they arrived and gathered together Messiah's community, they began to report all that God had done in helping them and that He had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. ²⁸And they stayed quite awhile with the disciples.

Jerusalem Council Rules on Circumcision

¹Now some men coming down from Judea were teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." ²When Paul and Barnabas had a big argument and debate with them, the brothers appointed Paul and Barnabas with some others from among them to go up to Jerusalem to the emissaries and elders about this issue.

³So they were sent on their way by the Antioch community. They were passing through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and they were bringing great joy to all the brothers and sisters. ⁴When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the community and the emissaries and the elders. They reported all that God had done in helping them.

⁵But some belonging to the party of the Pharisees who had believed stood up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the Torah of Moses."

⁶The emissaries and elders were gathered together to examine this issue. ⁷After much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that in the early days God chose from among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the message of the Good News and believe. ⁸And God, who knows the heart, testified to them by giving them the Ruach ha-Kodesh—just as He also did for us. ⁹He made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts through faith. ¹⁰Why then do you put God to the test by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples—which neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? ¹¹But instead, we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Yeshua, in the same way as they are."

¹²Then the whole group became silent and were listening to Barnabas and Paul as they were describing in detail all the signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles. ¹³After they finished speaking, Jacob answered, "Brothers, listen to me. ¹⁴Simon has described how God first showed His concern by taking from the Gentiles a people for His Name. ¹⁵The words of the Prophets agree, as it is written:

¹⁶After this I will return and rebuild the fallen tabernacle of David.

I will rebuild its ruins
and I will restore it,

¹⁷so that the rest of humanity may seek
the Lord—namely all the Gentiles who are called by My name—says ADONAI, who makes these things^a ¹⁸known from of old.^b

¹⁹Therefore, I judge not to trouble those from among the Gentiles who are turning to God—²⁰but to write to them to abstain from the contamination of idols, and from sexual immorality, and from what is strangled, and from blood.^c ²¹For Moses from ancient generations has had in every city those who proclaim him, since he is read in all the synagogues every Shabbat."

Letter to Diaspora Communities

²²Then it seemed good to the emissaries and elders, with the whole community, to choose men from among themselves to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judah (also called Barsabbas) and Silas,

^a 15:16-17. Amos 9:11-12(LXX); cf. Zech. 8:20-23; Dan. 9:19.

^b 15:18. cf. Isa. 45:21(LXX).

leading men among the brethren,²³ and this letter along with them:

“The emissaries and the elders, your brothers,

To the Gentile brothers of Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:
Greetings!

²⁴Since we have heard that some from among us have troubled you with words disturbing to your souls,^d although we gave them no such authorization,²⁵ it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to select men to send to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul—²⁶men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ²⁷We therefore have sent to you Judah and Silas, who themselves will report to you the same things by word of mouth. ²⁸It seemed good to the Ruach ha-Kodesh and to us not to place on you any greater burden than these essentials: ²⁹that you abstain from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality. By keeping away from these things, you will do well. Shalom!”

³⁰So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch; and when they had gathered the whole group together, they delivered the letter. ³¹The people read it and rejoiced over its encouragement. ³²Judah and Silas, prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers and sisters with a long message and strengthened them.

³³After spending some time there, they were sent off with shalom by the brothers and sisters to those who had sent them. ^{34e}
³⁵But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of the Lord with many others.

^d 15:24. Some mss. add saying, “You must be circumcised and keep the law,”

^e 15:34. Some mss. add verse 34: But it seemed good to Silas to remain there.

New Teams Strengthen Communities

³⁶After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s return and visit the brothers and sisters in every city where we have proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are.”

³⁷Barnabas was planning to take along John, called Mark. ³⁸But Paul was insisting that they shouldn’t take him along—the one who had deserted them in Pamphylia, not accompanying them in the work. ³⁹A sharp disagreement took place, so that they split off from one another. Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus. ⁴⁰But Paul selected Silas and went out, being entrusted by the brothers and sisters to the gracious care of the Lord. ⁴¹He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the communities.

¹Now Paul came to Derbe and Lystra. There was a disciple there named Timothy, son of a woman who was a Jewish believer and a Greek father,² who was well-spoken of by the brothers at Lystra and Iconium. ³Paul wanted this man to accompany him, and he took him and circumcised him for the sake of the Jewish people in those places—for they all knew that his father was Greek.

⁴As they were traveling through the cities, they were handing down the rulings that had been decided upon by the emissaries and elders in Jerusalem, for them to keep. ⁵So Messiah’s communities were strengthened in the faith and kept increasing daily in number.

Going West to Macedonia

⁶They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Ruach ha-Kodesh to speak the word in Asia.^f

⁷When they came to Mysia, they were trying to proceed into Bithynia, but the Ruach of Yeshua would not allow them. ⁸So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.

^f 16:6. The Roman province of Asia, in the western part of Asia Minor (now part of Turkey).

⁹Now a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A man from Macedonia was standing and pleading with him, saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us!”¹⁰As soon as he had seen the vision, immediately we tried to go to Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to proclaim the Good News to them.

¹¹So we put out to sea from Troas and made a straight course for Samothrace, the next day on to Neapolis,¹²and from there to Philippi—which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia as well as a Roman colony. We stayed in this city for several days.

¹³On Yom Shabbat, we went outside the gate to the river, where we expected a place of prayer to be. We sat down and began speaking with the women who had gathered.¹⁴A woman named Lydia—a seller of purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, a God-fearer—was listening. The Lord opened her heart to respond to what Paul was saying.

¹⁵When she was immersed, along with her household, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my house.” And she insisted.^a

¹⁶It so happened that as we were going to prayer, we met a slave girl who had a spirit of divination, who was bringing her masters much profit from her fortune-telling.^b

¹⁷Following after Paul and us, she kept shouting, saying, “These men are servants of El Elyon, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation.”¹⁸She kept doing this for many days. But Paul was irritated and turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Messiah Yeshua to come out of her!” And it came out of her that very moment.

¹⁹But when her masters saw that the hope of profit was gone, they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.²⁰And when they brought them to the chief authorities, they said, “These men are throwing our city into an uproar! Being Jewish,²¹they advocate customs which are not permitted for us to accept or practice,^c being Romans.”

²²Then the crowd joined in the attack on them. So the chief authorities ripped their clothes off them and commanded them to be beaten with rods.²³After inflicting many blows on them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to guard them securely.²⁴Having received this charge, he threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.^d

Salvation for a Jailer’s Household

²⁵But about midnight, Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.²⁶Suddenly there was such a great earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. Immediately all the doors were unlocked, and everyone’s chains came loose.

²⁷When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors opened, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing the prisoners had escaped.²⁸But Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Don’t harm yourself! We’re all here!”

²⁹The jailer called for lights and rushed in; and trembling with fear, he fell down before Paul and Silas.³⁰After he brought them out, he said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

³¹They said, “Put your trust in the Lord Yeshua^e and you will be saved—you and your household!”

³²Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him, along with everyone in his household.

³³He took them that very hour and washed their wounds, and at once he was immersed—he and all his household.³⁴The jailer brought them to his house and set food before them, and he was overjoyed that he with his entire household had put their trust in God.

³⁵When day came, the chief authorities sent their police officers, saying, “Release those men.”

³⁶But the jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, “The chief authorities have sent orders to release you. So come out now, and go in shalom.”

³⁷But Paul said to the officers, “They have beaten us publicly without a trial—men who are Roman citizens—and have thrown us into prison. And now they are sending us away secretly? No! Let them come themselves and lead us out!”

³⁸The police officers reported these words to the chief authorities. They became afraid when they heard they were Romans, ³⁹so they came and apologized to them. After they escorted them out, they kept begging them to leave the city. ⁴⁰When Paul and Silas went out of the prison, they visited Lydia’s house. And when they saw the brothers, they encouraged them and then departed.

Synagogue Responses Vary

¹After passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. ²As was his custom, Paul went to the Jewish people; and for three Shabbatot, he debated the Scriptures with them. ³He opened them and gave evidence that Messiah had to suffer and rise from the dead, saying, “This Yeshua, whom I declare to you, is the Messiah.” ⁴Some of them were convinced and became attached to Paul and Silas, as were a large number of the God-fearing Greeks and no small number of the leading women.

¹⁰As soon as it was night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas to Berea. Upon arrival, they made their way to the Jewish synagogue. ¹¹Now these were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, because they received the message with goodwill, searching the Scriptures each day to see whether these things were true. ¹²Therefore many of them believed, as well as quite a few prominent Greek women and men.

¹³But when the Jewish people of Thessalonica learned that the word of God had been proclaimed by Paul in Berea, they came there too, agitating and inciting the people. ¹⁴Then the brothers immediately sent Paul away to the sea, but Silas and Timothy remained there. ¹⁵Those escorting Paul brought him as far as Athens. After receiving an order for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they left.

An Unknown God in Athens

¹⁶Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was aroused within him when he saw that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷So he was debating in the synagogue with the Jewish people and the God-fearers, as well as in the marketplace every day with all who happened to be there. ¹⁸Also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were conversing with him. Some were saying, “What’s this babbler trying to say?” while others, “He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign deities”—because he was proclaiming the Good News of Yeshua and the resurrection. ¹⁹So they took Paul to the Aereopagus, saying, “May we know what this new teaching is that you are talking about? ²⁰For you are bringing some strange things to our ears, so we want to know what these things mean.” ²¹Now all the Athenians and foreigners visiting there used to pass their time doing nothing but telling or hearing something new.

²²So Paul stood in the middle of the Aereopagus and said, “Men of Athens, I see that in all ways you are very religious. ²³For while I was passing through and observing the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: 'To an Unknown God.' Therefore what you worship without knowing, this I proclaim to you.²⁴ The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth,^a does not live in temples made by hands.^b ²⁵Nor is He served by human hands, as if He needed anything,^c since He Himself gives to everyone life and breath and all things.^d ²⁶From one He made every nation of men to live on the face of the earth, having set appointed times and the boundaries of their territory.^e ²⁷They were to search for Him, and perhaps grope around for Him and find Him. Yet He is not far from each one of us,^f ²⁸for 'In Him we live and move and have our being.'

As some of your own poets have said, 'For we also are His offspring.'^g ²⁹Since we are His offspring, we ought not to suppose the Deity is like gold or silver or stone, an engraved image of human art and imagination.^h ³⁰Although God overlooked the periods of ignorance, now He commands everyone everywhere to repent.³¹ For He has set a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness, through a Man whom He has appointed.ⁱ He has brought forth evidence of this to all men, by raising Him from the dead."³² Now when they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some began scoffing. But others said, "We will hear from you again about this."³³ So Paul left from their midst.³⁴ But some men joined with him and believed—among them Dionysius (a member of the council of the Aereopagus), a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Many Respond in Corinth

went to Corinth.² There he found a Jewish man named Aquila—a native of Pontus having recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all Jewish people to leave Rome. Paul went to see them;³ and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and began working, for by trade they were tent-makers.⁴ And he was debating every Shabbat in the synagogue, trying to persuade both Jewish and Greek people.

⁵Now when Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul became occupied with the message, urgently testifying to the Jewish people that Yeshua is the Messiah.⁶ But when they resisted and reviled him, he shook out his garments^j and said, "Your blood be upon your own heads—I am clean!^k From now on, I will go to the Gentiles."

⁷After leaving there, Paul went into the house of a man named Titius Justus, a God-fearer whose house was next door to the synagogue.⁸ Crispus, the synagogue leader, put his faith in the Lord, along with his whole household. And many of the Corinthians, upon hearing, were believing and being immersed.

⁹Now the Lord said to Paul through a vision in the night, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent!¹⁰ For I am with you and no one shall attack you to harm you—many people in this city are for Me."¹¹ So he stayed a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

¹²But while Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jewish leaders made a united attack against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat,¹³ saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the Torah."

¹⁴But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jewish people, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or a vicious crime, there would be a reason to put up with you, O Jews.¹⁵ But since it is issues about words, names, and your own law, see to it yourselves. I do not wish to be a judge of these."¹⁶ And he drove them from the judgment seat. ¹⁷Then they all grabbed Sosthenes, the synagogue leader, and began beating him in front of the judgment seat. But Gallio paid no attention to these things.

Sailing East to Revisit Communities

¹⁸Paul, having stayed many more days, said farewell to the brothers and set sail to Syria, and with him were Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchrea Paul had his hair cut off, for he was keeping a vow. ¹⁹When they arrived at Ephesus, Paul left Priscilla and Aquila there. But he himself went into the synagogue and debated with the Jewish people. ²⁰When they asked him to stay longer, he declined, ²¹instead taking leave of them while saying, “God willing, I’ll return to you again.”

He set sail from Ephesus. ²²After landing at Caesarea, he went up and greeted Messiah’s community; then he went down to Antioch. ²³After spending some time there, he departed and went one place after another throughout the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

Discipling New Leaders

²⁴Now a Jewish man named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was a learned man, well versed in the Scriptures. ²⁵He had been instructed in the way of the Lord. With a fervent spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the facts about Yeshua—while only being acquainted with the immersion of John. ²⁶This man began speaking out boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the way of God more accurately.

²⁷When Apollos wanted to cross over to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. Upon arrival, he greatly helped those who by grace had believed. ²⁸For he powerfully refuted the Jewish people in public, demonstrating through the Scriptures that the Messiah was Yeshua.

¹While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul traveled through the upper region and came to Ephesus. He found some disciples ²and said to them, “Did you receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh when you believed?”

They replied to him, “No, we’ve never even heard that there is a Ruach ha-Kodesh.”

³He said, “Into what were you immersed?”

They said, “Into John’s immersion.”

⁴Paul said, “John immersed with an immersion of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in the One coming after him—that is, in Yeshua.”

⁵When they heard this, they were immersed in the name of the Lord Yeshua. ⁶And when Paul laid hands upon them, the Ruach ha-Kodesh came upon them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying. ⁷In all, there were about twelve men.

God’s Power Displayed in Ephesus

⁸Paul went into the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, debating and persuading them about the kingdom of God. ⁹But when they were hardening and refusing to believe, speaking evil of the Way before the whole group, he withdrew from them, taking the disciples with him, debating daily in the hall of Tyrannus. ¹⁰This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia¹ heard the word of the Lord—Jewish as well as Greek people.

¹¹God was doing extraordinary miracles by Paul’s hands, ¹²so that even handkerchiefs and aprons that touched his skin were brought to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them.

¹³But some traveling Jewish exorcists also tried to invoke the name of the Lord Yeshua, saying, “I charge you by the Yeshua whom Paul preaches.” ¹⁴Seven sons of a Jewish ruling kohen named Sceva were doing this. ¹⁵But the evil spirit answered them, “I know Yeshua ¹19:10, 22, 26, 27, 31. The Roman province of Asia, in the western part of Asia Minor (now part of Turkey).

and I know about Paul, but who are you?"

¹⁶Then the man with the evil spirit sprang at them, subduing and overpowering all of them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. ¹⁷This became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jewish and Greek people. Fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Yeshua was being magnified.

¹⁸Many also of those who had believed came confessing and recounting their practices. ¹⁹And many of those who practiced magic arts brought their books together in a heap, burning them before everyone. They totaled the value of the books and found it to be about fifty thousand pieces of silver. ²⁰So the word of the Lord was growing in power and prevailing.

Idol-Makers Start a Riot

²¹Now after these things were accomplished, Paul resolved in the Ruach to go to Jerusalem after passing through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." ²²So after sending two who were assisting him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

²³Around that time, there arose no small uproar concerning the Way. ²⁴For a man named Demetrius—a silversmith, a maker of silver shrines of Artemis—was providing no small amount of business to the craftsmen. ²⁵He gathered these together, along with those of related occupations, and he said, "Men, you know that our wealth is from this business. ²⁶You see and hear that not only in Ephesus but also throughout all Asia, Paul has persuaded and perverted a considerable crowd, saying that handmade gods are not gods at all.^a ²⁷Not only is there a danger that this trade of ours might come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis might be considered as nothing. She whom all Asia and the world worships might even be thrown down from her majesty."

²⁸When they heard, they were filled with fury and began shouting, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" ²⁹The city was filled with confusion. They rushed into the theater, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were travel companions of Paul. ³⁰Paul was wishing to enter among the crowd, but the disciples would not let him. ³¹Some of the chiefs of Asia,^b being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to surrender himself in the theater.

³²Now some cried out one thing, some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most did not know why they had come together. ³³Some of the crowd solicited Alexander, whom the Jewish people put forward. Alexander motioned with his hand. He wished to offer a defense to the crowd. ³⁴But recognizing that he was Jewish, for about two hours they all with one voice cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

³⁵After the town clerk quieted the crowd, he said, "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great Artemis and of her image fallen from heaven? ³⁶Since these things are undeniable, you must be calm and do nothing reckless. ³⁷For you have brought these men here who are neither sacrilegious nor revilers of our goddess. ³⁸If Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them accuse them. ³⁹But if you seek anything further, it will be settled in the lawful assembly. ⁴⁰For we are in danger of being charged with rioting today, there being no reason which we are able to give to justify this mob." Upon saying this, he dismissed the assembly.

Escaping Death

¹After the uproar ended, Paul sent for the disciples; and when he had encouraged them and said farewell, he departed to go to Macedonia. ²When he had passed through these parts and given them a great word of encouragement, he came to Greece,³ where he spent three months. When a plot was formed against him by the Jewish leaders as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return via Macedonia.⁴ Sopater of Berea, son of Pyrrhus, accompanied him; as well as Aristarchus and Secundus of Thessalonica; Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.⁵ These went on ahead and were waiting for us at Troas.⁶ But we sailed from Philippi after the Days of Matzah. In five days we came to them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

⁷Now on the first day of the week, we gathered to break bread. Paul was talking with them, intending to leave the next day, so he prolonged his speech till midnight.⁸ There were many lamps in the upper chamber where we were meeting.⁹ Now a young man named Eutychus was sitting in a windowsill, sinking into a deep sleep as Paul kept on talking. Overcome by sleep, he fell from the third story and was picked up—dead.

¹⁰But Paul went down, fell on him and threw his arms around him. He said, “Don’t be upset, for his life is within him.”^d ¹¹After he went back up and broke the bread and ate, he talked with them a long while until daybreak and then left.¹² So they took the boy away alive, greatly relieved.

Prophetic Warnings

¹³But we went on ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there—for so he had arranged, intending himself to travel there by land.¹⁴ When he met us at Assos, we took him on board and went to Mitylene.¹⁵ Sailing from there, we arrived the next day opposite Chios; the next day we crossed over to Samos, and the day after that we came to Miletus.¹⁶ For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he might not spend much time in Asia, because he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Shavuot.

¹⁷From Miletus, dispatching someone to Ephesus, he called for the elders of the community.¹⁸ When they came to him, he said to them, “You yourselves know how I behaved among you all the time from the first day I set foot in Asia,¹⁹ serving the Lord with all humility and tears and trials which fell upon me through the plots of the Jewish leaders.²⁰ I did not shrink back from proclaiming to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly as well as from house to house,²¹ testifying to both Jewish and Greek people repentance to God and trust in our Lord Yeshua.”

²²“And now, look, bound by the Ruach, I am going to Jerusalem—not knowing what will happen to me there,²³ except that the Ruach ha-Kodesh bears witness to me from city to city, saying that bondage and afflictions await me.²⁴ However, I don’t consider my life of any value, except that I might finish my course and the office I received from the Lord Yeshua, to declare the Good News of the grace of God.

²⁵“Now, look! I know that none of you, among whom I have gone proclaiming the kingdom, will ever see my face again.

²⁶Therefore, I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all.²⁷ For I did not shrink back from declaring to you the whole purpose of God.

²⁸“Take care of yourselves and all the flock of which the Ruach ha-Kodesh has made you overseers, to shepherd the community of God—which He obtained with the blood of His own.^e ²⁹I know that after my departure, savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.^f ³⁰Even from among yourselves will arise men speaking perversions, to draw the disciples away after themselves.³¹ Therefore be alert, remembering that night and day for three years I did not stop warning you with tears.

³²“Now I commit you to God and the word of His grace, which is strong to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all who have been made holy.³³ I coveted no one’s silver or gold or clothing.³⁴ You yourselves know that these hands of mine have provided for my own needs as well as for those with me.³⁵ In all things I have shown you an object lesson—that by hard work one must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Yeshua, that He Himself said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”^a ³⁶When he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. ³⁷They all began weeping and falling upon Paul’s neck and kissing him, ³⁸grieving most of all over the statement he made that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Going to Jerusalem Despite Warnings

¹After tearing ourselves away from them and setting sail, we set a straight course to Cos, the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. ²Finding a ship crossing to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail. ³When we came in sight of Cyprus, passing it by on the left, we kept sailing to Syria and landed at Tyre—for there the ship was to unload the cargo. ⁴We looked up the disciples and stayed there seven days. They kept telling Paul through the Ruach not to set foot in Jerusalem.

⁵When our days there were over, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, accompanied us until we were outside the city. After kneeling down on the shore and praying, ⁶we said farewell to one another. Then we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

⁷When we had finished the trip from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers and sisters and stayed with them for one day. ⁸On the next day, we departed and came to Caesarea. We entered the home of Philip, the proclaimer of Good News, who was one of the seven, and we stayed with him. ⁹Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.

¹⁰While we stayed there for a number of days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹He came to us, took Paul’s belt, tied his own hands and feet, and said, “The Ruach ha-Kodesh says this: ‘In this way shall the Jewish people in Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.’”

¹²When we heard these things, both we and the local people urged Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³Then Paul responded, “What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound but to die for the name of the Lord Yeshua!”

¹⁴Since he would not be persuaded, we fell silent, saying only, “May the Lord’s will be done.”

¹⁵After these days, we packed and started going up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing us to Mnason of Cyprus—one of the early disciples by whom we might be hosted.

Advice from Jacob and the Elders

¹⁷When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters welcomed us gladly. ¹⁸On the next day, Paul went in with us to Jacob; all the elders were present. ¹⁹After greeting them, he reported to them in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through his service. ²⁰And when they heard, they began glorifying God.

They said, “You see, brother, how many myriads there are among the Jewish people who have believed—and they are all zealous for the Torah. ²¹They have been told about you—that you teach all the Jewish people among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or to walk according to the customs. ²²What’s to be done then? No doubt they will hear that you have come.

²³“So do what we tell you. We have four men who have a vow on themselves.^b ²⁴Take them, and purify yourself^c along with them and pay their expenses, so that they may shave their heads. That way, all will realize there is nothing to the things they have been told about you, but that you yourself walk in an orderly manner, keeping the Torah.

²⁵“As for Gentiles who have believed, however, we have written by letter what we decided—for them to abstain from what is offered to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from immorality.”

²⁶The next day Paul took the men, purifying himself along with them. He went into the Temple, announcing when the days of purification would be completed and the sacrifice would be offered for each one of them.

Trouble at the Temple

²⁷When the seven days were about to be completed, the Jewish leaders from Asia^d saw Paul in the Temple and began stirring up the whole crowd. They grabbed him, ²⁸shouting, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who is teaching all men everywhere against our people and the Torah and this place. Besides, he has even brought Greeks into the Temple and defiled^e this holy place!”

²⁹For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they assumed that Paul had brought him into the Temple. ³⁰The whole city was stirred up, and the people rushed together. They grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the Temple, and the gates were shut at once.

³¹As they were trying to kill him, news came to the commander of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in chaos. ³²Immediately he took soldiers and centurions and rushed down to them. Upon seeing the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. ³³Then the commander came up, arrested Paul, ordered him to be bound with two chains, and began investigating what he had done. ³⁴Some in the crowd shouted one thing, and some another. As he could not determine the facts because of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into headquarters.

³⁵When he came to the steps, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd. ³⁶For the multitude of people that followed kept shouting, “Away with him!”

³⁷As Paul was about to be brought into the headquarters, he said to the commander, “Can I say something to you?”

The commander said, “You know Greek? ³⁸Then you’re not the Egyptian who stirred up a rebellion some time ago—and led four thousand men of the Assassins out into the desert?”

³⁹Paul said, “I am a Jewish man from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, let me speak to the people.”

⁴⁰When the commander had given him permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the people with his hand. When there was a great hush, he spoke to them in Aramaic,^f saying:

22

Paul’s Testimony on the Temple Stairs

¹“Brothers and fathers, listen to my defense which I now present to you.” ²When they heard that Paul was addressing them in Aramaic, they became even more quiet. Then he said, ³“I am a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, trained strictly according to the Torah of our fathers, being zealous for God just as all of you are today. ⁴I persecuted this Way to the death, arresting both men and women and throwing them in prisons—⁵as the kohen gadol and all the council of elders can testify about me. I also received letters from them to the brothers, and I went to Damascus to bring back to Jerusalem even those who were there in chains—to be punished.

⁶“But it happened that as I was traveling and drawing near to Damascus, about noon a great light from heaven suddenly flashed all around me. ⁷I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?’

⁸“I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“He said to me, ‘I am Yeshua ha-Natzrati, whom you are persecuting.’

^f 21:40; 22:2; 26:14. Lit. the Hebrew dialect.

⁹“Now those who were with me saw the light, but did not understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me. ¹⁰So I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’

“And the Lord said to me, ‘Get up, and go to Damascus. There you will be told all that you have been appointed to do.’

¹¹“But since I could not see because of the brilliance of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me and came into Damascus. ¹²Then a certain Ananias—a devout man according to the Torah, well spoken of by all the Jewish people living there—¹³came to me. Standing before me, he said to me, ‘Brother Saul, look up!’ In that very moment, I looked and saw him!

¹⁴“And he said, ‘The God of our fathers handpicked you to know His will—to see the Righteous One and to hear an utterance from His mouth. ¹⁵For you will be a witness for Him to all people of what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶Now why are you waiting? Get up and be immersed, and wash away your sins, calling on His Name.’

¹⁷“It happened that when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the Temple, I fell into a trance; ¹⁸and I saw Him saying to me, ‘Hurry! Get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your witness about Me.’

¹⁹“And I said, ‘Lord, they themselves know that in one synagogue after another, I was imprisoning and beating those trusting in You. ²⁰Even when the blood of Your witness Stephen was spilled, I too was standing by and approving, and guarding the clothing of those who were killing him.’

²¹“And he said to me, ‘Go! For I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’”

²²Up to this statement they listened to him. Then they raised their voices, saying, “Away from the earth with this fellow! For he’s not fit to live!”

The Romans Intervene

²³As they were crying out and flinging off their cloaks and throwing dust into the air,^a ²⁴the commander ordered Paul to be brought into headquarters. He said Paul should be examined by lashing, so that he might find out why they were shouting against him so. ²⁵But when they stretched him out with straps, Paul said to the centurion standing there, “Is it legal for you to scourge a man who is a Roman citizen without due process?”

²⁶Now when the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and reported it, saying, “What are you going to do? For this man is Roman.”

²⁷The commander came and said to him, “Tell me, are you Roman?”

And he said, “Yes.”

²⁸The commander answered, “I bought this citizenship for a large sum.”

Paul said, “But I was born so.”

²⁹Therefore, those who were about to interrogate him instantly drew back from him. And the commander also was afraid when he found out that Paul was a Roman and that he had bound him.

Delivered to the Council

³⁰But on the next day, desiring to know exactly why Paul had been accused by the Judeans, he released him and commanded the ruling kohanim and all the Sanhedrin to meet together. And he brought Paul and set him before them.

¹Paul, looking intently at the Sanhedrin, said, “Brothers, I have lived my life in all good conscience for God up to this day.” ²But the kohen gadol Ananias ordered those standing by him to strike him on the mouth.

³Then Paul said to him, “God is going to strike you on the mouth, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit judging me according to the Torah, and yet in violation of the Torah you order me to be struck?”^b

⁴Those standing nearby said, “Do you insult God’s kohen gadol?”

⁵Paul said, “I didn’t know, brothers, that he is the kohen gadol. For it has been written, "You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people."^c

^b 23:3. cf. Lev. 19:15; Deut. 25:2.

⁶But recognizing that one group was Sadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul began crying out in the Sanhedrin, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees! I am on trial because of the hope of the resurrection of the dead!"

⁷When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁸For the Sadducees say there is no resurrection or angel or spirit, but the Pharisees affirm them all. ⁹Then there was a great uproar. Some of the Torah scholars of the Pharisees' party stood up and protested sharply, "We find nothing wrong with this man! What if a spirit or angel has spoken to him?"

¹⁰As a big dispute was developing, the commander was afraid that Paul would be torn to pieces by them. So he ordered the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them and to bring him into headquarters.

¹¹The following night the Lord stood beside Paul and said, "Take courage! For just as you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome!"

Conspiracy to Kill Paul

¹²When it was day, the Judean leaders formed a conspiracy. They bound themselves by an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. ¹³There were more than forty who formed this plot. ¹⁴They went to the ruling kohanim and elders and said, "We have bound ourselves with a solemn oath to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵So now you and the Sanhedrin serve notice to the commander to bring him down to you—like you are about to investigate his case more thoroughly. But we are ready to kill him before he comes near."

¹⁶But the son of Paul's sister heard of their ambush. He went into the headquarters and told Paul. ¹⁷Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has a message for him."

¹⁸So the centurion took him and led him to the commander and said, "The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, as he has something to say to you."

¹⁹The commander took him by the hand, stepped aside, and began asking him privately, "What is it that you have to report to me?"

²⁰And he said, "The Judean leaders have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin tomorrow—as if they are about to investigate more thoroughly about him. ²¹But do not give in to them, for more than forty of them have bound themselves by an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. Even now, they are ready and waiting for your consent."

²²So the commander dismissed the young man, charging him, "Tell no one that you have informed me about these things."

Escorted to Caesarea

²³Calling two of his centurions, he said, "At the third hour of the night,^d prepare two hundred soldiers, along with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, to proceed as far as Caesarea. ²⁴Also provide mounts for Paul to ride, so that he might be brought safely to Felix the governor."

²⁵He wrote a letter to this effect:

²⁶"Claudius Lysias,
To the Most Excellent Governor Felix:
Greetings!

²⁷This man was seized by the Judean leaders and was about to be killed by them, when I came on the scene with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he is a Roman citizen. ²⁸Desiring to know the charge of which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their Sanhedrin. ²⁹I found that he was accused concerning issues of their law, but charged with nothing worthy of death or imprisonment. ³⁰When I was informed that there was a plot against the man, I sent him to you immediately, also ordering his accusers to state before you what they have against him."

^c 23:5. Exod. 22:28.

^d 23:23. 9 p.m.

³¹So the soldiers, in keeping with their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. ³²On the next day, they returned to headquarters, leaving the horsemen to go on with him. ³³When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul before him. ³⁴Upon reading the letter, the governor asked what province he was from. When he learned that Paul was from Cilicia, ³⁵he said, “I will give you a hearing when your accusers have arrived also.” Then he gave orders for Paul to be guarded in Herod’s Praetorium.

Defense Before Governor Felix

¹After five days, the kohen gadol Ananias came down with some of the elders and an attorney named Tertullus. They brought formal charges against Paul before the governor. ²When Paul was called in, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “We are enjoying much peace through you, and reforms are introduced for this nation because of your foresight. ³We acknowledge this, most excellent Felix, in every way and every place with all gratitude.

⁴“But in order that I may not weary you any longer, I beg you in your kindness to hear us briefly. ⁵For we have found this man to be a pest, stirring up riots among all the Jewish people throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Natzratim. ⁶He even tried to defile the Temple, but we seized him. ⁷By examining him yourself, you will be able to learn from him all these things about which we accuse him.”

⁹The Judean leaders also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were true. ¹⁰When the governor nodded for him to speak, Paul responded: “Knowing that you have been judge over this nation for many years, I gladly make my own defense. ¹¹As you can verify, it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. ¹²They did not find me arguing with anyone or inciting a riot—not in the Temple or in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city. ¹³Nor can they prove to you the charges they now bring against me.

^a Some mss. add 24:6b-8a: We wanted to judge him according to our own Torah. But the commander Lysias came along, and with much violence took him out of our hands, ordering his accusers to come before you.

¹⁴“But this I confess to you, that according to the Way (which they call a sect), I worship the God of our fathers, ^bbelieving everything written in the Torah and the Prophets. ¹⁵In God I have a hope—which these men also wait for—that there will surely be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. ^c

¹⁶“Therefore I do my best always to have a clear conscience before both God and men. ¹⁷Now after several years, I came to bring tzedakah to my country for the poor and to present offerings. ¹⁸As I was doing this, they found me in the Temple, having been purified—without any crowd or uproar. ¹⁹But there were some Jewish people from Asia, who ought to be here before you to press charges if they have anything against me. ²⁰Or let these men themselves tell what wrongdoing they found when I stood before the Sanhedrin— ²¹except for this one cry I shouted out while standing among them: ‘It is about the resurrection of the dead that today I am on trial before you.’”

In Prison for Two Years

²²But Felix, having a rather extensive knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, “When Lysias the commander comes down, I will rule on your case.” ²³Then he gave the centurion orders for Paul to be kept in custody and yet have some freedom, and not to prevent any of his friends from attending to his needs.

²⁴Now some days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and listened to him speak about faith in Messiah Yeshua. ²⁵But as he was arguing about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became afraid and said, “Go away for now! When I find time, I will summon you.”

²⁶At the same time too, he was hoping that money would be given to him by Paul; so he sent for him frequently and would talk with him. ²⁷But after two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and wishing to do the Judean leaders a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

Appeal to Caesar

¹Three days after Festus arrived in the province, he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.

²There the ruling kohanim and the leading Judeans brought charges against Paul. They were urging him, ³asking a favor—to have Paul sent to Jerusalem, planning an ambush to kill him on the road.

⁴Festus then answered that Paul was being guarded at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to go there shortly. ⁵“So then,” he said, “let the prominent men among you go down with me; and if there is any wrong in the man, let them accuse him.”

⁶After spending not more than eight to ten days with them, he went down to Caesarea. The next day, he sat on the judgment seat and ordered Paul to be brought in. ⁷When he arrived, the Judeans who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many serious charges which they could not prove.

⁸Paul said in his defense, “I have committed no offense against the Torah of the Jewish people, or against the Temple, or against Caesar.”

⁹But Festus, wanting to do the Jewish leaders a favor, said to Paul, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to be tried before me?”

¹⁰But Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Judeans, as you very well know. ¹¹If then I am in the wrong and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not seek to escape death. But if there is nothing to their charges, no one can turn me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!”

¹²Then when Festus had consulted with the council, he responded, “You have appealed to Caesar—to Caesar you shall go!”

Festus Seeks Agrippa’s Counsel

¹³Now after several days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus. ¹⁴While they were staying there several days, Festus laid Paul’s case before the king, saying, “There is a man left behind as a prisoner by Felix. ¹⁵When I was in Jerusalem, the ruling kohanim and elders of the Judeans brought charges against him, asking for a judgment against him. ¹⁶I answered them that it is not Roman practice to turn over anyone before the accused meets his accusers face to face and has an opportunity to make his defense concerning the charges.

¹⁷So when they came together here, I did not delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat and ordered the man to be brought in. ¹⁸When the accusers stood up, they were not bringing a charge of what crimes I suspected. ¹⁹Instead, they had certain issues with him about their own religion and about a certain Yeshua, who had died, whom Paul claimed to be alive.

²⁰“Since I was at a loss as to how to investigate these matters, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem to be tried there in regard to them. ²¹But when Paul appealed to be held in custody for the decision of His Majesty the Emperor, I ordered him to be held until I could send him to Caesar.”

²²Then Agrippa said to Festus, “I would like to hear the man myself.”

“Tomorrow,” he said, “you shall hear him.”

²³So on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pageantry. They entered the audience hall with the commanders and the most prominent men of the city. Then at the order of Festus, Paul was brought in.

²⁴Festus said, “King Agrippa and all present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Judean population petitioned me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting out that he ought not live any longer. ²⁵But I found that he had done nothing deserving of death; and when he himself appealed to His Majesty the Emperor, I decided to send him.²⁶ Yet I have nothing specific to write to my lord about him. Therefore I have brought him before you—and especially before you, King Agrippa—so that after the investigation has taken place, I might have something to write.²⁷ For it seems illogical to me when sending a prisoner, not to report also the charges against him.”

26

Defense Before King Agrippa

¹Agrippa said to Paul, “It is permitted for you to speak for yourself.”

Then Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense.² “Concerning all I am accused of by the Judean leaders, I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, that it is before you that I am about to make my defense today—³since you are especially knowledgeable about all Jewish customs and issues. Therefore I beg you to listen patiently to me.

⁴“Now all the Jewish people have known my manner of life ever since my youth, starting from the beginning in my own nation and also in Jerusalem.⁵ They have known about me for a long time—if they were willing to testify—that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I lived as a Pharisee.

⁶“Yet now I stand here being judged for the hope in the promise made by God to our fathers.⁷ It is the promise that our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day. And for this hope I am accused by Jewish people, O King!⁸ Why is it judged incredible by any of you that God raises the dead?

⁹“In fact, I myself thought it was necessary to do many things in opposition to the name of Yeshua ha-Natzrati.¹⁰ And that is what I did in Jerusalem. Not only did I lock up many of the kedoshim in prisons by the authority I received from the ruling kohanim, but I cast my vote against them when they were being condemned to death.¹¹ I tried to cause them to blaspheme by punishing them often in the synagogues. In furious rage against them, I persecuted them even in foreign cities.

¹²“While journeying to Damascus with the authority and commission of the ruling kohanim,¹³ at midday, O King, I saw on the road a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those traveling with me.¹⁴ When we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against goats!’

¹⁵“Then I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“And the Lord said, ‘I am Yeshua—whom you are persecuting.¹⁶ But get up, and stand on your feet.’¹⁷ For I have appeared to you for this purpose—to appoint you as a servant and witness to the things you have seen as well as to the things I will yet reveal to you.¹⁸ I will rescue you^b from your own people, and from the Gentiles to whom I am sending you,¹⁹ to open their eyes—so they may turn from darkness to light^c and from the power of satan to God, that they may receive release from sins as well as a place among those who are made holy through trusting in Me.’

²⁰“Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision.²¹ Rather, I kept declaring—first to those in Damascus, and then Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also the Gentiles—that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds consistent with that repentance.

²²“For this reason some Judeans seized me in the Temple and tried to put me to death.²³ Since I have had God’s help, to this day I have stood here testifying to both small and great. I am saying nothing but what the Prophets and Moses said was going to happen—²⁴that the Messiah was to suffer and that, being first to rise from the dead, He would proclaim light both to our people and to the nations.^d”

²⁵“As Paul was thus making his defense, Festus says with a loud voice, “You’re crazy, Paul! Your great learning is driving you insane!”

²⁶“But Paul declares, “I am not insane, most noble Festus! Rather I am speaking the sober truth. ²⁶For the king knows about these things, and I speak freely to him, since I am convinced that none of these things escape his notice—for this was not done in a corner. ²⁷King Agrippa, do you believe the Prophets? I know that you do believe!”

²⁸Agrippa said to Paul, “In a short time you are trying to persuade me to be Messianic!”^e

²⁹And Paul said, “Whether short or long, I would pray to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today would be such as I am—except for these chains!”

³⁰Then the king stood up, as well as the governor, Bernice, and those sitting with them. ³¹When they had gone away, they began talking among themselves, saying, “This man is doing nothing deserving of death or chains.”

³²Then Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free, if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

Sailing for Rome

¹When it was decided that we should sail for Italy, they handed Paul and some other prisoners over to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan Cohort. ²So we boarded a ship from Adramyttium, which was about to sail to the ports along the coast of Asia, and we set out to sea—accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica.

³The next day we set down at Sidon. Julius, treating Paul kindly, let him go to his friends to receive care. ⁴Setting out to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were against us. ⁵When we had sailed across the open sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came down to Myra in Lysia. ⁶There the centurion found a ship from Alexandria sailing for Italy and put us on board.

⁷Sailing slowly for a number of days, with difficulty we made it to Cnidus. As the wind did not allow us to go further, we sailed under the shelter of Crete, off Salmone. ⁸Coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

⁹Since considerable time had passed and the voyage was already dangerous because the Fast^f had already gone by, Paul kept warning them, ¹⁰telling them, “Men, I can see that the voyage is about to end in disaster and great loss—not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives!”

¹¹But the centurion was persuaded more by the pilot and the captain of the ship than by what was said by Paul. ¹²And because the harbor was unsuitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to set out to sea from there—if somehow they might reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete facing northeast and southeast, and spend the winter there.

Storm and Shipwreck

¹³When the south wind blew gently, supposing they had obtained their purpose, they raised the anchor and started coasting along the shore by Crete. ¹⁴But before long, a hurricane-forcé wind called “the Northeaster” swept down from the island. ¹⁵When the ship was caught and could not face into the wind, we gave way to it and were driven along. ¹⁶As we ran under the shelter of a small island called Cauda, we were barely able to get control of the dinghy. ¹⁷When the crew had hoisted it up, they made use of ropes to undergird the ship. Then fearing they might run aground on the Syrtis,^g they let down the anchor and so were driven along. ¹⁸But as we were violently battered by the storm, the next day they began throwing cargo overboard. ¹⁹On the third day, they threw out the ship’s gear with their own hands. ²⁰With neither sun nor stars appearing for many days, and no small storm pressing on us, all hope of our survival was vanishing.

²¹As they had long been without food, Paul stood up in their midst and said, “Men, you should have listened to me and not sailed from Crete, to avoid this disaster and loss. ²²Yet now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you—but only of the ship. ²³For this very night, there came to me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve. ²⁴He said, ‘Do not fear, Paul. You must stand before Caesar; and indeed, God has granted you all who are sailing with you.’ ²⁵So take heart, men, for I trust God that it will be exactly as I have been told. ²⁶But we must run aground on some island.”

²⁷Now when the fourteenth night had come, as we were drifting across the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors began to sense that they were nearing some land. ²⁸So they took soundings and found the water was twenty fathoms deep. ^aA bit farther along, they took another sounding and found it was fifteen fathoms deep. ²⁹Fearing that we might run aground on the rocks, they threw out four anchors from the stern. They were longing for day to come.

³⁰Now the sailors were trying to escape from the ship and had lowered the dinghy into the sea, pretending they were going to put out anchors from the bow. ³¹Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men remain on the ship, you cannot be saved!”

³²Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the dinghy and let it drift away. ³³As day was about to dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day that you have kept waiting and going without food, having taken nothing. ³⁴Therefore, I urge you to take some food—for this is for your survival, since not one of you will lose a hair from his head.”

³⁵And when he had said these things, he took bread, gave thanks to God before them all, broke it, and began to eat. ³⁶Then all were encouraged and took some food themselves. ³⁷(In all we were 276 persons on the ship.)

³⁸When they had eaten enough, they began to lighten the ship, throwing the wheat into the sea. ³⁹Then when daylight came, they did not recognize the land; but they noticed a bay with a beach, where they planned to run the ship aground if they could. ⁴⁰So they cut off the anchors and left them in the sea, while loosening the ropes of the rudders at the same time. Then, hoisting the forward sail to the wind, they made for the beach. ⁴¹But they struck a sandbar between the seas and ran the ship aground. The bow stuck fast and remained immovable, and the stern began to break up by the pounding of the waves.

⁴²The plan of the soldiers was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would escape by swimming away. ⁴³But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those able to swim to throw themselves overboard first and get to land—⁴⁴and the rest to get there on boards and pieces of the ship. And in this way all were brought safely to land.

From Malta to Rome

¹Once safely ashore, we learned that the island was called Malta. ²The natives showed us unusual kindness. Because it had started raining and it was cold, they kindled a fire and welcomed us all.

³But when Paul had gathered a bundle of brushwood and placed it on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened on his hand. ⁴When the natives saw the snake hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, “No doubt this man is a murderer! Though he has been saved from the sea, Justice^b has not allowed him to live.”

⁵However, Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no harm. ⁶They were expecting him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead—but after they waited a long time and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and began to say he was a god.

⁷Now in the vicinity around that place were lands belonging to the most prominent man of the island, named Publius. He welcomed us and hosted us warmly for three days. ⁸It so happened that the father of Publius was lying in bed sick with a fever and dysentery. Paul visited him and, when he had prayed and laid hands on him, he healed him. ⁹After this happened, the rest of the sick on the island started coming and getting healed. ¹⁰They also heaped honors on us; and when we sailed, they put on board all the supplies we needed.

¹¹After three months, we set sail in a ship from Alexandria that had wintered at the island, with the Twin Brothers^c as its figurehead. ¹²Setting down at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. ¹³From there we got underway^d and reached Rhegium; and a day later a south wind came up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli. ¹⁴There we found some brothers and sisters, and we were invited to stay with them for seven days. And in this way we came to Rome.

¹⁵Now the brothers there, when they heard about us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he gave thanks to God and took courage. ¹⁶When we entered Rome, Paul was permitted to remain in his own quarters, with a soldier guarding him.

Paul Keeps Spreading the Good News

¹⁷It happened that after three days, Paul called together those who were the prominent Jewish leaders. When they had gathered he said to them, “Brothers, although I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. ¹⁸When they examined me, they wanted to release me because there was no basis for the death penalty. ¹⁹But when the Judean leaders protested, I was forced to appeal to Caesar—not that I had any charge to bring against my own nation. ²⁰For this reason, therefore, I have requested to see you and to speak with you—since it is for the hope of Israel that I am bearing this chain.”

^c 28:11. Grk. Dioscuri, Sons of Zeus; the twin brothers Castor and Pollux, the gods of navigation, were the ship’s patron deities.

²¹They said to him, “We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brothers coming here has reported or spoken any evil about you. ²²But we think it appropriate to hear from you about what you think. For indeed, it is known to us that regarding this sect, it is spoken against everywhere.”

²³They set a day to meet Paul and came to him at his quarters in large numbers. From morning until evening he was explaining everything to them, testifying about the kingdom of God and trying to persuade them about Yeshua from both the Torah of Moses and the Prophets. ²⁴Some were convinced by what he said, while others refused to believe. ²⁵So when they disagreed among themselves, they began leaving after Paul had said one last statement: “The Ruach ha-Kodesh rightly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers, ²⁶saying,

‘Go to this people and say,

“You will keep on hearing but will never understand;

you will keep looking, but will never see.

²⁷For the heart of this people has become dull,

their ears can barely hear,

and they have shut their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes,

hear with their ears,

and understand with their hearts.

Then they would turn back,

and I would heal them.”^e

²⁸Therefore let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!”^{29f}

³⁰Paul remained two whole years in his own rented quarters and continued to welcome all who came to him—³¹proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Yeshua the Messiah with all boldness and without hindrance.

Introducing Paul and His Message

¹Paul, a slave of Messiah Yeshua, called to be an emissary and set apart for the Good News of God, ²which He announced beforehand through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures.

³Concerning His Son,

He came into being from the seed of David according to the flesh.

⁴He was appointed Ben-Elohim

in power
according to the Ruach of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.

He is Messiah Yeshua

our Lord.

⁵Through Him we have received grace and the office of emissary, to bring about obedience of faith among all the nations on behalf of His name. ⁶And you also are called to Yeshua the Messiah.

⁷To all those in Rome, loved by God, called to be kedoshim:

Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

Eager to Visit

⁸First, I thank my God through Messiah Yeshua for all of you, because your faithfulness is made known throughout the whole world. ⁹For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the Good News of His Son. How unceasingly I make mention of you, ¹⁰always pleading in my prayers, if somehow by God's will now at last I will be granted a good journey to come to you. ¹¹For I long to see you, so I may share with you some spiritual gift to strengthen you. ¹²That is to say, we would be encouraged together by one another's faithfulness—both yours and mine.

¹³I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters,^a that many times I planned to come to you (though I was prevented until now)—so I might have some fruit among you also, just as I have among the rest of the nations. ¹⁴I have an obligation to both Greeks and barbarians, to both the wise and the foolish. ¹⁵So I am eager to proclaim the Good News also to you who are in Rome.

The Righteous Shall Live by Faith

¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the Good News, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who trusts—to the Jew first and also to the Greek. ¹⁷In it the righteousness of God is revealed, from trust to trust.^b As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by emunah."^c

Yet All Are Guilty

¹⁸For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men. In unrighteousness they suppress the truth, ¹⁹because what can be known about God is plain to them—for God has shown it to them. ²⁰His invisible attributes—His eternal power and His divine nature—have been clearly seen ever since the creation of the world, being understood through the things that have been made.^d So people are without excuse—²¹for even though they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God or give Him thanks. Instead, their thinking became futile, and their senseless hearts were made dark.^e ²²Claiming to be wise, they became fools. ²³They exchanged the glory of the immortal God for an image in the form of mortal man and birds and four-footed beasts and creeping things.^f

^a 1:13; 7:1, 4; 8:29; 10:1; 11:25; 12:1; 15:14, 30; 16:14, 16. Lit. brothers (in Messiah's community).

²⁴Therefore God gave them over in the evil desires of their hearts to impunity, to dishonor their bodies with one another. ²⁵They traded the truth of God for a lie and worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. ²⁶For this reason God gave them up to shameful passions. Even their women exchanged natural relations for what is against nature. ²⁷Likewise the men abandoned natural relations with women and were burning with passion toward one another—men committing shameful acts with other men^e and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

²⁸And just as they did not see fit to recognize God, God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what is not fitting. ²⁹They became filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice. They are gossips, ³⁰slanders, God-haters, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents. ³¹They are foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. ³²Though they know God's righteous decree—that those who practice such things deserve death—they not only do them but also approve of others who practice the same.

God's Judgment on Unrighteousness

¹Therefore you are without excuse, O man—every one of you who is judging. For by whatever you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. ²We know that God's judgment on those who practice such things is based on truth. ³But you, O man—judging those practicing such things yet doing the same—do you suppose that you will escape the judgment of God? ⁴Or do you belittle the riches of His kindness and tolerance and patience—not realizing that God's kindness leads you to repentance?

⁵But by your hard and unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment is revealed. ⁶He will pay back each person according to his deeds. ⁷To those who by perseverance in doing good are seeking glory, honor, and immortality—eternal life. ⁸But to those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness—wrath and fury. ⁹There will be trouble and hardship for every human soul that does evil—to the Jew first and also to the Greek. ¹⁰But there will be glory, honor, and shalom to everyone who does good—to the Jew first and also to the Greek. ¹¹For there is no partiality with God. ^k

¹²For all who have sinned outside of Torah will also perish outside of Torah, and all who have sinned according to Torah will be judged by Torah. ¹³For it is not the hearers of Torah who are righteous before God; rather, it is the doers of Torah who will be justified. ¹⁴For when Gentiles, who do not have the Torah, do by nature the things of the Torah, they are a law to themselves even though they do not have the Torah. ¹⁵They show that the work of the Torah is written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts switching between accusing or defending them ¹⁶on the day when God judges the secrets of men according to my Good News through Messiah Yeshua.

Jewish People Fall Short Too

¹⁷But if you call yourself Jewish and rely upon the Torah and boast in God ¹⁸and know His will and determine what matters because you are instructed from the Torah— ¹⁹and you are sure that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, ²⁰a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, having in the Torah the embodiment of knowledge and the truth—

²¹you then who teach another, do you not teach yourself?

You who preach not to steal, do you steal?

²²You who say not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery?

ⁱ 2:5. cf. Deut. 32:34-35.

^j 2:6. cf. Ps. 62:12, Prov. 24:12, Matt. 16:27, 2 Cor. 5:10, Col. 3:25, 2 Tim. 4:14, 1 Pet. 1:17, Rev. 2:23.

^e 1:27. cf. Lev. 18:22; 20:13.

^f 2:1. cf. 2 Sam. 12:5-7; Matt. 7:1-2.

You who detest idols, do you rob temples?

²³You who take pride in the Torah, through your violation of the Torah, do you dishonor God?

²⁴For as it is written, “the name of God is slandered among the nations because of you.”^a

²⁵Circumcision is indeed worthwhile if you keep the Torah; but if you break the Torah, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.^b ²⁶Therefore, if the uncircumcised keeps the righteous decrees of the Torah, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?^c

²⁷Indeed, the one not circumcised physically who fulfills the Torah will judge you^d who—even with the written code^e and circumcision—break the Torah. ²⁸For one is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision something visible in the flesh. ²⁹Rather, the Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart—in Spirit not in letter. His praise is not from men, but from God.^f

No One Is Acceptable

¹Then what is the advantage of being Jewish? Or what is the benefit of circumcision? ²Much in every way. First of all, they were entrusted with the sayings of God. ³So what if some did not trust? Will their lack of faith nullify God’s faithfulness? ⁴May it never be! Let God be true even if every man is a liar, as it is written,

“that You may be righteous in Your words and prevail when You are judged.”^g

⁵But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? God is not unrighteous to inflict wrath, is He? (I am speaking in human terms.) ⁶May it never be! For otherwise, how will God judge the world? ⁷But if by my lie the truth of God abounds to His glory, why am I still judged as a sinner? ⁸And why not say, “Let us do evil, so that good may come” — just as we are being slandered and as some claim that we say. Their condemnation is deserved!

⁹What then? Are we better than they? No, not at all.^h For we have already made the case that all—both Jewish and Greek people—are under sin. ¹⁰As it is written,

“There is no one righteous—no, not one.

¹¹There is no one who understands, no one who seeks after God.

¹²All have turned aside; together they have become worthless.

There is no one who does good—no, not even one!

¹³Their throat is an open grave; with their tongues they keep deceiving.

The poison of vipers is under their lips.

¹⁴Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

¹⁵Their feet are swift to shed blood.

¹⁶Ruin and misery are in their paths,

¹⁷and the way of shalom they have not known.

¹⁸There is no fear of God before their eyes.”ⁱ

¹⁹Now we know that whatever the Torah says, it says to those within the Torah, so that every mouth may be shut and the whole world may become accountable to God. ²⁰For no human, on the basis of Torah observance, will be set right in His sight^j—for through the Torah comes awareness of sin.

How God Accepts Us

²¹But now God’s righteousness apart from the Torah has been revealed, to which the Torah and the Prophets bear witness—²²namely, the righteousness of God through putting trust in Messiah Yeshua,^k to all who keep on trusting. For there is no distinction, ²³for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. ²⁴They are set right as a gift of His grace, through the redemption that is in Messiah Yeshua.¹ ²⁵God set forth Yeshua as an atonement,^m through faith in His blood, to show His righteousness in passing over sins already committed. ²⁶Through God's forbearance, He demonstrates His righteousness at the present time—that He Himself is just and also the justifier of the one who puts his trust in Yeshua.ⁿ

²⁷Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. By what principle? Of works? No, but by the principle of faith.^o ²⁸For we consider a person to be set right apart from Torah observance. ²⁹Is God the God of the Jewish people only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also. ³⁰Since God is One, He will set right the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. ³¹Do we then nullify the Torah through faithfulness? May it never be! On the contrary, we uphold the Torah.

Abraham Set Right by Faith

¹What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has found? ²For if Abraham was set right by works, he has something to boast about—but not before God. ³For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”^p ⁴Now to the one who works, the pay is not credited as a gift, but as what is due. ⁵But to the one who does not work, but trusts in Him who justifies the ungodly, his trust is credited as righteousness—⁶just as David also speaks of the blessing on the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

¹ 3:24. cf. Isa. 53:10-12.

^m 3:25. Lit. a mercy seat, the place of atonement (Heb. kaporet); cf. Rom. 5:10; 2 Cor. 5:19, 21.

ⁿ 3:26. Or the one who lives on the basis of Yeshua's faithfulness.

^o 3:27. cf. Eph. 2:8-9.

^p 4:3. Gen. 15:6; cf. Gal. 3:6; Jacob 2:23.

⁷“Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven and whose sins are covered.

⁸Blessed is the man whose sin ADONAI will never count against him.”^q

⁹Is this blessing then only on the circumcised, or also on the uncircumcised? For we say, “trust was credited to Abraham as righteousness.”^r

¹⁰In what state then was it credited? While circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised! ¹¹And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness of the trust he had while he was uncircumcised, so he might be the father of all who are trusting while uncircumcised—that righteousness might be credited to them as well. ¹²Also he is the father of the circumcised, to those not only circumcised but also walking in the footsteps of the trust of our father Abraham before his circumcision.⁵

Trusting in the Promise

¹³For the promise to Abraham or to his seed—to become heir of the world—was not through law, but through the righteousness based on trust. ¹⁴For if those who are of the Torah are heirs, trust has become empty and the promise is made ineffective. ¹⁵For the Torah brings about wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there a violation.

¹⁶For this reason it depends on trust, so that the promise according to grace might be guaranteed to all the offspring—not only to those of the Torah but also to those of the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all ¹⁷(as it is written, “I have made you a father of many nations”^s). He is our father in the sight of God in whom he trusted, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence that which does not exist. ¹⁸In hope beyond hope, he trusted that he would become the father of many nations according to what was spoken—“So shall your descendants be.”^t ¹⁹And without becoming weak in faith, he considered his own body—as good as dead, since he was already a hundred years old—and the deadness of Sarah’s womb.²⁰ Yet he did not waver in unbelief concerning the promise of God. Rather, he was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God.²¹ He was fully convinced that what God has promised, He also is able to do.^a ²²That is why “it was credited to him as righteousness.”^b

²³Now not only for his sake was it written that it was credited to him,²⁴ but for our sake as well. It is credited to us as those who trust in Him who raised Yeshua our Lord from the dead.²⁵ He was handed over for our transgressions and raised up for the sake of setting us right.^c

Shalom with God through Messiah

¹Therefore, having been made righteous by trusting, we have shalom with God through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.^d ²Through Him we also have gained access by faith into this grace in which we stand and boast in the hope of God’s glory.³ And not only that, but we also boast in suffering—knowing that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴and perseverance, character; and character, hope.⁵ And hope does not disappoint, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Ruach ha-Kodesh who was given to us.

⁶For while we were still helpless, at the right time Messiah died for the ungodly.⁷ For rarely will anyone die for a righteous man—though perhaps for a good man someone might even dare to die.⁸ But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Messiah died for us.⁹ How much more then, having now been set right by His blood, shall we be saved from God’s wrath through Him.¹⁰ For if, while we were yet enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved by His life.¹¹ And not only that, but we also boast in God through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Yet Sin Reigns through Death

¹²So then, just as sin came into the world through one man and death through sin, in the same way death spread to all men because all sinned.¹³ For up until the Torah, sin was in the world; but sin does not count as sin when there is no law.¹⁴ Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in a manner similar to the violation of Adam, who is a pattern of the One to come.

¹⁵But the gracious gift is not like the transgression. For if many died because of the transgression of one man, how much more did the grace of God overflow to many through the gift of one Man—Yeshua the Messiah.¹⁶ Moreover, the gift is not like what happened through the one who sinned. For on the one hand, the judgment from one violation resulted in condemnation; but on the other hand, the gracious gift following many transgressions resulted in justification.^e ¹⁷For if by the one man’s transgression, death reigned through the one,^f how much more shall those who receive the overflow of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the One, Messiah Yeshua.

¹⁸So then, through the transgression of one, condemnation came to all men; likewise, through the righteousness of one came righteousness of life to all men.¹⁹ For just as through the disobedience of one man, many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of one man, many will be set right forever.^g

²⁰Now the Torah came in so that transgression might increase. But where sin increased, grace overflowed even more—²¹so that just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness, to eternal life through Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

Who Is Your Master?

¹What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin so that grace may abound? ²May it never be! How can we who died to sin still live in it? ³Or do you not know that all of us who were immersed into Messiah Yeshua were immersed into His death? ⁴Therefore we were buried together with Him through immersion into death—in order that just as Messiah was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

⁵For if we have become joined together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also will be joined together in His resurrection—⁶knowing our old man was crucified with Him so that the sinful body might be done away with, so we no longer serve sin. ⁷For he who has died is set free from sin.

⁸Now if we have died with Messiah, we believe that we shall also live with Him. ⁹We know that Messiah, having been raised from the dead, no longer dies; death no longer is master over Him. ¹⁰For the death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God. ¹¹So also continually count yourselves both dead to sin and alive to God in Messiah Yeshua.

¹²Therefore do not let sin rule in your mortal body so that you obey its desires. ¹³And do not keep yielding your body parts to sin as tools of wickedness; but yield yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your body parts as tools of righteousness to God. ¹⁴For sin shall not be master over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

¹⁵What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? May it never be! ¹⁶Do you not know that to whatever you yield yourselves as slaves for obedience, you are slaves to what you obey—whether to sin resulting in death, or to obedience resulting in righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching under which you were placed; ¹⁸and after you were set free from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness.

¹⁹I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you yielded your body parts as slaves to uncleanness and lawlessness, leading to more lawlessness, so now yield your body parts as slaves to righteousness, resulting in holiness. ²⁰For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with regard to righteousness. ²¹So then, what outcome did you have that you are now ashamed of? For the end of those things is death. ²²But now, having been set free from sin and having become enslaved to God, you have your fruit resulting in holiness. And the outcome is eternal life. ²³For sin's payment^h is death; but God's gracious gift is eternal life in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

Two Laws at War

¹Or do you not know, brothers and sisters (for I speak to those who know law), that the law is master over a person as long as he lives? ²For the married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives; but if the husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband. ³So then, if she is joined to another man while her husband is living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from the law—so she is not an adulteress, though she is joined to another man.

⁴Therefore, my brothers and sisters, you also were made dead to the Torah through the body of Messiah, so that you might be joined to another—the One who was raised from the dead—in order that we might bear fruit for God. ⁵For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions that came through the Torah were working in our body parts to bear fruit for death. ⁶But now we have been released from the law, having died to what confined us, so that we serve in the new way of the Ruach and not in the old way of the letter.

^h 6:23. Or the wages of sin.

⁷What shall we say then? Is the Torah sin? May it never be! On the contrary, I would not have known sin except through the Torah. For I would not have known about coveting if the Torah had not said, “You shall not covet.”^a ⁸But sin, taking an opportunity, worked in me through the commandment all kinds of coveting. For apart from the Torah, sin is dead.

⁹Once I was alive apart from the Torah; but when the commandment came, sin came to life ¹⁰and I died. The commandment meant for life was found to cause death. ^b¹¹Sin, taking an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. ^c¹²So then, the Torah is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

¹³Therefore did that which is good become death to me? May it never be! Rather it was sin working death in me—through that which is good—so that sin might be shown to be sin, and that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful. ¹⁴For we know that the Torah is spiritual; but I am of the flesh, sold to sin. ¹⁵For I do not understand what I am doing—for what I do not want, this I practice; but what I hate, this I do. ¹⁶But if I do what I do not want to do, then I agree with the Torah—that it is good.

¹⁷So now it is no longer I doing it, but sin dwelling in me. ¹⁸For I know that nothing good dwells in me—that is, in my flesh. For to will is present in me, but to do the good is not. ¹⁹For the good that I want, I do not do; but the evil that I do not want, this I practice. ²⁰But if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I doing it, but sin that dwells in me.

²¹So I find the principle—that evil is present in me, the one who wants to do good. ²²For I delight in the Torah of God with respect to the inner man, ²³but I see a different law in my body parts, battling against the law of my mind and bringing me into bondage under the law of sin which is in my body parts. ²⁴Miserable man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? ²⁵Thanks be to God—it is through Messiah Yeshua our Lord!^d So then, with my mind I myself serve the Torah of God; but with my flesh, I serve the law of sin.

Life in the Spirit

¹Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Messiah Yeshua. ²For the law of the Spirit of life in Messiah Yeshua has set you free from the law of sin and death. ³For what was impossible for the Torah—since it was weakened on account of the flesh—God has done. Sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as a sin offering, He condemned sin in the flesh— ⁴so that the requirement of the Torah might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Ruach.

⁵For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Ruach set their minds on the things of the Ruach. ⁶For the mindset of the flesh is death, but the mindset of the Ruach is life and shalom. ⁷For the mindset of the flesh is hostile toward God, for it does not submit itself to the law of God—for it cannot. ⁸So those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

⁹However, you are not in the flesh but in the Ruach—if indeed the Ruach Elohim dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Ruach of Messiah, he does not belong to Him. ¹⁰But if Messiah is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the Spirit is alive because of righteousness. ¹¹And if the Ruach of the One who raised Yeshua from the dead dwells in you, the One who raised Messiah Yeshua from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Ruach who dwells in you.

¹²So then, brothers and sisters, we do not owe anything to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. ¹³For if you live according to the flesh, you must die; but if by the Ruach you put to death the deeds of the body, you shall live. ¹⁴For all who are led by the Ruach Elohim, these are sons of God. ¹⁵For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall again into fear; rather, you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, “Abba! Father!” ¹⁶The Ruach Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God. ^e ¹⁷And if children, also heirs—heirs of God and joint-heirs with Messiah—if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

The Coming Glory

¹⁸For I consider the sufferings of this present time not worthy to be compared with the coming glory to be revealed to us. ¹⁹For the creation eagerly awaits the revelation of the sons of God. ²⁰For the creation was subjected to futility^f—not willingly but because of the One who subjected it^g—in hope ²¹that the creation itself also will be set free from bondage to decay into the glorious freedom of the children of God. ²²For we know that the whole creation groans together and suffers birth pains until now—²³and not only creation, but even ourselves. We ourselves, who have the firstfruits^h of the Ruach, groan inwardly as we eagerly wait for adoption—the redemption of our body.

²⁴For in hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? ²⁵But if we hope for what we do not see, then we eagerly wait for it with perseverance. ²⁶In the same way, the Ruach helps in our weakness. For we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Ruach Himself intercedes for us with groans too deep for words. ²⁷And He who searches the heartsⁱ knows the mind of the Ruach, because He intercedes for the kedoshim according to the will of God.

ⁱ 8:27. cf. Ps. 139:1-5.

²⁸Now we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to His purpose. ²⁹For those whom He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. ³⁰And those whom He predestined, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified; and those whom He justified, He also glorified.

³¹What then shall we say in view of these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³²He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how shall He not also with Him freely give us all things? ³³Who shall bring a charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies. ^k ³⁴Who is the one who condemns? It is Messiah,^l who died, and moreover was raised,^m and is now at the right hand of God and interceding for us. ³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Messiah? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? ³⁶As it is written,

“For Your sake we are being put to death all day long;
we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.”ⁿ

³⁷But in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. ³⁸For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

The Role of Israel

ha-Kodesh—²that my sorrow is great and the anguish in my heart unending. ³For I would pray that I myself were cursed, banished from Messiah for the sake of my people—my own flesh and blood,^a ⁴who are Israelites. To them belong the adoption^b and the glory^c and the covenants and the giving of the Torah^d and the Temple service^e and the promises. ⁵To them belong the patriarchs—and from them, according to the flesh, the Messiah, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.

⁶But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all those who are descended from Israel are Israel,⁷ nor are they all children because they are Abraham's seed; rather, "Your seed shall be called through Isaac."^f ⁸That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God; rather, the children of the promise are counted as seed. ⁹For the word of promise is this: "At this time I will come, and Sarah shall have a son."^g ¹⁰And not only this, but also Rebecca having twins, from one act with our father Isaac. ¹¹Yet before the sons were even born and had not done anything good or bad—so that God's purpose and choice might stand not because of works but because of Him who calls—¹²it was said to her, "The older shall serve the younger."^h ¹³As it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."ⁱ ¹⁴What shall we say then? There is no injustice with God, is there? May it never be! ¹⁵For to Moses He says,

"I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."^j

¹⁶So then it does not depend on the one who wills or the one who strives, but on God who shows mercy. ¹⁷For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I raised you up—to demonstrate My power in you, so My name might be proclaimed in all the earth."

^k ¹⁸So then He has mercy on whom He wills, and He hardens whom He wills.

¹⁹You will say to me then, "Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will?"

²⁰But who in the world are you, O man, who talks back to God? Will what is formed say to the one who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?" ²¹Does the potter have no right over the clay, to make from the same lump one vessel for honor and another for common use? ²²Now what if God, willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath designed for destruction? ²³And what if He did so to make known the riches of His glory on vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory?

²⁴Even us He called—not only from the Jewish people, but also from the Gentiles—²⁵as He says also in Hosea,

"I will call those who were not My people,
 'My people,'
 and her who was not loved, 'Beloved.'"

²⁶And it shall be that in the place where it was said to them,
 'You are not My people,' there they shall be called sons of the living God."^m

²⁷Isaiah cries out concerning Israel,

"Though the number of B'nei-Israel be as the sand of the sea,
 only the remnant shall be saved.

²⁸For ADONAI will carry out His word upon the earth, bringing it to an end and finishing quickly."ⁿ

 we would have become like Sodom and resembled Gomorrah."^o

³⁰What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained righteousness—that is, a righteousness of faith. ³¹But Israel, who pursued a Torah of righteousness, did not reach the Torah. ³²Why? Because they pursued it not by faith, but as if it were from works. They stumbled over the stone of stumbling, ³³just as it is written,

“Behold, I lay in Zion
a stone of stumbling
and a rock of offense, and whoever believes in Him shall not be put to shame.”^p 10

Misdirected Zeal

¹Brothers and sisters, my heart’s desire and my prayer to God for Israel is for their salvation. ²For I testify about them that they have zeal for God—but not based on knowledge. ³For being ignorant of God’s righteousness and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit themselves to the righteousness of God. ⁴For Messiah is the goal^q of the Torah as a means to righteousness for everyone who keeps trusting.

⁵For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on Torah, “The man who does these things shall live by them.”^r ⁶But the righteousness based on faith speaks in this way:

“Do not say in your heart,^s
“Who will go up into heaven?”^t
(that is, to bring Messiah down),
⁷or, “Who will go down into the abyss?”^u
(that is, to bring Messiah up from the dead).”

⁸But what does it say?

“The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart”^v

—that is, the word of faith that we are proclaiming:

⁹For if you confess with your mouth that Yeshua is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

¹⁰For with the heart it is believed for righteousness, and with the mouth it is confessed for salvation.

¹¹For the Scripture says, “Whoever trusts in Him will not be put to shame.”^w ¹²For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord is Lord of all—richly generous to all who call on Him. ¹³For “Everyone who calls upon the name of ADONAI shall be saved.”^x

¹⁴How then shall they call on the One in whom they have not trusted? And how shall they trust in the One they have not heard of? And how shall they hear without someone proclaiming? ¹⁵And how shall they proclaim unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim good news of good things!”^y ¹⁶But not all heeded the Good News. For Isaiah says, “ADONAI, who has believed our report?”^z ¹⁷So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Messiah.

¹⁸But I say, have they never heard? Indeed they have, for “Their voice has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.”^{aa}

¹⁹But I say, did Israel not understand? First Moses says,

“I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation, with a nation empty of understanding
I will vex you.”^{ab}

 “All day long I stretched forth My hands to a disobedient and contrary people.”^b 11

Israel Not Rejected

¹I say then, God has not rejected His people, has He?^c May it never be! For I too am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. ²God has not rejected His people whom He knew beforehand.^d Or do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel? ³“ADONAI, they have killed your prophets, they have destroyed your altars; I alone am left, and they are seeking my life.”^e ⁴But what is the divine response to him? “I have kept for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”^f ⁵So in the same way also at this present time there has come to be a remnant^g according to God’s gracious choice. ⁶But if it is by grace, it is no longer by works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

⁷What then? What Israel is seeking, it has not obtained; but the elect obtained it, and the rest were hardened—⁸just as it is written,

“God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes not to see and ears not to hear,
 until this very day.”^h

¹¹I say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they?^j May it never be! But by their false step salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke Israel to jealousy.^k ¹²Now if their transgression leads to riches for the world, and their loss riches for the Gentiles, then how much more their fullness! ¹³But I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Insofar as I am a emissary to the Gentiles, I spotlight my ministry^l if somehow I might provoke to jealousy my own flesh and blood^l and save some of them. ¹⁵For if their rejection leads to the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

¹⁶If the firstfruit is holy, so is the whole batch of dough;^m and if the root is holy, so are the branches. ¹⁷But if some of the branches were broken off and you—being a wild olive—were grafted in among them and became a partaker of the root of the olive tree with its richness,ⁿ ¹⁸do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, it is not you who support the root but the root supports you. ¹⁹You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.” ²⁰True enough. They were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but fear—²¹for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you. ²²Notice then the kindness and severity of God:

severity toward those who fell;
 but God’s kindness toward you,
 if you continue in His kindness;
 otherwise you too will be cut off!

²³And they also,
 if they do not continue in their unbelief,
 will be grafted in;

for God is able to graft them in again.

The Mystery Revealed!

²⁵For I do not want you, brothers and sisters, to be ignorant of this mystery—lest you be wise in your own eyes^o—that a partial hardening has come upon Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in;^p ²⁶and in this way^q all Israel will be saved, as it is written,

“The Deliverer shall come out of Zion.
He shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

when I take away their sins.”^s

²⁸Concerning the Good News, they are hostile for your sake; but concerning chosenness, they are loved on account of the fathers^t—²⁹for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.^u ³⁰For just as you once were disobedient to God but now have been shown mercy because of their disobedience,³¹ in like manner these also have now been disobedient with the result that, because of the mercy shown to you, they also may receive mercy. ³²For God has shut up all in disobedience, so that He might show mercy to all.

Be Dead to Self

¹I urge you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice—holy, acceptable to God—which is your spiritual service. ²Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

³For through the grace given me, I say to everyone among you not to think more highly of yourself than you ought to think—but to use sound judgment, as God has assigned to each person a measure of faith. ⁴For just as we have many parts in one body—and all the parts do not have the same function—⁵so we, who are many, are one body in Messiah and everyone parts of one another. ⁶We have gifts that differ according to the grace that was given to us—if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; ⁷if service, in our serving; or the one who teaches, in his teaching; ⁸or the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who gives, in generosity; the one who leads, with diligence; the one who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

⁹Let love be without hypocrisy—detesting what is evil, holding fast to the good. ¹⁰Be tenderly devoted to one another in brotherly love; outdo one another in giving honor. ¹¹Do not be lagging in zeal; be fervent in spirit. Keep serving the Lord, ¹²rejoicing in hope, enduring in distress, persisting in prayer, ¹³contributing to the needs of the kedoshim, extending hospitality.

¹⁴Bless those who persecute you—bless and do not curse. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep.^x ¹⁶Live in harmony with one another; do not be proud, but associate with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own eyes.^a ¹⁷Repay no one evil for evil;^b give thought to what is good in the eyes of all people. ¹⁸If possible, so far as it depends on you, live in shalom with all people. ¹⁹Never take your own revenge, loved ones, but give room for God's wrath—for it is written, "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay,"^c says ADONAI. ²⁰Rather, "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him a drink. For by doing so you will heap coals of fire upon his head."^d ²¹Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Respecting Authority

¹Let every person submit himself to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are put in place by God.^e ²So whoever opposes the authority has resisted God's direction, and those who have resisted will bring judgment on themselves. ³For leaders cause no fear for good behavior, but for bad. Now if you do not want to fear the authority, do what is good and you will get his approval—⁴for he is God's servant to you for your good. But if you do evil, be afraid—for he does not carry the sword for no reason; for he is God's servant, an avenger who inflicts punishment on the evildoer. ⁵Therefore it is necessary to be in submission—not only because of punishment but also because of conscience. ⁶For this reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, attending diligently to this very thing. ⁷Pay to everyone what is due them—tribute to whom tribute is due; tax to whom tax is due; respect to whom respect is due; honor to whom honor is due.

⁸Owe no one anything except to love one another, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the Torah. ⁹For the commandments—"You shall not commit adultery, you shall not murder, you shall not steal, you shall not covet,"^f and any other commandment—are summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."^g ¹⁰Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fullness of the Torah.

¹¹Besides this, you know the time—that it is already the hour for you to awaken from sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first came to trust. ¹²The night is almost gone and the day is near, so let us put off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³Let us walk properly as in the day—not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and sensuality, not in strife and envy. ¹⁴Instead, put on the Lord Messiah Yeshua, and stop making provision for the flesh—for its cravings.

Unity in Community

¹Now accept the one who is weak in faith, but not for the purpose of disputes about opinions. ²One person has faith to eat anything, but the weak eats only vegetables. ³Don't let the one who eats disparage the one who does not eat, and don't let the one who does not eat judge the one who eats, for God has accepted him. ⁴Who are you to judge another's servant? Before his own master he stands or falls. Yes, he shall stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

⁵One person esteems one day over another while another judges every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶The one who observes that day does so to the Lord. The one who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and the one who abstains, abstains to the Lord, and he gives thanks to God. ⁷For none of us lives for himself, and none dies for himself. ⁸For if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. ⁹For this reason Messiah died and lived again, so that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

^f 13:9. Exod. 20:13-15, 17; Deut. 5:17-19, 21.

^g 13:9. Lev. 19:18.

¹⁰But you, why do you judge your brother?^h Or you too, why do you look down on your brother? For we all will stand before the judgment seat of God. ⁱ¹¹For it is written,

“As I live, says ADONAI, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall give praise to God.”^j

¹²So then each one of us shall give account of himself to God.

¹³Therefore let us not judge one another from now on, but rather decide this—not to put a stumbling block or a trap in the way of a brother. ¹⁴I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Yeshua, that nothing is unholy in itself; but it is unholy for the one who considers it unholy.^k ¹⁵For if your brother is grieved on account of food, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy by your food the one for whom Messiah died. ¹⁶Therefore do not let what is good for you be spoken of as evil—¹⁷for the kingdom of God is not about eating and drinking, but righteousness and shalom and joy in the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ¹⁸For the one who serves Messiah in this manner is pleasing to God and approved by men.

¹⁹So then let us pursue what makes for shalom and for the building up of one another.^l ²⁰Stop tearing down the work of God for the sake of food. Indeed all things are clean, but wrong for the man who by eating causes stumbling. ²¹It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything by which your brother stumbles. ²²The faith you have, keep it to yourself before God. How fortunate is the one who does not condemn himself for what he approves. ²³But the one who has doubts is condemned if he eats, because it is not of faith. And whatever is not of faith is sin.

¹Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the powerless and not just please ourselves. ²Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, for building him up. ³For even Messiah did not please Himself, but as it is written, “The insults of those who insulted You have fallen on Me.”^m ⁴For whatever was written before was written for our instruction, so that through patience and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.ⁿ ⁵Now may the God of patience and encouragement grant you to be like-minded with one another in the manner of Messiah Yeshua, ⁶so that together with one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Salvation for Gentiles Too

⁷Therefore accept one another just as Messiah also accepted you, to the glory of God. ⁸For I declare that Messiah has become a servant to the circumcised for the sake of God’s truth, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs ⁹and for the Gentiles to glorify God for His mercy. As it is written,

“For this reason I will give You praise among the Gentiles, and I will sing to Your name.”^o

¹⁰And again it says,
 “Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people.”^p

¹¹And again,

“Praise ADONAI all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise Him.”^q

¹²And again, Isaiah says,

“There shall be a shoot of Jesse;

^m 15:3. Ps. 69:9(68:10 LXX).
ⁿ 15:4. cf. Ps. 119:9, 11, 105; 2 Tim. 3:16-17.

^q 15:11. Ps. 117:1(116:1 LXX).

and the One who arises
to rule the Gentiles, in Him shall the Gentiles hope.”^a

¹³Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and shalom in trusting, so you may overflow with hope in the power of the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

¹⁴Now I myself am convinced about you, my brothers and sisters, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge and also able to counsel one another. ¹⁵But I have written rather boldly to you on some points as a reminder—because of the grace given to me by God ¹⁶to be a servant of Messiah Yeshua to the Gentiles, in priestly service to the Good News of God—so that the offering up of the Gentiles might be pleasing,^b made holy by the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

¹⁷So in Messiah Yeshua, I have reason to boast before God. ¹⁸For I will not dare to speak of anything except what Messiah accomplished through me, to bring about the obedience of the Gentiles by word and deed, ¹⁹in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God. So from Jerusalem and around even to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the Good News of Messiah. ²⁰In this way I make it my aim to proclaim the Good News not where Messiah was already named, lest I build on another person’s foundation, ²¹but as it is written,

“Those who have never been told shall see,
and those who have not heard shall understand.”^c

Going to the Ends of the Earth

²²For this reason I was often hindered from coming to you. ²³But now with no place in these regions, and since I have had a desire for many years to come to you, ²⁴I hope to see you while traveling through when I go to Spain—and to be helped on my journey

^a 15:12. Isa. 11:10.

^b 15:16. cf. Mal. 3:4; Isa. 66:20.

^c 15:21. Isa. 52:15(LXX).

there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a bit.

²⁵But now I am going to Jerusalem, bringing aid to the kedoshim. ²⁶For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the believers in Jerusalem. ²⁷Yes, they were pleased to do so, and they are under obligation to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual blessings, they also ought to serve them in material blessings. ²⁸So when I have finished delivering the collection safely to them, I will head for Spain by way of you. ²⁹Now I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Messiah.

³⁰Now I urge you, brethren, through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah and through the love of the Ruach, to press on together with me—with prayers to God on my behalf. ³¹Pray that I might be rescued from the unbelieving Judeans, and that my service for Jerusalem might be acceptable to the kedoshim. ³²Then, God willing, I may come to you in joy, and together with you find rest.

³³Now may the God of shalom be with you all. Amen.

Welcome the Apostolic Team

¹Now I recommend to you our sister Phoebe—who is a servant-leader of Messiah’s community at Cenchrea—²so you may receive her in the Lord, in a way worthy of kedoshim, and help her in whatever matter she may need from you. For she herself has become a patroness of many, including me as well.

³Greet Prisca^d and Aquila, my fellow workers in Messiah Yeshua,⁴ who risked their own necks for my life. Not only I give them thanks, but also all of Messiah’s communities among the Gentiles. ⁵Greet also the community that meets in their house. Greet Epaenetus whom ^bGreet Miriam, who has worked hard for you.

^cGreet Andronicus and Junia, my kin and fellow prisoners who are well known among the emissaries. They were in Messiah before me.

^dGreet Ampliatus, whom I dearly love in the Lord.

^eGreet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Messiah, and Stachys whom I dearly love.

^fGreet Apelles, who is approved in Messiah. Greet those from the household of Aristobulus.

^gGreet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those from the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

^hGreet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, workers in the Lord. Greet Persis whom I dearly love, who has worked hard in the Lord.

ⁱGreet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother—who was also a mother to me.

^jGreet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters with them.

^kGreet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, also Olympas and all the kedoshim with them.

^lGreet one another with a holy kiss. All of Messiah's communities greet you. ^mNow I urge you, brothers and sisters, to keep your eye on those who are causing divisions and stumbling blocks, contrary to the teaching that you learned. Turn away from them.

ⁿFor such people do not serve our Lord the Messiah, but only their own belly. By their smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting. ^oYour obedience has become known to all, so I rejoice over you—but I want you to be wise about what is good and innocent about what is evil. ^pNow the God of shalom will soon crush satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Yeshua be with you.

^qTimothy, my fellow worker, greets you; so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kin.

^rI, Tertius, who wrote this letter, greet you in the Lord.

^sGaius, host to me and the whole community, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, greets you, and so does brother Quartus.^t

Closing Blessing

^uNow to the One who is able to strengthen you according to my Good News and the proclamation of Yeshua the Messiah, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret for long ages^v but now is revealed and through the Writings of the Prophets has been made known to all the nations, according to the commandment of the eternal God to bring about obedience of faith—^wto the only wise God, through Yeshua the Messiah, to Him be the glory forever. Greetings

¹Paul, called as an emissary of Messiah Yeshua by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

²To God's community in Corinth—having been made holy in Messiah Yeshua, called as kedoshim—with all who everywhere call on the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, both theirs and ours:

³Grace to you and shalom from God our Father, and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

Thanksgiving

⁴I always thank my God for you because of God's grace that was given to you in Messiah Yeshua. ⁵For in Him you were made rich in every way—in all speaking and all knowledge—⁶just as the evidence of Messiah was confirmed among you. ⁷So you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you eagerly wait for the revealing of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ⁸He will also strengthen you until the end—blameless in the Day of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ⁹God is faithful,^a through whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son, Yeshua the Messiah our Lord.

Concern about Disunity

¹⁰Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, through the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. ¹¹For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers and sisters, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are rivalries among you. ¹²I say this because you are each saying, "I follow Paul," or "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Kefa," or "I follow Messiah." ¹³Has Messiah been divided? Paul wasn't crucified for you, was he? Or were you immersed into the name of Paul? ¹⁴I thank God that I immersed none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so that no one should say that I had immersed you into my own name. ¹⁶(I also immersed the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't recall if I immersed anyone else.) ¹⁷For Messiah sent me not to immerse, but to proclaim the Good News—not with cleverness of speech, so that the cross of Messiah would not be made of no effect.

Whose Wisdom Is Foolish?

¹⁸For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and bring to nothing the understanding of the intelligent."^b

²⁰Where is the wise one? Where is the Torah scholar? Where is the debater of this age? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of the world?^c ²¹For seeing that—in God's wisdom—the world through its wisdom did not know God, God was pleased—through the foolishness of the message proclaimed—to save those who believe. ²²For Jewish people ask for signs and Greek people seek after wisdom, ²³but we proclaim Messiah crucified—a stumbling block to Jewish people and foolishness to Gentile people, ²⁴but to those who are called (both Jewish and Greek people), Messiah, the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

²⁶For you see your calling, brothers and sisters, that not many are wise according to human standards,^d not many are powerful, and not many are born well. ²⁷Yet God chose the foolish things of the world so He might put to shame the wise; and God chose the weak things of the world so He might put to shame the strong;²⁸ and God chose the lowly and despised things of the world, the things that are as nothing, so He might bring to nothing the things that are—²⁹so that no human might boast before God.³⁰ But because of Him you are in Messiah Yeshua, who became to us wisdom from God and righteousness and holiness and redemption—³¹so that, just as it is written, “Let him who boasts, boast in ADONAI.”^e

Wisdom that Rests on God’s Power

¹When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come with excellence of speech or wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery^f of God.² For I decided not to know about anything among you except Yeshua the Messiah—and Him crucified.³ I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling.⁴ My speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power—⁵so that your faith would not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

⁶We do speak wisdom, however, among those who are mature—but not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing.⁷ Rather, we speak God’s wisdom in a mystery—a wisdom that has been hidden, which God destined for our glory before the ages.⁸ None of the rulers of this age understood it—for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.⁹ But as it is written,

“Things no eye has seen and no ear has heard, that have not entered the heart of mankind—these things God has prepared for those who love Him.”^g

^f 1:31. Jeremiah 9:23(24).

^g 2:1. Some mss. say testimony.

^e 2:19. Isa. 64:3(4).

¹⁰But God revealed these things to us through the Ruach.^h For the Ruach searches all things—even the depths of God.¹¹ For who among men knows the things of a man, except the man’s spirit within him? In the same way, no one knows the things of God except the Ruach Elohim.¹² Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God—so we might come to know the things freely given to us by God.¹³ These things we also speak—not in words taught by human wisdom but in words taught by the Ruach, explaining the spiritual to the spiritual.

¹⁴Now a natural man does not accept the things of the Ruach Elohim, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.¹⁵ But the one who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is discerned by no one. For ¹⁶“who has known the mind of ADONAI, that he will instruct Him?”ⁱ
But we have the mind of Messiah.

3

Building Together on God’s Foundation

¹And I, brothers and sisters, could not speak to you as Spirit-filled but as worldly^j—as infants in Messiah.² I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready. Indeed, even now you are not yet ready,³ for you are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and strife among you, aren’t you worldly and walking in a human way? ⁴For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not mere humans^k?

⁵What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you came to trust—and to each as the Lord gave.⁶ I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase.⁷ So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who makes things grow.⁸ Now he who plants and he who waters work as one, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.⁹ For we are God's co-workers; you are God's field, God's building.

¹⁰According to the grace of God which was given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each consider carefully how he builds on it.¹¹ For no one can lay any other foundation than what is already laid^a—which is Yeshua the Messiah.¹² Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw,¹³ each one's work will become clear. For the Day will show it, because it is to be revealed by fire; and the fire itself will test each one's work—what sort it is.¹⁴ If anyone's work built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward.¹⁵ If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss—he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

¹⁶Don't you know that you are God's temple and that the Ruach Elohim dwells among you?¹⁷ If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

¹⁸Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a fool so he may become wise.^b ¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the sight of God. For it is written, "He catches the clever in their craftiness."^c ²⁰And again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are useless."^d ²¹So let no one boast about men. For all things are yours—²²whether Paul or Apollos or Kefa, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come. All are yours,²³ and you are Messiah's, and Messiah is God's.

Learning to Imitate Messiah's Emissary

¹So let each one think of us in this way—as

^a 3:11. cf. Isa. 28:16.

^b 3:18. cf. Isa. 5:21; Jer. 8:8–9.

^c 3:19. Job 5:13.

Messiah's helpers and stewards of the mysteries of God.² In this case, moreover, what is required of stewards is to be found trustworthy.³ But to me it matters very little to be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself.⁴ For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this. It is the Lord who judges me.⁵ Therefore do not judge anything before the time—wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light the things hidden in darkness and also make clear the motives of the hearts. Then the praise for each one will come from God.

⁶Now I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers and sisters, so you might learn from us not to go beyond what is written. Then none of you will be puffed up in favor of one against the other.⁷ For who makes you different? And what do you have that you did not receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

⁸Already you are full! Already you have become rich! Without us you have become kings! Indeed, I wish you were kings, so we also might be kings with you!⁹ For it seems to me that God has put us, the emissaries, on display last of all—like men sentenced to death. For we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to people.¹⁰ We are fools for Messiah's sake, but you are wise in Messiah! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honored, but we are dishonored!¹¹ To this very hour we are both hungry and thirsty, dressed in rags and mistreated and homeless.¹² We toil, working with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless. When we are persecuted, we endure.¹³ When we are slandered, we speak kindly. We have become the scum of the earth, the dregs of all things—even to this moment.

¹⁴I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to warn you as my dearly loved children.¹⁵ For though you may have ten thousand guardians in Messiah, yet you do not have many fathers. For in Messiah Yeshua, I became your father through the Good News.¹⁶ I urge you therefore—be imitators of me.¹⁷ For this reason I have sent you Timothy, my dearly loved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of my ways in Messiah, just as I teach everywhere in every community.

¹⁸Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹But I will come to you soon, if the Lord is willing; and I will find out not the talk of those who are puffed up, but their power. ²⁰For the kingdom of God does not consist of talk but of power. ²¹What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

Removing the “Hametz” from Your House

¹It is actually reported that among you there is sexual immorality, and such immorality as is not even among the pagans—that someone has his father’s wife. ²And you are puffed up! Shouldn’t you have mourned instead, so that the one who did this deed might be removed from among you? ³For even though I am absent in body, I am present in spirit—I have already passed judgment on the one who has done this thing, as though I were present. ⁴When you are gathered together in the name of our Lord Yeshua, I am with you in spirit. With the power of our Lord Yeshua, ⁵you are to turn such a fellow over to satan for the destruction of his fleshly nature,^e so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Yeshua.

⁶Your boasting is no good. Don’t you know that a little hametz leavens the whole batch of dough? ⁷Get rid of the old hametz,^f so you may be a new batch, just as you are unleavened—for Messiah, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed. ⁸Therefore let us celebrate the feast not with old hametz,^g the hametz of malice and wickedness, but with unleavened bread—the matzah of sincerity and truth.

⁹I wrote to you in my letter not to mix together^h with sexually immoral people—¹⁰not

^e 5:5. cf. Prov. 23:14.

^f 5:7. cf. Exod. 12:19.

^g 5:8. cf. Exod. 13:7; Deut. 16:3.

^h 5:9. cf. 2 Thes. 3:14.

at all meaning the sexually immoral people of this world or the greedy or swindlers or idolaters, for then you would have to exit the world. ¹¹But now I am writing to you not to mix together with anyone who is being called a brother if he is sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or a slanderer or a drunkard or a swindler—not even to eat with such a fellow. ¹²For what business do I have judging outsiders? Don’t you judge those who are inside? ¹³But those who are outside, God judges. Put away the wicked fellow from among yourselves.ⁱ

Settle Disputes Within the Community

¹Does any one of you, when he has a matter against his neighbor, dare to go to court before the unrighteous and not before the kedoshim? ²Don’t you know that the kedoshim will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to judge trivial matters? ³Don’t you know that we will judge angels? How much more the matters of this life! ⁴So if you have courts for matters of this life, why do you appoint as judges those who have no standing in the community? ⁵I say this to put you to shame! Isn’t there even one wise man among you who will be able to settle disputes between his brethren? ⁶Instead, a brother goes to court against a brother—and before unbelievers at that!

⁷Therefore, it is already an utter failure for you that you have lawsuits among yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? ⁸But you yourselves do wrong and cheat—and against your brothers and sisters at that!

Morality in the Temple of God

⁹Or don’t you know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Don’t be deceived! The sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, those who practice homosexuality, ⁱ 5:13. cf. Deut. 13:6(5); 17:7, 12; 19:19; 21:21; 22:21, 24; 24:7.

¹⁰thieves, the greedy, drunkards, slanderers, swindlers—none of these will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹That is what some of you were—but you were washed, you were made holy, you were set right in the name of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah and by the Ruach of our God.

¹²“Everything is permitted for me”—but not everything is helpful. “Everything is permitted for me”—but I will not be controlled by anything. ¹³“Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food”—but God will do away with both of them. Yet the body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. ¹⁴Now God raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His power. ¹⁵Don’t you know that your bodies are members of Messiah? Shall I then take the members of Messiah and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! ¹⁶Or don’t you know that the one who joins himself to a prostitute is one body with her? For it is said, “The two shall become one flesh.”^a ¹⁷But the one who joins himself to the Lord is one spirit with Him.

¹⁸Flee from sexual immorality! Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body—but the one committing sexual immorality sins against his own body. ¹⁹Or don’t you know that your body is a temple of the Ruach ha-Kodesh who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? ²⁰For you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body.^b

Counsel About Marriage

¹Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me, it is good for a man not to touch a woman. ²But because of much immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. ³Let the husband fulfill his obligation to his wife, and likewise also the wife to her husband.

^a 6:16. Gen. 2:24.

^b 6:20. Some mss. add and in your spirit, which are God’s.

⁴The wife does not have the rights to her own body, but the husband. Likewise also the husband does not have the rights to his own body, but the wife. ⁵Do not deprive one another—except by mutual consent for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. ⁶Then come together again, so that satan doesn’t tempt you because of your lack of self-control. ⁶But this I say as a concession, not as a command. ⁷Yet I wish that all men were like me. However, each man has his own gift from God, one in this way and another that.

⁸But I say to the unmarried and to widows that it is good for them to remain as I am. ⁹But if they do not have self-control, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with desire.

¹⁰But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord^d—a wife is not to be separated from her husband ¹¹(but if she gets separated, let her remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and the husband is not to divorce his wife.

¹²But to the rest I say—I, not the Lord—if any brother has a wife who is not a believer, and she agrees to live with him, he must not divorce her. ¹³And if any woman has a husband who is not a believer, and he agrees to live with her, she must not divorce him. ¹⁴For the unbelieving husband is made holy through the wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy through her husband.^e Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. ¹⁵But if the unbeliever separates, let him be separated. The brother or the sister is not bound in such cases, but God has called you to shalom. ¹⁶For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

Remain As You Were Called

¹⁷Only, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each, let him walk in this way. I give this rule in all of Messiah’s communities. ¹⁸Was anyone called when he already had been circumcised? Let him not make himself uncircumcised. Has anyone been called while uncircumcised? Let him not allow himself to be circumcised. ¹⁹Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing^f—but keeping God’s commandments matters. ²⁰Let each one remain in the calling in which he was called. ²¹Were you called as a slave? Don’t let that bother you—but if indeed you can become free, make the most of the opportunity. ²²For the one who was called in the Lord as a slave is the Lord’s freedman. Likewise the one who was called while free is Messiah’s slave. ²³You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. ²⁴Brothers and sisters, let each one—in whatever way he was called—remain that way with God.

^c 7:5. cf. Exod. 19:15; some mss. say fasting and prayer.

^d 7:10-11. cf. Matt. 5:32; 19:9.

^e 7:14. Lit. the brother.

²⁵Now concerning virgins I have no command from the Lord, but I give an opinion as one who by the Lord’s mercy is trustworthy. ²⁶I think then, because of the present distress, that it is good for a man to remain as he is. ²⁷Are you bound to a wife? Don’t seek a divorce. Are you free from a wife? Don’t seek a wife. ²⁸But if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such people will have trouble in this fleshly life, and I am trying to spare you. ²⁹But this I say, brothers and sisters—the time is short. From now on those who have wives should be as though they had none; ³⁰and those who weep, as though not weeping; and those who rejoice, as though not rejoicing; and those who buy, as though not possessing; ³¹and those who use the world, as though not using it to the fullest. For the present form of this world is passing away.

³²But I want you to be free from cares. An unmarried man cares about the things of the Lord—how he may please the Lord; ³³but the married man cares about the things of the world—how he may please his wife—³⁴and he is divided. The unmarried woman, as well as the virgin, cares about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But the married woman cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. ³⁵Now I say this for your own benefit—not to put a restraint on you, but to promote proper and constant service to the Lord without distraction.

³⁶But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if the time is ripe and it is meant to be, let him do what he decides. He does not sin. Let them marry. ³⁷But he who stands firm in his heart—who has no pressure, but has power over his own will and has so determined in his own heart to keep her a virgin—he will do well. ³⁸So then both he who marries the virgin does well, and he who doesn’t marry her does better.

³⁹A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives; but if her husband dies, she is free to be married to anyone she wishes—only in the Lord.^g ⁴⁰But in my judgment she is happier if she stays as she is—and I also think that I have the Ruach Elohim.

Concerning Idol Sacrifices

¹Now concerning idol sacrifices, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ²If anyone thinks he knows anything, he doesn’t yet know as he ought to know. ³But if anyone loves God, he is known by Him.

⁴Therefore concerning the eating of idol sacrifices, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one.^h ⁵For even if there are so-called “gods,” whether in heaven or on earth (as indeed there are many “gods” and many “lords”),

⁶yet for us there is one God, the Father,ⁱ from whom are all things, and we exist for Him;
and one Lord, Yeshua the Messiah, through whom are all things,
and we exist through Him.

^g 7:39. cf. 2 Cor. 6:14.

^h 8:4. cf. Deut. 4:35, 39; 6:4; some mss. say there is no other God but one.

ⁱ 8:6. cf. Deut 6:4, Isa. 46:9; Jer. 10:6, 7; 1 Cor. 8:4, Mal. 2:10.

⁷But that knowledge is not in everyone—some, so accustomed to idols up until now, eat food as an idol sacrifice; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ⁸But food will not bring us before God. We are no worse off if we do not eat and no better off if we do eat. ⁹But watch out that this freedom of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. ^a¹⁰For suppose someone sees you—who have this knowledge—dining in an idol’s temple. If his conscience is weak, won’t he be emboldened to eat idol sacrifices? ¹¹For the one who is weak is destroyed by your knowledge—the brother for whom Messiah died. ¹²In this way, when you sin against the brothers and sisters and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Messiah. ¹³For this reason, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I do not cause my brother to stumble.

Servant Leadership Wins Over All

¹Am I not free? Am I not an emissary? Have I not seen Yeshua our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? ²If to others I am not an emissary, at least I am to you—for you are the seal of my office of emissary in the Lord.

³My defense to those who examine me is this. ⁴Don’t we have the right to food and drink? ⁵Don’t we have the right to take along a believing wife, as do the other emissaries and the Lord’s brothers and Kefa? ⁶Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to not work? ⁷What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not drink its milk?

⁸I don’t say these things merely as a man, do I? Doesn’t Torah also say these things? ⁹For it is written in the Torah of Moses, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it is threshing.”^b Is it the oxen that concern God,¹⁰ or is He speaking entirely for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because the one plowing ought to plow in hope and the one threshing in hope of a share in the crop. ¹¹If we sowed spiritual things into you, is it too much if we reap material things from you? ¹²If others have a share in this claim over you, shouldn’t we even more?

Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we put up with all things so that we cause no hindrance to the Good News of Messiah. ¹³Don’t you know that those who perform the holy services eat from the Temple, and those who wait on the altar receive a share at the altar?^c ¹⁴So also the Lord ordered those who proclaim the Good News to get their living from the Good News.

¹⁵But I have used none of these things, and I am not writing these things so it will happen this way in my case—for I would rather die than let anyone deprive me of my reason to boast. ¹⁶For if I proclaim the Good News, I have no reason to boast—for pressure is put on me and woe to me if I don’t proclaim the Good News! ¹⁷For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have been entrusted with a commission. ¹⁸What then is my reward? That when I preach, I may present the Good News free of charge, not making use of my right^d in the Good News.

¹⁹For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win over more of them. ²⁰To the Jewish people I identified^e as a Jew, so that I might win over the Jewish people. To those under Torah I became like one under Torah (though not myself being under Torah), so that I might win over those under Torah; ²¹to those outside Torah, like one outside Torah (though not being outside God’s Torah but in Messiah’s Torah), so that I might win over those outside Torah. ²²To the weak I became weak, so that I might win over the weak. I have become all things to all men, so that by all means possible I might save some. ²³I do it all for the sake of the Good News, so that I might be a fellow partaker of it.

^c 9:13. cf. Lev. 6:16, 26; 7:6, 31-32; Num. 5:9-10; 18:8-20, 31; Deut. 18:1.

^d 9:18. cf. 1 Cor. 9:12b, 14.

^e 9:20. Or became.

^a 8:9. cf. Exod. 23:33.

^b 9:9. Deut. 25:4.

²⁴Don't you know that in a stadium the runners all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win! ²⁵Every competitor exercises self-control in all respects. They do it to receive a perishable crown, but we do it to receive an imperishable one. ²⁶So I run in this way—not aimlessly. So I box in this way—not beating the air. ²⁷Rather, I punish my body and bring it into submission, so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

Warnings from History

ⁱFor I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers and sisters, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea. ^f²They all were immersed into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. ³And all ate the same spiritual food, ⁴and all drank the same spiritual drink—for they were drinking from a spiritual rock that followed them, and the Rock was Messiah. ^g⁵Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the desert. ^h

⁶Now these things happened as examples for us, so we wouldn't crave evil things, just as they did. ⁱ⁷Do not be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."ⁱ ⁸And let's not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did—and in one day 23,000 fell. ^k⁹And let's not test the Lord, as some of them did—and were destroyed by serpents. ^l¹⁰And let's not grumble, as some of them did—and were destroyed by the destroying angel. ^m¹¹Now these things happened to them as an example, and it was written down as a warning to us—on whom the ends of the ages have come. ¹²Therefore let the one who thinks that he stands watch out that he doesn't fall. ¹³No temptation has taken hold of you except what is common to mankind. But God is faithful—He will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you can handle. But with the temptation He will also provide a way of escape, so you will be able to endure it.

Feast with the Lord—Not with Idols

¹⁴Therefore, my dearly loved ones, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵I speak as to sensible people—judge for yourselves what I say. ¹⁶The cup of blessing that we bless—isn't it a sharing of Messiah's blood? The bread which we break—isn't it a sharing of Messiah's body? ¹⁷Since there is one bread, we who are many are one body—for we all partake of the one bread. ¹⁸Consider physical Israel. Those who eat the sacrifices—aren't they partners in the altar?ⁿ

¹⁹What am I saying then—that an idol sacrifice is anything, or that an idol is anything? ²⁰No, I'm saying that what the pagans sacrifice is to demons and not to God, and I don't want you to become partners with demons. ^o²¹You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. ²²Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy?^p We are not stronger than He, are we?

²³"Everything is permitted"—but not everything is helpful. "Everything is permitted"—but not everything builds up. ²⁴Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. ²⁵Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, without raising questions of conscience. ²⁶For "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness."^q ²⁷If an unbeliever invites you over and you want to go, eat whatever is set before you, without raising questions of conscience. ²⁸But if anyone says to you, "This is from an idol sacrifice," do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience—²⁹not your own conscience, I mean, but the other person's. For why is my freedom judged by another's conscience?³⁰ If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of something I give thanks for?

³¹Therefore, whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. ³²Give no offense either to Jewish or Greek people or to God's community—³³just as I also try to please everyone in everything, not seeking my own benefit but the benefit of many, so that they may be saved.

11

¹Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Messiah.

Headship and Coverings

²Now I praise you because you remember me in everything and hold firm the traditions just as I passed them on to you. ³But I want you to know that the head of every man is Messiah, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Messiah is God. ⁴Every man praying or prophesying with his head covered dishonors his head. ⁵But every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same as having been shaved. ⁶For if a woman does not cover her head, let her cut off her hair. But if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, let her cover her head.

⁷For surely a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God.^a But the woman is the glory of man. ⁸For man is not from woman, but woman from man. ⁹Neither was man created for the woman's sake, but woman for the man's sake.^b ¹⁰For this reason the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels. ¹¹In any case—in the Lord—woman is not independent of man and man is not independent of woman. ¹²For just as the woman came from the man, so also the man comes through the woman—but all things are from God.

^a 11:7. cf. Gen. 1:26-27.

^b 11:8-9. cf. Gen. 2:21-23.

¹³Judge for yourselves—is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴Doesn't the natural order of things^c teach you—if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace for him; ¹⁵but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory, for her hair was given to her as a covering. ¹⁶But if anyone intends to be contentious, we have no such custom—nor do God's communities.

Unity at the Lord's Table

¹⁷But in giving you this instruction I do not praise you, for when you meet together it does more harm than good. ¹⁸For first of all, when you come together as Messiah's community, I hear that there are divisions among you; and to some extent I believe it—¹⁹for there must be factions among you, so that those among you who are tried and true may be evident. ²⁰Therefore, when you meet together in the same place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper—²¹for each one takes his own supper beforehand, and one goes hungry while another gets drunk. ²²What! It is certainly not that you do not have houses, is it? Don't you have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise God's community and try to humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? I don't praise you for this!

²³For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you—that the Lord Yeshua, on the night He was betrayed, took matzah;^d ²⁴and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said,^e "This is My body, which is for you. Do this in memory of Me."²⁵ In the same way, He also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant^f in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in memory of Me."²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

²⁷Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the Lord's cup in an unworthy manner

^c 11:14. Lit. nature itself.

^d 11:23. Lit. bread (at Passover, unleavened bread).

^e 11:24. Some mss. begin "Take, eat; this is My body..."; cf. Matt. 26:26.

^f 11:25. Heb. Brit Hadashah; cf. Exod. 24:8, Jer. 31:31.

will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.²⁸ But a man must examine himself, and then let him eat of the bread and drink from the cup.²⁹ For the one who eats and drinks without recognizing the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself.³⁰ For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and quite a few have died.^g ³¹ For if we were judging ourselves thoroughly, we wouldn't be coming under judgment.³² But when we are judged, we are being disciplined by the Lord so that we might not be condemned along with the world.

³³ So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.³⁴ If anyone is hungry let him eat at home, so that when you meet it doesn't lead to judgment. And the rest I will put in order when I come.

Spiritual Gifts for the Body

¹ Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be ignorant.² You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed by idols that cannot speak, and you got led astray.^h ³ Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Ruach Elohim says, “Yeshua be cursed,” and no one can say, “Yeshua is Lord,” except by the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

⁴ Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Ruach.⁵ There are various kinds of service, but the same Lord.⁶ There are various kinds of working, but the same God who works all things in all people.⁷ But to each person is given the manifestation of the Ruach for the benefit of all.⁸ For to one is given through the Ruach a word of wisdom, to another a word of knowledge according to the same Ruach,⁹ to another faith by the same Ruach, to another gifts of healings by the one Ruach,¹⁰ to another workings of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.¹¹ But one and the same Ruach activates all these things, distributing to each person individually as He wills.

¹² For just as the body is one and has many parts, and all the parts of the body—though many—are one body, so also is Messiah.¹³ For in one Ruach we were all immersed into one body—whether Jewish or Greek, slave or free—and all were made to drink of one Ruach.

¹⁴ For the body is not one part, but many.¹⁵ If the foot says, “Since I'm not a hand, I'm not part of the body,” is it therefore not part of the body? ¹⁶ And if the ear says, “Since I'm not an eye, I'm not part of the body,” is it for this reason any less part of the body? ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸ But now God has placed the parts—each one of them—in the body just as He desired.¹⁹ If they were all one part, where would the body be? ²⁰ But now there are many parts, yet one body.

²¹ The eye cannot tell the hand, “I don't need you!” or in turn the head to the feet, “I don't need you!” ²² On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be less important are indispensable.²³ Those parts of the body that we think to be less honorable, we clothe with greater honor; and our unrepresentable parts are treated with greater modesty;²⁴ but our presentable parts have no such need. Rather God assembled the body, giving more honor to those who are lacking,²⁵ so that there may be no division in the body, but so that the parts may have the same care for one another.²⁶ If one part suffers, all the parts suffer together. If one part is honored, all the parts rejoice together.

²⁷ Now you are the body of Messiah, and members individually.²⁸ God has put into His community first emissaries, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then healings, helps, leadership, various kinds of tongues.²⁹ All are not emissaries, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All do not work miracles, do they? ³⁰ All do not have gifts of healing, do they? All do not speak in tongues, do they? All do not interpret, do they? ³¹But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And still I show you a far better way:

^g 11:30. Lit. have fallen asleep.

^h 12:2. Cf. Ps. 115:4-5; Jer. 10:5; Hab. 2:18-19.

13

The Superior Way of Love

¹If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels but have not love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

²If I have the gift of prophecy and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains but have not love, I am nothing.

³If I give away all that I own and if I hand over my body so I might boast^a but have not love, I gain nothing.

⁴Love is patient, love is kind, it does not envy, it does not brag, it is not puffed up, ⁵it does not behave inappropriately, it does not seek its own way, it is not provoked, it keeps no account of wrong, ⁶it does not rejoice over injustice but rejoices in the truth; ⁷it bears all things, it believes all things, it hopes all things, it endures all things.

⁸Love never fails— but where there are prophecies, they will pass away; where there are tongues, they will cease; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.

⁹For we know in part and we prophesy in part; ¹⁰but when that which is perfect has come, then that which is partial will pass away.

¹¹When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put away childish things.

¹²For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known.

¹³But now these three remain— faith, hope, and love. And the greatest of these is love.

Orderly Governing of the Gifts

¹Pursue love and eagerly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. ²For one who speaks in a tongue speaks not to people but to God—for no one understands, but in the Ruach he speaks mysteries. ³But one who prophesies speaks to people for building up, urging on, and uplifting. ⁴One who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but one who prophesies builds up the community. ⁵Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more that you would prophesy. ⁶One who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues—unless he interprets, so that the community may be built up.

⁶But now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit

^a 13:3. Other mss. say be burned.

^b 14:5. cf. Num. 11:29.

you—unless I speak to you by way of revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? ⁷It is the same for lifeless things that make a sound—like a flute or a harp. If they make no distinction in the tones, how will what is played be recognized? ⁸For if the trumpet^c makes an unclear sound, who will prepare himself for battle? ⁹So also with you with your tongue—unless you utter speech that is intelligible, how will what is spoken be understood? For you will be talking to the wind! ¹⁰It may be that there are many kinds of languages in the world—and none without meaning. ¹¹If then I do not understand the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner^d to the speaker, and the speaker will be a foreigner to me. ¹²Likewise with you—since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, keep trying to excel for the building up of the community.

¹³Therefore let one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵What is it then? I will pray in my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing praises with my spirit, and I will also sing praises with my mind. ¹⁶Otherwise if you give thanks and praise in the spirit, how will one filling the place of the ungifted say the “Amen” to your thanksgiving, since he has no idea what you’re saying? ¹⁷For you certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. ¹⁸I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹However, in Messiah’s community I would rather speak five words with my mind, so I may also instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

²⁰Brothers and sisters, stop being children in your thinking—rather, be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature. ²¹In the Prophets^e it is written,

“By those with strange tongues and by the lips of strangers
I will speak to this people.

And not even then will they listen to me,”
says ADONAI.

^c 14:8. Grk. salpigx (trumpet), Heb. chatzotzrah (trumpet); cf. Num. 10:2, 9, chatzotzrot kesef (silver trumpets).

^d 14:11. Lit. barbarian.

^e 14:21. Lit. Law, here applied to Torah, Prophets, and Writings; the quote is from Isa. 28:11-12.

²³So if Messiah’s whole community comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and uninstructed or unbelieving people come in, won’t they say that you are crazy? ²⁴But if all are prophesying and some unbelieving or ungifted person comes in, he is convicted by all, he is called to account by all. ²⁵The secrets of his heart become known, and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring, “God really is among you!”^f

²⁶What is it then, brothers and sisters? Whenever you come together, each one has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation, a tongue, an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification. ²⁷If someone speaks in a tongue, let it be by two or at most three, and each in turn; and let one interpret. ²⁸But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the community but speak to himself and to God. ²⁹Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others evaluate. ³⁰But if something is revealed to another sitting nearby, let the first one become silent. ³¹For you can all prophesy one by one, so all may learn and be encouraged. ³²The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, ³³for God is not a God of confusion, but shalom.

As in all the communities of the kedoshim, ³⁴let women keep silent in the communities, for it is not permitted for them to speak out. Rather let them be in order, as the Torah also says.^g ³⁵If they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home—for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak out in the community. ³⁶Did the word of God originate with you? Or did it reach you alone?

³⁷If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, let him recognize that what I write to you is the Lord’s command. ³⁸But if someone does not recognize it, he is not recognized. ³⁹Therefore, brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. ⁴⁰But let everything be done decently and in order.

The Victory of the Resurrection

¹Now I make known to you, brothers and sisters, the Good News which I proclaimed to you. You also received it, and you took your stand on it, ²and by it you are being saved if you hold firm to the word I proclaimed to you—unless you believed without proper consideration. ³For I also passed on to you first of all what I also received—that Messiah died for our sins according to the Scriptures,^a ⁴that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day

according to the Scriptures,

⁵and that He appeared to Kefa, then to the Twelve.

⁶Then He appeared to over five hundred brothers and sisters at one time—most of them are still alive, though some have died.^b

⁷Then He appeared to Jacob, then to all the emissaries,

⁸and last of all, as to one untimely born,
He also appeared to me.

⁹For I am the least of the emissaries, unworthy to be called a emissary because I persecuted God's community. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace toward me was not in vain. No, I worked harder than them all—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me. ¹¹Whether then it is I or they, so we proclaim, and so you believed.

¹²Now if Messiah is proclaimed—that He has been raised from the dead—how can some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Messiah has been raised! ¹⁴And if Messiah has not been raised, then our proclaiming is meaningless and your faith also is meaningless. ¹⁵Moreover,

^a 15:3-4. cf. Isa. 53:8-10; Ps. 16:10-11; 22:15-16; Hos. 6:2; Dan. 9:24.

^b 15:6. Lit. most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep.

we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that He raised up Messiah—whom He did not raise up, if in fact the dead are not raised. ¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, not even Messiah has been raised. ¹⁷And if Messiah has not been raised, your faith is futile—you are still in your sins. ¹⁸Then those also who have fallen asleep in Messiah have perished. ¹⁹If we have hoped in Messiah in this life alone, we are to be pitied more than all people.

²⁰But now Messiah has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also has come through a Man.^c ²²For as in Adam all die, so also in Messiah will all be made alive.

²³But each in its own order: Messiah the firstfruits; then, at His coming, those who belong to Messiah; ²⁴then the end, when He hands over the kingdom to God the Father after He has destroyed all rule and all authority and power.^d ²⁵For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.^e ²⁶The last enemy to be destroyed is death. ²⁷For God has “put all things in subjection underneath His feet.”^f But when the psalmist says that “all” has been put in subjection, it is clear that this does not include God Himself, who put all things under Messiah. ²⁸Now when all things become subject to Him, then the Son Himself will also become subject to the One who put all things under Him, so that God may be all in all.

²⁹Otherwise, what will they do who are immersed for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, then why are they immersed for them? ³⁰And why are we in danger every hour? ³¹I die every day—yes, as surely as the boast in you, brothers and sisters, which I have in Messiah Yeshua our Lord. ³²If, for human reasons, I fought with “wild animals” at Ephesus, what good is that to me? If the dead are not raised, “let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!”^g ³³Do not be deceived!

^g 15:32. cf. Isa. 22:13; 56:12.

“Bad company corrupts good morals.”

³⁴Come to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning! For some have no knowledge of God—I say this to your shame.

³⁵But someone will say, “How are the dead raised?”ⁿ and, “With what kind of body do they come?”³⁶Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. ³⁷As for what you sow—you are not sowing the body that will be, but a bare seed, maybe of wheat or something else. ³⁸But God gives it a body just as He planned, and to each of the seeds a body of its own. ³⁹All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of humans, another flesh of animals, another of birds, and another of fish. ⁴⁰There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one thing while the earthly is another. ⁴¹There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.

⁴²So also is the resurrection of the dead:
Sown in corruption, raised in incorruption!
⁴³Sown in dishonor, raised in glory!
Sown in weakness, raised in power!
⁴⁴Sown a natural body, raised a spiritual body!

If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵So also it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living soul.”ⁱ The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual. ⁴⁷The first man is of the earth, made of dust; the second man is from heaven.

⁴⁸Like the one made of dust, so also are those made of dust;
and like the heavenly,
so also are those who are heavenly.
⁴⁹And just as we have borne the image of the one made from dust, so also shall we bear^k the image of the One from heaven.

ⁱ 15:45. cf. Gen. 2:7.
^j 15:48. cf. Gen. 3:19.
^k 15:49. Many mss. say let us bear.

⁵⁰Now I say this, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, and what decays cannot inherit what does not decay. ⁵¹Behold, I tell you a mystery:

We shall not all sleep,
but we shall all be changed—⁵²in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last shofar.^l

For the shofar will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we will be changed.

⁵³For this corruptible must put on incorruptibility,
and this mortal must put on immortality.

⁵⁴But when this corruptible will have put on incorruptibility and this mortal will have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written:

“Death is swallowed up in victory.”^m
⁵⁵“Where, O Death, is your victory?
Where, O Death, is your sting?”ⁿ

⁵⁶Now the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the Torah. ⁵⁷But thanks be to God, who keeps giving us the victory through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah! ⁵⁸Therefore, my dearly loved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord—because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Collection for Jerusalem and Final Greetings

collections take place when I come. ³Then whenever I arrive, I will send whomever you approve with letters of introduction to carry your gift to Jerusalem. ⁴If it is advisable for me to go also, they will go with me.

⁵But I will come to you after I have passed through Macedonia—for I am passing through Macedonia. ⁶Perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you can help me on my journey—wherever I go. ⁷For I do not wish to see you now just in passing—for I hope to stay on with you for a while, if the Lord permits. ⁸But I will stay on at Ephesus until Shavuot, ⁹for a great door has opened wide for me, though many are in opposition.

¹⁰Now if Timothy comes, see that he has nothing to fear among you—for he is doing the Lord's work, just as I am. ¹¹No one, then, should treat him with disrespect. But set him on his way in shalom, so that he might come to me; for I am expecting him, along with the brothers.

¹²Now about our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers and sisters, and he was quite unwilling to come now—but he will come when he has an opportunity.

¹³Be on the alert! Stand firm in the faith!

Be men of courage! Be strong!^d ¹⁴Let all that you do be done in love.

¹⁵Now I urge you, brothers and sisters (you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves in service to the kedoshim), ¹⁶also to submit to people such as these, and to everyone working together and laboring. ¹⁷I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, for they made up for your absence. ¹⁸For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge such men.

¹⁹Messiah's communities in Asia^b greet you. Aquila and Prisca^c greet you warmly in the Lord, with the community that meets in their house. ²⁰All the brothers and sisters greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹This greeting is in my own hand—Paul's. ²²If anyone does not love the Lord, let him be cursed. Marana, tha! Our Lord, come!^d

²³The grace of the Lord Yeshua be with you.

Greetings

¹Paul, a emissary of Messiah Yeshua through the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To God's community at Corinth, with all the kedoshim who are throughout Achaia:

²Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Encouragement Through Hardships

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, the Father of compassion and God of all encouragement. ⁴He encourages us in every trouble, so that we may be able to encourage those who are in any trouble, through the very encouragement with which we ourselves are encouraged by God. ⁵For just as the sufferings of Messiah overflow into us, so also through Messiah our encouragement overflows. ⁶If we are suffering hardship, it is for your encouragement and salvation. Or if we are encouraged, it is for your encouragement, which produces in you the patient endurance of the same sufferings that we also suffer. ⁷Our hope for you is firm, since we know that as you are partners in our sufferings, so also in our encouragement.

⁸For we do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, of our trouble that happened in Asia.^e We were under great pressure—so far beyond our strength that we despaired even of living. ⁹In fact, we had within ourselves the death sentence—so that we might not rely on ourselves, but on God who raises the dead. ¹⁰He who rescued us from so great a danger of death will continue to rescue us—we have set our hope on Him that He will rescue us again. ¹¹You also are helping by your prayer for us, so that from many people thanks may be given on our behalf for the gracious gift given us through the help of many.

¹²For our reason for boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that we behaved in the world, and most especially toward you, with simplicity and godly sincerity—not by human wisdom but by the grace of God. ¹³For we write nothing to you other than what you can read and understand—and I hope you will understand in full ¹⁴just as you understood us in part, so that we are your reason for boasting just as you also are ours in the Day of our Lord Yeshua.

Paul's Change of Plans

¹⁵Because of this confidence, I was planning to come to you first, so that you might have a second benefit—¹⁶to pass by you on my way to Macedonia and again from Macedonia to come back to you, and to be helped by you on my journey to Judea. ¹⁷So when I was planning to do this, I didn't do so lightly, did I? Or the things I plan, do I plan according to the flesh—so it might be with me “Yes, yes” and “No, no” at the same time? ¹⁸But as God is faithful, our message to you is not both “Yes” and “No.”^f

¹⁹For Ben-Elohim—Yeshua the Messiah, who was proclaimed among you by us, by myself and Silvanus^g and Timothy—was not “Yes” and “No.” Rather, in Him it has always been “Yes.” ²⁰For in Him all the promises of God are “Yes.” Therefore also through Him is the “Amen” by us, to the glory of God.^h ²¹Now it is God who establishes us with you in Messiah. He anointed us, ²²set His seal on us, and gave us the Ruach in our hearts as a pledge.

²³But I call God as my witnessⁱ—to spare you, I didn't come to Corinth again. ²⁴Not that we lord it over you in matters of faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy—for in the faith you are standing firm.

Forgive the Repentant Sinner

¹So I made up my mind that I would not come to you again causing sorrow. ²For if I cause you sorrow, then who is there cheering me on but the one I have made sorrowful? ³And I wrote this very thing to you, so that when I came I wouldn't have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice—having confidence in you all that my joy is yours. ⁴For out of much distress and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears—not to make you sorrowful, but to let you know the love that I have especially for you.

⁵But if anyone has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow not to me, but to some extent—not to exaggerate—to all of you. ⁶For such a person, this punishment by the majority is enough. ⁷So instead you should forgive him and encourage him. Otherwise such a person might be swallowed up by excessive sorrow. ⁸Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him. ⁹For to this end I also wrote, that I might know your character, whether you are obedient in all things. ¹⁰Now anyone you forgive, I also forgive. For indeed, what I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything), I did it for you in the presence of Messiah, ¹¹so that we might not be outwitted by satan—for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

Revealing Messiah's Fragrance

¹²Now when I arrived in Troas for the Good News of Messiah, and a door was opened to me by the Lord, ¹³I had no rest in my spirit, because I didn't find Titus my brother. So I said farewell to them, and I set out for Macedonia. ¹⁴But thanks be to God, who in Messiah always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us reveals everywhere the aroma^a of the knowledge of Himself. ¹⁵For we are the aroma of Messiah to God, among those who are being saved and those who are perishing—¹⁶to the one an aroma from death to death, to the other an aroma from life to life. Who is competent for these things? ¹⁷For we are not like many, peddling the word of God. Rather, in Messiah we speak in the sight of God with sincerity, as persons sent from God.

^a 2:14. cf. Song 1:3; Ezek. 20:41.

A New Covenant on Hearts of Flesh

¹Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you or from you? ²You are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone. ³It is clear that you are a letter from Messiah delivered by us—written not with ink but with the Ruach of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.^b

⁴Such is the confidence we have through Messiah toward God—⁵not that we are competent in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our competence is from God. ⁶He also made us competent as servants of a new covenant^c—not of the letter, but of the Ruach. For the letter kills, but the Ruach gives life.

⁷Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such glory that Bnei-Yisrael could not look intently upon Moses' face because of its glory^d—although it was passing away—⁸how will the ministry of the Ruach not be even more glorious? ⁹For if there is glory in the ministry of condemnation,^e the ministry of righteousness overflows even more in glory. ¹⁰For even what was glorious is not glorious in comparison to the glory that surpasses it. ¹¹For if what is passing away is glorious, much more what remains is glorious.

¹²Therefore, having such a hope, we act with great boldness. ¹³We are not like Moses, who used to put a veil over his face in order for Bnei-Yisrael not to look intently upon the end of what was passing away. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened. For up to this very day the same veil remains unlifted at the reading of the ancient covenant, since in Messiah it is passing away. ¹⁵But to this day, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart. ¹⁶But whenever someone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ^f¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Ruach ADONAI is, there is freedom. ^g¹⁸But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory—just as from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

Treasures in Jars of Clay

¹For this reason, since we have this ministry, just as we received mercy, we do not lose heart. ²Instead, we renounced the hidden shameful ways—not walking in deception or distorting the word of God, but commending ourselves before God to everyone’s conscience by the open proclamation of the truth. ³And even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. ⁴In their case, the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so they might not see the light of the Good News of the glory of Messiah, who is the image of God. ⁵For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Messiah Yeshua as Lord—and ourselves as your slaves for Yeshua’s sake. ⁶For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” ^his the One who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Messiah. ⁱ

not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; ¹⁰always carrying in the body the death of Yeshua, so that the life of Yeshua may also be revealed in our mortal body. ¹¹For we who live are always being handed over to death for Yeshua’s sake, so that the life of Yeshua may be revealed in our mortal body. ¹²So death is at work in us, but life is at work in you. ¹³But we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, “I believed, and therefore I spoke.” ^k So we also believe, and therefore we also speak, ¹⁴knowing that the One who raised the Lord Yeshua will raise us also with Yeshua, and will bring us with you into His presence. ¹⁵For all things are for your sakes, so that the grace that is spreading through more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow—to the glory of God.

¹⁶Therefore we do not lose heart. Though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. ¹⁷For our trouble, light and momentary, is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, ¹⁸as we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen. For what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

Earthly Tents, Eternal Dwellings

¹For we know that if the tent, our earthly home, is torn down, we have a building from God—a home not made with human hands, eternal in the heavens. ²For in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling— ³if indeed, after we have put it on, we will not be found naked. ⁴For we groan while we are in this tent—burdened because we don’t want to be unclothed but to be clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵Now the One who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave us the Ruach as a pledge. ⁶Therefore we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.⁷ For we walk by faith, not by sight.⁸ We are confident, I say, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and at home with the Lord.⁹ So whether at home or absent, we make it our aim to be pleasing to Him.¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Messiah, so that each one may receive what is due for the things he did while in the body—whether good or bad.

Ambassadors for Messiah

¹¹Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord,^a we are trying to persuade people, but what we are is known to God—and I hope it is known to your consciences as well.¹² For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity for boasting about us, so that you may have something to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart.^b ¹³For if we are out of our minds, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.¹⁴ For the love of Messiah compels us, since we have concluded that One died for all; as a result all died.¹⁵ And He died for all so that those who live might no longer live for themselves, but for the One who died for them and was raised.

¹⁶So from now on we recognize no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Messiah according to the flesh, yet now we no longer know Him this way.¹⁷ Therefore if anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.^c ¹⁸Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Messiah and gave us the ministry of reconciliation.¹⁹ That is, in Messiah God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them; and He has entrusted the message of reconciliation to us.²⁰ We are therefore ambassadors for Messiah, as though God were making His appeal through us. We beg you on behalf of Messiah, be reconciled to God.²¹ He made the One who knew no sin to become a sin offering on our behalf,^d so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

¹Since we are co-laboring, we also urge you not to receive God's grace in vain.² For He says, "At a favorable time I listened to you, in a day of salvation I helped you."^e

Behold, now is the favorable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation.³ We give no cause for offense in anything, so that our ministry may not be blamed.⁴ But as God's servants, we are commending ourselves in every way—in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,⁵ in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in troubles, in sleeplessness, in hunger;⁶ in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Ruach ha-Kodesh, in genuine love,⁷ in truthful speech, in the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left;⁸ through honor and dishonor, through evil report and good report. We are regarded as deceivers and yet true;⁹ as unknown and yet well-known; as dying, yet behold, we live; as disciplined yet not put to death,^f ¹⁰as grieving yet always rejoicing; as poor yet enriching many; as having nothing yet possessing everything.

¹¹We have spoken openly to you, O Corinthians; our heart is open wide!¹² You are not restricted by us, yet you are restricted in your own feelings.¹³ Now in return—I speak as to my children—open wide to us also.

Preserving Sanctity in God's Living Temple

harmony does Messiah^h? Or what part does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? ¹⁶What agreement does God's Temple have with idols? For we are the temple of the living God—just as God said,

“I will dwell in them and walk among them;
and I will be their God,
and they shall be My people.ⁱ

¹⁷Therefore, come out from among them, and be separate, says ADONAI.

Touch no unclean thing.^k
Then I will take you in.^l

¹⁸I will be a father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters,
says ADONAI-Tzva'ot.”^m

¹Therefore, since we have these promises, loved ones, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of body and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Godly Sorrow and Joy

²Make room for us in your hearts. We wronged no one, ruined no one, took advantage of no one. ³I do not say this to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts—to die together and to live together with you. ⁴Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I have been filled with encouragement. I overflow with joy in all our troubles.

⁵For even when we came into Macedonia, our body had no rest. But we were hard pressed on every side—conflicts outside, fears within. ⁶But God, who encourages the downcast, encouraged us with the arrival of Titus; ⁷and not only by his coming, but also by the encouragement with which he was encouraged by you, as he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your deep concern for me—so that I rejoiced still more.

⁸For even if I grieved you with my letter, I do not regret it—though I did regret it, for I see that my letter grieved you, but just for a while. ⁹Now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to the point of repentance. For you were grieved according to God's will, so that you might in no way suffer loss from us. ¹⁰For the grief that God wills brings a repentance that leads to salvation, leaving no regret. But the world's grief brings death. ¹¹For see what this very thing—this grieving that God wills—has brought you! What diligence, what defense, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what rendering of justice! In everything you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter. ¹²So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for the sake of the wrongdoer or for the sake of the one who was wronged, but to make known to you your diligence for us in the sight of God. ¹³For this reason we have been encouraged.

Besides our own encouragement, we rejoiced even more at the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. ¹⁴For if I have boasted some to him about you, I was not put to shame. But as we spoke all things truthfully to you, so also our boasting to Titus has proved to be the truth. ¹⁵His feelings toward you overflow when he remembers everyone's obedience—how you received him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶I rejoice that in everything I have confidence in you.

Eagerness to Give

¹Now we make known to you, brothers and sisters, the grace God has given to Messiah's communities in Macedonia— ²that in much testing by affliction, the abundance of their joy and their extreme poverty overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. ³For I testify that according to their ability, and even beyond their ability, they gave of their own free will—⁴begging us with much urging for the favor of sharing in the relief of the kedoshim.⁵ Moreover, it was not just as we had hoped, but they gave of themselves first to the Lord and then to us in keeping with God's will.⁶ So we urged Titus that, just as he had made a start before, so he should also complete this gracious service for you.⁷ But as you excel in everything—in faith and speech and knowledge and all diligence, and in your love for us—also excel in this grace.⁸ I am saying this not as a command, but I am trying to prove by the diligence of others the genuineness of your love as well.⁹ For you know the grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah—that even though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, so that through His poverty you might become rich.¹⁰ Now I give my opinion in this matter, that it is a credit to you that a year ago you were the first to start—not only to do but even to be willing.¹¹ But now finish doing it, so that just as there was eagerness to be willing, so also to finish it, out of what you have.¹² For if the eagerness is present, the gift is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he doesn't have.¹³ For it is not relief for others and hardship for you, but as a matter of equality.¹⁴ Your abundance at this present time meets their need, so that their abundance may also meet your need—so that there may be equality.¹⁵ As it is written, “He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little.”^a

An Offering by Special Delivery

¹⁶But thanks be to God, who put into the heart of Titus the same devotion for you.¹⁷ For indeed he not only accepted our appeal, but went to you with eagerness and on his own initiative.¹⁸ We are sending along with him the brother whose fame in connection with the Good News has spread throughout all of Messiah's communities.¹⁹ Not only that, but he has also been appointed by the communities as our travel companion with this gracious gift, which is administered by us for the glory of the Lord Himself and to show our eagerness to help.²⁰ We are taking this precaution, so that no one will blame us in regard to the way we administer this generous gift.²¹ We have regard for what is honorable—not only before the Lord, but also before people.²² Also with them we are sending our brother whom we have tested many times and found to be diligent in many things, but now even more diligent because of his great confidence in you.²³ As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you; as for our brothers, they are the emissaries of the communities, a glory to Messiah.²⁴ Therefore, before Messiah's communities show them the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.

¹Now about this service to the kedoshim, it is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you—²for I know your eagerness. I boast about it to the Macedonians, that Achaia has been preparing for a year already; and your zeal has stirred up most of them.³ But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you may not be in vain in this case, so that you may be prepared, just as I kept saying.⁴ Otherwise, if any Macedonians were to come and find you unprepared, we—not to mention you—would be put to shame in this undertaking.⁵ So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go on to you and arrange ahead of time your generous gift that had been promised beforehand, so that it would be ready as a gift and not as an extortion.

Sowing and Reaping Generosity

⁶The point is this: whoever sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully.^b ⁷Let each one give as he has decided in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion—for God

^a 8:15, Exod. 16:18.

^b 9:6. cf. Prov. 11:24-25; 22:9.

loves a cheerful giver.^c ⁸And God is able to make all grace overflow to you, so that by always having enough of everything, you may overflow in every good work. ⁹As it is written,

“He scattered widely, He gave to the poor; His righteousness endures forever.”^d

¹⁰Now the One who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed and increase the harvest of your righteousness.^e ¹¹You will be enriched in everything for all generosity, which through us brings about thanksgiving to God. ¹²For this service of giving is not only supplying the needs of the kedoshim, but is also overflowing with many thanksgivings to God. ¹³Because of the evidence of this service, they praise God for the obedience of your affirmation of the Good News of Messiah and for the generosity of your contribution to them and to everyone. ¹⁴And in their prayer for you, they long for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. ¹⁵Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

10

Tearing Down Strongholds

¹Now I, Paul, appeal myself to you by the meekness and gentleness of Messiah—I who am humble when face to face with you, but bold toward you when far away. ²I beg of you that when I am present I won't need to be bold with the courage I consider showing against some who judge us as walking in the flesh. ³For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh. ⁴For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly but powerful through God for the tearing down of strongholds. ⁵We are tearing down false arguments⁵ and every high-minded thing that exalts itself⁶ against the knowledge of God. We are taking every thought captive to the obedience of Messiah—⁶ready to punish all disobedience, whenever your obedience is complete.

⁷Look at what is before your eyes.^h If anyone is confident in himself that he belongs to Messiah, let him reconsider that just as he belongs to Messiah, so also do we. ⁸For even if I boast a little more about our authority—which the Lord gave for building you up and not for tearing you down—I will not be put to shame. ⁹Not that I would try to terrify you by my letters—¹⁰for they say, “His letters are weighty and strong, but his presence in person is weak and his speech of no account.” ¹¹Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word through letters when we are absent, we also are in action when we are present.

¹²For we do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they have no understanding. ¹³But we will not boast beyond limits, but within the limits of the area that God has assigned to us—to reach even as far as you. ¹⁴We are not extending ourselves too far, as if we did not reach you—for we did come even as far as to you with the Good News of Messiah. ¹⁵Neither are we boasting beyond limits based on the labors of others, but we have hope while your faith is growing for our area among you to be greatly enlarged—¹⁶so that we may proclaim the Good News even to regions beyond you, not boasting about what has been accomplished in another's area. ¹⁷But “let him who boasts boast in the Lord.”ⁱ ¹⁸For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

True and False Apostles

¹I wish that you would put up with a little

^h 10:7. Some mss. say Do you look at things according to outward appearance?

ⁱ 10:17. Jer. 9:23(24).

foolishness from me, but indeed you are putting up with me. ²For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I betrothed you to one husband, to present you to Messiah as a pure virgin. ³But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your minds might be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion and purity to the Messiah. ⁴For if someone comes and proclaims another Yeshua whom we did not proclaim, or if you receive a different spirit that you did not receive, or a different “good news” that you did not accept, you put up with that well enough!

⁵For I consider myself in no way inferior to the “super special” emissaries. ⁶Even if I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not so in knowledge. No, in every way we have made this clear to you in all things. ⁷Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I proclaimed to you God’s Good News free of charge? ⁸I robbed other communities by taking wages from them for service to you. ⁹When I was present with you and I was in need, I did not burden anyone; for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my need. In everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and I will continue to do so. ¹⁰As the truth of Messiah is in me, this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

¹²But what I am doing I will continue to do, so that I may cut off the opportunity from those who want an opportunity in what they boast about to also be regarded just as we are. ¹³For such men are false emissaries, deceitful workers masquerading as Messiah’s emissaries. ¹⁴And no wonder, for even satan masquerades as an angel of light. ¹⁵It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, Their end will be according to their deeds.

Paul Boasts in the Lord

¹⁶I say again, let no one consider me to be a

fool. But if you do, accept me as a fool, so that I also may boast a little. ¹⁷What I am saying, I am saying not according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this self-confident boasting. ¹⁸Since many boast according to the flesh, I too will boast. ¹⁹For you, being so wise, put up with fools gladly. ²⁰For you put up with it if someone enslaves you, if someone devours you, if someone takes advantage of you, if someone puts on airs, if someone slaps you on the face. ²¹To my shame I must say that we have been weak.

Yet whatever anyone else dares to boast about—I speak in foolishness—I dare, too. ²²Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the descendants of Abraham? So am I. ²³Are they servants of Messiah? I am more so—I speak like I’m out of my mind—in labors much more, in prisons much more, in beatings more brutal, near death often. ²⁴Five times from the Jewish leaders I received forty lashes minus one. ^b²⁵Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. A night and a day I spent in the open sea. ²⁶In my many journeys I have been in dangers from rivers, dangers from robbers, dangers from my countrymen, dangers from the Gentiles, dangers in the city, dangers in the desert, dangers in the sea, dangers among false brothers, ²⁷in labor and hardship, through many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure. ²⁸Besides these other things, there is daily pressure on me of concern for all of Messiah’s communities. ²⁹Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is led into sin, and I do not burn with indignation? ³⁰If I must boast, I will boast of my weakness. ³¹The God and Father of the Lord Yeshua, who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. ³²In Damascus the governor under King Aretas was guarding the city of the Damascenes in order to seize me, ³³and I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his hands.^c

Boasting in Visions and Weakness

¹I must go on boasting—though it does no good, I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord. ²I know a man in Messiah (whether in the body I don't know, or whether out of the body I don't know—God knows)—fourteen years ago, he was caught up to the third heaven. ³I know such a man (whether in the body or outside of the body I don't know—God knows)—⁴he was caught up into Paradise and heard words too sacred to tell, which a human is not permitted to utter. ⁵On behalf of such a man I will boast—but about myself I will not boast, except in regard to my weaknesses. ⁶For if I should want to boast, I would not be foolish—for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no one may think more of me than what he sees in me or hears from me—⁷even in the extraordinary quality of the revelations. So that I would not exalt myself, a thorn in the flesh was given to me—a messenger of satan to torment me,^e so I would not exalt myself. ⁸I pleaded with the Lord three times about this, that it might leave me. ⁹But He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly in my weaknesses, so that the power of Messiah may dwell in me. ¹⁰For Messiah's sake, then, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in distresses, in persecutions, in calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

¹¹I have become a fool—you drove me to it, for I ought to have been commended by you. For I am in no way inferior to the super-special emissaries—though I am nothing. ¹²Truly the signs of a emissary were worked out among you, with patient endurance, by signs and wonders and mighty miracles. ¹³For in what respect were you treated worse than the rest of Messiah's communities—except that I myself did not burden you? Pardon me this injustice!

^e 12:2. cf. Ezek. 8:3.

^f 12:7. Cf. Num. 33:55; Job 2:6.

¹⁴Look, I am ready to come to you this third time, and I will not burden you—for I seek not your possessions, but you! For the children are not obliged to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. ¹⁵I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less? ¹⁶But be that as it may, I did not burden you myself. Nevertheless, crafty fellow that I am, I caught you with trickery! ¹⁷I haven't taken advantage of you through any of those I sent to you, have I? ¹⁸I did urge Titus to visit you, and I sent the brother with him. Titus didn't take any advantage of you, did he? Didn't we walk in the same spirit, in the same footsteps?

¹⁹All along you've been thinking that we are defending ourselves to you. ^fIt is before God that we've been speaking in Messiah—and all for building you up, loved ones. ²⁰For I am afraid that perhaps when I come, I may find you not as I wish, or I may be found by you not as you wish—that there may be strife, envy, outbursts of anger, self-seeking disputes, lashon ha-ra, gossip, arrogance, unruly commotions. ²¹I am afraid that when I come again my God may humiliate me before you, and I will mourn for many of those who have sinned before and not repented of the impurity and sexual immorality and indecency which they committed.

Final Warnings

¹This is the third time I am coming to you. “By the testimony^g of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.”^h ²I spoke a warning, when I was with you the second time. Though now I am away, I am again speaking a warning to those who have sinned before, as well as to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare anyone—³since you are demanding proof that Messiah is speaking through me. He is not weak toward you, but powerful among

you. ⁴For He was crucified in weakness, yet He lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in Him, yet we shall live with Him by God's power toward you.

⁵Test yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Examine yourselves! Or don't you know yourselves—that Messiah Yeshua is in you? Unless of course you failed the test. ⁶But I hope that you will realize that we haven't failed the test. ⁷Now we pray to God that you do no wrong—not so that we may appear to have passed the test, but in order that you may do what is right even if we may seem to have failed. ⁸For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth. ⁹For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. We also pray for this—your perfecting. ¹⁰For this reason I write these things while I am absent, so that when I am present I need not proceed harshly, according to the authority which the Lord gave me—for building up and not for tearing down.

Final Greetings

¹¹Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice! Aim for restoration, encourage one another, be of the same mind, live in shalom—and the God of love and shalom will be with you.

¹²Greet one another with a holy kiss.

All the kedoshim greet you.^a

Galatians

1

Greetings from Paul

¹Paul, a emissary (sent not from men or by man, but by Yeshua the Messiah and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), ²and all the brothers with me.

To Messiah's communities of Galatia:

³Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and our Lord Yeshua the Messiah—⁴who gave Himself for our sins to rescue us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father—⁵to Him be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

No Other Gospel

⁶I am amazed that you are so quickly turning away from the One who called you by the grace of Messiah, to a different “good news”—⁷not that there is another, but only some who are confusing you and want to distort the Good News of Messiah. ⁸But even if we (or an angel from heaven) should announce any “good news” to you other than what we have proclaimed to you, let that person be cursed! ⁹As we have said before, so I now repeat: if anyone proclaims to you “good news” other than what you received, let that person be under a curse! ¹⁰Am I now trying to win people's approval, or God's? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Messiah.

How Paul Was Sent Out

¹¹Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the Good News proclaimed by me is not man-made. ¹²I did not receive it from any human, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation of Yeshua the Messiah.

¹³For you have heard of my earlier behavior in Judaism—how I persecuted God's community beyond measure and tried to destroy it. ¹⁴I was even advancing within Judaism beyond many my own age among my people, being a more extreme observer of my fathers' traditions. ¹⁵But when God—who set me apart from birth and called me through His grace^b—was pleased ¹⁶to reveal His Son to me so I would proclaim Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with any human. ¹⁷I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who were emissaries before me, either. Instead I went away to Arabia and returned again to Damascus.

¹⁸Then three years later I went to Jerusalem to visit with Peter, and I stayed with him fifteen days. ¹⁹But I saw no other emissaries except Jacob, the Lord's brother. ²⁰(In what I'm writing you, before God, I do not lie.)

²¹Then I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ²²But I was personally unknown to Messiah's communities of Judea; ²³they only kept hearing, “The one who once persecuted us now proclaims the Good News he once tried to destroy!” ²⁴So they were praising God because of me.

Accepted in Jerusalem

¹Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus with me. ²Because of a revelation, I went up and presented to them the Good News that I proclaim among the Gentiles. But I did so privately to those who seemed to be influential, to make sure I would not run—or had not run—in vain.^c ³Yet not even Titus who was with me, a Greek, was forced to be circumcised. ⁴Now this issue came up because of false brothers secretly brought in (who slipped in to spy out our freedom in Messiah, in order to bring us into bondage).

^b 1:15. cf. Isa. 49:1, 5; Jer. 1:5.
^c 2:2. cf. Isa. 49:4.

⁵But we did not give in to them, even for a moment, so that the truth of the Good News might be preserved for you.

⁶But from those who seemed to be influential (whatever they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)—well, those influential ones added nothing to my message. ⁷On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcised just as Peter was for the circumcised. ⁸(For the same God who was at work in Peter as a emissary to the Jews, also was at work in me as a emissary to the Gentiles.) ⁹Realizing the favor that had been given to me, Jacob and Peter^a and John—who are the recognized pillars—shook hands in partnership with Barnabas and me,^b so that we would go to the Gentiles and they to the Jews. ¹⁰They asked only that we remember the poor—something I also was eager to do.

Confronting Hypocrisy

¹¹But when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he was clearly in the wrong—¹²for before certain people came from Jacob, he regularly ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he began to withdraw and separate himself, fearing those from the circumcision. ¹³And the rest of the Jews joined him in hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. ¹⁴But when I saw that they were not walking in line with the truth of the Good News, I said to Peter in front of everyone, “If you—being a Jew—live like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?”

¹⁵We are Jews by birth and not sinners from among the Gentiles. ¹⁶Yet we know that a person is set right not by deeds based on Torah, but rather through putting trust in Messiah Yeshua.^c So even we have put our trust in Messiah Yeshua, in order that we might be set right based on trust in Messiah and not by deeds based on Torah—because no human will be justified^d by deeds based on Torah. ¹⁷But if, while seeking to be justified in Messiah, we ourselves also were found to be sinners, is Messiah then an agent of sin? May it never be! ¹⁸For if I rebuild the very things I tore down, I prove myself to be a law-breaker. ¹⁹For through law I died to law, so that I might live for God. I have been crucified with Messiah; ²⁰and it is no longer I who live, but Messiah lives in me. And the life I now live in the body, I live by trusting in Ben-Elohim^e—who loved me and gave Himself up for me. ²¹I do not nullify the grace of God—for if righteousness comes through Torah, then Messiah died for no reason!

By Deeds or by Faith?

¹O foolish Galatians, who cast a spell on you? Before your eyes Yeshua the Messiah was clearly portrayed as crucified. ²I want to find out just one thing from you: did you receive the Ruach by deeds based on Torah, or by hearing based on trust? ³Are you so foolish? After beginning with the Ruach, will you now reach the goal in the flesh? ⁴Did you endure so much for nothing—if it really was for nothing? ⁵So then, the One who gives you the Ruach and works miracles among you—does He do it because of your deeds based on Torah or your hearing based on trust and faithfulness?

⁶Just as Abraham “believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,”^f ⁷know then that those who have faith are children of Abraham. ⁸The Scriptures, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the Good News to Abraham in advance, saying, “All the nations shall be blessed through you.”^g ⁹So then, the faithful are blessed along with Abraham, the faithful one.

¹⁰For all who rely on the deeds of Torah are under a curse—for the Scriptures say, “Cursed is everyone who does not keep doing everything written in the scroll of the Torah.^h ¹¹It is clear that no one is set right before God by Torah, for “the righteous shall live by emunah.”ⁱ ¹²However, Torah is not based on trust and faithfulness; on the contrary, “the one who does these things shall live by them.”^j ¹³Messiah liberated us from Torah’s curse, having become a curse for us (for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree”^k)—¹⁴in order that through Messiah Yeshua the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so we might receive the promise of the Ruach through trusting faith.

Slaves or Sons?

¹⁵Brothers and sisters, I speak in human terms: even with a man’s covenant, once it has been confirmed, no one cancels it or adds to it.¹⁶ Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. It doesn’t say, “and to seeds,” as of many, but as of one, “and to your seed,” who is the Messiah.¹⁷ What I am saying is this: Torah, which came 430 years later, does not cancel the covenant previously confirmed by God, so as to make the promise ineffective.¹⁸ For if the inheritance is based on law, it is no longer based on a promise. But God has graciously given it to Abraham by means of a promise.

¹⁹Then why the Torah? It was added because of wrongdoings until the Seed would come—to whom the promise had been made. It was arranged through angels by the hand of an intermediary.²⁰ Now an intermediary is not for one party alone—but God is one.²¹ Then is the Torah against the promises of God? May it never be! For if a law had been given that could impart life, certainly righteousness would have been based on law.²² But the Scripture has locked up the whole world under sin, so that the promise based on trust in Messiah Yeshua might be given to those who trust.

²³Now before faith came, we were being guarded under Torah—bound together until the coming faith would be revealed.²⁴ Therefore the Torah became our guardian to lead us to Messiah, so that we might be made right based on trusting.²⁵ But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian.²⁶ For you are all sons of God through trusting in Messiah Yeshua.²⁷ For all of you who were immersed in Messiah have clothed yourselves with Messiah.²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female—for you are all one in Messiah Yeshua.²⁹ And if you belong to Messiah, then you are Abraham’s seed—heirs according to the promise.

Living as Heirs

¹Now I am saying, so long as the heir is underage, he is no different from a slave, even though he is the owner of everything.² Instead, he is under guardians and managers until the date set by the father.³ So also, when we were underage, we were subservient to the basic principles of the world.⁴ But when the fullness of time came, God sent out His Son, born of a woman and born under law—⁵to free those under law, so we might receive adoption as sons.⁶ Now because you are sons, God sent the Ruach of His Son into our hearts, who cries out, “Abba! Father!”⁷ So you are no longer a slave but a son—and if a son, also an heir through God.^m ⁸But at that time, when you did not know God, you served those who by nature are not gods at all.⁹ But now you have come to know God—or rather you have come to be known by God. So how can you turn back again to those weak and worthless principles? Do you want to be enslaved to them all over again?¹⁰ You observe days and months and seasons and years.¹¹ I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored over you in vain!

¹²I plead with you, brothers and sisters, become like me, for I became like you. You have done me no wrong—¹³you know it was because of a physical ailment that I proclaimed the Good News to you the first time;¹⁴ and though my physical condition was a trial to you, you did not hate or reject me. No, you welcomed me as a messenger of God—or even as Messiah Yeshua.¹⁵ So where is your sense of joy? For I testify that you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me, if possible.¹⁶ So have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? ¹⁷ Others zealously court you—not in a good way, but they wish to shut you out so that you will court them.¹⁸ To be courted is good, but let it always be in a good way—and not just when I am there with you.¹⁹ My dear children! Again I suffer labor pains until Messiah is formed in you.²⁰ I wish I could be with you now and change my tone, for I don't know what to make of you.

Midrash on Abraham's Two Sons

²¹Tell me, you who want to be under Torah, don't you understand^a the Torah? ²²For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and one by the free woman.^b ²³But one—the son by the slave woman—was born naturally;^c while the other—the son by the free woman—was through the promise.²⁴ Now these things are being treated allegorically, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, giving birth to slavery—this is Hagar.²⁵ But this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery along with her children.²⁶ But the Jerusalem above is free—she is our mother.²⁷ For it is written:

“Rejoice, O barren woman who bears no children.
Break forth and shout,
you who suffer no labor pains.
For more are the children of the desolate than of the one who has a husband.”^d

^a 4:21. Or hear, listen to the law; cf. Deut. 6:4; 18:15; Exod. 24:7.

^b 4:22. cf. Gen. 16:15; Gen. 21:2.

^c 4:23. Lit. according to the flesh.

^d 4:27. Isa. 54:1.

²⁸ Now you, brothers and sisters—like Isaac, you are children of promise.²⁹ But just as at that time the one born according to the flesh persecuted the one born according to the Ruach, so it is now.³⁰ But what does the Scripture say? “Drive out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son”^e of the free woman.³¹ So then, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman but of the free woman.

Freedom Based on Favor

¹ For freedom, Messiah set us free—so stand firm, and do not be burdened by a yoke of slavery again.² Listen—I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Messiah will be of no benefit to you.³ Again I testify to every man who lets himself be circumcised, that he is obligated to keep the whole Torah.⁴ You who are trying to be justified by Torah^f have been cut off from Messiah; you have fallen away from grace.⁵ For through the Ruach, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness.⁶ For in Messiah Yeshua; neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any meaning—but only trust and faithfulness expressing itself through love.

⁷ You were running a great race! Who blocked you from following the truth? ⁸ This detour doesn't come from the One who calls you.⁹ A little hametz works its way through the whole batch of dough! ¹⁰ I am confident in the Lord that you will not think otherwise. But the one who is confusing you will pay the penalty, whoever he is.¹¹ As for me, brothers and sisters, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case, the stumbling block of the cross has been eliminated.¹² I only wish those who are agitating you would castrate themselves!¹³

^e 4:30. Gen. 21:10(LXX).

^f 5:4. Or made right by Torah.

^g 5:12. cf. Phil. 3:2.

Walking by the Ruach

¹³Brothers and sisters, you were called to freedom—only do not let your freedom become an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. ¹⁴For the whole Torah can be summed up in a single saying: “Love your neighbor as yourself.”^h ¹⁵But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not destroyed by one another.

¹⁶But I say, walk by the Ruach, and you will not carry out the desires of the flesh. ¹⁷For the flesh sets its desire against the Ruach, but the Ruach sets its desire against the flesh—for these are in opposition to one another, so that you cannot do what you want. ¹⁸But if you are led by the Ruach, you are not under law. ¹⁹Now the deeds of the flesh are clear: sexual immorality, impurity, indecency, ²⁰idolatry, witchcraft, hostility, strife, jealousy, rage, selfish ambition, dissension, factions, ²¹envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, just as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit God’s kingdom. ²²But the fruit of the Ruach is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³gentleness, and self-control—against such things there is no law. ²⁴Now those who belong to Messiahⁱ have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

²⁵If we live by the Ruach, let us also walk by the Ruach. ²⁶Let us not become conceited—provoking one another, envying one another.

Bearing Burdens

¹Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught doing something wrong, you who are directed by the Ruach, restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness—looking closely at yourself so you are not tempted also. ²Bear one another’s

^h 5:14. Lev. 19:18.

burdens, and in this way you fulfill the Torah of Messiah. ³For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he is fooling himself. ⁴Rather let each one examine his own work. Then he will have pride in himself alone and not in comparison to anyone else. ⁵For each one will carry his own load.

⁶Now let the one who is taught the word share all good things with his teacher. ⁷Do not be deceived—God is not mocked. For whatever a man sows, that he also shall reap. ⁸For the one who sows in the flesh will reap corruption from the flesh.^j But the one who sows in the Ruach will reap from the Ruach eternal life. ⁹So let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we will reap if we don’t give up. ¹⁰Therefore, whenever we have an opportunity, let us do good toward all^k—especially those who belong to the household of faith.

Living under God’s Favor

¹¹Notice the large letters—I am writing to you with my own hand. ¹²Those wanting to look good outwardly^l are trying to force you to be circumcised—only so they will not be persecuted for the cross of Messiah. ¹³For not even the circumcised keep Torah themselves. Yet they want to have you circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. ¹⁴But may I never boast—except in the cross of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. Through Him the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means^m anything—but only a new creation. ¹⁶Now as many as live by this ruleⁿ—shalom and mercy on them and on the Israel of God.

¹⁷From now on let no one make trouble for me, for I bear on my body the scars^o of Yeshua.

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Greetings

¹Paul, a emissary of Messiah Yeshua by God's will,

To the kedoshim in Ephesus²... those trusting in Messiah Yeshua:

³Grace and shalom to you, from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

God's Glorious Grace

⁴Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Messiah. ⁵He chose us in the Messiah before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless before Him in love. ⁶He predestined us for adoption as sons through Messiah Yeshua, in keeping with the good pleasure of His will... ⁷to the glorious praise of His grace, with which He favored us through the One He loves!

⁸In Him we have redemption through His blood... the removal of trespasses... in keeping with the richness of His grace ⁹that He lavished on us. In all wisdom and insight, ¹⁰He made known to us the mystery of His will, in keeping with His good pleasure that He planned in Messiah. ¹¹The plan of the fullness of times is to bring all things together in the Messiah... both things in heaven and things on earth, all in Him. ¹²In Him we also were chosen,¹³ predestined according to His plan. He keeps working out all things according to the purpose of His will... ¹⁴so that we, who were first to put our hope in Messiah, might be for His glorious praise.

¹⁵After you heard the message of truth... the Good News of your salvation... and when you put your trust in Him, you were sealed with the promised Ruach ha Kodesh. ¹⁶He is the guarantee of our inheritance, until the redemption of His possession... to His glorious praise!

God's Glorious Power Working In Us

¹⁷Therefore, ever since I heard of your trust in the Lord Yeshua and of your love for all the kedoshim, ¹⁸I never stop giving thanks for you as I mention you in my prayers... ¹⁹that the God of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, our glorious Father, may give you spiritual wisdom and revelation in knowing Him. ²⁰I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what is the richness of His glorious inheritance in the kedoshim, ²¹and what is His exceedingly great power toward us who keep trusting Him... in keeping with the working of His mighty strength.

²²This power He exercised in Messiah when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in heaven. ²³He is far above any ruler, authority, power, leader, and every name that is named... not only in the olam ha-zeh but also in the olam ha-ba. ²⁴God placed all things under Messiah's feet^d and appointed Him as head over all things for His community... ²⁵which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

Destined for Wrath, Saved by Grace

¹You were dead in your trespasses and sins. ²At that time, you walked in the way of this world, in conformity to the ruler of the domain of the air... the ruler of the spirit who is now operating in the sons of disobedience. ³We too all lived among them in the cravings of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and the mind. By nature we were children of wrath, just like the others. ⁴But God was rich in mercy, ^ebecause of His great love with which He loved us. ⁵Even when we were dead in our trespasses, He made us alive together with Messiah. (By grace you have been saved!) ⁶And He raised us up with Him and seated us with Him in the heavenly places in Messiah Yeshua— ⁷to show in the olam ha-ba the measureless richness of His grace in kindness toward us in Messiah Yeshua.

⁸For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not from yourselves—it is the gift of God. ⁹It is not based on deeds, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰For we are His workmanship—created in Messiah Yeshua for good deeds, which God prepared beforehand so we might walk in them.

Jew and Gentile, One in Messiah

¹¹Therefore, keep in mind that once you—Gentiles in the flesh—were called “uncircumcision” by those called “circumcision” (which is performed on flesh by hand). ¹²At that time you were separate from Messiah, excluded from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. ¹³But now in Messiah Yeshua, you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of the Messiah. ¹⁴For He is our shalom, the One who made the two into one and broke down the middle wall of separation. Within His flesh He made powerless the hostility— ¹⁵the law code of mitzvot contained in regulations. He did this in order to create within Himself one new man from the two groups, making shalom, ¹⁶and to reconcile both to God in one body through the cross—by which He put the hostility to death. ¹⁷And He came and proclaimed shalom to you who were far away and shalom to those who were near^f— ¹⁸for through Him we both have access to the Father by the same Ruach. ¹⁹So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with God’s people and members of God’s household. ²⁰You have been built on the foundation made up of the emissaries and prophets, with Messiah Yeshua Himself being the cornerstone.^g ²¹In Him the whole building, being fitted together, is growing into a holy temple for the Lord. ²²In Him, you also are being built together into God’s dwelling place^h in the Ruach.

The Mystery of the Gentiles Revealed

¹For this reason I, Paul, am a prisoner of Messiah Yeshua for the sake of you Gentiles. ²Surely you have heard about the plan of God’s grace given to me for you— ³that the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote before briefly. ⁴When you read this, you can understand my insight into the mystery of Messiah— ⁵which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations, as it has now been revealed by the Ruach to His holy emissaries and prophets. ⁶This mystery is that the Gentiles are joint heirs and fellow members of the same body and co-sharers of the promise in Messiah Yeshua through the Good News. ⁷I became a servant of this Good News by the gift of God’s favor given to me through the exercise of His power.

⁸This favor was given to me, the very least of His kedoshim, to proclaim to the Gentiles the endless riches of the Messiah ⁹and to bring to light the plan of the mystery—which for ages was hidden in God, who created all things. ¹⁰The purpose is that through Messiah’s community the multi-faceted wisdom of God might be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places, ¹¹which is in keeping with the eternal purpose that He carried out in Messiah Yeshua our Lord. ¹²In Him we have boldness and access with confidence through trusting in Him. ¹³So I ask you not to be discouraged by my troubles on your behalf—they are your glory.

^g 2:20. cf. Ps. 118:22-23; Isa. 28:16.

ⁱ 3:12. Or through His faithfulness.

^e 2:4. cf. Exod. 34:6; Ps. 145:8.

^f 2:17. cf. Isa. 57:19.

Prayer for Power and Understanding

¹⁴For this reason I bow my knees before the Father^a—¹⁵from Him every family in heaven and on earth receives its name. ¹⁶I pray that from His glorious riches He would grant you to be strengthened in your inner being with power through His Ruach, ¹⁷so that Messiah may dwell in your hearts through faith. I pray that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸may have strength to grasp with all the kedoshim what is the width and length and height and depth, ¹⁹and to know the love of Messiah which surpasses knowledge, so you may be filled up with all the fullness of God.

²⁰Now to Him who is able to do far beyond all that we ask or imagine, by means of His power that works in us, ²¹to Him be the glory in the community of believers and in Messiah Yeshua throughout all generations^b forever and ever! Amen.

Unity of the Body and of God

¹Therefore I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you were called—²with complete humility and gentleness, with patience, putting up with one another in love, ³making every effort to keep the unity of the Ruach in the bond of shalom.

⁴There is one body and one Ruach, just as you also were called in one hope of your calling;

⁵one Lord, one faith, one immersion;

⁶one God and Father of all,^c who is over all and through all and in all.

⁷But to each one of us grace was given in keeping with the measure of Messiah's gift.

⁸Therefore it says,

^a 3:14. Some mss. add of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

^b 3:21. cf. Ps. 145:4; 13.

^c 4:6. cf. Deut. 6:4.

“When He went up on high,
He led captive a troop of captives and gave gifts to his people.”^d

⁹Now what does “He went up” mean, except that He first went down to the lower regions of the earth?^e ¹⁰The One who came down is the same One who went up far above all the heavens, in order to fill all things.

¹¹He Himself gave some to be emissaries, some as prophets, some as proclaimers of the Good News, and some as shepherds and teachers—¹²to equip the kedoshim for the work of service, for building up the body of Messiah. ¹³This will continue until we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of Ben-Elohim—to mature adulthood, to the measure of the stature of Messiah's fullness. ¹⁴As a result, we are no longer to be like children, tossed around by the waves and blown all over by every wind of teaching, by the trickery of men with cunning in deceitful scheming. ¹⁵Instead, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all ways into Messiah, who is the Head. ¹⁶From Him the whole body is fitted and held together by every supporting ligament. The proper working of each individual part produces the body's growth, for building itself up in love.

Put Off The Old, Put On The New

¹⁷So I tell you this, indeed I insist on it in the Lord—walk no longer as the pagans do, stumbling around in the futility of their thinking. ¹⁸They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance in them due to the hardness of their heart. ¹⁹Since they are past feeling, they have turned themselves over to indecency for the practice of every kind of immorality, with greed for more.

²⁰However, you did not learn Messiah in this way—²¹if indeed you have heard Him and were taught in Him, as the truth is in Yeshua.

²²With respect to your former lifestyle, you are to lay aside the old self corrupted by its ^d 4:8. cf. Ps. 68:19(18)(68:18LXX).

^e 4:9. cf. Isa. 44:23.

deceitful desires, ²³be renewed in the spirit of your mind, ²⁴and put on the new self—created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

²⁵So lay aside lying and “each one of you speak truth with his neighbor,”^f for we are members of one another. ²⁶“Be angry, yet do not sin.”^g Do not let the sun go down on your anger, ^hnor give the devil a foothold. ²⁸The one who steals must steal no longer—instead he must work, doing something useful with his own hands, so he may have something to share with the one who has need. ²⁹Let no harmful word come out of your mouth, but only what is beneficial for building others up according to the need, so that it gives grace to those who hear it. ³⁰Do not grieve the Ruach ha-Kodesh of God,ⁱ by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. ³¹Get rid of all bitterness and rage and anger and quarreling and slander, along with all malice. ³²Instead, be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving each other just as God in Messiah also forgave you.

Walk in the Light

¹Therefore be imitators of God, as dearly loved children; ²and walk in love, just as Messiah also loved us^j and gave Himself up for us as an offering and sacrifice to God for a fragrant aroma. ³But sexual immorality and any impurity or greed—don’t even let these be mentioned among you, as is proper for kedoshim. ⁴Obscene, coarse, and stupid talk are also out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. ⁵Know for certain that no immoral, indecent, or greedy person—who is really an idol worshipper at heart—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Messiah and God.

⁶Let no one deceive you with empty words,

^f 4:25. Zech. 8:16.

^g 4:26. Ps. 4:5(4)(4:5LXX).

ⁱ 4:30. cf. Isa. 63:10.

^j 5:2. Some mss. read you.

for because of such things God’s judgment comes on the children of disobedience. ⁷Therefore do not be partners with them. ⁸For once you were darkness, but now in union with the Lord you are light. Walk as children of light ⁹(for the fruit of light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), ¹⁰trying to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. ¹¹Take no part in the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them—¹²for it is disgraceful even to mention the things that are done by them in secret. ¹³Yet everything exposed by the light is being made visible, ¹⁴for everything made visible is light. This is why it says, “Wake up, O sleeper!

Rise from the dead,

and Messiah will shine on you.”^k

¹⁵So pay close attention to how you walk— not as unwise people but as wise. ¹⁶Make the most of your time because the days are evil. ¹⁷For this reason do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord’s will is. ¹⁸And do not get drunk on wine, for that is recklessness.^l Instead, be filled with the Ruach, ¹⁹speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making music in your heart to the Lord—²⁰always giving thanks for everything to God the Father, in the name of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Orderly Relationships: Marriage

²¹Also submit yourselves to one another out of reverence for Messiah—²²wives to your own husbands as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is head of the wife, as Messiah also is head of His community—Himself the Savior of the body. ²⁴But as Messiah’s community is submitted to Messiah, so also the wives to their husbands in everything.

²⁵Husbands, love your wives just as Messiah also loved His community and gave Himself up for her²⁶ to make her holy, having cleansed her by immersion^m in the word. ²⁷Messiah did this so that He might present to Himself His glorious community—not having stain or wrinkle or any such thing, but in order that she might be holy and blameless.²⁸ In the same way, husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

²⁹For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it—just as Messiah also does His community,³⁰ because we are members of His body.³¹ “For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.”^a ³²This mystery is great—but I am talking about Messiah and His community.³³ In any case, let each of you love his own wife as himself, and let the wife respect her husband.

Orderly Relationships: Parents

¹Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.^b ²“Honor your father and mother” (which is the first commandment with a promise),³ “so that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth.”^c ⁴Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.^d

Orderly Relationships: Workplace

⁵Slaves, obey your human masters, with respect and reverence, with sincerity of heart, as you would the Messiah—⁶not just under your master’s eye as people-pleasers, but as slaves of Messiah doing God’s will from the soul.⁷ Serve with a positive attitude, as to the Lord and not to men—⁸knowing that whatever good each one does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether slave or free.⁹ And masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Stop using threats, knowing that the Master—of them and of you, too—is in heaven,^e and there is no favoritism with Him.

Put on the Armor of God

¹⁰Finally, be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power.¹¹ Put on the full armor of God, so that you are able to stand against the schemes of the devil.¹² For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the worldly forces of this darkness, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.¹³ Therefore, take up the full armor of God, so that you may be able to resist when the times are evil, and after you have done everything, to stand firm.¹⁴ Stand firm then! Buckle the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness.^f ¹⁵Strap up your feet in readiness with the Good News of shalom.^g ¹⁶Above all, take up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.^h ¹⁷And take the helmet of salvationⁱ and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.¹⁸ Pray in the Ruach on every occasion, with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, keep alert with perseverance and supplication for all the kedoshim.¹⁹ And pray for me when I open my mouth to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News,²⁰ for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may speak boldly, the way I should.

²¹Now Tychicus, my dearly loved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will give you all the news about me so you may know how I’m doing.²² I have sent him to you for this very reason, so you may know how we are and he may encourage your hearts.

²³*Shalom* to the brothers and sisters, and trusting love from God the Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.²⁴ Grace be with all those who love our Lord Yeshua the Messiah with undying love.

Philippians

Greetings

¹Paul and Timothy, slaves of Messiah Yeshua,

To all the kedoshim in Messiah Yeshua who are in Philippi with the overseers and servant-leaders:

²Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Thanksgiving and Prayers of Joy

³I thank my God at every memory of you, ⁴always praying with joy in every prayer of mine for you all, ⁵because of your sharing in the Good News from the first day until now. ⁶I am sure of this very thing—that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the Day of Messiah Yeshua. ⁷It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I have you in my heart—for you all are partakers of grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News. ⁸For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the affection of Messiah Yeshua.

⁹Now this I pray, that your love might overflow still more and more in knowledge and depth of discernment, ¹⁰in order to approve what is excellent—so that in the Day of Messiah you may be sincere and blameless, ¹¹filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Yeshua the Messiah, to the glory and praise of God.

Even in Chains, Proclaiming Messiah

¹²Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually resulted in the advancement of the Good News. ¹³And so my imprisonment in the cause of Messiah has become well known throughout the whole Praetorian Guard and to everyone else. ¹⁴Because of my imprisonment, most of the brothers and sisters have become confident in the Lord to dare more than ever to speak the message fearlessly. ¹⁵Some are proclaiming the Messiah out of envy and strife, but others out of good will. ¹⁶The latter do so out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News. ¹⁷The former proclaim Messiah not sincerely, but out of selfishness—expecting to stir up trouble for me in my imprisonment. ¹⁸But what does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in dishonesty or in truth, Messiah is being proclaimed—and in this I rejoice!

To Live Is Messiah

Yes, and I will keep rejoicing, ¹⁹for I know that this will turn out for my deliverance, through your intercession and the help of the Ruach of Messiah Yeshua. ²⁰My eager expectation and hope is that in no way will I be put to shame, but that with complete boldness Messiah will even now, as always, be exalted in my body—whether through life or through death. ²¹For to me, to live is Messiah and to die is gain. ²²But if to live on in the body means fruit from my work, what shall I choose? I do not know. ²³I am torn between the two—having a desire to leave and be with Messiah, which is far better; ²⁴yet for your sake, to remain in the body is more necessary. ²⁵Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for the sake of your progress and joy in the faith—²⁶so that your confidence in Messiah Yeshua might overflow because of me through my coming to you again.

²⁷Only live your lives in a manner worthy of the Good News of the Messiah. Then, whether I come and see you or I am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit—striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the Good News ²⁸and not being frightened in any way by your opponents. For them this is a sign of destruction, but for you salvation—and that from God. ²⁹For to you was granted for Messiah's sake not only to trust in Him, but also to suffer for His sake—³⁰experiencing the same struggle you saw in me and now you are hearing in me.

Messiah's Example of Humility

¹Therefore if there is any encouragement in Messiah, if there is any comfort of love, if there is any fellowship of the Ruach, if there is any mercy and compassion, ²then make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love, united in spirit, with one purpose. ³Do nothing out of selfishness or conceit, but with humility consider others as more important than yourselves, ⁴looking out not only for your own interests but also for the interests of others. ⁵Have this attitude in yourselves, which also was in Messiah Yeshua, ⁶Who, though existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal to God a thing to be grasped.

⁷But He emptied Himself—taking on the form of a slave, becoming the likeness of men and being found in appearance as a man.

⁸He humbled Himself—becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

⁹For this reason God highly exalted Him and gave Him the name that is above every name,

¹⁰that at the name of Yeshua every knee should bow,^a in heaven and on the earth and under the earth,

¹¹and every tongue profess that Yeshua the Messiah is Lord—to the glory of God the Father.

^a 2:10-11. cf. Isa. 45:23.

Work Out Your Salvation

¹²Therefore, my loved ones, just as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now even more in my absence—work out your salvation with fear and trembling. ¹³For the One working in you is God—both to will and to work for His good pleasure.

¹⁴Do everything without grumbling or arguing, ¹⁵so that you might be blameless and innocent, children of God in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation.^b Among them you shine as lights in the world, ¹⁶holding fast to the word of life, so that I may boast in the day of Messiah that I did not run or labor in vain. ¹⁷But even if I am being poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrifice and the service of your faith, I rejoice and share my joy with you all. ¹⁸The same way, you also—rejoice and share your joy with me!

Sending and Receiving Encouragement

¹⁹But I hope in the Lord Yeshua to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too might be encouraged when I know the news about you. ²⁰I have no one else like him who will genuinely care about you—²¹for all seek after their own interests, not those of Messiah Yeshua. ²²But you know Timothy's proven character, that he served with me in spreading the Good News like a son with his father. ²³Therefore I hope to send him immediately, as soon as I see how things go with me. ²⁴And I trust in the Lord that soon I too will come myself.

²⁵But I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus—my brother and co-worker and fellow soldier, as well as your messenger and aide to my need. ²⁶For he was longing for you all and troubled because you heard that he was sick. ²⁷He certainly was sick, close to death. But God had mercy on him—and not only on him but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸Therefore I have sent him with special urgency, so that when you see him again you might rejoice and I might be less worried about you. ²⁹So

welcome him in the Lord with all joy, and hold men like him in high regard,³⁰ because he came close to death for the work of Messiah, risking his life to make up for what was lacking in your service to me.

3

Where Do You Put Your Confidence?

¹Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord! To keep writing the same things to you is not troublesome for me—but for you it is a safeguard.

²Beware of the dogs,^c beware of the evil workers, beware of the mutilation.^d ³For it is we who are the circumcision, who worship by the Ruach Elohim and glory in Messiah Yeshua and have not depended on the flesh—⁴though I myself might have confidence in the flesh also. If anyone else thinks he might depend on the flesh, I far more—⁵circumcised the eighth day; of the nation of Israel; from the tribe of Benjamin; a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the Torah, a Pharisee; ⁶as for zeal, persecuting Messiah's community; as for Torah righteousness, found blameless.

⁷But whatever things were gain to me, these I have considered as loss for the sake of the Messiah. ⁸More than that, I consider all things to be loss in comparison to the surpassing value of the knowledge of Messiah Yeshua my Lord. Because of Him I have suffered the loss of all things; and I consider them garbage^e in order that I might gain Messiah ⁹and be found in Him not having my righteousness derived from Torah, but one that is through trusting in Messiah—the righteousness from God based on trust.^f ¹⁰My aim is to know Him and the power of His resurrection and the sharing of His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death—¹¹if somehow I might arrive at the resurrection from among the dead.

^c 3:1. cf. Ps. 22:16, 20.

^d 3:2. cf. Gal. 5:12.

^e 3:8. Lit. excrement.

^f 3:9. Or one that is through Messiah's faithfulness—the righteousness from God based on faithfulness.

Pursuing the Goal

¹²Not that I have already obtained this or been perfected, but I press on if only I might take hold of that for which Messiah Yeshua took hold of me.^g ¹³Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself as having taken hold of this. But this one thing I do: forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead,^h ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the reward of the upward calling of God in Messiah Yeshua.^h ¹⁵Therefore let all who are mature have this attitude; and if you have a different attitude in anything, this also God will reveal to you. ¹⁶Nevertheless, let us live up to the same standard we have attained.

¹⁷Brothers and sisters, join in following my example and notice those who walk according to the pattern you have in us. (¹⁸For many walk who are enemies of the cross of Messiah—I have often told you about them, and now I am even weeping as I tell you. ¹⁹Their end is destruction—their god is their belly and their glory is in their shame. They set their minds on earthly things.)

²⁰For our citizenship is in heaven, and from there we eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

²¹He will transform this humble body of ours into the likeness of His glorious body, through the power that enables Him even to put all things in subjection to Himself.

¹Therefore, my brothers and sisters whom I love and long for, my joy and crown—stand firm in the Lord in this way, my loved ones.

Rejoice in the Lord Always

²I urge Euodia and Syntyche to be in harmony in the Lord. ³Yes, and I ask you, true

^g 3:12. Lit. I was taken hold of by Messiah Yeshua.

^h 3:14. cf. 1 Cor. 9:24; Heb. 12:2.

companion,^a to help these women—they labored side by side with me in spreading the Good News, together with Clement also and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always—again I will say, rejoice! ⁵Let your gentleness be known to all people. The Lord is near. ⁶Do not be anxious about anything—but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. ⁷And the shalom of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Messiah Yeshua.^b ⁸Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable—if there is any virtue and if there is anything worthy of praise—dwell on these things. ⁹What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—put these things into practice, and the God of shalom will be with you.

The Secret of Contentment

¹⁰I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at last you have revived your concern for me (though you were concerned before but lacked opportunity to show it). ¹¹I am not saying this because I am in need—for whatever circumstance I am in, I have learned to be content. ¹²I know what it is to live with ^a 4:3. Possibly a proper name.

^b 4:7. cf. Isa. 26:3.

humble means, and I know what it is to live in prosperity. In any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of contentment—both to be filled and to go hungry, to have abundance and to suffer need. ¹³I can do all things through Messiah^c who strengthens me.

¹⁴Nevertheless, you have done well to share in my trouble. ¹⁵Now you Philippians also know that in the beginning of the Good News, when I left Macedonia, not a single community partnered with me in giving and receiving—except you alone. ¹⁶For even in Thessalonica you sent something for my need more than once. ¹⁷Not that I am looking for a gift, but for fruit that overflows to your credit. ¹⁸But I have received everything and have more than enough. I am amply supplied, having received from Epaphroditus what you sent—a fragrant aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God.^d ¹⁹My God will fulfill every need of yours according to the riches of His glory in Messiah Yeshua. ²⁰To our God and Father be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

Final Greetings and Blessings

²¹Greet all the kedoshim in Messiah Yeshua. The brethren who are with me greet you. ²²All the kedoshim greet you, especially those of Caesar's household.

²³The grace of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with your spirit.

Colossians

1

Greetings

¹Paul, a emissary of Messiah Yeshua by God's will, and Timothy our brother,

²To the kedoshim, the faithful brothers and sisters in Messiah, who are at Colossae:

Grace and shalom to you from God our Father!^e

Thanksgiving and Prayer

³We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, whenever we pray for you. ⁴For we heard of your trust in Messiah Yeshua and the love you have for all the kedoshim ⁵because of the hope stored up for you in heaven. You heard before about this hope in the true message of the Good News ⁶that has come to you. In all the world this Good News is bearing fruit and growing,^f just as it has in you since you first heard it and came to truly know God's grace. ⁷You learned it from Epaphras—our dearly loved fellow slave, who is a faithful servant of Messiah on our behalf. ⁸He also made clear to us your love in the Ruach.

⁹For this reason also, ever since we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you. We keep asking God that you might be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding— ¹⁰to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, to please Him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God. ¹¹We pray that you may be strengthened with all the power that comes from His glorious might, for you to have all kinds of patience and steadfastness. With joy ¹²we give thanks to the Father, who qualified you to share in the inheritance of the kedoshim in the light. ¹³He rescued us from the domain of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son whom He loves. ¹⁴In Him we have redemption—the release of sins.

Ben-Elohim Is Supreme

¹⁵He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

¹⁶For by Him all things were created—in heaven and on earth, the seen and the unseen, whether thrones or angelic powers or rulers or authorities.

All was created through Him and for Him.

¹⁷He exists before everything, and in Him all holds together.

¹⁸He is the head of the body, His community. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead—

so that He might come to have first place in all things.

¹⁹For God was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in Him^g

²⁰and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, making peace through the blood of His cross—whether things on earth or things in heaven!

²¹Once you were alienated from God and hostile in your attitude by wicked deeds.

²²But now He has reconciled you in Messiah's physical body through death, in order to present you holy, spotless and blameless in His eyes— ²³if indeed you continue in the faith, established and firm, not budging from the hope of the Good News that you have heard. This Good News has been proclaimed throughout all creation under heaven, and I, Paul, have become its servant.

The Mystery Revealed

²⁴Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you,

^g 1:19. cf. Isa. 6:3; Ezek. 43:5; 44:4.

^f 1:2. Some mss. add: and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.
^f 1:6. cf. Gen 1:28; 9:1, 7; 17:2; 22:17; 28:3; 35:11.

and in my physical body—for the sake of His body, Messiah’s community—I fill up what is lacking in the afflictions of Messiah. ²⁵I became its servant according to God’s commission, given to me for you, in order to declare His message in full—²⁶the mystery that was hidden for ages and generations, but now has been revealed to His kedoshim. ²⁷God chose to make known to them this glorious mystery regarding the Gentiles—which is Messiah in you, the hope of glory! ²⁸We proclaim Him, warning and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present every person complete^a in Messiah. ²⁹To this end I labor, striving with all His strength which is powerfully at work in me.

¹I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those in Laodicea, as well as for those who have still not seen me face to face. ²My purpose is that their hearts, joined together in love, may be encouraged. May they have all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, leading to a true knowledge of the mystery of God—that is, Messiah. ³In Him all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.^b ⁴I am telling you this so that no one will deceive you with persuasive-sounding arguments. ⁵For even though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit—rejoicing to see your good order and the steadfastness of your trust in Messiah.

Living Out the Mystery

⁶Therefore as you received Messiah Yeshua as Lord, so continue to walk in Him—⁷rooted and built up in Him and established in your faith just as you were taught, overflowing with thankfulness. ⁸See that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, according to the tradition of men and the basic principles of the world rather than Messiah. ⁹For all the fullness of Deity lives bodily in Him,¹⁰ and in Him you have been filled to fullness. He is the head over every ruler and authority.

¹¹In Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision done not by hand, in the stripping away of the body of the flesh through the circumcision of Messiah. ¹²You were buried along with Him in immersion, through which you also were raised with Him by trusting in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead. ¹³When you were dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with Him when He pardoned us all our transgressions. ¹⁴He wiped out the handwritten record of debts with the decrees against us, which was hostile to us. He took it away by nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵After disarming the principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in the cross.^c

The Danger of False Wisdom

¹⁶Therefore, do not let anyone pass judgment on you in matters of food or drink, or in respect to a festival or new moon or Shabbat.^d ¹⁷These are a foreshadowing of things to come, but the reality is Messiah.^e ¹⁸Let no one disqualify you by insisting on false humility and worship of angels—going into detail about what he has seen, puffed up without cause by his fleshly mind. ¹⁹He is not holding fast to the Head. It is from Him that the whole body, nourished and held together by its joints and tendons, grows with a godly increase. ²⁰If you died with Messiah to the basic principles of the world, why—as though living in the world—do you subject yourselves to their rules? ²¹“Don’t handle! Don’t taste! Don’t touch!” ²²These all lead to decay with use, based as they are on man-made commands and teachings.^f ²³Indeed, these are matters that have an appearance of wisdom in self-made religion and humility and self-denial of the body—yet none are

^c 2:15. Lit. in it or in Him.

^d 2:16. cf. Lev 23:2-4, 2 Chr. 23:31; 2 Chr. 31:3; Neh. 10:33; Ps. 81:3; Isa. 66:23; Ezek. 46:1, etc.

of any value for stopping indulgence of the flesh.

3

Put Off the Old, Put On the New

⁵Therefore, put to death what is earthly in you—sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desire, and greed—for that is idolatry. ⁶Because of such things God's wrath is coming upon the sons of disobedience. ⁷At one time you also walked in these ways, when you used to live in these ways. ⁸But now, set them all aside—anger, rage, malice, slander, and foul language out of your mouth. ⁹Do not lie to one another.^j After all, you have taken off the old self with its practices ¹⁰and have put on the new self that is being renewed in knowledge, according to the image of the One who created him.^k ¹¹Here there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, savage,^l slave and free; but Messiah is all, and in all.

¹²Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves in tender compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience—¹³bearing with one another and forgiving each other, if anyone has a grievance against another. Just as the Lord pardoned you, so also you must pardon others. ¹⁴But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfect harmony. ¹⁵Let the shalom of Messiah rule in your hearts—to this shalom you were surely called in one body.

^g 3:1. cf. Ps. 80:15, 17; 89:13; 110:1; 118:15-16, etc.

^h 3:2. cf. Ps. 57:5, 7; 103:11; 115:16; Isa. 40:22; 55:9.

ⁱ 3:4. Other mss. read our.

^k 3:10. cf. Gen. 1:26-27.

^l 3:11. Lit. Scythian.

Also be thankful. ¹⁶Let the word of Messiah dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another with all wisdom in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with gratitude in your hearts to God. ¹⁷And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Yeshua, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Orderly, Mutual Relationships

¹⁸Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. ¹⁹Husbands, love your wives and do not become harsh toward them.

²⁰Children, obey your parents in every respect, for this is pleasing to the Lord. ²¹Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they will not become discouraged.

²²Slaves, obey your human masters in every respect—not just within your master's sight as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. ²³Whatever you do, work at it from the soul, as for the Lord and not for people. ²⁴For you know that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as a reward. It is to the Lord Messiah you are giving service. ²⁵For the one doing wrong will be paid back for what he did wrong, and there is no favoritism.^m

¹Masters, give your slaves what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Devote Yourselves to Prayer

²Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving. ³At the same time, keep praying for us as well, that God may open up to us a door for the message, to proclaim the mystery of Messiah—for which I am in prison. ⁴Pray that I may make the mystery clear, as I ought to speak. ⁵Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity. ⁶Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, to know how you ought to answer everyone.

^m 3:25. cf. Deut. 10:17.

Further Instructions and Greetings

⁷Tychicus—a dearly loved brother and trustworthy servant and fellow slave to the Lord—will tell you all the news about me. ⁸I sent him to you for this very purpose, so you may know about us and he may encourage your hearts. ⁹With him I sent Onesimus—a faithful and dear brother, who is one of your own. They will tell you about everything here.

¹⁰My fellow prisoner Aristarchus sends you his greetings, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. (You received instructions about him—if he comes your way, welcome him.)

¹¹Yeshua who is called Justus also sends his greetings. These are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God that are from among the circumcision—they have been a comfort to me.

¹²Epaphras, who is one of your own, a slave of Messiah Yeshua, greets you. He is always laboring in prayer on your behalf, so you may stand complete and fully assured about everything that is God's will. ¹³For I testify that he has gone to much trouble for you and for those in Laodicea and Hierapolis. ¹⁴Luke, the dearly loved physician, sends you greetings, and so does Demas.

¹⁵Greet the brothers and sisters in Laodicea, as well as Nympha and the community that meets in her house. ¹⁶When this letter has been read among you, make sure that it is also read in Messiah's community of Laodicea. In turn, you should read my letter coming from Laodicea.

¹⁷Tell Archippus, "See to it that you complete the service you have received in the Lord, that you may fulfill it."

¹⁸This greeting is in my own hand—Paul's. Remember my chains!
Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1

Greetings

¹Paul, Silvanus,^a and Timothy,

To the community of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah:

Grace to you and shalom.

Good News with Power

²We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers—continually ³remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadiness of hope in our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ⁴We know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that you are chosen, ⁵because our Good News did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and with complete certainty—just as you know what kind of men we proved to be while among you for your sake.

⁶You also became imitators of us and of the Lord, having accepted the message in much tribulation, with the joy of the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ⁷So you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸For the word of the Lord rang out from you—not just in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faithfulness toward God has gone out, so that we have no need to say anything. ⁹For they themselves bring news about what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, ¹⁰and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead—Yeshua, the One delivering us from the coming wrath.

Cherishing Spiritual Children

¹For you yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our visit to you was not in vain.

²On the contrary, after we had first suffered and been mistreated in Philippi, as you know,^b we had boldness in our God to tell you the Good News of God—even in the midst of much opposition. ³For our urging is not out of deceit or impure motives or trickery. ⁴But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we declare it—not pleasing men but rather God, who examines our hearts.^c ⁵For as you know and God is witness, we never came with a word of flattery or a motive of greed—⁶or seeking glory from people, whether from you or from others, ⁷even though we could have thrown our weight around as emissaries of Messiah. Rather, we proved to be infants^d among you. Like a nursing mother^e cherishes her children, ⁸in this way we were yearning for you. We were delighted to share with you not only the Good News of God but also our very souls, because you had become dear to us.

⁹For you recall, brothers and sisters, our labor and hardship—working night and day, so as not to burden any of you while we proclaimed to you the Good News of God. ¹⁰You are witnesses, along with God, of how devoutly and righteously and blamelessly we behaved toward you who believe. ¹¹For you know how, as a father with his own children, ¹²we exhorted and encouraged and urged each one of you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

¹³For this reason, we also thank God constantly that when you received the word of ^c 2:4. cf. Ps. 17:3; Prov. 21:2.

^d 2:7. Some mss. read gentle.

^e 2:7. cf. Deut. 22:6.

God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but as it truly is—the word of God, which does its work in you who believe. ¹⁴For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of God’s communities in Messiah Yeshua that are in Judea—for you suffered the same things at the hands of your own countrymen as they did from the Judean leaders, ¹⁵who killed both the Lord Yeshua and the prophets and drove us out.^a They are not pleasing to God and hostile to all people, ¹⁶hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they might be saved. As a result, they constantly fill up the measure of their sins. But wrath has come upon them at last.

Longing to Visit and Reassure

¹⁷But brothers and sisters, after we were orphaned by separation from you for a short time (in person, not in heart), we were all the more eager in our great longing to see you face to face. ¹⁸For we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, more than once—but satan thwarted us. ¹⁹For who is our hope or joy or crown of boasting^b before our Lord Yeshua at His coming? Is it not you? ²⁰For you are our glory and joy!

¹So when we could stand it no longer, we thought it best to be left behind alone in Athens. ²We sent Timothy, our brother and co-worker for God in proclaiming the Good News of Messiah, in order to strengthen and encourage you in your faith, ³so that no one would be shaken by these afflictions. For you yourselves know we are destined for this. ⁴For even when we were with you, we kept telling you in advance that we were going to suffer persecution— just as has happened, as you know. ⁵For this reason, when I could stand it no longer, I sent to find out about your faithfulness, for fear that the tempter had tempted you and that our labor might be in vain.

^a 2:15. cf. Acts 17:5-10.

^b 2:19. cf. Jer. 9:23-24; Rom. 5:1-2; 15:17.

⁶But now that Timothy has come to us from you and brought us the good news of your faithfulness and love, and that you always have good memories of us, longing to see us just as we long to see you— ⁷because of this, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and trouble, we were comforted about you by your faithfulness. ⁸For now we live, since you are standing firm in the Lord. ⁹For what thanks would be enough to offer to God, in return for all the joy we feel before our God because of you? ¹⁰Night time and day time we keep praying more than ever to see you face to face,^c and mend any shortcomings in your faith.

Thanks, Joy, and Love Before God

¹¹Now may our God and Father Himself and Yeshua our Lord direct our way to you. ¹²May the Lord also cause you to increase and overflow in love for one another and for all people, just as we also do for you, ¹³in order to strengthen your hearts as blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Yeshua with all His kedoshim. Amen.

4

Walking in Sanctification

¹Finally then, brothers and sisters, we ask you and appeal in the Lord Yeshua—just as you received from us the way you ought to walk and please God (as in fact you are walking)—that you keep progressing more and more.^d ²For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Yeshua. ³For this is the will of God—your sanctification:^e to abstain from sexual immorality;

⁴to know, each of you, how to gain control over his own body^f in holiness and honor—

⁵not in the passion of lust like the pagans who do not know God;

⁶and not to overstep his brother and take advantage of him in this matter—

^c 3:10. Lit. to see your face.

^d 4:1. cf. Jn. 15:8.

^e 4:3. cf. Lev. 19:2.

^f 4:4. Lit. possess his own vessel.

because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, as we told you before and solemnly warned you. ⁷For God did not call us to impurity, but in holiness. ⁸Consequently, the one who rejects this is not rejecting man, but God, who gives His Ruach ha-Kodesh to you.

⁹Now concerning brotherly love, you have no need for anyone to write you—for you yourselves are taught by God^g to love one another. ¹⁰In fact, you even practice it toward all your brothers and sisters throughout Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, to keep progressing more and more ¹¹and aspire to lead a quiet life, to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, just as we directed you—¹²so you may behave properly toward outsiders and not have need of anything.

The Shofar Call of Messiah's Return

¹³Now we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who are asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest who have no hope. ¹⁴For if we believe that Yeshua died and rose again, so with Him God will also bring those who have fallen asleep in Yeshua.^h ¹⁵For this we tell you, by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord shall in no way precede those who are asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the blast of God's shofar,ⁱ and the dead in Messiah shall rise first. ¹⁷Then we who are alive, who are left behind, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air—and so we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Keep Watch for the Day of the Lord

¹Now concerning the times and seasons,^j

brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. ²For you yourselves know very well that the Day of the Lord^k comes like a thief in the night. ³When they are saying, “Shalom and safety,”^l sudden destruction comes upon them like a woman having birth pains in the womb—there is no way they will escape. ⁴But you, brothers and sisters, are not in the dark, so that the Day might overtake you like a thief.^m ⁵For you all are sons of light and sons of day. We are not of night or of darkness—⁶so then, let us not sleep as the others do, but let us remain on the alert and sober-minded. ⁷For those who sleep, sleep at night; and those who get drunk, get drunk at night. ⁸But since we are of the day, let us be sober-minded—putting on the breastplate of faithfulness and love, and the hope of salvation as a helmet.ⁿ ⁹For God did not destine us for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁰He died for us so that, whether we may be awake or asleep,^o we may live together with Him. ¹¹Therefore encourage one another and build each other up—just as you in fact are doing.

Instructions for Community Life

¹²Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to recognize those who work hard among you and are over you in the Lord and correct^p you, ¹³and to esteem them beyond all measure in love because of their work. Keep shalom among yourselves.

¹⁴We urge you, brothers and sisters, correct the unruly, comfort the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone. ¹⁵See that no one repays evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good for one another and for all.

¹⁶Rejoice always,

¹⁷pray constantly,

¹⁸in everything give thanks; for this is you—and He will make it happen!

Closing Greetings

²⁵Brothers and sisters, pray for us.

²⁶Greet all the brothers and sisters with a holy kiss. ²⁷I charge you under oath, by the Lord, that this letter be read to all the brothers and sisters.

2 Thessalonians

1

Greetings

¹Paul, Silvanus,^b and Timothy,

To the community of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah:

²Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

Troubles From an Eternal Perspective

³We ought to always thank God for you, brothers and sisters, as is appropriate, because your faithfulness grows wonderfully, and the love of each one of you for one another continually increases. ⁴Therefore, we ourselves boast of you among the communities of God—about your perseverance and faithfulness through all the persecutions and troubles that you endure. ⁵This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, so that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering.

(⁶For after all, it is right in the sight of God to pay back trouble to those who trouble you, ⁷and relief to you who suffer trouble along with us. At the revelation of the Lord Yeshua from heaven with His mighty angels ⁸in flaming fire,^c He will command judgment on those who do not know God and do not heed the Good News of our Lord Yeshua.^d ⁹They will pay the price of eternal ruin, away from the presence of the Lord and the glory of His power^e—¹⁰on that Day when He comes to be glorified among His kedoshim and marveled at by all who have believed,^f because our testimony to you was believed.)

¹¹With this in mind, we pray for you constantly, that our God may consider you worthy of the calling and fulfill with power every good desire and work of faith, ¹²so the name of our Lord Yeshua may be glorified in you, and you in Him, in keeping with the grace of our God and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

The Man of Lawlessness

¹Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, concerning the coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah and our gathering together to Him, ²not to get shaken out of your mind or disturbed—either by a spirit or a word or a letter as if through us—as though the Day of the Lord^g has come. ³Let no one deceive you in any way, for the Day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the one destined to be destroyed.^h ⁴He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he sits in the Temple of God, proclaiming himself that he is God.ⁱ

⁵Don't you remember that when I was still with you I was telling you these things? ⁶And you know what now holds back, for him to be revealed in his own time. ⁷For the mystery of lawlessness is already operating; only there is one who holds back just now, until he is taken out of the way. ⁸Then the lawless one will be revealed. The Lord Yeshua will slay him with the breath of His mouth and wipe him out with the appearance of His coming.^j ⁹The coming of the lawless one is connected to the activity of satan, with all power and signs and false wonders,¹⁰and with every kind of wicked deception toward those who are perishing. They perish because they did not accept the love of the truth so as to be saved.

¹¹For this reason God sends them a delusional force, to lead them to believe what is false,^a ¹²so that they may be judged—all those who did not believe the truth but delighted in wickedness.^b

Firstfruits of Salvation

¹³But we should always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because God chose you as firstfruits for salvation^c through sanctification by the Ruach and belief in the truth. ¹⁴He called you to this salvation through our proclaiming the Good News, for you to gain the glory of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁵So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold on to the traditions which you were taught, whether by word of mouth or by our letter.

¹⁶Now may our Lord Yeshua the Messiah Himself and God our Father, who loved us and by grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, ¹⁷comfort and strengthen your hearts in every good deed and word.

¹Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the word of the Lord may spread quickly and be glorified—just as it is with you. ²Also pray that we may be rescued from perverse and evil people, for not all are trustworthy. ³But the Lord is trustworthy—and He will strengthen and protect you from the evil one. ⁴We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will keep doing what we command. ⁵May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Messiah.

^b 2:12. cf. Exod. 10:1-2; Rom. 9:22.

^c 2:13. cf. 1 Cor. 15:20-23.

No Time to Be Lazy

⁶Now we command you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, to keep away from every brother who behaves irresponsibly and not according to the tradition they received from us. ⁷For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, for we did not behave inappropriately among you. ⁸And we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but worked night and day with labor and hardship, so as not to burden any of you. ⁹It wasn't that we had no right, but rather to offer ourselves as an example for you to imitate.

¹⁰For even when we were with you, we would give you this order: if anyone will not work, neither shall he eat. ¹¹For we hear that some among you are behaving irresponsibly—not busy, but busybodies. ¹²Now such people we command and urge in the Lord Messiah Yeshua to work in a quiet demeanor, so they may eat their own bread. ¹³But as for you, brothers, do not grow weary of doing good.

¹⁴If anyone does not obey our message in this letter, take special note of him and do not associate with him, so that he may be put to shame. ¹⁵Yet do not consider him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

Final Words

¹⁶Now may the Lord of shalom Himself give you shalom at all times and in every way. The Lord be with you all!

¹⁷The greeting is in my own hand—Paul's. It is a sign in every letter—in this way I write.^d

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with you all.^e

1 Timothy

1

Greeting

¹Paul, a emissary of Messiah Yeshua by the command of God our Savior and Messiah Yeshua, our hope.

²To Timothy, a true child in faith:

Grace, mercy, shalom from God the Father and Messiah Yeshua, our Lord!

Beware of False Teachers

³As I urged you, when I was leaving for Macedonia, stay in Ephesus to direct certain people not to pass on different instruction, ⁴or to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies. These give rise to useless speculations rather than God's training which is in faithfulness. ⁵Now the goal of this command is love from of a pure heart and a clear conscience and a genuine faith. ⁶Some, having missed the mark, have turned away to fruitless discussion—⁷wanting to be teachers of Torah, even though they do not understand what they keep saying or what they so dogmatically assert.

⁸But we know that the Torah is good if one uses it legitimately, ⁹knowing that the Torah is not given for a tzaddik but for the lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinful, for the unholy and worldly, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰the sexually immoral, homosexuals, slave-traders, liars, perjurers, and for anything else that opposes sound teaching—¹¹in keeping with what was entrusted to me, the glorious Good News of the blessed God.

Mercy to the Worst of Sinners

¹²I thank Messiah Yeshua our Lord, who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, appointing me to service—¹³even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a violent man. Yet I was shown mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, ¹⁴and the grace of our Lord overflowed with the faith and love that are in Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁵Trustworthy is the saying and deserving of complete acceptance: "Messiah Yeshua came into the world to save sinners"—of whom I am foremost. ¹⁶Yet for this reason I was shown mercy—so that in me as the foremost, Messiah Yeshua might demonstrate His complete patience, as an example for those about to put their trust in Him for eternal life. ¹⁷Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God,^f be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Fight the Good Fight

¹⁸This charge I entrust to you, Timothy my son, in keeping with the prophecies once spoken about you, so that by them you fight the good fight, ¹⁹holding onto faith and a good conscience. By rejecting these, some have suffered shipwreck regarding their faith. ²⁰Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander—whom I have handed over to satan to be disciplined not to blaspheme.

Godliness in Prayer and Worship

¹Therefore, first of all I urge that requests, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made on behalf of all people—²for kings and all who are in authority^g—so we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and respectfulness. ³This is good and pleasing in the sight of God our Savior. ⁴He desires all men to be saved and come into the knowledge of the truth.^h ⁵For there is one Godⁱ and there

^f 1:17. Some mss. read the only wise God.

^g 2:2. cf. Ezra 6:10.

^h 2:4. cf. Ezek. 18:23, 32.

ⁱ 2:5. cf. Deut. 6:4.

is one Mediator between God and men^a—a human, Messiah Yeshua,^b who gave Himself as a ransom for all^b—the testimony at the proper time.⁷ For this I was appointed a herald and a emissary (I am telling the truth; I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faithfulness and truth.

⁸So I desire all men to pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands,^c without anger and argument.⁹ Likewise, women are to adorn themselves in appropriate clothing with modesty and sound judgment—not in seductive hairstyles^d and gold or pearls or costly clothing,¹⁰ but what is suitable for women claiming godliness, through good deeds.¹¹ Let a woman receive training in a quiet demeanor with complete respect for order.¹² But I do not allow a woman to train or dictate to a man, but to be in a quiet demeanor.¹³ For Adam was formed first, then Eve.^e ¹⁴Also Adam was not deceived but the woman—being deceived, she fell into transgression.^f ¹⁵Nevertheless, she will be sustained through childbearing^g—if they continue in faithfulness and love and holiness, with sound judgment.

Qualifications for Oversight and Service

¹Trustworthy is the saying: “If any man aspires to the office of overseer,¹ he desires a good work.” ²An overseer, then, must be beyond criticism—the husband of one wife, clear-minded, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach,³ not addicted to wine, not violent but gentle, peaceable, free from the love of money,⁴ managing his own household well, keeping his children under control with all respectfulness.⁵ (But if someone does not know how to manage

^a 2:5. cf. Isa. 41:14, 49:7.

^e 2:13. cf. Gen. 2:7, 22.

^f 2:14. cf. Gen. 3:6.

^h 3:1. cf. Num. 4:16(LXX); 31:14(LXX).

his own household, how will he care for God's community?)⁶ He must not be a new believer,¹ or he may become puffed up and fall into the same judgment as the devil.⁷ Furthermore, he must have a good reputation with those outside, so that he will not fall into disgrace and the devil's trap.

⁸Servant-leaders likewise must be dignified, not double-speaking, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for dishonest gain.⁹ They must keep hold of the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.¹⁰ Also let them first be tested—then let those who are blameless serve as servant-leaders.¹¹ Women likewise must be dignified, not backbiting; clear-minded, trustworthy in every respect.¹² Let servant-leaders be husbands of one wife, managing their children and their own households well.¹³ For those who have served well as servant-leaders gain for themselves a good standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Messiah Yeshua.

¹⁴These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly.¹⁵ But if I delay, I write so you may know how one ought to conduct himself in the household of God—which is the community of the living God, a pillar and foundation of truth.¹⁶ Now beyond question, great is the mystery of godliness:

He was revealed in the flesh,
Vindicated in the Spirit,
Seen by angels,
Proclaimed among the nations,
Trusted throughout the world,
Taken up in glory.

4

Advice to a Young Leader

¹Now the Ruach clearly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, following deceitful spirits and teachings of demons² through the hypocrisy of false speakers—whose own conscience has been seared.³ They forbid people to marry; they command people to abstain from foods that God created for the faithful to share with thanksgiving, having come to know the truth. ⁴For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving; ⁵for it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.

⁶In pointing out these things to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Messiah Yeshua, nourished in the words of the faith and the sound teaching that you have been following. ⁷But avoid godless myths and old wives' tales; instead, train yourself in godliness. ⁸For physical exercise has some benefit; but godliness is beneficial for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the one to come. ⁹Trustworthy is the saying and deserving of complete acceptance ¹⁰(for to this end we work hard and strive): "We have set our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially those who trust." ¹¹Insist on these things and teach them.

¹²Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but become an example of the faithful—in speech, in conduct, in love, in faithfulness, and in purity. ¹³Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to encouragement, and to teaching. ¹⁴Do not neglect the spiritual gift^l within you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands of the elders. ¹⁵Practice these things—be absorbed in them, so that your progress may be clear to all. ¹⁶Give attention to yourself and your teaching. Persevere in these things, for in doing so you will save yourself^k and those who hear you.

Giving Honor in the Community

¹Never speak harshly to an older man^l but appeal to him as a father; to younger men as brothers; ²older women as mothers; and younger women as sisters—with complete purity.

³Honor widows who are really widows—⁴but if any widow has children or grandchildren, they must first learn to show devotion to their own home and give back to their parents, for this is pleasing before God. ⁵Now she who is really a widow and has been left alone, has put her hope in God and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. ⁶But she who is self-indulgent is dead even while she lives. ⁷Insist on these things, so that they might be beyond criticism. ⁸But if anyone does not provide for his own, especially those in his own house, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹Let a widow be listed only if she is at least sixty, was the wife of one husband, ¹⁰well known for good deeds, if she raised children, if she showed hospitality, if she washed the feet of the kedoshim, if she helped those in trouble, and if she devoted herself to every good work.

¹¹But refuse younger widows; for when their sensual desires draw them away from the Messiah, they want to get married—¹²facing judgment because they have set aside their previous pledge. ¹³And at the same time, they also learn to be idle, going around from house to house—and not just idle, but also gossipers and busybodies, saying things they should not. ¹⁴Therefore, I want the younger widows to get married, have children, manage a household, and give no opportunity to the enemy for slander. ¹⁵For some have already gone astray after satan. ¹⁶If any woman of faith has widows in need, let her help them and not let the community be burdened, so it may help the real widows.

¹⁷The elders who lead well are worthy of honor and honorarium^m—especially those who work hard in the word and teaching. ¹⁸For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox while he is threshing,"ⁿ and, "The worker is worthy of his wage."^o ¹⁹Do not accept an accusation against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses.^p ²⁰Correct those who continue sinning in the presence of everyone, so that the rest also may fear.^a

^l 5:14. Grk. charisma.

^p 5:19. cf. Deut. 17:6; 19:15; Matt. 18:16.

²¹I solemnly charge you—before God and Messiah Yeshua and the chosen angels—to observe these things without taking sides, doing nothing out of favoritism. ²²Do not lay hands on anyone hastily or take part in the sins of others—keep yourself pure. ²³(No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach and for your frequent ailments.)

²⁴The sins of some people are obvious, going before them into judgment; but for others, their sins follow. ²⁵Likewise, good deeds are obvious, and the others cannot stay hidden.

¹Let all who are under the yoke as slaves consider their own masters worthy of full respect, so that God's name and our teaching may not be slandered. ²And let those who have believing masters not disrespect them because they are brothers, but serve them even more, since those who share in the benefit are believers and loved. Teach and encourage these things.

Finding True Riches

³If anyone passes on a different teaching and does not agree with sound words, those of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, and with the instruction in keeping with godliness, ⁴he is prideful, understanding nothing. Instead he is obsessed with arguments and disputes about words—out of which come envy, strife, slander, evil suspicions, ⁵and constant friction between people corrupted in mind and deprived of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain.

⁶Now godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷For we brought nothing into this world, So we cannot take anything out of it. ⁸But

^a 5:20. cf. Matt. 18:17.

^b 1:6. cf. Ps. 37:16; Prov. 15:16; 16:8.

^c 1:7. cf. Job 1:21; Ps. 49:17; Eccles. 5:15.

having food and clothing, with these things we shall be content. ⁹But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and a trap and many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil—some, longing for it, have gone astray from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

¹¹But you, O man of God, flee from these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faithfulness, love, perseverance, and gentleness. ¹²Fight the good fight of faith! Take hold of the eternal life—you were called to it, and you made the good confession for it in the presence of many witnesses. ¹³I charge you before God who gives life to all things and Messiah Yeshua who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate, ¹⁴to keep this command without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁵This He will reveal in His own time—the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and the Lord of lords, ¹⁶who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or is able to see. ¹⁷To Him be honor and eternal dominion! Amen.

¹⁷Direct those who are rich in this present age not to be proud or to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, ¹⁸but rather on God—who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. ¹⁹Direct them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, to be generous, sharing, ²⁰storing up for themselves a good foundation for the future, so they might take hold of the true life.

²⁰O Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you, turning away from pointless chatter and the contradictions of so-called knowledge—²¹by professing it, some have missed the mark concerning the faith.

Grace be with you.

Grace, mercy, and shalom from God the Father and Messiah Yeshua our Lord!

Stir up God's Charisma in You

³I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience as my forefathers did, when I continually remember you in my prayers night and day. ⁴I remember your tears, and I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. ⁵I recall the genuine faithfulness within you, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am sure it is within you as well. ⁶For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the giftⁱ of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands. ⁷For God has not given us a spirit of timidity but of power and love and self-discipline.

Suffer with Me—for the Good News!

⁸Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but share in suffering for the Good News according to the power of God. ⁹He has saved us and called us with a holy calling— not because of our deeds but because of His own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Messiah Yeshua before time began, ¹⁰but now has been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Messiah Yeshua. Indeed, He nullified the power of death and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News.

¹¹For this Good News I was appointed a herald and a emissary and a teacher. ¹²For ⁱ 1:6. Grk. charisma.

this reason I also am suffering these things—but I am not ashamed, for I know in whom I have trusted and I am convinced He is able to safeguard what I have entrusted to Him until that Day.

¹³Keep the standard of sound words you have heard from me, in the faithfulness and love that are in Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁴Guard the good that has been entrusted to you, through the Ruach ha-Kodesh who dwells in us.

¹⁵You are aware that everyone in Asia has turned away from me—including Phygelus and Hermogenes. ¹⁶May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my imprisonment. ¹⁷On the contrary, when he was in Rome he zealously searched for me and found me. ¹⁸May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord in that day! You know very well how much he served in Ephesus.

Disciples from Generation to Generation

¹Therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Messiah Yeshua. ²And what you have heard from me among many witnesses, entrust to faithful people who will be capable to teach others also. ³Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Messiah Yeshua. ⁴No one serving as a soldier entangles himself in the activities of everyday life, so that he might please the one who enlisted him. ⁵Also, if anyone competes as an athlete, he is not crowned victorious unless he competes according to the rules. ⁶The hard-working farmer ought to receive the first share of the crops. ⁷Consider what I am saying, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

⁸Remember Yeshua the Messiah, raised from the dead, from the seed of David—according to my Good News. ⁹For this I suffer hardship as a criminal, even to the point of chains—though the word of God is not chained. ¹⁰Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the chosen, so they might obtain the salvation that is in Messiah Yeshua with eternal glory.

¹¹Trustworthy is the saying:

If we died with Him,

we will also live with Him;

¹²if we endure, we will also reign with Him;

if we deny Him, He will also deny us;

¹³if we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

A Workman with the Word

¹⁴Remind them of these things and solemnly charge them before God not to quarrel about words, which is useless—to the ruin of those who are listening. ¹⁵Make every effort to present yourself before God as tried and true, as an unashamed worker cutting a straight path with the word of truth.^a ¹⁶But avoid godless chatter, for it will lead to further ungodliness ¹⁷and their words will spread like cancer. Among them are Hymeneus and Philetus—¹⁸men who have missed the mark concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place. They are overturning the faith of some. ¹⁹Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal: “The Lord knows those who are His,”^b and, “Let everyone who names the name of the Lord keep away from unrighteousness.”^c ²⁰Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay—some for honor and some for common use. ²¹Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor—sanctified, useful to the Master, prepared for every good work.

²²Now flee from youthful desires; instead, pursue righteousness, faithfulness, love, and shalom, with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. ²³But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they produce quarrels.

²⁴The Lord’s slave must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to all, able to teach, tolerant. ²⁵Let him give guidance with humility to those who are in opposition—perhaps God may grant them a change of mind, leading to the knowledge of truth. ²⁶Then they may regain their senses and escape the devil’s snare, in which they had been held captive by him to do his will.

Opposition in the Last Days

¹But understand this, that in the last days^d hard times will come—²for people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, ³hardhearted, unforgiving, backbiting, without self-control, brutal, hating what is good, ⁴treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, ⁵holding to an outward form of godliness but denying its power. Avoid these people! ⁶For among these are those who slip into households and deceive weak women weighed down with sins, led away by various desires, ⁷always learning yet never able to come to the knowledge of truth. ⁸Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses,^e so do these people oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind and worthless concerning the faith. ⁹But these people will not make any more progress—for their folly, like that of Jannes and Jambres, will be obvious to everyone.

¹⁰You, however, closely followed my teaching, manner of life, purpose, faithfulness, patience, love, perseverance—¹¹as well as persecutions and sufferings that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! And the Lord rescued me from them all! ¹²Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Messiah Yeshua will be persecuted. ¹³But evil men and imposters will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

^e 3:7. cf. Exod. 7:11-12 (Aram., Targum Jonathan).

All Scripture Equips God's People

¹⁴You, however, continue in what you have learned and what you have become convinced of. For you know from whom you have learned, ¹⁵and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to make you wise, leading to salvation through trusting in Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁶All Scripture is inspired by God^f and useful for teaching, for reproof, for restoration, and for training in righteousness, ¹⁷so that the person belonging to God may be capable, fully equipped for every good deed.

¹I solemnly charge you—in the presence of God and Messiah Yeshua, who is about to judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His Kingdom—²proclaim the Word! Be ready when it is convenient or inconvenient.^g Confront, rebuke, encourage—with complete patience and instruction. ³For the time will come when they will not put up with sound instruction, but they will pile up for themselves teachers in keeping with their own desires, to have their ears tickled. ⁴And they will turn away from hearing the truth and wander off to myths. ⁵You, however, keep a clear mind in all things, withstand hardship, do the work of proclaiming the Good News, and fulfill your service.

Finishing the Fight, Receiving the Crown

⁶For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. ⁷I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. ⁸In the future there is reserved for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not to me only, but also to everyone who has longed for His appearing.

^f 3:16. Or God-breathed.

^g 4:2. Lit. in season, out of season.

⁹Do all you can to come to me quickly—¹⁰for Demas, having loved this world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹Luke is the only one with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service. ¹²I have sent Tychius to Ephesus. ¹³When you come, bring the cloak which I left with Carpus in Troas, along with the scrolls, and especially the parchments. ¹⁴Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm—the Lord will repay him according to his deeds. ¹⁵Be on guard against him too, for he vehemently opposed our message.

¹⁶At my first defense, no one stood by me; instead, they all deserted me—may it not be counted against them! ¹⁷But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be proclaimed in full measure, and all the nations might hear—and I was rescued from the lion's mouth!^h ¹⁸The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and will deliver me safely into His heavenly Kingdom. To Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

¹⁹Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰Erastus stayed in Corinth, and I left Trophimus sick in Miletus. ²¹Do all you can to come before winter. Eubulus sends you greetings, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters. ²²The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

^h 4:17. cf. Ps. 7:3(2); Dan. 6:21(20), 28(27).

Titus

1

Greetings

¹Paul, a slave of God and a emissary of Messiah Yeshua, for the faith of God's chosen and the knowledge of truth that is in keeping with godliness, ²based on the hope of eternal life. God—who cannot lie^a—promised this before the beginning of time. ³But in His own time He made His message known, through a proclamation with which I was entrusted, by the command of God our Savior.

⁴To Titus, a true child of our common faith: Grace and shalom from God the Father and Messiah Yeshua, our Savior!

Setting the Community in Order

⁵The reason I left you in Crete was so that you would set in order the things that remain and appoint elders in every city as I directed you—⁶if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children of faith with no charge of wild living or rebellion. ⁷For the overseer must be blameless as God's administrator—not arrogant, not quick-tempered, not addicted to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain. ⁸Rather he must be hospitable, loving what is good, self-controlled, upright, devout, disciplined. ⁹He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message in keeping with the teaching, so he can both encourage by instruction that is sound and convict those who speak against it.

¹⁰For there are many who are rebellious, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those from the circumcision. ¹¹They must be silenced—those who upset entire households by teaching what they should not, for the sake of dishonest gain. ¹²One of them, one of their own prophets, said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.” ¹³This testimony is true. For this reason rebuke them sharply, so they might be sound in the faith, ¹⁴not paying attention to Judaic myths and commands of men who turn away from the truth. ¹⁵To the pure all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Both their mind and conscience are defiled. ¹⁶They claim to know God but their deeds deny Him. They are despicable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed.

Advice for Behavior in Community

¹But as for you, speak things that are fitting for sound instruction. ²Older men are to be clear-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, in patience. ³Likewise, older women are to be sanctified in demeanor—not backbiting or enslaved to much wine. Let them be teachers of what is good, ⁴so that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, ⁵to be self-controlled, pure, managing their household, kind, submitted to their own husbands, so that God's word may not be dishonored.

⁶Likewise urge the younger men to be self-controlled, ⁷in all things showing yourself to be an example of good deeds—integrity in instruction, dignity, ⁸sound speech beyond criticism—so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.

⁹Urge slaves to submit themselves to their own masters in all things, well-pleasing and not back-talking, ¹⁰not stealing but showing all good faithfulness, so that they may do credit to the teaching about God our Savior in everything.

¹¹For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, ¹²training us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live in a manner that is self-controlled and righteous and godly in the present age. ¹³We wait for the blessed hope and appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior, Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁴He gave Himself for us so that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and so that He might purify for Himself a chosen people, zealous for good deeds.^b ¹⁵So communicate these things, and encourage and correct with complete authority. Let no one look down on you.

Be Ready for Good Deeds

¹Remind the people to be submitted to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good deed, ²to slander no one, without fighting, gentle, showing every courtesy to all people. ³For we also once were foolish, disobedient, deluded, enslaved to various desires and pleasures, spending our lives in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another.

⁴But when the kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind appeared—⁵not by deeds of righteousness which we had done ourselves, but because of His mercy—
 He saved us through the mikveh of rebirth

^b 2:14, cf. Ex 19:5–6; Deut. 26:18.

and renewing of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, ⁶whom He abundantly poured out on us through Messiah Yeshua our Savior, ⁷so that being set right by His grace, we might become heirs with the confident hope of eternal life!

⁸Trustworthy is the saying, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have put their trust in God may be careful to devote themselves to good deeds. These things are good and beneficial for people.

⁹But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and strife and disputes about Torah, for they are unprofitable and useless. ¹⁰Dismiss a quarrelsome person after a first and second warning, ¹¹knowing that such a person is twisted and is sinning—he is self-condemned.

Final Words

¹²When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry to come to me in Nicopolis, for I have decided to winter there. ¹³Send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey with great care, so that nothing is lacking for them. ¹⁴And let our people learn to devote themselves to doing mitzvot to meet urgent needs, so they will not be unfruitful.

¹⁵All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

Greetings to a House Group

¹Paul, a prisoner of Messiah Yeshua, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our beloved and fellow worker.

²To Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the community that meets in your house:

³Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Messiah Yeshua!

Thanks for Love and Comfort

⁴I thank my God always when mentioning you in my prayers, ⁵hearing of your love and the trust you have toward the Lord Yeshua and all the kedoshim. ⁶May the fellowship of your faith become effective, with the recognition of all the good that is ours in Messiah. ⁷For I've received much joy and comfort in your love, brother, because the hearts of the kedoshim have been refreshed through you.

Request for Philemon's Runaway

⁸Therefore, though I have plenty of boldness in Messiah to order you to do what's right, ⁹yet for love's sake I appeal to you instead. I, Paul, am an old man and now also a prisoner belonging to Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁰I beg you for my child Onesimus—for whom I became a spiritual father while in chains. ¹¹He once was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and me. ¹²I sent him back to you—he is my very heart. ¹³I really wanted to keep him with me, so that on your behalf he might serve me while I am in chains for the Good News. ¹⁴But I didn't want to do anything without your consent, so that your goodness wouldn't be by force but by free will.

¹⁵For perhaps he was separated from you for a while in order that you might have him back forever, ¹⁶no longer as a slave but more than a slave—as a beloved brother, especially to me but even more so to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

¹⁷So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. ¹⁸But if he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge that to my account. ¹⁹I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay. (Not to mention that you owe me your very self.) ²⁰Yes, brother, let me have some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Messiah.

Added Request and Farewell

²¹Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than what I say. ²²At the same time also, prepare a guest room for me—for I hope that through your prayers I will be given back to you. ²³Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Messiah Yeshua, greets you. ²⁴So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. ²⁵May the grace of our Lord Messiah Yeshua be with your spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

1

Superiority of the Son

¹At many times and in many ways, God spoke long ago to the fathers through the prophets. ²In these last days He has spoken to us through a Son,^a whom He appointed heir of all things and through whom He created the universe. ³This Son is the radiance of His glory and the imprint of His being, upholding all things by His powerful word.^b When He had made purification for our sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.^c ⁴Thus He became as far above the angels as the name He has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

⁵For to which of the angels did God ever say,

“You are My Son.

Today I have become Your Father”?^d

And again,

“I will be to Him a Father, and He will be to Me a Son”?^e

⁶And again, when He brings the firstborn into the world, He says,

“Let all the angels of God worship Him.”^f

⁷And regarding the angels He says,

“He makes His angels winds, and His servants a flame of fire.”^g

⁸But regarding the Son He says,

“Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and a scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your Kingdom.

⁹You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;

therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your companions.”^h

^a 1:2. cf. Matt. 21:37.

^b 1:3. Lit. the word of His power.

^c 1:3. cf. Ps. 110:1(109:1 LXX).

^g 1:7. Lit. He who makes ...; cf. Ps. 104:4(103:4 LXX).

^h 1:8-9. Ps. 45:6-7(6-7)(44:7-8 LXX).

¹⁰And,

“In the beginning, ADONAI, You laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of Your hands.

¹¹They shall pass away, but You remain.

And they will all wear out like clothing.ⁱ

¹²And like a robe You will roll them up, and like clothing they will be changed; but You are the same, and Your years shall never end.”^j

¹³But to which of the angels has He ever said,

“Sit at My right hand,

until I make Your enemies a footstool^k for Your feet”?^l

¹⁴Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out for service to those about to inherit salvation?

Warning Not to Drift Away

¹For this reason it is necessary for us to pay especially close attention to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away. ²For if the word spoken through angels proved to be firm, and every violation and disobedience received a just payback,³ how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? It was first spoken through the Lord and confirmed to us by those who heard. ⁴At the same time, God was testifying by signs and wonders and various miracles and gifts of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, according to His will.

Yeshua Greater than Angels

⁵For it is not to angels that God has subjected the olam ha-ba—about which we

¹11. cf. Isa. 50:9; 51:6.

²1:10-12. Ps. 102:26-28(25-27); 101:26-28(LXX).

³1:13. cf. Isa. 66:1; Mt. 5:35.

⁴1:13. cf. Ps. 110:1(109:1 LXX).

speak. ⁶But somewhere someone has testified, saying,

“What is man, that You are mindful of him, or the son of man, that You care for him?

⁷For a little while, You made him lower than the angels.

You crowned him with glory and honor.

⁸You put all things in subjection underneath his feet.”^a

For when He put all things in subjection to him, He left nothing outside his control. But for now we do not yet see all things subjected to him. ⁹But we see One who was made for a little while lower than the angels—namely, Yeshua. He is now crowned with glory and honor, because of the death He suffered so that, by the grace of God, He might taste death for everyone.

¹⁰For it was fitting for God—for whom and through whom all things exist—in leading many sons to glory, to perfect through sufferings the initiator of their salvation. ¹¹For both He who sanctifies and those being sanctified are all from one—so He is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, ^b ¹²saying,

“I will proclaim Your name to My brothers and sisters.
In the midst of the congregation
I will sing praise to You.”^c

¹³And again,

“I will put My trust in Him.”^d

And again,

“Here am I and the children God has given Me.”^e

¹⁴Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared the same humanity—so that through death He might break the power of the one who had the power of death (that is, the devil) ¹⁵and free those who by fear of death were in bondage all their lives. ¹⁶For surely He is not

^a 2:5-8. Ps. 8:4-6 (5-7 LXX); cf. Gen. 1:26-30.

^b 2:11, 12; 3:1, 12; 10:19; 13:22. Lit. brothers (in Messiah's community).

^c 2:12. Ps. 22:23(22) (21:23 LXX); cf. Mk. 8:38; Lk. 9:26; Heb. 11:16.

^d 2:13. Isa. 8:17; 12:2(LXX).

^e 2:13. Isa. 8:18(LXX).

concerned about angels, but about the seed of Abraham. ¹⁷Therefore He had to be made like His brothers in all things, so He might become a merciful and faithful Kohen Gadol in matters relating to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. ^f ¹⁸Because He Himself suffered when put to the test, He is able to help those being tested.

Yeshua Greater than Moses

¹Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, partners in a heavenly calling, take notice of Yeshua—the Emissary and Kohen Gadol we affirm. ²He was faithful to the One who appointed Him in His house—as was Moses also. ³For He has been considered worthy of more glory than Moses, even as the builder of the house has more honor than the house. ⁴For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God. ⁵Now Moses surely was faithful in all God's house as a servant, for a witness of things to be spoken later. ⁶But Messiah, as Son, is over God's house—and we are His house, if we hold firm to our boldness and what we are proud to hope.

Listen and Obey, or Harden and Fall Away

⁷Therefore, just as the Ruach ha-Kodesh says,

“Today if you hear His voice,
⁸do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion,^h on the day of testingⁱ in the wilderness.
⁹There your fathers put Me to the test, though they saw My works for forty years.

¹⁰Therefore I was provoked by this generation, and I said, ‘They always go astray
in their heart,
and they have not known My ways.’

¹¹As I swore in my wrath,

^f 2:17. cf. Lev. 4:20, 26, 31; 5:10; 16:16, 33-34; Dan. 9:24.

^g 3:2. cf. Num. 12:7.

^h 3:8. Meribah; cf. Exod. 17:1ff.

ⁱ 3:8. Massah; cf. Num. 20:1ff.

‘They shall not enter My rest.’”^j

¹²Take care, brothers and sisters, that none of you has an evil heart of unbelief that falls away from the living God. ¹³But encourage one another day by day—as long as it is called “Today”—so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴For we have become partners of Messiah, if we hold our original conviction firm until the end.

¹⁵As it is said,

“Today if you hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts
as in the rebellion.”^k

¹⁶Now which ones heard and rebelled? Indeed, was it not all who came out of Egypt with Moses? ¹⁷And with whom was He provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest? Was it not to those who were disobedient? ¹⁹So we see that they were not able to enter in because of lack of trust.

Make Every Effort to Enter God’s Rest

¹Let us fear then! Though a promise of entering His rest is left open, some of you would seem to have fallen short. ²For we also have had Good News proclaimed to us, just as they did. But the word they heard did not help them, because they were not unified with those who listened in faith. ³For we who have trusted are entering into that rest. It is just as God has said,

“So in My wrath I swore,
‘They shall never enter My rest,’”^l

even though His works were finished since the foundation of the world. ⁴For somewhere He has spoken about the seventh day in this way: “And God rested on the seventh day from all His works,”^m ⁵and again in this passage:

^j 3:7-11. Ps. 95:7c-11.

^k 3:15. Meribah; Ps. 95:7c-8.

^l 4:3. Ps. 95:11(94:11 LXX).

^m 4:4. Gen. 2:2; Exod. 20:11; 31:17.

“They shall never enter My rest.”ⁿ

⁶So then it remains for some to enter into it; yet those who formerly had Good News proclaimed to them did not enter because of disobedience. ⁷Again, God appoints a certain day—“Today”—saying through David after so long a time, just as it has been said before,

“Today, if you hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts.”^o

⁸For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. ⁹So there remains a Shabbat rest for the people of God. ¹⁰For the one who has entered God’s rest has also ceased from his own work, just as God did from His.

¹¹Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one may fall through the same pattern of disobedience. ¹²For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword—piercing right through to a separation of soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³No creature is hidden from Him, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.^p

Yeshua, Our Compassionate Kohen Gadol

¹⁴Therefore, since we have a great Kohen Gadol who has passed through the heavens, Yeshua Ben-Elohim, let us hold firmly to our confessed allegiance. ¹⁵For we do not have a kohen gadol who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all the same ways—yet without sin. ¹⁶Therefore let us draw near to the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace for help in time of need.

5

¹For every kohen gadol taken from among men is appointed to act on behalf of people

ⁿ 4:5. Ps. 95:11b(94:11b LXX).

^o 4:7. Ps. 95:11.

^p 4:13. cf. Job 26:6; 34:21; Ps. 33:13-15.

in matters relating to God,^a so that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. ²He is able to empathize with the ignorant and deluded, since he himself also is subject to weakness. ³For this reason he has to make offerings for sins—just as for the people, so also for himself.^b ⁴And no one takes this honor for himself, but only when he is called by God, as Aaron was.^c

⁵So also Messiah did not glorify Himself to be made Kohen Gadol; rather, it was God who said to Him,

“You are My Son;
today I have become Your Father.”^d

⁶And He says in a different passage,
“You are a kohen forever,
according to the order of Melchizedek.”^e

⁷In the days of His life on earth,^f Yeshua offered up both prayers and pleas, with loud crying and tears, to the One able to save Him from death; and He was heard because of His reverence. ⁸Though He was a Son, He learned obedience from what He suffered. ⁹And once made perfect, He became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey Him—¹⁰called by God Kohen Gadol “according to the order of Melchizedek.”^g

Moving on to Maturity

¹¹About this subject there is much for us to say, and it is hard to explain since you have become sluggish in hearing. ¹²For although you ought to be teachers by this time, again you need someone to teach you the basics of God’s sayings. You have come to need milk, not solid food. ¹³For anyone living on milk is inexperienced with the teaching about righteousness—he is an infant.^h ¹⁴But solid food is for the mature, who through practice have their senses trained to discern both good and evil.

^a 5:1. cf. Exod. 28:1.

^b 5:3. cf. Lev. 9:7; 16:6.

¹Therefore leaving the basic teaching of the Messiah, let us move on toward maturity—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of trust in God, ²of teaching about immersions, laying on of hands, resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³Now this we will do, if God permits.

⁴For it is impossible for those who once were enlightened—having tasted of the heavenly gift and become partakers of the Ruach ha-Kodesh,⁵ and having tasted the good word of God and the powers of the olam ha-ba,⁶ and then having fallen away—to renew again to repentance, since they are again crucifying Ben-Elohim for themselves and publicly disgracing Him. ⁷For the earth—having soaked up the rain frequently falling on it—brings forth vegetationⁱ useful to those for whom it is farmed; and it shares in God’s blessing. ⁸But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed—its end is to be burned over.^j

⁹But even though we speak like this, loved ones, concerning you we are convinced of better things^k—things coming with salvation. ¹⁰For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love that you showed for His name, in having served and continuing to serve the kedoshim. ¹¹But we long for each of you to show the same eagerness for the certainty of hope to the very end—¹²so you will not be sluggish,^l but imitators of those inheriting the promises through trust and perseverance.

The Promise and the Oath

¹³Now when God made His promise to Abraham—since He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, ¹⁴saying, “Surely I will bless you, and surely I will multiply you.”^m

¹⁵And so after waiting patiently, Abraham

ⁱ 6:7. cf. Deut. 11:11-15; Gen. 13:10.

^j 6:8 cf. Deut. 11:16-17, 26-28; Gen. 19:24-26; Deut. 28:15-68; 30:7.

^k 6:9. Deut. 30:1-6.

^l 6:12. cf. Heb. 2:1; 4:1-2; 5:11.

^m 6:14. Gen. 22:17.

reached the promise.ⁿ ¹⁶For people swear by someone greater; and the oath, as confirmation, is an end to all their disputing. ¹⁷In the same way God, determining to point out more clearly to the heirs of the promise the unchanging nature of His purpose, guaranteed it with an oath. ¹⁸So by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie,^o we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to take hold of the hope set before us. ¹⁹We have this hope as an anchor of the soul, both firm and steady—a hope that enters the inner place behind the curtain.^p ²⁰Yeshua has entered there as a forerunner on our behalf, having become Kohen Gadol “forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”^q

Melchizedek, a Kohen Forever

¹For this Melchizedek was king of Salem, kohen of God Most High. He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him,^r ²and to him Abraham apportioned a tenth of everything. First, by the translation of his name, he is “King of Righteousness”^s; and then also King of Salem, which is “King of Shalom.” ³Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life but made like Ben-Elohim, he remains a kohen for all time.

⁴Now see how great this man is! Even Abraham the patriarch gave him a tenth out of the plunder. ⁵Indeed, those sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have, according to Torah, a command to collect a tithe from the people^t—that is, from their kin, although they have come out of the loins of Abraham. ⁶But this one—who did not have their genealogy—has collected tithes from Abraham and has blessed him, the one holding the promises.

ⁿ 6:15. cf. Gen. 2:15.

^o 6:18. cf. Num. 23:19.

^p 6:19. Heb. parokhet; cf. Exod. 26:33; Lev. 16:15; Heb. 9:3.

^q 6:20. Ps. 110:4(109:4 LXX); Heb. 5:6, 10.

^r 7:1-2. See Gen. 14:17-20.

^s 7:2. Heb. Malki-Tzedek.

^t 7:5. cf. Num. 18:21-32.

⁷Now it is beyond dispute that the lesser is blessed by the greater. ⁸In one case, dying men receive tithes; but in the other, one about whom it is testified that he lives on. ⁹Through Abraham even Levi, the one receiving tithes, has paid the tithe, so to speak—¹⁰for he was still in his father’s loins when Melchizedek met him.

Yeshua, Our Kohen Gadol Forever

¹¹Now if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for based on it the people had been given the Torah^u), what further need was there for a different kohen to arise—designated according to the order of Melchizedek, not according to the order of Aaron? ¹²For whenever the priesthood is altered, out of necessity an alteration^v of law also takes place. ¹³For the one about whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. ¹⁴For it is clear that our Lord has sprung forth^w from Judah—concerning this tribe, Moses said nothing about kohanim. ¹⁵And it is even more evident, if another kohen arises like Melchizedek—¹⁶one made not by virtue of a Torah requirement of physical descent,^x but by virtue of the power of an indestructible life. ¹⁷For it is testified,

“You are a kohen forever,
according to the order of Melchizedek.”^y

¹⁸For on the one hand, a former requirement is set aside because of its weakness and ineffectiveness—¹⁹for Torah made nothing perfect. But on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.

²⁰Moreover, it was not without a sworn oath. (Others indeed have become kohanim without a sworn oath,^z but He with an oath—sworn by the One who said to Him, “ADONAI has sworn and will not change His mind, ‘You are a kohen forever.’”^z) ²²How much more ^u 7:11. cf. Exod. 19:5-6; 20ff.

^z 7:21. Ps. 110:4(109:4 LXX).

then has Yeshua become the guarantee of a better covenant.

²³Now on the one hand, many have become kohanim, who through death are prevented from continuing in office.^a ²⁴But on the other hand, the One who does remain forever has a permanent priesthood. ²⁵Therefore He is also able to save completely those who draw near to God through Him, always living to make intercession for them.

²⁶For such a Kohen Gadol was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. ²⁷He has no need to offer up sacrifices day by day like those other kohanim g'dolim—first for their own sins and then for the sins of the people.^b For when He offered up Himself, He did this once for all. ²⁸For the Torah appoints as kohanim g'dolim men who have weakness; but the word of the oath,^c which came after the Torah, appoints a Son—made perfect forever.

Yeshua, Mediator of a Better Covenant

¹Now here is the main point being said. We do have such a Kohen Gadol, who has taken His seat at the right hand^d of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens. ²He is a priestly attendant of the Holies and the true Tent—which ADONAI set up, not man. ³For every kohen gadol is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, so it is necessary for this One also to have something to offer.^e ⁴Now if He were on earth, He would not be a kohen at all, since there are those who offer the gifts according to the Torah. ⁵They offer service in a replica^f and foreshadower of the heavenlies—one that is just as Moses was instructed by God when he was about to complete the tabernacle. For He says, “See that you make everything according to the design that was shown to you on the mountain.”⁶ But now Yeshua has obtained a more excellent ministry, insofar as He is the mediator of a better covenant which has been enacted on better promises.

⁷For if that first one had been faultless, there would not have been discourse seeking a second. ⁸For finding fault with them, He says, “Behold, days are coming,

says ADONAI,
when I will inaugurate a new covenant with the house of Israel
and with the house of Judah.

⁹It will not be like the covenant
I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt.
For they did not remain in My covenant, and I did not care for them, says ADONAI.

¹⁰For this is the covenant that I will make
with the house of Israel
after those days, says ADONAI.

I will put My Torah into their mind,
and upon their hearts I will write it.
And I will be their God,
and they shall be My people.^h

¹¹And no more will they teach, each one his fellow citizen and each one his brother, saying, ‘Know ADONAI,’
because all will know Me, from the least of them to the greatest.

¹²For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and their sins
I will remember no more.”ⁱ

¹³In saying “new,” He has treated the first as old; but what is being made old and aging is close to vanishing.

Messiah Enters the Heavenly Holies

¹Now even the first one had regulations

ⁱ 8:8-12. Jer. 31:30-33(31-34); 38:31-34(LXX).

for worship and the earthly sanctuary.^j ²For a tent was prepared: in the outer^k part were the menorah, the table, and the presentation of the bread^l—this is called the Holy Place. ³Beyond the second curtain^m was a dwelling called the Holy of Holies.ⁿ ⁴It held a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant, completely covered with gold. In the ark was a golden jar holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant^o—⁵and above it, cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat.^p But it is not now possible to speak in detail about these things.

⁶Now with these things prepared this way, the kohanim

do continually enter into the outer tent^q
while completing the services; ⁷but into the inner,^r
once a year,

the kohen gadol alone^s—and not without blood which he offers for himself and for the unintentional sins^t of the people. ⁸By this the Ruach ha-Kodesh makes clear that the way into the Holies has not yet been revealed while the first tent is still standing. ⁹It is a symbol for the present time. Accordingly, gifts and sacrifices are being offered that cannot make the worshiper perfect with respect to conscience. ¹⁰These relate only to food and drink and various washings^u—regulations for the body imposed until a time of setting things straight.

¹¹But when Messiah appeared as Kohen Gadol of the good things that have now come, passing through the greater and more perfect Tent not made with hands (that is to say not of this creation), ¹²He entered into the Holies once for all—not by the blood of goats and calves but by His own blood, having obtained eternal redemption. ¹³For if the blood of goats and bulls^v and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled^w sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh, ¹⁴how much more will the blood of Messiah—who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God—cleanse our^x conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

¹⁵For this reason He is the mediator of a new covenant,^y in order that those called may receive the promised eternal inheritance—since a death has taken place that redeems them from violations under the first covenant. ¹⁶For where there is a covenant, the death of the one who made it must be established.^z ¹⁷For a covenant is secured upon the basis of dead bodies, since it has no strength as long as the one who made it lives. ¹⁸That is why not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood. ¹⁹For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the Torah, he took the blood of the calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and he sprinkled both the book itself and all the people. ²⁰He said, “This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded you.”^{aa} ²¹And in the same way, he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry with the blood.^{ab} ²²And nearly everything is purified in blood according to the Torah, and apart from the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.^{ac}

²³Therefore it was necessary for the replicas of these heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices—but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Messiah did not enter into Holies made with hands—counterparts of the true things—but into heaven itself, now to appear in God's presence on our behalf. ²⁵And He did not offer Himself again and again—as the kohen gadol enters into the Holy of Holies year after year with blood that is not his own.

^{ac} 9:22. Lit. pardon, cancellation, removal; cf. Mt. 6:12; Mk. 1:4; Lev. 16:26(LXX).

²⁶For then He would have needed to suffer again and again from the foundation of the world. But as it is, He has been revealed once and for all at the close of the ages—to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. ²⁷And just as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this judgment, ^a ²⁸so also Messiah, was offered once to bear the sins of many. ^b He will appear a second time, apart from sin, to those eagerly awaiting Him for salvation. ^c

Perfect Pardon in the New Covenant

¹The Torah has a shadow of the good things to come—not the form itself of the realities. For this reason it can never, by means of the same sacrifices they offer constantly year after year, make perfect those who draw near. ²Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, since the worshipers—cleansed once and for all—would no longer have consciousness of sins? ³But in these sacrifices is a reminder of sins year after year— ⁴for it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵So when Messiah comes into the world, He says,

“Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but a body You prepared for Me.

⁶In whole burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not delight.

⁷Then I said, ‘Behold, I come to do Your will, O God (in the scroll of the book it is written of Me).’”^d

⁸After saying above, “Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not desire, nor did You delight in them” (those which are offered according to Torah), ⁹then He said, “Behold, I come to do Your will.” He takes away the first to establish the second. ¹⁰By His will we have been made holy through the offering of the body of Messiah Yeshua once for all.

¹¹Indeed, every kohen stands day by day serving and offering the same sacrifices again and again, which can never take away sins. ^c

¹²But on the other hand, when this One offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, He sat down at the right hand of God— ¹³waiting from then on, until His enemies are made a footstool for His feet. ¹⁴For by one offering He has perfected forever those being made holy. ¹⁵The Ruach ha-Kodesh also testifies to us—for after saying,

¹⁶“This is the covenant that I will cut with them:

‘After those days,’ says ADONAI,

‘I will put My Torah upon their hearts, and upon their minds I will write it,’”^e

then He says,

¹⁷“I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”^f

¹⁸Now where there is removal of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Let Us Pray Boldly in God’s Presence

¹⁹Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have boldness to enter into the Holies by the blood of Yeshua. ²⁰He inaugurated a new and living way for us through the curtain—that is, His flesh. ²¹We also have a Kohen Gadol over God’s household.

²²So let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and body washed with pure water.

²³Let us hold fast the unwavering confession of hope, for He who promised is faithful.

²⁴And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good deeds.

²⁵And do not neglect our own meetings, as is the habit of some, but encourage one another—and all the more so as you see the Day^l approaching.

²⁶For if we keep on sinning willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷but only a terrifying expectation of judgment and a fury of fire about to devour the enemies of God.^l ²⁸Anyone who rejected the Torah of Moses dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses.^k ²⁹How much more severe do you think the punishment will be for the one who has trampled Ben-Elohim underfoot, and has regarded as unholy the blood of the covenant by which he was made holy, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?³⁰ For we know the One who said, “Vengeance is Mine; I will repay,” and again, “ADONAI will judge His people.”³¹ It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Suffering Perfects Yeshua’s Followers

³²But remember the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings. ³³Sometimes you were publicly exposed to abuses and afflictions, and other times you became partners with those who were treated this way. ³⁴For you suffered along with the prisoners and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better and lasting possession. ³⁵Therefore, do not lose your boldness, which has great reward. ³⁶For you need perseverance so that, after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise. ³⁷For yet

“in a very little while,^m the Coming One will come, and He will not delay.ⁿ”

and if he shrinks back,
My soul takes no pleasure in him.”^o

The Faithful See from Afar

¹Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of realities not seen. ²For by it the elders received commendation. ³By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen did not come from anything visible.

⁴By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain. Through faith he was commended as righteous^p when God approved of his gifts. And through faith he still speaks, although he is dead.

⁵By faith Enoch was taken so as not to see death, and he was not found because God took him.^q For before he was taken, he was commended as pleasing to God. ⁶Now without faith it is impossible to please God. For the one who comes to God must believe that He exists and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

⁷By faith Noah, when warned about events not yet seen, in holy fear prepared an ark for the safety of his household. Through faith he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

⁸By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place he was to receive as an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹By faith he migrated to the land of promise as if it were foreign, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob—fellow heirs of the same promise. ¹⁰For he was waiting for the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

¹¹By faith even Sarah herself received ability to conceive^r when she was barren and past the age, since she considered the One who

^p 11:4. cf. Mt. 23:35.
^q 11:5. cf. Gen. 5:24(5:24 LXX); Grk. metathesis, lit. transposition, a change in location.
^r 11:11. cf. Gen. 18:11-14; 21:2. Some mss. add and she bore a child.

had made the promise to be faithful. ¹²So from one—and him as good as dead—were fathered offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven, and as uncountable as the sand on the seashore.^a ¹³These all died in faith without receiving the things promised—but they saw them and welcomed them from afar, and they confessed that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth.^b ¹⁴For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. ¹⁵If indeed they had been thinking about where they had come from, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶But as it is, they yearn for a better land—that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

¹⁷By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had received the promises was offering up his one and only son—¹⁸the one about whom it was said, “Through Isaac offspring shall be named for you.”^c ¹⁹He reasoned that God was able to raise him up even from the dead—and in a sense, he did receive him back from there.

²⁰By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. ²¹By faith Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and he bowed in worship while leaning on the top of his staff. ²²By faith Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the exodus of Bnei-Yisrael and gave instructions about his bones.

²³By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was an extraordinary child and they were not afraid of the king’s decree. ²⁴By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter. ²⁵Instead he chose to suffer mistreatment along with the people of God, rather than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin. ²⁶He considered the disgrace of Messiah^d as greater riches than the treasures of Egypt—because he was looking ahead to the reward.

^a 11:12. cf. Gen. 15:5; 22:17; 32:12.

^b 11:13. cf. Gen. 23:4; 47:9.

^c 11:18. Gen. 21:12(LXX).

^d 11:26. cf. Ps. 89:50-51.

²⁷By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king’s anger—for he persevered as if seeing the One who is invisible. ²⁸By faith he kept the Passover and the smearing of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them. ²⁹By faith they passed through the Red Sea as if on dry ground. When the Egyptians tried it, they were swallowed up.

³⁰By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they were circled for seven days. ³¹By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she welcomed the spies with shalom.

³²And what more shall I say? For time would fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, also of David and Samuel and the prophets. ³³By faith they conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, ³⁴quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, and made foreign armies flee.

³⁵Women received their dead raised back to life; and others were tortured, after not accepting release, so they might obtain a better resurrection. ³⁶Others experienced the trial of mocking and scourging—yes, and even chains and prison.

³⁷They were stoned, they were sawed in two, they were murdered with the sword. They went around in sheepskins and goat-skins; they were destitute, afflicted, mistreated. ³⁸The world was not worthy of them! They wandered around in deserts and mountains, caves and holes in the ground. ³⁹And all these, though commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised—⁴⁰because God had provided something better for us, so that only with us would they reach perfection.

Running the Race with Discipline

¹Therefore, since we have such a great cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also get rid of every weight and entangling sin. Let us run with endurance the race set before us, ²focusing on Yeshua, the initiator and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before Him, He endured the cross, disregarding its shame; and He has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of God.^e ³Consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you may not grow weary in your souls and lose heart.

⁴In struggling against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of bloodshed. ⁵Have you forgotten the warning addressed to you as sons?

“My son, do not take lightly the discipline of ADONAI or lose heart when you are corrected by Him, ⁶because ADONAI disciplines
the one He loves and punishes every son He accepts.”^f

⁷It is for discipline that you endure. God is treating you as sons—for what son does a father not discipline? ⁸But if you are without discipline—something all have come to share—then you are illegitimate and not sons. ⁹Besides, we are used to having human fathers as instructors—and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? ¹⁰Indeed, for a short time they disciplined us as seemed best to them; but He does so for our benefit, so that we may share in His holiness. ¹¹Now all discipline seems painful at the moment—not joyful. But later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

¹²Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are feeble!^g ¹³And make straight paths for your feet,^h so that what is lame will not be pulled out of joint but rather be healed. ¹⁴Pursue shalom with everyone, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord. ¹⁵See to it that no one falls short of the grace of God; and see to it that no bitter root springs up and causes trouble, and by it many be defiled. ¹⁶Also see to it that there is no immoral or godless person—like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal.ⁱ ¹⁷For you know that later, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected. He found no chance for repentance, though he begged for it with tears.^j

Entering the Unshakeable Kingdom

¹⁸For you have not come to a mountain^k that can be touched, and to a blazing fire, and to darkness and gloom and storm, ¹⁹and to the blast of a shofar^l and a voice whose words made those who heard it beg that not another word be spoken to them. ²⁰For they could not bear what was commanded: “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned.”^m ²¹So terrifying was the sight that Moses said, “I am quaking with fear.”ⁿ

²²But you have come to Mount Zion—to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem,^o and to myriads of angels, a joyous gathering, ²³and to the assembly of the first-born^p who are written in a scroll in heaven,^q and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous ones made perfect, ²⁴and to Yeshua, the Mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks of something better than the blood of Abel.

²⁵See to it that you do not refuse the One who is speaking! For if they did not escape when they refused the One who was warning them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject the One who warns us from heaven. ²⁶His voice shook the earth then,^r but now He has promised, saying, “Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens.”^s ²⁷Now this phrase, “Yet once more,” shows the removal of those things that are shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain.^{a 28}Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude—through this we may offer worship in a manner pleasing to God, with reverence and awe.²⁹For our God is a consuming fire.

Brotherly Love in the Community

¹Let brotherly love continue. ²Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers—for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. ³Remember the prisoners as if you were fellow prisoners, and those who are mistreated as if you also were suffering bodily. ⁴Let marriage be held in honor among all and the marriage bed kept undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers. ⁵Keep your lifestyle free from the love of money, and be content with what you have. For God Himself has said, “I will never leave you or forsake you,”^{b 6} so that with confidence we say,

“The Lord is my helper; I will not fear.
What will man do to me?”^c

⁷Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. ⁸Yeshua the Messiah is the same yesterday, today, and forever. ⁹Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace—not by foods that have not benefited those occupied by them. ¹⁰We have an altar from which those serving in the tabernacle have no right to eat. ¹¹For the bodies of those animals—whose blood is brought into the Holies by the kohen gadol as an offering for sin—are burned outside the camp.^{d 12}Therefore, to make the people holy through His own blood, Yeshua also suffered outside the gate. ¹³So let us go to Him outside the camp, bearing His disgrace. ¹⁴For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the one that is to come. ¹⁵Through Yeshua then, let us continually offer up to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips giving thanks to His name. ¹⁶Do not neglect doing good and sharing,^e for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as ones who must give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with groaning, for that would be of no benefit to you.

¹⁸Pray for us, for we are convinced that we have a clear conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things. ¹⁹I especially urge you to do this, so that I may be restored to you sooner.

Closing Blessing

²⁰Now may the God of shalom, who brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep by the blood of an everlasting covenant,^f our Lord Yeshua, ²¹make you complete in every good thing to do His will, accomplishing in us what is pleasing in His sight, through Messiah Yeshua. To Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

²²But I urge you, brothers and sisters, listen patiently to this word of exhortation, for in fact I have written to you in few words. ²³Know that our brother Timothy has been released. If he comes soon, I will visit you with him.

²⁴Greet all your leaders and all the kedoshim—those from Italy greet you.

²⁵Grace be with you all.

Greetings

¹Jacob, a slave of God and of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah,
To the twelve tribes in the Diaspora:
Shalom!

Rejoice in Trials

²Consider it all joy, my brethren,^e when you encounter various trials, ³knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. ⁴And let endurance have its perfect work, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. ⁵But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God,^h who gives to all without hesitation and without reproach; and it will be given to him. ⁶But let him ask in faith, without any doubting—for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. ⁷For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord—⁸he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

⁹But let the brother in humble circumstances boast in his high position—¹⁰and the rich person in his humble position, because like the flower of the grass he will pass away. ¹¹For the sun arises with a scorching heat and withers the grass, and its flower falls off and the beauty of its appearance is destroyed.ⁱ So also the rich man in the midst of his pursuits will wither away.

¹²Happy is the one who endures testing, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love Him. ¹³Let no one say when he is tempted, “I am being tempted by God”—for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He himself tempts no one. ¹⁴But each one is tempted when he is dragged away and enticed by his own desire. ¹⁵Then when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin is full grown, it brings forth death.^j

¹⁶Do not be deceived, my dear brothers and sisters. ¹⁷Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow. ¹⁸By His will, He brought us forth by the word of truth, so that we might be a kind of firstfruits of all He created.^k

Quick to Listen, Slow to Anger

¹⁹Know this, my dear brothers and sisters: let every person be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger!^l ²⁰for human anger doesn’t produce the righteousness of God. ²¹So put away all moral filth and excess of evil and receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

²⁶If anyone thinks he is religious and yet does not bridle his tongue^m but deceives his heart, this person’s religion is futile. ²⁷Pure and undefiled religion before our God and Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress,ⁿ and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Honor the Poor Person

¹My brothers and sisters, do not hold the faith of our glorious Lord Yeshua the Messiah while showing favoritism.^a ²For if a man with a gold ring and fine clothes comes into your synagogue, and a poor person in filthy clothes also comes in; ³and you pay special attention to the one wearing the fine clothing and you say, “Sit here in a good place”; and you say to the poor person, “Stand there,” or “Sit by my footstool”; ⁴haven’t you made distinctions between yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

⁵Listen, my dear brothers and sisters. Didn’t God choose the poor in this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the Kingdom that He promised to those who love Him? ⁶But you have dishonored the poor person. Isn’t it the rich who oppress you and drag you into court? ⁷Don’t they blaspheme the good name by which you were called? ⁸If, however, you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself,” you do well. ⁹But if you show favoritism, you are committing sin and are convicted by the Torah as transgressors. ¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole Torah but stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. ¹¹For the one who said, “Do not commit adultery,” also said, “Do not commit murder.” Now if you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the Torah.^b ¹²So speak and act as those who will be judged according to a Torah that gives freedom. ¹³For judgment is merciless to the one who does not show mercy.^c Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Show Faith with Works

¹⁴What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith, but does not have works? Can such faith save him? ¹⁵If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, ¹⁶and one of you says to them, “Go in shalom, keep warm and well fed,” but you do not give them what the body needs, what good is that? ¹⁷So also faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself.

¹⁸But someone will say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith without works and I will show you faith by my works. ¹⁹You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe—and shudder! ²⁰But do you want to know, you empty person, that faith without works is dead? ²¹Wasn’t Abraham our father proved righteous by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? ²²You see that faith worked together with his works, and by the works his faith was made complete. ²³The Scripture was fulfilled that says, “And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness”^d—and he was called God’s friend.^e ²⁴You see that a man is proved righteous by works and not by faith alone. ²⁵And likewise, wasn’t Rahab the prostitute also proved righteous by works when she welcomed the messengers and sent them out another way?^f ²⁶For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

Dangerous Tongue

¹Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, since you know that we will receive a stricter judgment. ²For we all stumble in many ways. If someone does not stumble in speech, he is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body as well. ³And if we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole body as well.⁴ See also the ships—though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. ⁵So also the tongue is a small member—yet it boasts

^o 2:23. Gen. 15:6; cf. Gal. 3:6.

^e 2:23. cf. Isa. 41:8.

^f 2:25. cf. Josh. 2:4ff.

of great things.⁸ See how so small a fire sets a blaze so great a forest! ⁶And the tongue is a fire.^h The tongue is a world of evil placed among our body parts. It pollutes the whole body and sets on fire the course of life—and is set on fire by Gehenna.

⁷For every species of beasts and birds, reptiles and sea creatures, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind.⁸ But no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.¹ ⁹With it we bless ADONAI and Father, and with it we curse people, who are made in the image of God.¹ ¹⁰From the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, these things should not be. ¹¹A spring doesn't pour out fresh and bitter water from the same opening, does it? ¹²My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree produce olives, or a vine produce figs? Neither can salt water produce fresh water.

Gentle Wisdom from Above

¹³Who among you is wise and understanding? By his good conduct let him show his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom. ¹⁴But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth. ¹⁵This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic. ¹⁶For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil practice. ¹⁷But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial, not hypocritical. ¹⁸And the fruit of righteousness is sown in shalom by those who make shalom.^k

you come from? Don't they come from this, namely your passions that battle within your body parts? ²You crave and have not. You murder and you envy, yet you cannot get it. You fight and you wage war. You do not have because you do not ask. ³You ask and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives so you may spend it on your passions. ⁴You adulteresses!^l Don't you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. ⁵Or do you think that in vain the Scripture says, "He yearns jealously over the spirit which He made to dwell in us"? ⁶But He gives greater grace. Therefore it says,

"God opposes the proud,
but gives grace to the humble."^m

⁷Therefore submit to God. But resist the devil and he will flee from you. ⁸Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded!ⁿ ⁹Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into gloom. ¹⁰Humble yourselves in the sight of ADONAI, and He shall lift you up. ¹¹Do not speak evil against one another, brethren. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the Torah and judges the Torah. But if you judge the Torah, you are not a doer of the Torah, but a judge. ¹²There is only one lawgiver and judge^p—the One who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you who judges your neighbor?

If the Lord Wills, We Will

¹³Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a town and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit." ¹⁴Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. What is your life? For you are a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes.^{a 15} Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that.”¹⁶ But now you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil.¹⁷ Therefore whoever knows the right thing to do and does not do it—for him it is sin.

Rotten Riches

¹Come now, you rich, weep and wail over the miseries that are coming upon you.² Your riches have rotted and your clothes have become moth-eaten.³ Your gold and your silver have rusted and their rust will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up treasure in the last days.⁴ Behold, the wages of the workers who mowed your fields—which you kept back by fraud—are crying out against you. And the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of Hosts.^{b 5} You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts for a day of slaughter.^{c 6} You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous person^d—he does not resist you.

Be Patient for His Coming

⁷So be patient, brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient for it until it receives the early and late rain.^{e 8} You also be patient. Strengthen your hearts because the coming of the Lord is near.⁹ Do not grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be judged. Behold, the judge is standing at the doors.

^a 4:14. Cf. Prov. 27:1; Job 7:7; Ps. 39:5; 144:4.

^d 5:6. Or, the righteous One.

^e 5:7. Cf. Deut. 11:14; Jer. 5:24; Hos. 6:3; Joel 2:23.

¹⁰As an example of suffering and patience, brothers and sisters, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

¹¹Behold, we consider blessed those who showed endurance. You have heard of the endurance of Job,^f and you have seen the outcome of ADONAI—that ADONAI is full of compassion and mercy.^g ¹²But above all, my dear brothers and sisters, do not swear—either by heaven, or by the earth, or by any other oath. But let your “yes” be “yes,” and your “no,” be “no”—so that you may not fall under judgment.

Praying for the Sick

¹³Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray.^h Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praises.¹⁴ Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of Messiah’s community, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.¹⁵ The prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.¹⁶ So confess your offenses to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous person is very powerful.¹⁷ Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain. And it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months.^{i 18} He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

¹⁹My brothers and sisters, if any among you strays from the truth and someone turns him back,²⁰ let him know that the one who turns a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death and cover a multitude of sins.^j

1 Peter

1

Greetings

¹Peter, a emissary of Messiah Yeshua,

To the sojourners of the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia—chosen² according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, set apart by the Ruach for obedience and for sprinkling with the blood^k of Yeshua the Messiah:

May grace and shalom be multiplied to you.

A Message of Living Hope

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah! In His great mercy He caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Messiah Yeshua from the dead. ⁴An incorruptible, undefiled, and unfading inheritance has been reserved in heaven for you. ⁵By trusting, you are being protected by God's power for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶You rejoice in this greatly, even though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been distressed by various trials. ⁷These trials are so that the true metal^l of your faith (far more valuable than gold, which perishes though refined by fire) may come to light in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Messiah Yeshua. ⁸Though you have not seen Him, you love Him. And even though you don't see Him now, you trust Him and are filled with a joy that is glorious beyond words, ⁹receiving the outcome of your faith—the salvation of your souls. ¹⁰The prophets, who spoke about the grace that was to be yours, searched for this salvation and investigated carefully. ¹¹They were trying to find out the time and circumstances the Ruach of Messiah within them was indicating, when predicting the sufferings in store for Messiah^m and the glories to follow. ¹²It was ^l 1:2. cf. Exod. 24:3-8.

^k 1:7. Lit. without alloy; mettle, genuineness, proof.

^m 1:11. cf. Lk. 24:26-27.

revealed to them that they were providing these messages not to themselves but to you. These messages have now been announced to you through those who proclaimed the Good News to you by the Ruach ha-Kodesh, sent from heaven. Even angels long to catch a glimpse of these things.

A Call to Be Holy

¹³So brace your minds for action. Keep your balance. And set your hope completely on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁴Like obedient children, do not be shaped by the cravings you had formerly in your ignorance. ¹⁵Instead, just like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in everything you do. ¹⁶For it is written,

“Kedoshim you shall be, for I am kadosh.”ⁿ

¹⁷If you call on Him as Father—the One who judges impartially according to each one's deeds—then live out the time of sojourning in reverent fear.

¹⁸You know that you were redeemed from the futile way of life handed down from your ancestors—not with perishable things such as silver or gold, ¹⁹but with precious blood like that of a lamb without defect or spot, the blood of Messiah. ²⁰He was chosen before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake. ²¹Through Him you are believers in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your trust and hope are in God.

²²Now that you have purified your souls in obedience to the truth,^o leading to sincere brotherly love, love one another fervently from a pure heart. ²³You have been born again—not from perishable seed but imperishable—through the living and enduring word of God. ²⁴For, ⁿ 1:16. Lev. 11:44-45; 19:2; 20:7.

^o Some mss. insert through the Spirit.

“All humanity is like grass,
And all its glory like a wildflower.
The grass withers, and the flower falls off, ²⁵But the word of the Lord endures forever.”^a

And this is the word that was proclaimed as Good News to you.

2

Living Stones

¹So get rid of all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all lashon ha-ra. ²As newborn babes, long for pure spiritual milk,^b so that by it you may grow toward salvation—³now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.^c ⁴As you come to Him, a living stone^d rejected by men but chosen by God and precious, ⁵you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house—a holy priesthood to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Messiah Yeshua. ⁶For it says in Scripture,

“Behold, I lay in Zion a stone,
a chosen, precious cornerstone.
Whoever trusts in Him will never be put to shame.”^e

⁷Now the value is for you who keep trusting;
but for those who do not trust,

“The stone which the builders rejected—this One has become the chief cornerstone,”^f

⁸and

“a stone of stumbling,
and a rock of offense.”^g

They stumble because they are disobeying the word—to this they were also appointed.

^a 1:24-25a. cf. Isa. 40:6, 8; the word of our God in MT, LXX.

^b 2:2. Or the pure milk of the word; Grk. logikos.

^c 2:3. cf. Ps. 34:8(34:8 LXX).

^d 2:4. cf. Ps. 118:22; Isa. 28:16.

^e 2:6. Isa. 28:16.

^f 2:7. Ps. 118:22.

^g 2:8. Isa. 8:14.

⁹But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God’s own possession, so that you may proclaim the praises of the One who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.^h

¹⁰Once you were “not a people,” but now you are “God’s people.”
You were shown “no mercy,” but now you have been shown “mercy.”ⁱ

¹¹Loved ones, I urge you as strangers and sojourners to keep away from the fleshly cravings that war against the soul. ¹²Keep your conduct honorable among the Gentiles. Then while they speak against you as evildoers, they may—from noticing your good deeds—glorify God in the day of visitation.

Respect and Order

¹³For the Lord’s sake, submit yourselves to every human authority—whether to a king as supreme, ¹⁴or to governors sent by him for the punishment of those who do evil and the praise of those who do good. ¹⁵For this is God’s will, that you silence the ignorance of foolish men by doing good. ¹⁶Live as free people, but not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil. Rather, live as God’s slaves. ¹⁷Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God.
Honor the king.

¹⁸Slaves, with all respect submit yourselves to your masters—not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are harsh. ¹⁹For this finds favor if, for the sake of conscience toward God, someone endures grief from suffering undeservedly. ²⁰For what credit is there if, when you sin and get a beating, you endure? But if you endure when you do good and suffer for it, this finds favor with God. ²¹For you were called to this, because Messiah also suffered for you, leaving you an example so that you might follow in His footsteps:

²²“He committed no sin,

nor was any deceit found in His mouth.”^j ²³When He was abused, He did not return the abuse.^k While suffering, He made no threats. Instead, He kept entrusting Himself to the One who judges righteously. ²⁴He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, so that we, removed from sins, might live for righteousness. “By His wounds you were healed.”^l ²⁵For you like sheep were going astray,^m but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

¹Likewise, wives, be submitted to your own husbands so that—even if some do not obey the message—by the wives’ conduct, without a word they may be won over² as they observe your pure, reverent conduct.ⁿ ³Don’t let your beauty^o be external—braiding the hair and wearing gold jewelry or fine clothes.^p ⁴Instead let it be in the hidden person of the heart, with the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God’s sight is very precious. ⁵For this is the way the holy women, who put their hope in God, used to beautify themselves long ago—being submitted to their own husbands ⁶just as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord.^q You have become her daughters by doing what is good and not fearing intimidation. ⁷In the same way, husbands, live with your wives in an understanding way. Though they are weaker partners, honor them as equal heirs of the grace of life. In this way, your prayers will not be hindered.

Suffering for Doing Good

⁸Finally, all of you be harmonious, sympathetic, brotherly, tenderhearted, humble-minded. ⁹Do not repay evil for evil or insult for insult, but give a blessing instead—it is for this reason you were called, so that you might inherit a blessing.

¹⁰For,
 “The one who loves life,
 wanting to see good days, must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit.
¹¹He must turn away from evil and do good.
 He must seek shalom and pursue it.
¹²For the eyes of ADONAI are on the righteous and His ears open to their prayer; but the face of ADONAI is against those who do evil.”^r

¹³Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good? ¹⁴But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. Do not be afraid or worry about their threats.^s ¹⁵Instead sanctify Messiah as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an answer to anyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, ¹⁶yet with humility and reverence—keeping a clear conscience so that, whatever you are accused of, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Messiah may be put to shame. ¹⁷For it is better to suffer for doing good (if it is God’s will) than for doing evil.

¹⁸For Messiah once suffered for sins also—the righteous for the unrighteous^t—in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Ruach. ¹⁹Through the Ruach He also went and preached to the spirits in prison. ²⁰Long ago they disobeyed while God kept waiting patiently, in the days of Noah as the ark was being built. In that ark a few (that is, eight souls) were brought safely through water. ²¹Corresponding to that, immersion now brings you to safety—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but a pledge to God of a good conscience—through the resurrection of Messiah Yeshua. ²²He has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels and authorities and powers subjected to Him.

How to Live in the Last Days

¹Therefore, since Messiah suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same attitude. For the one who has suffered in the flesh is finished with sin. ²As a result, he lives the rest of his time in the flesh no longer for human desires, but for God's will. ³For the time that has passed was sufficient for you to carry out the desire of the pagans—living in indecency, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, wild parties, and lawless idolatries. ⁴They are surprised that you do not run with them into the same riot of recklessness, and they vilify you. ⁵But they will have to give an account to the One who stands ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶For this was the reason the Good News was proclaimed even to those now dead, so that though they are judged in the flesh before humans, they might live in the Ruach before God.

⁷Now the end of all things is near. So be self-controlled and sober-minded for prayer. ⁸Above all, keep your love for one another constant, for “love covers a multitude of sins.”^a ⁹Be hospitable one to another without grumbling. ¹⁰As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of the many-sided grace of God. ¹¹Whoever speaks, let it be as one speaking the utterances of God. Whoever serves, let it be with the strength that God supplies. So in all things may God be glorified through Messiah Yeshua—all glory and power to Him forever and ever! Amen.

¹²Loved ones, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal taking place among you to test you—as though something strange were happening to you. ¹³Instead, rejoice insofar as you share in the sufferings of Messiah, so that at the revelation of His glory you may also rejoice and be glad. ¹⁴If you are insulted for the name of Messiah,^b you are fortunate, for the Spirit of glory^c and of God rests on you. ¹⁵For let none of you suffer as a murderer or thief or evildoer or as a troublemaker. ¹⁶But if anyone suffers for following Messiah,^d let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this name. ¹⁷For the time has come for judgment to begin with the house of God.^e If judgment begins with us first, what will be the end for those who disobey the Good News of God?

¹⁸Now, “if it is hard for the righteous to be saved,

what shall become of the ungodly and the sinner?”^f

¹⁹So then, those who suffer according to God's will—let them trust their souls to a faithful Creator while continuing to do good.

Shepherds Lead by Example

¹Therefore I appeal to the elders among you—as a fellow elder and witness of Messiah's sufferings, and a partaker also of the glory about to be revealed—²shepherd God's flock among you. Watch over it not under compulsion but willingly before God, not for dishonest gain but eagerly. ³Don't lord it over^g those apportioned to you, but become examples to the flock. ⁴When the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. ⁵Likewise, you younger ones, submit yourselves to the elders. And all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for “God opposes the proud,

but gives grace to the humble.”^h

⁶Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, so that He may lift you up at the appropriate time. ⁷Cast all your

Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, searching for someone to devour. ⁹Stand up against him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being laid upon your brothers and sisters throughout the world. ¹⁰After you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace—who has called you into His eternal glory in Messiah—will Himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. ¹¹All power to Him forever!^j Amen.

Stand firm in it! ¹³Messiah's community in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings. So does my son Mark. ¹⁴Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Greetings

¹Simon Peter, a slave and emissary of Messiah Yeshua,

To those who have received a faith equal to ours through the righteousness of our God and Savior, Messiah Yeshua:

²May grace and shalom be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Yeshua our Lord.

Qualities for Living Forever

³His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and virtue. ⁴Through these things He has given us His precious and magnificent promises,^a so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, since you have escaped the corruption that evil desires have brought into the world. ⁵Now for this very reason, making every effort, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue, knowledge; ⁶and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, patience; and to patience, godliness; ⁷and to godliness, brotherly love; and to brotherly love, love.^b ⁸For if these qualities are in you and increasing, they keep you from becoming idle and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ⁹But anyone who lacks these qualities is blind—nearsighted because he has forgotten his cleansing from past sins. ¹⁰Therefore, brothers and sisters, make all the more effort to make your calling and election certain—for if you keep doing these things, you will never stumble. ¹¹For in this way entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Messiah Yeshua, will be richly provided for you.

^a 1:4. cf. Josh. 21:4; 1Kings 8:56; Jer. 33:14.

^b 1:7. Grk. philadelphia (brotherly love); agape (love).

¹²Therefore I intend to keep reminding you of these things, even though you know them and are well-grounded in the truth that you have. ¹³I think it right to stir you up with a reminder, as long as I remain alive in this “tent” of a body^c—¹⁴knowing that my death^d is soon, as our Lord Yeshua the Messiah has made clear to me. ¹⁵And I will make every effort for you to always remember these things even after my departure.

Distinguishing True Testimony from Tales

¹⁶For we did not follow cleverly concocted tales when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. ¹⁷For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, a voice came to Him from the Majestic Glory: “This is My Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased!”^e ¹⁸And we ourselves heard this voice come out of heaven, when we were with Him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹Furthermore, we have the reliable prophetic word. You do well by paying attention to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.^f ²⁰Above all understand this: no prophecy of Scripture comes about from a person’s own interpretation. ²¹For no prophecy was ever brought forth by human will; rather, people spoke from God as they were moved by the Ruach ha-Kodesh.^g

2

False Teachers Condemned

¹But false prophets also arose among

^c 1:13. cf. 2 Cor. 5:1.

^d 1:14. Lit. the laying aside of my tent.

^e 1:17. Matt. 17:5; (note also Matt. 3:17).

^f 1:18. cf. Matt. 17:1, 5; Mk. 9:2-7.

^g 1:19. cf. Num. 24:17.

^h 1:21. cf. 2 Sam. 23:2; 2 TIm. 3:16.

the people,¹ just as there will also be false teachers among you. They will secretly bring in destructive heresies. They will even deny the Master who bought them¹—bringing swift destruction upon themselves. ²Many will follow their immoral ways, and as a result the way of the truth will be maligned. ³In their greed they will exploit you with false words. Their judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction does not slumber.

⁴For God did not spare angels when they sinned, but threw them into Sheol.^k He put them in chains of gloomy darkness, to be held until the judgment.¹ ⁵He did not spare the ancient world. He preserved only Noah, a proclaimer of righteousness, along with seven others, when He brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly. ⁶He devastated the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, reducing them to ashes^m—making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly. ⁷He rescued Lot, a righteous man deeply troubled by the shameless immorality of the wicked.ⁿ ⁸(For that righteous man, while living among them, was tormented in his righteous soul day after day by lawless deeds he saw and heard.) ⁹Therefore the Lord certainly knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and how to keep the unrighteous being punished until the Day of Judgment—¹⁰especially those who follow after the flesh in its unclean desires and who despise the Lord's authority.^o

Brazen and arrogant, these people do not tremble while slandering glorious beings;¹¹ yet even angels, though stronger and more powerful, do not bring a slanderous charge against them before the Lord.^p ¹²But these people are like irrational animals—creatures of instinct born to be captured and killed. They malign what they don't understand, and in their destruction they will be utterly destroyed. ¹³They will be paid back for what they have done—evil for evil.^q They consider carousing in broad daylight a pleasure. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceitful pleasures while feasting together with you. ¹⁴They have eyes full of adultery that never stop sinning, enticing unstable souls. They have hearts trained in greed—a cursed brood! ¹⁵They have abandoned the straight way. They have gone astray. They have followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor,^r who loved the wages of wickedness. ¹⁶But he received a rebuke for his own wrongdoing. A dumb donkey spoke with a man's voice and put a stop to the prophet's madness.^s ¹⁷These people are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. The gloom of utter darkness has been reserved for them.^t ¹⁸For by mouthing grandiosities that amount to nothing, they entice in sensual fleshly passions those who are barely escaping from those who live in error. ¹⁹They promise them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption—for a person is a slave to whatever has overcome him. ²⁰For if—after escaping the world's pollutions through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Yeshua the Messiah—they again become entangled in these things and are overcome, the end for them has become worse than the beginning. ²¹For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after learning about it, to turn back from the holy commandment passed on to them.^u ²²What has happened to them confirms the truth of the proverb, “A dog returns to its vomit,”^v and “A scrubbed pig heads right back into the mud.”

that I am writing to you. In both I am trying to stir you up by way of a reminder to wholesome thinking—²to remember the words previously proclaimed by the holy prophets and the commandment of our Lord and Savior through your emissaries.^a ³First of all, understand that in the last days, scoffers will come scoffing, following after their own desires^b ⁴and saying, “Where is this promise of His coming?^c Ever since the fathers died,^d everything goes on just as it has from the beginning of creation.”⁵ For in holding to this idea, it escapes their notice that the heavens existed long ago and the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God.^e ⁶Through these, the world of that time was destroyed by being flooded with water.^f ⁷But by the same word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire—kept until the Day of Judgment and the destruction of ungodly people.^g

⁸But don’t forget this one thing, loved ones, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day.^h ⁹The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some consider slowness.ⁱ Rather, He is being patient toward you—not wanting anyone to perish, but for all to come to repentance.

with a roar, and the elements will melt and disintegrate, and the earth and everything done on it shall be exposed.¹¹ Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what kind of people should you be? Live your lives in holiness and godliness,¹² looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God. In that day the heavens will be dissolved by fire, and the elements will melt in the intense heat.^k ¹³But in keeping with His promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.^l

Final Advice

¹⁴Therefore, loved ones, while you are looking for these things, make every effort to be found in shalom, spotless and blameless before Him. ¹⁵Bear in mind that the patience of our Lord means salvation—just as our dearly loved brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom given to him. ¹⁶He speaks about these matters in all of his letters. Some things in them are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist (as they also do with the rest of the Scriptures)—to their own destruction.

¹⁷Since you already know all this, loved ones, be on your guard so that you are not led astray by the error of the lawless and lose your sure footing. ¹⁸Instead, keep growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Yeshua the Messiah. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity! Amen.

God's Manifested Word of Life

¹What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the Word of life—²the life was revealed, and we have seen and testify and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us. ³What we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so you may have fellowship with us. Indeed, our fellowship is with the Father and His Son, Yeshua the Messiah. ⁴These things we write so our joy may be full.

God's Light Disperses Darkness

⁵Now this is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you—that God is light and in Him there is no darkness at all. ⁶If we say we have fellowship with Him and keep walking in the darkness, we are lying and do not practice the truth.^m ⁷But if we walk in the light as He Himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another and the blood of His Son Yeshua purifies us from all sin.

Cleansing Begins with Confessing

⁸If we say we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.ⁿ ¹⁰If we say we have not sinned, we make Him a liar and His word is not in us.

2

Yeshua Atoned for Our Sin

¹My children, I am writing these things to

^m 1:6. cf. Prov. 2:12-13; Isa. 9:2; 50:10.

ⁿ 1:9. Ps. 32:5; 103:3; Prov. 28:13; Jer. 31:31-32, 34.

you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Intercessor with the Father—the righteous Messiah Yeshua. ²He is the atonement for our sins, and not only for our sins but also for the whole world.^o

Loving God Means Obedience

³Now we know that we have come to know Him by this—if we keep His commandments. ⁴The one who says, “I have come to know Him,” and does not keep His commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him. ⁵But whoever keeps His word, in him the love of God is truly made perfect. We know that we are in Him by this—⁶whoever claims to abide in Him must walk just as He walked.

Haters Stumble in Darkness

⁷Loved ones, I am not writing a new commandment for you, but an old commandment—one you had from the beginning. This old commandment is the word you have heard. ⁸Yet I am writing a new commandment for you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is fading and the true light is already shining.

⁹The one who says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in the darkness. ¹⁰The one who loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. ¹¹But whoever hates his brother^p is in the darkness and walks in the darkness. He doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has made his eyes blind.

Fellowship with God Conquers Evil

¹²I am writing to you, children, because your sins have been forgiven on account of His name.

¹³I am writing to you, fathers, because you have known the One who is from the beginning.

^o 2:2. Lev. 16:30; 17:11; Isa. 53:11-12.

^p 2:11. Lev. 19:17.

I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one.

¹⁴I have written to you, children, because you have known the Father.

I have written to you, fathers, because you have known the One who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men,
because you are strong,
the word of God abides in you,
and you have overcome the evil one.

The Fleeting World Opposes Eternal God

¹⁵Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in Him. ¹⁶For everything in the world—the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes,^a and the boasting of life—is not from the Father but from the world. ¹⁷The world is passing away along with its desire, but the one who does the will of God abides forever.

Anointed People Cling to the Anointed One

¹⁸Children, it is the last hour. Just as you heard that the anti-messiah is coming, even now many anti-messiahs have come—by this we know that it is the last hour. ¹⁹They left us, but they didn't really belong to us. If they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But they left us so it became clear that none of them belongs to us.

²⁰But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know. ²¹I have not written you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie is of the truth.

Father and Son Come as One

²²Who is the liar, if not the one who denies that Yeshua is the Messiah? This one is the anti-messiah—the one who denies the Father and the Son. ²³No one who denies the Son has the Father; the one who acknowledges the Son also has the Father.

^a 2:16. cf. Prov. 27:20.

Live in the Anointed One

²⁴As for you, let what you heard from the beginning remain in you. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will continue to live in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵Now this is the promise that He Himself has promised us—eternal life. ²⁶I have written you these things about those who are trying to mislead you. ²⁷As for you, the anointing you received from Him remains in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you. But as His anointing teaches you about all things—and it is true and not a lie—and just as it has taught you, abide in Him. ²⁸And now, children, abide in Him, so that when He appears we will have confidence and not be ashamed in His presence at His coming.

Righteous Children Treasure His Purity

²⁹If you know that He is righteous, you also know that everyone who does what is right is born of Him.

¹See how glorious a love the Father has given us, that we should be called God's children—and so we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know Him. ²Loved ones, now we are God's children; and it has not yet been revealed what we will be. But we do know that when it's revealed, we shall be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is. ³Everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

⁴Everyone practicing sin also practices lawlessness—indeed, sin is lawlessness. ⁵You know that Yeshua appeared in order to take away sins, and in Him there is no sin. ⁶No one who abides in Him sins; no one who sins has seen Him or known Him. ⁷Children, let no one mislead you! The one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as Yeshua is righteous. ⁸The one who practices sin is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. Ben-Elohim appeared for this purpose—to destroy the works of the devil. ⁹No one born of God practices sin, because God's seed remains in him. He cannot sin, because he is born of God.

Loving Children Emulate His Actions

¹⁰It is clear who are the children of God and who are the children of the devil by this—anyone who does not act righteously or love his brother is not of God. ¹¹For this is the message you have heard from the beginning—we should love one another. ¹²Do not be like Cain, who was from the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his deeds were evil, while his brother's were righteous. ^b ¹³Do not be surprised, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you.

¹⁴We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers and sisters. The one who does not love remains in death. ¹⁵Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer—and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. ¹⁶We have come to know love by this—Yeshua laid down His life for us, and we also ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. ¹⁷But if someone has material possessions and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him^c, how does the love of God abide in him? ¹⁸Children, let us not love with word or talk, but in deed and truth!

¹⁹By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and set our heart at rest before Him ²⁰whenever our heart condemns us. For God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. ²¹Loved ones, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; ²²and whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do what is pleasing in His sight. ²³Now this is His commandment—that we should believe in the name of His Son, Yeshua the Messiah, and love one another, just as He commanded us. ²⁴The one who keeps His commandments abides in God, and God in him. We know that He abides in us by this—by the Spirit He has given us.

Yeshua, the Ruach of Truth

¹Loved ones, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see if they are from God. For many false prophets have gone out into the world. ^d ²You know the Ruach Elohim by this—every spirit that acknowledges that Messiah Yeshua has come in human flesh is from God, ³but every spirit that does not acknowledge Yeshua is not from God. This is the spirit of the anti-messiah, which you have heard is coming and now is already in the world. ⁴You are from God, children, and you have overcome them, because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world. ⁵They are from the world, so they speak from the world and the world listens to them. ⁶We are from God; whoever knows God listens to us, but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

God's Life-Giving Spirit of Love

⁷Loved ones, let us love one another, for love is from God. Everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. ⁸The one who does not love does not know God, for God is love. ⁹The love of God was revealed among us by this—that God sent His one and only Son into the world so that we might live through Him. ¹⁰This is love—not that we have loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as an atonement for our sins.

¹¹Loved ones, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. ¹²No one has ever seen God. ^e If we love one another, God abides in us and His love is made perfect in us. ¹³We know that we abide in Him and He in us by this—because He has given us of His Spirit. ¹⁴We have seen and testify that the Father has sent His Son as Savior of the world. ¹⁵If anyone acknowledges that Yeshua is Ben-Elohim, God abides in him and he abides in God. ¹⁶So we have come to know and trust in the love that God has for us. God is love. Now whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

God's Fulfilling Love

¹⁷In this way, love is made perfect among us, so that we should have boldness on the Day of Judgment. For just as He is, so also are we in this world. ¹⁸There is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and the one who fears has not been made perfect in love. ¹⁹We love, because He first loved us.

Love God—Love God's Family

²⁰If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. ²¹And this commandment we have from Him: that the one who loves God should also love his brother.^a

5

¹Everyone who believes that Yeshua is the Messiah is born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves the one born of Him.

Love God—Live God's Word

²We know that we love God's children by this—when we love God and obey His commandments. ³For this is the love of God—that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome. ⁴For everyone born of God overcomes the world. And the victory that has overcome the world is this—our faith. ⁵Who is it that overcomes the world, if not the one who believes that Yeshua is Ben-Elohim?

^a 4:21. Lev. 19:18.

Believe God's Own Testimony of Yeshua

⁶*Messiah Yeshua* is the One who came by water and blood—not by water only, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the One who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷For there are three that testify—⁸the Spirit, the water, and the blood—and these three are one.^b ⁹If we accept men's testimony, God's testimony is greater—for this it is the testimony that God has given about His Son. ¹⁰The one who trusts in Ben-Elohim has the testimony in himself; the one who does not trust in God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given about His Son. ¹¹And the testimony is this—that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. ¹²The one who has the Son has life; the one who does not have Ben-Elohim does not have life.

Walk Now in Eternal Privileges

¹³I wrote these things to you who believe in the name of Ben-Elohim, so you may know that you have eternal life. ¹⁴Now this is the confidence we have before Him—that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. ¹⁵And if we know that He hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have the requests we have asked from Him. ¹⁶If anyone sees his brother committing a sin not leading to death, he should ask, and God will give life to those who commit sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death—I am not saying you should ask about that.^c ¹⁷All unrighteousness is sin, but there is sin not leading to death.

¹⁸We know that anyone born of God does not keep on sinning; rather, the One born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot touch him. ¹⁹We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. ²⁰And we know that Ben-Elohim has come and given us insight, so that we may know Him who is true—and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Yeshua the Messiah. This One is the true God and eternal life.

²¹Children, guard yourselves from idols.^d

God's Truth and Blessings Abide Forever

¹The elder.

To the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth—and not I alone, but also all who have come to know the truth—²because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever:

³Grace, mercy, and shalom be with us, from God the Father and from Messiah Yeshua, the Father's Son, in truth and love!

Lovingly Walk in God's Truth

⁴I was overjoyed to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we received as a commandment from the Father. ⁵Now I ask you, dear lady, that we love one another. It is not as though I am writing you a new command, but the one we have had from the beginning.^e ⁶Now this is love: that we walk according to His commands. This is the commandment—just as you heard from the beginning—that you walk in love.

^e 5. Lev. 19:18; 19:34.

Protect Against Messianic Pretenders

⁷For many deceivers have gone out into the world—those who do not acknowledge Yeshua as Messiah coming in human flesh. This one is a deceiver and the anti-messiah. ⁸Watch yourselves, so you do not lose what we have worked for but receive a full reward. ⁹Anyone who goes too far and does not remain in Messiah's teaching does not have God. Anyone who remains in this teaching has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not welcome him into your home or even give him a greeting. ¹¹For the one greeting him shares in his evil deeds.

Brotherly Fellowship Is Joyful

¹²Although I have much to write to you, I don't want to do it with paper and ink. But I hope to come to you and speak face to face, so that our joy may be full.

¹³The children of your chosen sister send you greetings.^f

^f 13. Some mss. add: Amen.

The Joys of Walking Out the Truth

¹The elder.

To Gaius the loved one, whom I love in truth:

²Loved ones, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, just as it is well with your soul. ³For I was overjoyed when some brethren came and testified of the truth in you—how you are walking in truth.

⁴I have no greater joy than this—to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

Support Faithful Kingdom Truth Tellers

⁵Loved ones, you are acting faithfully in whatever you do for the brethren and especially for strangers. ⁶They have testified to your love before Messiah's community. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God. ⁷For on behalf of the Name they went out, accepting nothing from the pagans. ⁸Therefore we ought to support such people, so we might become co-workers in the truth.

The Lust for Power Condemned

⁹I wrote something to Messiah's

^a 5. Lev. 19:34; 25:35.

community, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't welcome us. ¹⁰So if I do come, I will call attention to what he is doing—slandering us with wicked words. Not even content with that, he refuses to welcome the brethren, and even forbids those who want to do so—throwing them out of the community!

Do Good Like God Does

¹¹Loved ones, do not imitate what is evil but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God.

Virtue Is Honorable

¹²Demetrius has a good testimony from everyone, even from the truth itself. We also vouch for him—and you know that our testimony is true.

Fellowship Is Desirable

¹³I have much to write you, but I don't want to write to you with ink and pen. ¹⁴But I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face.

¹⁵*Shalom aleichem*. The friends here send their greetings. Greet the friends there by name.

Judah (Jude)

Greeting

¹Judah, a slave of Yeshua the Messiah and brother of Jacob,

To those who are called, who are loved in God the Father, and kept safe for Yeshua the Messiah:

²May mercy and shalom and love be multiplied to you!

Contend for the Faith with the Ungodly

³Loved ones, though very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I felt it necessary to write to you urging you to continue to contend for the faith that was once for all handed down to the kedoshim. ⁴For certain people have secretly slipped in—those who from long ago have been marked out for this judgment. They are ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into indecency and deny our only Master and Lord, Yeshua the Messiah.

⁵Now I wish to remind you—though you have come to know all things—that the Lord,^b once having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. ⁶And the angels—who did not keep their own position of authority but deserted their proper place—He has kept in everlasting shackles under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great Day.^c ⁷In the same way as these angels, Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them—having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after a different sort of flesh—are displayed as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.^d glorious beings. ⁹But when Michael the archangel, disputing with the devil, was arguing about the body of Moses, he did not dare to render a judgment against him for slander, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!"^f ¹⁰But these people slander whatever they do not understand. And whatever they do understand instinctively—like animals without reason—by these things they are destroyed.

⁸Yet in the same way these people also, by their visionary dreaming, defile the flesh, reject the Lord's authority,^e and defame

¹¹Woe to them! For they went the way of Cain; they were consumed for pay in Balaam's error; and in Korah's rebellion they have been destroyed.^g ¹²These people are hidden rocky reefs at your love feasts—shamelessly feasting with you, tending only to themselves.^h They are waterless clouds, carried along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, doubly dead, uprooted; ¹³wild waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame;ⁱ wandering stars, for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved forever.^j

¹⁴It was also about these people that Enoch, the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord came with myriads of His kedoshim,^k ¹⁵to execute judgment against all. He will convict all the ungodly for all their ungodly deeds that they have done in an ungodly way, and for all of the harsh things ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."

¹⁶These are bellyaching grumblers, following after their own desires. Their mouth speaks grandiose things, showing favoritism for the sake of gain. ¹⁷But you, loved ones, ought to remember the words previously proclaimed by the emissaries of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah^l—¹⁸how they kept telling you, "In the last time there will be scoffers, following after their own ungodly desires."^m

²⁰But you, loved ones, continue building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ²¹Keep yourselves in the love of God, eagerly waiting for the mercy of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah that leads to eternal life. ²²And have mercy on those who are wavering—²³save them by snatching them out of the fire;^a but on others have mercy with fear—hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

Hymn to God Our Savior

²⁴Now to the One who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you blameless before the presence of His glory with great joy, ²⁵to the only God our Savior, through Yeshua the Messiah our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all time,^b both now and forever.
 Amen.

The Revelation

1

Yeshua's Revelation to John

¹The revelation of Yeshua the Messiah, which God gave Him to show to His servants the things that must soon take place. He made it known by sending His angel to His servant John, ²who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Yeshua the Messiah—to everything he saw. ³How fortunate is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and those who hear and keep what has been written in it—for the time is near.

⁴John,

To Messiah's seven communities in Asia:^c

Grace to you and shalom from Him who is and who was and who is to come, as well as from the seven spirits who are before His throne, ⁵and from Messiah Yeshua, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by His blood ⁶and made us a kingdom, kohanim to His God and Father—to Him be glory and power forever! Amen!

⁷“Look, He is coming with the clouds,^d and every eye shall see Him, even those who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth shall mourn because of Him.^e Yes, amen!”

⁸“I am the Alpha and the Omega,”^f says ADONAI Elohim, “Who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty!”

⁹I, John, your brother and fellow partaker with you in the tribulation and kingdom and patient endurance that are in Yeshua, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Yeshua. ¹⁰I was in the Ruach on the Day of the Lord,^g and I heard behind me a loud voice like that of a trumpet, ¹¹saying, “Write what you see in a scroll,^h and send it to Messiah's seven communities—to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea.”

Vision of the Glorious Son of Man

¹²Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I turned, I saw seven golden menorot.ⁱ ¹³In the midst of the menorot, I saw One like a Son of Man, clothed in a robe down to His feet, with a golden belt wrapped around His chest.^j ¹⁴His head and His hair were white like wool, white like snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire.^k ¹⁵His feet were like polished bronze refined in a furnace,^l and His voice was like the roar of rushing waters.^m ¹⁶In His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth came forth a sharp, two-edged sword.ⁿ His face was like the sun shining at full strength.^o

¹⁷When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man.^p But He placed His right hand on me, saying, “Do not be afraid! I am the First and the Last,^q ¹⁸and the One who lives. I was dead, but look—I am alive forever and ever! Moreover, I hold the keys of death and Sheol.^r ¹⁹Therefore write down what you have seen, what is, and what will happen after these things. ²⁰As for the mystery of the seven stars that you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden menorot—the seven stars are the angels of

Ephesus: Return to Your First Love

¹To the angel of Messiah's community in Ephesus write: "Thus says the One who holds the seven stars in His right hand, the One who walks in the midst of the seven golden menorot: ²I know all about your deeds and your toil and your patient endurance, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. You have tested those who call themselves emissaries and are not, and have found them to be liars. ³You have perseverance and have endured for My name's sake, and you have not grown weary.

⁴"But this I have against you, that you have forsaken your first love. ⁵Remember then from where you have fallen. Repent and do the deeds you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your menorah from its place—unless you repent.

⁶"Yet you have this going for you, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. ⁷He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities. To the one who overcomes, I will grant the right to eat from the Tree of Life, which is in the Paradise of God."^b

Smyrna: Do Not Fear Satan's Testing

⁸To the angel of Messiah's community in Smyrna write: "Thus says the First and Last, who was dead and came to life. ⁹I know your tribulation and your poverty (yet you are rich), as well as the slander of those who say they are Jewish and are not, but are a synagogue of satan. ¹⁰Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, so that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life."^c "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities. The one who overcomes shall never be harmed by the second death."

Pergamum: Beware the Trap of Balaam

¹²To the angel of Messiah's community in Pergamum write: "Thus says the One who has the sharp two-edged sword:^d ¹³I know where you live—where satan's throne is. Yet you continue to hold firm to My name, and you did not deny your faith in Me even in the days of Antipas, My faithful witness, who was killed among you, where satan resides.

¹⁴"But I have a few things against you. You have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who was teaching Balak to put a stumbling block before Bnei-Yisrael, to eat food sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.^e ¹⁵Likewise you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. ¹⁶Repent then! If not, I will come to you soon and make war against them with the sword of My mouth. ¹⁷He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities. Thyatira: Do Not Tolerate Jezebel

Sardis: Coming Like a Thief

¹To the angel of Messiah’s community in Sardis write: “Thus says the One having the seven spirits of God and the seven stars: I know your deeds—you have a reputation for being alive, but you are dead. ²Wake up, and strengthen what remains that was about to die. For I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of My God. ³So remember what you have received and heard—keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come upon you.

⁴“But still, you have a few people in Sardis who have not stained their clothes. They will walk with Me in white, because they are worthy. ⁵The one who overcomes thus will be dressed in white clothes; I will never blot his name out of the Book of Life,^k and will confess his name before My Father and His angels. ⁶He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah’s communities.

Philadelphia: I Have Loved You

⁷To the angel of Messiah’s community in Philadelphia write: “Thus says the Holy One, the True One, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens:^l ⁸I know your deeds. Behold, I have set before you an open door that no one is able to shut—because you have little power, but you have kept My word and have not denied My name. ⁹Behold, I will cause those of the synagogue of satan—who say they are Jewish and are not, but lie—behold, I will cause them to come and bow down before your feet,^m so that they acknowledge that I have loved you!

¹⁰“Because you have kept My word about patient endurance, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is coming upon the whole world to test those who dwell on the earth. ¹¹I am coming soon—hold on to what you have, so that no one will take away your crown. ¹²The one who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the Temple of My God,ⁿ and he will never leave it. The Heavenly Throne of ADONAI

¹After these things I looked, and behold, a door was standing open in heaven.^c And the first voice, which I had heard speaking with me like a trumpet, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things."

²Immediately I was in the Ruach;^d and behold, a throne was standing in heaven, and One seated on the throne.^e ³And the One who was seated was like jasper and carnelian in appearance, and a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald in appearance.^f ⁴Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones were twenty-four elders dressed in white clothes with golden crowns on their heads. ⁵And out from the throne come flashes of lightning and rumblings and clashes of thunder^g—and seven torches of fire burning before the throne,^h which are the seven spirits of God. ⁶And before the throne was something like a sea of glass, like crystal.

In the middle of the throne and around it were four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind.ⁱ

⁷The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature was like an ox, the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.^j

⁸The four living creatures, each having six wings, were full of eyes all around and within.^k They do not rest day or night, chanting,

"Kadosh, kadosh, kadosh
ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot,^l

Holy, holy, holy is the LORD God of Hosts, who was and who is
and who is to come!"

⁹And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to the One seated on the throne, who lives forever and ever,^m ¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before the One seated on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever. And they throw their crowns down before the throne, chanting, to receive glory and honor and power, and because of Your will they existed and were created!"

A Scroll with Seven Seals

¹And I saw in the right hand of the One seated upon the throne a scroll, written on both the front and the back, sealed with seven seals.ⁿ ²I also saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?”^o ³No one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it. ⁴I began to weep loudly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

⁵Then one of the elders tells me, “Stop weeping! Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah,^o the Root of David,^p has triumphed—He is worthy to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

Worshipping the Lamb

⁶And in the midst of the throne and the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, I saw a Lamb standing, as having been slain—having seven horns and seven eyes,^q which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.⁷ He came and took the scroll from the right hand of the One seated on the throne. ⁸When He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense—which are the prayers of the kedoshim.

⁹And they are singing a new song,^r saying,

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals.
For You were slain, and by Your blood
You redeemed for God those from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.^s

¹⁰You have made them for our God a kingdom and kohanim, and they shall reign upon the earth.”

¹¹Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders—their number was myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands.^t ¹²They were chanting with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”

¹³And I heard every creature in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea and everything in them, responding,

“To the One seated on the throne and to the Lamb
be blessing and honor and glory and power forever and ever!”

¹⁴And the four living creatures kept saying, “Amen!” And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse

¹Then I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, “Come!”^u ²I looked, and behold, there was a white horse.^v The one riding on it had a bow, and a crown was given to him. He went out as a conqueror so he might conquer.

³When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!” ⁴Then another horse came out, fiery red. The one riding on it was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people would slaughter one another. He was given a great sword.

^u 6:1, 3, 5, 7. Some mss. add and see.

^v 6:2-3. cf. Zech. 1:8; 6:2-3.

⁵When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come!” And behold, I saw a black horse.^a The one riding on it held a balance scale in his hand.⁶ Then I heard something like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart^b of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius—but do no harm to the oil and wine!”^c

⁷When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, “Come!”⁸ Behold, I saw a horse, pale greenish gray. The name of the one riding on it was Death, and Sheol was following with him. Authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill by sword and by famine and by plague and by the wild beasts of the earth.^d

⁹When the Lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those slaughtered^e for the sake of the word of God and for the witness they had.¹⁰ And they cried out with a loud voice, saying, “O Sovereign Master, holy and true, how long before You judge those who dwell on the earth and avenge our blood?”

¹¹Then a white robe was given to each of them, and they were told to rest a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants was complete—their brothers and sisters who were to be killed as they had been.

¹²I saw when the Lamb opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became as black as sackcloth made of goat’s hair, and the full moon became like blood.¹³ The stars of heaven fell to the earth like a fig tree drops unripe figs when shaken by a great wind.¹⁴ The heaven ripped apart like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved from their places.

¹⁵Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the military commanders and the rich and the mighty and everyone—slave and free—hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains.^f ¹⁶And they tell the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us, and hide us^g from the face of the One seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb.^h ¹⁷For the great day of their wrath has come,ⁱ and who is able to stand?”^j

144,000 Marked with a Seal

¹After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earthⁱ so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or against any tree.² Then I saw another angel coming up from the east,^j having the seal of the living God. He cried out with a loud voice to the four angels who were permitted to harm the earth and the sea, ³saying, “Do no harm to the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.”^k

⁴Now I heard the number of those marked with the seal:

144,000 from every tribe of Bnei-Yisrael—

⁵12,000 from the tribe of Judah;

12,000 from the tribe of Reuben;

12,000 from the tribe of Gad;

⁶12,000 from the tribe of Asher;

12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali;

12,000 from the tribe of Manasseh;

⁷12,000 from the tribe of Simeon;

12,000 from the tribe of Levi;

12,000 from the tribe of Issachar;

⁸12,000 from the tribe of Zebulun;

12,000 from the tribe of Joseph;

12,000 from the tribe of Benjamin.

Countless Worshipers Before the Throne

every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues—was standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white robes, with palm branches¹ in their hands¹⁰ and crying out with a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne,

and to the Lamb!”

¹¹And all the angels were standing around the throne, along with the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying,

“Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen!”

¹³Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, “Who are these dressed in white robes, and where have they come from?”

I said to him, “Sir, you know.”

¹⁴Then he said to me, “These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation.^m They have washed their robes and made them whiteⁿ in the blood of the Lamb. ¹⁵For this reason, they are before the throne of God, and they serve Him day and night in His Temple. The One seated on the throne will shelter them.^o ¹⁶They shall never again go hungry, nor thirst anymore; the sun shall not beat down on them, nor any scorching heat.^p ¹⁷For the Lamb in the midst of the throne shall shepherd them and guide them to springs of living water, and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.”^q

The Seventh Seal and Seven Trumpets

¹Now when the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. ²Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets^r were given to them. ³Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden incense burner. ⁵He was given much incense to offer up along with the prayers of all the kedoshim upon the golden altar before the throne. ⁴And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the kedoshim,^t rose before God from the angel’s hand. ⁵Then the angel took the incense burner and filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth; and there were clashes of thunder and rumblings and flashes of lightning and earthquakes.^u

⁶Then the seven angels holding the seven trumpets prepared to sound them. ⁷The first trumpeted,^v and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and they were thrown upon the earth.^w A third of the earth burned up, a third of the trees burned up, and all the green grass burned up.

⁸The second angel trumpeted, and something like a huge mountain^x ablaze with fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned into blood, ⁹a third of the creatures living in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰The third angel trumpeted, and a great star fell from the heavens, burning like a torch. It fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. ¹¹Now the name of the star is Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from the waters that were made bitter.^y

¹²The fourth angel trumpeted, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them were darkened.^z A third of the day would not shine, as well as a third of the night.

¹³Then I looked, and I heard an eagle crying out with a loud voice as it flew high in the sky, saying, “Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpets the three angels are about to sound!"

¹Then the fifth angel trumpeted, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to earth. The key to the bottomless pit was given to him. ²He opened the pit, and smoke rose from the pit like the smoke of a gigantic furnace. ³The sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit.

³Then from the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and power was given to them like the scorpions have power over the earth. ^b⁴They were told to do no harm to the grass of the earth or any green plant or any tree, but only the people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. ^c⁵And they were permitted not to kill them, but to torment them for five months—and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings a person. ⁶In those days, people will seek death but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will flee from them. ^d

⁷Now the appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. ^eOn their heads were something like crowns of gold, and their faces were like human faces. ⁸They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions. ^f⁹They had chests like iron breastplates; and the noise of their wings was like the noise of many horse-drawn chariots rushing into battle. ^g¹⁰They have tails like scorpions with stingers; and in their tails is their power to harm people for five months. ¹¹They have as king over them the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon. ^h

¹²The first woe is past. Behold, two woes are still coming after these things:

^h 9:11. Both names mean Destroyer; cf. Job 26:6; 28:22; 31:12; Prov. 15:11.

¹³The sixth angel trumpeted, and I heard a single voice from the four horns of the golden altar^j before God. ¹⁴It said to the sixth angel, the one holding the trumpet, ^j"Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

¹⁵So the four angels—who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year—were released to kill a third of mankind.

¹⁶The number of mounted troops was two hundred million^k—I heard their number.

¹⁷Now here is how I saw the horses and those riding on them: they had breastplates that were fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow. The heads of the horses were as heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire and smoke and brimstone. ^l

¹⁸By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone that came out of their mouths. ¹⁹For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents, having heads by which they inflict injuries.

²⁰But the rest of mankind, those not killed by these plagues, did not repent and turn away from the works of their hands—they would not stop worshiping demons and the idols of gold and silver and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk. ^m²¹And they did not repent and turn away from their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their stealing.

The Angel with a Little Scroll

¹Then I saw another powerful angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud with a rainbow over his head. His face was like the sun and his feet like pillars of fire. ²He had in his hand a little scroll that was open. He set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, ³and he cried out with a loud voice, ⁱ 9:13. cf. Ex 30:2-3.

just as a lion roars. When he cried out, the seven thunders spoke.ⁿ

⁴And when the seven thunders had spoken, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Seal up what the seven thunders have said. Do not write it down!”^o

⁵Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand toward heaven ⁶and swore^p by the One who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, the sea and what is in it, that there would be no more delay.

⁷But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel—when he is about to trumpet—the mystery of God is completed, just as He declared to His servants the prophets.^q ⁸Then the voice that I heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, “Go, take the scroll that is open in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land.”

⁹So I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little scroll. And he tells me, “Take and eat it. It will be bitter to your stomach, but sweet as honey in your mouth.”^r

¹⁰So I took the little scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. It was sweet as honey in my mouth; but when I had swallowed it, my stomach was made bitter.^s ¹¹And they tell me, “You must prophesy again about many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.”

11

Two Witnesses

¹Then a measuring rod like a staff was given to me, saying, “Get up and measure the Temple of God and the altar, and count those worshiping in it.^t ²But do not measure the court outside the Temple—leave it out, because it has been given to the nations, and they shall trample the holy city for forty-two months.^u ³And I will grant authority to My two witnesses and they will prophesy for 1,260 days,^v dressed in sackcloth.”

⁴These are the two olive trees and the two menorot that are standing before the Lord of the earth.^v ⁵If anyone wishes to harm them, fire comes out of their mouths and consumes their enemies. If anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way.^w ⁶These two have the power to shut the heavens, so that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying.^x And they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they wish.^y

⁷When they have finished their testimony, the beast that rises from the abyss will make war on them, and overcome them and kill them.^z ⁸And their corpses will lie in the open street^{aa} of the great city that figuratively is called Sodom and Egypt—where also their^{ab} Lord was crucified. ⁹Some from the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will look at their corpses for three and a half days, not allowing them to be placed into a grave.^{ac} ¹⁰Those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them. They will celebrate and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

¹¹But after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet;^{ad} and great fear fell on those who were watching them. ¹²Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here!” And they went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched them.^{ae}

¹³At that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city collapsed.^{af} Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

The Seventh Trumpet

¹⁵Then the seventh angel trumpeted, and there were loud voices in heaven saying,

“The kingdom of this world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Anointed One. And He shall reign forever and ever!”^a

¹⁶And the twenty-four elders seated on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷saying,

“We thank you, ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot,^b who is and who was, because You have taken Your great power and begun to reign.

¹⁸The nations were enraged, but Your wrath has come^c and the time for the dead to be judged—to reward Your servants, the prophets and kedoshim, and those who fear Your name, the small and the great, and to destroy the destroyers of the earth.”^d

¹⁹Then the Temple of God in heaven was opened, and the Ark of His Covenant appeared in His Temple. And there were flashes of lightning and rumblings and clashes of thunder and an earthquake and heavy hail.^e

Mother, Child, Dragon, and War

her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.^f ²She is pregnant—crying out in birth pains, in agony to give birth.^g

³Then another sign appeared in heaven: a great fiery red dragon that had seven heads and ten horns, and seven royal crowns on his heads.^h ⁴His tail sweeps away a third of the stars of heaven—it hurled them to the earth.ⁱ Now the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that whenever she gave birth he might devour her child.

⁵And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with an iron rod.^j And her child was snatched away to God and to His throne. ⁶Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God so they might take care of her for 1,260 days.

⁷And war broke out in heaven, Michael and his angels making war against the dragon.^k The dragon and his angels fought,^l but they were not strong enough, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. ⁹And the great dragon was thrown down—the ancient serpent, called the devil and satan, who deceives the whole world.^m He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.ⁿ ¹⁰Then I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Anointed One, for the accuser of our brothers and sisters—the one who accuses them before our God day and night^o—has been thrown out. ¹¹They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives even in the face of death.

¹²Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great rage, knowing that his time is short.

¹³Now when the dragon saw that he had been thrown to the earth, he stalked the woman who had given birth to the male child. ¹⁴But the woman was given two wings of the great eagle,^o so that she might fly away from the presence of the serpent into the wilderness, to the place where she is taken care of—for a time, times, and half a time.^p

¹⁵And from out of his mouth, the serpent spewed water like a river after the woman, in order to sweep her away with a flood. ¹⁶But the earth came to the aid of the woman. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had spewed from his mouth. ¹⁷So the dragon became enraged at the woman and went off to make war with the rest of her offspring—those who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Yeshua. ¹⁸And he stood on the shore of the sea.

Two Beasts

¹Then I saw a beast rising out of the sea,^q that had ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten royal crowns, and upon his heads were slanderous names. ²Now the beast that I saw was like a leopard, his feet like a lion's, and his mouth like a bear's. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority. ³One of his heads seemed to have been slain, but the fatal wound was healed. The whole earth was amazed and followed the beast. ⁴And they worshiped the dragon, because he had given authority to the beast. They also worshiped the beast, chanting, "Who is like the beast, and who can make war against him?"^r

⁵The beast was given a mouth uttering great boasts and blasphemies. It was given authority to act for forty-two months. ⁶Then he opened his mouth with blasphemies against God, to slander His name and His tabernacle—that is, those dwelling in heaven. ⁷He was also permitted to make war against the kedoshim and overcome them, and he was given authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. ⁸All who dwell on the earth shall worship him—everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slain.

⁹If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

¹⁰If anyone is meant for captivity, to captivity he goes.

If anyone is to be killed by the sword, by the sword he must be killed.^s

Here is the perseverance and faith of the kedoshim.

¹¹Then I saw another beast rising out of the earth. He had two horns^t like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. ¹²He exercises all the authority of the first beast before him, and he makes the earth and all those who dwell in it worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. ¹³He performs great signs, even making fire come down from heaven in the sight of men.^u ¹⁴And he deceives those who dwell on the earth through the signs he is permitted to perform, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image in honor of the beast who has the sword wound yet lived. ¹⁵The second beast was permitted to give life to the image of the first beast, so that the image of the beast could even speak and cause all who would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶He also causes all—the small and the great, the rich and the poor, the free and the slave—to receive a mark on their right hand or upon their forehead. ¹⁷And so no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark—either the name of the beast or the number of his name.

¹⁸Here is wisdom: let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is a number of a man, and his number is 666.^a

A Song for the 144,000

¹Then I looked, and behold, the Lamb was standing on Mount Zion,^b and with Him were 144,000 who had His name and His Father's name written on their foreheads. ²And I heard a voice from heaven like the roar of rushing waters and the booming of loud thunder.^c The voice I heard was like harpists playing on their harps. ³And they are singing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one is able to learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth.

⁴These are the ones who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins.

These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes.

These have been redeemed from among mankind as firstfruits for God and the Lamb.

⁵And in their mouth was found no lie—they are blameless.^d

Three Angels with Messages

⁶And then I saw another angel flying high in the sky, having a timeless message of good news to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation and tribe and tongue and people. ⁷He said in a loud voice, “Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come. Worship the One who made heaven and earth and sea and springs of water.”

⁸Another angel, a second one, followed, saying,

“Fallen, fallen, is Babylon the great^e—she who made all nations drink of the wine of the fury of her immorality.”

⁹And another angel, a third one, followed them, saying in a loud voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰he shall also drink the wine of God's fury, poured full strength into the cup of His wrath.^f And he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone^g before the holy angels and before the Lamb. ¹¹The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever.^h Those who worship the beast and its image and those who receive the mark of his name have no rest day or night.”

¹²Here is the perseverance of the kedoshim—those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Yeshua.

¹³Then I heard a voice from heaven saying,ⁱ

“Write: How fortunate are the dead—those who die in the Lord from now on!”

“Yes,” says the Ruach, “that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them.”

Time to Harvest the Earth

¹⁴Then I looked, and behold, there was a white cloud—and seated on the cloud was one like a son of man.^j He had a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand. ¹⁵Then another angel came out of the Temple, crying out with a loud voice to the One seated on the cloud,

“Put in your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is fully ripe.”

¹⁶So the One seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.^k

¹⁷Then another angel came out of the Temple in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸Then another angel—the one who has authority over fire—came out from the altar; and he called out with a loud voice to the one holding the sharp sickle, saying, “Put in your sickle and gather the grape clusters from the vineyard of the earth, because her grapes are ripe.”¹⁹ So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and gathered the clusters from the vineyard of the earth and threw them into the great winepress of the wrath of God.²⁰ And the winepress was stomped on outside the city, and blood flowed from the winepress as high as a horse’s bridle for 1,600 stadia.¹

Song of Moses to the Lamb

¹Then I saw another great and wonderful sign in heaven: seven angels who have seven plagues—the last ones, for with them God’s wrath is finished.² And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had overcome the beast and his image^m and the number of his name standing by the sea of glass, holding the harps of God.³ And they are singing the song of Mosesⁿ the servant of God and the song of the Lamb, saying,

“Great and wonderful are Your deeds,
ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot!^o
 Just and true are Your ways,
 O King of the nations!^p ⁴Who shall not fear and glorify Your name, O Lord?
 For You alone are Holy.
 All the nations shall come and worship before You,^q for Your righteous acts have been revealed!”

⁵After these things I looked, and the Temple of the Tent of Witness in heaven was opened.⁶ Out of the Temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, dressed in pure bright linen and wearing wide gold sashes around their chests.

⁷Then one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.⁸ And the Temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power.^r No one was able to enter the Temple until the seven angels’ seven plagues were finished.

16

Seven Bowls of God’s Wrath

¹Then I heard a loud voice from the Temple saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of God’s wrath.”^s ²So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and foul and painful boils^t came upon the people having the mark of the beast and worshiping his image.³ Next the second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood like that of a corpse; and every living thing in the sea died.^u ⁴Then the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood.^v ⁵Then I heard the angel of the waters saying, “Righteous are You—the Holy One, who is and who was—because You have passed these judgments.

⁶For they have poured out the blood of kedoshim and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink^w—they are deserving!”

⁷Then I heard the altar saying, “Yes, ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot, true and righteous are Your judgments!”^x

⁸The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was permitted to scorch people with fire. ⁹People were scorched with fierce heat, and they cursed the name of God—the One who has power over these plagues. But they did not repent, to give Him glory.

¹⁰Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness. ^a People gnawed their tongues in pain ¹¹and cursed the God of heaven because of their pains and their boils. But they did not repent of their deeds. ^b

¹²The sixth angel poured out his bowl over the great river Euphrates; and its water was dried up, to prepare the way for the kings from the east. ¹³Then I saw—coming from the dragon’s mouth and from the beast’s mouth and from the false prophet’s mouth—three unclean spirits like frogs. ^c ¹⁴For they are demonic spirits performing miraculous signs, who go out to the kings of the whole world—to gather them for battle on the great Day of Elohei Tzva’ot. ^d

¹⁵“Behold, I am coming like a thief! How fortunate is the one who stays alert and keeps his clothes on, lest he walk around naked and they see his shamefulness.”

¹⁶Then the spirits gathered the kings to the place called in Hebrew Har-Megiddo. ^e

¹⁷The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came out of the Temple ^f from the throne, saying, “It is done!” ^g ¹⁸And there were flashes of lightning and rumblings and clashes of thunder and a great earthquake—such as never happened since mankind has been on the earth, so mighty was the quake. ^h ¹⁹Then the great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. Babylon the great was remembered before God, to force her to drink the cup of the wine of His furious wrath. ⁱ ²⁰Every island fled away, and no mountains were to be found.

²¹Enormous hail—about a hundred pounds

eachⁱ—falls from heaven on the people. And the people cursed God because of the plague of hail—so extreme was that plague. ^k

17

The Vile Prostitute and the Beast

¹Then one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, “Come, I will show you the sentencing of the great prostitute, ^l who sits on many waters. ²The earth’s kings committed sexual immorality with her, and those who dwell on the earth got drunk with the wine of her immorality.”

³So he carried me away in the Ruach into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns. ^m ⁴The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls. ⁿ She was holding a golden cup ^o in her hand full of detestable things and the filth of her immorality, ⁵and on her forehead was written a name, a mystery:

“Babylon the Great, the mother of prostitutes and the detestable things of the earth.”

⁶And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the kedoshim and with the blood of the witnesses of Yeshua. When I saw her, I was totally astounded.

⁷But the angel said to me, “Why are you astonished? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

⁸The beast that you saw was, and is not, and yet is about to rise up from the abyss and head for destruction. Those who dwell on the earth—whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world—will be astonished when they see the beast, because he was and is not and is to come.

⁹“This calls for a mind having wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated. They are also seven kings—¹⁰five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while. ¹¹The beast that was and is not—he himself is the eighth, and is one of the seven, and is heading for destruction. ¹²The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received royal power, but receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour. ¹³These kings are of one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴They will make war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them—because He is Lord of lords and King of kings,^p and those with Him are called and chosen and faithful.”

¹⁵Then he tells me, “The waters that you saw, where the prostitute is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. ¹⁶The ten horns that you saw, and the beast—these will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked,^q and devour her flesh and burn her up with fire. ¹⁷For God has put it into their hearts to do His will, and to be of one mind, and to give their royal power to the beast until the words of God are fulfilled. ¹⁸And the woman that you saw is the great city exercising kingship over the kings of the earth.”

Judgment of Babylon

¹After these things, I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his glory. ²He cried out with a mighty voice, saying:

a haunt for every unclean spirit and the merchants of the earth saying,

“Come out of her, my people,^t lest you participate in her sins and receive her plagues!
⁵For her sins have piled up to heaven,^u and God has remembered her crimes.
⁶Pay her back just as she has paid out, and give her back double for her deeds!^v

In the cup she has mixed—mix a double dose for her!

dulged herself in luxury,
so give her the same measure of torment and grief!

For in her heart she says,

‘I sit as a queen—

I am no widow;

I shall never see grief.^w” a single day—

death and grief and famine—and she shall be burned down with fire.^x

who judges her!”

⁹Then the kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and indulged in luxury with her shall weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning^y—¹⁰standing far off because of the terror of her torment, saying:

¹⁴The fruit of your soul’s desire has gone from you, and all the expensive and beautiful things are lost to you —never again will people find them.

¹⁵The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, shall stand far off for fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, ¹⁶saying,

“Alas, alas, O great city—clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls!

¹⁷For in a single hour so much wealth has been ruined!”

And every ship captain and passenger, sailors and all who make their living at sea, stood at a distance ¹⁸and were crying out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, “What city is like the great city?” ¹⁹And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning,

“Alas, alas, O great city—in her all who had ships at sea grew rich from her wealth!
For in a single hour has she been ruined!

^a 18:11. cf. Ezek. 27:27-31.

²⁰Rejoice over her, O heaven,^b and you kedoshim, emissaries and prophets!
For God has judged her condemnation of you!”

²¹Then a mighty angel picked up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea,^c saying:

“So shall Babylon, the great city, be thrown down with violence,
never to be found again!

²²And the sound of harpists and musicians, flautists and trumpeters, shall never be heard in you again!^d

And the craftsman of any craft shall never be found in you again!

And the sound of a mill shall never be heard in you again!

²³And the light of a lamp shall never shine in you again!

And the voice of the bridegroom and bride shall never be heard in you again!^e

For your businessmen were the tycoons of the world, for all the nations were deceived by your sorcery!^f

²⁴And in her was found the blood of the prophets and kedoshim and all those slaughtered on the earth.”

 caused by her hand.”ⁱ

³And a second time they shouted, “Hallelujah!
 The smoke from her goes up forever and ever!”^j

Then the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who is seated on the throne, saying, “Amen!
 Hallelujah!”^k

⁵Then a voice came from the throne, saying:

“Praise our God, all you His servants and all who fear Him,
 both the small and the great!”^l

Wedding of the Lamb

⁶Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude—like the roar of rushing waters^m or like the rumbling of powerful thunder—saying,

“Hallelujah!
 For ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot reigns!
⁷Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him!
 For the wedding of the Lamb has come,
 and His bride has made herself ready,ⁿ ⁸She was given fine linen to wear, bright and clean!
 For the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the kedoshim.”

⁹Then the angel tells me, “Write: How fortunate are those who have been invited to the wedding banquet of the Lamb!” He also tells me, “These are the true words of God.”

 him. But he said to me, “See that you do not do that—for I am only a fellow servant with you and your brothers and sisters who hold to the testimony of Yeshua. Worship God! For the testimony of Yeshua is the Spirit of Prophecy.”

Final Battle of this Age

¹¹Then I saw heaven opened,^o and behold, a white horse! The One riding on it is called Faithful and True, and He judges and makes war in righteousness. ¹²His eyes are like a flame of fire, and many royal crowns are on His head. He has a name written that no one knows except Himself. ¹³He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood,^p and the name by which He is called is “the Word of God.”

¹⁴And the armies of heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, were following Him on white horses. ¹⁵From His mouth comes a sharp sword—so that with it He may strike down the nations—and He shall rule them with an iron rod, and He treads the winepress of the furious wrath of Elohei-Tzva’ot.^q ¹⁶On His robe and on His thigh He has a name written, “King of kings, and Lord of lords.”^r

¹⁷Then I saw a single angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he cried out to all the birds flying high in the sky, “Come, gather for the great banquet of God— ¹⁸to eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of generals and the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and those riding on them, the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great!”^s

¹⁹Also I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the One who sat on the horse and against His army. ²⁰Then the beast was captured, and along with him the false prophet who had performed the signs before him by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast, as well as those who had worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.^a ²¹The rest were killed with the sword coming out of the mouth of the One riding on the horse. And all the birds gorged themselves with their flesh.

The First Resurrection

¹Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key to the abyss and a great chain. ²He seized the dragon—the ancient serpent, who is the devil and satan—and bound him for a thousand years. ^b ³He also threw him into the abyss and locked and sealed it over him, so that he would not deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were completed. After these things, he must be released for a short while.

⁴Then I saw thrones, and people sat upon them—those to whom authority to judge was given. ^c And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Yeshua and because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his image, nor had they received his mark on their forehead or on their hand. And they came to life^d and reigned with the Messiah for a thousand years.

⁵The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection. ⁶How fortunate and holy is the one who has a share in the first resurrection! Over such the second death has no authority, but they shall be kohanim of God and the Messiah, and they shall reign with Him for a thousand years.

Judgment After 1000 Years

⁷When the thousand years has ended, satan shall be released from his prison, ⁸and he shall come out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for the battle. ^e Their number is like the sand of the sea. ⁹And they came up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the kedoshim and the beloved city—but fire fell from heaven and consumed them. ^f

¹⁰And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are too, and they shall be tortured day and night forever and ever.

¹¹Then I saw a great white throne, and the One seated on it. The earth and heaven fled from His presence, but no place was found for them. ¹²And I saw the dead—the great and the small—standing before the throne. The books were opened, and another book was opened—the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to what was written in the books, according to their deeds. ^g ¹³The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Sheol gave up the dead in them. Then they were each judged, each one of them, according to their deeds.

¹⁴Then death and Sheol were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death—the lake of fire. ¹⁵And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

A New Heaven and a New Earth

¹Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ^h

²I also saw the holy city—the New Jerusalem—coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ⁱ ³I also heard a loud voice from the throne, saying,

⁵And the One seated upon the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new!” Then He said, “Write, for these words are trustworthy and true.”

⁶Then He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will freely give from the spring of the water of life.^l ⁷The one who overcomes shall inherit these things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son.^m ⁸But for the cowardly and faithless and detestable and murderers and sexually immoral and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars—their lot is in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”

The New Jerusalem

⁹Then came one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls full of the seven final plagues, and he spoke with me, saying, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

¹⁰Then he carried me away in the Ruach to a great and high mountain,ⁿ and he showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, ¹¹having the glory of God—her radiance like a most precious stone, like a jasper, sparkling like crystal. ¹²She had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and above the gates twelve angels. On the gates were inscribed the names of the twelve tribes of Bnei-Yisrael—¹³three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.^o ¹⁴And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the twelve names of the twelve emissaries of the Lamb.

¹⁵The angel speaking with me had a gold measuring rod to measure the city and its gates and walls.^p ¹⁶The city is laid out as a square—its length the same as its width.
He measured the city with the rod—12,000 stadia.^q Its length and width and height are equal. ¹⁷He also measured its wall—144 cubits by human measurement, which is also an angel’s measurement. ¹⁸The material of the city’s wall was jasper, while the city was pure gold, clear as glass. ¹⁹The foundations of the city wall were decorated with every kind of precious stone—the first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; ²⁰the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, carnelian; the seventh,
yellow topaz; the eighth; beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. ²¹And the twelve gates were twelve pearls—each of the gates was from a single pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.

²²I saw no temple in her, for its Temple is ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot and the Lamb. ²³And the city has no need for the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God lights it up, and its lamp is the Lamb.^r ²⁴The nations shall walk by its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory into it.^s ²⁵Its gates shall never be shut by day,^t for there shall be no night there! ²⁶And they shall bring into it the glory and honor of the nations. ²⁷And nothing unholy^u shall ever enter it, nor anyone doing what is detestable or false,^v but only those ¹Then the angel showed me a river of the water of life—bright as crystal,^a flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb ²down the middle of the city's street. On either side of the river was a tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.^b ³No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in the city, and His servants shall serve Him. ⁴They shall see His face,^c and His name shall be on their foreheads.^d ⁵Night shall be no more, and people will have no need for lamplight or sunlight—for ADONAI Elohim will shine on them.^e And they shall reign forever and ever!

Yeshua Is Coming

⁶He said to me, “These words are trustworthy and true! ADONAI, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent His angel to show His servants what must happen soon.^f ⁷Behold, I am coming soon! How fortunate is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.”

⁸I, John, am the one hearing and seeing these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel showing me these things. ⁹But he tells me, “See that you do not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets and those keeping the words of this book. Worship God!”

¹⁰Then he tells me, “Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.^g ¹¹Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do righteousness, and the holy still be holy.^h

¹²Behold, I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me, to pay back each one according to his deeds.

¹³“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.ⁱ ¹⁴How fortunate are those who wash their robes,^j so that they may have the right to the Tree of Life^k and may enter through the gates into the city. ¹⁵Outside are the dogs and the sorcerers and the sexually immoral and the murderers and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. ¹⁶I, Yeshua, have sent My angel to testify these things to you for My communities. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star.”^l

¹⁷The Ruach and the bride say, “Come!” And let the one who hears say, “Come!” Let the one who is thirsty come—let the one who wishes freely take the water of life!^m ¹⁸I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book. If anyone adds to them, God shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book; ¹⁹and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his share in the Tree of Life and the Holy City,ⁿ which are written in this book.

²⁰The One giving testimony to these things says, “Yes! I am coming soon!” Amen! Come, Lord Yeshua!^o ²¹May the grace of the Lord Yeshua be with all!^p

The Messianic Jewish Family Bible Society Story

“... entrusted with the sayings of God”

Rabbi Paul, in the Book of Romans, reminded the mixed crowd of new believers, Jew and Gentile alike, that the Jewish people were charged with the task of preserving the Holy Scriptures from their very first calling as a “people.”

In May 2008, this project started as the desire of one small group of Rabbis' wives hoping to publish a Messianic Jewish Children's Bible. Instead, God breathed on this spark and He revitalized our “people” in a move so powerful it reunited families, destroyed disunity between our organizations and gave our movement a fresh vision of what we could accomplish TOGETHER by taking our place “on the wall around Jerusalem” alongside the Christian Church in these last days.

Originally, our desire to use “Messiah Yeshua” instead of “Jesus Christ” and the Jewish book order instead of the Christian book order for the Old Testament seemed meager goals. Few of us had any idea how big the chasm between our worlds was. But, make no mistake, Christianity is based on Judaism. There is so much more that connects us than divides us, and this text is finally finished.

Since our inception: a hope for a children's Bible became a dream for a family Bible, one translator multiplied into 32 scholars, a $5000 check gave seed to $850,000 in donations, a single translation became a collaborative work, the Greek sentence structure was restored to Hebrew sentence structure, faith turned into a verb instead of a noun, salvation became Yeshua, and peace became shalom.

Only God could have orchestrated this marvelous work. We are humbled that God would again call His people Israel to care and preserve His Holy Scriptures for yet another generation. We are honored to carry on the work of our forefathers and trust fully in God's eternal hope of salvation, Messiah Yeshua.

The goal of our 501(c)(3) organization is to translate, guard and preserve a brand new Messianic Jewish Biblical Text for generations. There is plenty more information on our website and Facebook page. And, we encourage you to read the Tree of Life Version to travel a faith journey of your own.

As the keepers of the text, we will make the Good News available on the internet and mobile devices for free for the entire world. We stand with Rabbi Paul. We are “not ashamed of the Good News, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who trusts- to the Jew first and also to the Greek.”

And one day soon, this Tree of Life Version will be the body of text inside a fully illustrated Messianic Jewish Family Bible filled with blessings for the family, storytelling headings, Messianic prophecy footnotes, book introductions and plenty of Bible helps. We want to see the Family Bible restored to the heart of every home that trusts in Messiah Yeshua.

Daniah Greenberg, President Messianic Jewish Family Bible Society

The King's University Sponsorship Declaration

“they will know us by our love, one for another”

The Messianic Jewish Family Bible Project (“MJFB”) is creating the Tree of Life Version (“TLV”) of the Hebrew Scriptures and the Jewish New Covenant. The Messianic Jewish Community has united around the common purpose of creating a new biblical text to bless the world with the opportunity to more fully read the Word of God through a Hebraic lens.

In creating this new Bible translation, the MJFB has built a diverse team of Messianic Jewish scholars selected from among our maturing movement. As guardians of the Hebrew Bible and divine revelation since the times of the Hebrew prophets and apostles, the Jewish people have been “entrusted with the sayings of God.” For the first time in modern history, Jewish believers in Jesus have chosen to fulfill this mandate in community, submitted to one another in love.

Yet, we do not want to walk alone on this journey. The call of God to preserve His Word, bless His people, and honor His land is not only for the Jew, but for all who call Yeshua (Jesus) their Lord. The Gospel is the power of God to salvation for both Jew and Gentile. All believers are partnered in Yeshua for God’s glory.

The prophetic times in which we live sound out the great need for the ministry of reconciliation. Messianic Jews and Christians walking and serving together under our Lord and Messiah Jesus demonstrate the veracity of our reconciliation to God in Yeshua. The awakening among tens of thousands of Jewish people to Yeshua in America, Israel and around the world are but the “earnest” on the pending “salvation of All Israel.” This is the hour for the Spirit’s fullness to be evident among us all as successful witness to the entire Jewish nation.

The King’s University has chosen to stand with the Messianic remnant of Israel to help complete this Bible translation out of our loving bond in Yeshua. The King’s University Chancellor, Pastor Jack Hayford, has been a spiritual father to key Jewish leaders throughout the development of the Messianic Jewish Movement. His personal commitment to nurture Messianic leaders has been international in scope and multi-generational.

Pastor Jack and The King’s University have modeled divine service in their love and support of “All Israel” and have established their faithful partnership with God as joint “blessers” of Israel. (Gen. 12:3)

The King’s University has made a firm commitment to develop an extensive Messianic Jewish Studies Program and has provided Messianic scholarships for Jewish Believers in Yeshua. By providing this platform for university-level biblical education for both Jewish and Christian students, they are blessing Israel while advancing the Kingdom of God and the restoration of the world to God through Messiah Yeshua.

Having watched the progress of the MJFB and reviewed our TLV manuscript, The King’s University is prepared to acknowledge that the developing Tree of Life Version is a sovereign work of God. Its translation has been guided by approved key principles both in keeping with God's heart and sound hermeneutics while still informed by Jewish sensibilities as required for the successful proclamation of the Good News of Messiah Yeshua to the Jewish world.

Having full confidence in The King's University's resolve to stand alongside us in our Messianic Jewish faith honoring both our Jewish heritage and the teachings of the Son of God, our Messiah Yeshua, we would be deeply honored to have the Tree of Life Bible planted firmly in the International Bible Institute.
